

Madam's 3881

Chapter 3881: I'm here to find you

Shadow looked at her and dared not speak, but in his heart he didn't think that Qiao Nian's character would come to the door to beg for mercy. He thought more than Nie Qingru.

He felt that the IPA was afraid that the comers would be unkind this time.

It's just that he saw the contempt and coldness in Nie Qingru's eyes, and it was really not good to pour cold water on her head at this time, so he had to hold back.

said softly: "Queen, should we move the Guanyan away in advance?"

Nie Qingru didn't panic at all, and waved her hand: "No need, since she asked someone to come to her door, why should I be afraid. The one who should be worried is her!"

"...Yes." The shadow became silent.

Luo Fei quickly led people into the hall and met Nie Qingru.

He had prepared himself mentally before he came. When he saw the empress, he was only briefly intimidated by her aura. Qiao Nian walked behind him and pushed him. Luo Fei immediately came to his senses and woke up from his daze. Come over and greet him with a smile.

"Queen, I take the liberty to bother you. We are from IPA, and I am Luo Fei, the person in charge of this area." He handed over his business card.

Nie Qingru took it with her hand, glanced at it with lowered eyes, and then returned it, speaking more politely: "Team leader Luo came to see me for something?"

"Ah, ahem! It's like this..." Luo Fei glanced at her, and was about to speak vaguely.

Nie Qingru looked straight at the girl following him, interrupted him abruptly, and said hello to the girl: "Heh, isn't this my good granddaughter with eyes that grow to the top of her head? Why don't you come and visit me when you have time?" me."

Luo Fei didn't know the relationship between Qiao Nian and Nie Qingru, so he looked back suddenly as if hearing a shocking secret — —

The girl raised her hand impatiently and lowered the brim of her hat to cover her cold eyes, and said casually, "Who is your name?"

Nie Qingru's face turned cold instantly: "Why, you don't even know your own grandmother?"

"Oh." Qiao Nian raised his eyes to look over, there was no trace of warmth in his dark eyes, only the alienation towards strangers remained, and he said lightly, "I don't know you."

Nie Qingru's unattractive expression turned completely cold, and her eyes were once again filled with disgust, as if she could tear Qiao Nian apart in the next second.

Luo Fei felt the tense atmosphere between the two, and immediately inserted himself between them, using his body to cover Nie Qingru's urgent gaze.

"Queen, let's talk about business."

Nie Qingru couldn't see Qiao Nian, so her impetuous emotions gradually subsided, but her attitude was not very good, so she turned and walked back: "Tell me, what's the matter?"

She originally thought that Qiao Nian was here for Guan Yan, and wanted to ask her to beg for mercy.

Just now he took the initiative to greet the other party, and he enjoyed watching the other party humiliate and admit defeat. Who knew that this evil person was still so crazy.

Qiao Nian is like an unyielding wolf cub, if she doesn't break her legs and pull out her sharp teeth, she will never know how to be afraid!

Nie Qingru thought of this, and she was already murderous towards Guan Yan in the dark prison.

"I don't have much time, and I have to attend the dinner later, Team Leader Luo, hurry up." Nie Qingru's attitude was contemptuous, but he didn't pay much attention to IPA.

Luo Fei pursed his lower lip, took out an arrest warrant from his clothes, and spread it out in front of everyone, directly asking Nie Qingru, Ying Ying and others.

"Our IPA received a report that there is a big case involving extortion, and two of the suspects are in your estate."

"..." Where is this sung?

Chapter 3882: so you admit they're in your hands

Nie Qingru, Ying Ying and other members of the hermit family didn't expect Luo Fei to come to this drama, and they didn't realize it for a while, and no one spoke.

Luo Fei continued to speak righteously: "The amount involved in this big case is as high as billions, involving three continents, and more than a dozen families. The case is very big, and our IPA is also impartial in enforcing the law. I hope that you can cooperate with us to hand over the person." come out."

He didn't wait for Nie Qingru to respond, and handed over the information he brought to the other party.

Shadow stepped forward to take the cowhide bag he handed over, took out the documents inside and read them page by page, his expression changed slightly, and he immediately looked at the girl behind Luo Fei.

The evidence in his hand was about the delivery of the ransom for Singer and others. There were two overseas accounts in it, and the heads of the accounts were Qin Si and Guan Yan.

He handed the document to Nie Qingru with a sullen face, and said softly: "Empress, take a look."

Nie Qingru read the evidence brought by Luo Fei at a glance, her cheeks twitched slightly, and she seemed very angry: "What a piece of evidence!"

They knew in their hearts that the person who blackmailed was Qiao Nian.

Qiao Nian also followed the IPA people to come to their manor to be important people under the pretext of catching extortion criminals...

True city knows how to play.

Qiao Nian blatantly played them for fools.

How could Nie Qingru and Ying Ying not feel aggrieved!

However, they all knew that since Luo Fei got such a 'evidence', Qiao Nian must have used some means to change the head of the account to Qin Si and Guan Yan.

As for how she did it, isn't it easy to do it as the first hacker?

Nie Qingru pinched the paper tightly with her fingertips until she crumpled the piece of evidence before she thought of something and said gloomily: "I know your purpose."

She turned to staring at Luo Fei with a half-smile and said: "But Team Leader Luo, you came to me to ask for someone based on this evidence, did you get the approval from the IPA headquarters?"

"for this I..."

"I know you Minister Fred."

The person in charge of the IPA headquarters is Fred. Compared with the small person in charge of Luo Fei, the two are not a heavyweight figure.

Nie Qingru saw Luo Fei's unconfident expression, and immediately understood that he might have been persuaded by Qiao Nian to act in private.

Immediately restrained the anger just now, the expression on his face changed from cloudy to clear, showing the first sincere smile today: "Shadow, go to contact the IPA headquarters. Just tell them the situation on our side and ask them It's not that you want to come to my door to ask for someone."

"!" Luo Fei's expression changed, and he subconsciously glanced sideways at the girl's reaction.

Although he had already guessed that Nie Qingru would not easily cooperate with him, and would very likely contact the IPA headquarters for an explanation.

But things really developed like this, and he still didn't know what to do.

Nie Qingru's identity is here, and it is difficult for the IPA to easily offend her. The 'evidence' Qiao Nian gave is only an economic crime and does not involve other major humanitarian crimes.

In this way, it is more likely that the headquarters will choose to detour to ease the relationship between the two parties, and ask him about the specific situation.

But if this is the case, what is the point of them coming to the manor to find Nie Qingru?

Luo Fei saw the shadow pick up the phone and go to the side to make a call, his heart was beating fast, and he became more and more uneasy.

Qiao Nian looked extremely calm, looked up at Nie Qingru, and asked softly, "So you admit that the two of them are in your hands?"

Chapter 3883: The boss of IPA is coming

Nie Qingru originally wanted her to bow her head to him, neither admitting nor denying it, she raised her eyelids condescendingly and glanced at the girl: "They are willing to work hard for you, but you are so cruel that you don't even want to bow your head for them."

"Okay, I see." Qiao Nian was not provoked by her, but nodded flatly.

Seeing her reaction, Nie Qingru faintly felt that something was wrong.

Before she had time to think about it, Shadow had already returned from the phone call.

"Queen, the people from the IPA said that Fred has come to the illegal area. He just happened to come to you and said that he is coming soon, so he asked you to wait a little longer."

Nie Qing frowned subconsciously: "..."

She refrained from saying what Fred came to her for. After all, she and Fred had a good or bad relationship, but they were nodding acquaintances of the same class.

If you have to say that she has any relationship with Fred, it probably means that there is a branch of the hidden family who has some relationship with Fred.

That family is also her staunch supporter, and they often offer treasures in front of her to please themselves.

Could it be that Fred came to her because of which tribe?

Or heard that she is also in the illegal area, come to visit out of courtesy?

Nie Qingru really couldn't understand why Fred came to the illegal area suddenly, and even came looking for him, and watched the reactions of Luo Fei and Qiao Nian vigilantly.

Qiao Nian's eyes flashed deep thought, and he didn't seem to see anything unusual.

And Luo Fei was clearly surprised written on his face, peeking at Qiao Nian's reaction.

Nie Qingru looked at it like this, but she didn't see any clues. She looked away and said firmly: "Since the person in charge of the IPA is coming, let's wait until someone comes."

Luo Fei didn't know what to do, anxiously written on his face, he looked in Qiao Nian's direction frequently, several times.

Finally, he couldn't hold his breath, and said to Nie Qingru: "Queen, can I take the people under my hand out to get some air?"

Nie Qingru's sharp gaze had already noticed Luo Fei's uneasy little movements, and he felt more at ease, and waved his hand very eloquently: "Team Leader Luo, do as you please."

Luo Fei walked up to Qiao Nian, covered his mouth with his hand, coughed, and signaled her to come out with him with a wink: "Come along."

The girl raised her hand and pulled down her peaked cap, followed him casually, and walked out of the hall under the gaze of everyone.

Luo Fei walked fast all the way, until he reached a relatively quiet corner, he immediately pulled Qiao Nian over, and said anxiously: "Oh no, I didn't expect that the person in charge of the headquarters is also in the illegal area, and he is still on his way. Once he's here, I can't make any more demands on them as an IPA..."

He is only a small person in charge of a region in IPA, but Fred is the head of the entire IPA and also his immediate boss.

To put it bluntly, their current situation is like him coming out to do private work in the name of the company without telling the company, only to turn around and bump into the boss.

The society is dead to the extreme!

Luo Fei didn't care whether he died or not. He was even more worried about Qin Si's safety: "This road won't work, so let's find another way..."

"Are you sure Fred is on the side of the Hermit Family?" Qiao Nian turned his wrist at this moment and asked abruptly.

Luo Fei was stunned: "What do you mean?"

The expression on his face was stunned for a moment, and then he didn't know where to go, showing a suddenly realized expression, and said in surprise: "You mean you found our leader?"

Chapter 3884: Luo Fei was frightened silly by sister Nians backhand

Qiao Nian met his surprised eyes, and broke his illusion expressionlessly: "I don't know the boss of IPA."

Luo Feibai was pleasantly surprised, his face collapsed with joy, he looked at her complicatedly for several times before he hesitated to say: "Sun, now is not the time to joke. Please be more direct next time, don't half-talk, which made me happy in vain."

Qiao Nian didn't care about him, but lowered his eyes to think.

Before Nie Qingru observed her, she also observed Nie Qingru's reaction.

She saw that when Nie Qingru heard that Fred was coming to visit, a trace of surprise flashed across his face. Although Nie Qingru immediately realized that his emotions were exposed, and immediately restrained the trace of surprise, she was still accurately captured by her. .

Judging from Nie Qingru's facial emotional reaction, Qiao Nian judged that Nie Qingru didn't know Fred very well. Two people who don't know each other very well, but Fred personally came to visit... It's hard to avoid people thinking too much!

Based on this point, Qiao Nian asked Luo Fei whether the IPA was on the side of the Hermit Family? But obviously, Luo Fei's level doesn't know the idea above.

Qiao Nian shook his head and said to him, "Go back first."

"No." Luo Fei became impatient after being stunned, blocked the girl's way, and said in a hurry: "We finally came out, and you haven't told me what to do next."

He meant that when the person in charge came, they would have no room for change.

It would be best for Qiao Nian to get to the bottom of it with him here, and we can discuss ways to discuss it.

Luo Fei simply put it bluntly: "Sun, what is your backhand?"

"..." Qiao Nian rarely needs to report his arrangements to others.

She looked at the arm blocking her, stopped, and looked into his eyes patiently, with no emotion in her dark eyes.

Luo Fei's aura was mostly weakened by her look, and his voice also slowed down: "I'm just... worried about Young Master Qin. After all, I was not careful enough this time. If he loses his life, I will have a bad conscience for the rest of my life. "

Qiao Nian's frosty eyes finally softened, put his hands in his pockets, his voice was hoarse from sleep: "I'll come in with you first to make sure Guan Yan and Qin Si are still here, and then..."

Luo Fei pulled himself together, knowing that the next step was the key point.

Qiao Nian sneered, her eyes were dry, she licked her dry lips, and acted extremely surly: "Then I arranged a large-scale missile weapon outside, and if the two sides can't reach an agreement, then we will just burn this place to the ground! "

The flower arm is responsible for this peripheral transport of weapons and precise projection.

She had explained clearly to Huayi before she came that she brought a jammer, which is very small, but as long as the switch is pressed, it will affect the nearby electromagnetic fluctuations.

Outside the Hongmeng, headed by Flower Arm, will use electromagnetic fluctuations as signals to launch missiles and lethal weapons to bomb here.

This is also the perfect signal plan that Qiao Nian prepared before coming in to prevent Nie Qingru's signal jammer here.

Qiao Nian looked down and said coldly: "During this process, I will work with you to find people as soon as possible and take them out."

"Qin Si has already told me the exact location of Guan Yan, when the time comes you go to meet Guan Yan, I will find someone."

"..." Luo Fei was dumbfounded, his brain was so dizzy that he couldn't function, and he couldn't believe his ears for a while.

He repeated with his tongue open: "This, is this the backhand you came up with?"

Chapter 3885: Big guys are playing with weapons if they disagree

Qiao Nian asked him arrogantly, "No?"

Luo Fei fell silent, not knowing what to say for a long time.

It's not that Qiao Nian's backhand is not strong enough, it's because he's too * fierce! A little too much!

He has been in the IPA for most of his life, and the IPA pays attention to the rules and regulations. For example, if I have something to do with you, I will issue you the relevant procedures, and then discuss with you. In short, no one will play missiles when they come up.

That thing is a missile, not a marble!

Luo Fei's facial muscles twitched and twitched: "But we are making such a big commotion in the illegal area, among other things, Guan Yan and Qin Si will be in danger if it happens like this."

Qiao Nian put his hands in his pockets and looked at him very calmly: "So this is the second move I prepared, not the first move."

"..." God TM makes sense.

Emotional boss, you have restrained yourself.

Luo Fei had mixed feelings in his heart, an indescribable feeling.

The way he looked at Qiao Nian now didn't show the disbelief he felt when he saw Qiao Nian's too young age and pretty eye-catching face at first, and the idea that he couldn't connect Qiao Nian with the legendary sun.

He is almost forty years old, and he doesn't have the guts of a twenty-year-old.

This is overkill!

As expected of a boss.

"Then let's wait for the boss to come." Luo Fei thought about it and could only think in the best way, and said slowly: "In case he doesn't side with the Hermit Family, I will explain it to him. "

"Yeah." Qiao Nian didn't think to do it so quickly, so he responded, raised his eyes and said to Luo Fei, "Let's go, let's go back."

Luo Fei watched her leaving back, so he had no choice but to raise his legs and follow her step by step.

When he came out, he was the one who anxiously asked Qiao Nian if he wanted to back up. Now that he knew what Sun was planning to do, he was the one who was so frightened that he wanted to go slower and not go back. He was afraid that if Qiao Nian was unhappy, a missile would fly past him...

During the time when Luo Fei took Qiao Nian out, Nie Qingru went upstairs with an excuse to change clothes, and frowned again to contact IPA.

She has acquaintances in the IPA, and asked the other party why Fred suddenly came to the illegal area.

It's just that Fred came too hastily this time, and the IPA staff didn't know why Fred suddenly flew to the illegal area.

Nie Qingru hung up the phone after exchanging pleasantries with the other party.

She has a strong desire for control, and is used to taking things 100% in her own hands, and does not allow unexpected situations. So Nie Qingru found out Fred's personal phone number and called after a short thought.

"beep..."

When she called, she heard the rustling of electricity.

got through.

Nie Qingru walked to the floor-to-ceiling window, clutched the phone tightly, and waited for the other party to answer the phone with a solemn face.

But once again things got out of her hands - Fred didn't answer the call!

Nie Qingru listened to the phone ringing more than a dozen times and hung up automatically, and a mechanical female voice came out: "Sorry, the call you dialed is temporarily unanswered."

She hung up the phone resolutely, took the phone away, frowned completely, and stared at the blurry shadow projected on the floor-to-ceiling window glass, not sure whether Fred didn't answer her call on purpose, or the phone wasn't with him...

Nie Qingru maintains her honorable status.

Although she wanted to find out why Fred came to visit her, since no one answered the first call.

Because of her face, she didn't persevere in calling the other party like an ordinary person, and insisted on the other party answering.

Chapter 3886: The reason why Fred doesn't answer the phone

The other side, meanwhile.

A black Lincoln is galloping on the spacious road in the illegal area, the scenery on both sides moves backward rapidly, and the car drives fast and steadily.

The driver of the car was obviously Ji Lin who had been busy for the past two days, and there were two men in formal suits sitting side by side in the back row of him.

Ye Wangchuan's brows and eyes are gentle, even if he is wearing a formal suit, he can't hide the lazy and noble temperament in his bones, and he leans on the back of the chair leisurely and looks at the green belt galloping outside the window.

The man sitting next to him was a little older, wearing a black suit engraved on his body, with a black tie around the neckline, which looked like a black face.

During the period, the phone of the older man rang for a while, but he took out his phone and looked down to see the caller ID, so he put the phone aside and refused to answer it.

Until the car was quiet again.

Ye Fanchuan turned his head to look at the scenery outside, turned his head, looked at him with deep eyes, raised his nose and raised his brows: "Don't answer?"

Fred put the phone back again, raised his eyes and smiled angrily when he asked him: "You asked me for this kind of help, how do you ask me to answer other people's calls?"

His name sounds like a Westerner at first glance.

However, in terms of his facial features, he is more oriental, with black hair and yellow skin, and even his eyeballs are typical black for people from continent Y.

It's just that his outline is much deeper than that of ordinary Y state people, and his eye sockets are also deep. With a tall and big nose, he can see some shadows of mixed race.

"If I didn't owe your aunt a favor, I really don't want to care about you!" Fred said harshly in anger.

However, his harsh words did not have any effect on Ye Wangchuan.

Ye Wangchuan didn't even raise his eyelids, so he blocked him back: "If you want to be my uncle in your lifetime, you must not do me a little favor."

Fred: "..."

Ye Wangchuan still didn't let him go, and teased him in a relaxed tone: "It's not so easy to be an uncle in our Beijing city."

"I didn't even catch anyone..." Fred complained, but his face had actually softened, showing that Ye Wangchuan had grasped his weakness.

Ye Wangchuan clicked his tongue, and looked out of the window again, Yang Shen didn't seem to want to talk anymore.

On the contrary, Fred was confused by his few words, and after a few minutes, he couldn't help himself to start talking: "I have been chasing your aunt for almost three years, and every time she says that I am older than her. Little rejected me, I am not much younger than her. We are only seven or eight years apart, how normal in love. Why does she just refuse to accept me? "

He met Ye Lan when he was dealing with an emergency mission in a small European country, and Ye Lan helped him decisively and intelligently.

He fell in love with this calm and wise oriental woman, and then pursued passionately.

Ye Lan was not aware of his pursuit at first, and would go out to eat and hang out with him, until he expressed his intention, Ye Lan began to avoid him, as if his pursuit was some kind of scourge, and refused to accept his intention at all...

Fred looks like an oriental person in outline, but in fact he still received a western education in his bones, and he is passionate and unrestrained in emotion.

He didn't quite understand Ye Lan's reasons for rejecting him every time.

In his concept, as long as two people have feelings for each other, they can be together, and he obviously doesn't care that Ye Lan is seven years older than him.

And Ye Lan is well maintained, they can't tell the age difference when they go out...

Chapter 3887: Black Belly Lord Online Calculation

He didn't know what Ye Lan was thinking about, but he respected the other party's opinion. In the past three years, the pursuit was the pursuit, and he didn't make much noise to embarrass Ye Lan.

But during these three years of contact, the more he understands, the more he is attracted to this independent woman, and he really wants to have further opportunities with her.

He also felt that Ye Lan didn't completely reject him, which was also interesting.

During this process, he met Ye Lan for dinner and met Ye Wangchuan several times, and got to know Ye Wangchuan and others in a disguised form.

If Ye Wangchuan didn't find him, he actually wanted to take the time to visit him.

"You said that if I visit your old man at your house during Chinese New Year...will your aunt be angry?" Fred didn't know many people in Beijing very well.

He probably heard from his friends that in order to pursue a woman, he needs to bring gifts and go to the door more often to make him look familiar.

However, Ye Lan and him are in a special situation, and he doesn't know whether he should go, whether he can go, or whether it is suitable for him to go.

Ye Wangchuan finally gave him a look, crossed his arms, and said with an inexplicable expression: "If you can help this time, the old man may want to see you, and my aunt will not be angry with you... The premise is that you can help, I will also help you, we have a happy cooperation."

Fred looked deeply into his eyes, unable to express the feeling in his heart. After thinking about it, he still said: "Then you can only cooperate with me. If someone else comes to you, you can't reach an agreement with others."

He was afraid that Ye Fanchuan would look for someone else for Ye Lan when he turned around.

Ye Wangchuan probably saw through his thoughts, and raised the corners of his mouth: "Don't worry, I'm not so boring. Another thing, even if I help you, you may not be able to catch up with my aunt. Since she refuses you, it means there is something wrong with her." Your own concerns...you can work hard, but the chances are slim."

Fred said disapprovingly: "Since I like her, I will show my sincerity. If my sincerity can't impress her, then I bless and respect her choice."

Ye Wangchuan glanced at him and stopped talking.

He is not the kind of character who would sell Ye Lan for a small favor.

Fred could see that Ye Lan was interested in him, and Ye Fanchuan could also see that Ye Lan was actually loose in his heart.

It's just that Ye Lan's last marriage was not happy, her husband died early, and her only daughter also died young after meeting someone unkind.

For so many years, Ye Lan is used to being alone, supporting most of the Ye family.

In Beijing, she is also known as the eldest lady in the population.

In addition, she has to take care of her grandson for her daughter. Although Ye Lan is not too old, she is well maintained and dresses in a cool and independent style.

In fact, it's not that she hasn't met good peach blossoms over the years, but she hardly gives others a chance, nor does she give herself a chance.

Until Fred...

Ye Lan rejected him, but also treated him differently.

At least it was the first time Ye Fanchuan saw her having dinner with her suitor, and he introduced it to him without hesitation. Although Ye Lan introduced Fred as a "friend" he met abroad, this friend is already special.

He came to ask Fred for help this time, and secondly, he also created an opportunity for the two to match up.

As for whether Ye Lan and Fred can go to the end in the future...he won't get involved, and it's up to Ye Lan to decide whether to take that step or not.

The black car is still driving smoothly.

Ye Wangchuan Shi Shiran leaned on the back of the chair: "Then you should show your sincerity to impress her, and do me a little favor by the way..."

Chapter 3888: We detain them reasonably and legally

In the manor.

Shadow arranged for servants to make tea and bring it up.

He specially put a cup for Qiao Nian. He thought that the other party would not dare to touch the things here, but unexpectedly, the girl picked up the cup and drank it as if she didn't care.

Shadow choked for a moment, put a cup of tea in front of Luo Fei with a sullen face, and said in a deep voice, "Group leader Luo, your tea."

Unlike Qiao Nian, Luo Fei was used to being a maverick, and thanked him stiffly: "I'm sorry to trouble you."

Shadow straightened up: "No trouble."

He only brought tea to the two of them alone, as for the IPA group that came with Luo Fei, the servants of the manor served tea and poured water.

The brothers who followed Luo Fei didn't expect that things would turn into the current situation, and they didn't know what to do for a while.

They couldn't find a suitable opportunity to ask Luo Fei, so they had to hold back their temper and sit in their seats and drink water irritably.

Looks fell on Luo Fei frequently, and they used their eyes to hint that Luo Fei would let everyone know the bottom line, what should they do next...

Every time Luo Fei met the winks from them, he used a cup to cover the corner of his mouth to avoid his eyes, and he didn't dare to look at them at all.

Because he now knows what Qiao Nian is planning to do, he really can't speak to his brothers.

What can he say?

Can he tell everyone that Sun has arranged people outside, ready to blow up here at any time?

Isn't this troublesome?

Luo Fei drank his cup of tea in a restless mood, looked at Qiao Nian for a while, and looked outside fidgeting for a while, worried that Qiao Nian would do something, and worried that Fred would come too fast.

He thought about it, and still wanted to resolve the crisis on his own, so he put the teacup on the table, suddenly got up and said to Shadow: "Actually, we are here today to ask for two suspects, everyone, take a step back, it's convenient..."

Shadow was blocked by him, lowered his eyelids, and rejected Luo Fei's request with a very high posture: "The person in charge of the IPA will be here soon, Team Leader Luo should sit down and wait."

"No, I..." Luo Fei wanted to say, what are you waiting for, the lethal weapons arranged outside? Wait for the missile to fly over everyone's Tianling Gai?

Shadow didn't understand it that way, he only asked himself these confession words when he was guilty and anxious, and interrupted him righteously: "You IPA brought evidence to find our important person, group leader Luo is afraid that some person in charge will come over. Unless...that piece of evidence you brought was forged? The prisoner was someone else."

When he said this, he inadvertently glanced at Qiao Nian who was sitting there playing with his mobile phone.

Qiao Nian could feel his eyes on her face, but she didn't bother to pay attention, and focused on playing Tetris.

The signal here is really bad.

Only the mobile phones of people in the manor can connect to the signal, and the mobile phones brought by outsiders like them cannot access the Internet.

Fortunately, Qiao Nian didn't have to go online, he just played his own little puzzle game.

Luo Fei saw the shadow and looked at Qiao Nian several times, but Qiao Nian sat there lazily and refused to look at him. He became more and more anxious, lest he would offend Qiao Nian.

"You can check the authenticity of the evidence!" Luo Fei stepped forward to block the shadow's sight, insisting: "We showed the evidence, but you refused to hand it over. Could it be that you have a reason for refusing to hand it over? Illegal Detention is also a crime..."

Shadow was well prepared, and he didn't want to follow him at all. He said calmly: "These two people broke into the manor illegally. We need to check whether they have stolen anything. As long as we are within 24 hours, it is reasonable and legal. IPA seems to be out of control."."

Chapter 3889: Luo Fei is about to die of fear

"..." Luo Fei choked.

Ying continued: "One more thing, Team Leader Luo did show us relevant 'evidence', but what we want is formalities."

He looked at Luo Fei with contempt, which was caused by the arrogance in his bones: "After all, the empress has a special status, and no one can check it if she wants to. If she wants someone, she will come to ask for someone!"

He just pointed at Luo Fei's nose and said clearly—Your level is not enough!

But the arrogance in the words reveals the meaning of what he didn't say to the fullest.

This is the common arrogance of hidden families!

Luo Fei's face turns blue and turns red and turns white. He clenched his hands into fists, trying to control his emotions so as not to quarrel with the shadow.

The people brought by the IPA saw that he was so humiliated, and they couldn't swallow this breath, and their expressions were angry.

Shadow didn't pay attention to them, and said coldly: "The queen is still resting on it, please wait a little longer."

Luo Fei was so angry that his shoulders trembled, and he wished so angrily to stop him from leaving.

Qiao Nian cleared another round at this time, put down the phone, raised her eyelashes slightly, the crow black eyelashes were extremely cold and long, and her black pupils looked at the domineering shadow.

"How long we have to wait?"

Shadow was very rude to Luo Fei and the others. Facing Qiao Nianshi, he said a word, but he didn't dare to be abrupt, and fell silent.

Luo Fei was so angry that he was dying, but when Qiao Nian interrupted him abruptly, his scalp tightened, and he remembered the missile that could fly over his head at any time.

He suddenly forgot to be angry, and hurriedly smoothed things in the middle: "Ahem, Joe, Qiao Nian. Forget it, it's all here..."

Qiao Nian glanced at him, but she didn't seem to want to delve into it for the sake of face.

Luo Fei felt his scalp go numb at the first glance, afraid that this ancestor would be unhappy, so he moved his lips to accompany his smiling face: "...it should, it should be soon."

He still forgot the 'hatred' before, winking at the shadow until the corners of his eyes twitched: "Really?"

Shadow frowned, contemptuous of his behavior, and reluctantly nodded: "Mr. Fred is on his way."

Luo Fei breathed a sigh of relief, turned his head and said to the girl, "Look, let me tell you!"

"Team leader..." Everyone in the IPA couldn't understand what he was doing. It wasn't the team leader who stopped him from asking questions, so Qiao Nian followed him.

Why is he more anxious than the members of the Hermit Family?

Everyone looked at him hesitantly: "You, are you okay?"

Luo Fei glared at him, extremely fierce, and wanted to ask back: What can I do.

But he knew in his heart why other people looked at him with such weird expressions. If he didn't know the inside story, he probably thought he was a psychopath.

But he can't tell everyone the truth.

Luo Fei had a difficult time to describe, so he could only hold it in his heart.

"I'm fine."

What Luo Fei urged was left alone.

Shadow went upstairs to visit Nie Qingru to see why she hadn't come down from the room.

In the extravagantly decorated hall, only the IPA people and the manor servants who come up to refill tea and water from time to time are left.

Everyone doesn't know each other, so they can only talk to each other in silence.

Luo Fei wanted to find Qiao Nian and try to persuade him, but even if no one was here, he knew in his heart that surveillance was everywhere.

Their every move must be under the nose of others.

As a regional leader, he doesn't even understand this common sense, so he makes a joke.

Luo Fei had no choice but to be patient and patient, and the honest three or five sneaked a few glances at Qiao Nian from time to time.

Chapter 3890: Fred still doesn't know about the relationship between Sister Nian and Master Wa

Qiao read to him to save face, then lowered his head and opened the next level to break through. His cold and slender fingers swipe the screen methodically, showing no panic at all.

Here, she is the calmest, as calm as visiting relatives during the Chinese New Year.

Luo Fei swallowed, his heart shrank a little, he looked at the girl playing Tetris with a sad face and didn't know what to do.

Time passed by one minute and one second.

Neither Nie Qingru nor Shadow came down during the period.

Nie Qingru seemed to want to give Luo Fei and Qiao Nian a blow, expressing his contempt for Luo Fei's identity with practical actions.

According to her status, Luo Fei's status as a small IPA person in charge is really not enough.

But Qiao Nian also came.

She still does her own thing.

It can be seen that she took advantage of Qiao Nian's "weakness" and was very ignorant of others, clearly she wanted to sharpen Qiao Nian's spirit first!

The black Lincoln car slowly drove through the carved iron gate of the manor and entered the manor.

Fred came to the manor in the illegal area for the first time. When he turned his head and saw the green fountain inside, he couldn't help but sigh with emotion: "The people in these illegal areas are rich."

Ye Wangchuan just glanced at the outside environment lightly, then withdrew his gaze, straightened his cufflinks indifferently, and lazily replied: "It's okay."

Fred glanced at him, with a complicated expression, and muttered: "I almost forgot that you are also a rich man. Your business in State F..."

As the international director of IPA, Fred committed the same old problem again, and wanted to mention a few words when he caught these big guys.

Ji Lin had parked his car firmly in front of the beautiful building at this time, turned his head and said to the two: "Mr. Wang, we are here."

Fred was halfway through speaking, but when he came to his senses, he forgot what he wanted to say before, and subconsciously answered Ji Lin: "Ah, that's it?"

"It has arrived."

Ji Lin unbuckled his seat belt and got out of the car to open the door for them.

Ye Wangchuan didn't use his help, he pushed the door and got out of the car.

Fred took a step back, and Ji Lin opened the car door for him. He thanked him and stepped on the ground firmly with his leather shoes, looking at the splendid European-style castle building in front of him.

The building in front of me imitates the construction of a medieval castle. It is surrounded by mountains and rivers and is very luxurious. The design of more than ten floors shows the status of the owner everywhere.

"Tsk." Fred is not a person who pursues material things. He couldn't help being shocked when he saw the building in front of him, and said with emotion: "Seeing this house, I finally understand why so many people will go to any lengths for wealth and status... Really The temptation of money and status is too great!"

He thought that Ye Wangchuan didn't know Nie Qingru's secret, so he turned to Ye Wangchuan and said, "You don't know yet, do you? The empress of the hermit family is a ruthless character. I think she was able to get the support of the Privy Council when she sat on the No. One person will not let go of his own daughter..."

Ji Lin has already returned to Ye Wangchuan's side, and saw with his own eyes that his master Wang gently raised his eyelids, and replied as if he didn't know it: "Really?"

Fred thought he really didn't know, and before the people inside came out, he faintly excitedly shared this secret gossip with him.

"it is true."

"I was in Continent F at the time, and I heard from my colleagues that the scientist died so tragically that there was no body left."

"That scientist has a long history, and he is committed to charity. He is a good person. The friends around him are of extraordinary identities, but they died at such a young age."
