

Madam's 3931

Chapter 3931: Jane: I'm leaving

Ji Lin let alone said: "Master Wang, I can't go by myself. Besides, if everyone doesn't go, I can't go out alone."

Ye Wangchuan swept around the people with firm expressions, and didn't give them a chance to accompany him to die: "My meaning is also Qiao Nian's meaning."

Ye Wangchuan didn't give a few people a chance to refute, and the thick black melted into a pool of spring water: "She won't let you die with me here...don't let me do what you can't do."

Guan Yan and Jian Jin Qiqi remained silent.

Jian Jin was the first to act, stood up straight, looked at him seriously, with a serious face: "You understand?"

Ye Wangchuan gave her a quiet look in his eyes.

"Okay." Jian Jin nodded, and got the answer: "You just need to understand."

The two of them talked half-covered, Qin Si frowned. Before he could ask, Jian Jin turned to the others and said, "I will follow Young Master Ye's arrangement."

"You..." Ji Lin looked at her impolitely.

Jian Jin shrugged her shoulders and met their suspicious eyes: "I know what you are thinking, and I also know that some of you don't fully believe me. I did come here for QIAO, and I am ready to die here tonight. But we You have to respect the wishes of the parties, don't you?"

"Young Master Ye himself said it all, telling us not to impose our own ideas on him. He doesn't want to make decisions that QIAO himself would not make here. Then I will follow the arrangement and leave. Is there a problem?"

All those present, including Ji Lin, were left speechless by her question, unable to refute for a long time.

Qin Si looked at Ye Wangchuan with a moved face, and pinched his brows together to form the word "Chuan", and said in a deep voice, "Do you really want to stay alone?"

Seeing his red eyes, Ye Wangchuan chuckled, leaned back and leaned against the wall, quite lazily: "Don't look at me like that, make it look like I'm going to die soon. "

Qin Si didn't speak, but his eyes said it all.

"..."Is not it? !

The smile lines on the corners of Ye Wangchuan's lips faded away, his black eyes were like a stream of deep rivers and seas, and he said softly: "Don't worry, I don't want to die that much yet. I will try my best to wait for Moxi to come over."

He promised to read Joe a wedding that everyone would envy. Before fulfilling this promise, he doesn't want to die, let alone die...

At this time, Guan Yan interrupted the communication of everyone.

"They're coming up!"

The atmosphere suddenly dropped to freezing point.

Everyone's eyes fell on Ye Wangchuan involuntarily.

Ye Wangchuan got up and straightened his clothes, picked up the smoke bombs that had been placed on the wall before, raised the weapon and said to the others without turning his head: "Jane Jin said what I wanted to say. This is my wish , everyone please cooperate."

Ji Lin cried out with grief all over his face: "Master Wang."

Ye Wangchuan walked without turning his head, and without stopping in his footsteps.

Ji Lin looked at his back and wanted to say something else.

was dragged away by Qin Si, handed him a weapon, and said coldly: "Don't you understand? This is what he wants us to do."

Ji Lin was still unwilling to leave.

Qin Si gritted his teeth again and said in a low voice: "Only when we go out, will we have the chance to cooperate with Moxili to save people. Besides sending you to death, is there any other purpose for you to stay inside?"

Ji Lin also reacted, clenched the gun in his hand: "Young Master Qin, what do you mean..."

Qin Si grew up overnight, looked at the man's back, and said sadly: "It's useless to be angry for a while, we must fight for him to win a bigger chance."

Chapter 3932: Only Wang Ye is left alone

His idea is very simple.

Since Ye Fanchuan won't let them stay, they will leave.

In case there is still a chance to get close to Lu Zhi after rushing out, as long as one of them can control Lu Zhi, will these people inside dare to mess around?

Guan Yan glanced at him and said, "I've grown up."

Qin Si must have talked to her in the past, but now Ye Wangchuan is alone to give them a chance to break out of the siege.

He really wasn't in the mood to take it seriously like before, so he wasn't in the mood to argue with Guan Yan, his mind was full of how to get close to Lu Zhi...

Outside, Ye Fanchuan didn't know how to do it.

I only heard the crackling below, as if it had fallen down, and then someone shouted: "Damn, it's a bomb! Get down!"

They heard Ye Wangchuan's calm command: "Go!"

Jian Jin, Guan Yan, Qin Si and others immediately ran towards the stairs.

When I entered my eyes, I saw a thick fog covering the stairs, and I could only see a few people lying on the ground in the nearest place, wailing on the ground.

Someone noticed Guan Yan and the others, and immediately shouted: "Sans, they want to run!"

Before he finished speaking, he saw a pair of shoes staying beside him, and then someone squatted down, pinching his neck with cold and slender fingers, he met the man's cold and domineering eyes, without giving him any time to react, the muzzle of the gun was cold Aim at his forehead and pull the trigger.

"Boom!"

This time the muzzle was not equipped with a muffler.

Everyone present could hear the gunfire.

The man fell in a pool of blood.

And Ye Wangchuan calmly stood up from the ground, looked at the rioting crowd at the stairs, and said coldly: "There must be someone in Lu Zhi who ordered you not to touch the Red League people? If you don't want to accidentally injure yourself, don't shoot randomly. "

He looked back and gave Guan Yan and the others a look, signaling them to go first, and he stayed behind.

Guan Yan took a deep breath, looked at Jian Jin with deep eyes, and finally pursed his lips and rushed into the thick fog...

Jian Jin pushed Qin Si and Ji Lin to walk in the middle, and walked at the back by herself. Before she rushed into the thick fog, she turned her head and glanced at the man standing on the steps.

"I finally understand why QIAO firmly chose you."

also face choices.

Boss Lu has always been obsessed with his own feelings, but Ye Wangchuan is different. At this moment, what Ye Wangchuan thinks of is Qiao Nian's feelings.

The reason why they stayed was because Qiao Nian wanted them to protect him.

The reason why he sent them away was because he didn't want Qiao Nian to lose his friends and partners.

She is also a woman.

Similarly as a woman, if she has to choose between two men who are almost excellent but have completely different styles of doing things, she will make the same choice as QIAO.

Ye Fanchuan is suitable for dating.

Because this man knows how to pamper others.

Boss Lu loves a lot, but he doesn't know how to love.

A man who can love and dote on and a man who can't love and express love, a fool knows who to choose.

Jian Jin said before leaving: "Hold on, QIAO is heading this way. You must at least see her before talking."

"Know."

Ye Fanchuan raised his eyes dangerously half-closed his eyes, watched her step into the thick fog created by the smoke bombs, and disappeared at the stairs until he disappeared.

Everyone sent away.

He will have to stall for time by himself next.

**

10,000 feet above the sky.

Qiao Nian is driving the helicopter and is almost arriving at the destination.

She received a message from Jian Jin—[Young Master Ye stayed at the headquarters alone, and we all came out. ]

Chapter 3933: What a good dog of the hidden family

Qiao Nian scanned the text message at a glance, her beautiful face sank, her eyes were dark without a trace of light, only coldness remained.

"How long before we get there."

The pilot sitting in the co-pilot looked at the numbers on the dashboard, calculated the flight speed and distance in his mind, and finally came up with the answer, looking over: "It will take ten more minutes."

"Ten minutes." Qiao Nian lowered her eyes, her eyelashes slightly lowered to cover the emotions in her eyes, suppressing the violent aura around her.

But the co-pilot sitting next to her could still feel the girl's irritability, and immediately lowered his sense of existence.

sun just looked at the phone and his face became very ugly, so what happened?

Qiao Nian didn't have mind reading skills and didn't know what the passenger on the co-pilot was thinking, so naturally she couldn't answer his doubts.

Outside the Hongmeng headquarters where Lu Zhi is located.

The person inside bent down and lowered his voice to report the situation to him: "Mr. Lu, those people broke out using smoke bombs."

"Do you want to take them all..." The visitor wiped his neck.

Lu Zhi looked up at him and put his hands on his knees: "Did you forget my order?"

The man was so frightened that he almost slipped and knelt on the ground: "I'm sorry Mr. Lu, I'm sorry."

Fortunately, Lu Zhi didn't mean to argue with him, so he raised his hand and told him, "Get lost."

"..." That person didn't dare to stay for a second, and he didn't turn his head when he left, lest he would offend this moody boss.

Ying also walked over quickly at this time, stood still in front of him and said, "Why doesn't President Lu do anything?"

Lu Zhi said very flatly: "I said that I can't touch people of the Red League. Besides, my assistant is still inside, how do you want me to do it?"

"But Ye Fanchuan may also be inside!" Shadow was emotional.

Lu Zhi glanced at his dancing face, but remained unmoved: "So the empress wants to unilaterally tear up the cooperation?"

Shadow choked, and said with a livid face, "I didn't mean that."

"That's good." Lu Zhi turned the wheelchair and walked back, the wind blew his voice away: "I won't touch her people, my goal is only Ye Wangchuan."

This Lu Zhi is a lunatic! Shadow suppressed his anger and walked aside to call Nie Qingru to report the progress here.

Tonight's time seems to be stretched infinitely.

Qin Si, Guan Yan and others would be surrounded by Lu Zhi's people who had already received the news as soon as they came out. They didn't see Lu Zhi, but they saw a shadow in a black suit walking over.

Qin Si yelled when he saw the shadow appearing: "The good dog of the Hidden Family!"

Dozens of guns were pointed at their heads in the dark outside, and it was only at this time that he could still curse at people without changing his face.

"Big temper." Shadow squinted his eyes, looked at him with gloom and said, "Mr. Lu only said to keep Hongmeng and Jianzhu, but he didn't say to take care of you. I can send you on your way at any time."

Guan Yan didn't say much, and stepped forward to block Qin Si, his peach eyes slightly raised, and said bravely: "If you want to move him, you move me first."

Shadow raised his brows, his eyes flicked around the two of them: "Oh, I can't see that people from the Hongmeng can still look at the son and brother from Beijing."

Qin Si wanted to make a move immediately, but was blocked by Guan Yan, who made a gesture behind his back to wait for him, while calmly talking to the shadow.

"Where's Lu Zhi? I want to see him."

"President Lu is not free."

Chapter 3934: everyone is working hard

Guan Yan was not discouraged and said: "He and our boss are good friends, why should he give us an explanation for such a big commotion tonight?"

Shadow smiled and said: "You're wrong. Tianchen didn't participate. Tonight is a private agreement between Mr. Lu and our empress. He owed our empress a favor and had to lend us some manpower. We will do it tonight." It's us."

"Heh." Guan Yan looked at him deeply: "Do you believe what you say?"

Shadow squinted his eyes and looked over, and suddenly said after a while: "Are you delaying time?"

Guan Yan didn't seem to respond, but she could actually see her curling her fingers. This is a natural reaction when people are nervous.

Shadow noticed her small movements at that moment with sharp eyes, and looked past them to the western-style building behind, where there was the sound of firefighting.

Because the radio signal inside was cut off, he didn't know the specific situation for the time being.

But Qin Si, Jian Jin, and others were all outside, and only Ye Fanchuan was left inside. He didn't think that one person could cause much trouble.

So his eyes were filled with sarcasm, he looked at Guan Yan and the others and said softly: "You don't think Ye Wangchuan can come out alive, do you?"

"What a joke!"

He said so and did so.

The shadow sneered mercilessly: "He is a man, not a god. Tonight, if God comes, he will go to hell! It is useless for you to procrastinate. The queen just wants to teach Joe a lesson, not to mention that he has spoiled the queen's good things many times. He courted death by himself!"

"You fucking..." Ji Lin burst out and drew his gun.

The dozens of guns aimed at them were loaded immediately.

The scene is about to explode.

Fortunately, Jian Jin stood up and grabbed Ji Lin's muzzle and pressed it down. She stepped forward and intimidated the people surrounding them: "Keep your dog eyes wide open to see who I am! Let's see who dares to do it! Tonight If anyone makes a move, as long as I, Jian Jin, survive, I will definitely remember him and take revenge on his family at all costs!"

The muzzles aimed at them shifted, and Lu Zhi's people began to look at each other, not knowing what to do.

They know Jian Jin, and their attitude towards Jian Jin must be different from ordinary people.

Jian Jin's harsh words, anyone who dares to ignore them and let them go.

Shadow saw that everyone was shaken by Jian Jin in just a few words, and his complexion was extremely ugly, so he also reminded in a deep voice: "Don't forget who your master is!"

The two sides turned into a confrontation scene.

No one will let anyone else.

The people who surrounded Jian Jin were mainly from Lu Zhi's people. Lu Zhi's words were not allowed to hurt Guan Yan and Jian Jin, and with Jian Jin's harsh words, no one dared to forcefully arrest people for a while.

Although the process was different from what they thought, it really delayed the time.

It was just the sound of explosions coming from the western-style building behind them, and the sound of firefighting was tormenting Qin Si and the others' hearts every minute and every second.

Besides procrastinating here, they couldn't see Lu Zhi, and there was no other good way to save people, so they could only hope that Wang Ye could persevere.

Five minutes is just a blink of an eye in normal times, not enough to eat a bowl of noodles or play a game... But when life and death are on the line, five minutes is long enough, long enough to experience life and death several times.

Ye Wangchuan had to hold down dozens of people by himself, and it was very difficult for him. These people were not randomly found by Lu Zhi, but the people on the dangerous list with rich actual combat experience.

Chapter 3935: Catch alive or kill on the spot

He was accidentally shot in the right shoulder, **** flowers bloomed on the shirt immediately, and the color of the rose-colored thin lips quickly faded.

Someone below saw it, and immediately shouted excitedly: "He's been shot! Quick! Continue to suppress him with firepower!"

The young man's eyes were bloodshot. Hearing the good news, he made a 'continue' gesture and said solemnly, "Don't give him a chance!"

No wonder they were so excited.

This Y is really good at playing.

Many of their brothers were folded here, and if this continues, they might all have to stay and be buried with them.

This defeats their original intention.

They originally wanted to rely on the large number of people to control the loss within 1-3 people.

Now...

The young man looked at the brothers who had fallen all over the ground, not to mention more than a dozen. Greatly exceeded psychological expectations.

Thinking of this, his heart sank, and he became more threatening: "Suppress me!"

Countless bullets shot towards the stairs on the second floor. They seemed determined to take advantage of Ye Wangchuan's shot and kill him in one fell swoop.

Seeing a burst of intensive fire suppression, there was no sound on the second floor.

The young man immediately called a few people, leaned over and took up the weapon, and said solemnly: "You guys follow me upstairs."

The people he named happened to be Nie Qingru's confidantes. They glanced at each other and raised their weapons to follow.

Ye Wangchuan is more difficult to solve than everyone knows. In this case, it is difficult for them to distinguish who is who. Now they are all under the command of Sans.

The young man has a kind of aggressive spirit. While leading Nie Qingru's men to charge to the second floor, he didn't forget to order the people below to continue to suppress with firepower to give them a chance to go up.

Even so, it was very difficult for them to go up.

Ye Wangchuan had just sent the others out and occupied the stairway by himself, forcing them from the 4th floor to the current 2nd floor.

They backed away again, and they were about to be driven into the living room by Ye Wangchuan, and they beat them out. This is not a result they can accept!

After all, they have an absolute advantage in numbers, and they are suppressed and beaten by others alone. No one feels aggrieved by the pressure.

Young men are no exception.

Since he was lured into the illegal area by Lu Zhi, he has always been quick to do things and rarely misses. Facing Y this time, despite his fear, he is actually very confident in taking on the opponent.

As a result, he had the absolute advantage but was at a disadvantage. He was extremely annoyed. Seeing that he was about to reach the stairs, the young man turned his head and solemnly told the people who brought him.

"Be careful when you go up later, he was shot, but we don't know where the injury is and what kind of injury it is. It's always a good thing to be careful."

"Then did we see him alive or..." People from the Hermit Family have already asked him for his opinion habitually.

The young man pursed his lips, remembering Lu Zhi's order, and said without hesitation: "Kill him on the spot!"

Nie Qingru and his confidants showed a clear expression.

Several people stopped communicating, and rushed up after waiting for Sanz's order.

However, at this moment, an accident happened.

I saw a small drone flying out from the stairs on the second floor. Sans looked up and saw something tied to the drone.

It was only when the drone flew closer that he saw clearly what the black round object tied to it was. Immediately, his expression changed, and he lay down on the ground and shouted: "Don't shoot! Stop! Stop now!"

Chapter 3936: Grandpa got hurt

However, before they went up, he specifically ordered the fire below to cover.

They were close to the stairs on the second floor, but the people below were still some distance away from the stairs, and they didn't see something tied to the drone the first time like Sans and others did.

Everyone subconsciously wants to shoot down the flying drone according to instinct.

Ye Wangchuan is using human instinct.

The drone was shot in the next second, and the sparks from the bullet ignited the objects tied to it.

All I hear is "Boom!"

A huge flame rose up, and the heat wave that hit the face knocked off Sans and the others who had finally touched it.

He himself has rich experience and quick response. When he found that the drone was tied with dangerous objects, he got down on the opposite side and avoided it immediately.

Nie Qingru's cronies were not as lucky as him. Those people were not as fast as he was. They were similar to the people under the stairs. They were still looking up to see what the **** was tied to the drone flying over their heads.

Before they could see clearly, their eyes were burned by the explosion, and people were also thrown out, and the fragments inevitably penetrated their bodies.

Several people hit the ground and spit out a big mouthful of water, and they passed out.

All of them, including Sans himself, were hit by the impact of the explosion, staring at their eyes. For a few seconds, their eyes were completely black, and they couldn't recover.

Upstairs.

The man who calmly used the weakness of human nature to repel their wave of strong attacks was also shocked to get internal injuries because he got too close.

Ye Wangchuan calmly raised his hand to wipe the blood from the corner of his lips, got up and tore off his clothes indifferently, and wrapped a cloth strip around the injured shoulder to temporarily stop the bleeding.

The location of his injury this time is very unfriendly. It happened to be on the right shoulder that greatly affected the flexibility of the right hand. If it were an ordinary person, he might have been frustrated.

But Ye Wangchuan didn't react too much, he simply took care of his injury, then lowered his head and moved his left wrist, bent down and picked up the gun on the ground with his left hand and walked towards the window.

The window of the Hongmeng headquarters house can overlook the situation outside, Ye Wangchuan dragged his injured right hand and approached but did not stand directly in front of the window to look.

Instead, he leaned sideways against the wall and looked down from a 45° angle.

He knew very well in his heart that with Lu Zhi's personality, it was impossible to miss the window, which is an obvious place to escape, so there must be a large number of snipers outside aiming their guns at this place.

Anyone who tries to leave through the window will be shot into a sieve by snipers outside!

He squinted and looked outside. In the dark night, he could only see a few light spots moving, but he didn't hear the sound of firefighting outside.

It seems that Jian Jin and the others are at least temporarily safe.

Ye Wangchuan lowered his brows, his face expressionless. He is a bit embarrassed now, the black hair hanging down covers his smooth forehead, and his shirt is also stained with blood, but the long legs outlined by the black pants are straight and slender, standing there still makes people feel that he is a noble man brought up by a good family. The arrogance that one should have.

Because of his current situation is very bad, Ye Wangchuan just bowed his head, started to wrap the cloth on his right shoulder tightly, took the weapon and opened the door and walked into the warehouse where Qiao Nian kept his things.

All communication inside has been cut off.

He can't even know the time accurately, and can only rely on mental arithmetic to roughly calculate how long it has passed.

Ye Wangchuan walked to the warehouse and picked up the gadgets in one of the boxes, lowering his eyes and thinking about how he could procrastinate.

... I don't know how Moxie is going.

Chapter 3937: It's only a matter of time before he's dealt with

The illegal area is destined to be turbulent tonight.

Lu Zhi personally took action to minimize the movement.

It is said that there were not many people who noticed the change tonight at the beginning, but Jian Jin couldn't hold back when she received the phone call from Flower Arm and asked someone to check the Hongmeng headquarters... In this way, the news also leaked out.

By the early hours of the morning, many larger forces in the illegal area had already received the news.

Many bigwigs had fallen asleep at first, but were dug up by this urgent news, and called their main members for a night meeting with panda eyes.

"I heard that Tianchen started fighting with Hongmeng? Why did Lu Zhi get into trouble with Sun? These two big bosses have always been on good terms."

"I do not know."

The others looked at each other in blank dismay, and hurried over after getting the news.

Someone frowned and asked: "Could it be that some resources we don't know have fallen into the illegal area. The two sides are fighting for resources?"

This statement is not impossible.

Others frowned in thought.

It's just that the information they get is too limited.

Except that Lu Zhi led people to surround the headquarters of the Hongmeng, all the news is currently under blockade. They don't know anything about what happened inside!

"If only one or two of our people could get in!" Someone patted the table and sighed.

Most of the people were more sensible and quickly shook their heads to stop: "Don't, Tianchen and Hongmeng are fighting, we just watch the excitement from the sidelines. Which of these two people is someone we can afford? Send people in rashly to inquire about the news, just in case He was caught by Lu Zhi. You also know the tricks of that guy, but he is a kind and cruel master, and he doesn't blink his eyes when he moves."

The people present all remembered the methods that Lu Zhi had used in the illegal area over the years, and the hairs on their backs stood on end, and they no longer fantasized about sending people to inquire about the news.

Nie Qingru's manor was brightly lit, as bright as day.

Shadow took all the people they brought from the hidden family this time to cooperate with Lu Zhi. Only the patrolling mercenaries and the secret guards who personally protected Nie Qingru were left in the manor.

Because Qiao Nian is still in the north, the guards of the manor are extremely empty at the moment. It can be said that Nie Qingru has the fewest people around him to protect him.

All eyes were focused on the Hongmeng headquarters within a radius of a hundred miles, and few people paid attention to the hermit family queen who made waves when she landed in the illegal area.

Even Nie Qingru didn't pay much attention to the surrounding environment, but focused all her energy on this cooperation with Lu Zhi.

Shadow makes video reports with her at any time.

"...Jian Jin and others came out from inside. Including Guan Yan from Hongmeng, the two cooperated very poorly, but Lu Zhi refused to budge!"

"If he doesn't let him move, don't move. Our target is only Ye Wangchuan, and everyone else is a small character, and we can solve it at any time when we slow down."

Nie Qingru sat in front of the projector with the silk scarf around her collar, got up and bent over to pick up the black tea made by the servant on the table and took a sip. With an elegant and noble posture, she knocked down the cup lightly, and looked up at the man in the video with sharp eyes.

"Lu Zhi's people haven't taken Ye Wangchuan yet?"

"not yet."

Nie Qingru didn't know what to think of, and slightly impatiently smiled slightly: "Thanks to him being known as the uncrowned king of the illegal area, it turned out that he couldn't even deal with an outsider for a long time. It's really ridiculous."

Shadow understood what Nie Qingru wanted to hear: "...Empress, he has only one person left, and it is only a matter of time before he is solved."

Chapter 3938: Someone broke in

The wrinkles at the corners of Nie Qingru's eyes were ironed, and she felt much better. She sneered: "I just want to see that little wolf cub lose his love! She doesn't always think that I did something wrong, but I want to see the same thing happen to her. How calm can she be on her body?"

The reason why she moved Ye Wangchuan was very simple-disgusting Qiao Nian!

In addition to this, there is also the reason that Ying told Jian Jin and others before—Ye Fanchuan sabotaged her plan many times, which is really an eyesore.

She cooperated with Lu to move Ye Fanchuan this time to teach Qiao Nian a deep lesson. By the way, she will cut off the wolf cubs as a good helper, and draw the hatred of Beijing to the illegal area. Zhou rescued from the struggle with Kyo...

For her, death alone can solve so many problems, who would die if Ye Wangchuan didn't die?

"Remember that if Lu Zhi doesn't take action for a long time, you will secretly order our people to do it. No matter what, we will get rid of him tonight."

Nie Qingru narrowed her eyes, speaking calmly.

"Actually, as long as she doesn't fight against me, she won't come to this point. She is my granddaughter, and she has my blood in her body... I am willing to give her a chance, but she doesn't cherish it every time, and insists on grabbing her mother. If you don't let me go, I want an explanation. Who do I need to explain to in this position? She can obviously listen to me, and I won't treat her badly in a hundred years, so I can't blame me if she doesn't listen."

Shadow naturally spoke to her: "You have given Miss Qiao too many opportunities."

"Yeah, I've given her so many opportunities, but she still refuses to bow her head for a dead person." Nie Qingru's face was covered with frost, and her eyes showed a hint of gloom.

In fact, Nie Qingru was very reluctant to abandon Qiao Nian just like that... It's a pity that a knife, no matter how useful it is, refuses to be used by her, and there is no point in keeping it.

Nie Qingru knows how to drive a person crazy, and lightly explained to the shadow: "Remember to ask our people to know some art when they do it, don't kill them all at once, play more."

Only by waiting for Qiao Nian to come back and see his beloved being tortured to death can a person be heartbroken to the point of mental breakdown.

If she can't take Qiao Nian for her own use, she must destroy it completely!

"Understood, Empress." Shadow has been by her side all year round, and understands the implication of every sentence of Nie Qingru very well.

Nie Qingru hummed contemptuously, as if she had seen the picture of Qiao Nian collapsing when she arrived, and her mood improved a lot.

While the two were talking.

Suddenly there was a rapid knock on the door.

Shadow also heard it, and immediately said worriedly: "Empress, what's going on?"

Nie Qingru didn't expect that people outside would knock on her door in such a panic, so she got up and opened the door with a serious face.

When she saw the servant outside, the corner of her mouth pulled down: "What are you doing. Didn't I say don't bother me when I'm fine?!"

Seeing that the servant was in a panic, he said to her in a daze, "Queen, someone has broken in and insists on seeing you."

Nie Qingru keenly grasped her words: "Break?"

This is her residence, who dares to 'break' in? !

The servant nodded affirmatively like a chicken pecking rice: "Those people broke in, and they insist on seeing you in the living room right now."

...

In the living room.

Nie Qingru was led out of the room by the servant, and went downstairs to see a dozen idle men standing in the hall.

Chapter 3939: Don't look at the monk's face, look at the Buddha's face

These people, without exception, are armed with weapons, full of murderous aura, and look like desperadoes.

He was headed by a man wearing gold-rimmed glasses who looked refined and refined, and he was extremely out of tune with these vicious people.

The servant led Nie Qingru downstairs. Faced with a large group of villains armed with weapons, she trembled with fear, lowered her head and said in a low voice, "Queen, it's them."

Moxi also saw Nie Qingru coming, stepped forward and pushed the edge of his glasses, and greeted him very politely: "You are the queen of the hidden family. I have heard your name for a long time!"

Nie Qingru saw the hand he stretched out in front of her, but she didn't move, nor did she reach out to hold it. Instead, he withdrew his gaze, raised his chin slightly with an attitude of domineering, squinted his eyes and glanced at the group of people in front of him, and said directly: "What do you want from me, just tell me."

"Hehe." Moxi withdrew his hand and touched the bridge of his nose. He didn't get angry when he was underestimated, and said to Nie Qingru with a smile: "Then let me introduce myself to the queen. I'm Moxi, Continent F The people of the dark castle, these are brothers."

Nie Qingru's face changed slightly when he heard the key words F Continent and Dark Fort, and the situation he least wanted to encounter happened just like that.

She looked at each other restrainedly, and took a step back: "What do you want to do?"

Moxi ignored her reaction of taking a step back, and was still as gentle and polite as when we first met, and watched with a smile: "Don't be nervous, we don't do anything, just want to ask you to cooperate and call your people."

As he spoke, he took out his mobile phone and handed it over. The whole process was very polite, but the smile didn't reach his eyes: "The one next to you is called Shadow, right? Just give him a call and tell him that we are visiting the manor." ."

Nie Qingru didn't reach out, but just looked at him coldly: "You don't think you can control me alone, this is the manor!"

She is protected by hidden guards, as long as Moxi and the others do something, the hidden guards will appear.

Moxi just paused his smile when he heard the words, then raised his eyelids lazily, and pushed the glasses on the bridge of his nose with his fingers, his smile faded a lot: "Queen, why do you embarrass us?"

"Since we came to look for you, we must be mentally prepared. We are all a group of rough men, with thick skin and thick flesh, and are not afraid of death. But you are different. You are the empress of the hermit family and have a detached status. If you want to die with us... Tsk , it's not worth it."

Nie Qingru heard it: "Are you threatening me?!"

Moxie took off his glasses to reveal the hooked eyes under the lenses, and said with a smile, "Then I can't chat with you here."

Their boss was plotted and besieged in the Hongmeng headquarters by these bastards. He led his brothers to deal with the mercenaries outside regardless of their lives.

Nie Qingru really thinks they are here to chat?

Everyone's purpose was clear, and Nie Qingru's face gradually became cold from the ugly one at the beginning, and she lowered her hand and threatened in a low voice: "You know what will happen if you offend me..."

"Haha." Moxi laughed lightly, put it away after a while, and said seriously: "Queen, don't scare us, brothers are timid, in case someone is frightened and accidentally shoots a gun and hurts your old man It's not good. After all...Your old man still bleeds a little like Miss Qiao's blood, we don't want to look at the monk's face to see the Buddha's face, so we have to give you a little face, don't we?"

Chapter 3940: In the end, she had to rely on Qiao Nian's face

Nie Qingru's complexion turned livid immediately, and she didn't notice the pain when her nails were stuck in the flesh, but stared at Mo Xi stubbornly.

One second she was saying that Qiao Nian should be proud of the blood shed in her body, and the next second she was pointed at her nose and said that she had to rely on her blood relationship with that wolf cub to be safe, what else? Much more humiliating than this.

Moxi ignored her stare, pushed his mobile phone over again, and said politely: "Queen, please!"

"..." Nie Qingru looked at the mobile phone that was pushed in front of her again and trembled with anger, her face extremely embarrassed.

But she couldn't help being unhappy about the current situation, with more than a dozen pairs of eyes staring at her, Nie Qingru knew very well that if she didn't cooperate, these people would not continue to chat with her in a 'polite' manner...

But as the queen of a hermit family, the feeling of being threatened face to face by someone breaking into her home is really uncomfortable, comparable to being slapped in the face by someone finding her home.

She slowly reached out to pick up the phone, and said with a cold expression: "Even if I tell my people to stop, it's useless. Lu Zhi's people won't listen to me."

Moxi smiled and said, "You don't need to worry about this, old man."

Nie Qingru had a vague sense of what they wanted to do, but because there were so many eyes watching her every move, she was forced to call Shadow.

"Beep." The sound just rang.

The other end of the shadow immediately answered the phone: "Hello?"

Nie Qingru glanced at the man who barged in from the living room, took a deep breath and frowned, "It's me."

Shadow heard her voice, and immediately said: "Empress, are you okay? Just now..." Nie Qingru didn't even have time to hang up the video upstairs, and he vaguely heard that something happened in the manor.

Nie Qingru turned on the loudspeaker, pressed the corner of her lips to interrupt his words: "A few guests came to the manor just now, I went out for a while."

Shadow obviously heard what she meant, and was a little anxious: "The empress..."

Nie Qingru didn't give him a chance to continue: "The person who notified us stopped immediately."

The other end of the phone was quiet for two seconds, as if analyzing Nie Qingru's current situation, and quickly compromised: "Yes! I understand."

Nie Qingru looked up at the man wearing glasses, and signaled to him with his eyes, "That's all right."

Moxi smiled, and said directly without paying attention: "Thank you, Queen."

Nie Qingru hasn't hung up the phone yet, which means that Shadow can hear their voices.

When a strange man's voice appeared on Nie Qingru's phone, Shadow still didn't understand something, and immediately said coldly: "I warn you not to mess around! Otherwise, I will definitely smash you to pieces!"

Moxi took his mobile phone from Nie Qingru's hand. Hearing the threat of fury from the other party, he pushed the gold-rimmed glasses on the bridge of his nose with his left hand, and replied in a very good temper: "That's what I want to say. If you want the old lady to be safe It's okay, it's best to protect our family. Otherwise, you will have to collect the empress' corpse..."

"How dare you!" Shadow was furious.

Moxi was much calmer: "Whether I dare depends on how well you do. If you can't do it, I have nothing to dare."

"Don't hurt the queen, I..." Shadow still had something to say.

Moxi didn't give him this chance, and hung up the phone elegantly and casually. The eager voice of the shadow was cut off, and the whole living room became quiet again.
