

Madam's 3951

Chapter 3951: The lord is really a lord

Without waiting for the other party to speak, she said lightly: "I'm serious, these are small gadgets I made before and put in Hongmeng. They are just in the drawer of the coffee table in the living room. I forgot to deal with them. This is not useful. Well. Now you want to know whether to get out or... I will send you away?"

Sans wants to judge the truth from her eyes.

Because he was too nervous, he wasn't sure whether Qiao Nian was telling the truth or a lie, but he didn't dare to bet, so he smoothed things over and tried to delay time: "Sun, don't embarrass me."

At the same time, the strong man who followed him all the year round tried to sneak in to look for Ye Wangchuan while leaning against the crowd wall to block his sight.

He moved skillfully, touched the gun on his leg, and prepared to rush in and shoot the person inside before Qiao Nian could react.

"Our master has reached a cooperation with the Empress of the Hidden World Family, he..." In order to cooperate with the action of the bald man, Sangs deliberately brought the topic to Lu Zhi and Nie Qingru, trying his best to attract Qiao Nian's attention.

Facts have proved that their years of tacit cooperation did almost attract Qiao Nian's attention.

By the time Qiao Nian saw the person slipping out from the crowd, the strong man had already crossed the wall as far as she could see, and slipped past.

"Looking for death!" Qiao Nian's eyes darkened, her body moved faster than her mind, and she immediately wanted to pass through these people and catch up.

Sans and the others immediately prepared to stop him in order to delay the strong man.

Just when the two sides were on the verge of firing.

There was a scream from inside.

"Ah! You fucking..."

"Boom!" followed by the sound of heavy objects falling to the ground.

Qiao Nian's eyelids twitched, wishing he could turn into the wind and fly over to see the situation inside clearly.

Seeing that those people still wanted to stop her, she had no regard for her own safety and raised her gun to fight them head-on.

The small aircraft she brought was just a cover, and it was definitely impossible to contain a nuclear warhead inside. How could such a small volume hold such a thing.

What's more, if it is still placed in the living room without a protective cover, then the people who usually live here, such as Guanyan, Slim Waist Control, Huayi, etc., will not be exposed to radiation.

The reason why she said that was just to take the opportunity to scare these people, find an opportunity to solve a few, and take the opportunity to break through the opponent's blockade.

Who knew that the other party would jump over the wall in a hurry and choose to hold her back, and sent one of them in.

When she came in, she heard these people say that Ye Fanchuan had no bullets in his gun, that is to say... Qiao Nian's heartbeat accelerated, and she had never been so flustered.

Ye Fanchuan...

She hardly considered her own safety, only the corner staircase was in front of her.

Lu Zhi's people were also taken aback by her desperate reaction. The originally orderly team was dispersed and surrounded.

at this time.

A black shadow flashed past the man in the middle when they let down their vigilance.

The young man was instantly controlled, with a sharp blade on his throat, and a deep man's voice came from behind him: "The man who told you not to move!"

Sans broke out in cold sweat from his back, and immediately stopped the person who wanted to do it: "Stop!"

Ye Wangchuan saw that those people stopped, and after Qiao Nian was safe, his sharp brows were lowered, and then he took people out of the siege: "Call them to get out of the way."

"Get out of the way." Sens smelled the blood on his body, stiffened his back and waved his hands at the others to make way for them.

Those people spread out like a tide, leaving a narrow path that can accommodate one person.

Chapter 3952: I choose to go, will you let me go?

Ye Fanchuan held the blade back and laughed lightly, with a proud and lazy tone: "I advise you not to play tricks, otherwise my knife will definitely be faster than bullets."

"..." Sans originally wanted to signal others to find the right time to shoot, so he didn't dare to act rashly.

Ye Wangchuan hijacked him and approached the girl.

Since Qiao Nian saw that he was fine, his tense nerves suddenly relaxed, and there was still a trace of fear that he didn't realize.

Seeing him approaching her with the leader of this small group of people, she was the first to smell the strong smell of blood, and immediately frowned, looking at him with dark eyes: "Are you injured?"

She is going to check immediately: "Where is it hurt?"

Ye Wangchuan looked helplessly at her, ignoring everyone's hands stretched out to check, but dodged helplessly, pretending to be relaxed and said: "Nian Nian, I'm afraid it won't work right now. We'll talk about it when we go back tonight."

Qiao Nian pursed her lower lip, and it was rare for him to change the subject with a serious face. She turned her head and looked at the dozen or so people who had lost their backbone and didn't know what to do, and said, "There is still time for you to leave now."

"Going now is just not completing the task. You have tried your best, and the people behind must not say anything. But if you continue to stay here, don't blame me if you lose your life."

Everyone buzzed and discussed.

Qiao Nian didn't care about anyone, walked straight to the young man under Ye Wangchuan's control, squinted his eyes and recognized it for a while: "Sans, right?"

"...I didn't expect Sun to know me." Sans was a little surprised, but his current embarrassing situation is really inappropriate to say these things.

Qiao Nian nodded, pursed her lips: "I've seen you several times at Jian Jin's place, and I have a little impression."

She asked the young man who hadn't recovered: "Have you decided? Go or stay."

Sans didn't slow down when she asked her the first time. After he reacted, Qiao Nian asked him something again, and a wry smile appeared on the corner of his mouth: "Sun, you also know Mr. Lu's temper. What's the difference between leaving now and staying? "

Qiao Nian disagreed and said, "Of course there is a difference."

"If you choose to leave, you still have the opportunity to intercede. Even if you are punished afterwards, you may not lose your life. But you choose to stay..."

She raised her eyes under the gaze of Sans, and stayed on the micro-aircraft buzzing and flapping its wings without saying anything.

Sans' face changed again and again, as if he was thinking about what she said.

He wasn't sure if the MAV flying there was a small bomb or not, and if it had been fueled.

But he remembered that Qiao Nian had a remote control board on him, so there was a high probability that those aircraft were not just aircraft as Qiao Nian said.

The young man quickly weighed the pros and cons, and had to admit that what Qiao Nian told him made sense. He quickly lowered his eyes and said suddenly: "I choose to go, will you let me go?"

"I swear in the name of the Red League." Qiao Nian raised three fingers.

Sans felt relieved, and turned his head to look at the person he brought: "You heard it too. Go or stay?"

Others originally started to retreat when Qiao Nian said that the small aircraft flying above their heads had been fueled, but now they had no intention of staying.

"Go." Someone said so.

Others have no psychological pressure.

"Walk!"

"I agree too."

"Go first."

Most people choose to go, even if there are some who hesitate, it becomes less important.

Qiao Nian winked at Ye Wangchuan, and said in a low voice, "Let them go."

Chapter 3953: Coincidentally, Master Wang and Sister Nian did the same thing

Ye Wangchuan let go of his hand without asking why, and took away the dagger to signal the young man to leave.

Sans originally wanted to take the opportunity to counter the unarmed Ye Wangchuan, but when the corner of his eye caught the gaze of a girl who was playing with the remote control not far away, he gritted his teeth like a rat and called out to the people under him: "Let's go!"

Lu Zhi's people had long thought of quitting, and only waited for his order, the group threw down their weapons and left...

During this process, Qiao Nian was playing with the small black remote control in his hand, as if he didn't care much about their departure, until the last figure disappeared at the door.

She suddenly loosened her strength and threw the remote control on the ground, and stepped forward to grab the man's shoulders in three steps at a time. Shen Lian asked, "Where did you get hurt?"

Ye Fanchuan twitched slightly when she touched the wound, pulled her hand away, his pale lips were still in the mood to joke with Qiao Nian: "God Qiao doesn't want your miniature bombs anymore."

Qiao Nian probably saw his retracted shoulder for a moment, and guessed where he was injured. Shuangfeng twisted up, and his eyes fell on the place where he was wrapped with simple gauze. He raised his dark eyes and said, "Your right shoulder Got shot?"

Ye Wangchuan avoided the hand she wanted to check, and wrote lightly: "It's just a small injury. It doesn't hurt. Let's go out first."

Seeing that her left hand was empty, Qiao Nian felt violent emotions welling up in her heart, but she was quickly controlled by her rationality, and quickly said: "The people I arranged will arrive soon, and no one outside can leave."

"You also arranged someone?" Ye Wangchuan was surprised.

"En." Qiao Nian replied, and wanted to check the wound under his clothes with his left hand, curled his knuckles and put it in his pocket, and said in a controlled tone, "I'll ask Jian Jin to help you on the way here." I have inquired about the situation here, and I know that Lu Zhi is here, so I arranged for all the staff who can be transferred recently..."

She paused, and then said: "There are not many people. It is reasonable to not be able to compete with Lu Zhi, but he has few people with him tonight, so we have the advantage."

In the illegal area, Lu Zhi is the uncrowned king after all, and she stays in the surrounding area all the year round. Later, after she was admitted to university and went to Beijing, she only has time to come here occasionally, and the time she stays is limited.

The force value of the Red League has never been strong, and it can stabilize the top forces in the illegal area, which is still behind the F state David and the close relationship with Tianchen these years.

The situation of Tianchen and Hongmeng is completely different.

Lu Zhi had a heavy heart, and he deployed forces in the illegal area early on, recruiting a large number of capable helpers.

In the illegal area, Lu Zhi wanted to move someone, and no one could stop him. So does she!

It's just that Lu Zhi made a fatal mistake tonight - he was sure that she would not be able to come back tonight and that Ye Wangchuan would not last long. So that he didn't bring many people, which gave her a chance to fight back.

Ye Wangchuan felt a stabbing pain in his shoulder, and the blood loss made him feel a little weak. In order to prevent Qiao Nian from discovering his anomaly, he leaned against the wall gently, and stood with his arms around his chest as usual, proud and lazy. He narrowed his eyes slightly and said, "Coincidentally, I also arranged for some people. No accident, Lu Zhi is ready to leave."

Qiao Nian immediately met his gaze, with a look of surprise: "You..."

She glanced down, touched the color of the man's lips and frowned again, stood up straight, and rarely said annoyed: "Forget it, we'll talk about it later when we get out."

Ye Wangchuan guessed right.

Outside, Sans and others found that Lu Zhi was about to withdraw when they went out.

Chapter 3954: as long as he dies i have a chance

Jian Jin followed Lu Zhi without saying a word, and the atmosphere between the two was very awkward and dull.

Okay, why are Mr. Lu and the others leaving?

Sans and the others couldn't figure out what was going on, and had to report what happened to Lu Zhi, so he had no choice but to bite the bullet and walk to the wheelchair: "Mr. Lu."

Lu Zhi raised his eyes and looked at him lightly, and he could see through the meaning of him coming out to find himself at this moment: "Failed?"

Sans recounted what happened inside, knowing that he was ineffective, he knelt down on one knee without waiting for Lu Zhi to speak, his face was extremely pale, begging for punishment: "It's the subordinate who is incompetent. Please punish Mr. Lu!"

"Tsk. You're really cute." Lu Zhi chuckled, and there was no killing intent on his body, but he could hear that Sans and the others failed to deal with Ye Wangchuan, which made him a little unhappy.

Sans has been with him for many years, and he thinks he has figured out a little way, and he is secretly relieved to hear that Lu Zhi's words did not mean to kill him.

Immediately raised his head, looked at the man in the wheelchair very discerningly and said, "Mr. Lu, let's go next..."

Lu Zhi looked at the dark sky and said, "Go back first."

Although Sans didn't understand why Lu Zhi was in a hurry to leave, he was already incapable of doing things, and he didn't dare to ask his master what he thought.

He got up obediently and obeyed Lu Zhi's order to mobilize his subordinates to prepare for the evacuation...

Jian Jin stood by the side from the beginning to the end and naturally heard the conversation between the two. After learning that Ye Wangchuan was fine, she relaxed, looked sideways and whispered to the man in the wheelchair.

"Fortunately, Young Master Ye is fine, so you and Joe still have room to maneuver."

Seeing that Lu Zhi didn't respond, she even explained the follow-up matters to the tower bodyguards behind her. She endured it, but still couldn't help blocking Lu Zhi's sight, and said solemnly.

"Brother Lu, what on earth are you thinking? Do you really want to break up with Joe? Or do you not mind that you don't even have to be friends in the future?"

"You do it first." Lu Zhi finished explaining to the bodyguard in a gentle voice.

The bodyguard glanced at Jian Jin, and left silently to complete what Lu Zhi had told him to do. Soon, only Jian Jin and Lu Zhi were left in this small area.

Lu Zhi held the wheelchair with his cold and slender hands, changed the direction, and drove the wheels forward. With a blanket on his legs, he was a beam of light in the dark with a cool and noble air.

Jian Jin was stunned for a moment, and heard his Shi Shiran voice.

"Do you care about being useful?"

"I can only be friends with her forever, but what I want is not friendship."

"Also, it's not just because of her that I moved Ye Wangchuan. The city of Beijing has stretched its hand too far these years, and some forces headed by him tried to illegally divide up a piece of the pie several times. He moved my cake, and I dealt with it." Is there a problem with dropping him? Why can't I move him?"

Jian Jin watched his back as he was getting further and further away, and reacted quickly to follow him, walking behind him: "But you shouldn't use the time when Qiao is not around to cooperate with Nie Qingru, you still do this when you know the relationship between her and Qiao ...Anyone would be chilled. What's more, Joe had an unpleasant fight with you because of this before..."

Lu Zhi's wheelchair suddenly stopped moving.

Jian Jin was forced to stop.

In her confused eyes, she saw that Lu Zhi was holding the wheelchair tightly with one hand, the veins on the back of his hand were bulging, and he said in a calm voice as always: "As long as he dies, I will have a chance."

Chapter 3955: Miss miss is here

"After decades of life, I can apologize and make up... One day she will forgive me. But one day Ye Wangchuan is here, and I will never have the chance to win her heart. It is wrong for me to pursue what I want gone?"

Jian Jin was dumb for a moment, and stood there stupidly.

Lu Zhi's emotions came and went quickly, and the wheelchair moved forward again silently, walking alone like a stubborn minute hand...

Before Jian Jin had time to be sad, the sky on the right was lit up by fireworks.

"boom!"

Blooming fireworks illuminate the night.

All of them noticed the abnormal fireworks, and Jian Jin noticed it too, and immediately changed her face, and hurried over to push Lu Zhi up and leave.

"Come on, it's Joe's man!"

She couldn't see Lu Zhi hurting Qiao Nian, nor could she see Lu Zhi being hurt.

Jian Jin heard the panic in her ears, and couldn't control other people, and didn't care about Lu Zhi talking to her, she just stubbornly evacuated people to a safe place...

The people arranged by Qiao Nian quickly arrived using the fireworks as a signal, and surrounded the surrounding area.

Lu Zhi and the people who had no time to retreat from the shadow were all trapped inside.

Lu Zhi is fine.

Jian Jin reacted quickly enough to drive him away from that area immediately, and his bodyguard snatched a car and chased after seeing Jian Jin taking him away.

At the same time, while others were still watching the fireworks, Sans and a few nearby people also got into the car and followed them with the mentality of committing crimes and meritorious deeds.

Just like that, some of Lu Zhi's people withdrew.

Nie Qingru's cronies were not so lucky.

Most of them were left there, still looking up at the fireworks in the southeast direction, unaware of the imminent danger.

Only Shadow reacted a little faster, immediately snatched a car from Lu Zhi's men, drove out of the encirclement, and managed to get away.

By the time those who stayed behind realized something was wrong, they were already surrounded by the people arranged by Qiao Nian.

Qiao Nian used David's staff in the illegal area this time, and the people under David's command most needed high-tech weapons.

Those new weapons that are rare in other places are bigger toys in the hands of these people. A long row of "big toys" is placed there, but anyone with any brains knows to give up resistance and obediently raise their hands and surrender.

Jian Jin left, but Guan Yan and the others were still there.

Since the situation on the scene has changed, the threats that restricted their freedom naturally no longer exist.

Qin Si and Ji Lin immediately turned around and ran into the mansion.

Just bumped into Qiao Nian who was helping Ye Fanchuan out of it.

Qin Si saw Ye Wangchuan's body was covered in blood, his complexion changed suddenly, and immediately blocked him: "Sister Qiao, Master Wang..."

The expression on Qiao Nian's face was not pretty, and he was a little irritable: "If you don't get out of the way, something will happen to him when he is fine!"

Qin Si also realized that his caring was blocking the way, so he immediately stepped sideways to get out of the way, while following the two of them: "Wang Ye, is he alright?"

Qiao Nian supported the man to walk forward, while answering his question coldly: "I was shot in the right shoulder, I will take him to get the bullet first."

There are no tools here, otherwise Qiao Nian would have directly helped Ye Wangchuan take out the shotgun embedded in the meat in the mansion.

She thought that there was still a bullet in Ye Wangchuan's body, and she was impatient, and she really lost her temper: "Guan Yan, go and drive."

"Yeah." Guan Yan didn't talk nonsense, and hurriedly went to find a car.

Qiao Nian looked at Ji Lin and said calmly, "I'll take him to the hospital first, and I'll leave it to you here."

Chapter 3956: Sister Nian never hits a straight ball

Ji Lin saw that Ye Wangchuan was still awake, and knew that the injury of Master Wang was not serious, so he settled down and obeyed the arrangements to make way: "Okay."

Qiao Nian half-footed down the steps, and saw a few familiar faces out of the corner of her eye, remembered something, stopped, turned around and explained to Ji Lin: "Well, those people over there..."

Ji Lin followed her gaze and saw a few people from Lu Zhi.

He looked at the girl again without knowing it: "Miss Qiao, tell me."

Qiao Nian said with deep eyes: "I promised to let them go. Let them go. You can handle the others."

Ji Lin looked at those people again.

Those people obviously heard Qiao Nian's words, and for a moment they didn't know whether they were dreaming or in reality, they just felt that the willows and flowers were very lucky.

In the mansion just now, Qiao Nian did say that as long as they leave, he won't do anything to them. But after the situation reversed, they didn't dare to hope that they would be able to retreat unscathed.

Unexpectedly, Sun would still remember something that none of them dared to hope for. And really keep their word and let them go!

Ji Lin confirmed who they were with her, and promised with a serious face: "Miss Qiao, don't worry, I will make arrangements."

"Okay." Qiao Nian stopped worrying about this matter, continued to bear most of the man's weight, and said softly, "Let's go."

Ye Wangchuan's eyes flashed a hint of joy, and he leaned against her without hesitation, his thin lips raised slightly, and his voice was low: "Okay."

If Gu San was here, he would definitely see that he could actually leave by himself, but he just liked the feeling that Qiao Nian was nervous about him.

However, Gu San stayed in Beijing and did not follow.

Qin Si was full of thoughts about what Qiao Nian said about being shot in the shoulder, but he didn't notice Ye Wangchuan's slightly raised look of joy.

Not to mention Ji Lin, he was busy doing what Qiao Nian told him.

Soon Guan Yan drove a jeep over, stopped in front of the two of them, opened the driver's door and jumped out of the car: "Sun, shall I take you there?"

"You haven't healed yet, stay here to help Ji Lin deal with the follow-up matters, and I'll go there by myself." Qiao Nian opened the passenger door.

Looking back a little uncomfortable, how should I take care of others, try to lighten my strength, and ask: "Can you go up?"

The thick night in Ye Wangchuan's eyes melted into a pool of spring water, as if there was a small hook, with one hand propped on the car door as if standing a bit struggling: "I will try my best."

"Okay." Qiao Nian slowly let go of her hand, but said worriedly: "If not, I'll carry you up."

Her expression is quite serious, and she even really wants to do it.

"Cough!" Ye Wangchuan felt a choke in his chest when he heard it, he regained his composure, and went up quickly and steadily.

Seeing him get into the car, Qiao Nian closed the car door for him, walked around to the other side, put on his seat belt and fastened it, then turned to him and said, "You don't need to wear a seat belt because of your shoulder injury, I'll try to drive as slowly as possible. "

Ye Fanchuan was overwhelmed by her natural "I'll carry you up" just now, this time he didn't say anything, and responded.

Qiao Nian put the gear on and stepped on the accelerator, trying to drive the car as smoothly as he said.

She is used to drag racing, this kind of steady driving is undoubtedly a disguised torture for her, comparable to an old lady moving.

She has always had a bad temper and limited patience. This time, he drove steadily along the way, didn't say a word of complaint, and turned on the air conditioner in the car to increase the temperature. The man with a low hoarse voice and a slightly sick face said: "You go to sleep for a while, and I will call you when you arrive."

Chapter 3957 Sister Nian is still very caring

"Okay." Ye Wangchuan leaned his head on the back of the chair, closed his tired eyes, and relaxed his body.

Qiao Nian saw the man's narrow jaw line through the rearview mirror on the right, and silently turned on the car music, playing a soothing piece of pure music.

The warm wind is blowing in the car, and the soft music that relaxes the nerves whispers softly.

Ye Wangchuan's nerves, which had been tensed all night, unconsciously relaxed a bit, and the word "Chuan" was inadvertently smoothed out between the frowning brows, and the extremely long eyelashes trembled slightly, but he didn't open his eyes.

While driving, Qiao Nian paid attention to his physical condition, lowered his voice and said softly, "Don't worry, I'm by your side."

Ye Wangchuan felt a 'tsk' in his heart, he had never heard anyone comfort him like this, but his heart that couldn't help being obedient and relaxed so genuinely trusted the girl around him.

He actually indulged himself into a semi-comatose with injuries in such a confined space with people around him...

Hospital.

Qiao Nian parked the car, turned her head and saw the sleepy face of the man who hadn't noticed it at all.

She unbuckled her seat belt and didn't rush to get out of the car or call someone. Instead, she found her mobile phone and made a call: "I brought a patient here, and you call two people to come down."

She deliberately lowered her voice when speaking.

Does not speak loudly.

But with Ye Wangchuan's usual level of vigilance, it is absolutely impossible to miss it.

Qiao Nian put down the phone and looked to the side, and saw the sleeping man frowning slightly, his right shoulder receding uncomfortably.

She pursed her lower lip, a trace of inquiry flashed in her dark eyes, and she called out: "Ye Wangchuan."

The man in the co-pilot didn't respond, his eyelashes fluttered, and his lips were chapped and pale.

Qiao Nian immediately realized that he was in a bad state, reached out to touch his forehead, and the palm of his hand was burned by the skin underneath.

He has a fever.

Qiao Nian withdrew her hand, pursed her lips even tighter, and immediately opened the car door to call for someone.

Fortunately, there were people rushing out of the hospital at the same time. The young male doctor was followed by several doctors in white coats.

Greet her when you come up: "Q. Where is the patient you mentioned?"

"In the car."

Qiao Nian turned sideways to let them see.

The young man followed her shoulder and saw that there was another person in the car, and looked away, as if he was very familiar with Qiao Nian: "What's the matter with him?"

This man is Zhong's first-class apprentice.

I used to stay in the Pharmacy Association for a long time, and later because some research concepts did not conform to the rules of the Pharmacy Association.

He turned his back on the Pharmacy Association and chose to go it alone.

Many members of the Pharmacy Association didn't know Yu Yan's name, but Qiao Nian knew him and got along very well with him.

Qiao Nian was also one of the few people who knew that Zhong Liuliu had not fallen out with his former chief disciple.

Most people who know Yu Yan's name think that Yu Yan rebelliously left the Pharmacy Association, and Zhong Liuliu must be very disappointed with him as his teacher.

However, Qiao Nian knew that Zhong Liuliu was a pharmacist lunatic, and Yu Yan's character was eighty percent similar to him in this aspect. As the president of the Pharmacy Association, he himself is bound by rules and regulations, but this industry needs someone to set an example, and Zhong Liuliu has to compromise a little because everyone puts him on a high ground.

And when Yu Yan left the Pharmacy Association for a genetic medicine, Zhong Liuliu was 'grievous' on the surface for the departure of his proud disciple. In private, Qiao Nian even had dinner with them, knowing Zhong Liuliu's love for Yuyan. Behavior is not only inoffensive but also very supportive.

Chapter 3958 The situation of Master Wang is more serious than expected

Yu Yan came to the illegal area after leaving the Pharmacy Association, Qiao Nian secretly covered him because of Zhong Yi-Liu's relationship, and provided him with a lot of funds and convenience for research.

He has been staying anonymously in this hospital to carry out his own genetic medicine research project.

If it wasn't for Qiao Nian's phone call, he would still be in his small pharmaceutical laboratory and wouldn't come out.

"Shot in the shoulder." Qiao Nian tried his best to control his emotions, and said concisely: "I just touched his forehead, and he has a fever."

Yu Yan rarely saw her mood fluctuate so much, and looked at her in surprise: "You...you and him..."

He stayed in the pharmaceutical laboratory of the hospital all year round, and his impression of Qiao Nian stayed in the time when Qiao Nian went to the Pharmacy Association many years ago.

At that time, Qiao Nian came to the gym, relying on her superb knowledge of traditional Chinese medicine and herbal medicines, which made Zhong Liulu look up to her with admiration.

Even Yu Yan, who was still with Zhong Liulu at the time, was deeply impressed by Qiao Nian. He only remembered that Qiao Nian was withdrawn and arrogant, and had no interest in anyone.

At that time, he was still wondering whether oriental people had this kind of personality, so unstingy, arrogant and arrogant.

Until now, he saw the unconcealable worry and irritability in the girl's eyes, and he was obviously distracted by the physical condition of the man in the car.

Yu Yan asked curiously.

"You and him won't be...that kind of relationship?"

"Which kind?"

Qiao Nian didn't wait for him to answer, but reacted from his body language. He admitted very frankly: "Well, he is my boyfriend, the kind of relationship you are going to get married in the future, count it as the kind of relationship you mentioned."

Boyfriend didn't have a big impact on Yu Yan, but what Qiao Nian said about his future marriage would have a greater impact on him.

"you..."

For a moment, his head was buzzing and he couldn't react.

Qiao Nian stood up, not wanting to waste time, interrupted him neatly, and said to him, "Help me get the man into the operating room first, and I'll take the bullet out of his shoulder."

"I suspect shotgun."

Yu Yan looked at her suddenly: "Shotgun?"

Qiao read in a bad tone: "En."

Shotgun is a kind of bullet that is no longer allowed to be used in the world, just because this kind of bullet is extremely cruel. When the bullet hits the human body, 10-30 small steel * will explode on the head, causing a large number of injuries to the wound. Injury, but also tormented people who were shot were in great pain.

Because this bullet is too inhumane, it was banned in most countries around the world shortly after it came out.

Yu Yan, as a doctor, of course has heard of the damage of this inhuman bullet, and immediately forgot about the impact of gossip, and entered a professional state.

"Okay. I'll have someone prepare for the anesthesia operation."

Qiao Nian walked inside: "I will perform this operation!"

Hongmeng headquarters is 10 kilometers away.

Jian Jin slammed on the brakes and stopped on the side of the road. Through the front glass of the car, she saw the flames rushing up not far away, and the flickering lights and shadows were printed on her face.

She put her hands on the steering wheel, and after a long silence, she whispered: "Boss, our people are all folded in."

Lu Zhi sat in the back row, his fair face didn't react much, he looked at the fire outside with complete indifference, and said lightly: "Isn't this the result you want."

Jian Jin looked back at him, unable to speak for a while, she looked away in embarrassment for a long time, and said in a muffled voice, "This is not what I want! I just...forget it."

Chapter 3959: Big brother, the focus of chasing girls is chasing!

Lu Zhi looked at the dried blood on her sideways face, and didn't know if it was his own or someone else's blood.

His eyes were slightly cold, but he didn't say any more hurtful words, he just said: "We suffered a heavy loss this time, and we failed to deal with Ye Wangchuan. It can be said...Tianchen lost completely tonight. Wait for the news to spread tomorrow." , I'm afraid those forces that were suppressed by us before will start to move again."

Jian Jin sneered: "They dare!"

Lu Zhi lowered his eyelashes, his eyes fell on the jade wrench on his finger, and he turned the direction with his hand, with a cold arc on his lips: "This is an illegal area, of course they dare. It's not scary if they dare to provoke Tianchen, Just kill them all."

He said it lightly, extremely casually.

Still fiddling with the wrench, Lu Zhi decided the fate of some people without even raising his eyelids.

"Okay." Jian Jin agreed.

She has followed Lu Zhi step by step over the years to where she is now, and she knows exactly what the illegal area is like.

Here does not allow the overflow of compassion, does not allow kindness, let alone the Virgin Mary.

She and Lu Zhi opened the way in the * environment so that Tianchen can firmly take the top spot in the illegal area. After tonight's incident, if they don't deter others, Lu Zhi and her will be boundless by the forces that are ready to move Harassment of Harassment.

In order to protect Lu Zhi, she had to do this.

Jian Jin has long been used to fighting and killing in the illegal area. Compared with this, she cares more about other things: "Are you and Joe really at odds?"

She paused, fearing that Lu Zhi would continue to do what happened tonight, she took a deep breath and said to him, "If you want me to tell you, you are really interested in Qiao, why don't you just chase after him."

Lu Zhi raised his eyes to look at her, and stopped playing with the jade wrench, which meant he was interested.

Jian Jin got his interest, looked at him and said: "Qiao and Young Master Ye are not married yet, and now they are just boyfriend and girlfriend. It's not like you have no chance to chase after him. You just have to like to chase after him. Don't mess with him. We are hooligans who only know how to kill, set fire or rob... You said you wanted to kill Young Master Ye before you went after him, why didn't you just go after him? Young Master Ye and Joe are not married, so you make it look like you have to chase after Qiao's widow! A big circle."

Lu Zhi probably listened a bit more, but looked down and couldn't see the joy: "I've chased before."

"..." What do you mean chasing people? ? ?

Jian Jin looked up at the sky and was speechless. She endured it and couldn't beat him: "You were too reserved before! I mean we can chase it more directly."

Lu Zhi narrowed his eyes slightly, and tapped on the wheelchair with his beautiful fingers, as if he was thinking about what she said.

Jian Jin didn't dare to disturb him, so she kept quiet and let him think about it.

After a long time.

Only did Lu Zhi's faint voice sound from the car: "How do you chase after him?"

Jian Jin breathed a sigh of relief, and immediately discussed with him how to chase girls with great interest, for fear that his head would get hot and Nie Qingru would drag him into something life-and-death.

Her dream is not world peace, but her important people can live in peace.

She never wanted to see what happened tonight happen again.

It is not bad for Lu Zhi to have Jian Jin here, but the loss is relatively serious, and he has to deal with the provocations of other opposing forces after dawn.

Compared to Lu Zhi, Shadow is much more embarrassed.

Qiao Nian's people treated Lu Zhi's people mercifully because of their relationship with Tianchen and Jian Jin, and they didn't punish Lu Zhi's people to death.

Chapter 3960: This is also a cruel man

People like Hongmeng don't have this kind of friendship with their hermit family. After Guan Yan learned that Lu Zhi and Yingying had left early, he just asked people to chase Yingying and them.

At the moment.

On the dark road, a black car ran wildly and almost hit the roadside railing several times. Behind the crazy behavior were seven or eight cars honking their horns and chasing them.

The driver's face turned pale with fright, he kept stepping on the accelerator, his eyes looked back from time to time, and he kept talking: "They are going to catch up! What should we do? We are about to be caught up."

Shadow cursed extremely viciously, "Shut up!"

The man was only quiet for a few seconds, and as the lights from the rearview mirror got closer, he panicked again.

"Master Shadow, they are about to catch up with us! Think of a way."

"They're coming!"

"what to do?"

Shadow was so noisy that he had a headache, covered his eyes from the glare with his hands, looked ahead with an extremely ugly face, and calmly arranged: "Don't worry about them driving forward. There is a river ahead. You open all the windows and speed up later. Rush in!"

"...Keep, drive, drive into the river??" The man gasped when he heard this, and his frightened face turned extremely pale in an instant.

"If you want to live, just talk to me." While speaking, Shadow started to unbuckle his seat belt, ready to jump out of the car without any nonsense.

The man probably understood their situation, gritted his teeth, and obeyed the shadow's arrangement when the car drove to the bend near the river.

Suddenly accelerated and rushed forward, the black car smashed through the railing on the road and flew into the river.

"Crack!" The loud noise of falling into the water attracted the attention of many people. Many passing cars stopped and looked towards the river.

At the same time, several cars sent by Guan Yan to chase arrived one after another. They parked their cars on the side of the road and got off immediately to check by the river.

The windows on all sides of the black car were opened, and the river water poured in at the moment it fell into the water. The weight of the water accelerated the speed at which the river swallowed the car.

When the inkstone viewers rushed over, they only saw a small part of the roof exposed on the river, and the body had already sunk into the turbulent river and they could not see clearly.

The sky is so dark, and the current below is fast.

The leader stopped the little partner who was going down to find someone, and said in a low voice: "It's too dangerous for you to go down. And if they want to run, they must leave the car and swim away the moment they fall into the water. Let's go to the other side of the river to find them!"

Say it.

The group returned to the car quickly, and drove seven or eight cars to the other side of the river.

The crowd watching by the river realized that the car that just flew into the river was not in an accident, but was involved in a dispute.

Everyone was afraid of getting involved in right and wrong, so they suddenly lost interest in watching and drove away one after another.

the other side.

Shadow has already climbed up to the shore with agility. Regardless of the man who has not yet landed, he checked the other weapons on his waist and walked away from the vicinity step by step.

He knew very well that the Hongmeng people would arrive here in a few minutes, and if he didn't leave, he might not be able to leave.

As for whether the man who ran out with him can escape smoothly, it has nothing to do with him! Over the years by Nie Qingru's side, he has long learned to have a heart of stone and only care about his own safety.

Rao was decisive enough to unbuckle his seat belt in advance and open the car window. The impact of the falling water still broke a rib of his, so that he was dripping water all over his body right now, and the hand on his waist was still wet. Severe pain can be felt in the rib cage.
