

Madam's 3981

Chapter 3981 Sister Nian: Is it possible to be poisoned?

He knelt down to look at the little guy, said no thanks, then stood up again, and asked the girl, "Who are you looking for me for?"

"Yeah." Qiao Nian pulled up a chair and let Ye Qichen sit on it. He stood there and talked to Yu Yan: "Why hasn't he woke up yet?"

Yu Yan spread out his hands: "How do I know about the surgery you performed?"

Qiao Nian frowned, her eyes were firm and she couldn't hide the irritability: "I can be sure that the operation process will be fine!"

"That's it." Yu Yan also said firmly: "I can also be sure that all the data of his body are recovering. It is only a matter of time before he wakes up."

Qiao Nian's eyes were full of uncontrollable depression: "But he hasn't woken up yet!"

Yu Yan once again saw that she couldn't control her emotional side, so she was quiet for a while, walked over and patted her on the shoulder, and said in a deep voice, "Q, wait a little longer."

Qiao Nian exhaled a foul breath, and the manic spirit disappeared. Before turning around and taking Ye Qichen away, he stopped and said to Yu Yan, "I'll wait for a day at most. If he still doesn't wake up tomorrow, I'll go find Nie Qingru."

Yu Yan's eyebrows twitched when he heard the words, he watched the girl go out, picked up the internal phone and dialed several members of the medical team.

"Come to my studio."

"Let's discuss the patient's various physical data and analyze whether there is a possibility of poisoning."

the other side.

Ye Wangchuan has not woken up for three days.

The reconciliation with the Hermit family that the Ye family promised before naturally cannot proceed.

Old Xue and Vancouver also fell out because of Qiao Nian's 800 million mental damage expenses. Now that Vancouver is in Beijing, he is unwilling to run errands for the Hermit Family any more.

Things have reached an impasse like this.

Compared to the outside, Mr. Xue and Ying Ying tried their best to rescue Nie Qingru.

Nie Qingru who stayed in the manor was much more at ease.

Since she 'cooperated' with Moxi and others to record the video, she knew that her plan would definitely fail. Apart from being shocked and angry on the first day, she quickly calmed down on the second day.

For the next two consecutive days, she was able to ignore a dozen strong men in the manor who were full of evil spirits, as if nothing had happened, so she should do what she should do. First-class psychological quality!

On the evening of the third day, there was no news of Ye Wangchuan waking up from the hospital.

Even Mo Xi, who was always calm, was a little shaken this time. If he hadn't needed to sit and watch Nie Qingru in person, he might have rushed to the hospital to guard Nie Qingru like Ji Lin.

Although he tried his best to comfort himself that Ji Lin, Qin Shao and Ms. Qiao were in the hospital, it didn't matter whether he went or not, it's better to stay here and do the things that Mr. Wang needs to do...

But Nie Qingru still noticed the disappearing smile on his face.

After finishing her dinner, she wiped the corners of her mouth gracefully with a napkin. Her sharp eagle eyes noticed the diminishing smile on the face of the silent man standing beside her. She suddenly raised the corners of her mouth and said as if deliberately provocative: "Let me guess." Guess, maybe something happened to your master?"

Moxi looked up at her, raised his hand and pushed the glasses on his face, and replied calmly: "Queen, if I were in your old man's situation, I wouldn't say such things."

Nie Qingru carefully looked at the uncontrollable depression in his eyes, smiled suddenly, and gracefully dropped the napkin: "It seems that something really happened."

The veins on the back of Moxi's hands were bulging, but he was still able to remain unprovoked.

But the people in the other bunkers in the living room were not so calm, all of them were angry, and they put their hands on their weapons, as if their swords were on the verge of breaking out.

Chapter 3982 The old witch Na Nian is showing off her might

The servants in the manor were trembling with fear, for fear that the two sides would fight.

"Pfft." Nie Qingru suddenly sneered at this moment, breaking the deadlock, leaning back on the chair, staring at Mo Xi with a slightly raised brow, "Why, I guessed right, you are going to Do it. You better think clearly whether the people behind will let you do it!"

Moxi stared at her closely. Hearing this, most of his anger dissipated. He followed her example and leaned back, looking at her with his arms folded.

There was a strong mockery in the words: "I heard that the queen has always looked down on her granddaughter. It is said that there has never been a granddaughter like Miss Qiao. She would rather hand over the position of future successor to her natal nephew than look at herself. Kissing my granddaughter...Why are you so familiar with your grandmother now? People who don't know would think that you have a close relationship with Miss Qiao. "

Nie Qingru's expression changed suddenly, and she slapped the table to get up: "You'd better think about who you're talking to!"

"I think clearly, but I'm afraid that the queen can't figure out her current situation!" Moxi returned to her.

Nie Qingru pinched her palms and glared.

Moxi calmly accepted her murderous gaze, and stabbed her heart again: "The Hidden Family hasn't rescued you yet, which is enough to explain the problem."

"Queen, this is an illegal area, not the M state you always thought. If I were you old, I would recognize the reality and stop making embarrassing struggles here."

Nie Qingru was rarely humiliated by this kind of face-to-face, but after all, she had a strong psychological quality, and she didn't turn her face just because of Moxi's sarcasm.

Instead, he stood there and replied to Moxi with cold eyes: "Really? No matter what you say, don't you dare to touch me?"

Moxi narrowed his eyes, his chest heaved, and he could see that he was angry at being provoked by Nie Qingru.

How Nie Qing waited for his sharp eyes, immediately noticed the change in Moxi, and said with a sneer: "I moved your master, you still have to guard me here and be my bodyguard. So, you don't have to mock me, you It's not going anywhere!"

She finished.

Without looking at Moxi who was still sitting there, and without caring about the seven or eight strong men in the living room, he pulled out the chair and made a "cracking" sound, and went back to the room upstairs.

Moxi looked at her back as she went upstairs, took off her glasses, pinched the bridge of her nose, and suppressed the aggrieved anger in her chest.

No matter how you say it, Nie Qingru is Miss Qiao's grandmother, even if he doesn't give face to the Hermit Family, he will always give Miss Qiao face.

Before Miss Qiao said what to do, he couldn't hurt Nie Qingru.

Nie Qingru obviously knows this well, so she deliberately provokes them in front of them again and again with confidence...

Moxi even knew what Nie Qingru was doing.

He looked back at the people in the bunker in the living room who dared not speak out, his eyes were covered with frost, and he pursed his lips.

In the end, he didn't tell Qiao Nian about Nie Qingru's tricks.

Miss Qiao is still guarding the hospital, at least he won't burden Miss Qiao.

"Huh." Moxi breathed out the foul air in his chest, and finally felt better.

Just thinking of Nie Qingru bragging about his relationship with Ms. Qiao made him extremely disgusted every time he thought about it.

The next morning.

In the ICU ward of the hospital, the outside sunlight slanted in through the windows, and the man lying on the hospital bed was covered with a velvet white luster.

Chapter 3983 Sister Nian is going to find Nie Qingru

His already straight eyelashes are more conspicuous in the sun, his appearance is outstanding, his thin rose-colored lips are tightly pressed, and his eyes are closed, as if he is asleep.

There are two medical instruments next to his bed, which are making a 'didi' sound, checking patient data 24 hours a day.

Qiao Nian stood outside the ward and looked in through the door glass. After standing for a while, she suddenly turned around and left: "I'll go out for a while."

Yu Yan was taken aback, and hurried to pull her: "Q, where are you going?"

Qiao Nian avoids his hand, no violent emotions can be seen on her beautiful and delicate face, pushes him away, and said flatly, "Call me when he wakes up."

When Qiao Nian was walking out, he happened to meet Qin Si and Guan Yan coming over.

"Sister Qiao, are you going out?" Qin Si bumped into her and greeted her, thinking that Qiao Nian was going out to buy something.

"Hmm." Qiao Nian lazily replied, nodded with Guan Yan and went out.

On the contrary, Guan Yan sensed the unfriendly aura around her, subconsciously stopped, and looked back.

It's a pity that Qiao Nian had already entered the elevator, and the elevator door closed and disappeared in a blink of an eye.

"There's something wrong with sun." Guan Yan lowered his eyes and just finished talking to Qin Si in a low voice.

Yu Yan came over to meet them in a hurry, and when she heard her words, she said impatiently: "She suspects that Young Master Ye has been poisoned, and she wants to find Nie Qingru for an antidote."

"What?!" Guan Yan subconsciously looked in the direction the girl left.

The elevator doors were already closed.

Where is the shadow of Qiao Nian.

And Qin Si and Ji Lin were also shocked, grasping the key point of his words: "Is there poison in the bullet in the master?"

"I don't know." Yu Yan shook his head, and didn't say much: "As far as the blood data I and other people have checked are not poisonous, but he hasn't woken up, and it can't be ruled out that some kind of blood can't be detected. A new type of poison...is possible, but unlikely."

Yu Yan is very confident in her level of medicine.

The poison that he couldn't even check out probably didn't exist, but it was indeed a problem that Ye Wangchuan hadn't woken up.

Which link went wrong?

Yuyan unconsciously wanders off to think.

Qin Si ignored him, took out his mobile phone and said to others, "I'll call Moxi and ask him to stop him."

Ji Lin also came to his senses, and said with a complicated expression: "I'm going to contact Missy."

Everyone acted separately, afraid that Qiao Nian would lose control of his temper and strike too hard and kill Nie Qingru, which would be troublesome.

"You said Niannian went to find... her grandma?" Ye Lan was still in the hotel not long after she got up, and was about to take Ye Qichen to the hospital after changing her clothes.

When Ji Lin called, she couldn't react immediately. Until Ji Lin explained the reason to her: "Miss Qiao thinks that Master Wang has not woken up because there is something wrong with the bullets used by the hidden family."

Ye Lan took a turn to understand the meaning of Ji Lin's words, and hurriedly asked: "So that bullet..."

Ji Lin understood what she was going to ask, and quickly answered, "Dr. Yu said that the bullet was not poisonous according to the blood test results. Everyone is afraid... Miss Qiao's concern is chaotic, because Mr. Wang has not woken up and moved Nie Qingru in the illegal area. ."

Beijing city has agreed to reconcile with M state.

Miss Qiao personally agreed to release him.

At this juncture, Qiao Nian couldn't justify touching Nie Qingru again. In the future, the Hidden World Family will definitely seize the opportunity to counterattack wildly... This is the reason why everyone doesn't want Qiao Nian to go to Nie Qingru at this time.

Chapter 3984 Sister Nian is here at this time

Ji Lin said a few more words to Ye Lan.

Ye Lan's expression gradually became more serious, and he said to Ji Lin: "I will go to the hospital to meet you immediately. Before that, I will contact Moxi."

"OK."

Ye Lan hung up the phone and walked back, while digging out the Moxie number and dialing it.

Coincidentally, Qin Si was also calling Moxi, and the two calls came in at the same time, but the two calls were busy and did not get through.

Just as the two of them continued to call Moxi, Mo Dong's call happened to come in between them.

Qin Si and Ye Lan heard a mechanical female voice from the mobile phone at the same time: "Sorry, the number you dialed is currently on the call, please wait..."

Qin Si had no choice but to return to Guan Yan and the others with his mobile phone, and said solemnly: "I can't get through, he is on the phone."

Guan Yan frowned: "Could you be calling Sun?"

"have no idea."

Qin Si really didn't know, but his heart sank, and his face became more and more anxious.

Actually, Moxi didn't know that Qiao Nian was coming.

He returned to the manor villa after answering Mo Dong's phone outside, and saw Nie Qingru get up according to the usual routine, sitting at the dining table gracefully and luxuriously preparing for breakfast under the guard of their brothers.

She raised her eyes to see Moxi coming in, put down the sandwich gracefully, and twitched the corners of her lips, with sarcasm in her eyes: "It seems that your master's situation is not good today."

The people in the living room occupying the four corners of the east, west, north and south and guarding her bunker really looked at her with angry expressions.

Nie Qingru enjoyed their resentment but did not dare to do anything, and was about to provoke them again, and by the way, used this method to drive a wedge between Qiao Nian and the people in the dark castle.

"I had a headache last night and couldn't sleep. Find a doctor for me today. Don't affect my lunch break. It's best to come at three o'clock in the afternoon."

"Find someone to call me."

Nie Qingru gave orders out of habit.

The anger in the eyes of Bunbao and the others grew even stronger.

Moxi knew that she did it on purpose, and he was inevitably irritated by her attitude. He suppressed his anger and reminded her with a smile: "Queen, you are always a prisoner."

"So what?" Nie Qingru squinted at the past, and said calmly, "Qiao Nian doesn't want to see me die here, does she?"

Moxi raised his hand and pushed down the gold-rimmed glasses, unwilling to entangle with her: "I'll arrange a doctor later, but when will the doctor come, and when will you see a doctor."

Nie Qingru pushed away the chair and stood up, glaring at him with a particularly tough attitude: "I'm going to take a lunch break at noon, I'll talk about it when I get up."

Moxi knew that she deliberately provoked him, but he still couldn't hold back, his jaw was tightened, the corners of his mouth were drawn into a straight line, and his eyes fell on Nie Qingru, who was about to burn.

Even he could hardly bear it, let alone the other people in the dark castle.

Nie Qingru has been acting like a monster for the past few days. People with a little temper can hardly stand it any longer. Some people clenched their back molars and were about to stand up.

At this moment, the brother who was in charge of squatting outside ran over and added fuel to the fire in this weird atmosphere: "Boss, Miss Qiao is here."

Moxi's eyelids twitched, obviously feeling the growing dissatisfaction of the people around him, he paused, and said to the person, "Where is it, I'll pick him up."

Qiao Nian is here? Nie Qingru's surprised expression was not as relaxed as those in the dark castle imagined. She knew Qiao Nian's attitude towards her better than anyone else... She was afraid that Qiao Nian would make her unable to step down in public.

Chapter 3985 Qiao Nian, don't mess around

Outside.

Before Moxi went out to pick him up, the gloomy-eyed girl had strode in.

"Miss Qiao." Moxi was surprised that she came so quickly, and greeted her politely.

Qiao Nian hummed and passed him.

From the moment she came in, she felt unfriendly gazes from all around, and dissatisfaction with her floated in the air, but those emotions were well hidden.

She didn't know what happened here before she came here, and when she raised her eyes, she saw Nie Qingru's arrogant demeanor that was too late to put away.

Qiao Nian walked straight over.

Nie Qingru looked at the girl's aggressive steps, felt a sense of uneasiness, took half a step back, stabilized her figure, and sternly scolded Qiao Nian who kept approaching her: "Qiao Nian, why are you crazy?! Stop, stop!" You are not allowed to come here."

The girl approached step by step without saying a word. When she got very close to her, she took out a small Bock pistol from her pocket, and loaded it in front of Nie Qingru.

She lowered her eyes to load the gun very skillfully, and her whole body was full of murderous intent, extremely serious.

Nie Qingru's eyebrows jumped up suddenly, her face was terrified, and she took two steps back again, very defensive: "What do you want to do? I'm your grandma!"

"oh."

Qiao Nian had already loaded the bullet, raised her eyes, walked forward casually, put the muzzle of the gun on her forehead, and smiled.

"Then do you want to meet my mother?"

Nie Qingru's expression changed suddenly, she stared at the girl in front of her in disbelief and said, "Qiao Nian, are you crazy?"

She was not afraid of threats from Moxie, nor was she afraid of the people in other dark forts in the manor.

But she had to be afraid of the girl in front of her.

Nie Qingru knew very well in her heart that other people would scare her most, but Qiao Nian was different, this villain really dared to do it!

Facing Qiao Nian's noncommittal indifference, she took a deep breath, tried to adjust her facial expression, squeezed out a kind expression, looked at the girl and asked in a slow voice, "You must have a reason to lose your temper at me. Well, what happened?"

"Tch." Qiao Nian looked down on her posturing, but she had something to ask Nie Qingru.

Only then seemed to save face and said slowly: "You let someone put poison on the bullet?"

"What?"

Nie Qingru thought that she had heard wrongly.

"What's the meaning?"

Qiao Nian impatiently pushed the muzzle of the gun to her forehead, and said, "Don't move around."

Nie Qingru didn't dare to move at once, and stood stiffly in the same place again, with a strong and shrewd old face stretched out, and the corners of her mouth were desperately trying to make a benevolent expression: "I don't know what you mean, but I didn't have people put poison on the bullets."

She asked with concern again: "Could it be that Ye Wangchuan hasn't woken up yet? So you suspect that he was poisoned."

Moxi heard the conversation between the two, and his forehead twitched. He looked at the girl, worried and anxious: "Miss Qiao, Master Wang hasn't woken up yet?"

"Tsk." Qiao Nian's cold eyes fell on the corner of Nie Qingru's mouth that was raised up for a moment. His eyes were grumpy and cold, and his fingertips were stretched straight. He was about to teach her a lesson to wake up.

Nie Qingru felt her overwhelming killing intent, her heart sank, and she quickly stepped back and said, "Qiao Nian, don't act recklessly. You should be very clear about the consequences of touching me in the illegal area. Even if you don't think about yourself, you can It's time to think about the people brought by Hongmeng and Ye Wangchuan. Are those people your friends? You don't care about them anymore?"

Chapter 3986 Master Wang woke up

The interest alliance formed by hundreds of top families is no joke. Qiao Nian recklessly killed her in the illegal area, and he will pay a huge price!

As long as she is the Queen of the Hidden Family, she will have the support of the entire Hidden Family behind her.

Nie Qingru's eyes flickered and her pupils shrank slightly. In fact, she had no idea whether Qiao Nian would listen to her or not.

She relied on the aura she had cultivated over the years to hold herself together without showing timidity, clenched her fists, and said solemnly: "I swear no one has tampered with the bullet!"

"Do you swear that anyone will believe it?" The girl raised her foot again, holding a gun in her hand, approaching aggressively.

"Qiao Nian, I think you are looking for faults on purpose!" Nie Qingru's eyelids twitched, annoyed, wishing for a video to prove his innocence: "I didn't tamper with the bullet. I found so many people, and people After dismissing you, why is there any need to tamper with the bullet? According to the situation at that time, if you hadn't rushed back, he would have died long ago."

When Nie Qingru said this, there was deep hatred in his eyes.

She never thought that when Ye Fanchuan was suddenly attacked, he could immediately arrange for people to find her, and by holding her hostage, he asked their people to stop.

It's a pity that Lu Zhi is also a lunatic.

If Qiao Nian hadn't arrived in time, Lu Zhi would never have stopped.

Everything is hard to say.

"In my eyes, he is a person who is bound to die. If you think about it carefully, you will know that I don't have to do that!"

Nie Qingru pinched the palms of her hands when she mentioned the excitement, and explained with an angry face.

Her explanation made sense, so Qiao Nian slowed down as he approached her.

Nie Qingru seized this opportunity, looked straight at the girl, and emphasized again: "It's not me. I don't know why he didn't wake up, but I have nothing to do with this matter!"

The girl still has a murderous look on her body: "Really?"

Even Moxi could see that Qiao Nian was not in the right mood, stepped forward to stop Qiao Nian, looked at the girl, and slowed down his voice: "Miss Qiao, is Master Wang really poisoned?"

When Qiao Nian saw that it was him, the hostility in his eyes subsided, his fingers rested on the body of the gun, and he turned his eyes away: "I don't know."

Moxi was stunned.

have no idea? What an answer.

He quickly came back to his senses: "Since..."

Qiao Nian's phone rang.

She glanced at Moxi, took out her cell phone, and said coldly, "Sorry, I'm going to answer the call."

Out of the corner of Moxi's eyes, he caught a glimpse of the word 'leaf' jumping on the screen of her mobile phone, regained his composure, and nodded to make way: "Okay."

Qiao Nian didn't go very far.

She picked up the phone with a hoarse voice: "Hello, Aunt Ye."

Ye Lan was impatient: "Nian Nian, where are you?"

Qiao Nian looked back at Moxi, Nie Qingru and the others, lowered her eyes again, and said calmly, "There's something... outside."

Ye Lan knew what she was doing, so she didn't ask her to the end, and kept the story short: "Wu Chuan woke up. He's looking for you in the hospital."

"Are you awake?!" Qiao Nian curled up her fingers, subconsciously thinking that Ye Lan was coaxing her back: "When did he wake up?"

"Wait for me to download." Ye Lan probably guessed what she was thinking: "I'll hang up first and send you a video call."

said.

Hang up the phone on the other end.

Within a few seconds, Ye Lan's WeChat video popped up non-stop.

Qiao Nian swiped her finger to pick it up, the camera over there was shaking, probably Ye Lan was turning back with the phone.

Finally the camera stabilized.

Chapter 3987 You are not impulsive

Qiao Nian saw Ye Wangchuan's ward full of doctors and nurses, and Qin Si, Ji Lin and Guan Yan guarding the door.

Out of the corner of her eye, she saw Ye Qichen who was guarding in front of the hospital bed.

What made her most memorable was leaning against the young man who propped up the pillow. His clear face was as pale as if he had been in a coma for several days, and his lips were dry, which did not affect the innate nobility of his body in the slightest.

Those deep eyes with falling stars are calm and calm no matter when you look at them, with a kind of detachment and indifference overlooking all living beings.

It seems that everything in this world has nothing to do with him, and there are very few things that fall into his eyes and make his eyes stay for a while.

The doctor surrounded him, Yu Yan was writing something with a notebook and a brush, while communicating with the people on the hospital bed.

He really woke up... Qiao Nian's heart sank, and there was an indescribable sense of relaxation in all limbs, as if the strings that had been tense for several days suddenly relaxed and the nerves soothed.

"Nian Nian, did you see? The doctor is examining him. Wang Chuan woke up, and he was looking for you as soon as he woke up. Do you want to come back first?" Ye Lan's face appeared in the camera.

"Okay." Qiao Nian put one hand into his pocket, walked back, and said concisely, "I'll go back right away."

Ye Lan also noticed that Moxi appeared behind her, and beside her was a graceful and arrogant old woman, who was probably Qiao Nian's grandmother.

The queen of the hermit family.

She just pretended she didn't see it, and after a few words with Qiao Nian, she hung up the video.

Qiao Nian waited for her to hang up the video before slowly putting away her phone and walking back in front of the two.

Moxi is of course full of joy, having heard the good news: "Master Wang is awake? Just wake up."

"En." Qiao Nian's sharp brows softened, and he replied, he seemed to be in a good mood, at least not as scary as he was full of hostility just now.

Nie Qingru slacked off immediately: "I just said that this matter has nothing to do with me. You still came to my door and pointed a gun at me. Do you think what you did is appropriate?"

She almost wanted to talk about 'upbringing' again.

It just came to the point of her mouth that she remembered Qiao Nian's impatient reaction when she said that Qiao Nian was not well-bred a few times before, so she wisely chose to shut up and not mention those two words.

The main reason is that Qiao Nian pointed a gun at her temple just now, which left a psychological shadow on her.

Nie Qingru always felt that if she provoked her again, things might no longer be under her control. So he endured it extremely unwillingly, but couldn't hide the disgust and severity in his eyes.

"You are not seventeen or eighteen years old, you should be sensible! You can't be so impulsive every time you do something, and don't care about the consequences. If I am your grandmother, I can forgive you. If it is someone else, who can forgive you."

"You don't need to tell me these things." Qiao Nian looked at her with dark eyes, as if seeing her true face behind her hypocritical face, and sneered, "Don't worry, I'll let you go."

"That's good." Nie Qingru only felt that her smile was extremely dazzling, but she didn't dare to provoke her, and she acquiesced that she was acting.

Qiao Nian greeted Moxi and was about to leave.

Before she left, she caught a glimpse of Nie Qingru's haughty and high-spirited face from the corner of her eye, and turned her head as if unintentionally, and said, "By the way, you don't know yet, do you?"

Nie Qingru's eyes collided with her, her heart felt cold, but her body ignored the girl uncontrollably: "Know what?"

"Well." The girl smiled casually, her eyes full of mockery: "You just advised me not to act impulsively, it's easy to suffer, and I don't seem to have done it myself..."

Chapter 3988 I finally understand the relationship between Sister Nian and Nie Qingru

Nie Qingru interrupted her irritably: "What are you trying to say!"

"I didn't want to say anything, just to tell you good news." Qiao Nian looked at her uncontrollable emotions visible to the naked eye, smiled, and her expression became more and more perverted, staring at Nie Qingru's sharp eyes, and said: "The Privy Council is right. You are very dissatisfied with your recent behavior. I heard that when you go back, the impeachment procedure will be launched against you. In a short time, you probably won't need to keep emphasizing your identity as the Queen of the Hermit Family..."

Qiao Nian didn't finish the rest of the sentence, leaving it to Nie Qingru to digest.

Turned around and left the manor without looking back.

Nie Qingru came back to her senses after she left, her veins were bulging, she shook her head and immediately walked upstairs to the bedroom.

She wants to contact State M immediately to find out the situation.

Moxi didn't stop her when she saw her hurrying up, turned around and said to the others in the living room: "Be careful with her before Master Wang releases her."

"Yes, boss."

Others in the dark castle answered loudly this time.

The oppressive atmosphere and inner dissatisfaction on them all disappeared after Qiao Nian came, and it became clear that Nie Qingru was just using Ms. Qiao as a raft.

People didn't recognize her as a cheap grandma at all!

She pretended to be intimate as a grandmother herself. As the empress of the hidden family, it would be quite... shameless to do such a thing with her status.

On the way.

Qiao Nian drove all the way to the hospital, slammed on the brakes, and the car wagged its tail and stopped on the parking lot at the entrance.

She got out of the car, picked up her mobile phone and walked quickly to the hospital.

Ye Wangchuan was in the first area of the inpatient department, so Qiao Nian rushed all the way to the intensive observation room.

"Ding."

As soon as she stepped out of the elevator, she met Ye Lanzheng, and then the IPA boss Fred came out from the other side.

"Nian Nian?" Ye Lan was a little surprised to see her.

Fred immediately looked at her.

Qiao Nian nodded to the two as a greeting, pointed to the direction of the ward and said to Ye Lan: "Aunt Ye, I'll go to see Ye Wangchuan first."

"Okay." Ye Lan came back to her senses, responded hastily, and then said: "Do you want me to take you there?"

After she finished speaking, she realized that she was so busy that she was dizzy.

Fortunately, Qiao Nian didn't say anything, and politely declined her offer: "Go ahead and greet your friends, I'll go there by myself."

Ye Lan was a little embarrassed at first, but when she saw that Qiao Nian didn't respond, she relaxed, and no longer struggled with blurting out jokes, she hurriedly said, "Doctor Yu is in the ward."

"OK." Qiao Nian made a gesture, with a graceful back.

Seeing her walking away, Ye Lan looked away, and from the corner of her eyes, she saw the middle-aged man standing beside her from the beginning to the end, holding his forehead with a little headache, and walking to the side: "Come with me! "

"I have something to tell you."

"Um."

Fred clearly knew that she was going to settle accounts afterwards, so he broke up with him, so he followed. He made up his mind, he just listened to what Ye Lan told her, but he didn't do it anyway, so why bother to make her angry.

Inside the ward.

Yu Yan was telling the man on the hospital bed what to pay attention to during this time: "You should touch less water and eat more. Don't touch spicy food recently, which is not conducive to wound healing. Also, don't flush the water when taking a bath, just wipe it with a wet towel, so as not to wound infection..."

"Um."

When Qiao read in, he only heard the man's deep and pleasant voice, with a soft tone, revealing laziness and carelessness, like a feather brushing gently over the pinnae.

Chapter 3989 Sister Nian is actually a little angry

Yu Yan is still saying: "...and your injured hand, don't use force for the time being. It will take at least two or three months of rest before you can lift heavy objects after a hundred days of injury."

Ye Wangchuan's voice was hoarse: "Okay."

"Yeah. Just remember to follow the doctor's orders." Yu Yan put away the small notebook in his hand, and was ready to tilt his head in satisfaction to arrange for the nurse to prepare the gauze and dressing.

Out of the corner of his eye, he spotted the person who came in.

He waved at the girl and said, "You came just in time."

Qiao Nian walked over.

Yu Yan pouted and said: "Hey, I'm going to change his medicine. Since you're here, I'll leave this task to you!"

As he spoke, he pointed to Qiao Nian where the gauze and alcohol were, and called the nurse beside him: "You and I go out first."

"Okay, Doctor Yu."

The nurse waited for half an hour thinking that she could change the dressing on the man on the hospital bed, but who knew that Cheng Yaojin came out on the way, she reluctantly looked at the handsome man on the bed, and followed Yu Yan every step of the way...

Qiao Nian noticed the last lost look in the nurse's eyes, walked over, dragged a chair to the side of the bed, and went back to the corner to get the medicine box.

She approached the hospital bed, put the medicine box on the chair, opened the box, and fiddled with her fingers to check whether the items inside were complete.

Then he took out all the necessary things such as scissors, gauze, and anti-inflammatory drugs and put them outside, then leaned over to the man on the hospital bed, and stretched out his hand to take off his clothes: "I'll help you change the dressing."

Ye Fanchuan felt her breath spraying on his neck, plucking at his heartstrings, his eyes were quick and his hands were quick to grab the girl's hand who was going to unbutton him, his voice was more than twice hoarse than before: "I will do it myself."

"Okay." Qiao Nian immediately stepped aside and let him do it by himself.

Ye Wangchuan was wearing a hospital gown, and the light blue striped cotton clothes gave him an extravagant air, making him look like a luxury brand.

Qiao Nian stood aside, squinting to see his slender fingers unbuttoning the collar one by one, exposing the thin collarbone from the neck down.

But these were not the focus of her eyes, Qiao Nian only saw the shocking gauze wrapped around his right shoulder the whole time.

She stared slightly, breathed a little and walked over to help, but the moment she lowered her head revealed her current mood: "You haven't woken up for three days."

Ye Wangchuan's heart lake seemed to be thrown into ripples by a stone, his eyes softened, his beautiful thin lips curled up, and he was still in the mood to joke: "Really? Maybe it's because I haven't slept well for a long time, and I fell asleep accidentally. It's too much...it makes you worry, Nian Nian."

Qiao Nian exerted force on his hand, but his face remained expressionless: "You're not called God Qiao anymore?"

"Hiss." Ye Wangchuan took a deep breath, the smile on his lips never let go, and his narrow eyes stared deeply at the person who helped him change the medicine: "God Qiao."

Qiao Nian squinted at him, pursed her lips, speeded up her hands and moved a lot more lightly: "I'm going to take the medicine, hold on."

She took the anti-inflammatory medicine on the side, unscrewed the cap, raised her neck again and whispered to comfort the man on the hospital bed: "It will hurt a little."

"You do it." Ye Wangchuan looked relaxed, his body relaxed.

Only when a person trusts another person extremely can he reveal his vulnerable side unreservedly.

Qiao Nian lowered his eyebrows, stopped talking nonsense, and poured the red anti-inflammatory potion along his exposed wound.

The potion made a slight "nourishing" sound when it touched the skin, and the sound was not loud. Qiao Nian immediately raised his eyes to see the man's expression.

Chapter 3990 Master Wang peels oranges for Sister Nian

Ye Fanchuan closed his eyes slightly, his outline was sharp, and no pain could be seen from his expression.

But Qiao Nian looked down, and saw the veins on the back of his hand grasping the bed sheet bulging, not like the calm and calm expression on his face.

Qiao Nian herself has experienced these pains, but now she couldn't bear to look away. After the effect of the medicine had passed, she turned around and walked over to wrap the wound on his shoulder layer by layer with gauze. He whispered: "In the future, the medicine will be changed every three days, and after a month, it will be changed to once a week until your wound scabs."

"Yeah." Ye Wangchuan opened his eyes, the outside sunlight came in and fell on the tall bridge of the nose, and the eyelashes were covered with a layer of gold.

He pulled up his clothes, buttoned himself, and talked to Qiao Nian, his voice hoarse: "Are you going to release Nie Qingru?"

"She can't die in an illegal area."

Qiao Nian didn't mention the deal between the Hermit Family and the Beijing City, bent down to remove the medicine box, sat down on the chair beside the bed, picked up the fruit bought by Qin Si and others on the table, and began to peel it.

"I went to see her. She doesn't know that the Hermit Family is about to impeach her. When she goes back, she will be busy."

Qiao Nian handed over the peeled orange. There was a gleam in her dark eyes, and her tone was as casual as ever: "Sometimes it's more painful to break a person's willpower than to kill her. That's it. Dead, too cheap for her."

Ye Wangchuan heard her finished speaking, stretched out his hand to take the orange in mid-air, looked at the girl's unconcealable coldness, and knew that the scene where she saw Nie Qingru would never be good.

He no longer mentioned Nie Qingru, lowered his head and patiently tore off the silk screen on the surface of the orange, and said softly: "Then Zhai Xicheng..."

"I'm still being looked for." Qiao Nian frowned irritably, reached for the lighter from her pocket, and wanted to take it out.

Before that, she noticed the man on the hospital bed again, silently took out a candy, pinched it on her fingertips and refused to eat it. He loosened his brows and pretended to be relaxed, "It's impossible for a living person to disappear for no reason. He must be around here."

Actually, Ye Fanchuan thought of a possibility, but it only touched the mania in the girl's eyes. He didn't say it, but handed back the orange that had been carefully peeled off the silk screen: "There will always be someone."

Qiao Nian saw the orange he had peeled come back in front of him again, paused, looked up, and touched the thick inkstone in the man's eyes.

My heart skipped a beat.

She took it slowly, her eyes darkened, she pursed her lips and said, "I haven't figured out how to explain to you what Lu Zhi did this time."

Just because Lu Zhi did such a thing, everyone must have turned their faces.

She is not one to hesitate.

It's just that Jian Jin is involved.

Qiao Nian has always been indifferent to external affairs, but she knows what Jian Jin's dream has always been.

Jian Jin always wanted the three of them to go on for a long time.

This time, Jian Jin also risked falling out with Lu Zhi, and rushed to the Hongmeng headquarters regardless of her own safety. Anyway, at least she couldn't trouble Lu Zhi immediately after the incident, and made Lu Zhi lack arms and legs.

But after this time, Qiao Nian was sure that she and Lu Zhi could no longer be friends.

Everyone has a different standpoint and a different principle of doing things. Not to mention that Lu Zhi's actions touched her bottom line this time, and she went too far.

Even if they had a life-long friendship, he didn't use it like this.
