

Madam's 4021

Chapter 4021 I didn't help anyone

Unmoved, Quentin rolled up the sleeves hanging by his side, and said indifferently: "I didn't help her, but I didn't help the Queen either."

After he finished speaking, he smiled at the old man in the blue shirt: "Oh, I was wrong. From today onwards, I should call her Nie Qingru. The Hermit Family no longer has a queen."

Old Xue clenched his hand by his side and clenched it into a fist. He stared at Quentin with unreasonable eyes, as if he had done something wrong.

Quentin didn't care what he thought of him, and turned around to ask the young man standing beside him, "Will you come with me?"

Lei Kai came to his senses, nodded, followed up calmly and said, "I happen to have something to ask you, let's go together."

He wanted to know why the archbishop knew that the queen would be successfully impeached! What's in the middle is a secret he doesn't know.

Quentin walked ahead.

Lei Kai followed behind.

The two walked away, and neither of them looked at the old man in blue.

Many people remained in the stepped conference hall, and some took out their mobile phones to take pictures and record this historic moment.

Old Xue's face was covered with a layer of dilapidated gray.

His subordinates watched his face carefully, and whispered to him: "Old Xue, the empress and the archbishop are all gone. Shall we go?"

The old man in green shirt took a deep breath and calmed down: "Let's go!"

Outside.

Nie Qingru hurried out.

Nie Tao chased after her and called her from behind: "Sister, sister!"

Shadow turned to see him, and whispered beside Nie Qingru, "It's Mr. Nie."

Nie Qingru slowed down, barely stopped, and waited for him to come over, with a cold face and unfriendly eyes: "What are you doing?"

She doesn't want to talk to anyone now.

I just want to go back immediately, calm down, organize my thoughts to solve the current mess, and see if I still have a chance to turn things around.

Instead of being stopped at the exit of the Privy Council, let the eyes from all directions come to watch her, watching her jokes...

Seeing her waiting for him, Nie Tao walked up to her and looked up and down, and said in a more impatient tone than her: "What's the matter with you! Did someone manipulate the number of votes? How could you only have 36 votes?"

As the eldest brother Nie Qingru.

Nie Tao has long been accustomed to being superior to others. He cannot accept falling from a height just like Nie Qingru, even more unable to accept this result than Nie Qingru herself.

"Is it your family's... evil son." He thought of Qiao Nian, and said very bluntly.

In the past, he was still concerned about Nie Qingru's identity, and spoke politely to Nie Qingru, but now he is revealing his true character.

"Why can't you control even a junior? You are her grandmother, as long as you coax her well, her age is still up to you. You have to argue with her everywhere. Now, let's worry about your queen's position." Gone."

Shadow frowned, intending to speak for Nie Qingru, but because of Nie Tao's identity, he had to hold back.

Nie Qingru looked at him impatiently: "That's what you told me to say?"

"of course not."

Nie Tao lowered his voice: "The old man doesn't know the result of the vote yet. If you know that you lost your empress status, I'm afraid you will die of anger."

Nie Qingru's already irritable mood became more depressed, and she stared at him coldly: "I'm not a doctor, are you useful to me?"

She accused Nie Tao mercilessly: "If it weren't for your ineffectiveness and miscalculation of the situation. Let me mistakenly think that you have really handled most of the families, I would be ashamed in front of so many people today?"

Chapter 4022 It is difficult to accept this result

"You have the energy to teach me how to do things here, why don't you go back and think about who lied to you and treated you like a monkey!"

She hurried back from the illegal area and didn't have much time to deal with impeachment, so she had to hand over some of the families to the Nie family to handle it for her.

Nie Tao always reported good news to her.

She mistakenly thought that those families were all persuaded to stand on her side.

It wasn't until she saw the voting numbers below with her own eyes today that she realized how many families just agreed to them on the surface, and voted for them in private.

"I didn't expect..." Nie Tao was scolded all over his face by her, his face turned blue and red and then turned white, and he opened his mouth, just about to say something.

Seeing Nie Qingru's cold and solemn expression again, he looked at him contemptuously, and said with his hands down, "I'm down, not dead."

"Don't forget, I still have Smith Bank in my hand. Big brother wants to teach me to be a man, so let the Nie family stand up first. Don't get used to soft food, you won't stand up and talk."

Her words were all about the scandal that the Nie family pushed her out of the marriage.

Nie Tao felt ashamed and was ashamed. In addition, Nie Qingru's threat was very serious, so he had to suppress his arrogance and whispered: "I didn't mean to teach you, I just said it. If you don't want to listen, let's be a family." , there is no need to speak too harshly."

"Okay, I still have things to do. If you have nothing to say, I'll leave." Nie Qingru interrupted him.

What else could Nie Tao say, so he could only say, "If you have time to go home, you have to talk to the old man."

Nie Qingru pretended not to hear, and walked away without looking back.

Nie Tao watched the back of her and the shadow, put away the flattery on his face, became stern, and mocked in a low voice: "...She is no longer the queen of the hidden family, and she still doesn't forget to show off!"

But after all, he will have to rely on Nie Qingru's protection in the future, even if he is unwilling, he has no choice but to turn back angrily and prepare to leave.

Nie Qingru lost face.

They who rely on Nie Qingru to have a name in the Hermit family are also reduced to a laughing stock.

Nie Tao didn't want to stay behind and be watched and joked by others, so he had to leave quickly, leaving before others were still immersed in the voting results.

...

"Queen, don't be angry." Shadow comforted the frosty woman all the way.

Nie Qingru walked forward without saying a word.

Until the shadow opened the door for her, she bent down to get in the car, rolled up the window, and blocked the world outside the window from the glass.

Nie Qingru just found a place to breathe in the narrow space, raised her hand to pinch the space between her eyebrows, and leaned on the back of the chair.

Shadow asked the driver to get out of the car, and he walked around to the front driving seat, got in the car and closed the door, and kept an eye on Nie Qingru's expression through the rearview mirror.

"Queen, the matter hasn't reached the point of no return. Let's think of a way." These were just his comforting words. Shadow himself knew how formal and solemn the impeachment meeting of the Privy Council was. Once the results of such an important meeting came out, it would be difficult Then go change.

It is almost impossible for the queen to want to be the same as before.

That is to say.

Qiao Nian really managed to drag the queen down from the altar, using one hand to grab the queen from the high throne.

Shadow can't imagine how bad Nie Qing is in his mood at the moment, because even he himself hasn't been able to accept the result.

He saw Nie Qingru in the rearview mirror just kneading the center of her eyebrows, keeping her eyes closed and not saying a word, feeling worried.

"Empress?"

Chapter 4023 Send her to reunite with her mother sooner or later

Nie Qingru slowly opened her eyes.

Under his watchful eyes, his face was full of sternness, and he said through gritted teeth: "Sooner or later, I will reunite her with her mother!"

Shadow instantly understood who she was talking about.

Who else could there be besides Qiao Nian.

It's just that at the current stall, he can't persuade him, so he has to keep silent.

"Let's go back first!"

Nie Qingru's hand was tightly grasping the hem of the clothes, and the back of her hand was so forceful that the capillaries bulged, which was terrifying... She still maintained a calm expression on the surface, but there was already a huge wave in her heart: "Xicheng is still in her hands, and there is still a This impeachment...needs to be resolved. Everything will be discussed when I go back, as long as the person is still alive, I can think of a solution."

"yes."

Shadow clenched his hand on the steering wheel to adjust the direction, stepped on the accelerator and started the car.

"Empress, shall we go back to...where?"

Nie Qingru has many residences in Continent M.

For convenience, she also bought a property near the Privy Council, and would often live in that house, so Shadow would ask where it is next time.

Nie Qingru's eyes flickered, thinking of the Privy Council and the embarrassment he had lost at today's impeachment meeting, he felt upset.

It hurts to think about it when the breath is stuck in the chest. All of this is thanks to Qiao Nian!

She closed her eyes: "Go back to the manor."

"clear."

Shadow lowered his voice, trying not to disturb her to rest, and immediately turned the car towards Nie Qingru's manor palace in the northern suburbs.

**

There is a time difference of more than ten hours between Continent M and the illegal area.

the next morning.

Qiao Nian woke up to see the message from M state.

Lei Kai probably changed his phone number again, and this time he sent her a text message with a brand new number.

The message content is very concise and clear.

There are only 12 characters in total.

【Nie Qingru is no longer the Queen of the Hermit Family. 】

The amount of information contained in it is huge.

Qiao Nian squinted her eyes and sat up with her elbows propped up. She held the phone in one hand and looked down at the text on the text message. She dug out the address book to find a number and called.

"Hello?"

The connection over there is fast.

Soon, Zhong Yiliu's energetic voice came out.

He was probably in the laboratory. Qiao Nian heard a sound of tinkling bells and bangs in the background, and then the footsteps of the person holding the phone.

With the sound of closing the door sounded.

After a while, Zhong Liuliu's voice came again through the electric current: "What time is it? Let me see. Uh... it's only 8:30 in the morning at your place. You got up so early? What happened?"
Unscientific!

"I'm going back to Beijing in the morning." Qiao Nian likes to do the work that he has hoarded in his hands in the dead of night, such as programming, composing music, and doing simulation experiments in the computer simulation laboratory.

So she usually wakes up late in the morning.

She didn't get entangled with Zhong Liuliu on these trivial matters, and went straight to the point: "You old man, what happened to the Privy Council yesterday?"

"Ah, you said this." Zhong Liuliu was attracted attention.

He read to Joe: "Have you received the news? I also said that I will call you later to tell you the good news."

"A friend told me." Qiao Nian vaguely did not mention Lei Kai's identity.

"That's it." Zhong Liulu only regarded her as an ordinary friend of the Privy Council, and simply relayed the gossip he had heard to Qiao Nian.

The Pharmacy Association seems insignificant in State M, but in fact, the network of contacts is very complicated, and the people I know have all kinds of teachings.

Many people, including the Hermit Family, have made good friends with the Pharmacy Association.

The Privy Council had such a big news yesterday, even if the Hidden Family wanted to hide this explosive news, they couldn't stop so many people from talking about it.

Chapter 4024 Lu Zhi comes to see off the plane

Some people who were at the scene yesterday will always reveal the news with their mouths.

Zhong Yiliu probably heard some rumors.

He talked about the dramatic overtaking that occurred during the voting process yesterday, and Nie Qingru angrily left the meeting without waiting for the Privy Council to announce the results...

Zhong Liulu himself didn't like Nie Qingru, so it seemed that the joke was not polite: "In short, since yesterday's voting results, she has become the laughing stock of State M. Now many people are watching her jokes and want to see the empress fall. The look behind the altar."

"She hasn't appeared in public since yesterday. Presumably she knows her situation and doesn't want people to watch it."

"Nie Qingru is not that kind of character." Qiao Nian said lightly.

Zhong Liuliu frowned, and heard a casual female voice from the receiver: "She must be thinking of a way to stay at home, not afraid of being seen."

Zhong Zhongliu didn't agree with this statement at first. It takes a few days for ordinary people to get used to such a big loss of face and being dragged down from a height.

However, according to Qiao Nian's meaning, Nie Qingru's heart is as hard as iron, and it seems that she will not be affected.

He thought: "You offended her so much this time, what are you going to do next?"

"Go back to Beijing first."

Qiao Nian called to ask him about the specific details of the Privy Council yesterday, after all, she couldn't ask Lei Kai about these things.

She lowered her black eyes, looked lazily at the sunlight outside the window, lifted the quilt loosely, got up and walked to the bathroom with her slippers on.

"I want to accompany him to an engagement banquet."

Zhong Zhongliu almost heard 'I want to hold an engagement banquet with him', but fortunately he came to his senses and realized that what Qiao Nian said was that he wanted to accompany Ye Wangchuan to someone else's engagement banquet.

With a little regret, he asked a few words about who's engagement banquet, and when he learned that it was someone he didn't know well, he didn't mention anything like going to support the venue together.

Today is the legal holiday in the illegal area.

There is not much traffic on the road.

They only took half an hour to reach the airport.

Ye Lan arranged for the private jet to park at the airport, but it just needs to be scheduled to take off through the control tower of the illegal area.

It was only ten o'clock in the morning when the group arrived at the airport, and there was not much traffic at the airport.

When Qiao Nian got out of the car, he saw a black Bentley waiting by the side of the road, and a beautiful young man sitting in a wheelchair next to the car body.

Lu Zhi didn't bring his signature iron bodyguard today, but Jian Jin stood behind and pushed the wheelchair for him.

Jian Jin saw Qiao Nian get off the car, bent down and whispered in Lu Zhi's ear, "QIAO and they are here."

Then she pushed Lu Zhi past.

Today, the flower arms drove everyone off.

In addition to the flower arm, Guanyan is also there.

Guan Yan saw Jian Jin, greeted her, then looked at Lu Zhi who was pushed by Jian Jin, pursed her lower lip, and looked at the girl.

"QIAO, can I say a few words alone?" Jian Jin spoke first.

People are coming and going outside the airport.

In front of so many people, Qiao Nian didn't want to embarrass Jian Jin.

So she turned her head, and said to the man who was just helped down by Ye Lan with calm eyes: "I'll go talk to them, and I'll be right back."

Ye Wangchuan and Lu Zhi's eyes met in mid-air, sparks sparked, and they both looked away in a tacit understanding, as if they didn't see each other.

Ye Wangchuan stared at the sea with deep eyes, lowered his head and said to the girl: "Shall we wait for you inside or outside?"

"Let's go inside." Qiao Nian thought about it, and added: "It's windy outside."

Chapter 4025 Master Wang knows **** and kill

Ye Wangchuan had a smile in his eyes, like ripples in a pond, very gentle and dignified: "Okay."

The scene of them leaning together and biting their ears as if no one else was around seemed much more glaring to others. At least Lu Zhi couldn't maintain his indifferent expression, and sneered.

"Oh!" He can tell that the other party did it for him on purpose!

But he still couldn't help the blood in his stimulated chest surged, and his face was extremely ugly.

Jian Jin has been watching Lu Zhi's reaction from the beginning, seeing Lu Zhi's face downcast, with his heart in his throat, lest Lu Zhi turn his face on the spot.

Fortunately, Boss Lu just had the expression of swallowing a fly, as if he was trying to compete with others, and didn't show it.

Jian Jin finally breathed a sigh of relief.

at the same time.

Ye Wangchuan called Qiao Nian who was about to go away: "Nian Nian."

Qiao Nian paused slightly, asked him with his eyes, turned back very patiently, stood in front of him, and raised his jaw: "What's wrong?"

Ye Wangchuan raised his hand, lowered his eyes to straighten her cap, pushed her hair behind her ears, and then whispered: "Your hair is messed up."

Qiao Nian felt the man's cool fingertips brushing against the skin of her ear pinnae, as if a tingling tingling sensation was aroused, and that piece of skin was extremely hot.

But she was used to the other person's touch, so she didn't feel anything. She raised her eyelids slightly, and her beautiful pupils reflected the man's outstanding face.

"Any thing else?"

She puts one hand in her pocket, her ponytail is loosely tied, and the tail of her hair is draped over her shoulders, showing a rebellious temperament all over her body.

However, anyone with eyes can see that her attitude towards Ye Wangchuan is different, that is, she wants to be more natural and harmonious.

It seems that the two should stand together, and the aura of standing together is so compatible, like two points destined to meet!

Jian Jin couldn't help admitting at this moment that the picture of the two standing together looked like a golden boy and a jade girl.

She glanced in Lu Zhi's direction again, and could only see the back of Lu Zhi's head.

She looked at Big Brother Lu and stared ahead. After looking calm, the veins in her hands on the blanket bulged, showing how miserable she was from being angry.

"Boss..." Jian Jin didn't know how to comfort him for a while.

Lu Zhi took a deep breath: "I know what he wants to do. I just won't let him do what he wants!"

Ye Fanchuan was talking to Qiao Nian intimately in front of him, and calling him back to fix his hat, didn't he just want him to retreat?

If he doesn't leave, he will have to talk to Qiao Nian alone.

Let's see who gets angry!

When Lu Zhi was talking to Jian Jin, Ye Wangchuan glanced in their direction out of the corner of his eye, and saw that Lu Zhi was sitting in a wheelchair and had no intention of leaving.

He took a step away from the girl and whispered, "I'll wait for you inside."

"OK."

Qiao Nian didn't feel the undercurrent between the two.

In her eyes, whether Ye Fanchuan asked her where to wait, or stopped her to help tidy her hat, it was a trivial matter, and it didn't take much time.

She saw Ye Wangchuan's eyes, pursed her lips, and said, "I'll be back soon."

"Yes." Ye Wangchuan curled up his thin lips, very magnanimous.

Qiao Nian felt that it was not good for him to go away and talk to Lu Zhi and Jian Jin alone, and secretly planned to go back to them as soon as possible.

On one side, Moxi sees through everything, looks at Ye Wangchuan who is strategizing, and then looks at Qin Si who is bewildered, and finally understands what Gu San means when he is too doggy.

As for Master Wang's black belly, Dog B's deadly wrist, and the disgusting energy just now, he has seen it.

Chapter 4026 Sister Nian: No more

Tianchen's face remained calm, and the veins on his wrists burst out of anger.

But Ms. Qiao hasn't noticed anything wrong yet.

Moxi walked over to support the injured man's arm, walked into the airport, and asked in a low voice, "Master Wang, are we really not waiting outside for Miss Qiao?"

Ye Wangchuan raised his thin lips and walked inside: "Go in and wait."

Moxie understood what he meant.

Since Jian Jin came to her door, she wanted to have a private chat with Ms. Qiao.

It's a bit boring for them to stay outside.

Master Wang went in and waited. First, he believed in Ms. Qiao, and second, he looked down on his opponent.

Qiao Nian walked up to Jian Jin and Lu Zhi, didn't look at the young man in the wheelchair, and said to Jian Jin, "Go to the side and talk."

They were standing right at the entrance of the airport. There were so many people here that it was inconvenient to talk.

She took the lead and walked to the relatively quiet blank area on the side.

Jian Jin pushed Lu Zhi to follow after hearing the words.

The three of them came to a secluded waiting area.

The girl stopped, turned to face the two and said, "What do you want to tell me?"

She was looking at Jian Jin.

is also talking to Jian Jin.

As for Lu Zhi.

She ignored it from beginning to end.

Jian Jin is not stupid. Seeing Qiao Nian's attitude, she subconsciously looked in Lu Zhi's direction, but standing behind Lu Zhi, she could only see the back of her head, but not the expression on Lu Zhi's face.

She hesitated, and said: "Boss Lu and I heard that you were leaving, so we wanted to come and see you off. In addition, we brought some gifts for uncle."

The uncle she mentioned must be Qiao Nian's father, Jiang Zongjin.

Lu Zhi's voice was low and hoarse: "It's not tea."

"Uncle seems to be very interested in chips. Tianchen recently developed a robot with chips embedded in it... If he likes it, he can take it apart and study it."

Jian Jin was a little surprised, and looked over again: "Lu..."

Before they came, she told Lu Zhi to prepare some presents for QIAO's father, and she was afraid that Mr. Lu would give tea again.

Specially told him to send it to the blade, to send QIAO or QIAO's father like things.

I didn't expect Mr. Lu to directly give away a cutting-edge project that Tianchen hadn't promoted on a large scale as a gift. This amount...

However, she quickly realized that she helped her and said, "Joe, just accept it. This is the boss's wish, nothing else."

Qiao Nian's eyes slid across her face, and then landed on the face of the young man in the wheelchair, as if he wanted to see something.

In the end, she withdrew her gaze, with a cold and tired expression: "No need."

Jian Jin called her subconsciously: "QIAO."

"I told you last time. I think I made it very clear." She looked at Jian Jin, and briefly interrupted what Jian Jin hadn't said.

Jian Jin's eyes were full of embarrassment, and she still wanted to refute Lu Zhi: "We have known each other for so long..."

Qiao Nian interrupted her again, extremely forcefully: "It's because we've known each other for so long that I said no."

She looked at the silent man, looked at him indifferently, and said, "Lu Zhi, we will be strangers from now on. We will deal with strangers as we please. You don't need to prepare gifts for my family. I won't accept your gift either."

Because these are things that only friends do.

They are no longer friends.

Qiao Nian turned around to leave after speaking.

Lu Zhi could tolerate Ye Wangchuan's deliberate tricks at first, but now that Qiao Nian said these words himself, he said in an unbearable way: "A stranger, right?"

Chapter 4027 Sister Qiao hasn't chatted for ten minutes yet

The girl's footsteps were slightly stagnant.

But it was only for a second, and soon the figure from the back resumed its usual stride away.

Lu Zhi looked at the back of her leaving, Ruyu's face showed no emotion at all, as if there were no waves suddenly.

Jian Jin was a little worried seeing him like this: "Boss, QIAO, she is just still angry about the previous things, and she will be fine after a while."

Lu Zhi's face was not happy: "Go back."

Jian Jin was afraid that he would do something stupid again, so she went around to block the way: "Boss, don't you want to touch Ye Wangchuan again?"

Lu Zhi lowered his eyelashes to cover the dark and surging emotions in his eyes, and said lightly: "Since she said that everyone is a stranger, then I, a stranger, will not feel strange after chasing her again, right?"

Jian Jin didn't follow his train of thought, she looked dazed.

Lu Zhi looked up at her: "She didn't notice what I meant before, didn't she just treat me as a friend all the time. Now I am not friends with her. If I chase her, she will understand what I mean."

Jian Jin understood.

"So boss, you think that QIAO didn't respond before because it didn't understand what you meant?"

She suddenly thought of the rustic love words that Lu Zhi sent in Moments before, and those ugly things she gave to QIAO, the corners of her mouth twitched, looking at him, she really wanted to say that few women would receive a small Bock pistol Or understand that the other party is pursuing you when you get an ugly and bizarre diamond bracelet.

As far as Big Brother Lu's pursuit before, Jian Jin is very suspicious that QIAO just wants to be a stranger to him now, and if he bothers QIAO a few times, QIAO may want to kill him.

But at least he didn't think about Ye Fanchuan, Jian Jin still heaved a sigh of relief: "I will understand!"

Lu Zhi opened his eyebrows in relief, and steered the wheelchair forward: "That's good."

Jian Jin trotted forward and pushed the wheelchair for him behind, and lifted the beautifully wrapped gift in the trunk of their car.

"That gift for my uncle..."

"Donate to the research team of Tsinghua University in the name of Tianchen." Lu Zhi narrowed his cold eyes and said.

Jian Jin smiled when he heard his rare high EQ method: "Okay, I'll ask someone to do it later. Make sure to deliver the things, and let uncle know that you sent them."

Lu Zhi didn't speak.

He recalled the scene of Ye Fanchuan and Qiao Nian standing together.

That **** sense of harmony.

He felt a tingling in his heart just thinking about it.

He twitched the corner of his mouth, suppressed the anger that wanted to kill that person, and rebuilt the steps to pursue a person in his mind.

Qiao Nian didn't know that after he said those words, Lu Zhi would think of "strangers can re-acquaint themselves with pursuit".

She went back in less than ten minutes and found Ye Lan, Guan Yan and others.

Qin Si was surprised when he saw her come back so soon: "Sister Qiao, are you done chatting?"

Qiao Nian nodded at him and walked over.

"Aunt Ye, when will the plane take off?"

Ye Lan looked at the time on his wrist: "There is still half an hour. How about we go there first?"

"Hmm." Qiao Nian thought so too.

A group of people boarded the plane in a mighty manner.

"Nian Nian, sit next to Wang Chuan, let's go to the front." Ye Lan dragged Qin Si to the front, leaving room for Qiao Nian and Ye Wang Chuan to be alone, and even took Ye Qichen away: "Chenchen is with me."

Qiao Nian didn't think so much about walking over, and sat down next to Ye Wangchuan, with an extra paper cup from an airport drink shop in hand.

She raised her eyebrows and looked over.

Ye Wangchuan said with a tacit understanding: "I bought lemonade for you."

Chapter 4028 You really don't want to go back with me to see your parents

Qiao Nian took it over and said, "Thank you."

Ye Wangchuan spent a lot of time watching her insert the habit into the lemonade, leaning slightly on the back of the soft chair, watching the girl's every move, and said without blinking: "When you go back, will you go see Mr. Jiang?"

Qiao Nian clings to the habit, with a relaxed expression: "Go."

"I'll be with you." Ye Wangchuan crossed his hands in front of him, calmly said: "I haven't visited Mr. Jiang and Uncle Jiang for a long time. I just have something to discuss with Uncle Jiang, so I'll go with you. "

Qiao Nian let go of the straw, turned his head to look at him, a little suspicious, but didn't say anything, and said calmly: "It's okay."

She seemed to think of something, and her eyes slipped to the man's right shoulder.

Ye Wangchuan wore a casual-style suit with laces today. The fabric of the suit has a strong sense of fall, and the blue and black stripe texture is looming. The overall style is a bathrobe style that is very popular recently.

It is difficult for ordinary people to control this lazy style.

He brought this style to its due effect, showing arrogance and laziness everywhere, without the slightest hint that he was still a patient.

Qiao Nian's gaze narrowed slightly: "Your shoulder..."

Ye Wangchuan raised his hand to touch the injured part, smiled, lowered his eyes and said, "Don't worry, the wound is scabbing over. Doctor Yu said it won't affect daily activities, as long as you don't get wet."

"Well."

Qiao Nian believed in metaphorical medical skills, nodded, and stopped talking. He put the drink in his hand aside, stretched his long legs, put on the blindfold he found somewhere, and yawned. Said: "Sleepy~ I'll take a nap, and call me when I arrive."

"Okay." Ye Wangchuan raised his finger and called the flight attendant to bring a blanket over, put it on the girl, and dimmed the lights above.

The plane burst into the sky five minutes later.

Ye Wangchuan sat next to the sleeping girl, calmly pulled out his laptop, turned it on, and logged in to a forum account.

There is wifi on the plane, and the signal is not bad.

After he logged in his ID, he clicked on the private message in the background, and he received an email, and the other party said in full English that the things had been sent to his residence in Beijing.

Ye Wangchuan took out his mobile phone and leaned on the seat again, edited a text message to ask Gu San to pick up the courier, and told him not to mess with the things in the cardboard box.

When Gu San came back to him to get the photo of the courier, Ye Wangchuan lowered his eyes and turned off the dim light on the screen, looked at the side face of the girl who was sleeping with her eyes covered, raised her thin lips, and raised her hand to gently tuck her in. After tucking in the blanket, he leaned on the same position as Qiao Nian and closed his eyes to rest...

After more than ten hours, the plane arrived at Beijing Airport.

The Ye family sent a car to pick them up.

Gu San also drove over.

So everyone divided into three groups.

Ye Lan and Ye Qichen first went back to the old house to report to Mr. Ye about Ye Wangchuan's physical condition in the past few days, and Qin Si went home by himself.

As for Guan Yan, he chose to go with Qiao Nian and Ye Wangchuan and stay in a hotel temporarily.

Before leaving, Qin Si tugged on the car door unwillingly, and wanted to try harder: "You really don't want to go back with me to see your parents?"

Guan Yan's peach-blossom eyes slightly raised, and her red lips opened and closed mercilessly: "Are you sick?? Why should I go back with you to see your parents."

Qin Si wanted to say something, but was grabbed by Ye Lan and said: "Okay, you go back and report to your mother that you are safe, and we will talk about the future."

Ye Lan has a very high status in Beijing, and he is the elder of Ye Wangchuan. Qin Si has always respected her very much, even though he still wanted to say something, he had to listen to Ye Lan first.

Chapter 4029: Ye Lan is Aiwujiwu

Wait for Qin Si to get in the car, and the car drives away.

Ye Lan looked back at Guan Yan again, with kind eyes and said: "You are a friend of Nian Nian, and you are a friend of Ye's family when you come to Beijing. I have already arranged a hotel for you, and I will let Gu San take you there later. In addition, if you need help, just talk to me, let's exchange phone numbers first?"

She was the first to take out her mobile phone to give Guan Yan her own number. She didn't put on airs of elders at all, and was very restrained and respectful.

Guan Yan and Qiao Nian have similar personalities, and they are not good at dealing with older people, especially if this person is of the same sex.

She couldn't refuse Ye Lan's kindness, took out her mobile phone and exchanged a private number with Ye Lan, and whispered her name: "Guan Yan."

Ye Lan raised her eyes in surprise, and immediately smiled: "I know. Nian Nian mentioned you before, you know Chenchen's teacher, and you two have a good relationship."

Guan Yan hummed, wanted to say something but felt that she really didn't know what to talk about with a woman of Ye Lan's background.

Ye Lan saw her restraint, and shook the phone in his hand: "Then we will exchange numbers with each other? Later, when I have time, I will take you to visit various scenic spots in Beijing. We have many historical sites here, and there are many others. There are few special delicacies. I grew up here, and I am familiar with it here, and you can find it in the streets and alleys..."

"Thank you." Guan Yan saw the other party's sincerity and thanked him.

The corners of Ye Lan's eyes already had fine lines from the years, but he did not change his elegant and charming temperament, and took the initiative to explain his behavior just now: "I know that you are in contact with that child Qin Si, he is a good child, I also know You are a very good girl. But it is too early for you to meet your parents, especially him, at least he was too impulsive when he mentioned this to you, and he didn't plan for you. So I hope you don't blame me for my old age People just insisted on interfering..."

Ye Lan has a natural affection for Qiao Nian's friends who have always loved the house and black.

Personally, she was educated by Mr. Ye since she was a child, but she didn't really care about the concept of family status, otherwise she wouldn't have let her only daughter marry Fu Sinian.

The Fu family is only a second-rate family in Ring City.

Not to mention that in Beijing, the Fu family is even less ranked.

She married her daughter at the beginning, it was definitely considered a marriage.

But Ye Lan doesn't care.

She cares more about whether her daughter loves this person or not.

She herself doesn't value the concept of family status, but Ye Lan has been infecting the Beijing circle for many years, and she knows very well that other people may not value these things as much as she does.

Mrs. Qin is a very good person.

Personality, behavior, all aspects can not be faulted.

But the Qin family is different from theirs. The Qin family pays attention to rules, and among the many rules, the right family occupies one.

Guan Yan is excellent.

But some members of the Qin family may not understand how good Guan Yan is, so they may look at Guan Yan with superficial eyes.

Ye Lan prevented Qin Si from continuing, but actually he didn't want Guan Yan to follow Qin Si to see his parents rashly, and be wronged.

Guan Yan is serious, looks at Ye Lan, and sincerely thanks: "I know, thank you."

Ye Lan is a very measured person, so she stopped bringing up this topic after explaining it clearly, and started talking instead: "I'm making dinner at home tonight, so come with Nian Nian."

Guan Yan subconsciously wanted to refuse.

You can touch Ye Lan's expression of sincere invitation, she couldn't say no to her words: "...OK."

Actually, even if Ye Lan didn't say anything, she wouldn't go to see her parents with Qin Si.

Chapter 4030: Guan Yan is also an invisible rich woman

She is very clear about Mrs. Qin's attitude towards her, but Guan Yan never thought that Ye Lan would think so much for her from her perspective.

This feeling of being protected by others... Guan Yan subconsciously turned her head to look at the girl who just woke up, squinting her eyes and standing in the corner.

She bowed her head and smiled.

—I seem to understand why Sun was moved by these people.

They, who are used to walking alone in the dark, will always surrender to tenderness!

Qiao Nian chatted with Gu San for a few words.

Feeling Guan Yan's gaze on him, he raised his legs and walked over, half-squinting his eyes, a little sleepy from waking up. He greeted Guan Yan and said, "What are you talking about?"

She saw Guan Yan and Aunt Ye chatting speculatively just now from the corner of her eye, but she was far away and didn't hear what they said.

Guan Yan naturally wouldn't tell her that she had chatted with Ye Lan about Qin Si, so he smiled and said, "It's nothing. Aunt Lan asked me to go home with you for dinner at night. I agreed~"

Qiao Nian looked at her in surprise, as if she didn't understand how she would agree.

But Qiao Nian just murmured, pursed his lips, and said without breaking the casserole, "I'm going to the nursing home in the afternoon, and I'll see you later in the evening."

"Are you sure which hotel you are staying in?" She asked again.

Guan Yan didn't even bring a suitcase in his hand, and came here with empty hands, more free than tourists, shrugged his shoulders and said: "I wanted to find a hotel to stay at random. But Aunt Lan said that he arranged a hotel for me, so I will stay in it." The hotel arranged by her."

Qiao Nian looked at her in surprise.

Guan Yan knew what she was surprised about, so he didn't explain, and said, "By the way, sun, what do Young Master Ye and my sister-in-law like? I want to go out in the afternoon and buy some gifts. Otherwise, it doesn't seem very good to visit empty-handed."

The people in their illegal area are used to being free and undisciplined, which doesn't mean they don't know etiquette, like barbarians.

Ye Lan arranged a hotel for her, and asked her to have dinner at home in the evening.

After receiving these kindnesses, she naturally wanted to repay the other party's kindness.

And the Ye family doesn't lack anything.

She just wants to express her heart.

"The old man likes tea, as for... Aunt Ye." Qiao Nianxiang said, "She likes jewelry."

"OK." Guan Yan showed a bright smile and said, "I'll go to the mall in the afternoon and buy two sets when I see something suitable."

Qiao Nian didn't stop her, but said, "Don't buy too expensive ones, as long as you have the intention."

"good."

Guan Yan readily agreed, but he was thinking about the industries he invested in country Z, whether there are tea and jewelry-related companies.

She is the person who loves doing business the most in Hongmeng.

Business spreads all over the world.

But Guan Yan prefers to buy joint-stock investment companies compared to Ye Wangchuan's kind of doer, so she seems to have many affiliated companies under her name, and she can still run around with ease.

Qiao Nian came back this time in a low-key manner, without notifying anyone in advance.

She separated from Ye Lan and sent Guan Yan to the hotel.

Guan Yan refused her to accompany her in to check in, so Qiao Nian made an appointment with her for dinner and watched her back into the hotel.

Waiting for Qiao Nian to close the car window again, she was about to call Gu San to the nursing home.

Ye Wangchuan suddenly said: "You can go back later, can I get something?"

Qiao Nian propped his chin, glanced at him, and nodded: "Yes."

She took out her mobile phone and sent a WeChat message to Jiang Zongjin, and then spoke to Jiang Li.

The car started up again, heading towards the residence they hadn't returned to for a long time.
