

Madam's 4091

Chapter 4091: Nie Qingru's people also came

Note?

His heart skipped a beat.

Realized that it might be one of our own.

He didn't show excitement right away, but continued to endure it as if he didn't notice it, and kept clenching his fists and closing his eyes, tightly hiding the note in his hand.

After about a few minutes, he turned around and found an inconspicuous corner to huddle there, carefully observing the people around him.

He made sure that no one was looking at him, and immediately took out the note from his sleeve, carefully avoiding the monitoring and scanning the words on it.

—Master Zhai, I will pick you up later, please cooperate.

There are still a few lines of small characters behind the method that requires his cooperation.

Zhai Xicheng looked at it quickly, afraid of being discovered, so he crumpled the note and hid it in his sleeve again after reading it for a while.

at the same time.

He adjusted the direction of his facial muscles to ensure that his eyes looked dark and desperate, like a person who gave up and struggled.

"I need to go to the bathroom."

In the small black room.

He made the request abruptly.

Everyone looked at him.

Zhai Xicheng sat in the corner expressionlessly, and said again: "I'm going to the toilet."

He didn't give others a chance to refuse: "Didn't your boss say that I can't go to the bathroom? Or do you want me to get it on you..."

The latter statement is too disgusting.

Sure enough.

Someone whispered something in the little boss's ear, the dark-skinned man looked at him, frowned and thought about it, nodded, and told the person who was talking to him: "Keep an eye on him!"

"yes."

Soon someone came up to him, kicked him unceremoniously, and yelled indifferently: "Get up, don't you want to go to the bathroom? Let's go."

Zhai Xicheng got up and followed with a patient expression.

The two drifted away.

There is a simple toilet about seven or eight meters outside the small black house, and Zhai Xicheng usually comes here when he needs to go to the bathroom.

He is very familiar with the structure inside, it is airtight, there is not even a window, and there is no possibility of escaping from here.

As soon as he entered, the person in charge of monitoring him also followed.

The two didn't communicate at all before they came in, especially the person who was in charge of watching him was extremely cold and impatient.

However, when the wall of the bathroom blocked the view from the outside, the man who pushed him behind immediately walked around to him, with a solemn face, and said in a low voice: "Young Master Zhai, the empress asked me to take you out."

"I thought she didn't care about me anymore." Zhai Xicheng also changed from his ashamed look just now, showing a little dissatisfaction on his face.

The short man immediately explained: "The queen... has encountered some difficulties recently. She has been trying to rescue you, but she just didn't find a chance."

"How are you going to take me out?" Zhai Xicheng avoided talking about the previous topic and pointed to the outside: "The outside is all their people."

Just because the two of them want to escape, they just hit the stone with a pebble, and they don't want to live anymore.

If he told himself to force his way out, Zhai Xicheng would rather choose to obediently go to Independent Island with David, at least he would not die so quickly.

The short man understood: "Don't worry, the queen has already made arrangements."

"Come out!"

In the next second, a thin young man about his height came out from the only second compartment here. Zhai Xicheng looked at him for a while, and was surprised to find that the other party even looked somewhat similar to him, and with a similar hairstyle, Scanning the past can be faked.

"The empress has been looking for someone who can replace you."

Chapter 4092 They want to change people under Daji's nose

The short man raised his chin and looked at the taciturn young man: "We searched for a long time before we found him. He will replace you and go back to the small dark room later. You just wait here until everyone outside goes away." We'll leave after you're done. We've arranged someone to respond to you, and when it's safe outside, that person will blow a whistle as a signal, and you can go out."

Zhai Xicheng really didn't expect them to think of stealing the sky and changing the sun. After a brief moment of astonishment, he quickly reacted and said to the short man, "What do you need me for? Just change clothes?"

"Yes, we need you, Shao Zhai, to change clothes with him." The short man pulled the thin young man over, danced and communicated with him in a strangely pronounced language for a while, and Zhai Xicheng saw the man stealing from him quickly. After taking a look, he nodded slowly.

He stayed in Continent F for a while, so he knows the language there better.

Although he couldn't understand what the short man said to that man, he could vaguely hear a F continent accent from the short man's pronunciation.

He quickly judged the identity of the other party—it was very likely that Nie Qingru had found a scapegoat from a small tribe in Continent F.

This kind of poor and backward small place is always full of cheap labor, and these people are not even considered human beings in their eyes.

Zhai Xicheng knew that the other party might be in danger if his life was discovered, but he didn't feel any guilt at all. In his opinion, human beings are born with different values.

He was born to be favored by heaven, destined to be superior to others.

And the man who will replace him to go to Independent Continent will not be so lucky. He was born as humble as grass, and it is not in vain to be able to replace him for a while in this life.

Besides, since Nie Qingru was able to bring the man here, it meant that he had given the man enough money to buy his life.

A few minutes later.

Both parties finished changing clothes.

Zhai Xicheng saw that person put on his own clothes, and then messed up his hair to cover his eyes. His body and height were exactly the same as him.

Looking from a distance, no one can see it, but in the blink of an eye, it's a different person.

The short man made sure that the man looked okay, then turned to him and said, "Young Master Zhai, I'll take him out first, you should be careful in hiding."

"good."

Zhai Xicheng didn't care about the dirty and smelly environment in the bathroom. In order to escape, he hid in one of the cubicles without the short man reminding him.

The short man waited for him to go in, and put a sign saying 'under maintenance' on the outside, and then he took the man who looked like Zhai Xicheng out.

"I'm so annoying, hurry up!"

The short man's feigned annoyed whining came from outside.

Zhai Xicheng heard the two people's footsteps drifting away, endured the dirty and disgusting environment around him, and quietly waited for the person he said would respond.

Outside, David has returned.

He ran into 'Zhai Xicheng' who came back from going to the bathroom and one of the subordinates he brought from Continent F.

Without waiting for him to ask.

The dark-skinned man reported to him: "Just now, the man made a fuss about going to the bathroom, and the subordinate thought it would be more troublesome for him, so he asked someone to accompany him."

"Oh." David responded in a low voice, his eyes still on the returning 'Zhai Xicheng'.

The two of them were extremely nervous, they froze in place and did not dare to move.

Fortunately, David only took a few glances and did not do anything else. He quickly moved his eyes and let the two of them go...

The short man quickly breathed a sigh of relief, and hurriedly pushed 'Zhai Xicheng' to walk faster.

Chapter 4093 I always feel that it is too smooth

While pricking up his ears, he heard David chatting with their little leader.

"David, when are we leaving?"

"Is the vehicle outside ready?"

"Ready."

"Then let's take the person and set off."

The short man relaxed completely when he heard this, and his steps became much lighter.

Because his back was facing David and his immediate boss, he didn't see the eye contact between the two when they were talking...

The dark-skinned man waited for him to go in completely before mouthing to David: 'Boss, what happened to you just now? '

David stared at the two people who entered with sharp eyes. He twitched the corner of his mouth and let out a cold snort. He immediately met his subordinates' eyes, raised his hands, and answered him: "It's changed."

The dark-skinned man was obviously confused and didn't understand what he meant.

David put his hands in his pockets and mouthed again: 'It's not Zhai Xicheng'.

The dark skin was taken aback, and subconsciously wanted to talk to him: "Boss, then..."

David made a gesture for him not to startle the snake, his eyes were narrowed, and he deliberately told him with a voice that could be heard inside: "I am almost going to get people into the car, and everyone here should follow, so as to avoid accidents on the road."

Sun Hei Pi comprehended and said: "Boss, is there no one left here?"

David stabbed and said: "No, people have been taken away anyway, so what are you doing here? Look at the air?"

"Okay. I'll make arrangements right away." The dark skin seemed to understand.

There were again chaotic footsteps outside.

There was also the yell of Tan Heipi arranging for others to leave with the * vehicle.

...

After half an hour, everything is ready.

Things were even 'smooth' than the short man had imagined.

Because everyone is busy leaving, almost no one has ever been to the bathroom, so naturally they will not discover the 'secret' hidden in the bathroom.

At the same time, no one doubted the identity of 'Zhai Xicheng'. They were successfully assigned to the middle car, and the short man was also in the car, responsible for guarding 'Zhai Xicheng'.

Usually it is not his turn to do this kind of thing, but this time he was lucky, he happened to be called by the little boss and became one of the few people in the vehicle.

This is also convenient for him to monitor, to see if David's people have noticed that 'Zhai Xicheng' has changed.

A convoy of more than a dozen pickup trucks quickly drove away from the small black house, leaving only a row of exhaust fumes, and disappeared at the corner of the intersection in a blink of an eye.

The man on the other side stood on the branch of a tree and observed through binoculars, jumped off the top, walked to the side of an unremarkable black off-road vehicle, opened the passenger door, and said to the people inside: "They're leaving. ."

Sitting in the driver's seat was a man in black clothes and black trousers. His temperament was very similar to that of Shadow, but he was younger and more athletic than Shadow.

"you sure?"

The man on the co-pilot raised his eyelids and smiled angrily: "I saw them leave with my own eyes, and the tail of the car was no longer visible. Do you think I'm not sure?"

"The Hongmeng is so vigilant?" The young man had cold eyes and a hard tone.

Ying Six was a little annoyed by him, and tilted his head in displeasure, saying: "How many tasks have we performed, you don't need to be so nervous."

"That person looks six points like Shao Zhai, and he can look eight or nine points like him when he dresses up. Who would tell at a glance that we have changed people, so put your heart back in your stomach and go pick him up quickly!"

Ying San still spoke heavily: "...I always feel that things went too smoothly." It really went too smoothly.

Chapter 4094 Don't forget that the Red League also travels by water

Ying Liu didn't bother to pay attention to him, and made a gesture to open the door to get out of the car: "If you can't drive, I'll come if you don't drive."

That Young Master Zhai is not easy to get along with.

Young Master Zhai also pretended to be more sunny in front of the empress, and he could make troubles as much as he could command people in front of them.

Besides, she counts every penny and is very vengeful, and it is not easy to mess with the Queen's attention.

He didn't want to mess with that guy.

Ying San seemed to be convinced by him, and grabbed his wrist: "Okay, I get it, I'll drive."

"Just trust me sooner." Ying Liu sat back down again, fastened his seat belt, and said, "Don't worry, I can see clearly with both eyes, and David must be gone."

Ying San's tense nerves relaxed a little bit, and he didn't argue with him anymore. After he sat down, he stepped on the accelerator and drove towards the small black house.

As it turns out, Shadow Three seems to be right.

They received Zhai Xicheng smoothly.

As Zhai Xicheng got into the car, the two changed from the relaxed atmosphere of gags to seriousness.

"Young Master Zhai, Lord Shadow has arranged for the ferry, and someone will pick us up when we arrive at the pier. Don't worry, it's very safe." Ying Liu turned his head and spoke to the people in the back row with difficulty.

"Why not use an airplane?"

Zhai Xicheng put on a clean hoodie, and habitually pulled the hoodie up and put it over his head to cover part of his face. His bangs grew a lot and covered most of his eyes, making him look more gloomy than before.

Ying Liu didn't dare to look at him directly, and explained to him in a low voice: "The illegal area has been strictly checked recently, and it is easy to be found if you take off from here. If you leave by an ordinary flight, your identity is easy to be found... That's why the Queen Arrange for relative inspection of loose waterways."

Lu Zhi has recently strengthened the control of illegal areas. Except for Tianchen, which can enter and exit without formalities, other forces must have approval procedures.

This is something that has never happened before.

Many forces in the illegal area have also made troubles, and they feel that Executive Lu's style of work is too domineering, so why should Tianchen have the final say.

But this time Lu Zhi used extremely tough methods to deal with some forces who made trouble with him, and the remaining forces had no choice but to hold their breath due to Tianchen's strength.

If they want to take Zhai Xicheng away with a private plane, they must go through the airspace control of the illegal area, and then they have to go through Lu Zhi.

Lu Zhi is not easy to fool people, he is easy to overturn.

There is also walking from the airport.

This is even more unrealistic.

sun blacklisted all of Zhai Shao's personal information before, and it was a problem for Zhai Shao to go through the security check at the airport.

They can only go by water.

And they have the opportunity to take the waterway thanks to Qiao Nian, if it weren't for most of Sun's diamond business need to use the waterway in the illegal area.

Tianchen may not turn a blind eye to the waterway terminal.

Of course, if Tianchen really had a fight with Hongmeng on the pier, if there was a head-on friction, Tianchen would have to pay a huge price to win.

Lu Zhi's refusal to touch the pier is not only based on emotion, but also on the consideration of interests.

Ying Liu didn't think too deeply, anyway, when they take Zhai Xicheng out of here, it has nothing to do with them.

"... When we arrive at the pier, someone will pick us up, and we will be able to return to Continent M soon."

"Have you arranged for the boat?" Zhai Xicheng leaned back on the leather armchair, his shoulders relaxed, he was still shrouded in shadow, and his tone was cold: "Don't forget that the Red League is also leaving by water, you better have enough arrangements, don't be discovered by them!"

Chapter 4095 He can leave here soon

Mentioning this, Yingliu is happy and relaxed.

"Don't worry, Young Master Zhai, they haven't noticed that anyone has been dropped by us. By the time we pass by, they will have already set off, and they won't be able to bump into each other."

"Um."

Zhai Xicheng lowered his eyes in response, and leaned there with closed eyes to rest his mind.

The taciturn and in charge of driving Yingsan saw that he had no other orders, so he started the car and started driving towards the pier.

No one in the car spoke.

Ying Liu smelled the sour smell from the back of the small space from time to time, and quietly opened the car window to let fresh air in.

Who knew that his sneaky movements still woke up Zhai Xicheng, who closed his eyes and rested his mind. Zhai Xicheng opened his eyes and looked at the open car window in front of him, and said casually, "Why, do you think I stink?"

"...No, I'm a little motion sick." Thinking of this penny-pinching character, Ying Liu frantically closed the car window again.

Without the fresh air blowing in from outside, the sour smell emanating from Zhai Xicheng's body became stronger and more unpleasant...

But Ying Liu did not dare to open the car window to breathe, so he could only hold his breath as much as possible and take a few breaths of air.

They deliberately control the speed of the car.

It was already an hour after the third movie arrived at the pier.

The pier is shining in the sunset, reflecting the ferries and ships moored in the port and the high seas to form a picture scroll.

As the evening approached, most of the fishing boats left the port early. This is not the peak season, and there are few freighter ferries.

There are also a lot fewer dock workers.

When they arrived at the port, they only saw a few workers walking together in twos and threes, walking towards the warehouse...

Ying San got off the car and observed the surrounding environment, very vigilant.

Shadow Six felt more confident. He got off the co-driver and patted his companion on the shoulder from behind. Looking ahead, he said disapprovingly, "Don't worry. Look at this, David has already left!"

The pier is peaceful and quiet, and it really doesn't look like there are people there.

Ying San frowned and relaxed for a moment, but there was always a sense of uneasiness in his heart that swept over his nerves, pulling the nerves in his brain to tense, and he dared not relax completely.

"You tell Young Master Zhai."

He doesn't want to have long nights and dreams.

"Let's hurry to find the connector."

Ying Liu twitched his lips and let go of his hand to tell Zhai Xicheng to get off the car.

He walked to the back row and knocked on the window glass, and said respectfully in a subdued voice, "Young Master Zhai, it's safe here, you can get out of the car."

The car was quiet for a while, only then did Ying Liu hear the 'click' sound of the door opening, and then Zhai Xicheng got out of the car.

Ying Liu was afraid of his position in front of Nie Qingru, so he didn't dare to look at him directly, so he took half a step aside with a sullen face, and said to him in a low voice: "Our people are right ahead, we need to go to find him."

"Why don't you just let him come over?" Zhai Xicheng and Yingsan reacted the same way, he looked at the surrounding environment as soon as he got out of the car, and was very careful.

Shadow Six bowed his head: "For the sake of confidentiality, the Queen didn't exchange contact information with us, but just gave a code to find someone, so as not to let the Hongmeng know about their actions in advance!"

Zhai Xicheng frowned tightly, exhaled foul breath for a long time, and resigned to his fate: "Where are we going to find him?"

"Young Master Zhai, follow me." Ying Liu walked ahead and led the way.

Zhai Xicheng took a look at the pier that was close at hand, and raised his legs to follow. He only needs to bear it a little longer, and when he leaves the illegal area, he will be free!

Thinking about the pain he suffered inside during this period, the freedom he will get immediately becomes so precious.

Chapter 4096 Oh, where do you want to go?

Even a deep-minded person like Zhai Xicheng couldn't help but be in high spirits, ready to welcome the new life.

Ying Six walked in front, and Ying San accompanied Zhai Xicheng on the left.

A group of people walked through the heavy containers at the dock to the delivery address given to them by Nie Qingru.

A middle-aged obese man wearing a hat was waiting for them at the agreed place. Ying Liu stepped forward to chat with the other party for a few words, and then looked for an opportunity to say the secret signal prepared in advance.

The other party really followed his signal, lowered the brim of his hat, and beckoned them to follow him.

During this process, Zhai Xicheng has been standing a few meters away from the middle-aged man to observe the other's words and deeds. He followed after he didn't see anything unusual.

Shadow Three is the same.

Although everything went very smoothly and was within their plan, he was uneasy, feeling more and more wrong.

The middle-aged man led them to a ferry and greeted them: "The queen has made arrangements, and this is all our people."

"OK."

Ying 6 is about to go up.

Ying San grabbed his arm: "The empress never mentioned this."

Martial law in illegal areas.

The queen couldn't even arrange for a private jet to come in, so she arranged for so many people to come over?

Ying San always felt that something was wrong, very wrong.

Naihe Yingliu pulled his hand away, and said nonchalantly: "You are too exaggerated. How can the queen tell us everything clearly, he is worthy of the secret signal given by the queen, that's all. What else do you want ? Make a video call to the queen on the spot and ask her to tell the truth for you?"

"..." This is of course impossible.

Ying San let go of his hand, and looked vigilantly at the middle-aged man who greeted them to board the boat. He really didn't see any problem with the other party, and it was just like what Ying Six said.

Men live up to their codes.

This code is an encrypted language of the Hermit Family, and it is impossible for outsiders to speak it, or even hear it.

Ying San thought of this to dispel the doubts in his heart, and turned around to call Zhai Xicheng: "Young Master Zhai, you come between me and Ying Liu, so that the subordinates can protect you."

"Yes." Zhai Xicheng, like Yingsan, was still a little uneasy, but freedom was so attractive that he couldn't resist the joy in his heart and followed.

Ying Liu walked in the front, still talking with the connector.

Zhai Xicheng and Yingsan were much more indifferent, hardly talking to middle-aged men, and looked at each other with sharp eagle eyes from time to time.

Soon the three of them were led onto the ferry.

Before Zhai Xicheng and Yingsan had time to observe the situation on the ferry, they felt the deck tremor caused by the rumbling engine under their feet.

Zhai Xicheng immediately changed his face: "No! Go quickly."

Ying San also immediately protected him, preparing to retreat.

But it was too late.

They entered the range of hunters from the moment they arrived at the pier, and they never gave them a chance to escape.

I only heard David lazily answering from the balcony on the second floor deck: "Hey, where do you want to go?"

Zhai Xicheng looked up and saw the Hongmeng group, his complexion changed suddenly, his face was blue, white, and red, it was wonderful.

He choked on the palm of his hand, unable to figure out why David was here, trying to maintain his dignity: "When did you find out?"

David stepped on the edge of the deck with one leg, put his hands on his knees, and leaned over to look at him condescendingly: "Guess."

Zhai Xicheng was extremely angry at his obvious deceitful attitude, his complexion was extremely bad, and he squinted his eyes and looked up at David: "You found out that you have changed people when you boarded the boat?"

Chapter 4097 They laid a net underneath

"NO." David clicked his lips, raised a finger at him, and shook his finger, frivolously and contemptuously: "I found out from the beginning that you have changed people."

"and you..."

"The reason why I act with you is just to see how many people you have arranged."

David showed a smile that was not a smile: "It turns out that you are even more * than I imagined. It seems that Nie Qingru really can't do it."

Nie Qingru no longer has the status of the queen of the hermit family, but she is just an old poisonous snake that has long since lost its teeth.

Ying San and Ying Liu changed color when they heard the words, and took out the pistols at their waists.

Before they aimed at the man on the upstairs deck, countless infrared sniper spots lit up, and at the same time, only a series of footsteps rushed out on the ferry deck.

They were instantly surrounded.

Zhai Xicheng was not surprised, but became the calmest of the three.

"hehe!"

Yingsan looked embarrassed, opened his hands to protect Zhai Xicheng behind him, tilted his head and said in a low voice: "Young Master Zhai, there is still a waterway. Do you want to play a game?"

They are standing very close to the railing of the ferry, and they can jump into the sea just by turning around.

The ferry had already left the pier while David was speaking, heading for the depths of the sea.

If they jump into the sea, there is still a chance.

Of course, there is a prerequisite that David will not let the snipers above shoot, otherwise they will most likely be killed on the spot as long as they move a little!

Zhai Xicheng's eyes fell on the bottomless sea beside him, and in his mind there was a battle between heaven and man, and he made a decision in a short time to play a game.

However, before he opened his mouth to answer Ying San.

David above seemed to see his intentions, and reminded first: "I advise you not to make useless resistance."

"How will you know it's useless if you don't try it?" As soon as Zhai Xicheng finished speaking, he jumped over the railing and jumped into the sea with agility.

His move came abruptly.

Even Ying San didn't react.

The people surrounding them immediately rushed up to hold Ying San and Ying Six, and put their hands on their backs, pressing firmly on the deck, not giving them a chance to break free.

At this time, David also came down from above.

He walked up to Ying San and Ying Liu and knelt down, stretched out his hand to pinch Ying San's jaw, and looked directly into Ying San's angry eyes: "Hey, are you still angry?"

He was very interested: "Because I said bad things about your master?"

Ying San shook his head vigorously, and sneered at him: "No matter what, at least if Young Master Zhai is not in your hands, our mission will be completed!"

"Also, you said the queen is dead." His eyes were full of hatred and sarcasm: "Why didn't you dare to order the shooting just now?"

This David showed disrespect to State M and the Queen from beginning to end.

But in Yingsan's eyes, no matter how hard his mouth is, his body is very honest. At least David had the opportunity to order to shoot and attack Young Master Zhai just now, but he didn't do so.

The reason why David didn't do this was that he couldn't think of any other reason besides being afraid of the Queen.

"Oh. Are you talking about this?" David snapped his fingers and looked into his eyes with a sudden realization expression: "The reason why I didn't order is... this."

The sea surface made the sound of splashing water.

Immediately after, a large net was hoisted up under the watchful eyes of Yingsan and Yingsix. At the same time, Zhai Xicheng who had just "jumped into the sea" was hoisted up by the net!

—They laid nets underneath!

Ying San suddenly opened his eyes wide, looked at the hanged man in astonishment, and then suddenly turned his head to look at David who was squatting in front of him and waiting for him to turn back.

Chapter 4098 Was so angry that he vomited blood

For a moment, he only felt his blood rushing towards Tianling Gai, he held back the sweetness in his throat, gritted his teeth and drank in a low voice: "You Hongmeng bully people too much!"

David had seen through their tricks a long time ago, but pretended not to know anything, just to humiliate them severely with this method at this moment.

Yingsan's eyes were red, and he pressed his back molars and said bitterly: "You have the ability to kill us!"

"Tsk." David stood up and looked at him again with condescending eyes: "Don't rush to shout, I don't kill you because I am afraid of State M or your master, but because Sun didn't ask for your life. Wait until I send you to Independence Island, if Sun wants to do this, I will fulfill you in minutes, and I can find a mass grave and throw you away without you even needing to ask."

"Also..." He paused, sneered and said: "You have a backbone, have you asked your family Shao Zhai or the companions next to you? They don't necessarily want to die with you."

Ying San was furious, and subconsciously looked at Ying Liu beside him, hoping that Ying Liu would show the backbone of their dark guards.

However, as soon as he looked over, Ying Liu stiffened his neck and turned his head away, avoiding his gaze. Although he didn't say a word, his desire to live was very strong...

"You..." Ying San was stunned.

The dark guard has been educated since he was a child that he will die for the hidden family and the queen. He thinks that everyone who undertakes missions has the belief that they must die.

What does shadow six mean?

It was rare for David not to laugh at him this time: "Okay, don't read it. You are a bit * here, they don't have that stuff."

He didn't care whether Yingsan listened or not, he stopped caring about the two people on the ground, and focused on the man who was hanging by the fishing net, and told Chunlei: "Young Master Zhai is so dishonest, please greet him well."

"Understood." Chunlei responded with a smile, looking at Zhai Xicheng not so friendly.

She called a few people over to put them down, and dragged them into the cabin to 'clean up' for a while.

Chunlei didn't intend to make people feel wrong, he just loves to run, and when Sun didn't say anything, she removed Zhai Xicheng's arm, so it shouldn't be a big problem.

Anyway, she didn't kill him, so she let him go so that he wouldn't make any new tricks on the way to Independent Island.

On the other side, M state.

The turmoil in the Hermit family affected the stock prices of the entire State of M. Smith Bank was the first to be affected, and the stock price fell sharply.

In the past, Nie Qingru would not show her face to solve these trivial matters, but now it is not the past. Since Quentin's impeachment was successful, she has completely lost her status as a queen, and has become an elder of the Privy Council just like Xue Lao and Quentin.

As her status dropped by one level, her treatment also dropped. She lost many of the privileges she had before, and some people began to give her less face.

Nie Qingru has been in constant trouble lately. She is so busy that she doesn't have time to take care of her face. She is tired visible to the naked eye.

There is also a general meeting of shareholders in the afternoon.

Nie Qingru finished her work in the morning, didn't even have a lunch break at noon, and then drove to the headquarters of Smith Bank.

Smith Bank Headquarters Building stands in the most prosperous commercial area in M State. The building that reaches into the sky is majestic and solemn under the sunlight, and the refracted light is dazzling, giving people a sense of unattainable height.

Nie Qingru's Rolls-Royce car slowly stopped in front of the bank building, and the secretary who had been waiting outside hurried over to open the car door for her.

Chapter 4099: Nie Qingru is in trouble

"Mr. Nie."

In the past, everyone always respectfully called her 'Queen', but now most of them know that Nie Qingru is no longer the queen of the hermit family. In order not to cause trouble or irritate her, many people began to call her by other names.

The secretary chooses the most conservative and error-prone name.

However, he was keenly aware that Nie Qingru, who was about to get out of the car, frowned imperceptibly. The secretary's heart trembled, and he began to reflect on whether he had made a mistake.

Shouldn't he be called Mr. Nie?

That is Ms. Nie?

The secretary felt that it would be more offensive if he called the latter.

He followed Nie Qingru and his group, still thinking about what to call Nie Qingru next time on the way, and he didn't know if he had a strange feeling.

He suddenly remembered the word 'Queen'.

The secretary quietly glanced at the backs of the pedestrians striding ahead, and rejected this 'ridiculous' idea first.

—Mr. Nie is no longer the queen of the hidden family, so it is impossible for people to call her queen? !

The secretary has limited status and cannot go with Nie Qingru.

He follows like a little tail at the end of the line, and is responsible for such chores as opening doors and pressing elevator buttons.

A group of people walked through the clearly visible lobby, attracting countless attention, and then entered the elevator.

Nie Qingru has her own exclusive elevator.

Except for the shadow that has been with her all year round, no one else can take the same elevator with her.

So everyone was waiting for Nie Qingru to enter the elevator, and after her exclusive elevator closed the door, they hurriedly took the next elevator to the 22nd floor.

...

Floor 22.

At this moment, the round conference table is full of shareholders of Smith Bank.

In this round table that gathers the financial leaders of M state, besides the shareholders, there are also a few bank executives who are very important.

The huge conference room was filled with the voices of exchanging greetings with each other.

Among them, the most eye-catching one is probably Lei Kai, the representative of the Leonard family. Lei Kai is dressed in a dark gray suit and sits in the first position on the right hand, surrounded by people who are close to him.

Everyone greeted him with a smile, and asked about the Privy Council's attitude towards Nie Qingru...

These people are all human beings.

When Nie Qingru inherited Smith Bank from Ji Wuzhen, the shareholders were not convinced at first that they were overwhelmed by a woman who came by air.

Until Nie Qingru relied on her betrayal of seasons to get Lei Ting to sit on the position of Queen of the Hidden Family, relying on the support of the Hidden Family, she successfully took over the bank.

The upper class will always affect the whole body.

Now that Nie Qingru has lost her most important identity, it is normal that the shareholders who have been suppressed by her for a long time are no longer willing to lie under her as before.

After all, how could it be possible for someone who can become a shareholder of Smith Bank, the financial center of State M, to have no background or ambition?

Lei Kai put his hands on the conference table staggered, listening to the whispers of the president of the Caesar Group beside him, he was a little absent-minded.

Until Caesars Group President Steve paused, and cut into the topic with a smile: "...Our family has believed in the family rules of 'freedom, hard work, and daring' since the first generation."

"From a certain point of view, our family is not considered conservative, but my father has a close personal relationship with Mr. Xue, and my father chose to support his old friend in the Privy Council out of friendship considerations."

"Now my father has retired to the second line and started to enjoy life, leaving the big and small things in the family to me to take over. I personally follow the family rules taught since I was a child, so... I am not a strict conservative party, am I?"

Chapter 4100: Still pretending to be a queen

Lei Kai tilted his head and looked at him calmly: "Speak directly to President Steve."

"Mr. Lei is indeed a cheerful person." He smiled: "Then I'll just say it straight."

"certainly."

Lei Kai made a gesture of invitation, much calmer than when he first took Leonard's position.

Steve has been observing his reaction, and saw that Lei Kebi was mature and steady as expected, and his sharp brows eased: "I am willing to join the radical faction, but I just need you to let me know. You are right... the empress What do you think?"

He still referred to Nie Qingru as a queen, without much respect.

"In order to express my sincerity, I might as well tell you. This time, the major shareholders of Smith Bank have discussed it in private. We have the idea of changing people. After all, the Nie family is only a middle-level family in the hidden world, and their methods have become more and more serious over the years. Not in the mainstream, we, as a family higher than the Nie family, have been oppressed by a family that relies on women to marry and make a fortune for so many years. I feel uncomfortable. Since there is an opportunity to change the status quo, all of us must follow in the footsteps of the Privy Council ..."

"Mr. Xue doesn't think so." Lei Kai's brows did not move, and he still stared at the other party with calm and sharp eyes.

Steve shrugged slightly, looked at him and smiled: "He is old, so it's not good to always be so nostalgic. We young people have to have our own ideas, don't we? I just start from the interests and fight for the rights and interests of my family. right."

Lei Kai probably understood what the other party meant, and leaned against the back of the chair, and stopped probing him, and said bluntly: "The Privy Council still respects Ms. Nie, and she is also recognized as one of the elders of the Privy Council."

Steve's expression became playful, he didn't speak up right away, he already had a plan in mind, Lei Kai's implication was in front of him, Nie Qingru was still an elder of the Privy Council, and only an elder of the Privy Council, and no longer had the privileges of the past.

The radical faction headed by Lei Kai treats Nie Qingru strictly according to her current status, that is to say, Nie Qingru has indeed lost her power.

Steve analyzed the information he wanted from his short sentence, and thanked Lei Kai with a smile: "I understand, thank you."

"Yes." Lei Kai responded, as if he hadn't said anything, and continued to sit in his seat waiting for Nie Qingru to come.

Steve also quickly distanced himself from him, and turned his head to the other side to find a topic to chat with the person next to him.

Their quick separation was as if they just met and chatted casually before, not conspicuous.

Following the sound of messy footsteps at the door of the meeting room.

The people sitting in the conference room and waiting all leaned on the backs of their chairs and looked back—

Nie Qingru stepped on everyone's attention, walked straight to the vacant seat at the top, and sat down straight.

At the same time, Shadow walked quietly behind her and stood less than 3 meters away from her, standing silently like a sculpture.

The secretary who followed behind also hurried over to serve tea and water, which was very skillful.

Everyone saw that Nie Qingru hadn't said a word since he came in. He was full of aura, and his demeanor was the same as before, showing no sign of downfall.

Some people with floating minds began to waver when they saw this.

Among the shareholders, there are people trained by Nie Qingru, mainly a few senior executives. Seeing Nie Qingru sit down, they shout out respectfully.

"Empress."

As soon as this name was called out, everyone's expressions became very exciting.
