

Madam's 4141

Chapter 4141 Of course I refused

She took a general look, picked out a message about David, opened it, took her shoulder bag and walked out, and talked to Xu Yi by the way.

"I go first."

"Bye-Bye."

Xu Yi looked up.

After she opened the door and went out, walked to the elevator entrance, and entered the elevator, she had time to look down at the message from David.

【Boss, is your phone turned off? 】

【What happened to the Nie family? Are they crazy? 】

Nie's family?

Qiao Nian immersed himself in experiments all day, his mind was full of tungsten gold wires, hydrogen peroxide, etc., filled with numerous experimental results.

She narrowed her eyes in sleepiness, pinched the bridge of her nose, and only slightly separated herself from the messy information.

His eyes fell on the message from David on the screen.

Nie's family?

She only knew one person named Nie.

Qiao Nian felt irritated in his chest for no reason. He suppressed his emotions and slid his fingertips down to see what David had to say.

【No, Boss, have you reconciled with the Nie family? 】

This was three hours ago.

Then, 1 hour ago, David sent her the last message.

【The boss saw the news and called me back. 】

Qiao Nian looked at the time, calculated the time difference in continent f, David was probably at eight o'clock in the morning, and he didn't know if he woke up.

She still found David's phone number from her phone and called.

It rang seven or eight times before answering.

"Hello, sun?"

"You wait for me to get off, right now."

Before Qiao Nian had time to speak, he heard the sound of him turning on the light, and the sound of "Zi La" when he got out of bed wearing slippers and opened the curtains.

Then there was the sound of slippers coming back, and after a sound of getting dressed, David picked up his phone again.

"alright."

"Boss, what's the situation between you and the guy from M state? Are you reconciled?"

Qiao Nian ignored his question, and asked directly: "What happened?"

"Cough." David was a little embarrassed: "It's not a big deal... I just couldn't make up my mind, so I sent you a message."

Qiao Nian interrupted him: "Speak directly."

David probably organized his speech, and then he hesitated and said: "Just yesterday, people from the Nie family came to me and wanted to start the diamond business from us."

"It's nothing. We open the door to do business, and we can contact anyone. When people come to ask for cooperation, I talked to them and wanted to see how much sincerity they can show."

The things behind are the weird ones.

David took a deep breath and continued: "In the end, what they mean is that they want to offer us 37 points, they will make 70% of the profit, and we will make 30% of the profit!"

F state rules have always been 37 points, but it is reversed, the buyer 3 points, the seller 7 points.

After all, everyone knows that diamonds in Continent F are not easy to get. To get diamonds in this kind of place safely and smoothly requires a lot of financial resources to maintain the lives of the people below.

They treat the aborigines well, which is equivalent to protecting them as their own, and they also have a series of guarantees for medical care, accommodation and future retirement.

Even if they take 7 cents of profit, in fact, excluding expenses, they can earn about 1 cent of profit.

As a result, the Nie family asked them to pay back the money.

Isn't this troublesome?

"Tsk, you didn't refuse them?" Qiao Nian saw the elevator opened, went out, waved for a car, got in the car and gave an address, then sat in the back seat and opened the window to call David.

David was wronged: "Of course I refused!"

Chapter 4142 Sun, have you reconciled with Nie Qingru?

Qiao Nian changed hands, holding the phone, already a little impatient to listen to his story: "Let's get to the point."

"good."

David knew her temper, so he didn't keep it secret: "The point is that after I rejected them, they asked me to ask you and said you would agree."

"I think they are quite confident. They were not sure what was going on between you and the man from M state, and they didn't get in touch with you, so they didn't reply to them for the time being."

"Sun, what's the situation now?" David asked.

Qiao Nian's temples were throbbing, and he let out a breath of foul air, trying to fight against the hostility surging in his heart, but the effect was not good.

She twitched the corners of her mouth, sneered and asked back, "What do you think?"

Immediately, I quickly realized that I should not blame irrelevant people.

"Feel sorry."

David seldom saw her lose control of her emotions. He didn't notice that Qiao Nian had a bad tone before. He just said, "So those people insisted on posting it?"

"En." Qiao Nian pressed the center of her eyebrows, her complexion was not very good. After she became conscious, she also paid attention to controlling her emotions: "The Nie family got involved in the diamond business?"

David thought about it: "The Nie family first made their fortune in the jewelry business, and the family has also been involved in other businesses for hundreds of years, but high-end jewelry has always been their proud wealth, and many high society in M state praise them In addition, many royal families also like to use the jewelry designed by their family or buy rough diamonds from them."

He didn't say anything in the second half.

Nie family's high-end jewelry is famous, but in recent years, the head of the Nie family has focused on relying on nepotism, and has no intention of letting them pass on the business as a member of the hermit family.

They have long been marginalized in the top luxury circle.

If it weren't for Nie Qingru's high position in the hidden family before, and she was firmly in the top spot, just like the Nie family is now, I'm afraid those celebrities, nobles and royal families would have bothered to ask for their jewelry.

Nie Qingru has fallen into the mortal world from a high place now, and it is normal for the Nie family to start to be restless.

It's just that he didn't expect that the other party was so embarrassed to come to them and want to take advantage of them.

Still confident.

Let him ask sun.

"In short, they are in urgent need of good rough stones in the near future, probably because they need to use them for some occasion."

Qiao Nian: "Let the word go out, anyone in Continent F who wants to sell them rough stones is against me and Hongmeng."

David was stunned and said, "Boss, are you sure?"

"You and the guy from State M..."

Qiao Nian watched the driver in front frequently peeping at him through the rearview mirror, raised his hand and lowered the brim of his peaked cap, nestled in the back row, and said casually, "I will never reconcile with her."

"Then..." David didn't react for a while.

sun didn't reconcile with the old hag, are those Nie family members who came to ask them for 3 cents of profits for free? Are they crazy?

Qiao Nian probably heard what he wanted to ask, and said in a weak tone, "It should be that Nie Qingru didn't make it clear to them, so ignore them. Next time they come to you, just throw it outside."

"good."

David originally meant this, but before he figured out her attitude, it was not easy to turn his face.

Now that he knows Qiao Nian's attitude, he knows how to treat those people next.

It happened that the taxi was about to arrive at the place.

Qiao Nian glanced outside, and said to David: "I'm here, let's talk when we go back."

David thought she should go to dinner at this point, so he didn't waste time, and said straightforwardly: "Then I have something to send you a message."

Chapter 4143 Sister Nian has an appointment

"Um."

Qiao Nian responded.

"Bye."

After she finished speaking, she hung up the phone, glanced at the driver in front of her, leaned forward and swiped the QR code to pay: "I'll transfer it to you."

Then Qiao Nian opened the door and got out of the car.

Until she was walking towards the Chen Garden, a waiter really came and led Qiao Nian in.

The driver smacked his lips and said dumbfounded: "There are people who take a taxi here to eat."

...

The open-air restaurant on the top floor of Chenyuan.

Guan Yan waited on it for a while, accompanied by a shrewd and capable man.

The two saw Qiao read over.

Guan Yan waved first: "Sun, here."

Qiao Nian walked over, opened a chair opposite the man and sat down, put the shoulder bag beside him, and said to the waiter, "Just give me a glass of lemonade."

"OK."

The waiter hurried to prepare.

Space is reserved for three people.

Guan Yan and the man had drinks in front of them. Guan Yan was tea and the other was a cup of Americano coffee.

Qiao Nian glanced roughly, resting his elbows on the back of the chair, sitting in a loose posture, raised his eyebrows, and said to the other party without hesitation: "Are you the connector of the black market here in Independence Island?"

The black market is just as the name suggests—a place where everything is sold!

Since there is a place for buying and selling, there are naturally behind-the-scenes managers who provide this platform.

The black market is special.

It is divided into regions and has different managers.

For example, the Beijing side is basically managed by the guard building, and the independent state also has its own managers. These people are mainly responsible for integrating transactions in their own area and selling some information.

"Hongmeng's son?" The other party is young, superior in appearance, full of mixed blood, definitely considered handsome in the crowd.

Flaxen hair, a pair of deep brown eyes, a straight and three-dimensional nose bridge, and a romantic atmosphere unique to foreign men in every gesture.

Adam was obviously very curious. He greeted the girl in front of him with a smile, and extended his hand to Qiao Nian after learning the etiquette in Beijing: "I have long admired your name."

Qiao Nian only looked down at the hand he handed over, leaned back slightly, didn't intend to shake hands, and said indifferently: "Sorry, I'm allergic."

Glancing at her, Guan Yan understood what she meant, and explained to Adam following her words: "Our boss is prone to skin allergies."

"?"

"Okay, let's talk about business." Guan Yan didn't explain in depth, after all, Qiao Nian's problem was cured by Ye Wangchuan.

The waiter just delivered the lemonade, put it on the table, and walked away silently, very discerning.

Qiao Nian crossed his hands on the table, leaned forward, and looked at him with piercing eyes: "How much tungsten gold can you give me?"

Adam was stunned for a moment, and said bluntly: "I heard from Guan Yan that the amount you want is not much that the entire Independent Continent can give."

"... Or, Sun, your request is not met by many people in the black market. Besides, such a large transaction will definitely attract the attention of other forces."

Tungsten gold is too sensitive.

Tungsten gold transactions in large quantities are even more sensitive.

"You don't have to worry about this, as long as you provide me with resources, I will bear the follow-up responsibilities." The girl's broad browbones revealed wanton arrogance in her bones, as if the sky was falling and she carried her aura.

Adam couldn't help putting away the contempt in his heart, and looked at the girl in front of him seriously again.

It's too young!

Even when Guan Yan led him to meet the mysterious boss himself, he still couldn't connect the person in front of him with those rumors.

Chapter 4144 Want to buy tungsten gold

But now he vaguely sensed the aura of the girl, and began to restrain himself from before: "Sun, I said, there are not many people who can trade with you for large quantities of tungsten gold in the entire black market, let alone independent continent resources. The resources in this area are even less. The amount of tungsten gold I can find here is definitely not up to your expectations, but I know who in Independent Continent has the resources you want..."

The last sentence is the key point, and it is also the reason why Guan Yan specially called him out, and asked Qiao Nian out for dinner.

Qiao Nian's coat was loosely tied around his waist, raising his eyes: "Who?"

As a broker, Adam earned money from reselling information. He didn't go around in circles, and immediately said: "Independence Island Nanjia."

Qiao Nian frowned slightly, but didn't answer immediately.

Guan Yan glanced at her: "Boss, you and..."

Qiao Nian had already said to Adam: "You help me contact there, tell the anonymous buyer that they want to buy a large amount of tungsten gold, the price is easy to negotiate, let them make an offer first. If the transaction is completed, I will pay you 10% of the transaction price. The premise is not to reveal that I want to buy it. OK?"

Adam didn't expect her to be so forthright, and the reward was so high. A smile appeared on his handsome face, and he agreed very heartily: "It's a pleasant cooperation."

He stretched out his hand and wanted to shake hands with Qiao Nian, but immediately realized that he didn't want to shake hands, so he silently took it back, he was in a good mood.

He saw that Sun had a cold personality and didn't like to socialize very much, so he got up and said to Guan Yan: "I won't eat, I have other things to do in the evening, let's go first."

Guan Yan sent him to the door and came back again.

Seeing that Qiao Nian hadn't left yet, she breathed a sigh of relief, pulled out a chair and sat down opposite the girl, and asked with a puzzled face, "Sun, you just knew he was talking about Nan Tianyi, why did you hire him as an intermediary?" Buy tungsten gold anonymously?"

sun can go directly to Nan Tianyi or else.

"It's useful for me to use tungsten gold. I don't want to involve irrelevant people except those who can't be avoided." The thing Ji Qing wanted to do at the beginning caused so many forces to want her life, and they have spared no effort to date So far, she is still chasing and killing those who came into contact with her in the final stage.

If she hadn't been able to complete such a large amount of work by herself, she would never have involved Master Cheng, Xu Yi, and Shi Fu.

Forget about these people.

She will find a way to keep them safe, and as long as she is alive, she will not let outsiders hurt them!

But no matter how strong she is alone, her ability is limited. The more people involved, the more things she needs to worry about.

She didn't want to involve Nan Tianyi.

So the best way is for her to buy tungsten gold anonymously, in short, it's just spending money.

Money, she happens to have a little bit.

It depends on how much the person in charge of the Nan family's business offers. As long as it is not too much, she should be able to afford it.

"What are we having for dinner?" Guan Yan tasted a little laziness from the girl's tired eyelids, and changed the subject thoughtfully.

Qiao Nian was a little tired, so he leaned there: "Order whatever you want, and I'll eat with you, don't choose."

"Okay." Guan Yan didn't say anything, rang the bell, called the waiter over, ordered a few special dishes here, then asked if there was any Chinese food that Qiao Nian liked, and picked out a few.

While she was waiting for the food to be served, Guan Yan was full of pity when she saw the girl sitting there having fun, adjusting her mood and passing the time.

Chapter 4145: Why did you mention her suddenly?

I couldn't help but said softly: "Sun, don't push yourself too hard. If you don't tell me, I probably know what you are talking about. Anyway, if you need help, just ask me. Don't worry, I will help you. I can protect myself."

Qiao Nian happened to swipe the screen and solved a lot of blocks at once. Hearing this, she raised her head slightly, her clear eyes fell on her, and she suddenly softened. She didn't say any touching words, but said softly, "Yes."

Thousands of words, all in silence!

Guan Yan smiled, knowing that she had listened, and stopped continuing this heavy topic, and talked about what he had done in the past few days in Independent Island.

Joe Nian listened to her while playing the game, answered a few words from time to time, and then remembered that she hadn't told anyone that she was going to eat out tonight.

She quit the game again, sent Ye Wangchuan a WeChat message, telling him that she was with Guan Yan and would go back later, so she didn't have to wait for her to eat.

Then switch back to the game and continue to the next level.

This move fell into Guan Yan's eyes, and she could see it clearly. She ate the dog food silently, and asked again without specifically saying it.

At the same time, M state.

Nie Tao went to Nie Qingru after receiving David's reply.

His car parked under the Smith Bank Building, hurried in, and took Nie Qingru's exclusive elevator to the first floor of the President's Office.

The banking system is extremely busy, not to mention Smith Bank, which is the financial hub of State M, everyone is busy answering the phone and dealing with the work at hand.

At this juncture, the elevator door opens.

The scene where Nie Tao forcibly broke in to meet Nie Qingru regardless of his assistant's obstruction fell into everyone's eyes.

Everyone exchanged glances with each other, and they all saw the usual contempt in each other's eyes, and some quickly hid in the tea room to report the excitement that happened here to familiar shareholders.

In the office, Nie Qingru was on a video call with an overseas partner.

Only heard a 'bang' in front of the glass door.

Nie Tao broke in from the outside.

The assistant who followed him anxiously came in together, and it seemed that he didn't stop him.

Nie Qingru suddenly lowered her face, cut off the video call over there, and forcefully questioned the intruder: "Who let you in!"

Nie Tao was startled by his eyes, and then felt dissatisfied in his heart. Due to Nie Qingru's power, he could only hold back and shout: "Qingru, I have urgent business with you."

Nie Tao's complexion was not good-looking, and he stood still, pinched the palm of his hand, and said with humiliation: "I really need you urgently. Dad asked me to come."

Shadow quickly poured Nie Qingru a glass of water, and gently handed it to her, signaling her not to get angry.

While raising his head to look directly at Nie Tao, he said in a less polite tone: "Mr. Nie, it's time for you to learn to be considerate of the queen's situation. How do those people outside think of the queen when you barge in so recklessly?"

"What are you?" Nie Tao couldn't hold back his anger and asked back.

"Boom!"

I saw Nie Qingru slamming the table, locking him with eyes like a poisonous snake, and said sharply: "Speak directly if you have something to say, and get out if you don't."

Nie Tao's chest heaved violently, and his broad figure walked to the sofa to sit down. He gave the shadow a hard look, and then reluctantly asked Nie Qingru, "What's the matter with you and Qiao Nian?"

When Nie Qingru heard this name, she had a migraine like a conditioned reflex, and her nerves were tense: "Suddenly ask her what to do."

Chapter 4146: I went to find Joe

She was also humiliated by Steve grabbing things on INS in the morning, and began to question the authenticity of what she said at the shareholders meeting.

After a lot of difficulty, she prevaricates it by saying that a young man has a bad temper and is still arguing with her.

Nie Tao came over and mentioned this to her again, it would be strange if Nie Qing was in a good mood.

Nie Tao didn't know how to read his face, so he didn't notice Nie Qingru's extremely ugly face, and said in a low voice, half admonishing and half admonishing: "Dad told me to tell you, don't just force her to bow her head when you treat this kind of junior. Coax when it's time to coax!"

"What do you want from me?" Nie Qingru interrupted him impatiently after hearing these words more than once.

She didn't believe that Nie Tao came here to tell her these things, and she really didn't want to waste time with him, and she didn't want to argue with him here, making outsiders laugh at her.

"I'll give you another chance. If you don't want to say it, you can just leave."

Nie Tao's face was drawn all over the place: "The annual jewelry competition is coming soon, and our family must participate, but this year we don't have good materials, so it is inevitable that we will not have confidence. In addition, the orders placed by the R royal family before us are also very important. I need raw materials, so I went to Qiao Nian..."

"What?"

Nie Qingru interrupted him and suddenly lowered her face.

"Who did you say you were looking for?"

Nie Tao was dissatisfied with her excited appearance, frowned, and reluctantly replied: "I went to find Qiao Nian's subordinate, that is David from F Continent."

"It's not that he has a good relationship with Qiao Nian. It is said that he is also one of the veterans of the Red League, so he is Qiao Nian's subordinate."

"I talked to him yesterday, and I plan to buy diamonds from him. Firstly, I can deal with this jewelry competition, and secondly, I can also arrange the orders in my hand."

As a family that has accumulated wealth for generations, the Nie family is not short of money. Their insistence on keeping the jewelry business is actually a disguised continuation of the family's original wealth.

The inheritance of a family must not be broken.

Nie Tao looked at Nie Qingru, straightened his face, frowned, and said in a straightforward tone: "Don't worry, I didn't ask for it in vain. I said I would give them money."

Nie Qingru was almost fainted by his anger. She grabbed the edge of the desk with her left hand, her finger bones turned white, and managed to control herself from exploding.

"How much are you giving them?"

"37 open."

Nie Qingru was too lazy to ask him who is 3 and who is 7.

Because she had already guessed the conditions Nie Tao asked him.

Sure enough, Nie Tao immediately said to her: "David replied to me this morning, saying that he does not agree to cooperate. Dad means, I want you to talk to Qiao Nian. After all, this jewelry competition is very important to us. It is you In the first competition from the Queen's position, if you lose the title of No. 1, everyone will look bad."

"You can't win the first place based on your strength?" Nie Qingru said angrily.

Nie Tao couldn't get off the stage because of her words, pulled off the collar of his suit, and said in a muffled voice: "It's easy for you to say, the jewelry competition is not as simple as you think."

"Everyone has a background, everyone is fighting for background, who only cares about strength?"

Nie Qingru didn't want to argue with him whether the international jewelry competition depends on strength or background, but told him: "I can't help you."

Nie Tao endured it for a long time, and when he heard her answer, he was finally unhappy: "Qingru, what do you mean? You can solve things that you can talk about, and you don't want to help the family...Dad..."

Chapter 4147: The two broke up

Nie Qingru told him patiently: "He was sent to the hospital when he was in poor health. You are short of money, but I have it here. It should be rescued and treated. As a daughter, I will not treat him badly!"

"Nie Qingru!" Nie Tao suddenly stood up.

Nie Qingru just pretended not to see it, and didn't get used to him: "I have helped you a lot these years, so I have cultivated the personality that you rely on me for everything."

"As you can see, I'm down and out now. I'm not the queen you said, and I can't help you. If you still learn to be a man with your tail between your legs and make a mess, I can't control you!"

Is David a man to mess with?

In Continent F, they can be called a weapon predator and become the overlord of a party. Is it the master who came to find someone for nothing?

They still had the nerve to ask her to tell Qiao Nian to take care of David.

What a big tone.

"besides."

Nie Qingru looked at him with an ugly face, looked at him and said, "Forget about it today. Next time you barge in like this directly, or run to Smith Bank without saying hello, I will let the security guard check you out."

"Okay, you're doing fine."

Nie Tao was so angry that his shoulders trembled, and he rushed out in anger.

"Queen." Shadow looked at the office door that was thrown open by Nie Tao, and turned back anxiously: "How about I go out to see Mr. Nie?"

Nie Qingru was getting angry, she put her finger on her temple, rubbed it, and said angrily, "Leave him alone."

Many people outside peeked inside through the open glass door.

Shadow goes to close the door.

In the future, the outside eyes were cut off from the door, so he walked back and stood in front of Nie Qingru's desk again, looking at the haggard and tired woman sitting on the swivel leather chair.

Before he had time to express his concern, he saw Nie Qingru raised his head and looked at himself with sharp eyes: "Is there someone on the INS to deal with it?"

Shadow lowered his head: "The subordinates are still communicating with them."

Qiao Nian's post last night undoubtedly slapped her in the face. Nie Qingru couldn't care less because of her face: "Suppress the heat and let ins deal with it as soon as possible."

"good."

Shadow didn't say that the ins side's attitude was very subtle. He had approached the other party many times, but the person in charge of the other party was like a slippery loach who refused to give an accurate answer.

It is completely different from when Nie Qingru was the empress of the hermit family and needed their pressure.

"After you finish dealing with the ins matter, go to the R royal family and communicate with the royal family about the lack of raw materials."

"It would be best if they are willing to wait a little longer. If they don't want to, take out the set of green emerald jewels in my vault and give them to them, and say it is my personal apology."

Nie Qingru didn't personally explain such 'little things', so naturally he didn't know the difficulties.

Shadow knew it was not that easy from hearing it. I'm afraid that the royal family's attitude is similar to that of INS, and they won't cooperate as easily as before.

"Empress, since you want to help the Nie family, why did you just..." He didn't understand Nie Qingru's intention.

"Hmph." Nie Qingru's face was cold, his eyes were sharp, and he just snorted softly: "I'm not helping them. I'm helping myself!"

She looked at the shadow and still didn't understand it, so she waited for her answer with a puzzled look on her face.

Nie Qingru sat back slightly, stretched her back and leaned on the back of the chair: "I have lost my status as a queen now, and the only people I can rely on behind me are Smith Bank and the Nie family."

"Even if the Nie family is just a puddle of mud, in the eyes of outsiders, they will always be my natal family."

Chapter 4148 just happened

"If the Nie family falls, those people who don't think highly of me will only be happier and want to come up and step on me. So even if it's not for them, I have to help them."

Nie Qingru thought of this, and remembered the stupid thing Nie Tao told her about going to David, Continent F, to negotiate, and was so angry that her brain hurt.

Pressing her temples with her fingers, trying to suppress the impetuosity that surged up, she whispered: "You think I don't know they are stupid? I just can't help it!"

Shadow's eyelids twitched slightly, and he lowered his head respectfully, not saying any more.

Nie Qingru still has a lot of things to do, and she still has to continue the interrupted video call to discuss unfinished projects with overseas partners.

She was not in the mood to care about Nie Tao's stupid remark about asking her to go to Qiao Nian, so she asked Shadow to make another cup of coffee for her, and then started working.

Nie Tao walked out of the Smith Bank building angrily.

The driver saw his bad face from a distance, so he got out of the car and opened the door for him.

Just when Nie Tao was pulling the sides of his suit with a sullen face, and was about to bend down to go up...

"Mr. Nie."

Suddenly someone stopped him from behind.

Nie Tao stopped impatiently, turned around and looked over. Originally, he just glanced casually, when he saw the person coming clearly.

Nie Tao's expression on his face became more subdued, he raised his eyes, and asked in surprise, "Mr. Steve?"

Steve was wearing a black suit, walked up to him politely, patted him on the shoulder, and greeted him in an acquainted manner: "Why does Mr. Nie have time to come here, what's the matter?"

Nie Tao knew that he had quarrels with Nie Qingru some time ago, and united with a group of shareholders almost knocked Nie Qingru from his position as a bank decision-maker.

Immediately became vigilant, avoided Steve's hand, and inadvertently brushed the dust off the clothes: "I just came to ask Qingru when she has time to go back for dinner."

"That's it." Steve didn't know if he believed it, but he seemed to believe it anyway, and offered to ask, "Is Mr. Nie busy? If you are not busy, there is a cafe nearby, why don't we go and sit down?" sit."

"This...isn't appropriate?"

Nie Tao didn't know what he wanted to do.

Steve saw the hesitation and vigilance in his eyes, and smiled brightly: "Anyway, I'm just going to sit and sit, and President Nie won't lose anything."

Steve immediately said again: "Or is Mr. Nie afraid of being known by the Queen, and the Queen will be angry?"

"..." Nie Tao's complexion changed slightly.

He has been crushed by his sister for decades, not to mention that he was angry at the top just now, and his dissatisfaction with Nie Qingru is reaching its peak.

Seeing Steve's warm invitation, he also used aggressive tactics.

Even though he knew that Steve and Nie Qingru had a bad relationship, he still tightened his jaw, pursed his lips and said, "Where should I go for coffee?"

Steve stretched his brows, and immediately invited him: "It's next door, not far away. President Nie, come with me."

"Yes." Nie Tao buttoned up his suit, raised his legs and followed.

The driver watched him and Steve leave, and stood there at a loss, not knowing whether to report to the old man at home.

After much deliberation, he was afraid that Nie Tao would turn his back on him and turn his anger on him. In order to work, the driver chose to return to the car and continue to wait for Nie Tao to come back.

...

At this moment, Nan Ling brought Li Mo back to Nan's house.

Father Nan just came back from outside.

The three collided head-on.

Father Nan saw the obedient woman following Nan Ling, he was stunned for a moment, then came to his senses, and said gently, "You are Momo?"

Chapter 4149 Nanling told him what happened at noon

"Ah." After Li Mo was feeling uneasy, she suddenly saw a middle-aged man who looked exactly like Nan Ling greeting her.

Father Nan stopped, stood there and said kindly: "I heard your aunt talk about you. I saw you before when you were young."

He made a gesture: "You were only this tall at that time, and you followed your father. When you saw me, you hid behind and dared not come out."

Li Mo finally knew who he was, and called out respectfully: "Uncle Nan."

"Hey." Father Nan responded, looked at his son, and motioned him with his eyes: "Why did you come back together?"

In front of Li Mo, Nanling couldn't tell what she did in the club, so she sullenly said in a nonchalant tone, "When I came back to pick up things, my aunt and the others came over, so Mom asked me to take my sister out for a walk. Take a stroll."

Father Nan breathed a sigh of relief: "That's it. Then what are you going to do next...?"

Nan Ling knew what his father meant, and immediately said: "I just send him back, and I will leave later, and I won't eat at home tonight."

"That's fine." Father Nan's original intention was to keep the two of them from getting too close.

He turned back to look at Li Mo, who was silent. Li Mo looked very well-behaved, but he always felt that Li Mo seemed to be afraid of Nan Ling, and looked nervously in the direction of Nan Ling from time to time.

He changed his mind, and happened to have something to ask Nan Ling. He said to the two of them, "Go ahead."

The three of them went in front and back.

Mother Nan stood up from the sofa in surprise when she saw the two of them coming back: "You guys came back so early?"

Nan Ling tugged at the tie that bound his neck, suppressed the irritability in his chest, and walked inside again, listening to Nan's mother coming up to ask him.

"You didn't have lunch?"

"Why didn't you play outside for a while?"

"Daniel didn't come?"

Nan Ling's mixed mood became more and more uncomfortable, and he was not in the mood to talk to her in detail, so he said vaguely: "Something happened, come back early."

Mother Nan was still asking: "What happened?"

Li Mo, who came in after him, was even more nervous than Nan Ling, and immediately interrupted the conversation between the two, and stepped in: "Auntie, I want to ask you something."

Mother Nan was indeed attracted by her: "What?"

Li Mo quickly glanced at Nanling with nervous eyes, pleading in her eyes, while perfunctory Nan's mother said: "I just came to Independent Island and there are still many things I don't know...I want to know where it is more convenient to buy things? I I didn't bring a few clothes, I want to go shopping some other day."

Mother Nan really warmly introduced her, and pulled her over, looked at her with gestures and said to take her to buy clothes, and go to a beauty salon by the way.

Father Nan took a panoramic view of the scene just now, turned around and said to Nan Ling in a deep voice, "Come with me to the study."

...

In the study.

Father Nan closed the door without going around in circles, went to sit behind the mahogany desk, frowned and asked him, "Did something happen when you went out?"

"You and her..." Nan's father thought that Nan Ling was confused, so he really had an affair with Li Mo.

Who knew that Nan Ling immediately brushed it off: "Dad, you think too much!"

Father Nan still couldn't believe it: "Then why is her reaction to you so strange?"

Nan Ling didn't intend to help Li Mo hide it, so he told about the matter of asking Ye Wangchuan out to meet him through Daniel's relationship at noon.

By the way, Li Mo chased him out while he was not paying attention, ran to make irresponsible remarks in front of others, and then played stupid with him, trying to deceive him.

Chapter 4150 People from the black market came to me

Father Nan frowned more and more, and the more he listened, the worse his complexion became.

It wasn't until Nan Ling finished speaking that he sat on the chair and breathed out his chest tightness: "You mean, they know each other?"

Father Nan quickly remembered that the Li family almost married a famous family in Beijing not long ago, but they broke up for some reason.

Then the Li family caused a lot of trouble, and had to send Li Mo to Independent Island...

He is not a fool, otherwise Nan Tianyi would not have selected him from a large number of side branches to be his helper, and even wanted to transfer the Nan family to his hands in the future.

Ye Wangchuan came from Beijing.

Father Nan frowned, dissatisfied: "It seems that your mother took over a trouble."

Nanling didn't like to speak ill of his mother, so he kept silent, but his attitude was there, and he also thought that Nan's mother should not bring such relatives home.

"Forget it, they are all here, and they are relatives again. Since you know her character, don't listen to your mother in the future, avoid it if you can, and don't take her with you."

"Um."

Nan Ling thought so too.

Father Nan thought about how long Li Mo would stay at home, and was a little annoyed. He frowned, let go, looked at him like a torch, and said, "So you haven't reconciled with that Young Master Ye yet?"

"Hey, I didn't find a suitable opportunity to speak up when something like this happened." Nan Ling was upset, curled up his fingers, let go for a moment, and said to Nan's father, "I have to reconcile with him? He can't have rare earth mines, Just someone who is arrogant and likes to brag."

He really doesn't like Ye Fanchuan.

The other party's actions today made him lose face even more.

Nan Ling was patient to the extreme.

"At the end of the day, he is just a person from outside the Independent Continent. Dad, don't you think highly of him?"

Father Nan glared at him: "I don't care where he is from, I only know that he is Ji Shao's friend, and Ji Shao attaches great importance to it."

Nanling pouted: "Jinan has nothing to do with us."

"You really think so?" Father Nan's expression became serious.

Nan Ling fell silent instantly when he touched his gentle but calm face.

He knew what his father was going to tell him.

I just want to tell him that their family is different from Ji's family, and he is also different from Ji Nan!

But he didn't feel it himself.

The people he has faced in every social occasion in Independent Island in the past few years have treated him similarly to Ji Nan.

In his bones, he thought that he was on the same level as Ji Nan.

Only Father Nan beat him from time to time.

Not to say that he is not as good as Ji Nan.

Not even as good as Daniel.

Always tell him to be careful with these princelings.

"I see." Faced with Nan's father's aggressive gaze, Nan Ling finally resigned and compromised: "I will find another chance to see."

"En." Father Nan nodded in satisfaction.

Immediately told him one thing.

"By the way, someone found me at noon today and wanted to buy a large amount of tungsten gold from us. The quantity is a bit too much."

"who?"

Tungsten gold is not an ordinary metal.

It is hard for Nan Ling not to be curious.

Father Nan shook his head: "I don't know, anonymous buyer."

"?"

Father Nan saw that he was confused, stared at him, and said in a low voice, "I was contacted by a connector from the black market in Independence Island, saying that the other party asked us to set the price casually, and we must ask for tungsten gold."

"Black market?"

Father Nan took the opportunity to tell him: "Yes, the black market. There are black markets all over the world, mainly for underground transactions that are not convenient to put on the table. The black market is generally used for the exchange of scarce resources."

There is a mysterious buyer behind
