

Madam's 4231

Chapter 4221 The old woman knew she had offended someone

"You are robbery!" Mrs. Li spoke righteously, trying to control the trembling arc of her body, and threatened calmly: "I want to call the police!"

"Haha." The man laughed loudly, leaning forward and backward, it took a long time to wipe away the tears from the laughter, and looked at her mockingly: "Old lady, where do you think this is?"

Without saying a word, he took out his mobile phone and threw it on the old lady Li, full of arrogance: "Hey, call the police and see if there are any policemen coming to help you."

Behind him were seven or eight burly men, all of whom seemed to be armed, with fleshy faces, sharp eyes, and murderous looks all over their bodies.

Old lady Li was clutching her mobile phone and didn't dare to call the police in front of the driver, but she was so angry and anxious, the blood vessels in her neck were bulging, she held the phone tightly: "Do you know who I am?"

"Who are you?"

She changed the way to communicate with these vicious gangsters: "Have you heard of the Nan family?"

Several men exchanged glances with each other, but they didn't become scared like Mrs. Li imagined, but showed meaningful expressions.

The driver looked at her, and simply said: "Old lady, don't you know that you have offended someone?"

"?"

Old lady Li heard this sentence twice in one day.

Before she was kicked out of the hotel in the morning, she didn't take it to heart, she just felt that the other party was just talking.

Until now.

Old lady Li realized that everything they encountered stemmed from one reason—they offended someone!

Old lady Li realized that this point had begun to waver, but she still pretended to be nonchalant and tried her best to negotiate terms with the other party.

"It's my business who I offend. Just tell me, do you know about the Nan family? Do you know about my relationship with the Nan family? If you are smart enough, don't touch us."

"Pfft."

Who knew that her righteous words did not make the other party afraid, but instead made several people laugh out loud, like hearing a big joke.

Old lady Li has lived for decades and has never received such a thing that tramples on her self-esteem. Immediately, her face turned red, green and white.

"What do you mean?"

The driver didn't bother to explain to her, put his hand on the doorknob, and said very coldly: "Come out, don't waste my time."

Old lady Li's complexion changed slightly, and she still wanted to say something.

She just opened her mouth, but she hasn't had time to speak yet.

I saw the burly men behind the driver take out their weapons from their pockets, aiming their black muzzles at their heads, threatening them silently.

Now what else could Old Madam Li say, she had no choice but to cooperate with the other party's request and push the door down from the car in silence.

As she got out of the car, Li Mo, Song Ya, and that assistant also got out of the taxi in despair.

The driver gave one of them a wink.

The man immediately understood and walked over to start a search.

Old lady Li, Song Ya and Li Mo are all women, and they are used to being arrogant. They originally wanted to resist, but faced with the threat of gunpoint, the three of them stood there and dared not move.

Fortunately, they only wanted to search them. After checking that they had no remaining belongings, they reported to the driver: "Boss, it's gone."

The driver opened the taxi door, stood by the door and looked at the old lady Li and the others who were in a panic in the cold wind, and gently reminded: "This is a suburb, and the road ahead is under construction, and traffic has been restricted for a while. You are lucky Well, I can wait for a car to pass by in one day. If you are unlucky, you may have to stay here for two days..."

Chapter 4222: Let them go back!

The faces of Mrs. Li and the others changed suddenly.

He turned a blind eye: "Oh, by the way, I have another word for you."

Old lady Li's eyes were about to burst into flames, and she wished she could pierce him with her eyes.

The driver didn't care about her murderous eyes at all, and continued to say against her hateful eyes: "Don't you like to play tricks? This is not over yet."

After the driver finished speaking, he led the people away.

Old lady Li and others were thrown by him on the side of a deserted road in the suburbs.

Li Mo trembled all over, took a deep breath, and weakly broke the almost frozen atmosphere: "Grandma, we, what should we do now?"

Old lady Li finally recovered from the last words of the driver, and then looked at the panicked appearance of the group of people. Even though she had spent half her life, her mind was blank now.

"Grandma." Li Mo opened his mouth to call her again.

Old lady Li was in a trance, supported by an assistant, took a breath, and exhaled the cold air in her lungs, which made her feel better.

"Let's go back."

Song Ya was the first to shout: "Mom, what do you mean? You let us walk back to the city from here?!"

She looked at the seemingly endless road, her legs seemed to be filled with cement and she couldn't lift her legs, and her face was full of disbelief.

Old lady Li is physically and mentally exhausted at the moment, and she has no strength to comfort Song Ya: "If you want to stay here, you can stay alone."

Seeing her with a serious face, Song Ya staggered towards the direction the driver drove away with the help of her assistant, she had no choice but to stamp her feet, and followed with Li Mo.

They are at least 20 kilometers away from the urban area, and it takes a day and a night to walk back with their legs alone.

They slept on the street last night without eating or sleeping, and they encountered this kind of robbery again early in the morning. Song Ya only felt that she was unlucky but helpless...

Country Y.

Mother Li learned from her husband that the old lady might have offended members of the Ye family.

She looked for connections everywhere but couldn't find a connection with Independent Continent, so she had no choice but to contact Shangjing City.

The Li family was favored by the Bo family back then, and Li Mo was chosen as Bo Zheng's marriage partner, which shows that the Li family has certain connections in Beijing.

Li's mother used the older generation's relationship circle this time.

It was not successful at the beginning. Just like her relationship with Independent Island, when the relationship with the older generation in Beijing heard what she wanted to do, they rejected her without hesitation.

Later, Li's mother really had no choice but to think of the Bo family.

She remembered that when Mr. Bo called home to explain the divorce to them, he had verbally promised them that they could find him if they needed help in the future.

Mother Li called Mr. Bo with a mentality of giving it a try, explained the situation on the phone, and tearfully told them what Mr. Bo had promised them before, begging Mr. Bo to come forward for help.

Master Bo thought twice, arranged a driver, and took a car to visit Ye's house.

Ye Maoshan went out to walk the birds and was not at home, so he sat and waited in the old house all morning until Ye Maoshan came back from walking the birds, and then told his old friend about the Li family.

Jiang Li also told Ye Maoshan about the good deeds done by the Li family, so after Ye Maoshan handed over the thrush in his hand to the old housekeeper, he sat down on the sofa where he usually drank tea, and asked Mr. Bo to sit down.

Old man Bo thought about the entrustment of his old friend before, and then thought about Bo Zheng's divorce. After sitting down, he couldn't wait to mention it to Ye Maoshan.

"The matter about your granddaughter-in-law..."

Chapter 4223: wave after wave of blows

Ye Maoshan immediately raised his hand, stopped and said: "Stop, I already know why you are here. I also know why you are looking for me..."

"Then..." Mr. Bo was eager for an answer.

Ye Maoshan poured him a cup of tea and said unhurriedly: "There is no need to talk about this matter."

Old man Bo was stunned for a moment, and immediately realized that he frowned immediately, before he had time to answer.

I saw Ye Maoshan raised his eyelids, his eyes were bright, and he sat up straight and said to him: "The reason why I don't talk to you is very simple, you listen to me first."

Master Bo thought that Ye Maoshan was going to tell him about the scandal that was circulated on Weibo yesterday.

Who knew that Ye Maoshan told him something that he didn't know before.

That's what Li Mo did in Independent Island!

Now Mr. Bo opened his mouth slightly, unable to recover for a long time.

He remembered that not long ago Li Mo almost became his prospective daughter-in-law, even though the matter with Bo Zheng failed for various reasons later.

But in the blink of an eye, the person who almost became his prospective daughter-in-law turned around and did that kind of thing, and no one could accept it.

The same goes for Mr. Bo.

He never thought that Li Mo would do that kind of thing.

Ye Maoshan looked at his uncertain face, took a sip of tea, and said bluntly: "The Li family didn't tell you about this, did they?"

Old Man Bo calmed down a little, facing his penetrating eyes, he had to shake his head and admit, "No."

"Sure enough."

Ye Maoshan put down his teacup, motioned him to try his new tea, and then said calmly and uncompromisingly: "We are all people who are half buried in the loess, and old guys need to have the self-consciousness of old guys. You, just Follow me, don't worry about young people's affairs, let them solve it by themselves!"

Old man Bo heard the tough attitude in his words, so he had to smile wryly and pick up the new tea Ye Maoshan made for him and slowly sip it.

No one can control the affairs of the Li family.

This time the Li family is bound to swallow a bitter pill.

In the afternoon, Li's father and others who hadn't boarded the car tried their best to find Mrs. Li and others who had been walking for more than ten hours.

I learned what happened to them from Mrs. Li, and also knew that all the luggage had been taken away.

Old lady Li's luggage contained valuables, including bank cards, cash, identity information, etc. All of these things have been snatched away, which means that their identities are now in a completely strange and dangerous independent continent.

Father Li was forced to do nothing, he gritted his teeth and led a group of people to the IPA office for a temporary stay.

He contacted Song Ling with his only mobile phone, explained to Song Ling the difficulties they were encountering now, and begged Song Ling to come and see them no matter what.

Fortunately, the IPA staff looked at them poorly and poured a cup of hot water for each of them.

Just as Mrs. Li and others were sitting on the stools in the office building to rest, warming their hands with hot water, enjoying a moment of breathing space.

Father Li received another call and went out.

When Father Li came back again, he looked like a walking corpse, his eyes lost focus.

Old lady Li's expression finally calmed down, and when she saw her son who had been stuck in front of her for a long time without speaking, her heart still skipped a beat, and the blood on her face faded: "What happened again?"

"Gulu Gulu..." Father Li looked at her with both eyes, his lips were trembling, but his throat seemed to be pinched by an invisible big hand and he couldn't make a sound.

Chapter 4224: The Li family faces bankruptcy

Old lady Li saw him so frightened that she quickly put down the water, stood up, and looked directly at him: "What's the matter!"

Father Li tried hard to control his trembling hands, his fingertips were still trembling uncontrollably, he looked at his old mother with despair in his eyes.

The voice trembled, and he said hoarsely: "We, we were exposed to the news of illegal business operations, and some people reported our tax issues with their real names."

"What?!" Mrs. Li couldn't bear the blow, she rolled her eyes, and fell back straight.

"mom!"

Fortunately, Song Ya reacted quickly, stood up and supported her first, so that the old lady Li didn't have her head on the back of the chair.

The old lady Ke Li was still losing strength all over her body, her teeth collided and made a 'clack' sound, she was angry and anxious, seeing the blood all over her body rushing straight to her forehead, she kept rolling her eyes...

Father Li himself fell into a state of great despair, and didn't even notice the poor condition of Mrs. Li.

He continued: "The directors of the company called and asked us to go back to hold a shareholders' meeting immediately and give an explanation to all the directors."

"In addition, the tax bureau is also calling to ask us to go back and hand over the financial report for them to review... In addition, the customs and the police are also looking for us."

The Li family has a lot of things in their hands these years, but they used to be so beautiful that no one dared to reveal it.

They were out of luck this time.

The Chief Financial Officer ran to the police station and surrendered. He also brought evidence to kill their tax problems, and then notified the reporter to take pictures and publish the news immediately.

In addition, the chief financial officer also published related self-surrender remarks on his online personal account, and put the evidence online.

After such an operation, they have no room to operate.

Now online public opinion is blown up.

Netizens on INS are all watching the excitement, discussing the financial director's self-destruction behavior, and paying close attention to the related industries of Li's Group.

It is exactly the same as what the old lady Li did on Weibo before—someone is still guiding public opinion to * their family step by step.

Including Li Mo bullying her classmates when she was in college.

Song Ya's husband cheated on her and raised a mistress.

Old lady Li has some business methods that step on the gray line.

...

Now all these things have been picked up by netizens, facing the overwhelming pressure of public opinion, Father Li dare not think about the punishment they will face next.

He trembled, looked desperately at Mrs. Li, Song Ya, Li Mo and others in front of him, and said in a daze, "The Li family is going to end."

Li Mo's lips lost all color, as if struck by lightning.

Song Ya also stayed where she was.

I don't even have the energy to comfort Mrs. Li.

Father Li covered his head in pain: "Li's family is going to end, and so are we. Even if we can return to China, the police and relevant judicial agencies will come to our door immediately..."

"..." Mrs. Li let out a phlegm sound of "clack cuckoo" from her throat, and her eyes turned whiter even more.

Her face was flushed, her face was thick, her neck was thick, her hands kept grabbing her neck, and she opened her mouth forcefully to express something.

"Ye...cough cough...!"

Father Li heard her vague words, shook his head at her, and extinguished her last hope: "It's useless, Lihua found Mr. Bo, and asked Mr. Bo to beg Mr. Ye. He clearly refused, saying that he would not interfere with the little one." In terms of the affairs of a lifetime, Mr. Bo also said that he could do nothing, saying that the Bo family would not interfere in this matter..."

Chapter 4225: What awaits them is prison

Then they have nowhere to go!

The Li family is going bankrupt.

They're going to be investigated.

She and her son may still be imprisoned.

And Li Mo's matter has not been resolved.

Now that things are going on, there is still something that Mrs. Li can't figure out—the sentence left by the driver before leaving is a hint!

From the chief financial officer's self-explosion on INS, to arousing public opinion controversy, to * their whole family...

Isn't this the way she thought before to force the Ye family to bow their heads?

So not only did she not bow her head as she thought, but she quickly used her method to return it to her!

It's not that people don't know about the good things she has done in China, but they are waiting for her here.

"Mom, we shouldn't offend others."

"Slightly."

When Mrs. Li heard his words, she completely rolled her eyes, a black mist shrouded her eyes, she vomited a mouthful of blood, and passed out.

"mom."

"Grandma."

Following the collapse of the old lady Li, the entire Li family was in a mess at the IPA, and these people no longer had a backbone.

at the same time.

Nan Zhengyu didn't care about his unhealthy body, so he found Qiao Nian here.

Qiao Nian did come out from the research institute to meet him, but he declined Nan Zhengyu's proposal to find a place to drink water and treat him to dinner.

"Just say it here."

Qiao Nian was wearing a blue protective suit worn for the experiment, with his hands in his pockets, his exquisite facial features were exposed to the outside, which was very eye-catching.

Nan Zhengyu claimed to have seen the world, but he had to admit the outstanding beauty of the girl in front of him.

I heard that the daughter of the Ji family who passed away early was a stunning beauty in Independent Continent when she was young, and now she sees that she is indeed so.

Nan Zhengyu put away his pettiness, he was very smart and did not continue to insist on inviting Qiao Nian to dinner, but immediately followed the other party's wishes.

"I came to Miss Qiao today to ask Miss Qiao to show her respect and let us go."

Qiao Nian raised her eyebrows, her brows were full of unruliness, and her black eyes looked at him impatiently and impetuously, as if saying: 'What did she do to him? '

Nan Zhengyu is not a blind person like Song Ya and her son Nan Ling, who can tell what Qiao Nian means at a glance.

He quickly explained: "Miss Qiao, don't get me wrong, I'm not asking you to control other people, I mean...I already know that I made a mistake before, and I am willing to accept all consequences. But look...the Li family..."

He heard about the situation of Li's family, so he couldn't take a break, and came to the door without stopping, lest his family would become the second place in Li's family.

Qiao Nian stayed in the First Research Institute all day. Although she didn't know what happened outside, she probably guessed something from Nan Zhengyu's hesitant expression.

She interrupted very coldly: "The Li family has other reasons. If you haven't done it, it won't implicate you."

Nan Zhengyu suddenly loosened his brows, heaved a sigh of relief when he heard the words, and let go of the big stone in his heart.

Qiao Nian glanced at the time on his watch, and estimated that the reactor inside would soon release data, so he didn't want to waste time with him here, so he turned around and walked straight inside.

"If you're okay, don't come to me in the future."

Nan Zhengyu looked at the back of the girl leaving, and watched the back disappear into the corner of the First Research Institute, before he let out a bad breath and turned back to the car.

The assistant immediately helped him open the car door, glanced at the direction the girl was leaving, and said cautiously: "Mr. Nan, who is she? Why are you so arrogant talking to you?"

Chapter 4226 Don't let me hear you say this

Although the First Research Institute has a very high status in Independent Continent, it depends on who it is.

Feng Yu, Shi Fu and others are naturally few people can compare.

But the general members in it shouldn't be so domineering in front of Nan Zhengyu, and they don't show affection at all in words and deeds.

However, Nan Zhengyu glared at him immediately, and warned coldly: "Don't let me hear you say such things in the future."

He turned his head and looked at the direction where the girl left, and said to whom he didn't know: "That's someone we can't afford to mess with. I hope I can get away smoothly this time..."

He no longer asked for the right to inherit the Nan family, but only wanted to save his family from going to jail from this matter.

The driver was too frightened to say anything.

Nan Zhengyu bent down and got into the car, no longer looking in the direction of the First Research Institute: "Go back first."

The driver got into the car from the front, and when he heard Nan Zhengyu's order, he didn't dare to say anything, turned around and drove to the residence...

Home.

Nan Ling is still waiting for his return.

As soon as Nanzhengyu entered the entrance, the people in the living room immediately got up and greeted him: "Dad, how are you?"

"He didn't say anything, and it seems that he won't care about us." Nan Zhengyu put down the car keys and walked inside.

Nan Ling followed behind. Hearing what he said, he hesitated for a moment, then stopped: "The Li family... auntie and the others..."

He doesn't like Li Mo, but just like Song Ling, he still can't let go of Song Ya.

No matter how bad Song Ya was, she was still his aunt, and she had an inseparable blood relationship. Nanling still hoped that Song Ya could get out of this matter.

After all, in his opinion, Song Ya has already paid the price.

Now the Li family is in a mess.

Song Ya's marriage is also on the red light.

Even if Song Ya is at fault, she will be punished accordingly.

Nan Zhengyu stopped when he heard the sound, turned around suddenly, stared at his face with stern eyes, as if examining his heart.

Nan Ling couldn't help becoming nervous, clenched his fists, and pretended to be relaxed and smiled: "Dad, why are you looking at me with such eyes?"

Nan Zhengyu didn't relax at all, but with a tense face, he warned him coldly: "What will happen to the Li family and your aunt is their business, you are not allowed to take care of it!"

Nan Ling moved his mouth, and suddenly raised his head: "But Dad, at that age, Mrs. Li was so angry that they had a stroke and was admitted to the hospital. Don't you think they did too much?!"

"you."

"I know that Li's family is wrong first, but it's not wrong for them to press every step of the way? Anyway, an old man, if they have some morals, they won't embarrass an old man."

Nan Zhengyu looked at his son's righteous indignation, and knew that he was raised and abandoned by himself just like what Nan Tianyi said.

Right now, I just feel extremely disappointed.

Looking at Nan Ling's expression, he couldn't help showing such a deep disappointment, and his exhaustion rose sharply. Even this time, he didn't educate Nan Ling, but just said in a deep voice: "I don't care what you think, Just remember one thing, don't get involved in this matter! Otherwise, I won't be your son! Do you understand?"

Nan Ling opened his eyes wide in disbelief, clenched his fists, and suddenly said: "Dad, you are because of uncle..."

In his eyes, his father will always bow his knees in front of his uncle, deliberately catering to please.

He never understood this behavior from a young age.

Now seeing Nan Zhengyu reprimanding himself mercilessly, he is even more convinced that his father was afraid of offending his uncle's family and so severely reprimanded him not to intervene.

Even if his aunt was involved, his father had the same attitude.

Nanling was also extremely disappointed.

Chapter 4227 fell into his true class

Nan Zhengyu looked at his reluctance, and didn't bother to reason with him: "We are no longer the successors chosen by your uncle, if you think you are still Nan Shao, who is sought after by thousands of people, you Just try to see if you have the ability to find someone to help... If you have the ability, fine, I don't care what you think!"

"I have a headache, I went upstairs to rest."

Nanzhengyu chatted this sentence and went upstairs.

Nan Ling sat on the sofa downstairs for a while, not knowing whether it was out of anger or something, he took out his phone and tried to make a call with a friend who usually had a good time with him.

"Beep."

The first one got through.

Next second.

Nanling heard a mechanical female voice from the other end of the phone: "Sorry, the user you dialed is busy."

...is this dead?

Nan Ling was slightly taken aback, then reacted and took away the phone, looked at the call he had hung up on, frowned heroically, and called again.

"Beep."

This time it was also done in seconds.

However, the next second, the mechanical female voice sounded again.

"Sorry, the person you dialed is busy."

Nan Ling couldn't help but pursed her thin lips, sat on the sofa, and unwillingly took out the address book and started calling one after another.

Soon he realized the meaning of what his father said—you thought you were Nan Shao who went out and was sought after by thousands of people, just try it.

Nanling 20 made a few phone calls, except for a few people who were willing to answer, most of them were unwilling to even answer the phone.

The sporadic two people who were willing to answer the phone, when they heard him mention Yaomen, they all didn't give him a chance to continue talking as if they heard it was a big deal, and found an excuse to hang up the phone.

I sent him a text message afterwards, hoping that he would stop contacting me.

Nan Ling has always believed that he is invincible in the social arena with his superior education and dealing with people, and he is sought after by everyone.

It has something to do with Nan Tianyi's fancy to their family, but he doesn't rely entirely on Nan Tianyi's background, he also has his own personality charm.

Until the * reality was before him, Nan Ling didn't realize what his father meant when he kept saying 'he's different from Ji Nan'.

The relationship between Ji Nan and Ji Huang is not good either.

But outsiders will not immediately change their attitude just because Ji Huang quarrels with Ji Nan, or because Ji Huang neglects Ji Nan, and still praises Ji Nan highly.

Because Ji Nan will always be the son of Emperor Ji, the direct line of the Ji family's Zheng'er Eight Classics!

And he is different.

The news that the uncle had neglected their family had just spread, and the attitude of people outside towards him changed immediately.

Those who used to call Nan Shao repeatedly, now they don't even answer his phone.

Nan Ling sat on the sofa in a daze, holding his phone in a daze in a daze.

Finally, belatedly realized what good deeds Song Ya and Li Mo had done, and how much loss they had brought to their family...

And because he didn't hold his mother, and didn't stop her mother from insisting on taking Li Mo to the aunt's birthday party that day, what price did he pay!

At this moment, Nan Ling clearly felt that he would no longer have the glory and dignity he had before in Independence Island, and would fall from the favored one of heaven to the class that truly belonged to him.

And those people who used to hang around him didn't answer his calls, which was the beginning of this gap.

It will only be more realistic in the future.

Three days later.

The results of Song Ya and Li Mo's treatment came out.

Chapter 4228 Master Wang washes his hands and makes soup

Ye Wangchuan did not deal with them according to the rules of Independent Continent, but let them return to country Y, and deal with them according to the laws of country Y.

The two were drugged and framed. According to the laws of country Y, they could be sentenced to ten years.

The lawyer told Song Ya and Li Mo the result, and they cried.

It's a pity that their tears came too late. The judiciary has been staring at them for a long time, and did not give them a chance to escape, trying to put them in prison and wait for the prosecution.

Song Ya and Li Mo entered the police station and never forgot to bring letters to their families every day. Every time they could make a phone call, they couldn't wait to dial the number at home, begging their family to find a way to release them on bail. I can't wait another day...

But the Li family's situation is even worse.

After Mrs. Li suffered a stroke in Independent Island, even though she was sent to the hospital immediately, she still couldn't recover much.

Once Mrs. Li fell down at this age, it was basically difficult to recover her previous spirit, not to mention that she was still hospitalized due to shortness of breath and stroke.

When Li's mother, who was far away in country Y, begged her grandpa to tell her grandma, and finally found a plane to take them back, the old lady Li was transferred to the general hospital of country Y.

However, Mrs. Li's condition has not improved much, and the time for waking up is limited every day, and she has lost part of her language function after a stroke.

Rao is so.

From the moment their plane landed at the airport in country y, there were many public inspection agencies waiting for them in the airport.

Ms. Li's situation is special. The public security agency sent people to the hospital to follow her 24 hours a day to prevent the suspect from escaping.

Father Li was not so lucky.

He was immediately taken away by the police to cooperate with the investigation.

Li's house was engulfed by the uproar caused by Li Mo, the stock fell to the stop within half a day, and the group also entered the bankruptcy liquidation process.

In this case, neither Li's mother nor the rest of Li's family had the experience to manage Li Mo and Song Ya who were imprisoned and awaiting prosecution.

Because the continuous mess in front of them is enough for them to clean up.

Bankruptcy is imminent.

On the other side, Independent Continent.

Compared to the miserable situation of the Li family in country Y, Yaomen headquarters here is much more relaxed and happy.

Guan Yan rarely has time to come home to play.

Gu San went to buy a lot of hot pot ingredients, and prepared to cook hot pot at night.

As a result, Ji Nan heard the news from somewhere, and arrived before dinner, insisting on staying at home for dinner.

Gu San had no choice but to go out and buy a lot of things again.

In addition to washing and chopping vegetables, Gu San.

The work of preparing the hot pot base was done by Ye Fanchuan himself. After a while, the strong smell of hot pot wafted from the kitchen.

Spicy and spicy generally stimulate taste buds.

Both Guan Yan and Ji Nan are not gluttons, smelling the fragrance from the kitchen, the two swallowed their saliva involuntarily, and glanced at each other.

Ji Nan spoke first: "Why are you here?"

Guan Yan raised her eyebrows, she probably didn't expect that Ji Nan would be ashamed to ask her for a meal, she flicked her clothes with her cardamom-painted fingernails, and opened her lips coquettishly: "I'm here to find something to do with Young Master Ye."

Then she looked at Ji Nan with those peach blossom eyes, and asked back: "What about you?"

Ji Nan wore a picture of a handsome and gentle gentleman, who knew that when he heard Guan Yan's words, his face was flushed and his back straightened: "Come to eat, the cook at home asks for a day off."

"I don't have anything to eat, so I came here to have a look."

Chapter 4229 Tell me, what do you want me to do?

Guan Yan was stunned for a second, then reacted, and gave him a thumbs up in admiration.

She was probably convinced, and didn't bother to talk to Ji Nan, so she pouted angrily and motioned him to look at the second floor: "Sun hasn't come down yet."

Ji Nan rested his hands on the back of the sofa, and said as usual: "She has been busy drawing design drafts for the jewelry competition these two days."

"Is it related to the Nie family?" Guan Yan raised his willow eyebrows and looked away.

At this time, Gu San came out with the cut vegetables. Passing by the living room, he saw the two chatting leisurely there, and beckoned them to help.

Ji Nan stood up and rolled up his sleeves, just in time to see that Guan Yan was going to follow, so he said, "It's enough for me to go to help by myself, and you don't have to."

Guan Yan was forced to sit back, and saw the young man bowed his head and looked sideways before leaving, and said softly to her: "My father knows what those people in the Nie family are thinking, and will not let them have a chance to harass Nian Nian...so you Don't worry! They have no chance to mess around in Independence Island."

"You mean Emperor Ji..." Guan Yan was stunned.

Ji Nan gave a soft 'hmm', without explaining too much, and went to the kitchen with his long legs to help out.

Guan Yan stayed alone in the living room and fell into deep thought, still thinking about the meaning of what Ji Nan said to himself before.

...

Upstairs room.

Qiao Nian couldn't count how many times he crumpled the half-painted draft paper, and threw the waste draft paper into the trash can.

In front of her was a drawing board, a stack of white drawings, and a 2B pencil that was thrown on the table and turned around. The girl sat slumped on the chair, with her back against the back of the chair, her hands hanging on her sides, her eyes closed on her back, The eyebrows couldn't get rid of the irritability.

She hasn't touched this kind of manuscript paper for a long time. Qiao Nian couldn't find inspiration for a while, and she had sat for a whole day without drawing a satisfactory design.

Aunt Yuan didn't urge her, she just said that it's not enough.

But she didn't have the word 'no' in her life dictionary, so Qiao Nian locked herself in her room since yesterday, trying to draw her favorite design before the jewelry competition started.

Ten minutes passed.

The girl leaning back on the chair remained motionless, her black eyelashes casting a curved arc under the light.

The phone made a rattling sound on the desktop.

The girl who had been closing her eyes as if she was asleep moved her fingertips slightly by her side, and then she opened her eyes.

The dark eyes were clear and cold, it could be seen that she was not asleep at all.

Qiao Nian sat up straight, picked up the phone she had left on the table, glanced at the caller ID on the screen, lowered her eyes slightly, and twitched the corner of her mouth: "Chi!"

She picked up the phone casually, turned on the loudspeaker, and threw the phone back to its original place, with an unfriendly demeanor between her brows.

"Speak."

"looking for me."

The other end was silent for about two seconds, as if shocked by her sudden aura.

But after just two seconds, the person over there realized that she had really answered his phone, and immediately said in a deep voice: "You still know how to answer the phone? I thought you lost your phone, and I can't see it for you. Call up."

Qiao Nian got up and got a can of Coke, unhooked the tab, took a sip, turned towards the phone coldly, and said flatly, "If you can't talk, I'll hang up."

"Wait a minute." Nie Qingru still couldn't hold back to stop, for fear that Qiao Nian's temper would come up and kill her.

After all, it wasn't once or twice that Qiao Nian blocked her. This time, she changed her phone number and called her persistently for a few days.

Chapter 4230 Sister Nian didn't come, no one can eat

Qiao Nian was willing to accept it once.

Nie Qingru took a deep breath: "You sent me that video?"

"Don't you ask Li Mo? She has done so much because of you, so you don't care how she lives after returning to China."

Qiao Nian pulled out the chair and sat down again, casually.

Nie Qingru hated her way of speaking like Ji Wu Falcon, that arrogant arrogance that didn't put anyone in her eyes.

She was stimulated and subconsciously lowered her voice: "She is just one of my pawns, no, she is not even qualified to be my pawn, why should I care about her life...you will care about what falls on the chessboard A speck of dust?"

If Qiao Nian hadn't been holding a Coke can in his hand, he would have stood up and applauded her.

yes.

In her eyes, Ji Qing is a pawn, and Li Mo is also a pawn.

These people are just insignificant dust on her chessboard. How could she care about the death of a speck of dust as a high-ranking chess player.

"You're right." Qiao Nian suddenly agreed.

Nie Qingru became vigilant instead: "What do you want to do?"

Qiao Nian put the Coca-Cola on the table, looked at the manuscript paper she hadn't drawn yet, and said slowly, "I don't care about the life or death of a dust."

"So you asked me if I sent you the video, yes, I sent it."

"Why did you do that?!"

"The reason you said just now-who cares about a piece of dust falling on the chessboard? I just want to tell you, don't mess with me, otherwise I can't do anything about you. It will take a few minutes to crush him to death."

"you..."

Nie Qingru on the other end of the phone was obviously * off, her violent breathing could be heard through the current, as well as the soft comforting voices of the people next to her.

Qiao Nian guessed that the shadow was beside her, picked up the phone, put it to her ear, and said softly again: "Since she is not in good health, don't ask her to call me."

Nie Qingru on the other end of the phone breathed a little harder, probably irritated by her again.

Qiao Nian was too lazy to waste words with her, so he hung up the phone quickly and dragged Nie Qingru's new number into the blacklist.

She raised her eyes to check the time again, and found that it was almost seven o'clock.

Qiao Nian saw the message he just received on WeChat.

[Y: Come down to eat after work.]

[QN:.]

Qiao read back the full stop, tidied up the things on the table, and threw all the crumpled paper * into the trash can. Then he pulled out the chair, stretched his waist and stretched his neck, and prepared to go downstairs.

Downstairs, Ye Wangchuan has already made the soup base.

The cooked red oil soup is exactly according to Qiao Nian's taste. It is being heated on the induction cooker, and the room is filled with the tantalizing aroma of hot pot.

Gu San, Ji Nan, and Guan Yan were all whetted by the scent, and they waited several times to be greeted to the table for dinner.

However, Ye Fanchuan didn't move, and it was not easy for the three of them to sit on the table.

Just as Guan Yan couldn't wait, he stood up and said, "I'll go upstairs to see when the sun will come down."

On the second floor, Qiao Nian came down.

"Miss Qiao!" Gu San happily shouted, and ran into the kitchen to get freshly squeezed juice.

Ji Nan got up as well, and said with a sigh of relief: "Finally, I've come down, I thought I wouldn't be able to eat until eight o'clock in the evening today."

He glanced in a certain direction as he spoke.

Ye Wangchuan sat there in an even and stable manner, without even looking at him, completely ignoring him, his gaze always followed the girl who came down.
