

Madam's 4251

Chapter 4251 Take someone to the mall for a date

Ye Wangchuan looked at her bright eyes, deep eyes surged, all hidden in deep well-like black eyes, his throat also rolled up and down, and his voice was very shallow: "Where are you going?"

Qiao Nian thought for a while, then looked up at him: "A shopping mall?"

The shopping mall sells clothes, watches, and cinemas.

She didn't go to other dating places on purpose either. When Ye Wangchuan asked, she could only think of shopping malls for a while.

"Okay." Ye Wangchuan didn't think there was anything wrong with it, looked at the girl without blinking, and agreed very gently.

"Go after breakfast."

Qiao Nian can do it after thinking about it, and nodded: "OK, it's done."

Ye Wangchuan hooked his lips and smiled lightly: "Well, it's done."

Only Gu San made coffee and stood at the door of the kitchen for a long time, not daring to come out. By the way, he heard the date agreed by the two of them.

The corner of his mouth twitched.

Mall date?

It's really awesome.

Which serious lover goes to the mall for a date! Miss Qiao never thought about playgrounds, campsites, or even going to the racetrack.

Miss Qiao actually wanted to go out on a date at the shopping mall... and their master Wang was also a favorite, so she agreed without thinking.

Gu San was ready to wait until the small group sent a message to complain to Young Master Qin, otherwise the raging gossip soul in his heart would soon be overwhelmed.

The first time Miss Qiao took the initiative to invite Master Wang to go on a date was the shopping mall!

This stalk is enough for Beijing to laugh for half a month.

As long as they don't dance in front of the Lord, it should be fine to gossip in private, right?

Master Wang shouldn't know, right?

**

Ten in the morning.

Qiao Nian took Ye Wangchuan to the largest shopping mall in Independence Island, which is also the business district of Independence Island nearby, surrounded by row upon row of high-rise buildings and numerous luxury cars.

She comes here less often.

The main reason is that Qiao Nian himself doesn't like excitement, so he usually stays around the research institute for activities, at most, he goes to Xie Tingyun's manor to visit.

She has been in Independent State for almost three months, and she hasn't been here this time.

Gu Sanwen parked the car on the side of the road steadily, hesitantly said: "Miss Qiao, Mr. Wang, I will park the car and go find you later."

In fact, Gu San doesn't want to be a light bulb.

However, he put the meme that the two were going on a date at the mall in the group, Qin Si and others reacted strongly, asking him to follow up and secretly take two photos of the two dating.

Gu San finally said bravely: "In case you want to buy something, I can help to mention it."

His reason is good enough.

Bao Jingxing helped him figure it out.

Before Qiao Nian could speak, Ye Wangchuan took off his seat belt and flatly refused: "No, you wait for us outside."

"...Okay, Master Wang."

Although Gu San was disappointed, he didn't dare to show it.

Master Wang is not Miss Qiao, if he finds out that he is gossiping in the group, he might be kicked to Continent F to be with Mo Dong.

Mo Dong had offended Ms. Qiao a few times before, but without saying anything, he exchanged Mo Xi, who had been guarding Continent F, back to Independent Continent, and Mo Dong, who had been guarding Continent F, sent him to Continent F to be with Dai Weina Fox fights...

Others didn't say anything.

But everyone knows why Mo Dong is unlucky.

Only Mo Dong hasn't noticed yet, but now he worships Miss Qiao, but too much, every time he meets Miss Qiao, he can't wait to circle around Miss Qiao.

Gu San visually estimated that he would not be able to return from Continent F in three to five years. He didn't want to go to Continent F to suffer, so he had to be honest.

**

Ye Wangchuan dismissed the light bulb and walked into the mall with Qiao Nian.

Chapter 4252 I chose seven or eight pieces of clothes in one go

The shopping mall that Qiao Nian chose this time is very big. It was introduced by Guan Yan. It has six floors in total. Apart from what is available in general shopping malls, this shopping mall focuses on luxury.

The world's top luxury brands have their own stores here. In addition, there are also various jewelry brands and clothing.

Independence Continent also has its own characteristics.

In addition to buying things that can be bought outside, there are also many things that are not available outside, such as antique calligraphy and paintings, collections of royal families living outside, etc.

In Independent Continent, there are no legal constraints, and everything becomes extremely reasonable.

As long as you have money.

In this mall, you can even buy lions and tigers as pets.

Qiao Nian didn't plan to buy those when she came here today, so she took Ye Wangchuan straight to men's clothing.

She checked the information before she came, and she had a rough map of this place in her mind, and she knew which floor was for what.

So she made a beeline for the first stop of her planned date.

Ye Fanchuan followed her with his hands in his pockets, and his posture was outstanding, which attracted many women's peeping eyes, but he didn't realize it, and only focused on Qiao Nian.

Qiao Nian quickly stopped in front of a store, looking back to see if he was following.

When she saw Ye Wangchuan was just a step away from her, she raised her hand and pulled off her peaked cap and said to him, "Go in and have a look?"

"Yes." Ye Wangchuan was very casual.

Qiao Nian went in first.

The shopping guide lady in the store saw a customer coming, and immediately greeted her with a smile: "Welcome, what do you two choose?"

The shopping guide noticed the distinctive black eyes and black hair of the two. Even though Orientals are relatively rare in Independent Island, they are still very polite.

Followed Qiao Nian and asked, "Madam, do you need me to introduce you?"

Qiao Nian walked around the store, pointed to the clothes on the shelf, and ordered seven or eight pieces: "This, this, and this, take them all out for me and try them on."

The shopping guide was stunned for a moment, and then saw the girl walking towards the sofa dedicated for the VIP to rest naturally, intending to sit and wait.

She immediately came to her senses and called other shopping guides to come over to help pick it up.

The two hurriedly took off the clothes Qiao Nian had just ordered, and walked in front of Ye Wangchuan a little bit shyly, his cheeks flushed, "Guest, do you want to try it?"

Ye Wangchuan turned his head to the side with a half-smile, and saw that Qiao Nian was already sitting there looking at him, as if waiting for him to come out after trying on clothes.

He paused for a second, then the gentleman said to the shopping guide: "Leave it all to me, I will try it on myself."

"OK."

The shopping guide handed over all the clothes to him, pointed to the location of the fitting room intimately, and sent Ye Wangchuan there.

Seeing someone go in, Qiao Nian picked up the magazines prepared for customers in the store, flipped through them, calmly waited for the person who was trying on clothes to come out.

At the same time, Guan Yan sent her a WeChat message.

Qiao Nian heard the phone vibrate, took the time to look away, pressed the button to unlock it and glanced.

【Guan Guanzhiju: Sun, how are you doing? Did you go on a date with Young Master Ye? 】

【Q: Shopping for clothes. 】

Qiao read back.

Just about to put the phone down.

The news of Guan Yan came again.

【Guan Guan Jujiu: Are you buying it for Ye Shao? ? ? 】

【Q:? 】

What's wrong with her buying it?

She also planned to buy a gift for Chenchen, Ye Lan, and Mr. Ye, as well as Jiang Li and her father.

Anyway, it's hard to come out, now that they're all out.

Simply buy all at once.

Qiao Nian was wondering if the little guy likes the print of the Q-version kitten, or the brooch in the style of a kitten, and plans to see if there are similar children's clothes when he goes shopping.

Chapter 4253 Arrogant Lord: Do you really think I'm a softie?

Just at this time.

The shopping guide said: "Mr. came out from the fitting."

Qiao Nian raised her head and saw the man with broad shoulders and narrow waist wearing the shirt she chose, with the cuff buttons half rolled up, his fingers were slender and fair, and his joints were clearly defined like a work of art.

The whole person is arrogant and outstanding, especially outstanding.

"How is it?" Ye Wangchuan looked at her.

Qiao Nian was amazed for a moment, sat there gracefully and looked up and down, resting his chin on his hand, nodding his head with certainty: "It looks good!"

Next, Ye Wangchuan tried on the seven or eight pieces of clothing that Qiao Nian had chosen for him one by one.

He himself is a walking clothes hanger.

Qiao Nian has a vicious vision, and every piece of clothing he picks is very suitable for him. Each has its own style, but they all suit him.

Ye Wangchuan came out after changing his clothes, and handed the seven or eight pieces of clothes he had tried on to the shopping guide: "Wrap them up for me."

Then he took out his wallet, took out a black card and handed it over: "Swipe this card, password 253418."

"Okay, okay." The shopping guide took it over in surprise, and hurriedly said: "Customer, please wait a moment, I will pack it right away."

The price of a piece of clothing here is 5 figures.

Slightly more expensive clothes are in the early 6 figures.

There are not a few customers who come here to buy clothes, and those who buy seven or eight pieces at a time without blinking are considered a minority.

Because generally this type of customers are directly sent home by their brand every time a new season of clothes, the shopping guide does not know what kind of * luck he has today, to meet this kind of customers come to buy.

They also have a commission in addition to their salary.

Guests like Qiao Nian and Ye Wangchuan are what they wish for.

The shopping guide packed the clothes they bought, handed the shopping bag to the young man, and did not forget to remind: "Sir, if it is not convenient for you to take it, you just need to give us an address, and we can send it to you." go home."

Ye Wangchuan carried the shopping bag very patiently, and went to that stop to create a scene of his own: "No, I'll take it myself."

The shopping guide immediately silenced: "Okay."

He turned back and called the girl: "Let's go, go shopping for what you want to buy."

Qiao Nian raised her hand from behind and pulled off her peaked cap. After walking out of the store, she paused a little, and couldn't help saying: "Just now..."

She started talking.

His hand was held up and wrapped firmly in his pocket.

Ye Wangchuan held her hand naturally, feeling extremely happy: "God Qiao really thinks I'm a softie?"

"Ahem." Qiao Nian choked.

Ye Wangchuan used his other hand to patiently comfort her, and then withdrew his hand after the girl recovered, "I don't have much money, but I still have money for dating."

He took Qiao Nian again: "Let's go, I'll pay the bill today."

M continent.

Nie Qingru's residence.

The black Lincoln drove into the manor and stopped firmly outside the castle-like building.

The servant trotted over and opened the rear door, carefully protecting the high part of the car frame, for fear that the people inside would hit their heads.

Nie Qingru got out of the car, the wide brim of her hat covered her aging face, unable to stop her aggressive aura.

None of the servants dared to look up at her.

She hurried inside, took off her gloves, and threw them on the ground.

Immediately, a servant will see it and take small steps to pick it up, wash it, tidy it up, and send it back to the cloakroom for her.

Nie Qingru didn't care about these little things, she walked to her favorite middle-aged leather sofa and sat down, took a bottle of wine, and asked the servant to bring glasses and ice cubes.

Chapter 4254 Let them roll back quickly

She poured half a glass of wine, put two cubes of ice in the vodka.

Then Nie Qingru leaned on the sofa, gracefully picked up the wine glass and shook it.

Shadow came in and saw this scene.

He walked behind Nie Qingru and reminded softly: "Queen, the doctor told you to drink less, which is good for your health. Your blood pressure has increased a lot recently."

"En." Nie Qingru responded, but did not put down the glass in his hand, but put it to his lips and took a sip of the spirits, half-closed his shrewd eyes, and asked him deeply: "Haven't contacted those people yet? "

Shadow looked worriedly at the vodka in her hand, bowed his head respectfully: "The old man and the others don't want to come back."

"Heh." Nie Qingru let out a sneer from his lips, as if he was upset, but also seemed to be mocking Nie Tao and others for their overreaching.

She sat up this time, put the wine in her hand on the coffee table, and the aura around her became cold uncontrollably.

"He just wants to force me!"

"..."

Shadow lowered his head and silently stayed by her side.

The queen is right.

Old Mrs. Nie refused to answer the phone, and refused to come back from Independent Continent. To put it bluntly, he wanted to force the Queen to bow her head and obey their wishes.

As a servant, he is not qualified to talk about the Queen's family affairs. Hearing what the Queen said, although Shadow felt sorry for her, he was helpless.

Nie Qingru woke up quickly after the initial anger.

"Where is the APE competition?"

"The designers have already submitted their design drafts."

Shadow stood behind her, with his hands crossed in front of him, with a very submissive attitude, and reported to her in a low voice.

"Following your instructions, I went to the organizer to look at the design draft this time. Except for a few design drafts that cannot be touched, there are many newcomers this year. One of the newcomers' works is very good, very innovative, and fits well. The theme of this competition."

The theme of this year's APE is nostalgia.

The works of many well-known jewelry brand designers can be recognized at a glance.

Because they focus on the nostalgia of the classic design of their own brand, the design draft is almost a replica of their own classic models, with minor modifications on the basis of the classic models.

APE In order to ensure the fairness of the competition and not be affected by the brand, the artwork submitted by the designer is not allowed to indicate where it comes from.

Shadow can still select unusable manuscripts from these unmarked manuscripts, and some manuscripts that can be used by them.

"Are you sure the other party is a newcomer?" Nie Qingru eased the expression on his face.

Shadow is very sure.

"I specifically asked a friend of the organizer, it's the first time for the other party to participate in an APE competition, and he is not well-known in the circle."

Nie Qingru drooped her eyelids and said calmly, "Yes."

This kind of person is exactly in line with her psychological expectations.

She asked Shadow to find this kind of person, unknown, newcomer, easy to deal with, not easy to make mistakes afterwards, even if there is a commotion, it is easy to settle.

Nie Qingru ordered without any psychological burden: "Do things cleanly, and don't let anyone get caught."

It was obviously not the first time for Shadow to do this kind of thing, so he agreed very easily.

"The empress is at ease."

"Um."

Nie Qingru picked up the glass on the coffee table again, and shook it, the vodka in it also shook to make some ripples.

She didn't hide her disgust on her face, she still said with deep eyes: "After you're done, send them a message later, and tell them to get back to me quickly, and stop embarrassing themselves outside!"

Chapter 4255 is the idea of stealing

Many people in the Privy Council knew that Nie Tao and others had gone to Independence Island.

In the past, when she was the empress, even if those people knew about it, they would not dare to go to her and make irresponsible remarks.

Today is different.

She is no longer the Empress of the Hermit Family.

Few of the archbishops of the neutral faction wanted to show off her face, and there was always someone dancing in front of her. Not long ago, she met Jacob.

The other party smiled and asked her when Nie Tao and the others returned from their vacation in Independence Island.

Nie Qingru thought of this, his eyes darkened, and became gloomy a lot, his fingers clenched the glass tightly, his face turned hard.

Anyone with eyes knows that Nie Tao's trip to Independence Island is definitely not for vacation, but for another purpose... The other party just pretended not to see it.

It can be said that the centrists have been ignoring her less and less recently!

Although Nie Qingru was annoyed that the archbishop didn't restrain his subordinates, it didn't prevent her from being irritated by Nie Tao and others.

"If they don't reply to the message again, you tell them that you never have to come back!"

"Queen, calm down."

Shadow looked at her worriedly.

Nie Qingru drank the vodka in her hand, suppressed the burning fire in her chest, got up and went upstairs: "Tell me the good news as soon as possible."

"Yes." The shadow watched her back upstairs until it disappeared at the corner of the stairs, completely invisible.

He just tidied up and went out to do errands.

Two hours later.

He invited people to a membership-only coffee shop.

As soon as the other party arrives.

Shadow pushed a wrapped leather bag onto the opposite table, smiled and said, "This is the reward from the empress."

The person who came was a middle-aged man in his forties. When he saw the puffy leather bag pushed by the shadow in front of him, he showed a surprised and greedy expression.

The man subconsciously stretched out his hand to hug the cowhide bag into his arms, but just as his hand touched the edge of the cowhide bag, he seemed to remember something and said hesitantly.

"I will only send you the design drawings, and then help you fake an email time. For the rest, you can no longer find me."

He is also a well-known designer in the industry, otherwise he would not be eligible to work in APE.

This time he agreed to help, except for the sake of money, the main thing is that he didn't dare to offend the Nie family and Nie Qingru behind the shadow and the shadow.

But he didn't want to be completely involved, so he only agreed to help with some 'small things' and not participate in the follow-up.

Shadow politely said: "Of course."

As he spoke, he pushed the cowhide bag in front of the man again, so that he could touch it with his hand: "Besides, the art school resources I promised to introduce to you will also contact you later."

The expression of the middle-aged man calmed down completely, showing a flattering smile, and immediately pocketed the money, not forgetting to flatter: "Please convey it to me, thank you Queen."

"Okay." Shadow is very easy to talk to.

The middle-aged man got the reward he wanted, so naturally he wouldn't pretend to be stupid. He quickly took out a printed design from the shoulder bag he brought and handed it to Shadow.

"This is the work of that new designer."

Shadow took the time to check it out.

The middle-aged man continued: "I don't dare to forward emails or download the pictures above, because it's easy to leave records. These were secretly photographed by me with my mobile phone, and then printed out. Although they are not clear enough to download and print directly, as long as a designer With a little glance, you can see the design details without affecting the use."

Chapter 4256 The old hag is a ruthless person

He is also a designer himself, and he has no professional bottom line for his own benefit. I still didn't forget to tell Shadow: "You guys better revise it, don't use the original manuscript directly."

Shadow put away the design draft, got up and said to him: "You collect the money, and you don't have to worry about the next thing."

"I'm just a kind reminder." Seeing that he didn't say anything, the middle-aged man knew that what happened next was out of his control.

For his own safety, he said in an annoying way: "It is easy for you to directly use the original manuscript, and it will not take time to find a designer to modify it slightly. It is very simple."

Shadow is polite: "Alright, I understand, I will consider your proposal."

The middle-aged man couldn't go on talking, got up and took the purse, and shrewdly said to Shadow: "Then we won't see each other again."

Shadow nods in agreement.

The middle-aged man was satisfied, took the money and left here.

Waiting for him to walk away, Shadow took out his mobile phone and called Nie Qingru.

"Empress, he has accepted the money."

"Well, let him shut up forever."

"Don't worry, I have already made arrangements."

Shadow hung up the phone calmly, and when he walked out, he heard the crowd of onlookers quickly surrounding the intersection not far away.

Someone passed by him and ran over: "I heard that there was a car accident in front? Go, hurry up and take a look."

Shadow didn't linger, walked to the car he parked on the side of the road, opened the passenger door and got in, fastened his seat belt.

Said to the driver with no expression on his face: "Go to Smith Bank."

"yes."

The driver looked at his eyes and nose, holding the steering wheel with both hands and drove towards the bank headquarters building. During the process, they passed the intersection ahead. From the gaps in the bustling crowd, they could see a person lying on the ground, and there were many * banknotes scattered around.

The green light turns on.

The driver didn't look carefully, so he didn't recognize the person lying on the ground. It was the middle-aged man who Shadow had been waiting for when he entered the coffee shop.

**

When Qiao Nian finished choosing what to buy, Ye Wangchuan's hands were already full of shopping bags, so he had no choice but to call Gu San and ask him to come in and help with the things.

Gu San was waiting outside, came in quickly, and found Qiao Nian's location according to the location Ye Wangchuan sent him.

Just about to walk over: "Miss Qiao, Mr. Wang..."

Then he saw the woman beside him who was about to walk past stop and turned to look at him: "Miss Qiao?"

The other party is probably in his early forties, well maintained, his skin is firm and smooth, his eyes are raised, his lips are painted red, his whole body reveals the arrogance that has been touted all the year round, and his domineering eyes are very uncomfortable.

"Miss Qiao you're talking about...?" The woman quickly saw Qiao Nian and Ye Wangchuan behind her.

Her raised soft willow-leaf eyebrows, walked over, stopped in front of the girl, and looked up and down with critical eyes.

"Are you Qiao Nian?"

There was frivolity in her words.

"What are you doing!" Gu San followed behind her, one step too late.

The woman ignored him, and still looked at Qiao Nian with those critical eyes, with a condescending tone in her tone: "What are you doing these days? Is there anything you can't finish?"

Qiao Nian raised her eyebrows, she probably didn't expect someone to appear out of nowhere and give her instructions, and she was familiar with it.

The woman also realized that she hadn't introduced herself yet, so she said impatiently, "I'm Nie Xia, so you should call me aunt after all."

Chapter 4257 There is a master, do you want to move sister Nian?

People from the Nie family.

Qiao Nian's eyes darkened in an instant, his good mood disappeared, and his whole body became much colder.

Only Nie Xia didn't notice it, and continued to ask: "You don't know your life experience? I heard that you know everything. Since you know who your parents are, you should know our relationship. Don't visit the old man."

She spoke freely there, not paying attention to the faces of the three of them.

"Don't you know that the old man has been waiting for you for a long time? Is it possible that you, a junior, want him to meet you in person?"

Nie Xia didn't understand how Qiao Nian dared to do it.

Qiao Nian raised her hand, revealing the bottomless black eyes under the brim of the hat: "Is it finished?"

"What's your attitude?" Nie Xia Liu Yemei stood upside down, reaching out to pull Qiao Nian.

Her hand was firmly clamped by Ye Fangchuan, and the pinched bones cracked, the pain made Nie Xia's face pale on the spot, and she almost cried out.

"Tsk, what do you want to do?"

Nie Xia raised her eyes and saw the man next to the girl. The man was in the spring breeze, with a slight curve on his lips, and a gentle smile.

It was the strength in her hand that almost broke her hand.

"Let go, let go." Nie Xia's face was distorted in pain, and she couldn't stop struggling.

Ye Wangchuan let go of his hand at this moment.

She was defenseless, staggered two steps back, accidentally sprained her foot, and saw that she was about to fall to the ground.

Nie Xia panicked and wanted to grab something.

It happened that Gu San was right next to her, and she subconsciously reached out to grab it.

At the moment when her finger was about to touch the corner of Gu San's clothes, Gu San ruthlessly dodged away. She caught nothing in a panic, and fell heavily on the ground with a 'crack' while everyone watched coldly.

Nie Xia's brain went blank, and severe pain hit her whole body.

She looked at the three of them in disbelief.

I saw Gu Sanmu shrugged at her with a face, and said to her in an innocent tone: "Ah, I'm sorry, I didn't see clearly."

Nie Xia only felt that anger went straight to Tianling Gai, her eyes turned white, and she was almost stunned by Gu San: "You!"

She pointed at Gu San's fingertips and trembled.

Gu Sandang didn't see her and walked past her, respectfully said to the man: "Master Wang, I'll get it."

"Um."

Ye Wangchuan handed him seven or eight shopping bags in his hand, and held the hand of the heroine with his free hand, and said in a low voice, "Nian Nian let's go, go home."

Qiao Nian finally took a look at Nie Xia who was sitting on the ground and couldn't get up for a long time, and walked past her: "The people who told you to get out, don't let me see you again in Independent Island!"

The girl's voice is extremely cold.

The tone is very deep.

Nie Xia was full of complaints, and when she heard the girl's low-pitched warning, she was too shocked to make a sound, and even forgot to refute.

By the time she came back to her senses, Qiao Nian had already gone far.

Nie Xia barely got up from the ground, and saw people around her pointing in her direction from time to time.

Her face was dull, with a gloomy face, and she was about to blame Qiao Nian for all her mistakes.

Just then, a few people who looked like mall workers came over.

When Nie Xia saw them coming towards her, she probably came to ask because of the small commotion just now. She was frowning, planning to send them away.

Then I heard the leading mall security personnel ask her: "Ms. Nie?"

Nie Xia raised her willow eyebrows high, glanced at the few people blocking her, and said calmly: "It's just family members bickering, I'm fine, you can go."

Chapter 4258 Pack up, we are going back to M state

Several shopping mall security personnel exchanged glances with each other, and when they looked at her again, they had a playful expression on their faces.

"Aren't you here to care about my safety?" Nie Xia was keenly aware of the sarcasm in their eyes, and immediately sullenly said, not very happy.

The security of the mall was not used to her, and replied calmly: "We have received reports from customers that you are making trouble in the mall. According to the rules, you can't stay any longer."

So they are the ones who came to drive themselves away!

Nie Xia reacted and was furious immediately. She was so angry that she wanted to defend herself: "Who reported me? I didn't make trouble, they did. I was the one who fell to the ground."

But the mall security guards didn't listen to her explanation at all, and made a friendly gesture of please: "Ms. Nie, please get out of here."

Nie Xia's face turned pale.

Especially when she saw people walking around looking at her with strange eyes, like watching a clown.

Nie Xia was even more angry, she could hardly control her temper, she just stood still and refused to move.

"I'm not making trouble!"

"All right."

The mall security personnel saw that she was unwilling to cooperate with their work, and did not talk nonsense to her, so they turned around and gave the people under them a wink.

The two strong men behind him walked out automatically and walked towards Nie Xia.

"Ms. Nie doesn't cooperate, we can only 'please' you out."

"What do you want to do?"

Nie Xia's face turned blue, realizing what the other party was going to do, she was flustered, and she couldn't calm down, but she refused to give in.

I could only watch helplessly as two security guards came over and grabbed her arm and dragged her down.

"Look."

"Who is that girl?"

"My God, how embarrassing."

"She won't be caught stealing, right? Tsk tsk, she looks very well dressed, I didn't expect this kind of person."

"Who knows, what a shame."

Nie Xia listened to the discussions from all directions, struggled desperately but couldn't break free from the big hands like iron clips of security guards, and was dragged directly to the entrance of the mall by others, and thrown outside.

Like throwing garbage, he was driven outside the mall.

The security guard headed by _____ was still standing inside looking at her, and said to her with a disdainful expression: "Don't come here again, we don't welcome you."

Nie Xia was exposed to the sun on her face, she couldn't tell whether it was hot or angry, her face was so hot that it was about to smoke.

The shopping bags she bought were thrown out together and scattered on the ground.

Those people turned around and went in without even looking at her.

Leaving her alone on the spot, her face was pale and white, unable to recover from this embarrassment for a long time.

Fortunately, the driver of Nie's family noticed her coming out, so he quickly got out of the car and came over to help her pick up the scattered shopping bags on the ground, walked up to her and said cautiously, "Miss, are you all right?"

"It's okay, let's go."

Nie Xia pinched the palms of her hands, she finally recovered, and she was not in the mood to stay here any longer, making people laugh for nothing.

She walked ahead, trying to put the humiliation behind her, but those white eyes and sarcasm stung her like needles in her memory.

When Nie Xia returned to the hotel where they were staying, she hadn't talked to Mrs. Nie and Nie Tao about her experience in the mall.

I saw that the family members were busy packing up their things, as if they were about to leave.

Nie Tao took time out of his busy schedule to see her, and greeted her in a flat tone: "Are you back?"

"Um."

"Go and pack your luggage when you come back, we are going back to State M." Nie Tao said seriously.

Chapter 4259 Our troubles are solved

Nie Xia forgot what happened in the shopping mall for a moment, and hurriedly asked: "What happened? Why are you leaving in such a hurry."

Nie Tao was in a good mood, patiently, and said to her briskly, "Good thing!"

"Our troubles have been resolved, so there is no need to stay here, so the old man decided to go back early."

"Solved?" Nie Xia was overjoyed, and even put the unpleasant things that happened in the mall behind her, and said with a smile on her face, "Then I'll go and pack my things."

She can finally leave this ghostly place!

"Yeah." Nie Tao was as happy as she was, leaving Independent Island to go back, urging her to go quickly.

Nie Xia happily went back to the suite to pack her suitcase.

During the period, I completely forgot that I was going to sue Nie Tao and the old man.

**

evening.

Ji Nan came to Qiao Nian's residence.

Before he sat down, he said, "The Nie family is going back."

Gu San was making tea for him, bent down to put the new tea on the table in front of him, and said strangely: "Young Master Ji, did you make a mistake? We met them this afternoon."

"Did you meet someone from the Nie family this afternoon?" Ji Nan frowned fiercely, and immediately turned to look at Qiao Nian.

The girl came back from the shopping mall and went back to her room to take a cold shower. She had just finished blowing her hair, and her black hair was still not completely dry and hung on her shoulders, revealing a fair face with delicate features and eye-catching features. Her raised eyes were slightly curved, revealing a sickly unruliness.

Qiao Nian walked to the front of the refrigerator, opened the door, took a bottle of water, noticed Ji Nan's gaze, stopped his movements, and realized belatedly: "Ah. I saw it."

Jinan immediately said: "They didn't do anything to you, did they?!"

Qiao Nian unscrewed the bottle cap, walked over, and sat on the high stool carelessly, quite impatiently: "What can they do to me?"

Ji Nan wanted to say: The people of the Nie family are hard to say, they are thick-skinned and capable, who knows what weird things they can do.

I heard Qiao Nian continue: "She just said a few inexplicable words to me, and I didn't respond and didn't continue."

"Oh." Ji Nan put his heart back in his stomach.

Just at this time, Ye Fanchuan, who also just took a shower, came out of his room, wearing a set of dark blue striped home clothes like Qiao Nian, and the two seemed to be dating couples.

Ji Nan sat up straight again, and said: "The Nie family is really going to leave. Their private jet has applied to enter the airspace of Independent State, and my dad agreed."

The airspace of Independence Continent has always been controlled by the Ji family.

This is also the reason why the head of the Ji family will be called the Emperor Ji by the major forces in the Independent Continent.

The airspace and the sea are the two major means of transportation. The sea is not in the hands of the Ji family, but is shared by several major forces.

But the airspace has been firmly controlled by Ji's family since Ji Wufeng's time, that is, Ji Lingfeng's.

Of course, these are minor problems for Qiao Nian.

She has a lot of ways to come in from the airspace without passing through Ji's house.

But she is her.

Most people don't have elusive hacking methods and so many high-tech stealth weapons, so they still need to follow the normal procedure.

Ji Nan thought about it and said: "My dad wants to send them away quickly, so that they don't have to stay here every day. Among other things, the main thing is to pester people."

"Hmm." Qiao Nian picked up the mineral water with one hand, raised her head and took a sip, not paying much attention to what Ji Nan said.

It was Ye Wangchuan who walked up to her, reached out to take her water, touched the body of the bottle and looked at her: "Ice water?"

Chapter 4260 Ji Nan wants to cooperate with Guan Yan

Qiao Nian seemed to know what he was going to say, she felt guilty for no reason, her black eyes looked over, and it was rare to justify: "I took a shower, it was very hot."

Ye Wangchuan still looked at her with half-smile eyes.

Qiao Nian was uncomfortable being watched, coughed to divert his attention, and turned his head: "I just drank a little."

Ye Wangchuan seldom saw her bow her head, so she didn't say anything else, went inside and replaced it with warm water, and stuffed it back into her: "Drink some hot water, so as not to hurt my stomach."

"Hmm." Qiao Nian was noncommittal, but he didn't say to continue drinking iced drinks anyway.

Seeing that they completely ignored his existence and ignored what he said earlier, Ji Nan asked Gu San speechlessly: "Are they usually like this?"

Gu Sanguan watched his eyes and nose, very calm and calm: "Ji Shao, you are not here usually, why ask me."

Ji Nan instantly recalled the dog food he usually ate, and was speechless at once, silently giving Gu San a thumbs up.

Gu San is not surprised, he played the background board perfectly, and he has already done it with ease, so he doesn't feel uncomfortable at all.

He is often ignored anyway.

He thinks it's fine.

It's better than Wang Ye always forcing dog food.

Ji Nan didn't have Gu San's good attitude, saw Qiao Nian sitting on a high stool holding a cup and drinking warm water one after another.

He jumped back to the original topic.

"The Nie family left quite strangely this time."

Seeing Qiao Nian, none of the three paid attention to him.

Ji Nan continued: "They were still looking for my dad yesterday, but today they left without warning. I always feel that there is something tricky in the middle."

The three continued to remain silent.

Qiao Nian kindly finally answered him: "Why do you think so much? It doesn't matter why they come or why they leave, we just need to be ourselves. You can control them, and you can manage them to the end? The more you talk to some people, the more they will be. It's endless!"

Nie family from Nie Qingru to the following group, who is not such a problem.

Only Jinan would care what they think.

She didn't care about Ji Lingfeng.

The Nie family wanted to leave, and Ji Lingfeng released the airspace to let the Nie family's private jet come in, which is enough to explain everything, but Ji Nan is struggling here.

"They can leave if they want, it has nothing to do with me."

"That's right." Hearing what she said, Ji Nan's restless heart was soothed. Qiao Nian's attitude was obviously not good, but he suddenly calmed down.

He didn't mention the matter of Nie's family leaving, but instead thought of Guan Yan: "I heard that Guan Yan also plays stocks?"

Qiao Nian glanced at him lightly, probably judging what he was thinking, and then said: "She has a boyfriend, at least not yet."

Ji Nan froze for a moment, then laughed dumbly and said, "What are you thinking!"

He admitted that Guan Yan was quite different from the women he had seen before. Under the glamorous appearance, the inner soul was more moving.

But he only regards Guan Yan as his sister's good friend, not to the point of being distracted.

Rabbits don't eat grass beside the nest.

He would never touch his sister's friends, so Ji Nan explained: "Recently, a Metaverse came out, and I just want to talk to her about it."

"I'm more interested in this, and I want to chat with someone to see if they are interested in investing in a joint venture with me."

"You also know that there are not many people in Independent Continent who play finance. The only few who can play are old guys. These old things have a lot of things, and I don't want to get involved with them."

Metaverse is a recently emerging virtual world. In the virtual world, there are still virtual commodities such as real estate and currency.
