

Madam's 4301

Chapter 4301 Sister Nian wants her to be a loner

"Okay, he will call me next time, and I will directly refuse."

"Um."

Qiao Nian saw the breakfast served by Gu Sanduan, and said to Jiang Li, "I'll hang up first."

"good."

Jiang Li responded.

Qiao Niancai hung up the phone, put away the phone, and walked towards the restaurant.

"Are you up?" Ye Wangchuan was actually there too, wearing home pajamas, holding a magazine in his hand, sitting in the dining room with his legs crossed, slightly raised his eyes to look at her.

Seems surprised she's up so early.

Qiao Nian ignored his surprised eyes, walked straight over and pulled out the chair to sit down. He put his hands on the back of the chair in a carefree manner and talked to him: "Nie's family called me early in the morning, saying that Nie Qingru pushed Nie Tao to block the gun."

"If there are no accidents, the car accident can be found here at most. It is unlikely that Nie Tao will bite Nie Qingru again."

"But after this incident, the relationship between the Nie family and Nie Qingru will also fall apart and cease to exist, won't it?"

Ye Wangchuan had a faint smile in his bottomless black eyes, as if everything was under his control, including Nie Qingru's way of cutting off his tail to survive.

Calm and relaxed.

"We haven't gained anything. At least until now, except for the assistant, all the wings around her are almost trimmed."

Qiao Nian has been trimming the wings around Nie Qingru. Only Ye Wangchuan clearly understands her thoughts and understands her layout.

From Yu Qingliu, Leonard, to Mr. Xue and now Nie Tao...

Following one incident after another, Qiao Nian has been systematically advancing his plan to weaken the power around Nie Qingru.

Until this time.

Nie Qingru had another quarrel with the Nie family.

Then the only person she can use around her is that shadow.

"What you want is to make her a complete loner, and then settle the accounts with her."

"Are you poisonous?"

Qiao Nian supported her head with her hands, and tilted her head to listen to him, without blinking her black eyes, which were so clear that she couldn't help squinting them.

She looked the man in front of her up and down again, nodded her head in approval, and clicked her tongue: "If you don't have your own business to do, I really wonder if you hide under my bed every night to be a paparazzi... I think What, you know everything."

"I'm a paparazzi again?" Ye Wangchuan's eyebrows were like mountains, his eyes were filled with stars, and the curve of his lips never fell, and he said in a doting tone, "Okay, God Qiao will do whatever he wants."

Qiao Nian looked at him like a fox, changed his posture, leaned on the back of the chair, and relaxed the tense muscles on his body.

His eyes are unrestrained, a little careless.

"You're right, this time it's not a waste of time."

"And Nie Tao is not innocent. He arranged the car accident with full authority and ordered the driver to hit and kill APE. He deserves to be under the control of the police now! When the police announce the results of the investigation, Tao Leyi can be restored to his innocence."

"That female star LLi, and her senior who made up lies to frame her for the sake of her future will reveal her true colors."

In this way, this time it is complete.

From Qiao Nian's point of view, all the problems that should be solved have been solved.

Ye Wangchuan saw that she was relaxed and in a relatively relaxed state, so he said to her: "I found the tungsten gold you want for you."

"Where?"

The girl looked at him suddenly.

Ye Wangchuan collected his expression, pursed his lips slightly, and gave her a place name.

Chapter 4302 I still read sister poor

Qiao Nian sat there with a pensive expression.

Ye Wangchuan asked her: "How are you going to go? You're going there alone again."

"Um?"

The girl raised her head slowly, her dark eyes were not focused, she could see that she was still thinking about something, she just looked at him subconsciously.

Ye Wangchuan met her eyes and met her eyes.

Coercion was used.

"If you want to go, you can, you must come with me, otherwise I won't tell you how to trade."

Because Ye Wangchuan knew Qiao Nian's character too well.

She is always used to facing danger alone, and she is not afraid of anything.

He was not afraid before.

But not now.

Now that he has a weakness, he has also compromised with his own changes. He also hopes that Qiao Nian will be like him. When facing danger, not to mention giving up the truth that he has been pursuing for many years, at least he can face it with him instead of A person went regardless, leaving him here to worry.

Qiao Nian came back to his senses: "Are you sure that I won't go with you?"

Ye Wangchuan raised his eyebrows and looked back.

The meaning is clear without saying.

The corner of Qiao Nian's mouth twitched for a moment, and he raised his hand as if admitting defeat: "Okay, my fault."

Then she looked at the man seriously: "I used to be sure to go alone, but now, it's different now, we are in the same group."

"I promised you before that no matter what happens in the future, I will discuss it with you. I will do what I say, and since I said it, I will definitely keep it in my heart."

As soon as Qiao Nian finished speaking, he returned to his carefree look, wishing he could lie on the back of the chair and look Ye Wangchuan up and down, and whistled like a hooligan.

"But speaking of it, Mr. Ye is so afraid that I won't take you there? That's unreasonable! Your old man is called a flower in the capital, and people chasing you line up from the head of the Yangtze River to the end of the Yangtze River. How can you be as shy as a big girl? Afraid I'd dump you."

Qiao Nian didn't brag about this.

She usually doesn't like to be nosy, and she doesn't like to listen to outside gossip.

But she couldn't hold back a certain person's 'fame spread far and wide'. People like Jiang Li, Qin Si, and Zhang Yang often mentioned in her ears how popular someone who is stunning in Beijing is.

But I want to know.

Ye Wangchuan won at the starting line with his background, and he also has a good looks that can be relied on for his face.

Rich, handsome, background, and ability.

It all adds up.

Ye Wangchuan is a diamond king and fifth son, the dream of unmarried young girls.

That's why Qiao Nian sometimes can't understand why this guy always puts on her a look of letting her hurt, and if she breaks up, it must be the one who gets dumped.

Made her look like a scumbag who is irresponsible for her feelings.

Obviously she's the...younger and less experienced one.

"I can't help it. I'm greedy for beauty. I don't like ordinary people. After finally finding someone I like, I have to keep an eye on it."

Ye Wangchuan is wearing home clothes made of silk that is lightly attached to his body like water satin, revealing a superior neck line, and a collarbone can be seen faintly from the collar.

There was still a faint smile on his lips, a little cynical: "So God Qiao, please don't dump me."

"..." Awesome!

Qiao Nian was completely defeated by him, and raised her hands in surrender: "I admit defeat."

"I need to make some arrangements to go to Baishi Island to trade tungsten gold. I will tell you when I make arrangements, and we will go there."

"good."

Ye Wangchuan agreed easily.

Chapter 4303 The two thought of going together

He also plans to make some arrangements before going to the island, which coincides with Qiao Nian's idea.

Baishi Island also has another name, Death Island.

On the island, the grass does not grow, the birds do not rest, there are no animals or plants, only the hard blue stones are bare.

The strange thing is that whenever the ship approaches the small island, the compass on the ship will suddenly fail, and the whole ship will be attracted by the small island as if possessed by a demon, causing the ship to hit the rocks and sink, as if controlled by the **** of death.

Therefore, the outside world dare not approach this island casually, and this island has also become a no-nonsense zone in the vast ocean.

These are outside legends, which only add mystery to the island.

In fact, this Baishi Island is not a mysterious island where the **** of death descends, but an underground trading point.

Here gather the most dangerous people in the world.

also has a variety of 'commodities' that cannot be bought outside.

Such as tungsten gold.

Tungsten gold cannot be bought in the illegal area and the independent island, but Baishi Island can.

In order to guarantee the transaction.

Baishi Island also has express regulations.

That is, no matter how powerful you are outside, you can only go to the island alone, and you are not allowed to bring weapons and subordinates.

Everything is traded according to the rules of the island.

Pay the money and sign the contract.

certainly.

For the sake of its own long-term business, Baishidao will not ruin its reputation by making black people eat black people.

As long as the deal is reached on the island, both parties must implement it.

Otherwise you will never be allowed to go to the island.

will also be ordered to kill by Baishi Island.

In general, Baishi Island is equivalent to a huge trading market floating on the ocean, which is similar to the black market, but more fortified than the black market.

Qiao Nian is a person who likes to hold his fate in his own hands.

She believes that no matter how mysterious the three-way zone is, there is always a manipulator behind it.

Baishi Island is the same.

Even if there is no one in Baishi Island on the surface, she doesn't believe that there is really no one behind it. Just in case, she wants to keep someone behind.

**

This side.

Nie Tao's situation is far more serious than imagined.

At first, everyone in the Nie family, including himself, thought that no matter how cruel Nie Qingru was, he would not really ignore him.

Secondly, he felt that with the influence of the Nie family in M state, even if the police made trouble for him publicly, they would still cover him secretly.

However, the reality is that since he was taken to the police station for questioning, no one cared about him for a long time, and just locked him in a confinement room alone.

At the beginning, Nie Tao was able to maintain his decent personality calmly, without making noise.

As time went by, he was never released.

No one came to visit him during the period. Nie Tao's firm heart gradually wavered, and he began to panic, unable to sleep, and walked up and down the room all day long.

More anxiety by the day.

It was also noisy outside.

From Lagerfeld's press conference, there was an invisible hand pushing them forward and counting their every step.

While the Lagerfeld scandal was in full swing, both female designers and male models came forward to report the case, and those who sent lawyers' letters sent lawyers' letters...

And with Nie Tao entering the police station, Lagerfeld was not much better.

He was also taken away by the police.

However, Lagerfeld was not as serious as Nie Tao's case. The police questioned him for 24 hours, and his lawyer team paid money to release him on bail, and he can stay at home temporarily.

It seems that he is a little better than Nie Tao, but in fact, there is a lot of public opinion outside, and the angry melon eaters even went to his studio to throw eggs.

Chapter 4304 Slag still thinks he didn't die enough

All the work related to him has come to a standstill, and Lagerfeld still receives countless greetings from brands, associations and partners every day.

Basically, they want to terminate cooperation with him.

Some brands also approached him for compensation.

He almost came to the brink of ruin.

"I asked you to remove the trending search, remove the popularity, why not remove it!?"

His own private quarters.

As soon as the assistant entered the door, he heard the red-faced man yelling at him furiously. His frantic look was no different from that of the high-spirited master some time ago.

But the assistant had seen too much of his appearance on the verge of collapse these days, so he came in out of nowhere, put the takeaway for him on the table, and said lightly, "Master, this is your lunch."

"I'll let you remove the trending search!" Lagerfeld's red eyes were so sinister that they seemed to be able to swallow people in, and he gritted his teeth to squeeze them out.

The assistant kept a safe distance from him without showing any signs, and then answered him unhurriedly: "Master, those enthusiasm cannot be suppressed. You recruited the popular female star LLi to come over to maximize the public opinion. Back then It has attracted so much attention, and now we want to de-emphasize it...it's impossible."

In the beginning, Lagerfeld didn't want to give Tao Leyi a chance to stand up, so he recruited a female star, and then created such a battle, calling countless media.

It's like making things as big as possible.

Now things are getting bigger.

Master said that he wants to drop the hot search, how to drop it? They searched for relationships and people to spend money overnight, but it was all useless.

The heat has risen.

"One more thing—I'm quitting." The assistant took off the nameplate on his chest, put it on the table in front of Lagerfeld, bowed solemnly to him, got up and said: "I followed you because I wanted to learn by your side. , I can't learn it now, so I can no longer take care of you, Master, please take care of yourself in the future."

Lagerfeld opened his mouth, his throat made a cracking sound, his eyes were fixed on the assistant, and when he took the bag, he walked away without turning his head.

He seemed to have been punched hard, and he sat down on the sofa in frustration, facing the empty room with nothing but remorse.

If he hadn't listened to Nie Tao's words and got involved in this matter, he would still be a master respected by thousands of people...

Instead of being the same as at the moment, everyone is deserted, like a mouse crossing the street, not even daring to go downstairs to get takeaway.

Lagerfeld clasped his head in his hands, his head was buzzing. After thinking for a long time, he suddenly got up and went into the study, and turned on the computer.

Like him, LLi and his manager also regret it.

They originally thought that by running back and forth, they could curry favor with the high-ranking master Lagerfeld in the circle, and they would have a smooth career since then.

As for the newcomers they pull on, they don't care at all.

But who knew this could also be misplaced.

All of their work has been suspended, and they are suffering from public opinion every day. Fortunately, they still have LLi's diehard fans to protect them, otherwise they don't know what their INS will be like.

However, many brands endorsed by LLi began to seek compensation from them.

They urgently need to restore their image.

At this time, the agent went online to check the trend of public opinion, and saw the news updated by Lagerfeld an hour ago.

—[No matter how much dirty water is poured on me, I still want to say that sentence, the truth will never be covered up! Everything that doesn't kill me will only make me stronger! ]

The agent quickly clicked on the comment area below.

I found that although there are still a lot of scolding below.

But probably because Lagerfeld was extraordinarily righteous, and some people became suspicious, thinking that he might have been slandered and retaliated by the forces behind the plagiarism.

Chapter 4305 How to deal with this group of rumormongers

LLi's manager saw this as if he was grasping for a life-saving straw, and quickly called LLi, excited: "There is a solution."

Seeing that LLi looked confused, the manager pushed her.

"Hurry up and log in to your account, retweet Master Lagerfeld's news, and express your opinion too!"

What they need most now is to restore their image.

As long as the other party can't produce evidence that Lagerfeld has framed the newcomer, they can push everything to capital suppression.

Doing so may offend people, but it can keep LLi's image.

ten minutes later.

The female star LLi who has been pretending to be dead for more than ten days updates her ins—
[[Forward] Salute to myself, the truth will never be covered up, all things that cannot be killed will only make me stronger! 】

The hot comment on her last ins was still the one that Qiao Nian left a message for her [Don't delete it], in order to establish a character.

LLi also replied to Qiao Nian under the direction of her agent: 【I won't delete it. 】

They behaved more confidently than Lagerfeld, like a victim who was unwilling to be humiliated by evil forces.

LLi, as one of the female stars with the most fans on ins, she came forward to respond and attracted many onlookers.

Most of the people who eat melons are still in the stage of letting the bullets fly for a while.

But her fans couldn't take it anymore.

In the eyes of fans, LLi has been treated unfairly, but as fans, they can't protect their own female goose, which is really incompetent.

While they left various messages and comments on LLi's own ins, they encouraged her to be strong and praised her for being brave and fearless.

The fans went to Qiao Nian's ins on the other side, and all kinds of ugly insults emerged one after another, which was completely different from their high-quality side shown in the LLi comment area. They wanted to swear all the swear words they had learned.

There are still people who start to create P pictures and spread rumors.

LLi has an astonishing number of fans, and is also known as a fighting fan.

After their unremitting efforts to clean up the underground, the trend of public opinion on the Internet really seems to be reversed.

The fan's exaggerated behavior also caught Ji Lin's attention.

He knew that Ye Wangchuan and Qiao Nian rarely paid attention to INS.

Ji Lin thought about it, sent a message to Gu San, and then paid close attention to the online developments.

Pay special attention to those LLi fans who spread rumors and P pictures in Qiao Nian's comment area. Ji Lin saved all the screenshots of their madness evidence and handed them over to the lawyer.

the other side.

Gu San showed Ye Wangchuan his mobile phone, his face full of anger: "Master Wang, how should we deal with these people who spread rumors?"

Ye Wangchuan lowered his head, swipe the phone screen with his fingertips to scroll down, and he can see all those people's rumor-making messages, and his smile can't reach his eyes.

Give him back the phone.

"Tell Ji Lin to report the case to the police station, and arrange for a lawyer to collect evidence. I will sue all these people."

He arranged all this in an understatement tone, as if he was not angry. Only those who have been with him for a long time and truly understand Ye Wangchuan's temper know that this is the reaction of Master Wang's anger.

It's no wonder these people don't go in and squat for a few days.

"Okay." Gu San also thought so, otherwise it would be too cheap for these people.

He turned around and prepared to make all the arrangements, but was stopped by Ye Wangchuan behind him: "Wait a minute."

"?"

Gu San turned around without knowing it, with a suspicious expression of 'waiting for what' on his face.

Ye Wangchuan lowered his eyes, and then ordered: "Go and ask Xia Jilin, has the procedure at the police station been completed? It's almost time to arrange a media briefing."

Gu San suddenly realized, and said loudly: "Understood, Master Wang. I will do it right away!"

Chapter 4306 Face slaps come too fast like a tornado

As he spoke, he hurried to make arrangements.

After 2 hours.

Several LLi fans who took the lead in making trouble were taken away by the police at their home.

There are fan groups among fans.

Some fans learned that the big fan was taken into the police station. They were scared and angry, and ran around on various forums, trying to mobilize public opinion to rescue him.

At the same time, they also tried to contact LLi's manager to explain the situation, and told her about the big fan being taken away, hoping that she could tell LLi so that LLi could find a way to rescue the big fan.

Just when LLi and her manager were terrified by the other party's tough actions, not to mention rescuing their own fans, they were so terrified that they couldn't eat or sleep well.

Chengfeng Group threw out a lawyer's letter, directly suing LLi's most troubled fans, and called them by name.

This is undoubtedly a slap in the face for a star.

If LLi wants to maintain fans in the future, he must come forward to maintain.

Sure enough.

After discussing with her manager, LLi forwarded the Chengfeng Group's lawyer's letter 20 minutes later, and said in a tea-like manner [I believe that no matter how dark the day is, there will be a day in the past. If you open your eyes again, it will be a new day.] sunny day. 】

This kind of response, which is better than nothing, is no different from no response in the eyes of passers-by.

But in the eyes of fans, it is a great encouragement, idols are supporting them.

They are more and more united to swipe the screen under the account of Chengfeng Group, implying that Chengfeng Group uses power to suppress people.

The public relations department of Chengfeng Group is not vegetarian either.

Ye Wangchuan entrusted her to do this. Yuan Yongqin personally watched the wind direction on the Internet, and specially recruited the leading public relations team in China. Together with his own public relations department, he must give this female star some color.

Within ten minutes of LLi's response, they posted a new post. They didn't talk too much, and directly posted the screenshot that Ji Lin had saved long ago.

It is full of crazy comments from LLi's fans who were named and sued.

Even P's posthumous photos were released.

Not to mention those unsightly rumors.

Curse.

Not all LLi fans are on the ins, LLi fans are known to be domineering on the ins, but any news about LLi, no matter what passers-by say, as long as they don't praise their idols without thinking, they will attack others personally .

If passers-by talk back, they will often be searched by human flesh, P pictures, and rumors.

So many people on INS have hated LLi fans for a long time.

It's just that they are soft-spoken and have never been able to compete with this group of crazy fans. In addition, LLi doesn't care about her fans, and secretly indulges them to fight for her everywhere to increase her popularity and topicality. Although many passers-by are bored, they dare not Go mess with these lunatics.

This time is different.

LLi and her fans seem to be showing signs of overturning.

Many victims who had been subjected to rumors by their P pictures showed up one after another, throwing out evidence, saying that they had also encountered the same thing as Qiao Nian.

How did LLi's fans harass her life at that time, forcing her to apologize to LLi, but God knows she just commented under a news article that the color of the dress LLi is wearing today is not good, and the lake blue is more set off her temperament, so she suffered This inhuman torture.

One case after another came out.

Although LLi's agent found a lot of public relations teams to delete reviews, the facts speak louder than words, and the screenshots thrown by Chengfeng Group are there.

Chapter 4307 Sister Nian strikes again

As long as she is incapable of deleting Chengfeng Group's ins, the fact that a female star indulges fans' P pictures to spread rumors is a stone hammer!

What made LLi and her fans slap in the face is yet to come.

Yuan Yongqin didn't give them a chance to breathe and fight back, and then forwarded a social bulletin, which was the result of the preliminary trial of the recent car accident case released by the police.

It clearly stated that the victim was an APE staff member. This person died in an "accidental car accident" two days before the plagiarism incident.

The person who planned the car accident behind the scenes was Nie Tao, the president of the Nie Group.

The people who eat melons quickly found out that Nie Tao was Lagerfeld's nobleman back then, and supported Lagerfeld all the way to the sky.

There is also a female designer who said that Nie Tao has always liked to let the designers under her banner take over the criminal records of newcomers' designs. Put on your plagiarism hat.

This piece of information is easy to connect in series.

The truth that can no longer be hidden has surfaced—Lagerfeld and Nie Tao are in the same boat, trying to use their identities to usurp the works of newcomers as before. For this reason, they specially bribed the staff of APE to provide them with help, and then "sealed" that staff.

Then use the public opinion on the Internet to bite back the rookie designer for plagiarizing the master's work!

is really vicious.

Where is the shadow of a respected master?

When the people who eat melons realize what Lagerfeld and Nie Tao have done, especially what Lagerfeld's true face looks like.

They were so angry that they immediately climbed onto Lagerfeld's INS and read the phrase "No matter how much dirty water is poured on me, I only believe that what can't kill me will only make me stronger".

Instantly disgusting.

However he and LLi denied it in every possible way before, now there is a lot of scolding.

Even LLi fans were dumbfounded.

They didn't expect the slap in the face to come so quickly, it was like a tornado, making their brains buzz, and then they went to look at the ins posted by their idols.

Some fans broke their defenses.

There are also some fans who directly disliked and retweeted.

Only a small group of fans are still unwilling to give up, but they are not in the mood to defend the idol anymore, but are unwilling to keep sending private messages to Aite LLi and her agent, asking them to give themselves an explanation, why they lie and help Such a disgusting person.

APE also responded quickly, and immediately released the date difference between the two emails, proving that they are not shady and very fair.

But soon the account Q, which has been silent for a long time, went online. It was also the style of the same people who didn't talk too much. They threw out a small video and directly slapped the so-called emails from APE from a technical level.

In the whole video, Q just puts the mobile phone at a very random angle, points it at the computer screen, and then starts to type out a bunch of codes quickly, and APE's emails also start to go back step by step with the codes poured out from her fingertips. Remember how their internal staff changed the email time.

She had no road at all.

But the aura of that kind of technical boss is almost overflowing from the camera.

Many computer technology enthusiasts deviate from their style of painting, stop paying attention to gossip, and go to study how good this Q's first-hand coding skills are.

[West grass? This technology is definitely not a Silicon Valley boss, I believe even if it is a Silicon Valley boss! ]

Chapter 4308 Sister Nian was hammered to death directly, dragged to the sky

[Is her hand speed close to 200? Is this from Country Z? I've never seen such amazing hand speed. A gamer has this kind of hand speed, but she's writing code. Didn't she have to think about it before writing it? 6! ]

[How does her code resemble the style of the lizard wing trojan that caused a sensation back then? It's really not the legendary boss. ]

[The speculation upstairs, I guess it shouldn't be... The boss will not be so young, OMG! ]

In the video, Qiao Nian wore a peaked cap and a sweater hoodie buttoned on top of it, so his jaw was exposed, so he couldn't see his face clearly.

But the extremely unfriendly temperament is still too attractive.

Originally, the popularity of her post was rising steadily, and many people started to follow her, add her attention in various ways, and follow this tech giant.

In the end, she ignored the 200,000 retweets, deleted the video, edited it again, and cut out the silhouette where she appeared, leaving only the part that was purely aimed at the computer screen... It was dragged to the sky.

The last group of APE and LLI fans begged to be hammered, but Qiao Nian's Thor's Hammer hit the pillar of shame, completely speechless.

Chengfeng Group announced at this time that its female designer Tao Leyi would withdraw from the APE competition, and denounced that the APE competition was full of shady scenes, suppressed newcomers, and was unfair.

Facts speak louder than words.

APE was confronted by Yuan Yongqin, and could only choose not to respond with a guilty conscience. After all, at this moment, the more they said, the more wrong they said.

But their word of mouth is already rotten, which cannot be changed by their silence.

After Tao Leyi announced his withdrawal from the competition, more than a dozen designers came forward and made it clear that they would withdraw from the competition.

The Designers Association also issued a statement stating that the association will permanently boycott designers like Lagerfeld who have become famous for occupying other people's works.

Among them, Tao Leyi's seniors are included.

And LLI's name is impressively on the last page of the association, and it is in the list of objects that major designers are required to cooperate with carefully.

Whether it's LLI or Tao Leyi's senior, this time it's obvious that they can't make money by stealing chickens, and it's impossible to turn around in ten or twenty years.

The careers of designers and stars are extremely short.

Let alone ten or twenty years, a group of people has already been changed in three to five years.

As soon as the boycott list of the Designers Association came out, it was almost declared that the careers of the three were over.

Beijing City.

Chengfeng Group.

Yuan Yongqin called Tao Leyi to the office to ask her opinion in a soft voice, and then authorized someone from the public relations department to announce her withdrawal from the competition on INS.

The public relations department monitors the trend of public opinion on the Internet and reports to Yuan Yongqin at any time.

"Mr. Yuan, up to now, the latest statement we have released is almost full of supportive voices. We have also observed the latest developments in the square and ins. Except for the melon eaters who don't know the situation, other people's comments on this matter are all It's positive."

"That's good."

Yuan Yongqin breathed a sigh of relief.

She turned her head and saw the restless young woman sitting on the sofa in the office with a mobile phone in her hand.

Yuan Yongqin eased his expression and calmed the other party's emotions: "Don't worry, there are people who support you on the Internet. This matter is over."

"Thank you, Mr. Yuan." Tao Leyi was so stiff that he didn't know whether he should stand up to answer, and the screen of the phone in his hand lit up again.

She bit her lip and just hung up the phone.

The other end persistently called again, with a posture of insisting on hitting until she picked it up.

Tao Leyi became more and more at a loss, subconsciously going to hang up the phone again.

Chapter 4309 is a call from your senior

Yuan Yongqin noticed the two words flashing on the screen with sharp eyes, and stopped her: "Is that your senior calling?"

"Huh?" Tao Leyi was restless, realized that Yuan Yongqin was asking her something, bit his lip, and hurriedly replied: "He has been calling me for the past few days, and I didn't answer it."

Yuan Yongqin didn't have any emotional fluctuations on her face, she looked the same as usual, and asked her softly, "Since when did he start harassing you?"

Harassment...

This is very straightforward.

Tao Leyi hesitated for a moment, and answered honestly: "Since someone broke the news about Master Lagerfeld's past, the senior has tried to contact me."

"In the beginning, he just called me once a day. If I didn't answer, he wouldn't continue to call me again. Later, when things became serious, the police were involved, and there were more people gossiping on the Internet, and the senior began to call me continuously. He insisted on answering the phone, and if I didn't answer, he would keep calling, or he would call from another number."

"I have given many partners my contact information before. If I change the number, it will be difficult for the partners to find me, so... just... I'm sorry, Mr. Yuan."

This kind-hearted girl thought Yuan Yongqin was upset that her phone kept flashing, but she had already set it to mute, and there was really no other way.

Yuan Yongqin saw that she was nervous, and was about to cry. She raised her hand to stop her: "Don't worry, I'm just asking."

Tao Leyi blushed, calmed down, nodded again, and said, "Well, I, I'm not in a hurry."

But the phone she was holding in her hand lit up again, and it turned out that the person had called again.

Tao Leyi's expression panicked, and he became flustered visibly: "Yuan, Mr. Yuan."

Yuan Yongqin's face was cold and serious, his eyes were sharp, and he told her directly: "Take it, take the open release, I want to see what he wants to do!"

"good."

Tao Leyi bit her lip, answered the phone obediently, pressed the PA button, and raised the phone.

The other end had been calling for more than a week, and it was the first time I got through. It was quiet for a few seconds at first, and soon realized that he really got through, and immediately said excitedly.

"Le Yi? Are you there? You are finally willing to answer my call!"

"..."

Tao Leyi didn't speak.

The man on the other end waited for a second or two, seeing that she was unwilling to say anything, and immediately said, "Are you still angry about what happened before?"

"Yes, I know you should be angry with me, and I also admit that what I did was wrong. But Le Yi, you can understand me, right? I have been living outside these years. It's not easy. After your friend finished talking to me, I received a call from the master's assistant right away. You know Lagerfeld's status in the industry, he found me and wanted me to testify, I really can't do anything!"

Tao Leyi's soft personality couldn't help getting angry when he heard the scumbag say nothing, "So you just lied and made up things that didn't happen to frame me!"

"Le Yi Le Yi, don't be angry, I apologize to you."

He immediately admitted his mistake: "I'm sorry, I was wrong. I admit that I was too selfish at the time and didn't consider your feelings..."

Tao Leyi took a deep breath, trying hard to control his emotions in front of Yuan Yongqin and others, so as not to be led by the nose: "What do you want to do when you call me?"

"Le Yi, I'm sorry, I just want to say sorry to you."

This reason is not even believed by a three-year-old child.

If a person is really sorry, how can it be 3:40 in the morning, as long as she doesn't answer the phone, she can't wait for the line to be busy 24 hours a day.

Chapter 4310 Aunt Yuan: Give me your mobile phone

He acted differently than he said.

In his behavior, he didn't feel apologetic towards her at all. Instead, he was aggressive and forced her all the time.

So Tao Leyi was ruthless, and said directly: "What on earth do you want to do, if you don't tell me, I will die."

The man on the opposite side panicked, and immediately said: "Don't hang up, don't hang up first."

"Say it quickly."

He seemed to be very embarrassed, and said: "Le Yi, I am in a very difficult situation now. Have you read the announcement issued by the Designers Association? I see that your company attaches great importance to you, and the boss also has a background. How about you let me She interceded for me and lifted the industry's soft block?"

"Huh?" Tao Leyi laughed angrily at his shameless behavior.

She never thought that her senior would ask her to ask Mr. Yuan to do things so confidently after the slander incident.

"Why would I do this?"

The person on the other end should have thought about it long ago, and said it without thinking: "I beg you to do this, and you should help me. Don't you like me? And you forgot, you wrote to me Love letter, I still have that letter, including the photo you sent me that night..."

Tao Leyi suddenly remembered that on the night of this man's birthday, she happily called to wish him a happy birthday.

He jokingly asked her to post a photo of him wearing suspender pajamas after taking a shower, and she was also deceived by lard at the time, thinking it was the boy she liked, so she sent it.

It was just a photo of a private room. Although she was wearing clothes, it was not the kind of photo that would be posted outside.

She was looking pale, and she hadn't recovered yet.

I heard a malicious voice from that end: "If you don't want to help me, I can only help myself, post the letter and photo on the Internet, and say that you are my girlfriend, and you and I have been together before. It's awkward, you like me, so you deliberately messed with me."

"Now the Internet is full of people who support you, but if I send these things out, there will be a few people who will care about the appearance of the matter itself. They will all see your photos, the letters you wrote to me, and the text messages you sent to me. confession."

"You are shameless!" Tao Le trembled arrogantly, tears streaming down his face.

"I can't help it, and you don't want to do this either, right, Le Yi?" But the man on the other end seemed to be relieved to hear her panicked voice, and deliberately stimulated her.

Tao Leyi could hardly make a sound, completely forgetting that he was still in Yuan Yongqin's office and there were many people around him.

Her world seemed to collapse.

Time and time again, her faith was destroyed by the man she once trusted and admired. If it weren't for the efforts of many people behind these, and she was not alone, she would almost give in to the scumbag.

No woman can withstand the humiliation of this.

She is also afraid of the exposure of photos and confession letters.

At this time, Yuan Yongqin suddenly said: "Give me your mobile phone."

Tao Leyi seemed to be falling into a boundless hell. In the dark, he heard someone calling her name, and he gave her a hand so that she would not fall into the abyss.

"Yuan, Mr. Yuan."

The man over there is immediately asking who else is next to her.

Tao Leyi stepped forward and handed the phone to Yuan Yongqin.

Yuan Yongqin took the phone and ignored the clamor on the other end, and told the other party clearly: "I am the boss you are looking for."

The man on the other end was quiet for a few seconds, he didn't dare to speak, and he lost the sickness he had when talking to Tao Leyi.
