

Madam's 4331

Chapter 4331 Sister Nian: It seems we are out of luck

Qiao Nian gave him a sideways look, propped his chin with his hands, and said in a very slapstick manner: "Then you are out of luck."

Then she looked back at the person who had almost found them, squinted her eyes, and said unrulyly, "Someone is here."

While they were talking.

As Qiao Nian said, there happened to be a strong man looking up in their direction.

Facing Ye Wangchuan's eyes.

The strong man obviously froze for a moment, then frowned, and immediately stopped the little friends who were passing by, pointing at them.

Mouth seems to be talking.

Then the companion who was held by him also looked in the direction of Qiao Nian.

It's so good that I can't die.

That person's eyes also met Qiao Nian's.

"Hiss, bad luck!"

Qiao Nian immediately moved his eyes away, pulled up the sweater hat to cover himself more tightly, and then got up to hide.

at this time.

It seems to have telepathy.

There was a shout from over there.

"They're over there!"

Immediately after, the sound of chaotic footsteps approached them.

It's very close to seven o'clock in the evening.

It was less than an hour before the auction started at eight o'clock, and a large number of guests had already entered the auction venue. Like Qiao Nian and Ye Wangchuan, they were either wandering around the venue, or looking through tonight's auction catalog...

The sudden noise at the entrance of the venue also caught their attention.

Everyone looked over one after another.

"What is this doing?"

"Arrested people to Baishi Island?"

"No, maybe Baishi Island has internal conflicts?"

"Tsk, they made trouble at the auction house."

The guests who can come here to participate in the auction are either rich or expensive, and any one who can be pulled out is a big shot who can be in the news.

These people whispered to each other, watching the farce in whispers.

Everyone is wondering who they are catching.

Qiao Nian was also preparing to make a move, trying to turn off the switch.

at this time.

Only a 'click' sound was heard.

The entire auction venue fell into darkness.

The crowd who had been whispering and watching the play there became noisy.

"what happened?!"

"Where's the staff. Hurry up and turn on the lights!"

As long as it involves auctions, collections, etc.

The style of the building must be very private, and many even dig directly into the ground to build air-raid shelters to protect themselves to the maximum extent.

Same here.

Although the auction venue on Baishi Island is not built underground, it has the common problem of all auction venues—poor lighting.

In this situation.

Once the lighting is lost, it will be so dark inside that you can't see your fingers.

When people lose their vision, they must be very flustered, and then uncontrollably feel strange and afraid of everything around them.

So almost no thinking.

The entire venue fell into chaos at the moment of darkness.

Qiao Nian has excellent eyesight. Although he can't see in the dark as well as in the daytime, he still can't see everything.

The moment she fell into darkness in the venue, one hand had already touched the weapon at her waist, and her muscles tensed slightly, like a cheetah ready to go in the dark.

"follow me."

A hand grabbed her suddenly, and the cool fingertips touched her wrist lightly. The inch of her skin that touched it was scorching hot like a ball of fire, quickly extinguishing the hostility in Qiao Nian's body.

"..."

Qiao Nian gave up and was led away by him.

Three minutes later.

The venue that was briefly in darkness and chaos lit up, and the line was reconnected.

The noisy crowd looked at each other and checked themselves, and found that nothing was lost.

Chapter 4332 took her to a box

Plus the staff came out to appease them.

means that there is only a problem with the wiring at the venue, so you don't need to panic.

The emotions of the guests gradually returned to calm, but many people still felt disappointed and pulled the staff to reason.

the other side.

The members of the three teams in charge of the infield were well-trained and joined their friends as soon as the power went out.

When the lights come on, someone will go to inquire about the news immediately.

When I came back, I told other brothers: "Someone broke the circuit. He made a simple control device on the high-voltage electricity. As long as he remotely operated it, he could precisely cut off one of the circuits, causing a short circuit and power failure. The principle is very simple. But it works."

"Damn, they found us?" One of the strong men said.

"Isn't it easy for people to find us? It's strange that they didn't find out that we made such a big fuss and arrested people." Borui squinted his eyes, showing no emotion.

Others thought about it, so they stopped talking.

While Borui heaved a sigh of relief, he was also worried about the safety of Ye Wangchuan and Qiao Nian.

But right now, dozens of pairs of eyes are staring at him, waiting for his next arrangement.

Borui didn't want to cover Qiao Nian and the others in a blatant manner, so he had to say: "The person must be inside, everyone look for it."

"Yes, Captain."

Everyone is about to disperse like a flock of birds.

"etc."

Borui stopped them again.

Everyone stopped and looked at him without knowing it.

Borui's temples were protruding, and there was an expression that could barely be called a smile on his dark face that was exposed to the sun.

"If anyone finds someone, don't spread the word, come and tell me, I'll arrange it before doing it."

"What if they run away?" Someone asked puzzled.

Borui's cheek muscles twitched, facing the puzzled eyes of the people under him, he forcibly explained: "The other party is very smart, and running away is better than scaring the snake. Just do as I say!"

"It's gone."

He gave an order.

Dozens of agents didn't think too much, and they dispersed to find someone again.

After Borui and the others had all left, he relaxed his clenched muscles in the back groove slightly, and looked up towards the second floor. If he felt something, let the people under his hand look for it more carefully. .

In a private room on the second floor.

Qiao Nian followed Ye Wangchuan in, then watched him go to the bar counter to get two bottles of water, and threw one of them to her.

She quickly caught the mineral water, and looked at the mercenaries downstairs through the viewing glass on the second floor.

Qiao Nian didn't drink water in a hurry, looked at Ji Lin who had torn off his wig in the private room, and turned the mineral water bottle in his hand.

"Who tell me what's going on here?"

"Miss Qiao, let me tell you."

Qiao Nian raised his eyebrows and looked at him: "Okay."

"Wang Ye knew that Baishi Island was not peaceful, so he made some arrangements in advance. I just came here two days earlier than you, and now I am a guest who came here to participate in the auction." Ji Lin's face was smeared. Knowing something, the originally fair complexion turned black, plus cross-dressing.

Make him look like someone from State F.

Qiao Nian grasped the important point in his words: "some" arrangements were made in advance.

"Do you have other arrangements?" Qiao Nian looked over curiously.

Ye Wangchuan raised his chin, and instead of answering her directly, he called her gently: "They won't come here so quickly, you go over there to rest and eat something."

Chapter 4333 Ji Lin is not his arrangement

Qiao Nian saw that he must have other plans, so he took the mineral water and sat down on the sofa for the time being, to see how he planned to get tungsten gold next.

Since someone on the island is blatantly looking for them, their identities must not be used.

If they can't participate in the auction, what does Ye Fanchuan plan to do?

It's almost eight o'clock.

The second team and the first team also rushed to the auction venue to join Borui's people.

There are so many mercenaries at the auction venue.

It's hard not to notice them.

But the auction is about to start.

Many VIPs who came to Baishi Island have also rested in their boxes, preparing to wait until eight o'clock to participate in the auction on time.

In this way, Borui and the others can't search the same as they did half an hour ago, they can do whatever they want, and they have to worry about the order of the auction scene.

And they also received instructions from above at this time, asking them to stand by and wait until the auction is over.

Aridang came over after answering the phone and said.

"Their auction number plates have been suspended. No matter what their purpose in coming to Baishi Island is, they will definitely not be able to participate in tonight's auction!"

"Huh." Scarface was rushed from the hotel after being tricked a lot, and his face was full of cold cruelty at the moment, and he didn't comment on it.

Among the few people present, only Borui knew Qiao Nian's purpose for coming to Baishi Island.

A trace of worry flashed across his eyes.

However, due to the presence of too many people, he didn't dare to show this worry too much. He could only stop participating in their topic, and stood outside the auction room, staring at the auction that was about to start.

It looks like he is very interested in the auction.

Aridang, who had always been at odds with him, snorted coldly: "Pretending!"

But Borui ignored him.

He was boring himself, and he didn't bother to talk, and stood by the side waiting for the auction to end.

Although many mercenaries came to the venue this time, they were full of blood.

Everyone is still quickly attracted by the auction that started.

Baishi Island has many rules.

And it is not easy to get in.

It is because of the various transactions here.

Compared with selling antiques and jewelry at outside auctions, Baishi Island Auction will bring you more direct items.

They usually directly auction various mines and land veins here.

Some of these mountains have oil.

Some mined gold and silver.

There are even mountains where diamonds are mined.

These mountains and rivers are distributed all over the world and belong to private industry.

When that person no longer wants it, he will come to Baishi Island for an auction and cash out directly.

So raw materials are the characteristics of Baishidao auction.

same.

The items auctioned by Baishi Island are destined to be of high value. It is impossible for ordinary rich people to afford these items, let alone ordinary people.

So Baishi Island set a very high threshold when selecting auction guests.

The first auction tonight is a gold mine located in Continent F.

The quotations made are all in units of 100 million.

Qiao Nian was watching the excitement in Ji Lin's box on the second floor, watching the people below hyped up the prices, and turned to look at someone.

"I remember that area is the sphere of influence of the dark castle..."

Qiao Nian's meaning is very clear.

His site was stolen?

Ji Lin immediately explained for Ye Wangchuan: "I need a legal identity to go to the island, so Lord Wang asked me to bring a gold mine to Baishi Island as a seller."

Qiao Nian looked at his dark skin and specially modified appearance again, and finally understood why she thought Ji Lin looked like a coal digger in F continent at a glance.

Chapter 4334 Wangye is a real dog

She keenly grasped the key point: "The identity of the seller?"

"Yes." Ji Lin nodded.

Qiao Nian was silent for a moment.

She thought that Ye Wangchuan planned to use Ji Lin's false identity to buy tungsten gold, but now it seems that this is not the case.

But Qiao Nian is not in a hurry.

She believes that Ye Fanchuan has a solution, but she doesn't know it yet.

She nodded slightly, and turned back patiently to continue looking at the auction below.

The gold that Ji Lin sold from this gold mine was of high purity and high mineral quality, and the price under the auction stage was raised very high.

Putting it outside is definitely a sky-high price.

It is just a basic operation on Baishi Island.

In the end, the mine was bought by a super rich man in Marais at a price of ten figures, close to eleven figures.

In the box where they were located, staff from Baishi Island soon came up to knock on the door, and Ji Lin was invited to the backstage to sign.

The auction below is still in full swing.

Qiao Nian waited for about an hour.

The downstairs auction is coming to an end.

Sure enough.

According to Baishi Island's auction process, the auctioneer on the stage asked a question as usual.

"Next is the auction of tungsten gold. The starting price of tungsten gold is 1 billion, and the price increases from 100 million. Anyone who is interested can bid."

The people in the auction house gradually quieted down.

Everyone, you look at me and I look at you, with tacit expressions on your faces.

The tungsten gold on Baishi Island is notoriously affordable and cannot be taken away.

Whether it's gold mines or oil in front of us, what we want is money.

Tungsten gold is different.

Tungsten gold kills.

None of the people who came here spared their lives.

The lessons learned from the past are there, even if they are very interested in tungsten gold, no one stands up to bid.

Just as the auctioneer is accustomed to dropping the hammer, he announces that the auction has failed.

A man below suddenly raised his hand.

"1.1 billion."

Someone dared to buy it!

Everyone glanced over.

On the second floor, Qiao Nian also looked at the person below who raised his hand.

Seeing that the man was dressed in a very low-key way, the colorful bird feathers that used to be careless in the past were replaced by small boards, Shi Shiran stood up.

The thin waist covered the black clothes on his body, and he wore a leather jacket on the outside. He stood upright and cold.

"Guardian?"

Qiao Nian saw that face clearly, the corner of his mouth twitched, and then he looked back at someone.

"You asked him to come?"

She immediately remembered the grievances between the two: "Will he listen to you?"

The relationship between the Wei family and the Ye family is very ordinary.

Weilou himself used to be an idler, squatting around the city all day and never going back. He was a negative teaching material in the eyes of everyone in Beijing.

As a negative teaching material, Wei Lou often criticizes everyone's "example" in front of her, that is, someone in front of her.

Based on Qiao Nian's understanding of his Shun donkey character, the probability of Wei Lou being able to cooperate with Ye Wangchuan is probably less than buying a lottery ticket for two yuan and winning five million directly.

She didn't expect Wei Lou to come to Baishi Island.

But she immediately understood why Ye Wangchuan called Weilou over - Weilou itself has the identity of a black market leader.

He is not too pure like other people in Beijing.

Letting Bao Jingxing, Qin Si, and Zhang Yang come over to do this will easily attract the attention of Baishi Island.

Only the background of the guard building is a little gray, which is both good and evil, and it is the most suitable for this job.

"I asked Bo Zheng to tell him that he owes Bo Zheng a favor."

Ye Wangchuan had a straight nose and thin lips, and there seemed to be small hooks in his eyes. He turned his head to talk to Qiao Nian, and smiled at her: "It's just right, Bo Zheng also owes me a favor."

Chapter 4335 What is wrong with being young, you have to die

Qiao Nian understood instantly.

Wei Lou was limped by him.

She pursed her lower lip speechlessly, turned her head and continued to look down.

The auctioneer on the field most likely hasn't seen someone who is not afraid of death for a long time, and it took him several seconds to react.

"Mr. 33, uh, are you sure you want to participate in the auction?"

"how."

Guardian is much more mature than before.

It's just talking and doing things, or the bandit style of going around the city.

"The things you put up for auction here are not actually sold?"

"Hehe." The auctioneer was squeezed into a smirk, forced to raise the corners of his mouth, and looked at Weilou with malicious intentions: "If you want to buy, of course we will sell."

Weilou's idler answered: "Why don't I just stand here and gossip with you?"

The auctioneer was squeezed by him again for a long time and couldn't answer for a while, the hypocritical mask on his face was about to crack, he gritted his teeth, his smile faded, and he looked away to look at the other people in the audience.

"This gentleman offered 1.1 billion, is there anyone else who wants to bid?"

Everyone in the audience was silent.

It's like hearing a needle drop.

No one is stupid.

They could see the atmosphere full of gunpowder on both sides, and no one wanted to step forward to join in the fun.

Besides, Baishi Island's famous tungsten gold can be bought, but it cannot be taken away.

They don't want to be taken advantage of here for something they can't take away, and make themselves messy for nothing.

The auctioneer saw that except for Wei Lou, no one made a sound.

His ugly face finally eased, and there was a little arrogance in his eyes. He glanced at Weilou's face again, and smiled again: "Mr. 33, let me ask you again, are you sure you want to buy it? Are you sure you want to buy it?" One more chance to repent..."

Wei Lou clasped his arms around his chest, occupying an absolute height advantage, with a domineering aura, not inferior to the arrogance of the auctioneer.

"Are you selling it or not? It's a bit of a grind."

The auctioneer's smile froze on his face again, turned livid, and became ugly again: "Sell! Of course!"

Seeing someone determined to die.

So arrogant.

The auctioneer was no longer afraid of trouble, raised his hand, and landed with a hammer: "Congratulations to Mr. No. 33 for bidding our last auction item tonight. 6 tons of tungsten gold with a purity of 9.8 or higher. The transaction price is 1.1 billion!"

1.1 billion won high-purity tungsten gold.

It is said to be a lucrative deal.

Below, there were only a few sparse applause.

Most of the people looked at the ignorant young man in front of them with strange eyes, with a playful expression on their faces, as if Wei Lou was already a dead person.

Someone really came to Baishi Island to buy tungsten gold...

They don't know whether to praise the young people in Weilou for their courage to fight and do, or to say that the young people are too arrogant.

A band of mercenaries gathered at the entrance of the auction house.

Borui stared at the oriental face that appeared out of nowhere, as if he wanted to see a flower.

Fortunately, many people were also stunned by Wei Lou's manipulation.

Many people are watching the farce on the auction floor.

Borui's abnormal reaction didn't arouse others' suspicion.

"Hey, where did he come from? He really dares to say it."

"It seems to be from Beijing City. Hey, a young master, I don't think he knows the rules of Baishi Island."

"Oh, some of the young master's parents are crying."

Someone gloated.

In the eyes of Borui and his group, Weilou is also half-dead.

They are not responsible for matters at sea, but they know that the precious tungsten gold will never flow out of Baishi Island.

One person said if he felt something: "Tell me why these people can't think about it at such a young age, what can't they do, and they want to die."

Chapter 4336 Going upstairs to find someone, can't stop it

Borui finally managed to control his astonishment a little bit, and he agreed with the man's casual words in his heart—he also wanted to know why David's sister did something wrong and why she wanted to die!

Although he didn't know the relationship between the person who came out to buy tungsten gold and David's sister.

Ke Borui thought with his toes, thinking that there must be a connection between the two.

How dare she...

I said I want to buy tungsten gold, but I really dare to buy it.

Borui's temples were swollen, and he would jump up and down from time to time when he was stimulated by Qiao Nian's bold behavior. If he was not afraid of being seen, he really wanted to go to the second floor to find someone, drag him out, and ask him carefully. What's going on in her head.

Before Borui could catch his breath, he heard Adam's murderous voice again.

"Okay, it's almost time. Time to find someone!"

"Go to the upper box and look for it."

Borui's conditioned reflex blurted out: "Don't go up there."

Team 1 and Team 2, including his own people, looked over and looked at him with strange eyes.

Borui's heart was pounding, he calmed down, and said with a blank expression: "The box is full of important guests, if I disturb them, I'm afraid it won't be good."

This is a reason...

Everyone dispelled the doubts in their eyes.

Yali, who proposed to go to the higher-ups to find someone, said disapprovingly: "The higher-ups gave us a death order to find people."

"Besides, the auction is over, we're just looking for someone, so we can't talk about disturbing you."

What Adam said is also very reasonable.

At this time, Borui knew that if he kept obstructing him, it would only arouse suspicion from others, so he had to endure it, and expressed it on his own initiative.

"Then let's go up and check it out, you guys take a look below first."

Before Adam and Scarface could react.

Borui is about to go up with his people.

Aridang stopped him suddenly, stood in front of him and looked him up and down: "Hiss, I think you are a bit strange today."

Borui was actually a little uneasy, his heart beating faster, but on the surface it looked the same as usual, and he pushed his hand away impatiently.

"A good dog doesn't get in the way."

Yalidang sneered, but didn't move away: "Our second team is going to investigate!"

Borui squinted his eyes and looked straight at him.

Aridang didn't hesitate at all: "You three teams have already checked the bottom, now let us stay in the bottom. Why? You want to take the credit by yourself?"

Borui's beating heart slightly returned to the original point, looking at the fool in front of him, he didn't know whether to refute or acquiesce.

At this point, Adam thought he had acquiesced.

Didn't bother to talk to Borui, greeted his subordinates, turned around and was about to go up: "Let's go!"

Borui saw a mighty group of people about to go upstairs, his eyebrows twitched, and he subconsciously reached out to stop him, but was caught by his subordinates in time.

"Captain, forget it. He has always had this character, aggressive and competitive. You continue to argue with him, and be careful when he says that you are protecting those two people. We can't explain to the higher authorities."

Borui turned his head to meet the worried eyes of his subordinates, took a deep breath, and realized that if he continued to pester him, he would only expose himself.

He was worried about Sister David, but there was really nothing he could do. Seeing the people from the second team go up, he hurried down.

"I'm going to the bathroom."

"good."

The subordinates didn't think so much, thinking that he was in a hurry, so they let go.

Borui hurried towards the bathroom, intending to find a corner without monitoring to send a reminder to David.

Talk about the situation on the island.

Chapter 4337 Master Wang has already prepared a way to escape

Upstairs.

Qiao Nian and Ji Lin saw that Wei Lou was led by the staff to go through the formalities.

Ji Lin also noticed that those people started to come to him.

He turned around and reported to Ye Wangchuan in an orderly manner: "Master Wang, those people are here."

"Yeah." Ye Wangchuan responded, stood up calmly, pulled off his peaked cap and said to Qiao Nian: "We are going to leave."

Qiao Nian rested his chin on his hand, and asked him curiously: "There are all people downstairs, how do you plan to get there?"

Ye Wangchuan called out: "Ji Lin."

Ji Lin swiftly took out two staff clothes that had been prepared earlier, as well as two wigs and some simple disguise tools.

He walked up to Qiao Nian and said very respectfully: "Miss Qiao, I have learned some special effects makeup. Please cooperate with me later, it will be ready soon."

ten minutes later.

Qiao Nian and Ye Wangchuan completed a simple cross-dressing through Ji Lin's skillful hands.

Ji Lin's hand is not too delicate, and if you look closely, you can still see the outstanding eyes of Qiao Nian and Ye Wangchuan that can't be hidden.

But it is enough to get away with it at first glance in a noisy environment.

Qiao Nian looked at her blackened face, she looked indistinguishable, put down her hand, and looked at the young man again with her bright eyes.

"What's next, what shall we do?"

How are they going to blend in with the crowd?

"It's easy."

Ye Wangchuan walked to the door, raised his hand and rang the siren inside.

Just listen to the siren of 'Woo La Woo La'.

Qiao Nian heard a series of footsteps coming towards them when he heard the outside.

Although she has seen many big scenes and experienced countless thrilling moments, she has long cultivated a big heart that is different from ordinary people.

He couldn't help raising his eyebrows at Ye Wangchuan's unreasonable behavior, a little surprised, and wanted to see what he was going to do next.

Ye Wangchuan walked over in two or three steps, walked straight to her, grabbed her hand, and led Qiao Nian to the entrance behind the door.

Immediately afterwards, the sound of noisy footsteps outside approached the door.

Only the sound of swiping the magnetic card is heard.

The door is about to open!

Qiao Nian tensed up, and once again touched the place where the weapon was placed with one hand, like a cheetah hunting in the dark, feeling ready to go.

Only heard a 'snap'.

The door opened.

People from the outside come in.

Qiao Nian just noticed that Ye Fanchuan pulled her to stand very delicately.

Just about to be blocked by the door pushed open from the outside.

While a group of people from outside barged in, Ye Wangchuan dragged her to follow silently at the end of the intruding crowd.

It was as if they were not in the box at the beginning, but came in later.

"what happened?"

The first to come in is the second team.

At the head is Adam.

Ji Lin pressed his abdomen, looking extremely angry, the veins in his neck were bulging, and he was full of anger: "I still want to ask you what's the matter? I ate the food you sent, and my stomach hurts. You won't Did you tamper with the food?"

Aridang thought it was two fugitives who escaped and held the guests inside, and the guests pressed the alarm button in a panic.

Who knew that when he came in, he encountered such a trivial matter, immediately sullen, turned around and was about to leave.

But Ji Lin grabbed his sleeves: "Where do you want to go, call a doctor for me!"

There was a lot of noise inside.

Ye Fanchuan, who was hiding at the end of the crowd, pulled Qiao Nian and said in a low voice, "Let's go."

Qiao Nian understands that Ji Lin is intentionally creating confusion to attract most people's attention and give them a chance to take advantage of the chaos to leave.

Chapter 4338 David's friend is still very useful

The wind outside is jittery.

is the kind of tension visible to the naked eye.

Most of the people on Baishi Island are in a hurry, and they can be seen looking for someone.

And the guests here didn't want to stay and cause trouble when they saw this situation, basically they didn't stay, and they were ready to leave when the auction was over.

There are as many people going in as there are going out.

It can be said that Ye Wangchuan didn't need to waste effort, the venue was in chaos.

They wore the uniforms of the staff, and their skin and hair colors were different, and they were almost unimpeded along the way.

No one noticed the movements of the two staff members.

Until they come to the door, to go out.

Someone * them.

"The first two, what are you doing, stop!"

Qiao Nian and Ye Wangchuan stopped, but they didn't turn their heads immediately, but exchanged glances with each other, and they saw murderous intentions in each other's eyes.

But both of them were people who had seen strong winds and waves, and they didn't panic. As the people behind caught up, they stopped and turned back very calmly.

Ye Wangchuan explained: "A guest upstairs is unwell, let's call a taxi."

The man who stopped them was tall and tall, with a scar on his face from the brow bone to the corner of his mouth, he looked like a ruthless character not to be trifled with.

Scarface is the person who leads people to guard in the hotel.

He walked in front of Qiao Nian and the others, looked them up and down, with a cold expression and sharp eyes: "Are you going out to call a car at this time?"

He was about to say something.

A voice behind him suddenly interrupted him.

"Zeus."

Borui is here.

He quickly glanced at Qiao Nian and Ye Wangchuan, and recognized them at a glance.

Then Borui's eyes flickered, he reached out and grabbed Scarface's shoulder, and said to him, "What are you doing here?"

didn't wait for the other party to speak.

He quickly glanced at Qiao Nian and them again, and said in a cold tone: "It's at this juncture, what else do you care about them."

Scarface frowned: "I think they are weird. I can't tell what's wrong, so I just feel that something is wrong."

Borui didn't seem to understand what he meant, and suddenly mentioned: "The second team hasn't come down for so long, let alone find someone."

Scarface was indeed distracted and looked at him.

Borui said ambiguously: "If they are asked to find someone, and we are not there...I am afraid it is not appropriate."

"What do you mean?" Scarface narrowed his eyes.

Borui looked over calmly: "Shall we go up and have a look?"

Xiao Jiujiu, who had a scarred face, thought about it for a moment, then looked at him again: "Together?"

Borui is very straightforward: "Together."

Scar's face softened.

Borui was with him to do this kind of offending thing, and Yaridang's malice towards Borui must be all on Borui's head.

He just needs to be invisible and take advantage of it.

Borui spoke casually again, and casually said to the scarred face: "They are all your own, so leave them alone."

Scarred face was full of heart and eyes to grab credit, and his mind was no longer on Qiao Nian and Ye Wangchuan, and he glanced back at them.

The two were wearing the clothes of the staff, and their skin color and appearance did not match.

He didn't think about it any more, he waved his hand, like repelling flies: "Okay, you guys go to work."

"OK."

Ye Fanchuan lowered his head, and his attitude was very submissive. Before he left, he turned his head and met Borui's sight. Borui was entangled by his scarred face, and he didn't have a chance to talk to them. He just signaled them to leave quickly with his eyes.

Chapter 4339 I found out that Wang Ye and the others are gone

Ye Wangchuan was sure with just one glance that Borui recognized them.

He looked away, winked at Qiao Nian, turned around and left the auction venue in a hurry.

...

Outside.

The driver arranged by Ji Lin was already waiting there.

As soon as they come out.

The driver drove over to pick up the person.

This is an unremarkable commercial vehicle with the license plate number of Baishidao on it. Its silver shape can be seen everywhere on the road. As soon as it gets on the road, it will immediately enter the sea like a fish, and it will be difficult to find it again.

"My lord."

The driver opened the window and called for someone.

Ye Wangchuan opened the car door in stride, letting Qiao Nian get in first: "Get in the car."

Qiao Nian didn't waste any time, went up three steps in two steps, and sat inside, leaving a place for him to come up.

After she got on, Ye Wangchuan got into the car without haste, raised his hand and closed the door, separating the inside and the outside into two worlds.

The driver turned the car around immediately and drove towards the main road without his ordering.

At this time, there are many people and cars leaving the auction house.

Their silver business car was neither an expensive model nor a conspicuous license plate number. It left the parking lot with almost no effort and drove away from the encirclement of Baishi Island.

Wait for the car to drive steadily.

Qiao Niancai said, "Ji Lin is still at the venue."

Ye Wangchuan took off his coat, put it aside casually, and said very calmly: "Don't worry about him, he has a way to get out."

"En." Qiao Nian reckoned that he also had arrangements to prevent Ji Lin from being trapped inside.

She thought of another one: "Weilou..."

Ye Wangchuan returned Qiao Nian's peaked cap to her as if conjuring, dignified and lazy, calmly said: "I told him to meet at the pier."

Qiao Nian looked at him.

Ye Wangchuan stretched out his hand and covered her eyes with his hand, his slender fingers were as white as jade, with distinct joints. The voice was coaxing: "Nian Nian, don't look at me with such eyes."

Qiao Nian could feel the scorching blood flowing under his cool fingertips.

The eyelashes trembled slightly.

scratched his palm.

Then she pursed her lips: "I just asked."

Ye Wangchuan's palm felt itchy and crispy rubbed, his index finger curled up slightly, but the corner of his mouth raised, and he said lazily, "It's a rare time when God Qiao is enlightened."

Qiao Nian didn't want to hear what he said, so she slapped his hand blocking her view, and looked at him with a pair of beautiful eyes.

A face full of rebelliousness: "I've always been enlightened, but you dare not."

Ye Wangchuan realized what she was talking about, suddenly burst out laughing, lowered his head and chuckled dotingly: "Yes, I dare not."

This topic was clicked, and the two of them stopped.

Since Qiao Nian knew about Ye Wangchuan's arrangement, she didn't worry anymore, she simply leaned on the back of the chair and closed her eyes to rest her mind, waiting to go to the pier to meet up with the guard building.

On the other side, the auction venue.

After a carpet search by hundreds of people, no suspicious person was found.

They hid in order to prevent people.

Even asked someone to open all the vents on the roof and checked them one by one.

Everyone was exhausted after tossing, and finally gathered in the monitoring room numbly, and the only way to find someone was through monitoring.

A group of people surrounded the monitoring room tightly.

They quickly discovered the figures of Qiao Nian and Ye Wangchuan through surveillance. Seeing the two swaying away from here, Scarface and Aridang beat the ground fiercely in anger.

The scarred face suddenly looked at Borui aside, and said gloomily, "Did you do it on purpose?"

Chapter 4340 The guard building is also ready

He seemed to be saying that Borui deliberately dismissed him and let him go.

At this time, everyone's eyes fell on Borui, waiting for him to give everyone an explanation.

After all, everyone could see clearly from the surveillance. Scarface had already called Qiao Nian and Ye Wangchuan to stop, but Borui intervened and let them go.

Borui immediately squinted at the past, feeling full of oppression: "What do you mean? No one recognized them at the time. I thought they were just two staff members, and they had something to do with me? You didn't have any doubts behind you, walk away with me gone."

Scarface was left speechless by what he said. He knew that what Borui said was reasonable, but he was suffocating in his heart, which was not a good feeling.

Others had no evidence to prove that Borui let people go on purpose, so they had to give up.

Yali should have a sullen face, and said viciously: "There are so many of us here and let him go. If we let the higher-ups know, it will definitely not make us feel better. Therefore, we must catch him!"

Borui's people have always been hostile to him, so he replied coldly: "As long as you can say, no one here knows how to arrest people, and how to arrest the problem."

Aridang shot a poisonous snake-like gaze, staring at Borui's subordinates viciously, but because of Borui's presence, he could not bear the attack.

Forcing myself to twist my neck: "The most urgent task now is to find technicians to call out the monitoring at the major intersections, first to determine whether they got in the car or not, and where they went."

His method is not smart.

But right now it is considered the most useful and stupid way.

Aridan did not forget to call Borui: "What do you think?"

Bo Ruiming knew that the other party's intention was to test him, so he didn't show any abnormality, and said flatly: "Since you have thought it all over, let's do it this way."

"snort!"

Yalidang sneered, provoking on purpose: "It doesn't matter if they ran away before, as long as they are still on this island, they will be caught sooner or later! When the time comes..."

He didn't say what he planned to do when Qiao Nian and Ye Wangchuan were caught.

But the gloomy look in his eyes showed what he meant, at least after he caught the two, he was going to interrogate Borui to see if Borui deliberately helped them out of trouble!

Borui took the time to let him stare at him, as if he didn't see what he was thinking, and didn't bother to pay attention to it.

He looked calm on the surface, but in his heart he was wondering where Qiao Nian and Ye Wangchuan were going and what else he wanted to do.

As the time goes.

Everyone on Baishi Island gradually felt a sense of urgency.

Cargo terminal.

The stevedores sent boxes of tungsten gold to the ferry with a forklift, and Weilou personally inspected them.

They are not afraid to check.

Because all the tungsten gold they put on it is genuine and can withstand any inspection, and they are not afraid of the guard building to check.

Soon the inspection of the guard building was completed.

Make sure the tungsten gold in the box is correct.

He signed his name on the inspection form handed over by the staff who accompanied him, and returned the pen to the other party.

"alright."

The staff took back the inspection slip and pen, glanced at it roughly, but put it away without looking at it carefully, and said a meaningful word to the guard building.

"Young Master Wei is sure that he wants to * this batch of goods. You are delicate and expensive. I suggest you go back by plane."

"Oh, I like to fight against people. The more you talk about it, the more I want to * it myself."

Guardian is full of provocation.

"Hehe." The staff member pulled the muscles at the corners of his mouth with a half-smile, barely twitched the corners of his mouth to make way, got off the boat and said to the people on the deck:
"Young Master Wei, please."
