

Madam's 4341

Chapter 4341 Everyone is gone

The staff stood aside, waiting for the guard building to leave.

According to the rules of Baishi Island, after completing the handover ceremony of all transactions concluded on the island, they will no longer participate in subsequent transportation.

So this ferry is driven by Weilou, and the crew on the ferry are also from Weilou. Baishi Island did not arrange manpower.

He thought that the Weilou inspection had also been signed, and he was about to leave.

Who knew that the other party lay on the deck and said to him, "No hurry, I still have to wait for two friends."

Baishi Island staff: "??"

Borui and the staff of these auction houses are responsible for two complete jobs, and they don't usually overlap much. The staff in charge of the auction work is not aware that there is a panic on the island and they are looking for someone.

He was only taken aback, not understanding what kind of friends this Young Master Wei has on the island.

I heard the sound of car tires rubbing behind me.

The staff instinctively turned around, and saw a commercial vehicle parked a few meters away from him, and then three people got out of the car.

A man and a woman.

There is also a person dressed as a driver.

The three of them passed by him and boarded the boat directly.

The man and woman didn't seem to see him, very naturally.

Only the driver glanced at him quickly, and then hurriedly followed.

The staff of Baishi Island were so overwhelmed by this incident that they couldn't recover for a long time, so they watched the three of them get on the ferry and meet up with the guard building.

Then the propellers of the ferry moored at the pier started and began to sail out of the port.

"Do you really have friends?" The staff monk Zhanger couldn't figure it out. He stood blankly at the pier and watched the ferry go away. Na Na half a sentence.

But he didn't take it to heart.

Guanglou's boat carried tungsten gold, as long as it went out of the waters of Baishi Island, there would be an 'accident', so three more people went up, but three more people died when the time came.

The staff did an inventory and finishing work at the pier again. After finishing these, he was ready to go back as usual.

at this time.

The sound of an off-road vehicle speeding along came from the pier.

The staff heard the movement and went out with the assistants they brought.

I saw more than a dozen vehicles quickly approaching the pier, surrounding them.

Then he saw the group of mercenaries coming down.

He was familiar with Adam, so he hurried forward to ask: "Second Captain, what happened? Are you..."

When he was speaking, his eyes were on Borui who got off the car one step back.

His face was full of strangeness.

Everyone in Baishi Island knows that Adam and Borui are not compatible, and they rarely cooperate in missions together.

He saw that in addition to the first and second teams, there was also the scar-faced captain of the third team. What's going on this time?

Yalidang pulled him away and walked quickly to the pier to check the ferry moored beside him. After a lap, his heart sank into the sea.

He turned his head suddenly: "Where is that ship?"

"Huh? Which ship?" The staff raised their heads in confusion.

Yali twitched violently in front of his face, and looked at him with dark eyes: "It's the ship carrying tungsten gold!"

The staff actually didn't need him to answer and had already reacted, so they said: "The buyer left the port half an hour ago."

"Fuck!" In anger, Adam kicked over the container next to him, his face was livid with anger, his eyes were wide open, and he directed his anger on the staff: "Why did you let them go!"

Facing his accusation, and the fact that other people were looking at him, the staff immediately explained with grievance: "According to the rules..."

Chapter 4342 Ji Lin has taken off

According to the rules of Baishi Island, they completed the handover, and the customer checked the goods and signed the acceptance form, otherwise they can be released.

How did he know he couldn't let go?

Adam also knew that it was meaningless to argue with the staff at this time, so he suppressed his overwhelming anger, turned around and walked in front of Borui and Scarface, looked at the two of them, and said coldly: "People have run away, what do we do now? manage?"

Scarface cursed: "Damn it."

Then, like Adam, he turned his head to Borui, staring at Borui's face with hooked eyes, waiting for Borui's idea.

"you say."

Since Borui came to the pier, he found that Qiao Nian and the others had already left, so he let go of his heart and faced the questioning of the two of them.

He became more calm: "Everyone has gone to sea, you can see that I am useless, and I can't help it."

Aridan and Scarface seemed dissatisfied with his answer, but they couldn't say anything.

"Forget it, let's report to the higher-ups first, anyway, they can't get out of here alive." Scarface turned his eyes, turned his face, and looked at the vast ocean.

At this time, the dark sky is very low, as if it is about to merge with the sea water, and the sky is connected as far as the eye can see.

It won't be long before the rhythm of the downpour.

Scarface narrowed his eyes, and said with a smirk: "Whoever let them get on that ship, since they got on it, they are doomed to die!"

Before they could say a word, one of his subordinates soon ran over, leaned into his ear and whispered, "Boss, the man has escaped."

Scar's face finally cleared up, and his face sank again.

"You asked us to keep an eye on him. When we go back, he has already left. When we tracked down his whereabouts, he took off from Baishi Island in a private plane half an hour ago..."

It was half an hour ago again!

This group of people must have planned it long ago.

He took a deep breath and looked at his two colleagues. With a ferocious face, he said through gritted teeth: "The F continent businessman who pretended to be unwell at the auction also ran away."

"The plane half an hour ago."

"We didn't catch a single one."

This is undoubtedly a great shame for them.

Everyone was silent for a while.

Aridang didn't know what to think of, his eyes flickered, and he suddenly said: "Is the buyer of tungsten gold one of these people?"

Borui's eyelids twitched, interrupted their conjecture, and said, "Okay, don't stand here and guess randomly. Who will report to the higher-ups?"

" ... "

As expected, the two of them were distracted and began to blame each other.

That end.

Gu San answered a phone call on the deck, and reported to Ye Wangchuan when he came back: "Master Wang, Ji Lin has already taken off. There is still an hour to leave the foggy area and leave the airspace of Baishi Island."

Qiao Nian was sitting on the wicker chair, and there was an assembled laptop on the coffee table in front of him.

She was concentrating on the computer, typing on the keyboard with both hands quickly, and soon hit the Enter key, a progress bar appeared on the screen, and it took only ten seconds to load to 100%...

Then Gu San stood there and saw the crew's navigation system pop up on the computer screen.

Qiao read two or three times to get it done.

Connect the aircraft to Beidou satellite navigation and restore the signal in the foggy area.

Even though Gu San has seen a lot, he will still be impressed by Qiao Nian's skills.

Ye Wangchuan was next to the girl, watching Qiao Nian connect Ji Lin's plane to the Beidou satellite system, he said not surprisingly.

Chapter 4343 Weilou VS Wangye, KO!

"Baishi Island will not release people easily."

"kindness."

Qiao Nian left the keyboard with both hands, without raising his eyelids, leaned on the back of the chair, and took out the phone from the shoulder bag.

Before she called, she specifically looked at Ye Wangchuan.

"You don't have any other arrangements?"

Ye Wangchuan looked at her, couldn't help pursing his thin lips, and said lazily: "No."

Qiao Nian raised his eyebrows. He didn't know whether to believe it or not, so he made a phone call instead, and said to the person beside him, "Then it's my turn."

During the conversation.

Qiao Nian got through the phone.

She got up and walked around a few people to the railing to make arrangements.

Only Gu San, Wei Lou, and Ye Wangchuan were left on the deck resting place, and the atmosphere naturally slipped into a stiff and cold scene.

Gu San opened his mouth several times, trying to find something to talk about.

But he saw that Wei Shao and Wang Ye had no intention of talking to each other, so he hesitated to speak.

At this moment, Wei Lou spoke first.

"I thought it was Uncle Bo who came looking for me."

Before Ye Wangchuan boarded the boat, he thought that Bo Zheng was looking for him, and that Bo Zheng was planning and arranging these things. He didn't understand until Qiao Nian and Ye Wangchuan boarded the boat just now.

And he also found that Gu San was there, but when he handed over the cargo, Gu San stayed in the control room of the cabin and stayed with the captain, so he didn't notice it.

"Well, he owes me a favor." Ye Wangchuan was completely calm when faced with the questioning.

Wei Lou's forehead was bulging with blue veins, throbbing violently.

Uncle Bo owed him favors, so he has nothing to do with him!

Facing his murderous gaze, Ye Wangchuan took out his mobile phone, as if he was going to make a call, but before he left, he remembered that the Weilou was still there, paused again, thought for a while, and said calmly, "You owe me too, don't you?" I got Bo Zheng's favor, which just paid off."

The corners of Wei Lou's eyes twitched violently again, he clenched his fists, and almost punched him in the face.

But reason overcame impulse.

He forcibly endured it, and then looked at Ye Wangchuan with extremely unfriendly eyes: "Does your old man know that you tricked me into Baishi Island?"

Baishi Island is so dangerous.

The relationship between the Ye family and the Wei family is only so-so.

Ye Wangchuan's actions are too insincere to spread, and will inevitably be criticized by people in the circle.

Wei Lou really wanted to expose the hideous nature of this man.

Who knew that Ye Wangchuan just raised his eyes slightly, his eyelashes covered his deep pupils, and replied unhurriedly: "If you want to sue like a woman, I don't care, I can only say that I misunderstood Young Master Wei's gender." !"

"..." opened his mouth so poisonously!

Wei Lou had a mouthful of blood in his throat, and he was almost * off by his mouth.

"I'm going to make a phone call." Ye Wangchuan didn't seem to realize how stupid his behavior was, and didn't see Wei Lou's cheeks turning blue and red from anger, took his mobile phone, talked to him, and walked away.

Wei Lou looked at his breezy back, and the blood in his chest rushed straight to the top of the Tianling Gai again.

Fortunately, seeing his complexion getting worse, Gu San was afraid that he would be angry to death, so he hurried forward and patted Wei Lou on the shoulder to comfort him.

"Young Master Wei, there are difficulties for Master Wang to do this, so don't be angry..."

"What does he need so much tungsten gold for?"

Weilou is not as simple as it seems on the surface. How can a person who grew up in the top circle of Beijing be a fool who can only be driven by emotions.

Gu San was stunned by Wei Lou's abrupt question, and didn't answer him right away.

Weilou was not in a hurry, and said to himself: "I thought it was Uncle Bo who wanted tungsten gold, and I thought it was because the Nine Institutes were short of materials."

Chapter 4344 Sister Nian: It's going to rain

"Since it's not that the Jiu Institute has lost materials, why does he need so much tungsten gold personally?"

Tungsten gold is not an ordinary metal.

It is too important as a weapon material!

What does Ye Wangchuan want to do?

Facing Wei Lou's aggressive questioning, Gu San reacted, his complexion turned pale, he lost his usual laughter, and answered him with a serious face.

"Young Master Wei, don't ask, this has nothing to do with you and Beijing City."

The implication.

No matter what Ye Wangchuan wants tungsten gold to do, it is definitely not what Wei Lou thinks.

But more, he will definitely not disclose to Wei Lou.

Wei Lou guessed what Gu San said, and was silent for a few seconds, then suddenly asked without thinking: "It's not Ye Wangchuan who wants tungsten gold, it's Qiao Xiaonian who wants this batch of tungsten gold!"

Gu San remained silent: "..."

Young Master Wei is quite perceptive.

Sometimes silence is often the answer.

Wei Lou is not incompetent if Wei Ying's subordinates can firmly grasp the inheritance rights of the next generation of the Wei family after Wei Lao leaves.

He looked at the back of the * the phone in front of the railing, pursed his lips, and stopped asking.

Qiao Nian came back from the other end of the phone call, and saw that only Gu San and Wei Lou were here, so he couldn't help but ask, "Where are the others?"

Wei Lou pointed to the side: "Over there. Not long after you left, he also went to call."

Qiao Nian saw the corner of Ye Wangchuan's clothes, stopped in his tracks, did not go over, then turned around to look up and down the guard building, and asked in surprise, "Did you two fight?"

“呵呵。”卫楼皮笑肉不笑，双手揣进裤兜里：“我要是揍了你心爱的男朋友，你回头不找我麻烦？”

He meant it as a joke.

Who knew that Qiao Nian rested his chin on his hand, and after a thoughtful expression, he nodded in agreement: "That's right."

"..." Wei Lou was choked by her, and his hair suddenly exploded, with an expression of wanting to strangle her to death: "Qiao Xiaonian, we have known each other for ten years, and you want to trouble me because of a man?! Righteousness, a scumbag who values sex and despises friends!"

"Ah." Qiao Nian glanced at him, and slowly pulled down his peaked cap to cover his pupils, looking foolish.

it is more than words.

Wei Lou was completely speechless, waved his hands, and walked towards the cabin with a dark face: "Okay, okay, you two should be locked up, please lock them up, don't come out and harm others."

"I'll go down and see where I'm going."

Qiao Nian watched his figure disappear at the top of the stairs going down, and then stopped the laziness of his body, turned around and said to Gu San: "Tell your master, it's going to rain."

Gu San raised his head to look at the dark sky, there were thunderstorms in the dark clouds, and there was a posture of rain coming at any time.

He looked at the muffled thunder in the clouds, and then at the girl Shi Shiran standing on the deck with the sea behind her.

Gu San pursed his lips, as if he understood the meaning of Qiao Nian's words, lowered his head, and immediately did it: "Yes, Miss Qiao."

The other side, meanwhile.

An old man from the Theron family contacted Nie Qingru who was far away in Continent M.

"Are you sure she is studying what her mother left behind?" The old man's tone was not angry and arrogant.

When facing Nie Qingru, he was not only rude, but even had a faint sense of superiority.

Nie Qingru herself was not dissatisfied at all: "She went to Baishi Island to get tungsten gold with all her efforts, isn't that enough to explain everything?"

The old man was silent for a full second, and then said with a half-smile: "You are so brave, you can kill relatives righteously every time."

Chapter 4345 Sister Nian is more important than tungsten gold

Nie Qingru was indifferent to the irony hidden in the old man's words: "Without me, you would not be able to sit back and relax. Everyone is mutual."

"Hmph." The old man stopped holding on to this, and said in a low voice, "Don't worry, I won't let her go out of Baishi Island."

Nie Qingru said lightly: "She is not as easy to deal with as you think."

Qiao Nian is not Ji Qing.

Ji Qing would risk her life for the sake of her family at first, but in the end she just hid her secret USB flash drive with her life.

Qiao Nian is not just smart like Ji Qing.

She has connections and means.

Not bad enough!

Qiao Nian is a complete copy of Ji Wu Falcon.

Give her some time, in time, she may not be able to almost turn the whole family and people who are hiding behind the scenes like Ji Wu Falcon did back then.

"This is a wolf cub, she won't catch it without a fight! Be careful that you will be bitten by her and tear off a piece of meat. When the time comes... Hehe."

Nie Qing said it all.

"That's not something you need to worry about." The old man didn't take her warning to heart, and hung up the phone behind his back.

Then he said to the man waiting in the room: "Kill her."

"I will come forward to solve the problem in Beijing, and I won't let the Ye family and the Wei family pursue it."

The old man only just learned that the third-generation heirs of the Ye family and the Wei family were on the ferry, so he called Nie Qingru to ask for clarification.

The man standing in the darkness responded in a low voice: "Yes."

Half of the old man's face was hidden in the darkness, his naked eyes were like a hunter walking in the dark, with his hands behind his back, he said coldly, "Remember to clean it up."

"clear."

"En." While walking inside, the old man vaguely said a name: "Ji Wu Falcon...the surname is Ji again...it's time to end."

Baishi Island.

Borui and the others quickly received the order of 'shoot to kill'.

Yalidang said gloatingly when he went out, "Those two people are dead."

Borui brushed past him with a frosty face, didn't even look at him halfway, bumped his shoulder and walked away.

Aridang was enraged by his behavior, blushing, and immediately clenched his fists to catch up.

Fortunately, Scarface who was walking behind grabbed his shoulder: "Okay, everyone is a companion, what are you doing? Do you think the higher-ups are not angry enough?"

They made Qiao Nian and Ye Wangchuan leave Baishi Island this time with so many people, the higher-ups were extremely angry and severely criticized them.

Everyone is in a bad mood right now.

Scarface also didn't want Yali to cause trouble and implicate himself.

Aridang couldn't bear the anger: "Look at what he means. Could it be that he really had an affair with those two people? He's an insider!"

"Okay!" Scarface stopped him from continuing, walked ahead first, and turned to him and said, "you can eat indiscriminately, but you can't talk indiscriminately."

"Don't drag everyone into the water, be careful when you speak!"

Arid saw that even he ignored him, striding away.

He brows twitched, he held back his breath, and with a dark face, he led his subordinates to follow.

They are going to gather at the pier.

Follow the arrangement above.

After the ship carrying the tungsten gold capsizes into the sea, they need to follow the staff who escorted the tungsten gold back to work.

There is another important task.

Go to the sea to salvage the target's body.

Used to determine the death of the target character.

Borui, Adam, and the others don't quite understand why the higher-ups care so much about the death of the target this time, and the two targets are even more important than tungsten gold...

Chapter 4346 seems to be the sound of an airplane propeller

This has never happened before.

Although no one understands how the target offended the people above, why the above people must die.

But their mercenaries have always only recognized money and tasks, regardless of the twists and turns inside.

A group of people soon came to the pier.

Something big happened today.

All docks and airspace of Baishi Island are out of use.

Some guests are stranded on Baishi Island.

This also caused the pier to be very quiet. Except for Borui and his team, only the wharf staff who were preparing to salvage and transport were here.

Two parties have one round.

Everyone greeted each other a few words, and then got to the point.

"Have they left the waters of Baishi Island yet?" Borui spoke first.

A bald head led them to the monitoring room inside, and replied: "There are still more than a hundred nautical miles, soon."

Borui and a group of people behind him marched into the monitoring room of the pier, and they saw the moving red dot marked in red on the big screen.

This red dot represents the ship that Qiao Nian and Ye Wangchuan are on.

Borui squinted his eyes, and secretly broke into a cold sweat for Sister David, but the matter has reached this point, and people of his level are no longer able to control it.

He can only help them get here, and then he can only watch Qiao Nian make his own fortune.

Just when Borui looked up at the little red dot on the screen and said nothing, Adam behind him said, "They passed the foggy area?"

"Um."

The bald head had a solemn expression, and said very seriously: "I don't know what method they used to cross the foggy area, but they did pass through the hidden reef in the foggy area smoothly."

Borui said at this time: "The plane they took when they came didn't use the signal on the island. They should have their own way."

Looking at him with a bald head, he nodded in agreement.

Arid crossed Borui, and asked the bald head impatiently: "How long will it take them to leave the sea?"

Bald head calculated: "About an hour."

Aridang got the answer he wanted, and satirized satisfactorily: "Hurry up, I'll wait to collect their bodies!"

Borui frowned fiercely when he heard this. Due to the fact that there were too many people present, the disgust flashed across his face, and he quickly put away the emotions on his face, so as not to be seen by others.

The clock on the wall passed the minutes and seconds.

In a blink of an eye, the ship carrying tungsten gold was less than a few tens of nautical miles away from their expected accident location, and it only took half an hour to arrive.

All eyes are attracted by the little red dot moving on the screen.

Almost everyone was waiting for Qiao Nian and the others to approach the accident site, and this farce would be over!

However...

Ten minutes passed.

In the blink of an eye, another 10 minutes passed.

As the ship gets closer and closer to that point.

Everyone's heart is in the throat.

Borui couldn't control his frowning, and stared at the red dot on the screen, showing a regretful expression that he didn't even notice.

Once Sister David gets close to that point, she is doomed to be unable to survive!

Borui regrets the loss of this young life.

20 nautical miles.

15 nautical miles.

...

The ship carrying tungsten gold is getting closer and closer, and it seems to overlap with the accident site on the map.

Aridan and Scar both had venting smiles on their faces.

at this time.

Suddenly there was a roar outside.

Someone noticed: "What sound?"

Everyone * up your ears and listen.

Borui's subordinates suddenly said: "...a bit like the sound of an airplane propeller."

Chapter 4347 Someone in Continent F has this weapon in their hands

Everyone was puzzled by Monk Zhang Er.

airplane?

Isn't flying banned today?

Could it be that some guests insist on leaving Baishi Island despite the no-fly order?

Just when everyone was puzzled, the situation changed suddenly.

Accompanied by the sound of low-altitude propellers flying, there was the sound of bombing outside.

"Boom~"

The explosion outside quickly opened the eardrums of people.

Everyone's complexion changed drastically.

Ignoring the approaching red dots on the monitor room screen, they all ran outside to see what happened.

Waiting for them to go out, their jaws were stunned by the scene in front of them.

Dozens of stealth bombers were seen hovering over Baishi Island, almost blending into the dark cloud-covered sky.

A lightning bolt tore the sky.

Accompanied by a moment of light.

Borui and others watched a bomb fall towards the pier.

"Quick, quick! Run!"

Someone shouted.

The others seemed to be awakened from a nightmare, and quickly dodged away.

But in the blink of an eye.

The monitoring room they stayed in directly razed the explosives to the ground.

A huge fire burst into the sky.

Borui and others felt the heat wave coming.

Fortunately, they were well-trained and agile, and hid in a safe place before the bomb fell, so that they would not be affected by the aftermath of the bomb.

The sky is still under constant bombardment.

"Where did these come in?" Adam watched the plane that was infinitely close to them fly away before he dared to poke his head out.

Baishi Island has had a geographical advantage for many years, and has never encountered the situation it is in today.

Everyone was taught a lesson!

Borui has sharp eyes: "Those are drones."

Everyone looked at him together.

Borui's face was serious: "...I just took a look at the most advanced stealth unmanned bomber that flew over our heads. That is to say, even if we shoot down the plane, it's useless because there is no one piloting it. "

As soon as these words came out, the hearts of everyone on Baishi Island were half-cooled.

Walking around irritably with a bald head, he stopped and looked at Borui: "Where did these things come from?!"

"As far as I know, Continent F." Borui didn't hide anything, the main thing is that the information can be found by checking it, so there is no need to hide it.

"Continent F?" Why does this have something to do with Continent F again.

Borui looked up at the planes roaring past in the sky from time to time, his eyes darkened: "There is a weapon predator in Continent F who has these things in his hand."

Aridan, Scarface and the others are still thinking about who is the boss in Continent F.

The bald head responded quickly, and turned to find the satellite phone: "You talk, I'm going to talk to the higher up."

He said, turned and left.

Borui followed: "I'll go with you."

The bald man didn't say anything when he saw this, and took him inside to make a satellite phone call.

...

The bombers hovering above their heads looked scary, but they didn't actually bomb them in a large area.

More like a warning to them.

The bald head quickly dialed the number outside the contact, and heard the rustling sound, and the call was connected there.

He breathed a sigh of relief, and quickly reported the dangerous situation on the island to his superiors.

the other side.

Qiao Nian asked Wei Lou to stop the ferry and drifted on the sea for about ten minutes.

at this time.

A series of electric bells broke the tranquility on the deck.

"Here we come." The girl raised the corner of her mouth, slowly picked up the phone, glanced at the hidden phone number that was not displayed on it, and picked it up.

She turned on the PA.

Chapter 4348 Sister Nian: I will give you five minutes to find out

The moment Qiao Nian connected the phone, he placed the phone on the coffee table so that other people could hear what the other person was saying.

"Hello."

She spoke casually first.

The other side was silent for a few seconds, and an old man's voice could not hear any ups and downs: "You arranged the drone on the island."

Wei Lou and Gu San exchanged glances.

Gu San shook his head at him, expressing that he did not know who was on the other end of the phone.

Wei Lou pursed his lips, and looked in Qiao Nian's direction again.

In addition to the mobile phone, the girl also has a laptop. When the laptop is turned on, more than 20 light spots can be seen flashing on it.

Below these dots of light is a map of Baishi Island.

Qiao Nian didn't seem to be affected by the majestic and oppressive voice of the other party at all. Hearing the other party's question, he just let out a light snort.

"yes."

"What do you want?"

The old man ignored the provocation in her words and asked directly.

Qiao Nian asked him back: "This is what I want to ask you too."

The old man was silent for a while.

Just when Qiao Nian gradually lost his patience, he said, "You can't take the tungsten gold away."

"If I have to take it away..." Qiao Nian took it easy.

The old man's tone was instantly cold: "Then you also have to stay here!"

What he said was categorical, and there was no room for negotiation at all. It seemed that someone who was used to giving orders from a superior position was used to occupying the absolute initiative.

Didn't expect the girl to sneer mercilessly as soon as he finished speaking.

"Tsk, you think I'm discussing with you?"

"..."

The old man was subconsciously silent, as if he hadn't thought about how to answer.

Qiao Nian was not used to him, and said bluntly: "There are two roads in front of you now. One, Wu Jin and I must leave this sea area safely. Two, let Baishi Island be razed to the ground."

"Hehe, let Baishi Island be razed to the ground?" The old man sneered: "Do you think just a few drones are enough?"

Qiao Nian raised his hand and pressed down his peaked cap to cover his dark eyes, and said calmly, "Of course not enough."

"Then you still say..."

The old man's voice did not finish.

She interrupted and continued: "So I prepared a big gift for you under the water."

Ye Wangchuan arranged a series of arrangements on the island. She was not idle in those few days, and she also made preparations for this trip.

Otherwise, why would she want to grab tungsten gold.

"I'll give you five minutes. You can immediately send someone to detect what is below 10 nautical miles around Baishi Island, and then call me to tell me the decision."

Qiao Nian is really not used to him.

Finished speaking.

Slowly reached out and hung up the call.

On the other end, the old man let go of his gloomy eyes, took off the phone that was hung up, turned around and went out, and told the people around him: "Go and find out what is below 10 nautical miles near Baishi Island."

"Yes, ten old."

The men hiding in the darkness immediately went out.

The people around him are very efficient.

Didn't work for two minutes.

The people he stayed on Baishi Island used the island's detection radar to scan the big guys below, and they were so frightened that they immediately reported to him.

When the old man received the intercom call, he just looked at the time on the wall clock.

Three minutes have passed since Qiao Nian said five minutes.

He narrowed his eyes, picked up the handset and put it to his ear: "Speak."

"We used radar to detect that there are... yes... there are..." The person on the other side stuttered.

The old man frowned, and his face gradually showed displeasure: "What's next, just say it."

Chapter 4349 Make a deal

"good."

The person on the opposite side took a deep breath, adjusted his mood, and said with a cool breath.

"Old man, our radar has detected a submarine in the waters around Baishi Island, with a missile head on it. It looks like... that."

He dared not speak directly.

A trace of doubt flashed in the eyes of the old man.

Connected his words and went through his mind again, the submarine...the missile head...he understood everything in an instant!

Immediately, his face suddenly changed.

He immediately questioned his subordinates who stayed on the island: "What's the matter with you? They's submarines drove up to their faces, and you didn't notice it at all."

"Old man, the detection radar didn't send out any warning before, we really didn't think that someone would drive the submarine in through the foggy area."

The staff on the other end explained in a low voice.

The old man's face was as frosty as ice, and his eyes were sharp. He interrupted his defense: "Okay, I don't want to listen to the explanation, and I will go to receive the punishment myself!"

"yes."

The staff at the other end swallowed their grievances, and reminded in a weak voice: "The other party should have a very powerful hacker who hacked into the radar detection system on the island, otherwise the radar detection cannot miss so many behemoths, without warning at all... "

The old man didn't respond and hung up the phone directly.

He looked up and looked at the time again.

Exactly five minutes passed on wall time.

The veins on the old man's forehead were swollen, and he no longer had the relaxed state of mind he had before. For the first time, he felt an invisible big hand pushing him forward.

And the owner of that hand even just turned 20 years old.

A little girl in her early 20s made him feel such pressure!

Ten Lao tensed his jaw, resting his hands on the back of the leather sofa next to him, unable to recover for a long time.

But soon the call broke the deadlock.

His eyelids twitched, looked at the mobile phone that had been put aside before, walked over to pick it up, and looked down at the caller ID.

Sure enough, it was Qiao Nian who called.

He felt the invisible pressure in the air increase again, and he felt the frustration of being generalized by a yellow-haired girl.

The phone keeps ringing.

Ten elders finally picked up.

"You really are just like what grandma said, you are a wolf cub! I underestimated you."

...

The girl drifting far away in the waters of Baishi Island heard him mention Nie Qingru, her eyes became indifferent: "Five minutes are up, have you chosen yet?"

The muscles on the old ten's cheeks twitched violently, and he warned her in words: "I know what you want tungsten gold for. I advise you not to follow your mother's old path and put yourself on the road of no return."

Qiao Nian was very impatient: "I asked you if you have chosen?"

The tenth old man had never been so belittled by a junior, he choked up, and after a few seconds, he rolled the whites of his eyes to suppress the anger surging in his chest.

"I'll let you go."

When he said this, it was almost dead.

The tone is unwilling.

Qiao Nian didn't need him to be willing, he hummed, and said flatly: "You used the wrong word. It's not to let go, but to ensure that we leave safely."

Fang is the forgiveness of the superiors to the inferiors.

They are not standing at the point of view of the superior talking to the people below, but on an equal footing.

we can even say.

They also overwhelmed the old man.

It would be too arrogant for the old man to tell her 'let go'.

Elder Shi probably didn't expect Qiao Nian to be so arrogant, so he replied after a long while: "You can go, I will ensure that you leave safely. But in the same way, after you leave, you need to drive away those things in the waters outside Baishi Island. "

Chapter 4350 Are all of you outsiders so against the sky?

"make a deal."

Qiao Nian readily agreed.

Her purpose is not to blow up Baishi Island.

After all, David's friend is still on the island.

She just needs a way to ensure that she and Tungsten Gold can leave this sea area safely.

Since a deal has been reached.

Qiao Nian is ready to hang up the phone.

Old Ten suddenly asked sullenly: "Your name is Qiao Nian?"

"..."

She didn't answer, but just raised her eyebrows, her eyes were interested in waiting for the other party's next words.

Sure enough.

The old man on the other end of the phone did not hold his breath, and quickly continued: "Young people, don't be too extreme in doing things, and be careful that you don't have such good luck next time. At that time, there will be a gap between heaven and hell!"

Qiao Nian has always disliked this style of relying on the old and selling the old.

Especially the other party is not an elder she knows yet.

It's just a strange person who is hostile to him.

The other party talked to her in such a preaching tone, no doubt jumping in her minefield.

"You should take care of yourself first!"

Baishi Island.

After half a day of tossing, Borui finally found a chance to get rid of everyone and return to his residence first.

He lives alone.

The lights were not turned on in the huge room, and he turned on the lights only after he went back, took off his coat, picked up the phone at home and made a call.

at the same time.

David in continent F received his call.

"Hello."

Borui got through the call, and said directly: "Your sister left Baishi Island smoothly, and took a large amount of tungsten gold from the island."

"I knew about the news you mentioned an hour ago." David had a very good relationship with him, and said cheerfully, "I heard that you helped them a lot this time, thank you brother, if you need it in the future Just talk to me, I owe you a favor!"

Borui ignored a long paragraph of his words, frowned and asked with a serious face: "What's your sister's background?"

"Huh?" David didn't seem to understand what he meant.

Borui thought for a while: "She is not an ordinary girl, right? No, the people who can come to Baishi Island are not ordinary people, but she is different...she...you should understand what I mean."

Qiao Nian acted too differently!

It can never be just ordinary people.

The so-called ordinary people are not just those who can go to Baishi Island, but...the more unusual ones!

David was quiet for a while.

Probably thinking whether to tell him or not.

Borui waited patiently for the other party's answer.

He figured it out.

Even if David didn't say it at the end, he could understand.

Who knew that after a short thought, David said to him: "She is sun."

Borui had already made mental preparations in his heart, preparing for David not to tell him or to tell him a different identity.

But he never expected Qiao Nian to be the sun.

"She..." Borui ran out of words.

David laughed: "I knew you would react like this."

"Sorry, I couldn't tell you before, I just told you that she is my younger sister." David said apologetically, "Actually, I didn't lie to you, she is younger than me, and I have always regarded her as my younger sister in my heart. It's just that apart from our relationship, she is still my boss."

Borui lost his voice completely.

Speechless.

A girl in her 20s is Sun. Even though he has seen everyone on Baishi Island, he opened his mouth in surprise by the news and was speechless for a long while.

"People outside are like this now... um..." Borui was not good at words, and couldn't come up with a suitable adjective after holding back for a long time.

Actually, did he want to say that everyone outside is so against the sky?
