

Madam's 4491

Chapter 4491 Will they find me and find Master Cheng

This looks like 2 hours.

When Qiao Nian came out of the laboratory, it was almost 11 o'clock, and Master Cheng hadn't come back yet.

Qiao Nian was going to catch Ye Lan's lunch, so he had no choice but to stay and wait for him to come back, so he had to entrust Jiang Tianzhi to tell her when Master Cheng came back.

Jiang Tianzhi was still obsessed with the few loopholes that Qiao Nian had pointed out to him before, he agreed and sent them out again.

After Qiao Nian called him back, he hurried to the laboratory, anxious to go back and review what Qiao Nian had said.

"Where do you think Master Cheng will go?" Qiao Nian stood beside the car, and suddenly said something without beginning or end.

"Didn't Jiang Tianzhi say that? He went out with Mr. Nie." Ye Wangchuan didn't get angry after waiting outside for 2 hours, and opened the door for the girl from behind.

Qiao Nian leaned half of her body on the car door, with her arms around her, but she didn't go up: "I just think it's a little strange."

Ye Wangchuan raised his eyebrows: "Master Cheng and Mr. Nie have been friends for many years, so what's so strange about them going out together?"

"Hmm." Qiao Nian looked tired, quiet and focused, looking at him with dark eyes: "I wonder that Mr. Nie would drive here to pick up people."

"?"

"Jiang Tianzhi said that he saw Mr. Nie drive over to the laboratory to pick up people." Qiao Nian thought slightly sideways: "But based on what I have known about him for many years, he is very lazy. Even if he wants to go out, he will mostly take the subway. Otherwise, I take a taxi and rarely drive by myself."

Ye Wangchuan restrained his casual eyes, his eyes were dim: "So you think something may have happened?"

Qiao Nian let go of his hands, put his hands in his pockets, and shook his head: "It's unlikely that an accident will happen. This is Beijing, so it's not so easy to have an accident."

"I think they're going to meet someone, and it's not easy for me to know about this person, so Master Cheng didn't answer my call or reply to my message."

Ye Wangchuan's dark eyes met her, and he touched his thin lips lightly: "Hidden family?"

Qiao Nian blinked her thick black eyelashes slowly: "Do you still remember what the other party said when we left Baishi Island?"

Qiao Nian casually leaned against the side of the car, with a sluggish figure, half turned his head, and said with a mixed expression: "He knows what I'm going to do with the tungsten gold, and if he threatens me to continue researching, he will attack me."

She looked at Ye Wangchuan: "Is it possible that they couldn't find me, so they found Master Cheng."

Ye Wangchuan didn't answer the question immediately, but thought about it seriously and said to her: "I asked Zhang Yang to check their location."

at the same time.

A coffee shop in Beijing.

Nie Mi parked the car in a nearby parking space, and led Master Cheng to open the door and enter the coffee shop.

In the coffee shop.

A woman has ordered coffee and is drinking her coffee while waiting for them to come.

"It's right there." Nie Mi saw him, turned his head and said softly to Master Cheng.

Master Cheng also saw the lady entrenched by the window, squinted his eyes, and his heart sank, but he followed Nie Mi and walked over with a blank expression.

When he got closer, he realized that the other party was very young, in his early twenties, about the same age as Qiao Nian, and his appearance was also exceptional.

Even temperament is close to that of Qiao Nian.

Both of them seem to belong to the rational type, but the young lady in front of them is more gentle, while Qiao Nian is more self-centered.

Seeing Nie Mi and Master Cheng approaching, the man got up very politely and introduced himself to the two: "Old Nie, Master Cheng, please allow me to introduce myself."

Chapter 4492 Sister Nian's love rival appears!

She smiled slightly: "I'm Elena. I met Mr. Nie at a concert before, and I can be regarded as a good friend for many years."

She stood up, and it was only then that Master Cheng could see clearly what she was wearing.

Off-white suit with denim shirt, tassel earrings are smart and fashionable, and you can reduce your age. Compared with black, off-white is warmer and cleaner, decorated with tassel earrings, which neutralizes the formality of the suit.

The most important thing is that the person in front of him has a pair of brown eyes, three-dimensional facial features, and a darker outline. It can be seen that he is not from country Z.

But she speaks fluent Chinese and cannot hear any foreign accent.

"Master Cheng, I have admired your name for a long time." She stretched out her hand to Master Cheng, smiling brightly, as if waiting for Master Cheng to shake hands with her.

Master Cheng missed her, and sat down straight with a straight face: "Tell me, what do you want me for?"

Nie Mi was a little embarrassed to smooth things over in the middle, pulling the woman's attention: "He has this personality, don't worry about it."

"I know that people who engage in scientific research have their own tempers, and I understand it very well." Elena didn't show any anger or dissatisfaction, but spoke easily.

The more she behaved like this, the more worried Nie Mi became: "Let's sit down and talk first."

"OK."

Elena called the waiter slowly, ordered another cup of coffee for Nie Mi and Master Cheng, and waited for the clerk to bring two new cups of coffee.

She turned her eyes to Master Cheng: "I heard that Master Cheng is the leading physics expert in China, and also enjoys a high reputation in the world."

Master Cheng lowered his head and focused on his cup of coffee, as if he didn't hear it.

"..." Seeing that the atmosphere froze again, Nie Mi could only resign himself to smooth things over in the middle: "Hehe, that's just his temper."

Eileen smiled: "Old Nie, you said that just now."

Nie Mi had no choice but to twitch the corners of his mouth, put on an expression of 'you are not embarrassed, and I am not embarrassed', and smiled without saying a word.

Eileen roughly inferred Master Cheng's temper in just a few minutes. She stopped going around in circles and went straight to the point: "Master Cheng, did Mr. Nie tell you that I am from the island?"

Master Cheng raised his eyelids, the dark circles under his eyelids were thick, and his eyes were extremely bright and sharp: "So?"

Eileen crossed her hands on the table and chuckled again: "You don't need to be so hostile to me, we are not enemies."

Master Cheng was noncommittal, and didn't even give her a good face.

Nie Mi was already messed up, so he just didn't bother to smooth things over, and let the two of them communicate, while he drank coffee next to him and pretended not to notice.

Eileen is young after all, frowned slightly, and quickly suppressed this emotion, and smiled again: "Do you know Qiao Nian? What kind of person is she?"

Master Cheng heard Qiao Nian's name, and interrupted her impatiently: "What do you mean by asking Nian Nian? I didn't tell me that I wanted to inquire about her before I came."

Eileen didn't expect that Master Cheng would react so strongly when she just mentioned this name, even Nie Mi didn't save face and got angry on the spot.

Her smiling expression froze on her face, and she adjusted after breathing heavily. She picked up the lemonade on the table and took a sip to cover up the fleeting emotions on her face.

"Don't get excited, I'm just curious for personal reasons, and it's fine if you don't want to answer."

"Since you didn't tell me what you wanted from me, there's no need for us to continue talking." Master Cheng didn't show face, and stood up with his hands on the table to leave.

Chapter 4493 wants to discuss cooperation with you

Erina was really flustered now, she hurriedly stopped him, but couldn't maintain the hypocritical expression on her face: "Wait a minute."

Who knew that Nie Mi also stood up at this time, as if he was going to go with Master Cheng.

Elena knew that she couldn't drag it on, so before the two left, she said concisely: "Master Cheng, I know what you are studying. To be honest, what you are studying is too dangerous, and many people on the island will not allow it." Someone's touching the field."

Sure enough.

She saw that the old man in blue who had never given her face from the beginning to the end gradually stopped and listened to her.

Eileen secretly breathed a sigh of relief, and she became more calm: "I have a certain right to speak on the island, so I can have a good talk with the elders."

"So I found you through Mr. Nie this time because I want to cooperate with you."

Master Cheng seemed to be interested and asked her: "How to cooperate?"

The smile on Elena's face deepened: "You need the materials, and I can provide them without you taking any risks. As long as you say a word, I can help you get them."

She seemed to be simply talking about cooperation, but both inside and outside the words meant to step on Qiao Nian's foot.

After all, Qiao Nian almost failed to come back from Baishi Island last time for a few tons of tungsten gold.

What Elena expressed was that she was different.

Qiao Nian had to work so hard to get the raw materials. She could ask for as much as she wanted with just one sentence. There was no need for Master Cheng to be frightened or even worry about the raw materials.

"In addition to the issue of raw materials, I can also guarantee your safety to the greatest extent. In addition, I respect your freedom of experimentation. That is to say, as long as you cooperate with me, I will not interfere with what you want to study, and will maximize your safety. help you."

"The Irene family has a team of experts at the world's top level, and they will be at your disposal at any time." Eileen is confident in persuading the other party to cooperate with her.

"I know that you are a scholar, and your pursuit is much higher than that of ordinary people. So I won't tell you about monetary rewards. I know these won't impress you."

She smiled again to ease the atmosphere: "Of course, if you have financial needs, just ask me. I believe no one will give more than me."

Eileen didn't wait for Master Cheng to reply, she leaned forward slightly, and continued: "Let's continue what we said just now, I know you are a scholar and don't care about money, but you don't want your own name to be famous forever?"

"Joe..." She paused, remembering the unnecessary conflict that almost caused by mentioning Qiao Nian's name just now, her eyes flickered, and she changed her words: "The person who is working with you should have never promised you to wait for this thing to be developed, will it? Will you sign it?"

She picked up the glass on the table and took a sip of water, slowly raised her jaw, and said to Master Cheng, "I'm different."

"I will promise you the absolute right of authorship. That thing is your old research and development project, and there will be no second name in history!"

Many scientific researchers have pursued nothing more than this throughout their lives.

She is very familiar with a respected master like Master Cheng. After shrewd consideration, she offered an attractive offer that people could not refuse.

Nie Mi could hear how attractive the conditions she offered, and couldn't help but look at his friend beside him, hesitating to say something, but because of Elena's presence, he couldn't say it.

Chapter 4494 Pry the corner of sister

Master Cheng has been sizing up Elena, or examining her.

He looked at it for a long time, then sat back on the seat again, pulled out the chair and sat down, without touching the cup of coffee in front of him, he took the initiative to say: "You said you are from the island."

"Yes." Eileen smiled, unconsciously exuding a domineering aura in her gestures.

She is indeed very similar to Qiao Nian.

Around the same age.

Same great looks.

As well as her self-confidence that flows from the bottom of her bones like Qiao Nian, it is easy to connect two people of similar age.

But Master Cheng still discerned the difference between the two.

Qiao Nian's madness stems from her own ability and personality.

This Elena's madness comes from a superior family, and has little to do with her.

That's why Qiao's madness makes people take it for granted, but this Elena makes people involuntarily hate it.

"Isn't the people on your island not allowing this research to exist?" Master Cheng sounded calm, without any strangeness.

"Hey." Elena chuckled while holding the glass: "Master Cheng, you still stayed in the laboratory for too long."

She continued unhurriedly: "It is impossible for any interest group to have only one voice, and the island is the same."

"To be honest, there are some people on the island who firmly oppose your old research, but I am different."

"I disagree with them."

"You Z country people have a saying, it is better to keep it blocked than to be blocked. I think it is very good. It is better to master it than to guard against it blindly."

Eileen looked at him with a slight smile: "Master Cheng, do you think what I said is right?"

Master Cheng nodded, as if agreeing.

This made Elena excited: "Since you agree with what I said, then cooperate..."

Master Cheng interrupted her: "Please ask another master!"

Eileen's smile froze on her face, she didn't understand why he suddenly changed his attitude from being very interested, and rejected her mercilessly.

She adjusted her breathing: "Is it convenient for you to give me a reason why you don't want to cooperate with me?"

Master Cheng didn't have a good impression of her, so he gave her thumbs up without any pretense: "First, I don't need money. I'm not interested in what you call giving me the most money."

Eileen narrowed her eyes slightly: "Is there a second?"

He raised another finger: "Second, you mentioned the scarcity of raw materials. My laboratory is short of some raw materials, but everyone can think of a way, and it is not to the point where there is no way to think about it."

Eileen pursed her lips, slightly curled her fingers with her hand on the table, and tried to maintain a decent demeanor, waiting for the master's next third.

"The third and most important reason." Master Cheng met her eyes in mid-air, his face was cold and serious, without any playfulness: "Your so-called authorship right is a joke and a humiliation to me in my opinion! "

Eileen opened her mouth, extremely surprised.

From her point of view, Master Cheng saw if he could be tempted by the first two conditions, but it was hard not to be tempted by the last one. Unexpectedly, the last one became the reason for her rejection.

"...I didn't mean that."

Master Cheng didn't give her a chance to continue: "This research is not my achievement. To put it bluntly, I am the executor who turns the theory into reality. You said that there will only be my name in history in the future, so what am I?" ?thief?"

The ideal of a scientific researcher is to leave his name in history, and he is no exception.

Chapter 4495 Unsuccessful, and was paid by Nie Mi

But Elena made a little mistake.

Scientists hate and hate the most, and the two words they don't want to get involved with are-stealing.

It is impossible for him to steal the achievements of Ji Qing and be the thief of that celebrity through the ages.

"You have found the wrong person." Master Cheng propped up the table and stood up, and said to Nie Mi beside him, "Let's go."

Nie Mi did not say a word, but took a deep look at Elena, then turned and followed.

Eileen was still sitting on her seat, touching the body of the cup with her fingertips, but she wasn't in a hurry to leave, she just sat there quietly, not knowing how long it had been.

She got up slowly and called the waiter: "Pay the bill."

The clerk came over with a small book, flipped through it, and looked up at her with a smile: "Miss, you have already paid for this table."

Seeing that Elena was distracted, she said, "That old gentleman in black paid the bill."

Eileen immediately reacted.

It's Nie Mi!

She only belatedly looked at her mobile phone on the table. Nie Mi sent her a message not long ago— 【Don't call me next time. 】

Eileen slammed her phone on the table, her expression that had been maintained all morning finally turned cold, ignored the clerk who was talking to her, took her bag and got up and left.

The clerk didn't react for a while, and pushed the door out after watching her leave.

"Why is this person angry?"

...

Parking outside.

Nie Mi chased Master Cheng out. Seeing that Master Cheng was hailing a taxi on the side of the road, he hurried to catch up and block the opponent's hand.

"Master Cheng, listen to me."

Master Cheng has to take a taxi again.

Nie Mi rubbed her swollen eyebrows, with a helpless expression on her face, stood in front of him again, withstood his pressure, and explained: "I didn't know at first that she came here for the project that Niannian and you are researching. "

Master Cheng really looked at him.

Nie Mi hurriedly said: "I met her at a concert overseas. At that time, a close friend of mine introduced that she is from the island. She also has a doctorate in engineering. She also likes music and studies classical instruments. I told her We chatted, and the initial impression was okay. The day before yesterday, she found me, said she was coming to Beijing, and asked me to meet up, and I went out too. We chatted, and she brought the topic to engineering. I know a domestic master in this field, and I have an idea to fund domestic scientific research."

"I think that the funding of the Nine Institutes has been tight all year round, and many research projects are short of funds, so I recommend you to get acquainted."

Nie Mi looked helpless: "Who knows that she came here for Niannian. If I knew that she came here for Niannian, I wouldn't be able to introduce you to each other."

Master Cheng was also angry for a while, without Nie Mi explaining so much, he figured it out. He knew that Nie Mi was probably deceived by others, so he found himself out.

He put down the hand blocking the car, looked at his friend and said, "Hey, you don't get in touch with people on the island. No one knows what they are thinking in their hearts!"

King City knows that there are not many people in the hidden family, let alone a higher level, more mysterious island.

Master Cheng didn't know what the island was at first.

It was Nie Mi who gave him some science popularization on the way here, so that Master Cheng had a basic concept of the island, but he himself didn't like the feeling of the island and the people on the island very much.

In his opinion, these people on the island are too hypocritical.

While living in a corner, they pretended to be secluded, and at the same time, they were as ambitious as the girls who came to the door today, and their calculations were loud.

Chapter 4496 found it, they are in a coffee shop near Chang'an Avenue

Master Cheng didn't like the feeling of this group of people.

He also likes Nie Mi not to get too close to these people.

Nie Mi smiled wryly after hearing the words: "After this time, I will never get close to her. Don't worry, I won't come out with her again in the future."

"Yeah." Master Cheng didn't say any more, followed him to the parking lot, and said on the way, "Qiao Nian is leaving today?"

Nie Mi is an informant, so he knew Qiao Nian's itinerary, and immediately replied, "Well, it seems to be an afternoon flight."

Master Cheng nodded and stopped talking again.

Nie Mi raised his hand and touched his earlobe, knowing that he had done something bad with good intentions today, and it was not easy to find a topic, so the two of them found the car silently, got in the car and went back to the Ninth Institute.

...

Joe read Guanlan at the same time.

Ye Wangchuan received a call from Zhang Yang.

He walked aside to answer the phone, and then returned to the girl: "Zhang Yang found out, they went to a coffee shop near Chang'an Avenue to meet someone. Now they have separated from that person, Mr. Nie drove Master Cheng back to the Ninth Institute..."

Qiao Nian leaned back, narrowed his eyes to look at him, and smiled wildly: "Where is the person from? Can you check?"

Ye Wangchuan knew that she wanted to ask this question, so he said slowly: "The other party used a false identity to enter the country, and the name on the entry and exit customs registration form has been erased. People from country Y seem to have little relationship with the hermit family at present, unlike People from M state."

Qiao Nian frivolously said, "That's the person from Baishi Island."

Ye Wangchuan was noncommittal, and only said: "It's not sure yet, I can only say it's possible." Of course it might not be.

Qiao Nian understood what he meant, and didn't speak, seemingly lost in thought.

at this time.

The outside window was knocked.

Ye Wangchuan pressed the glass, and saw Ye Lan calling them outside: "What are you doing here, go in."

"You go in first, we'll come right away." Ye Fanchuan answered before Qiao Nian, shielding her from Ye Lan's exploring sight.

Ye Lan looked at him first, and then at the girl sitting in the passenger seat who didn't want to talk much, thinking that the two young men were dating in the car, so she grabbed the bag in her hand wisely, and nodded to Ye Wangchuan: "You Grandpa and the others are here, you will come over soon."

Before Ye Lan left, she wanted to say hello to Qiao Nian, but after thinking about it, it's better not to disturb the young people's relationship, so she left first.

Qiao Nian saw Ye Lan's figure walking in front of the car, gradually walking away, pressed the swollen eyebrows, and pressed the corners of the eyes: "Maybe I think too much."

She always feels that someone is staring at herself recently.

It happened that Ye Lan called again to remind her.

Qiao Nian stopped thinking about it, unbuckled his seat belt, opened the door and got out of the car first.

After lunch today, they will return to Independent Island.

So many people came to the house.

Her grandfather, her father, Jiang Li, and Jiang Yao all came, then Mr. Ye and Aunt Ye, and Chen Chen was also there.

But this time is a serious family dinner.

Except for the two of them, there were no outsiders.

After Qiao Nian entered Guanlan Pass, he said to Ye Wangchuan who was walking in front: "You go there first, I'll go to the bathroom."

Saying that, she walked towards the bathroom.

Ye Wangchuan received another call from Ye Lan, so he had no choice but to go there first.

Qiao Nian went to the bathroom to take a shower with cold water to clear his mind.

Guanlan is at noon.

There is no one in the spacious restroom.

Qiao Nian turned on the faucet and rinsed his hands. The cold water flowed down his fingertips, which relieved his mood a little.

Chapter 4497 The rival in love came to the door

She thought that Ye Lan and the others were still waiting, so it didn't take long. When her mind cleared up a bit, Qiao Nian turned off the water in the tap, wiped her fingertips with a tissue, and prepared to go back.

From time to time, there are waiters and guests passing by in the corridor.

Qiao Nian looked indifferent, with his hands in his pockets, and he was walking with a golden knife.

Sudden.

She was hit * her left shoulder.

Immediately afterwards, she heard someone apologize immediately: "Ah, I'm sorry. Did I hit you? I was not careful when I was walking and didn't notice you."

Qiao Nian didn't care, turned sideways to avoid the other party's hand, and said in a low and hoarse voice, "It's okay."

The other party lost his hand, so he apologized to her again: "I'm really sorry, how about I take you to the hospital for a checkup?"

" ... "

This was originally just a small thing.

But the other party seemed to be unwilling to let go, and instead insisted on pestering the person who was hit by her not to let go.

Qiao Nian didn't look at her at first, she just planned to hurry to the box that Ye Lan booked, but after being stopped twice, she couldn't help but look over.

The other party looks about her age.

Excellent appearance.

But from the outline of her facial features, it can be seen that she is not from Beijing, nor from country Z.

Those brown eyes... Qiao Nian squinted her eyes and took another look. She always felt a little impressed by these eyes, but couldn't remember where she saw them for a while.

The man's starry eyes flickered slightly, and he raised his hand again to caress him: "Sister, don't you really want to go to the hospital?"

Qiao Nian turned to one side, precisely avoiding the hand she put on his shoulder, with a rather indifferent expression: "No need."

The man didn't say anything, took out his mobile phone, and read to Qiao: "Well, let's exchange contact information, do you need to call me?"

Qiao Nian looked at her again.

The man stood there very calmly, as if asking for her contact information was only for the convenience of her claiming afterwards, without any other purpose.

Qiao Nian smiled.

Brows and eyes are quite frivolous, and he digs his ears: "Do you want my phone number?"

"Uh." Her reaction obviously exceeded the other party's expectations. After a moment of hesitation, the other party asked, "Is it convenient for you?"

Qiao Nian slowly took out her cell phone from her sweater and asked her, "Your phone number."

"1XXXXXXXX." The man held back his surprise and reported a series of numbers.

Qiao Nian typed very quickly in her hand, and called her almost as soon as she finished reporting the number.

not long.

The man's cell phone rang.

Qiao Nian didn't wait for the other party to find the phone, and said, "My number."

Then she didn't care about the other party's reaction, and walked away.

The other party's movements of rummaging through her bag to find her phone gradually stopped as she walked away, and soon a man in black appeared beside her.

"Miss."

Elena speaks.

The man in black followed her line of sight to look at the back of the girl who was walking away, and then looked back with disdain in his eyes: "Miss, what do you want her phone number for? How can she have your contact information."

"Don't underestimate her."

Eileen slowly lowered her eyelashes, found the phone from her bag, and looked at the string of numbers that appeared on the screen: "She is the one my fiance likes."

When the man in black heard the words, there was a strong resentment on his brows, and he whispered: "You are the eldest lady of the Irene family, the most outstanding person in this generation."

"They want you to be their fiancée, it depends on what you want, as long as you don't like it, the big house..."

Chapter 4498 Sister Nian investigates the other party

What he meant.

Eileen has a distinguished status, and the choice is actually in her hands.

But Eileen turned her head and glanced at him. That glance seemed calm and didn't mean to blame. The man in black didn't dare to speak any more.

See the man in black and stop talking.

Eileen saved the missed number, and said in an inaudible tone, "How can that trash Moody be my husband?"

"Before I came here, I investigated the grandson of Shi Lao who was living abroad. His ability is not inferior to the few heir candidates carefully cultivated on the island, and even higher than those people."

"The old man lost his son in his later years, and only has one daughter and granddaughter. In order to ensure his position on the island, he must put all his treasures on his grandson!"

Eileen raised her hand, and her eyes fell on the bracelet hanging on Hao's wrist. The silver bracelet was beautiful under the light.

She is as beautiful as Haoyue, and her pupils are full of ambition.

"And Ye Wangchuan has different eyes, even if he returns to the family, he will eventually become the successor of the family. His different eyes doom him to a bad blood, and he will always need the help of my wife."

"We will become a community of interests beyond feelings, and I can also rely on him to truly enter the inner circle of the island."

"There is only a small obstacle in front of me now. I have no reason to give up the best option and choose the poor one."

The man in black looked at her with distressed eyes: "Then do you like him?"

"Like it?" Elena looked at him as if she was looking at a monster, as if she was laughing at some stupid question he asked: "I haven't even met him before."

The man in black was silent again.

Eileen disapproved and rolled her eyes: "Besides, is it important to like it or not?"

The man in black said in a deep voice this time: "You will always meet someone you are attracted to in the future, in case you regret it in the future..."

Eileen directly interrupted him: "Let's talk about the future!"

"...yes."

The man in black lowered his head again and stopped talking.

Eileen looked at the direction where Qiao Nian was leaving, although she didn't express her disdain on the surface like the man in black beside her.

But it was obvious that her attitude towards Qiao Nian was very average.

"She looks good, no wonder men like it."

It's a pity that there are thousands of beautiful women in this world, and beauty alone cannot last long.

Eileen believed that she could win this war without gunpowder by relying on her beauty, family background behind her, and being able to bring generous returns to men.

"Let's go."

In the box.

Qiao Nian was the last to arrive, and was arranged to sit next to Ye Wangchuan, with Jiang Li on her right.

Jiang Li was busy talking to Mr. Ye, so he didn't notice that the girl had been sending messages to someone with her head down since she sat down.

Ye Wangchuan was also chatting with Jiang Weishang on his right, mainly because he was listening to Jiang Weishang, very polite and patient, coaxing Jiang Weishang to nod frequently, and the more he looked at him, the more satisfied he became.

He even took the initiative to mention Qiao Nian.

Ask them both about their plans for the future.

Qiao Nian sat with her back facing the window, against the light, so she couldn't see her expression clearly, only her slender eyelashes curled slightly.

Keep your eyes focused and serious on the screen.

The action of inputting information on the hands is getting faster and faster, and more familiar.

Ye Wangchuan glanced over from the angle, just in time to see the colorful and flashing codes on her mobile phone.

He put his hands on the back of the girl's chair, unobtrusively helping her to block the sight of her surroundings, while talking to Jiang Weishang as if he had no other distractions: "Look at her, everything depends on her thoughts."

Chapter 4499 I want to introduce someone to Jiang Li

"You are always used to her." Jiang Weishang said so, he couldn't stop smiling and looked at his granddaughter, just in time Ye Wangchuan blocked his sight in advance, did not see what Qiao Nian was doing, only saw She was playing with her mobile phone with her head down.

Ten minutes later.

Qiao Nian raised his head, sat lazily and carelessly on his seat, and put the phone next to his hand, just in time to hear Jiang Li talking.

"...Old man, why am I in a hurry. Well, there are elder brothers and Nian Nian in front of me. One of them is older than me, and the other has a partner. They are not in a hurry, and I am even less in a hurry!"

"You really don't want to meet the granddaughter of my comrade-in-arms. She came back from abroad. She is outstanding in everything, no worse than the girls you usually know."

"Don't, old man." Jiang Li's face turned green, and he kept peeking at Jiang Weishang's reaction.

Seeing if my grandfather heard the chat here, he covered his face with his hands and said in a low voice, "Just let me go, I haven't thought about entering the cage of marriage so quickly."

Ye Maoshan was amused by him and laughed, and half-truthfully joked: "You really don't want it? If you really don't want it, I can introduce him to your elder brother."

Jiang Li made a sweat-wiping expression in relief: "You can do whatever you want, just do whatever you want! Just don't think about me."

Ye Maoshan glared at him: "You kid..."

Jiang Li smiled, but didn't let go.

Ye Maoshan just glanced casually, and was not really angry. He sighed and said to him: "Hai Yue is a rare and good girl, just forget it if you don't want to."

Seeing this, Jiang Li hurriedly said sweetly: "It's because she is a good girl that I told you to find her a new one. Wouldn't it be a waste to introduce such a good girl to me?"

"You always know my reputation..."

Ye Maoshan looked deeply into his eyes, shook his head, and said nothing more: "It's fine if you don't want to, I don't force things about young people."

He took a fancy to Jiang Li.

Jiang Li looks like a fool, he is more bohemian than Qin Si among the younger generation, and he went to the entertainment circle to become a star and play music.

Many people look down on Jiang Li, thinking that Jiang Li will have no future in the future.

Ye Maoshan doesn't think so.

How can a man only look at conditions?

I think he was not very good at the beginning, but later on he came out differently.

The most important thing to look at a man is to see whether his sense of responsibility and three views are correct.

At this point, Jiang Li is far ahead of many younger generations in Beijing.

Whether it was dealing with the relationship with his parents or the conflict between Qiao Nian and Jiang Xianrou, Jiang Li was a normal person in their family.

Always be able to look at the conflict from a fair perspective, not like Jiang Yao, but everyone praises him, saying that he is young and promising, and the future will be great.

As a result, whenever something happened, Sanguan followed his selfishness.

How can such a man be reliable.

"Haitong is back?" Ye Lan interjected at this moment.

Ye Maoshan poured a glass of water into the glass: "I arrived yesterday. I visited my house in the evening and brought me some local specialties. We chatted together for a while, and I just asked her if she had a date, so I said to help and keep an eye out." This."

Jiang Li hurriedly lowered his head and pretended to eat food, so as not to be called.

Fortunately, Ye Lan caught a glimpse of his quail shape, pursed her lips and snickered, and didn't mention him: "Then why didn't you ask her to come over for dinner today?"

Ye Maoshan said: "Isn't this inappropriate?"

Ye Lan nodded after thinking about it: "Yes."

Chapter 4500 A person who looks like sister Nian

Ye Maoshan didn't mean anything else, but just happened to be talking here, and he remembered: "This time, there is a friend who came back with her, who is also an engineering student. He also likes classical music, and he is also an expert in this field. , and published works online, and there are many fans on social software."

He smiled and looked at Qiao Nian: "It's almost the same as Nian Nian."

Qiao Nian just raised her head, and met the gentle eyes of Old Man Shang Ye, and heard him say, "It's a pity that Nian Nian is in a hurry to leave, otherwise, if I introduce them to each other, maybe the two of them have something in common."

Ye Lan was also amazed when she heard this: "Engineering major? Play music and have many fans on the Internet? That's really similar to Nian Nian."

First of all, it is difficult to match engineering and music.

Generally engaged in high-tech engineering, they rarely play music, which is more literary and soft.

However, Qiao Nian and that person are both good at both, and also specialized in both.

Ye Lan is also interested in this person.

"how old is she?"

Ye Maoshan thought about it and said, "It should be about the same age as Haitong, aren't they classmates?"

In a blink of an eye, Ye Maoshan patted his forehead again, and said with a smile: "Look at my memory, this dog's memory is getting worse and worse as I get older."

"Haitong said that her classmate has a very high IQ, and she skipped a grade to go to their class. She is a genius that both the school and the tutor value."

The people on the table couldn't calm down when they heard these two words, and they all looked in Qiao Nian's direction.

genius...

Is there anyone here who is more suitable for this title than this one.

If Qiao Nian wants to say that he is not a genius, there will be no geniuses in the world.

Similarly, a genius who is usually boastful outside comes to her and becomes an ordinary person.

I don't know what level of genius the classmate of the comrade-in-arms granddaughter mentioned by Old Man Ye is, and how it compares to Qiao Nian.

The focus of everyone's eyes was a little lazily leaning on the back of the chair, holding a mobile phone in one hand, completely unaware that the topic was talking about himself.

The source of the code she just entered has been found.

"What are you looking at?"

At this time, there is a familiar breath approaching.

Qiao Nian didn't change her position, she was used to letting him approach her, and said casually, "I bumped into a person just before I came in, and that person insisted on exchanging contact information with me, so I checked what she wanted to do."

She pushed the phone out, pushed it in front of Ye Wangchuan, and motioned him to look at it: "The hotel I stayed in was not from Beijing, but I knew that Guanlan could still come in."

Guanlan is located on Chang'an Avenue.

The restaurants on this street are about the money.

Generally, wealthy people would avoid restaurants or clubs on this street, for fear of embarrassing scenes where they would not be allowed to enter.

And Guanlan is a leader on Chang'an Avenue, but not everyone can come here to eat.

Qiao Nian did not doubt the other party because of this.

She noticed that there was no box there, but the other party bumped into her. Under normal circumstances, it is impossible to bump into someone without playing with the phone while walking.

The man ran straight into her.

Then insisted on her contact information.

It is hard to say that this is not a well-planned 'encounter'.

"I checked the hotel check-in information. She checked in yesterday. She lived in the penthouse suite and even booked the room next door."

"Her check-in information is filled with a country Z name, Aina."

"There is no one with the surname Ai in Beijing."

The surname Ai is relatively rare.
