

Madam's 4521

Chapter 4521 Sister Nian doesn't want evidence

"By the way, have you contacted the person I asked you to contact?" Nie Qingru withdrew from the emotion at this moment.

Shadow lowered his head: "Miss Elena is not on the island."

Nie Qingru couldn't hide her disappointment on her face: "How could it be such a coincidence?"

Shadow said: "Since the news spread that Elder Ten is going to marry Irene's family, not only the island, but many outside forces also want to curry favor."

"In this way, there will be more people looking for Miss Irene."

"It may be because of this reason that Miss Elena was supposed to end her studies abroad and return to the island a few days ago, but she didn't go back. She chose to go home with her classmates and visit their homes."

Nie Qingru frowned, suppressing the irritability in her eyes: "When can she go back?"

Shadow stared at his toes: "This subordinate doesn't know. The people on the island didn't say anything. They only said that I would go home when Miss Elena had enough fun."

Nie Qingru suddenly had nothing to say.

The two stared and stared quietly for half a minute.

Just as Nie Qingru collected her emotions, she was about to go to the company first.

Shadow suddenly received a call.

After he finished answering the phone, he quickly stopped in front of Nie Qingru who was about to get into the car, with a serious and anxious expression: "Queen, something happened."

Privy Council.

Nie Qingru's footsteps were like meteors, and he went straight to the outside of the conservative Xue Lao's lounge.

"Female, hello Ms. Nie."

There was someone guarding the door outside the conservative faction. Seeing Nie Qingru hurried over, he hurriedly stopped the person outside. He almost blurted out and called her queen, but changed his words in time.

"Old Xue is discussing matters with the archbishop, please wait a moment..."

"I can't wait!"

Nie Qingru disregarded the obstruction, passed the people blocking the way, raised her hand and pushed the door open with a 'bang' and entered.

"Ms. Nie."

"Ms. Nie."

The people behind reached out to stop them.

Was caught by the shadow following Nie Qingru, and got entangled with him.

Nie Qingru went inside smoothly.

The two people who were talking inside immediately stopped talking, and looked in the direction of the noisy voice at the door, and bumped into Nie Qingru who came in head-on.

The archbishop in red robes immediately got up, and looked back at the old man in green shirt who was sitting in the same place with a half-smile.

laughed and said: "Xue said earlier that he had an appointment with other guests today, so I wouldn't delay you for so long."

The old man in the blue shirt had a sullen face and dark eyes, but he didn't open his mouth to refute.

Quentin picked up the documents on the table and said lightly, "Since you have other guests, I'll leave first, and we'll talk next time when we have a chance."

As he spoke, Nie Qingru, who didn't even look in, passed by Nie Qingru and left the room...

Quentin's arrogant disregard.

Undoubtedly, it was a slap in the face for Nie Qingru.

Nie Qingru gritted her teeth for a moment, turned her head, and stared fiercely at the man's leaving back with sudden poisonous eyes.

But soon.

She forced herself to suppress the anger surging in her heart, pinched the palms of her hands, turned her neck stiffly, and continued to walk towards the person who was still inside.

Old Xue saw her step by step, got up to fetch water and made a cup of tea, put it on the opposite seat, and spoke first: "What are you looking for?"

Nie Qingru is no longer the queen of the hermit family.

equal to him.

Out of respect for her contribution and sacrifice to the hermit family, Mr. Xue is still willing to put her in a higher position than himself.

Nie Qingru felt better at the burning pain in her heart. She picked up the tea, took a sip, put down the cup, and said hastily, "I want your help."

Chapter 4522 Nie Qingru wins allies

"My help?" The old man in blue obviously didn't understand the meaning, and raised his head slightly, looking at her strangely.

Nie Qingru couldn't take a sip of saliva, and said in a hurry: "Qiao Nian sent Xicheng to David's territory in F continent. David will hold an execution show in the base camp three days after he speaks out."

"..." Old Xue's expression faded.

Nie Qingru hasn't noticed yet: "I want you to do me a favor, help me find a way to stop this farce and rescue people."

After she finished speaking, she waited for half a minute before hearing Mr. Xue's reply.

"So, Empress, you are going to provoke her again."

"..."

Nie Qingru frowned, as if she was not happy with what Xue Lao said.

Could she be a provocation to Qiao Nian?

In her eyes, she is not only a superior, but also an elder, a grandmother.

Even if Qiao Nian stood in front of her today and was slapped on the face by her, what Qiao Nian should do was to reflect on what she had done wrong, instead of resisting and blaming her, not to mention that what Qiao Nian did now could be regarded as revenge for herself...

"I've told you countless times not to provoke her. She is not easy to provoke. Didn't we meet each other in Continent F before?"

Mr. Xue was probably too disappointed in her, so he spoke very directly.

"Qiao Nian didn't pay attention to me, nor did you pay attention to your grandmother. Don't expect her to ignore you on the basis of blood relationship! The best way to get along with her is not to mess with her. If you don't mess with her, she won't mess with you."

Nie Qingru interrupted him impatiently: "Just ask if you can help me!"

The old man in green shirt straightened up slightly and leaned back, probably thinking about it. After a while, he looked into Nie Qingru's eyes.

"The Xue family's influence in Continent F was uprooted by Qiao Nian as early as last time. Even if I wanted to help, I was powerless."

This means not helping.

But Nie Qingru looks strong, but in fact, he has long been unable to mobilize people other than conservatives in the Privy Council.

So even though she was very angry, she suppressed her emotions and tried her best to maintain a decent face, looking at the old man in blue with sharp eyes.

Know it with reason and move it with emotion.

"Mr. Xue, you are an old man from the hermit family, you should know that the only one left in the Zhai family is Xicheng."

"I think that if it wasn't for their family's sacrifice, the peaceful coexistence between Independence Continent and M Continent would not have been possible for so many years. All of you know who the murderer was, but you all chose to fear that person's power and become deaf and blind..."

"Now that person has passed away for many years, and it has been passed on to the younger generation. Do you still just want to be a person who can't see or hear?"

"A hundred years from now, we will always go to see God. When you see your old friend again, you can tell me like you are now that you can't help."

"...You are powerless, you have not even protected the only descendant of their family, and you are not even willing to work hard."

have to say.

Nie Qingru is able to ascend to the top of the hidden family as a woman, at least she has some ability to stir people's hearts.

Follow what she said.

The wavering of the old man in blue can be clearly seen.

Among the group of old foxes in the Privy Council, only the people in front of you can show friendship and like to nostalgia.

Nie Qingru never thought of going to the Archbishop or Lei Kai.

She came directly to find Mr. Xue, and she also saw this point.

Chapter 4523 convinced Mr. Xue

"Old Xue, I can only find you." Nie Qingru saw that his psychological defense was gradually collapsing, and immediately softened his voice: "Others have long forgotten the tragedy of the Zhai family, and they don't know how much Xicheng has gone through...Only you still remember them."

As soon as Mr. Xue raised his head, he met Nie Qingru's weeping eyes, and when he saw a woman like Nie Qingru, he would bring up the past with red eyes.

Old Xue said that there is no vibration is false.

He hurriedly got up: "Queen, please don't do this."

Nie Qingru quickly stopped talking, and wiped the tears from the corners of her eyes with her hands, as if she didn't want her vulnerable side to be seen.

"I know it's difficult for me to come to you like this, but there is only one person left in Xicheng in Zhai's family. I have already felt sorry for him. If I can't keep the last member of his family, I don't know how I will have the face to meet him in the future."

Who in the hermit family didn't know that Nie Qingru and the young master of the Zhai family were a couple back then, and the two were childhood sweethearts, and they had reached the point where they were talking about getting married.

Until Ji Wu Falcon rose like a shooting star in a bright night in the Independent Continent, suddenly breaking the world pattern and almost annexing the hidden family.

The Hermit Family had to bow their heads to Ji Wu Falcon, and the two sides negotiated to choose the oldest way of cooperation—marriage.

And Ji Wufeng chose Nie Qingru, who already had a boyfriend at the time, from the vast number of candidates.

In order to make the marriage go smoothly, the Nie family and the Yinshi family had to forcibly conceal that Nie Qingru already had a boyfriend, and even talked about marriage, forcing Nie Qingru to bow her head.

And when the two parties finalize the marriage contract, there is no room for maneuver.

The Zhai family member was too young, so he ran to find Ji Wuzhen, and even asked Ji Wuzhen to marry someone else on the eve of the wedding.

The interests of all parties involved in the marriage of the two parties are too complicated, and it is far from being as simple as the so-called whether they have feelings for each other.

Ji Wu Falcon is a smart person, there is no way that he would cancel the wedding that was on the verge of death, regardless of the interests of both parties, just because of his fiancée's 'boyfriend' who suddenly came out with a few words.

But the youngest of the Zhai family didn't understand this, and was imprisoned by Ji Wufeng in the end.

Do the math...

Although what Ji Wu Falcon did at the beginning was too heartless.

But Ji Wu Falcon was also the one being deceived, after all, what the Hermit family and the Nie family told him at the beginning was that Nie Qingru was not in a relationship.

What happened back then was a bad debt.

No one can tell whether the fire in Zhai's house was caused by Ji Wufun.

"How do you want me to help?" After thinking for a long time, the old man in green shirt finally couldn't resist the sympathy in his heart, and let go.

Nie Qingru wiped away the tears from the corners of her eyes, looked at him with red eyes, didn't immediately say what she wanted him to do, but thanked him first.

"His spirit in heaven will thank you for your generous help today."

"And I thank you on behalf of Xicheng."

After the two high hats came down, Mr. Xue was forced to board the boat. It was hard to say that he was only going to help a little, and he didn't plan to completely stand against Qiao Nian.

Nie Qingru said: "The most important thing right now is to find out where Xicheng is hidden and ensure his safety."

Old Xue thought about the same thing, so he said: "... find a way to contact and see if there is anyone who can help find out the situation in Continent F, and find Shao Zhai."

"Thanks."

Nie Qingru thanked you again, with an extremely sincere attitude.

The old man in the green shirt waved his hand, feeling like he had a splitting headache. For a while, he didn't know whether the decision he made was correct or whether he agreed to her too impulsively.

Chapter 4524 What does Zhai Xicheng have to do with me

No matter what he thought, Nie Qingru did not waste time in achieving his goal, so he stood up and said, "I'm also going to find a relationship, and find a way to find someone."

The way Nie Qingru thought of was to contact the people on the island.

There are not many people in the Hermit Family who are capable of competing with Qiao Nian.

Neither the Archbishop nor Lei Kai is on her side.

She can only choose foreign aid.

Nie Qingru first called Shi Lao.

The other side took her call to save face.

"Hello."

"Hey, ten elders, can you do me a favor?"

Nie Qingru knew that the other party was not Mr. Xue, and had no friendship with her, so she didn't go around in circles, and went straight to explain the matter.

"You have to deal with her, and I have to deal with her. We have the same goal, why not cooperate to solve her together."

The old man laughed and answered her in a calm manner: "It's true that I want to deal with her, but why should I cooperate with you? I also want to help you save people."

Nie Qingru didn't change his face: "Our goals are the same."

Elder Shi scoffed again: "The person you mentioned is of no use to me, his life or death has nothing to do with me. Even if I want to cooperate with you, I will not save him. Saving him will only make me scare the snake, otherwise There is no benefit beyond that."

Nie Qingru's expression changed slightly this time, he clenched his back molars, and softened his voice: "You always take it for my sake..."

"There is only cooperation between us, not friendship." Elder Ten interrupted her straightforwardly: "There are regulations on the island that do not allow friendship with the outside world beyond cooperation, so please don't embarrass me, Mr. Nie."

Nie Qingru clearly knew the status of the other party.

The regulations on the island cannot restrain the other party at all.

The so-called rules and conditions are nothing but reasons for the other party to reject me.

Nie Qingru took a deep breath, and firmly grasped the armrest of the car door with her left hand. The veins on the back of her hand were bulging, and she forced a smile.

"You always said so."

She is not a stalker.

Also knowing that the other party does not take Zhai Xicheng seriously, it is already impossible to help him.

Nie Qingru raised the corners of her mouth, with that dazzling smile still on her face, she forced herself to say: "Since the old man is inconvenient to help, I will think of other ways."

She didn't give the other party a chance to speak, and said again: "Excuse me."

Then Nie Qingru hung up the phone.

She stared straight ahead, and slowly put down the phone. At the same time, the smile on her face became cold and vicious.

The driver is driving in front.

Shadow sat on the co-pilot and kept an eye on Nie Qingru's every move behind her. Seeing her hang up the phone, she didn't speak for a while.

Shadow whispered worriedly: "Queen, ten elders won't help?"

"He said that the rules on the island can't easily interfere with outside affairs..." Nie Qingru sneered: "Hmph, it's just an excuse. He just saw me lose power, and he didn't want to confront that wolf cub too early. He planned to see us bite each other. He wants to pick up the bargain later."

Shadow himself is a person who came out of the island, and he knows very well how arrogant these people on the island are, and they don't pay attention to people outside.

The queen is already considered a top existence outside, and in the eyes of those people, it is nothing more than that.

It's normal for ten elders to refuse to help.

only...

His eyes were full of worry: "Then we..."

Nie Qingru's face was frosty: "He is not the only one who has the final say on the island. Since he is unwilling to help me, we can find other people."

Shadow cheered up: "You mean?"

Chapter 4525 Their Ji family is sorry I was first

Nie Qingru gracefully placed her hands in front of her body, lowered her eyes slightly, and said slowly, "Isn't there still the Irene family and Dafang?"

Shadow was awakened immediately, and lowered his voice: "We have been cooperating with Shi Lao, and suddenly changed people, in case he finds out..."

Nie Qingru interrupted him impatiently: "I asked him for help with something, but he refused to help me. What can I do? I can't sit still! Wait for that evil person to execute Xicheng!"

"..."

Shadow was silent for a long time, and secretly sighed inwardly.

"Yes, Empress."

Nie Qingru didn't look at him at all, but turned her head to the left, watching the scenery passing by outside the window with sharp eyes.

"You should understand me. I have missed it once, and no one in his family can die because of me again."

"I see."

"You do not understand."

Nie Qingru clenched her hands tightly, the veins on the back of her hands were bulging, her face was still calm and elegant, only the gradually ferocious eyes betrayed her.

"If I had known that evil would be so vicious, I would not have easily found someone to steal the data. Who would have thought that she would kill Xicheng even if she didn't want evidence!"

"She guessed it was me."

"She is revenge on me!"

Nie Qingru's breathing gradually became rapid.

"I just can't figure it out. Those two people didn't die. Her friend was just stabbed twice. I heard that he has passed the critical period and his life will not be in danger."

"It's good for her, she sent Xicheng to Continent F without saying a word, and released the news that there will be an execution show..."

"I don't understand. We are obviously relatives. Even if she doesn't have any affection for me, she should be very clear about what Xicheng means to me."

"The Ji family was sorry for me first, why did she treat me like this?!"

Shadow opened his mouth, wanted to speak several times, but swallowed the words of admonition on the verge of his mouth.

—Ji Wu Falcon is dead.

—It is not the kind-hearted and weak Ji Qing who is alive now.

—She is Qiao Nian.

—The empress should no longer have conflicts with Qiao Nian, nor should she have any illusions about Qiao Nian, imagining that Qiao Nian would understand her mother's pain just like Ji Qing.

Shadow couldn't say a word.

He knew that these were all mental stimulation for Nie Qingru.

He can no longer stimulate the fragile nerves of the queen, even if he knows that she is going to the wrong abyss step by step, he can only watch and accompany her.

Because Ye Fanchuan was accidentally injured, Qiao Nian couldn't leave for a while.

The next day Ye Lan knew the news and rushed to the Rhine to visit someone who was injured. Jiang Li, Zhang Yang and others came with her.

Jiang Li and Ye Lan came empty-handed.

Only Zhang Yang was carrying a large basket of fruits and tonics.

As soon as Zhang Yang entered the door, when he saw Qiao Nian, he explained in a low voice: "Miss Qiao, I didn't say it. The eldest lady heard the news that Master Wang was injured from someone else."

"Um."

Qiao Nian just woke up, she was still wearing pajamas, she put a hoodie over her head, and opened the door for a few people lazily, unable to keep her eyes open.

Hearing what Zhang Yang said again, she didn't take it seriously.

Qiao Nian turned sideways to get out of the way.

Let Ye Lan and the others go in first.

Then he walked to the bar and talked to a few people.

"He's still sleeping in the house."

Qiao Nian poured a glass of water, turned around and asked, "Do you want to wake him up?"

Ye Lan immediately said: "No, wait for him to sleep more."

"Yes." Qiao Nian had no objection, and also felt that the patient should rest more.

Chapter 4526 Who made him lose

She took out a few more cups, poured tea into the cups, added hot water, and prepared to serve them.

Ye Lan came over to help, and said: "I also heard about the phone call from the brand side of the shopping mall, so I didn't bother you."

Qiao Nian asked her to take two glasses, and the rest came by herself, and followed Ye Lan, quite patiently: "No."

She waited for Ye Lan to put down the cup, and then put down the cup in her hand, her eyes darkened, she thought for a while and said: "We didn't mean to hide it from you. Wang Chuan was afraid that you and grandpa would be worried, so he..."

"I know." Ye Lan turned around and touched her hand, with a soft smile on the corner of his mouth, "I was also worried about coming to have a look, so I didn't tell the old man."

Qiao Nian looked at her and understood that what Ye Lan wanted to express was that she, like them, would choose to hide it for fear of worrying her relatives.

Ye Lan patted the back of her hand lightly again, and said with a smile: "I received an apology call from the brand in the morning, which shocked me."

"I called Qin Si and Jiang Li later, and I felt relieved knowing that he was only slightly injured. I came here to see him, and I was worried that you might be frightened by the way."

"As long as you are fine."

Of course, Qiao Nian wouldn't be frightened by the small scene, but when he heard Ye Lan say this, his heart was still lightly rubbed and softened uncontrollably.

"Sorry, Aunt Ye, I didn't protect him well."

Qiao Nian lowered her eyes, looking annoyed.

Ye Lan covered her mouth and laughed when she heard it: "You, you really... Nian Nian why do you think so."

"?" Seeing the girl's eyes full of doubts.

Ye Lan stopped laughing, put down her hands and said, "He's a man, boys should protect girls, even if they get hurt, it's okay."

Ye Lan put his hand on her shoulder, and patted her lightly twice: "You don't have to take it to heart, he was thrown into the compound by his grandfather to train before, and he was injured twice in three days, so he lived to this age. You don't have to Never mind him, he's thick-skinned."

The door opens.

A man in a nightgown came out from inside, with a hoarse voice that sick people often have: "Sister-in-law, I heard you * my girlfriend when I was inside."

Ye Lan immediately looked at him worriedly, seeing that he was in good spirits, she was relieved and didn't go over.

"Heh, I just chatted with Niannian casually, what's wrong with it. Besides, there are more people in our family than you have in mind?"

When Zhang Yang saw the man coming out, he immediately stood up from the sofa: "Master Wang."

Jiang Li got better, went out to help him, and asked, "Are you okay?"

"I said to go to you yesterday, but when my activities were over, you all left the hospital. I saw that the time was too late, so I couldn't come to see you."

Ye Wangchuan was much gentler to him: "It's okay, it's just a soft tissue contusion, not a bone."

Before he finished speaking, out of the corner of his eye, he saw the girl standing with her hands folded, coughing dryly: "...It's not completely fine, I will pay attention to it in the future."

Jiang Li naturally saw this scene, and finally understood why Qin Si refused to come when he asked Qin Si to come today. It seems that apart from the fact that he was the first to sell the news to Ye Lan, another very important reason is that Qin Si didn't want to come over to eat dog food!

Jiang Li made a mistake this time, it was his fans who made an accident and got hurt.

So even if he saw his little cabbage being raped, he could only pretend that he was blind and couldn't see, and he didn't have the nerve to be a light bulb like the day before yesterday.

Chapter 4527 The classmates of the granddaughter of the comrade-in-arms also want to visit

"By the way, anyway, if you don't leave for now, do you want to go home for dinner today?" Ye Lan asked at this time.

Ye Fanchuan and Qiao Nian looked at her one after another.

Ye Lan glanced at him: "What do you think I am doing. Tell yourself how long it has been since you went back to the old house to have a meal with your grandpa?"

"The last time you went back, it was your grandfather who yelled for a long time, and he left after a short stay, and didn't even have a meal with his old man."

Of course, Ye Lan's purpose was not to tell her nephew to go back to eat. She cast her eyes on the girl beside her, and raised the corners of her mouth, like a big bad wolf coaxing a little white rabbit.

"Niannian hasn't been to the old house yet?"

Qiao Nian could vaguely see what Ye Lan meant: "I've been there once."

"That's why I didn't stay long." Ye Lan immediately said: "There are several cooks at home, and the dishes they cook taste first-class. Anyway, you won't be going back for a while, why don't you go home for a meal?"

She just wanted Qiao Nian to go to the old house for dinner.

Ye Fanchuan just incidentally.

If Qiao Nian could go, the old man would be so happy.

She was afraid that Qiao Nian would feel uncomfortable, so she specifically said: "Today there will be a guest at home, who is about the same age as you."

"The other party is also a girl, a classmate of my dad's comrade-in-arms granddaughter, who came to visit my house specially. The things you like are similar, maybe you will have a lot of common topics..."

Ye Lan thought of something when he said this.

Immediately turned around to look at Jiang Li who was standing behind Zhang Yang, as if catching a strong man: "By the way, the old man specifically told me to remember to call you together, so don't slip away."

... Could this be a blind date?

Jiang Li felt as if he was mourning after hearing this.

Originally, he had thought of all the reasons, but Ye Lan abruptly blocked them back.

After Ye Lan finished speaking, she looked at Qiao Nian and the others: "Nian Nian, at noon..."

Qiao Nian had a terrible headache and was just about to agree.

A hand passed behind her, patted her shoulder, and heard a man's deep and pleasant voice behind him: "Forget it today."

Ye Lan just frowned, and heard Ye Wangchuan say unhurriedly: "I don't want grandpa to see me like this, wait until I raise it for a few days, it's still a long time, we have the opportunity to go back anytime."

"...just next time."

Ye Lan was easily persuaded by him.

Jiang Li opened his mouth at this moment: "Aunt Lan, I..."

Ye Lan was already depressed that he couldn't bring Qiao Nian back to the old house for dinner, but when he heard that he wanted to run away too, he refused mercilessly: "Don't even think about running away."

Seeing Jiang Li drooping his head with a dejected expression, she couldn't help laughing and said, "Haitong is a nice person, you'll know it when you see him."

"Besides, the old man is not a person who buys and sells by force. If you young people don't like each other, forget it. You should go home for a meal."

Ye Lan said this, Jiang Li couldn't say anything more, and said, "Okay."

Ye Lan also knows that Jiang Li is unrestrained, and he doesn't like the so-called blind date arranged by the older generation at all, for fear that he will be embarrassed.

said to Zhang Yang again: "Do you have any arrangements for noon?"

Zhang Yang was stunned for a moment, and immediately replied: "I have no arrangements."

Ye Lan smiled: "Then you can go to the old house with us for dinner at noon."

"Thank you Miss." Zhang Yang was flattered and expressed his gratitude for her invitation.

Everyone chatted a few more words.

Ye Lan saw that the time was almost up, and mainly saw that Qiao Nian and Ye Wangchuan were fine, so she felt relieved, picked up her handbag, and said to the two: "Then you guys rest first, I will take them away."

Chapter 4528 Miss Nian's thank you gift and others are gone.

Qiao Nian went to clean up the cups on the table, and stopped when passing by someone: "Are you really going home to eat?"

Ye Wangchuan naturally took the cup from her hand: "I'll do it."

Then Ye Wangchuan pushed her to rest, and said: "There are outsiders here, so I will go back another day."

"Hmm." Qiao Nian narrowed his eyes to see that he bent down to pick up the empty cup on the coffee table, and walked over from behind to grab the work from him: "Forget it, I'll come. You're an injured person, you'd better go." Let's rest on the side."

Ye Wangchuan saw the teacup in his hand being snatched away, he was stunned for a second, and then his thick ink-like brows were blurred by a touch of soft color, like a smudged ink painting.

He didn't compete with Qiao Nian this time, and stood aside obediently to watch the girl take the water glasses used by the guests into the kitchen after busy work.

Ye Wangchuan leaned against the kitchen door and said, "You can just put it in the sink, and wash it when auntie comes."

"OK."

Qiao Nian didn't have to wash.

Because she was not good at doing housework.

Wait to put away all the cups Ye Lan and the others used.

Qiao Nian just turned on the faucet and rinsed her hands to wipe off the water stains, then glanced at the person who was still leaning against the door waiting for her: "What are you doing?"

She threw the paper towel that wiped the water into the trash can, raised her hands, raised her eyebrows, her slender eyes were dark and deep: "You understand? Do you want me to help you with the medicine?"

"Cough."

Ye Wangchuan let out a dry cough, recalling the scene when Qiao Nian helped him apply the medicine yesterday, his earlobes became unusually hot, and he turned sideways to get out of the way.

"Mosy told me, Continent F...do you want me to help?"

Qiao Nian instinctively wanted to pull the peaked cap with his hands, but when he raised his hand, he realized that he was not wearing a cap at all, so he lowered his hand.

Go out in a dawdly manner.

"She provoked me, not you."

"..."

Without waiting for Ye Wangchuan to say anything else, Qiao Nian spoke very fast: "And this is my grievance with her. I have dragged it on for too long, and it should have been resolved long ago."

Ye Wangchuan heard that she didn't want to intervene, so he didn't insist on intervening for her own good.

Just said: "No matter when, I will always stand by your side. Not only me, Jiang Lao, Uncle Jiang and Jiang Li, they all support you unconditionally."

"So don't be affected by what she said to you. A real relative is giving, not taking."

"Even if they can't give us anything, they must be by our side. A person who is stingy with giving company is not a relative in itself."

Qiao Nian's mood improved a lot: "Are you trying to comfort me?"

Ye Wangchuan saw that the disgust and coldness in her eyes were no longer there, so he smiled: "That's right."

Qiao Nian walked over and stopped in front of him.

There is a height difference between the two.

Qiao Nian found that she was only at the height of his shoulders, and could only see his neat collar and a beautiful collarbone leaking out.

She raised her head slightly, her dark eyes reflected the man's handsome face.

Qiao Nian suddenly raised her hand to hook his neck, pulled it forward, stood on tiptoe, and pressed her soft thin lips, which had a faint mint aroma.

She kissed lightly, let go of her hand, and said in a hoarse voice that had just woken up in the morning: "Thank you."

Ye Wangchuan raised his hand and touched his lips, with a smile in his eyes, he said with a light smile, "God Qiao, is this considered a reward?"

Qiao Nian actually wanted to do that at that moment, and did it without thinking too much. Now when he was asked suddenly on his face, he also replied flatly: "You say yes."

Chapter 4529 Sister Nian: He is a real dog

Ye Wangchuan rarely saw her feel embarrassed to look into his eyes, and the thick night melted into a pool of spring water: "Then I will work harder next time. Try to get more reward from God Qiao."

"..." Qiao Nian looked up at him, quite speechless.

How did this person say these things without changing his expression... No wonder Qin Si often likes to complain about his dog...

He is a real dog!

at the same time.

the other side.

Ye Lan took Jiang Li and Zhang Yang back to the Ye family's old house.

"Miss."

The old butler stepped forward to welcome the three of them, and when he saw Jiang Li and Zhang Yang, he greeted them in a restrained and polite way: "Young Master Jiang, who else is there?"

The old butler usually seldom goes out, and only meets people who come to visit.

Didn't recognize Zhang Yang for a moment.

Zhang Yang introduced himself very obediently: "Grandpa housekeeper, my name is Zhang Yang, and my father is Zhang Tiancheng."

"It turned out to be Young Master Zhang." Although the old housekeeper didn't have much contact with the younger generation in Beijing, he knew the social circle in Beijing very well.

As soon as he heard Zhang Yang's name, he already knew that he was a good friend with Ye Shao.

The old housekeeper immediately said: "Come in quickly, Miss Haitong and her classmates have arrived. Mr. Ye is chatting with them, and I will wait for you, Miss, to come back for dinner."

Ye Lan Sa Da Meteor walked in, said with a smile: "Haitong has come."

Jiang Li felt a headache when he heard this name, and reluctantly followed, he still leaned close to Zhang Yang's ear and whispered: "Brother die, we'll see if we are good brothers. Wait a minute Gotta help me..."

"It's safe." Zhang Yang patted him on the back lightly, signaling him to rest assured: "I will play by ear and help you escape."

"Okay, thanks." Jiang Li heaved a sigh of relief.

Zhang Yang immediately lowered his voice and said, "I know about the matter between you and Tangning. Since you have that intention, hurry up and get together. You are not single, so no one will introduce you to someone?"

Jiang Li blushed when he heard this, and said stiffly: "Don't talk nonsense."

But the obvious lack of confidence is extremely lacking.

Zhang Yang didn't see it, he was very discerning and didn't continue on this topic.

The old housekeeper quickly led a group of people to the gazebo in the middle of the old house, which was also the place where Mr. Ye usually stayed most.

There is a pond around the Chinese-style gazebo, in which there are koi carps selected by the old man. The red and golden koi carp are fat and strong by Ye Maoshan.

Under the eaves of the gazebo, there are several birdcages for thrushes, and a few well-raised orchid grasses, bird feeding tools, bird food, etc. are placed beside them.

Zhang Yang glanced at the environment briefly, and saw three people sitting and chatting in the gazebo.

The old man in the Chinese tunic suit, who rolled up his sleeves and drank tea, looked like Ye Lao, and there were two young girls sitting opposite Ye Lao.

One of them has a round face with black eyes and black hair, a bright smile, a lively personality, and the person talking to Mr. Ye in high spirits should be the granddaughter of the comrade-in-arms that the old butler just mentioned, Hai Tong.

Zhang Yang moved his gaze to the side, and when he wanted to see what another person looked like, he happened to collide with the other person's raised gaze.

Those are a pair of dark brown eyes, and the eyes reveal a detachment and indifference that are not very interested in everything around them.

That feeling hit Zhang Yang's heart.

A person immediately appeared in his mind - Qiao Nian!

The woman in front of me is two or three years older than Miss Qiao, just as young, as sharp-edged, and also has a unique aura.

Chapter 4530 The first impression is not bad

It can only be seen from this woman's porcelain white complexion and those iconic brown eyes that she is not from country Z.

Zhang Yang is also well-informed.

He couldn't judge where this person came from for a while.

at this time.

Ye Maoshan found them.

He raised his hand to greet the four people outside the gazebo: "Hey, you're back? Hey, isn't this Jiang Li and Zhang Yang? Come and sit here."

He told the old housekeeper: "Go and make some more cups of tea."

"OK."

The old butler leaned over to get busy.

Ye Lan briskly walked over and said hello to him: "Dad."

Ye Maoshan looked behind her and found that there was no one else, with a slightly disappointed expression: "Didn't you go to the Rhine to see Wangchuan."

Ye Lan curled her lips into a smile, put her hands on his shoulders, and said with a smile: "They still have something to do, so they can come back another day."

Ye Maoshan cheered up again: "By the way, Niannian didn't tell you why he didn't leave all of a sudden?"

Ye Lan seldom lied, let alone to Mr. Ye, and was immediately stuck when asked. Fortunately, he glanced at other people out of the corner of his eye.

She gave Ye Maoshan an inconvenient expression.

Ye Maoshan immediately stopped the topic.

"Don't rush back to the company later, follow me to the study."

"good."

Ye Lan heaved a sigh of relief, and had time to make up a reasonable reason.

At least until Ye Wangchuan is a little better, she can't tell her father about Ye Wangchuan's injury.

Ye Lan only noticed the guests who came to the house today after avoiding Mr. Ye's questioning and almost revealing his secrets.

She fell in love with this classmate of Shanghai Tong at just one glance.

Because the other party gave her a very kind and familiar feeling.

Ye Lan simply sat opposite Elena, with a rare smile on his usually strong and capable face, and he spoke very gently.

"You are Haitong's classmate, called...?"

"Aina."

"I heard that you are a high-achieving student majoring in engineering and manufacturing. You also like music very much. You have made a lot of achievements in music?"

Ye Lan looked very interested.

Eileen looked gentle and polite: "A little bit."

This kind of speaking style...Ye Lan raised her eyes to look at her, and saw that the other party's expression was very natural, and she talked like usual.

She put away her vigilance, a little surprised.

It really looks like it.

And the round-faced * the side seemed more anxious than her real self, and interrupted: "Aina is not just a little bit. Aunt Ye, you don't even know how powerful she is! She has hundreds of people on the ins." She has 10,000 fans and is a big blogger that our school knows. And every time she releases new music, she always ranks in the top ten of the world trend list. Even talent scouts have come to our school to find her many times, but her ambition is not in entertainment. Otherwise, he would have become a world-class star."

"That list is very powerful, representing the global trend. There are no singers in our country whose music can be on the world trend list..."

Jiang Li was originally forced by Ye Lan to come on a blind date. He was sitting in a corner playing with the rings on his fingers, bored, until he heard the girl chirping about her introduction.

He raised his eyelids and saw that the round-faced girl was blushing, and introduced his friend to Ye Lan with admiration, and in order to highlight the strength of his friend, he followed Ye Lan and Ye Lao on the popular science trend list.

Out of gentlemanly upbringing and etiquette, he didn't intend to refute the other party until he heard the other party add the last sentence.

Jiang Li sank his eyes, and suddenly said: "Music from country Z can't be on the world trend list because the world trend list has always been exclusive."
