

Madam's 4561

Chapter 4561 You don't know who she is?

After arriving at the Capital Airport, he stopped a taxi and rushed to the hotel according to the address given in the other party's phone.

Eileen stayed at the InterContinental Hotel located in the busiest part of the city center.

Haitong's driver drove the car to the hotel entrance and stopped: "Miss, we're here."

"Thank you for taking me back tonight." Elena opened the door and was about to get out of the car.

Hai Tong stopped her: "Aina, can I sit in your room for a while?"

"Now?" Elena raised her hand and looked at her watch.

"What, isn't it convenient for you?" The corners of Haitong's mouth pulled down, revealing an expression of obvious abandonment.

Out of the corner of Elena's eyes, she saw the expression on her face, but she didn't refuse: "It's not inconvenient, but I have a friend coming over later, I want to go out and have a chat with him, you can only be alone Wait for me in the room. No problem?"

Hai Tong was extremely surprised: "You have friends who want to come to Beijing?"

No wonder she was so surprised.

Aina herself came to Beijing for tourism, why do friends come to see her?

Eileen explained calmly: "He just happened to pass by here, and he heard that I was also in Beijing, so he made an appointment for a cup of coffee with me."

This explanation is quite reasonable.

"Oh." Haitong replied without thinking too much: "It's okay, I just want to sit with you and chat or something. If he arrives, you can chat first, and I will sit in your room and wait for you to come back. "

"OK."

Eileen agreed to let her go back to the hotel with him.

Hai Tong immediately explained to the driver that she would go home late, and asked the driver to go back and tell her family.

Although the driver thought it was too late, he couldn't stop Hai Tong from being stubborn, so he had to tell her and drove away.

With the black Mercedes only leaving a car butt.

"Let's go in."

Hai Tong happily took Elena's arm and walked towards the hotel.

...

hotel lobby.

As soon as Elena entered, she saw a middle-aged man in black sitting on the sofa seat next to him, with a cup of coffee in front of him.

The other party saw her and obviously wanted to get up.

But noticing that there was a person next to her, she immediately maintained the posture of sitting there.

"I'm really super angry."

"Who are you talking about that woman, and why do you say that about me?"

"She seems to be called by Mr. Nie. I vaguely heard someone say that she is Mr. Nie's apprentice?"

Haitong was still furious about what happened that night, and said disdainfully: "The Beijing city circle is so big, she won't think that she is Nie Lao's apprentice, so she can walk sideways."

Eileen walked to the front of the elevator, pressed the elevator, heard the endless complaints around her, and interrupted casually: "She is Qiao Nian."

"What's so great about her? She..." Hai Tong was halfway through speaking, but when she heard Elena's words, she suddenly shut up and looked over in disbelief: "You said she was... yes..."

"Ding-"

The elevator door opened.

Eileen walked in first, looked at the people who were still standing outside, and raised her hand to press the elevator door for her: "Come in first."

Hai Tong suppressed her shock, followed her into the elevator three or two steps behind her, watched the elevator door close in front of her, and suddenly came back to her senses.

She turned her head to look at her classmate.

Just opened his mouth.

Eileen seemed to know what she wanted to do, so she stepped forward: "The last disciple of the music master of country Z is Qiao Nian, don't you know?"

Haitong opened his mouth, but couldn't make a sound.

Chapter 4562 I have never seen him

Of course she knew.

It's just that she never learned about this at all, and always put herself in a higher position, thinking that if she took the initiative to understand this information, she would lower her status.

Eileen seemed to know what she was thinking, and reached out to pat her shoulder: "Forget it, as long as you know it's her."

Hai Tong's complexion turned blue and red and then pale, but there was a wave of anger in his heart that he couldn't find a place to vent.

It was as if the person she had always hated made her play around, and she didn't know the truth until the end.

That feeling is worse than knowing the truth directly.

How could she lose to the other party, and still show cowardice in front of the other party?

Hai Tong now recalled that he had apologized to Qiao Nian at night, and it was difficult to describe in words how depressed he felt.

The elevator quickly arrived at the floor where Elena lived.

After she swiped her card to enter the room, she put the person who didn't speak all the way in the living room, and said to her: "My friend has come over, I'll go down to see him first. You wait for me here for a while."

Haitong didn't respond at all, and sat there with an expression of indescribability, still immersed in what happened that night, and didn't even listen to what Elena told her specifically.

"Ah, you go."

"Okay, then you wait for me in the room for a while, I will come back as soon as possible."

"..."

Hai Tong didn't answer, as if completely immersed in her own world.

Eileen didn't care about her anymore, took the room card and left the room.

Shadow didn't wait long below, when he saw the elevator door open again, and the person he had waited for for over an hour walked out of the elevator.

He called the waiter and ordered another cup of coffee.

When the waiter brought the coffee, the other party happened to be sitting on the chair opposite him. Instead of customers, he took a sip of the coffee cup and said to him: "Latte without sugar is my favorite flavor. Thank you. "

After she finished speaking, she leaned back naturally, stared at the shadow, and asked, "What does the Queen want from me?"

Shadow looked at her attitude that was both polite and very rude, and knew in his heart that they needed to rely on each other to help with Continent F.

So he restrained his usual arrogance, lowered his head slightly to show humility and said to Elena: "I was entrusted by the queen to find Miss Elena, and I want to ask you for a favor."

Eileen bent slightly to pick up the coffee cup on the table, took a sip slowly, and then raised her eyelids: "Say it."

Shadow couldn't figure out her attitude. After a moment of silence, he told her about the F continent.

Eileen quietly listened to him.

Then he knocked down the coffee cup lightly, and concluded: "So the empress wants me to get involved in your family affairs."

Shadow knows the importance of Elena's support to Nie Qingru, so it is inevitable that she is a little anxious: "Miss Elena, the enemy of an enemy is a friend, isn't it? You and the Queen have the same goal, and cooperation between the two parties can lead to a win-win situation!"

"Oh?" Elena looked at him unmoved, her eyes burning brightly: "How can you be sure that our goals are the same."

Shadow just wanted to speak.

She took the first step casually: "You mean to say that our two families intend to marry, so I have to solve the 'rival in love'?"

"..." The shadow fell silent.

Eileen smiled lightly: "I think the empress made a mistake. Marriage is not a relationship. I haven't met my future husband until now, so I can't even talk about being jealous of him competing with a strange girl..."

Chapter 4563 I always feel that sister Nian will not do anything to her

"Take a step back and say, even if I fall in love with him. As my identity, why should I fight with a girl outside?"

"Finally, I want to say one more thing."

She looked at the shadow, she looked calm, but her voice was extremely tough: "The island is most afraid of people outside asking for information."

"The queen should be very clear about the rules of the island. Even though she knows many people on the island and has cooperated with the island for many years, she is not from the island!"

"I still don't bother her to worry about things on our island. The marriage is just talk, it hasn't been confirmed yet, and it may not be me marrying him in the end. Before the empress wants to use this to convince me, it's best to respect my privacy. ."

Shadow didn't know what to use to convince her when she robbed her of the words. After a long silence, he played the emotional card.

"Shadow Ten..."

He just started talking.

Eileen, who was on the opposite side, gave him a stop gesture, and looked at him deeply: "If it wasn't for his sake, I wouldn't have talked to you for so long."

She no longer gave Shadow any face, put her hands up, and stood up: "Uncle Ying, I still have friends waiting for me up there, so I won't talk to you."

Shadow watched her go to buy the bill, and walked away without looking back.

Although he had expected this result, he never expected that Elena would have no room for negotiation, and she would speak so bluntly.

After he drank the cup of coffee in front of him, he walked to the side and called Nie Qingru.

"Empress."

"Miss Elena doesn't want to get involved. The subordinates tried their best to persuade her, but she still doesn't want to get involved in the dispute in F continent."

"I'm sorry, the subordinate is incompetent."

...

It is still daytime in Continent M.

Nie Qingru received this call, although she had expected it in her heart, she couldn't help being angry at the other party's behavior.

"Hmph, she's just a little girl. Before she entered Shi's old house, she acted like she was the hostess of the island."

"Empress, what should we do next?" Shadow ignored her words and asked the countermeasure directly.

Nie Qingru had a headache.

The driver helped her open the car door, and she bent down and got in the car, watching the door of the Leonard family slowly close, and then thought that she was also in vain at Lei Kai's place.

"Qiao Nian doesn't dare to touch me. I'm her grandmother. Unless she is not a person and has no human feelings at all, she won't touch me."

"Queen..." Shadow seemed to guess what she wanted to do, and tried to stop her: "You can't risk your life."

Nie Qingru was very stubborn: "I must save Xicheng!"

"Besides, I have a blood relationship with that evil obstacle after all. She won't want to kill me, but at most she will threaten her."

Shadow really wants to say that it was before the accident, but now it is different, Xu Yi almost lost his life by their accidental stealing.

With Qiao Nian's persistent character in this regard, this time may be different from any previous one.

Otherwise, why did Qiao Nian capture Zhai Shao for so long and never hurt Zhai Shao, and this time he suddenly wanted to send him to Continent F for public execution.

It can be seen that Qiao Nian is really angry this time.

"Empress, I hope you will reconsider carefully. After all, this matter involves your safety. The island and the Leonard family are unwilling to help. Only one old Xue is far from enough to protect you..."

"I've decided."

Nie Qingru didn't give him a chance to continue persuading him.

"You don't need to say any more."

Chapter 4564 Will you go to Continent F with me?

"Leaving for Continent F tomorrow."

"yes."

Shadow finally had no choice but to obey orders unwillingly.

Eileen returned to her room in the hotel.

Seeing that Hai Tong was still sitting there, she turned around and took two glasses of water, put one of them in front of her, and retreated to the opposite sofa to sit down.

"Are you still struggling with Qiao Nian?"

"without..."

She said no, her slightly biting lips clearly betrayed her thoughts.

Eileen saw through at a glance that she was concerned about what happened tonight, slightly raised her eyelids, and said, "Didn't you want to take a photo with Master Vienna, and I will ask him out tomorrow."

Haitong suddenly raised his head, opened his mouth and said, "No, no need."

See Elena stop talking and look at her.

Haitong's face felt hot, and he waved his hands awkwardly: "Aina, don't get me wrong, I didn't mean that. I just think that Master Vienna is not in a good mood, so let's not bother him..."

In fact, she just thinks that Master Vienna has lost face tonight, and it is not convenient for her to take a photo with him and send it to Moments.

Otherwise, not only will everyone in the circle of friends not be envious, but they will also be ridiculed.

She always wants to save face, so of course she doesn't want to be judged by others.

Haitong didn't want to be asked this question any more, so he suddenly said, "By the way, did you meet your friend? You guys finished chatting so quickly?"

"Yes." Elena poured herself a glass of water, and immediately said to her, "Would you like to go to Continent F with me?"

"Huh?" Haitong brushed her hair, without turning her head, "Why do you suddenly want to go there? What is there to do in the backcountry?"

Eileen smiled a little: "Go and see the excitement."

Haitong didn't understand what she meant.

Elena was quite patient with her, bent down and picked up the water glass in front of her, took a sip of water in a leisurely manner, and then raised her eyes: "In two days will be the day of the great migration of animals, didn't you say you want to go to the wilderness?" This is a good opportunity to see the most primitive cultural landscape."

Haitong was a little moved, hesitantly asked: "How many days shall we go?"

Eileen rubbed the body of the cup with her fingertips, and said slowly: "2-3 days."

Haitong showed hesitation, bit her lip and didn't answer right away.

Eileen noticed her expression and said casually: "It doesn't matter if you can't go, I can go there alone."

"How can that work!"

Haitong took a deep breath, as if she had made up her mind.

"I'll tell my parents when I go home. They are always open-minded and should agree."

Eileen took her just to have some fun on the road, and she still needs to go back to Beijing for a few days. Seeing what she said, she smiled and nodded slightly: "I'll wait for your news."

Hai Tong was inexplicably full of courage when he heard it, and his eyes shone brightly when he saw her.

It can be seen that she admires Elena very much, and getting Elena's attention makes her more excited than being praised by her mentor.

Ten p.m.

Hai Tong just returned to her home.

Her family goes to bed early.

Usually turn off the lights at 9:30 and go back to my room to sleep.

She opened the door of the entrance lightly, and as soon as she opened the crack of the door, she found that the living room was brightly lit, and the bright lights were not turned off at all.

Haitong was a little strange. He went in to change his shoes, and as soon as he walked out of the entrance, he heard his father's voice: "You still know how to come back?"

Haitong stopped her tiptoe movements, and saw that in the living room, except for her father, her mother and grandma were both awake.

The three of them occupied a corner of the sofa, sitting in the living room as if they were waiting for her to come home.

Chapter 4565 What did you do tonight?

She walked over to put down her bag, and muttered: "What are you doing? I just went to the hotel to chat with my classmates, female classmates, and not to the bar."

Speaking of this, she felt aggrieved instead: "Even if I go to the bar, I'm already in my twenties, what's wrong with going to the bar to have fun."

"Foreign girls can have the right to be independent when they reach the age of 14. Even if they play at night and go home in the early morning, their parents will not say anything."

Father Hai was suppressing his anger at first, and wanted to have a good chat with her and listen to what she had to say.

It turned out that she was full of complaints as soon as she entered the door.

Immediately scolded: "We sent you abroad to let you go out to learn knowledge, not to let you learn those messy habits. Let me ask you, what did you do tonight! Why did you Aunt Ye call us and say that you are not going to the Ninth Institute?" ?"

When Hai Tong heard that they were looking for her to lose their temper for this matter, she became even more upset, and stood on the spot and pushed back: "I went to a musical with my classmates."

Father Hai's face sank, and he wanted to say something else.

Haitong's mother quickly grabbed hold of her eyes and said, "Okay, even if you didn't look at the child, you rushed up to you. You two, father and daughter, communicate well, don't yell at every turn."

Then she looked at Haitong again, with a reproachful tone: "You too, don't argue with your dad, it's not like you don't know your dad has high blood pressure, you want to * him off?"

Hai Tong pursed her lips in grievance, but in the end she didn't go any further.

Father Hai also panted heavily, turned his face away, asked his wife to pat his chest to let him breathe, and managed to suppress his anger, and did not continue to quarrel.

At this time.

Haitong's grandma spoke.

The tone is very gentle.

"Tongtong, don't blame your father for being strict, you are a girl, and he is also worried that it will be unsafe for you to be outside too late by yourself."

Hai Tong looked at the grandma he had respected since childhood, and calmed down: "I know, grandma."

Haitong's grandma has the temperament of a lady in a water town in the south of the Yangtze River. Even though her hair is covered with silver threads, she still does not change her calm and gentle temperament.

She was wearing a home-style gown, with a string of water-colored green agate beads hanging around her neck. The green agate hanging from the button of the gown was exquisite and luxurious.

She has a calm demeanor even when she speaks.

"I called your Grandpa Ye to ask about it, and he also said that you don't want to go to the Ninth Institute. Can you tell grandma what's going on?"

In fact, their family received a call from Ye Lan at night, and everyone was shocked to hear that Ye Lan refused to let Haitong enter the Ninth Institute.

Then Grandma Haitong called her husband's former friends to inquire about the specific situation.

It is said that the Ye family has taken good care of them these years.

Especially Ye Maoshan respects his widowed sister-in-law very much.

But this time Grandma Haitong called to inquire about this matter, but Ye Maoshan did not change her mind, only telling them to respect the child's wishes.

This is the reason why Father Hai couldn't help getting angry as soon as his daughter came home.

"...It's not that I don't want to go to the Ninth Institute." Under the guidance of her grandma, Hai Tong was not as sharp as before.

She briefly explained the ins and outs of the matter.

In her description, she is the most innocent, Ye Lan favored Qiao Nian and asked her not to go to the Nine Institutes.

She herself did not mention not going to the Nine Institutes.

It was Ye Lan who first proposed it.

After hearing her words, the members of Haitong's family looked at each other, and they all saw deep worry in each other's eyes.

Grandma Haitong was the first to recover.

Chapter 4566 sun, can you manage the people in the dark castle

Looking at the granddaughter who was still sulking in front of her and didn't know what she had done wrong, Youyou sighed and said to her: "Tongtong, tell grandma honestly if you don't like that Miss Qiao."

"..." Haitong almost blurted out, there is nothing she likes about a girl who uses scheming and tricks to cling to men.

But in a blink of an eye, he caught his grandma's probing gaze, and remembered the embarrassment he had lost tonight.

She gritted her teeth: "No, I'm just seeking truth from facts, and I didn't target her."

Grandma Haitong showed a clear expression, nodded along with her words, and said to her after a long time: "But you Grandpa Ye and Aunt Ye like her very much, and everyone in the Beijing city circle knows that the two families will definitely marry each other in the future." , she is the future mistress of the Ye family."

Haitong felt a sharp * in his heart, and immediately answered, "Never mind my business."

Father Hai almost wanted to scold her again.

Fortunately, Haimu caught him.

Only then did Haitong's grandma have the opportunity to continue: "I just want you to know that no matter how good your relationship with your Grandpa and Aunt Ye was before, and how much they loved you, it is impossible for you to surpass their family members. Then This Miss Qiao will become their family in the future, we are just the family of old friends of your Grandpa Ye, understand?"

Haitong already understood what grandma wanted to tell her, but for her who was used to receiving education abroad, these words were too harsh.

"Are you telling me not to argue with her?"

Haitong didn't wait for the rest of the family to speak, and immediately said: "Don't worry, I don't even bother arguing with people like her."

After she finished speaking, she took out her mobile phone and said, "I'm going upstairs to sleep. Good night, grandma and mom."

Father Hai looked at the man who turned around and left without mentioning himself.

Angrily raised his hand and slammed the table down.

"Boom!"

Hai Tong pretended not to hear it, and went upstairs without looking back.

Father Hai waited for her back to disappear at the top of the stairs, took a few breaths, and then he hated iron and steel: "If I knew I shouldn't have sent her abroad, you can see what she looks like now! "

She still wants to fight with others, what is she fighting for? Do you really take yourself seriously?

Father Hai felt a splitting headache when he thought of this, and he didn't know what was going on in Haitong's mind, whether he couldn't understand human speech.

He said to his mother with an angry face: "You told her so clearly, telling her that she will be the mistress of the Ye family in the future. Look at her, she still wants to compete with her, and she even says she doesn't bother to compete with her..."

He pointed in the direction of the second floor, his fingers trembling with anger: "What do you think is going on in her mind? Does she still have a little bit of normal thinking!"

The Ye family called home.

People's attitude is not obvious enough?

She still doesn't care about it.

Father Hai laughed back angrily, almost speechless by his daughter's operation.

Grandma Haitong had mixed feelings about her granddaughter's words and deeds. Looking towards the direction of the second floor, she said softly, "It's useless for you to be angry, eh. I hope she wakes up soon!"

Father Hai stopped talking.

He doesn't look like Hai Tong is sober, but now he has no good way.

"I still hope that she will have less contact with others, so as not to be ashamed outside."

at the same time.

F continent is still daytime.

David was calling Qiao Nian with a loud voice: "Sun, you really can't control the people in the bunker. They come to us all day and night, and treat us as their own back garden."

Chapter 4567 The dark castle is really the same from top to bottom

"Especially that Moxie, wishing he could live with us."

"And that Mo Dong, come to me as soon as you have time to find out when you will come, have you eaten today, and did you sleep well at night."

"Hey, Boss, do you think that kid won't have a crush on you?" David was speechless: "He even wants to pry the bottom of his boss's wall? Awesome."

The master behind the dark castle can tolerate Mo Dong jumping around under his nose, and he is also a big-hearted master.

Qiao Nian was speechless for a while, went to the refrigerator and took out a bottle of water: "Who told you that."

David complained: "Isn't it? That kid drives 20 kilometers every day to come to me for a meal, and he must mention you every time he eats."

"He also likes to ask me about your past deeds. Every time I mention that you used to lead us to establish the Red League in the illegal area, his eyes are shining! This is not just a crush on you."

Qiao Nian sat on the sofa and opened the Coke pull tab, raised his legs, held the iced Coke in a casual posture, and said unhurriedly, "You never thought that he had a crush on you."

"ah?"

David, a tall and thick man, has been fooled.

"He? Have a crush on me?"

He pointed to his nose outside the base camp, unable to recover for a long time, not shocked, but a little disgusted in the shock.

Nest grass?

Qiao Nian took a sip of Coca-Cola before continuing, "I have a crush on your ability to tell stories."

That's okay...David finally breathed a sigh of relief: "Boss, can you finish talking at once. I imagined the scene of two old men falling in love. Damn, it's terrible."

Qiao Nian leaned back slightly, resting her elbows on the edge of the sofa, quite casually: "So I ask you to stop bragging outside for a day."

While the two were talking.

Ye Fanchuan came out.

Seeing the girl in the living room on the phone, I saw through it at a glance: "David's phone?"

Qiao Nian raised his eyelids and wanted to take a look at him, and said with his mouth: Do you have clairvoyance?

Ye Wangchuan smiled, walked over, bent down to pick up the ice coke she put on the table, and went to get her a cup of warm water.

Seeing his thoughtful behavior, Qiao Nian said to David on the other end of the phone, "I won't tell you now."

"No, boss, we haven't gotten to the point yet. I haven't told you about Nie Qingru's coming to Continent F..." David was still depressed.

I heard the girl answer quietly: "I already know."

"Ah, where did you know that?" David quickly realized Qiao Nian's source: "Young Master Ye told you?"

He was really convinced.

The two brothers Mo Dong and Mo Xi rushed to them every day, inquiring about all kinds of news, and would immediately tell the master behind them what they found out.

Then their master immediately told Sun again.

"Yes." Qiao Nian responded casually.

David gritted his teeth: "I knew it was him!"

Engaged in a big circle, and he, the co-author, was the last person to deliver the news.

Sure enough, the people in the dark castle are as thoughtful as the masters behind them, with thick eyelids, able to invite credit, but also able to deceive people.

He calmed down: "Anyway, boss, Nie Qingru will come. You should be mentally prepared when the time comes, that person will definitely want to threaten you with his own safety."

Qiao Nian's eyebrows were lowered, her black eyes were clear, she held a mobile phone in her hand, and she couldn't see any emotional waves: "I know."

She said to David again: "Hang up."

Chapter 4568 Sister Nian is still fooled

David understood that it was best to leave this topic to the end, so he didn't dwell on it, and said calmly, "Hang up."

Qiao Nian hung up the phone.

She put her phone casually on the sofa at hand, got up and walked over, stood in front of the man, and pointed to the sofa in front of her.

"You sit there."

"?"

Even though Ye Wangchuan didn't know what she asked him to do, he walked over and sat down very honestly.

Qiao Nian immediately followed, bent down and lifted the hem of his clothes, and was about to stick them over.

As the girl approaches.

Ye Fanchuan's eyes were dim, and he quickly grabbed her troublesome hand, his voice hoarse: "What are you doing?"

Qiao Nian raised her face impatiently: "See a doctor!"

Seeing that Ye Wangchuan clenched his hands tightly, he seemed to be trying his best to suppress his emotions.

Qiao Nian lifted his chin slightly to remind him: "Let go, I'll help you check the healing of the bones."

Ye Wangchuan took a deep breath, breathed evenly, calmed down, and then slowly let go of her hand.

Qiao Nian didn't care about the way he kept looking at her, dutifully lifted the hem of his clothes, and checked up his waist and abdomen...

She was helping him with the examination purely with the mentality of a doctor, without any other thoughts, so she had to tap and pinch the injured part with her hands from time to time.

And in order to hear the situation of the bones clearly.

Qiao Nian was still close to his waist and listened carefully.

Then straightened up, looked up and asked him, "Have you applied the medicine properly?"

Ye Wangchuan pulled down the hem of his clothes to cover his waist and abdomen, calmly said: "There are many things during the day, sometimes I forget once or twice."

Qiao Nian frowned fiercely, her dark eyes were cold and dry, she wanted to reach out to pull the peaked cap, but found that she wasn't wearing it.

She put down her hand, not wanting to tug at him, pressed the corners of her lips down, and said, "From tomorrow onwards, I will help you with the medicine, and I will set the alarm clock and watch you."

Ye Wangchuan smiled slightly: "Aren't you going to Continent F?"

Qiao didn't even think about it: "Ah, you go with me."

Ye Wangchuan's deep eyes flickered, and the corners of his mouth curled up: "It's not that I want to go with you this time, it's you who took the initiative to invite me to be with you."

Qiao Nian glanced at him, feeling that something was wrong, and didn't think about it for a while, put one hand into his pocket, and hummed.

Ye Wangchuan immediately felt relieved, tidied his clothes, got up and walked to the kitchen: "I'll make you a cup of hot milk, drink it before you go to sleep."

Qiao Nian looked at his figure, her eyes dimmed, and belatedly realized that Ye Wangchuan seemed to be waiting for her to speak up and go to Continent F together.

Her legs are slightly crossed, her hands are on the side of her legs, and the hem of her jacket is too short to reveal a delicate waist. Qiao Nian didn't notice either, she just sat there thinking about when to leave, and thought about where Nie Qingru would go as soon as she arrived in Continent F.

Then she had a picture of the people she met at the concert tonight.

Qiao Nian tapped his knuckles, his eyes were like overturned inkstones, deep in thought.

at the same time.

Zhang Yang sent Nie Mi home.

After saying goodbye to Nie Mi at the door, he returned to the car.

The driver hurriedly asked him: "Young Master Zhang, are you going home next?"

Zhang Yang sat in the back row, feeling extremely tired, he stretched out his hands and pressed his swollen temples, and he felt relieved for a few minutes.

He opened his eyes again, looked at the thick night outside the car window, and thought about it: "Turn around, go to the pole."

【Extreme】 It is a well-known club in Beijing where all kinds of second-generation people gather crazy, and the turnover starts at 8 figures in one night.

Chapter 4569 I'll wait to find you

But few people know that the owner behind this club is Ye Wangchuan.

Most of the sons and ladies only know that the boss here has a deep background, and few people dare to make trouble in the club.

Many of them play for safety.

【Extreme】 has become famous gradually, and it has become a gathering place for many second-generation people in Beijing. At night, they like to go to the club to open a box, and everyone plays billiards and cards together.

There is also a group of people gathering there tonight.

Zhang Yang made a phone call first.

After a few seconds.

Someone picked up the phone.

"Brother Yang."

Along with the voice of speaking, there is also the sound of deafening music.

Zhang Yang frowned, pulled the tie around his neck, and said to the person on the other side: "I'll go find you later."

Li De was extremely surprised: "What about this? Have you finished the concert?"

"Um."

Zhang Yang didn't give him a chance to ask more questions: "I'll talk about it when I go over."

...

after an hour.

A Rolls Royce parked at the entrance of the club.

The waiter at the door saw Zhang Yang getting off the car, and took the initiative to greet him: "Young Master Zhang, are you here?"

"Which box are Li De and the others in?" Zhang Yang's attitude was very gentle, but he was tired, and there was no usual smile on his lips.

The waiters are all the best of the best, and immediately lead the way: "Li Shao and the others are in room 006, please follow me."

Zhang Yang followed behind him.

The two soon came outside a box.

From the corridor, there is no sound inside.

If Zhang Yang hadn't heard how noisy it was on the phone, he might have believed that these people were sleeping inside.

Wait for the waiter to push open the box door.

The sound of the music inside immediately poured into the eardrums, and the sound of crackling drums was deafening, and there were still many people talking and chatting inside.

Zhang Yang straightened his suit jacket and walked in. He saw Qin Si inside, playing Pai Gow.

Probably saw him coming.

Qin Si called a person who was watching the cards next to him to replace his question, and got up to meet him: "Why are you here?"

Zhang Yang opened his mouth, the music was so loud that his head was bigger than the two, and he didn't have time to speak.

I heard Qin Si impatiently smashing the table and calling out to one of them: "Ruijie, what are you doing with such a loud voice. Damn, are you deaf?"

As soon as he spoke, the group of K singers became as quiet as chickens, and they honestly used the remote control panel to turn down the sound to the minimum.

Qin Si turned around and told him to find a place to sit.

"Go and talk over there."

Zhang Yang followed and found a seat to sit down.

At this moment, a flamboyant young man walked over with a wine glass, and as soon as he arrived, he was drunk and pulled Zhang Yang to toast.

Zhang Yang is in meetings during the day, dealing with various things, and going to the concert non-stop in the evening. He is so busy that his feet are not touching the floor, so he is not in the mood to drink.

He declined the other party's toast, and instead mentioned a person: "Is that Haitong still in our group?"

The young man sobered up from the wine in an instant, with a constipated expression that could not be spit out after eating a fly, sticking out his tongue: "Brother Yang, why did you mention her?"

Qin Si didn't know what happened, so he pulled the two of them over and asked, "What's wrong?"

Qin Si is usually close to the Ye family, and is more or less familiar with the people who come and go with the Ye family.

He knows Hai Tong.

The granddaughter of an old friend of Mr. Ye.

The old man likes this little girl very much. He treats this little girl just like he treats the juniors in his family.

Chapter 4570 I want to kick Haitong out of the group

The family is also quite smart.

Every Chinese New Year or the old man's birthday, their family will ask Haitong to visit and send some small gifts, some supplements and so on.

Qin Si's impression of Haitong is still that of a high school girl.

Because he was also busy later, and Shanghai Tong went abroad to study again, everyone didn't even have the chance to meet occasionally.

Li De seemed to have been greatly wronged, and immediately cracked him up, telling him about the bad things that happened to him that night.

Hearing this, Qin Si opened his mouth slightly and pulled out his ears, unable to believe his ears.

"You said she still sent text messages to scold you?"

Qin Si sat up slightly: "Impossible?!"

In his impression, Haitong was an introverted little girl with a so-so personality, and she couldn't get along with them.

Sometimes when he went to the old house to look for Mr. Wang, when he met Mr. Ye or Aunt Lan, they would say that they were like monkeys, not as cute as little girls.

Let's talk about the Eighteen Changes of the Women's University, this thing will not change from a harmless little butterfly to a stinging hornet's nest, right?

Who knew that Zhang Yang, who was sitting next to him, also told him with a serious face about the farce that happened at the concert tonight.

In particular, it talked about the wonderful things Haitong did.

When he talked about Haitong praising that foreign so-called music master in front of everyone, he was belittling his own old Nie.

Qin Si closed his mouth, and his expression changed from being surprised at the beginning, watching the excitement, to gradually becoming serious.

"Is she out of her mind?"

"have no idea."

Zhang Yang shook his head, and said his purpose of coming here at night.

"I came to Li De just to ask him if Haitong is still in our group. If he is, I think it's best to kick him out."

"Everyone has different ways and does not conspire with each other."

"I'm worried that one day she will cause trouble and implicate the unaware members of the group. It's like Li De also saw her asking for tickets in the group today, thinking that she is also a member of the group, so he readily gave the ticket to her."

This group that Zhang Yang mentioned.

Ye Fanchuan was not in the group.

Only Qin Si was inside.

is a group where they usually eat, drink and have fun.

There are many people in the group.

It is mainly a group of friends surrounding Qin Si.

"...But if she really caused trouble tonight, Li De might be involved in her troubles." Zhang Yang said with a serious face: "Miss asked me tonight, where did she get her tickets. "

Li De's face turned green, and the wine completely woke up.

People almost jumped eight feet high.

"Wo Cao, it's none of my business! I didn't know she could be so crazy, so I just gave her two tickets... I knew I would kill her if I killed her."

Qin Si even forgot how Hai Tong joined this group, he just felt overwhelmed when he heard this, and saw that both of them were looking at him, waiting for him to make a decision.

Qin Si rolled his eyes: "You all say she's crazy, so look at me."

Zhang Yang said very kindly: "Young Master Qin, you are the group leader, you have the final say."

Qin Si: "..."

Li De is not only disgusted by eating flies, but also speechless and depressed when the flies get stuck in his throat.

"Young Master Qin, what is there to consider?"

Qin Si stared at the two of them, and rolled his eyes again: "Kick it, do you want to save it for the New Year?"

Zhang Yang felt relieved immediately, and said to Li De: "Young Master Qin has spoken, you should kick him."
