

Madam's 4571

Chapter 4571 I found myself kicked out of the group

They seem to be just discussing whether to kick out of the group, but anyone who understands the rules in the circle understands that this is not a trick for children to kick out of the group.

It means that this circle will no longer bring this person to play.

When other people see Haitong being kicked out of the group, they will understand that Qin Si and Zhang Yang are not planning to play with Haitong.

People in the group in the future.

Such as Li De and the like.

It would be impossible to give Haitong any more face.

In the future, it will not be so easy for her to seek convenience from the circle.

the next day.

Haitong woke up early in the morning and found that there was a new notification on his WeChat. When he picked it up, he saw that he had been kicked out of the group chat.

Originally, Hai Tong didn't care that much, but just sent a message to Li De's editor in displeasure.

[The sea is upside down: what do you mean? You kicked me out? You are still a man, just for two tickets?]

Wait for her to send it.

Hai Tong immediately realized that the other party had blocked her.

A dialog box pops up with a prompt.

【You are no longer the friend of the other party, please add it again. 】

Hai Tong was so angry that his nose turned crooked. He went to the bedside in the bedroom and aggressively found yesterday's call records and called them.

Fortunately, her phone has not been blocked yet.

After a rustling sound.

She soon heard the beep of the phone connected.

A few seconds followed.

From the other end came the confused voice of the young man who hadn't woken up: "Hello. Who, call me early in the morning, you better have something to do."

"It's me." Haitong said in a deep voice, and immediately questioned the other party: "You deleted my WeChat and kicked me out of the group chat?"

I only heard the death-like silence on the other end of the mobile phone, and then there was the sound of crackling and bumping into someone, and a man's clear voice came out immediately.

"Nest grass."

Haitong said patiently: "You blocked me just because of two tickets, you are still not a man."

Yesterday Zhang Yang went to the club to find Li De, so Li De knew exactly what happened at the International Theater last night.

Seeing Haitong not allowing people to sleep early in the morning, and coming aggressively to tease her, she was immediately annoyed: "I said, elder sister, do I have anything to do with you if I am a man? I am a man and I don't want to be friends with you. I can't be your sister if I'm not a man. You don't care if I'm a man or a woman!"

Hai Tong lowered her brows and pursed her lips: "Are you a man who have the nerve to argue with me?"

"Why am I embarrassed?" Li De is not used to her: "Oh! I understand people like you. Men are embarrassed to argue with you, and women are just bullying the same sex. What kind of heroine. In total, you Only when the whole world allows you to think correctly!"

"You!" Hai Tong was so angry that her fair round face turned into a liver-colored color, she gripped the phone tightly, and the blood vessels on the back of her hand protruded, "I've never seen such a tasteless person like you!"

"Thanks."

Li Deting took the conversation naturally.

"I have never seen a woman like you."

"Let me make it clear to you, I deleted you, so what's wrong with me just deleting you? Which rule stipulates that I can't delete your WeChat."

"You don't think that I gave you two tickets for nothing, and even I gave you for nothing, signing some kind of servant agreement!"

"I said Miss, you have time to go to the Capital Hospital to check your brain and see if it is broken. Who gave you the courage to call me early in the morning and dig me out of bed and ask me if I deleted your WeChat. I Let me tell you clearly, when I hang up, I will block your phone number. Please be more self-respectful and stop harassing me!"

Chapter 4572 Slap yourself in the face

Li De finished speaking.

She was not given a chance to refute at all.

Hang up the phone with a snap.

After Haitong reacted, there was only a busy tone on the other end of the phone.

She was so angry that she almost lost her breath, rolled her eyes suddenly, and tried to calm her breath while holding the phone. It took a long time to get over the breath.

Haitong looked at his phone again, saw the notice that he was kicked out of the group, and then remembered what Li De said, the more he thought about it, the more angry he became, and the more he thought about it, the more he couldn't figure it out.

How did Li De change his attitude so much overnight?

She remembered that the other party greeted her with a smile when they gave her the ticket.

But Hai Tong thought he was too frivolous and playful, so he just ignored him.

But she remembers it clearly.

Li De is a fool, and he treated her well when he gave her the ticket, including later she sent a text message to say about him.

This Li De didn't even reply.

This is the root cause of her first reaction when she found out that she was kicked out of the group this morning and ran to confront the other party.

She stood there sullenly for a while, and realized that she had no way to deal with Li De. Li De really didn't give her face, and she seemed unable to teach Li De a lesson...

Haitong sat on the bedside and vomited for a long time, until she convinced herself that there were no gentlemanly and scumbags in China, and she didn't feel so uncomfortable.

She took her bag and went out.

Running into Father Hai who got up, seeing her changing shoes at the entrance, she couldn't help but lower her face: "Where are you going?"

Haitong looked back and saw his father's stern face, changed his shoes, took his bag, and said without looking back, "Go find my classmate."

"What are you doing at other people's hotels so early in the morning?" Father Hai had a good impression of the student she brought back, but now he doesn't like it that much: "You are a classmate every day, don't you know how to stay at home with your mother?" and grandma."

"My classmate is only in Beijing for a few days, so I will definitely accompany her first." Hai Tong had already walked to the door, turned around and said to Father Hai before closing the door: "I'm leaving first, I won't come back for lunch at noon."

She didn't care about Father Hai's reaction, so she closed the door and walked away without looking back.

hotel.

When she knocked on the door, the people inside seemed to be still taking a shower.

Haitong waited for more than ten minutes before someone came to open the door for her.

Erina's beautiful curly hair was covered with water vapor and draped over her shoulders. She was wearing a hotel bathrobe, and her pair of brown eyes were full of mist, making her even more stunning.

Haitong took a look, and then praised her beauty: "Aina, I found that you are really beautiful."

"Thank you." The woman who just took a shower made way sideways: "Come in."

Hai Tong followed into the room.

Eileen closed the door, ignored her, went inside and took a dry towel to wipe her hair.

Hai Tong walked around the living room feeling bored, and quickly leaned against the bathroom door, crossed her arms and talked to Elena who was brushing her hair inside.

"My parents scolded me when they went back last night."

"Um?"

"It's not because of that Qiao Nian." Haitong felt unwilling: "My family said that I shouldn't offend her, I can't afford to offend her, let me be more polite when I see her in the future."

Why would she shy away from a scheming girl who clings to Grandpa Ye's family.

"It's her again?" Elena heard her mentioning this name, and her movements of wiping her hair slowed down, but Hai Tong didn't notice it.

Haitong said to himself: "I'm telling them to go to F continent for two days, and they definitely don't agree. So let's go there directly! When they ask me, I will tell you to go to other cities to relax."

Chapter 4573 Sister Nian also leaves in the afternoon

This is normal in foreign countries.

As long as the children are adults, they don't need to report their whereabouts to their parents. They can leave if they want, stay if they want, and tell them where they are going after the event.

In fact, even if they don't say it, the parents will not be angry about it.

Eileen glanced at her, but she didn't object: "You have to think clearly, don't turn around and make your parents angry."

Haitong played with her fingers disapprovingly: "They don't like me no matter what I do, I might as well go out and play for two days."

Immediately, she seemed to remember something again: "By the way, there is one more thing."

Eileen had already dried her hair, and the ends of her hair were no longer dripping, so she turned her head to look over.

Haitong met her pair of deep brown eyes, and for some reason she couldn't speak again.

"No, nothing."

"I want to say that I didn't bring any clothes with me. Do I want to go to the mall to buy some later?"

She wanted to tell Elena.

She was kicked out of the group chat early in the morning.

But remembering that being kicked out of the group is not a glorious thing, and before she invited Elena to come, she once patted her chest and said that she has a lot of contacts in Beijing and knows a lot of people.

If you tell Elena again at this time, she will be kicked out of the group chat.

Anyway.

Haitong still couldn't speak.

Eileen didn't know what she wanted to tell herself, she only knew that Hai Tong had lied to herself, but she didn't care too much: "Okay, buy less, don't bring too much luggage, we'll set off in the afternoon."

Haitong was relieved to see that Elena didn't pursue the question.

"good."

Qiao Nian didn't know that someone wanted to follow him to Continent F.

She helped someone take medicine last night, and she was dragged to do a 'small favor', which made her very sleepy, and her arms were still sore in the morning.

Wait until she goes downstairs to meet the culprit.

"morning."

Ye Wangchuan held the freshly baked bread and greeted her refreshedly.

Qiao Nian looked around his face, wishing to turn his head and go back to the room, but he walked slowly and honestly.

"morning."

Ye Wangchuan heard her hoarse voice, not waking up, put breakfast on the table in front of her, beckoning her: "Eat something to pad your stomach."

Qiao Nian looked at the deliciously baked bread in front of him, raised his left hand, put it down silently, and changed to his right hand to randomly pick up a piece of bread and eat it slowly.

Ye Wangchuan had deep eyes, and sat across from her to watch her eat, with his slender hands resting on the table, proudly: "Nie Qingru is leaving."

Qiao Nian's eating bread slowed down a little, just for a moment, and soon it was no different from before. He leaned on the back of the chair lazily, eating his own bread bit by bit.

"oh."

"When are we leaving?"

Ye Wangchuan watched the girl eating her breakfast in a leisurely manner, as if Nie Qingru had already set off for Continent F, which was not as important to her as the breakfast in her hand.

Qiao Nian finally finished eating, wiped her fingers with the paper towel next to her, and leaned lazily on the back of the chair, putting her elbows on it, looking very out of shape.

"today."

She raised her eyes, her eyelashes were thick and long, and the shadow of Ye Wangchuan was printed in her extremely black pupils, cold and clear.

"I will send the small pills to the nursing home at noon, and I will give some to Master Cheng."

"Leaving in the afternoon."

Ye Wangchuan met her eyes and paused: "Then I'll ask Mo Dong to prepare."

Qiao Nian hummed, and remembered that she called David back late last night, and David cried on the phone about their going to the bunker every day to get food.

But seeing that he was already contacting Mo Dong in the dark fort, he silently swallowed it back.

Chapter 4574 Sister Nian and the others are ready to go afternoon.

Qiao Nian went to deliver small pills to Mr. Jiang and Master Cheng, then came back to pack up his things.

She took two new T-shirts and folded them into the backpack, and then threw the charging cable, laptop and a black cylindrical thing into it.

Things are packed.

Qiao Nian took the shoulder bag she had put on and went out, and when she went downstairs, she saw someone who was already waiting for her downstairs.

The girl paused at the foot of the stairs, stopped, her black eyes narrowed: "Are you sure your body is fine?"

Ye Wangchuan was wearing a loose top, with a smile on the corner of his mouth: "Didn't you check it yesterday?"

Qiao Nian subconsciously turned her head to look down at her own arm, pursed her lower lip, and admitted that she was defeated: "..."

The two set off for the airport.

Gu San and Guan Yan were waiting for them in Continent F.

This time, it was another driver of Ye Wangchuan who sent them off. Qiao Nian had met him several times. He was a very burly man.

But this person is taciturn, rarely speaks, and his personality is not as lively as Gu San's. With a refined aura, he can be seen as a practicing family.

"Miss Qiao." The bald head met Qiao Nian a few times, saw Ye Wangchuan and Qiao Nian going out, nodded slightly to say hello to Qiao Nian, and then opened the car door.

"Yeah." Qiao Nian responded, bent down and got into the car first.

Immediately afterwards, Ye Fanchuan sat up behind her.

The driver went around to the front to drive.

Only the sound of the car door closing with a 'bang' was heard.

The driver asked in the front row: "Young Master Ye, are you going to the airport?"

"En." Ye Wangchuan put his hands on his lap, lazily and dignifiedly, and said calmly: "Is the airport all arranged?"

The driver replied calmly: "Everything is well arranged."

Then without Ye Wangchuan's instructions, he shifted gears and slowly drove the car towards the airport.

Back row.

Ye Wangchuan looked at the galloping scenery outside the window, turned his head, and said to the girl beside him: "We are starting from the airport, so it is not easy to be followed."

"OK." Qiao Nian understood what he meant, taking off from the separate runway in Beijing is indeed too eye-catching and easy to be spotted.

Airports are much better.

There are quite a few private jets taking off at the Capital Airport every day. Even if someone wants to check, it is not easy to get in and find them.

In this way, unnecessary trouble can be avoided.

Capital International Airport.

At the same time, a taxi arrived at the airport. After the toll, only a row of car exhaust was left.

Hai Tong stood at the airport gate, watching the taxi leaving, complaining all over his mouth: "What kind of attitude is he, we two girls don't help us with our luggage."

"Okay, let's go in." Elena didn't take it seriously, she packed her suitcase and walked into the airport.

Although Haitong was dissatisfied with the taxi driver's service, she still kept pace with the people in front of her, for fear of being left behind.

They went to the counter to pick up the ticket first, and then stored their luggage before going to the boarding gate.

Because it is still early.

Haitong thought about going so early and there was nothing to do, and they happened to pass by an airport coffee shop, so she didn't want to leave.

"Aina, let's sit here and have a cup of coffee before going over."

She was afraid that Elena would disagree, so she shook the ticket in her hand, and added: "Anyway, it's still early, and there are still two hours before boarding."

Eileen heard the words, looked down at the time on the watch, and followed: "Okay."

Hai Tong was very happy and ran to the bar to order food, and ordered two glasses of iced Americano.

Chapter 4575 I feel someone is peeping at her

There are many people at the airport.

There are not many people in this cafe.

She waited for several minutes to get the coffee, and took two cups of coffee to Elena to take a seat, and gave one of the coffees to her friend.

Using his foot to hook the opposite chair away, he sat down comfortably, and immediately took a big mouthful of coffee into his stomach, finally relieving his sleepiness.

"...I don't know if there are any vacant rooms in the hotel on F continent."

"If we're going to see the Great Migration, we need to find a local guide and rent an off-road vehicle, right?"

"I hope it doesn't rain over there."

She was still talking to Eileen who was opposite her about going to Continent F, her cheeks were slightly flushed, her eyes were wide open and full of anticipation.

Eileen just picked up the iced Americano with one hand, lowered her head and took a sip, leaned back on her seat gracefully, and looked at the crowd of people coming and going at the airport.

Actually, she doesn't need to be so troublesome. She has to start from the airport, buy a plane ticket to go to Continent F first, and then go to the local car to go to the place she wants to go.

With the strength of the island, she can arrange a plane to fly directly there.

It's just too loud.

She took Haitong with her again.

After returning from Continent F, he plans to stay in Beijing for a few days.

That's why she condescends to buy a ticket to travel like ordinary people for unnecessary trouble, and also to prevent being recognized later.

"... Do you think we should buy some sunscreen at the airport? Hey, my skin is very delicate and I can't get the sun. Every time I get in the sun, it turns dark and I can't recover for a long time."

Eileen heard the voice of the girl whispering in her ear, a little bored: "It's up to you."

Haitong didn't think she was too perfunctory, but rather liked her careless sense of relaxation, and said cheerfully: "Let's buy one."

Suddenly, Elena's eyes focused on one place, and she stopped moving.

"Is it appropriate for me to buy a 30+ or 50+ sunscreen?"

Haitong was happily discussing the issue of sun protection, but belatedly noticed that her friend stopped talking.

"What's wrong with you?"

As she asked, she followed Elena's gaze again and again.

At a glance, she saw the figure that made her burn with anger.

"is her?"

Hai Tong frowned fiercely, the smile on his face faded like a tide, leaving only a stinky face with the corners of his mouth pulled down tightly.

She looked at the girl who was not far away, as if she was looking at killing her father and enemy, and gritted her teeth and squeezed out a sentence: "Why is she lingering, she is everywhere!"

Qiao Nian didn't know that there were people looking at her when she was standing here buying a can of drink, but she was still staring at her every move, wishing to see a flower.

She threw a few coins into the self-service drink machine, selected the drink she wanted to drink and pressed it, and the drink rolled out in less than a second.

She bent down to pick up the can at the delivery port, pulled off the tab, threw the unnecessary tab into the trash can, raised her head, took two sips of her drink, and was about to go in.

Just then, she felt someone on the right looking at her.

Qiao Nian was about to look over.

I heard Ye Fanchuan who was waiting for her in front asking: "Isn't it alright?"

Qiao Nian held the can with one hand, and left the uncomfortable feeling of peeping behind her, and walked forward: "Okay."

Ye Wangchuan saw that she didn't buy an iced drink, so he raised his hand and pressed the top of the girl's head, as if silently praised: "Let's go."

Qiao Nian was used to his small movements, and he didn't mind if his head was patted. He put one hand in his pocket and followed with a drink in the other.

Chapter 4576 In fact, you and my brother are very good match

The two quickly entered the boarding gate.

The airport was crowded with people and was quickly overwhelmed by the crowd.

Haitong kept watching the figure that disgusted her disappear into sight, and then she couldn't suppress the disgust in her heart and said, "What is she doing at the airport? Going out to play again? You're still dragging my brother, you're really thick-skinned!"

From their perspective, they could only see the back of the man, not the front, and they couldn't see what the person walking side by side with Qiao Nian looked like.

Eileen heard Haitong mentioning that person without hesitation, her eyes flickered slightly, she lowered her head and took a sip of coffee, and asked the question casually.

"Do you know anyone who walked with her?"

"My brother."

Haitong didn't even want to answer.

She was afraid that Elena might not understand, so she added: "It's the people from Grandpa Ye and Aunt Ye's family that you went to meet that day. I usually call him brother, he is probably my elder brother who grew up."

"My brother has been very good since he was a child, and he was also the first in the school in school, with a very high IQ... The only thing that is not good is his vision."

Hai Tong curled her lips: "Maybe it's because the circle he has been in contact with since he was a child is too high-grade, and he has never seen any scheming girls, so he was deceived by this kind of thing!"

Eileen heard the pride she couldn't hide, and slightly raised her eyebrows: "So he is the Ye Wangchuan you often mentioned to me?"

"Well, that's him."

Haitong didn't mind Elena calling her brother by his name, because she always regarded Elena as a foreigner who didn't understand the world.

In foreign countries, everyone is more free and unrestrained, and she only thinks that Elena is not so thoughtful and has a pure mind, unlike some people with deep scheming.

"Although I didn't see him face to face, I'm sure that person is my brother." Hai Tong said with absolute certainty.

Eileen pursed her lips, and stopped talking, her dark brown eyes narrowed as if she was thinking about something.

Haitong was still introducing to her how good Ye Wangchuan was when he was studying, how many awards he won, and how high his IQ was in the test...

Elena only had that back view in her mind, tall, slender and thin. Although she didn't like the black hair very much, she could roughly deduce the man's appearance from the back view and some usual descriptions by Shanghai Tong. Look type.

Must be an oriental man with outstanding looks!

Eileen was still a little satisfied.

Although she doesn't care about the appearance, relationship status and personality of the marriage partner, as a woman, she definitely doesn't want her future husband to be an ugly man who can't do anything.

If the other party is amazing enough, she doesn't mind cultivating a relationship after getting married in the future, creating a fairy marriage of harmony and harmony.

Eileen was sitting on the back of the chair at this time, picked up the iced Americano on the table, and took a sip of coffee leisurely, feeling much lighter.

"... What do you think my brother is looking for in her? I have never understood. She is an adopted daughter who goes around the city. Even if she finds her biological parents, her background is just like that. How can she be worthy of my brother?"

Hai Tong was still arguing for Ye Fanchuan, as if she could also intervene in the Ye family's affairs, and her opinions also needed to be included in the reference opinions.

Eileenna ignored her naive question, and just replied with a meaningful sentence with a casual expression.

"A man always has a period of immaturity. When he matures, he will understand what he wants and what he should want, and will make the right choice."

"That's what you said."

Haitong thought about it and nodded approvingly, then said half-jokingly and half-sincerely: "Actually, I think you and my brother are very good match."

Chapter 4577 Sister Nian cares about others, admit it

Eileen stopped drinking coffee and looked up at her.

Haitong didn't notice, it was a pity that he was still talking to himself: "My brother doesn't know you either, if he knew you, how could he like her?"

A smile floated on the corner of Elena's mouth: "It's okay, we will get to know each other sooner or later."

Haitong felt that what she said was strange, and subconsciously looked at her.

At this moment, Elena has already lowered her head and is drinking coffee slowly, unable to see what she said intentionally or unintentionally.

Haitong automatically thinks that she is thinking too much.

So followed regret.

"I also hope that you and my brother can get to know each other as soon as possible. I am willing to have you as my sister-in-law. She is not worthy of carrying my brother's shoes. It is best to go as far as possible."

"hehe."

Eileen smiled perfunctorily.

Haitong criticized Qiao and read a few more words, then shut up when she felt it was boring, and moved on to other topics...

in.

Qiao Nian took a few steps, drank the drink in a few sips, and threw the can into the trash can before boarding the plane.

Fold back again.

With his hands in his pockets, wearing a peaked cap, only a cold white chin was exposed.

"I feel like someone is following me."

"?" The crew leader just came over to report to Ye Wangchuan, who was still reading the small notebook with crew member information and various inspection indicators of the aircraft in his hand.

Hearing this, he raised his head: "Shall I ask someone to check?"

He didn't even ask Qiao Nian where he got the feeling that someone was following him, and what evidence could prove his guess.

Qiao Nian shook his head after thinking about it, his face was condensed, and he was full of embarrassment: "Forget it, it's not necessary."

"Since they want to follow, let them follow. I also want to see what the purpose of these people following me is. It's best to solve it together."

Ye Wangchuan recalled the staff who were going to the airport to check.

The time soon came to three o'clock in the afternoon.

is their estimated departure time.

Joe Nian got on the plane and found a corner seat according to the old rules, then called the flight crew to ask for a blanket, then put the shoulder bag aside, and found things for sleeping such as eye masks and earplugs.

Ye Wangchuan took out the computer beside her to prepare for work, and when the computer was turned on, he didn't forget to carry a blanket for her.

Qiao Nian felt his meticulous care, and fell silent, instead of immediately pulling down the blindfold to sleep, but looking at him with clear eyes.

"The patient better rest."

"Tsk, God Qiao, is this a request or a suggestion?" Ye Wangchuan put his wrist on top of the laptop keyboard, revealing a thin wrist.

He had a brown Buddhist bead wrapped around his wrist, and the sumi hanging from the bead looked like a bright red, like a Buddha or a demon.

It's like he gives people a feeling of contradiction and harmony.

Ye Wangchuan is gentle and quiet most of the time, but the basis of this gentleness is that when he is not interested in the people and things around him, he will give people a gentle and tolerant appearance.

In fact, he is cooler than anyone else in his bones. Like the beads on his wrist, it seems to be the gentlest color, but in fact it is also the most indifferent color.

Qiao Nian narrowed his eyes and looked back: "What's the difference between a request and a suggestion?"

Ye Wangchuan thought for a while, and put on a very serious expression: "If Qiao God asks me to rest, I will rest. If it is a doctor's suggestion, I will not accept the suggestion."

Qiao Nian: "..."

She pulled down the blindfold and raised her legs: "Whatever you want."

Ye Wangchuan saw that she was asleep, then pursed his lips and smiled, raised his hand and lowered the brightness of the light above, so as not to irritate Qiao Nian's eyes.

Chapter 4578 Delusion: Yes, follow orders

Then he focused on the computer screen, swiped the mouse, and was just about to open the email Ji Lin sent him.

at this time.

Qiao Nian, who was 'sleeping' on the side, suddenly stretched out a hand to block the front, and pulled off the blindfold, revealing those dark and bright eyes.

"You didn't sleep for a few hours yesterday, did you?"

Ye Wangchuan looked at the person who was suddenly not sleeping again, and helplessly leaned his body back to make room for her: "I'm not sleepy."

Qiao Nian frowned again, pursed her lips, and smiled angrily: "Aren't you sleepy? If you don't sleep, you're still sleepy. Why don't you be a god?"

Ye Wangchuan understood and groped, but was very smart and didn't answer.

Qiao Nian was irritable for a while, looking at his pale face, a wave of inexplicable anger subsided again, and the corners of his mouth were drawn into a straight line: "You sleep with me for a while."

Ye Wangchuan raised his eyebrows.

She didn't look someone in the eye, and added: "It's a request."

Ye Wangchuan bent his eyes like hooks, and responded very obediently: "OK."

Then he closed the notebook, put the computer aside, and smiled softly: "Listen to you."

Qiao Nian lost his temper after being laughed at by him. He rubbed the center of his brows, then shared the blanket on his lap with him, and said in a low voice, "You rest for a while. I still need your help when I get to Continent F."

Actually, she didn't even think about asking anyone for help, but Qiao Nian felt that maybe he would listen to her and take a good rest, instead of taking the computer and starting work again later.

"Didn't you say that you don't worry about me being alone, so you should rest well and keep your spirits up before you have a chance to keep an eye on me."

Ye Wangchuan's eyes glowed softly, and the bright stars fell into his eyes, which showed Qiao Nian's duplicity.

He raised his hand and turned off all the lights above his head.

fell into darkness all around.

Qiao Nian could only hear the soft breathing beside her.

The corners of his lips curled up: "Yes, follow orders."

After flying for nearly 20 hours, the plane landed at David's site in F continent.

Wait for the plane to taxi and stop.

Open the cabin door.

The people on the plane get off from it.

Qiao Nian saw many people waiting outside.

In addition to the familiar faces, Gu San, David and Guan Yan, Chun Lei, Hou Zi and others also came.

She turned her wrist, raised her hand and pulled the peaked cap, and was walking down.

Someone came up first with three steps and two steps.

"Miss Qiao, welcome to Continent F."

Qiao Nian took a closer look, and saw a burly man with a deep scar on his face, looking fierce.

But greeted her with a very respectful expression.

"Yes." Qiao Nian recognized him as Mo Dong, everyone was familiar with him, so he nodded and signaled to him, "Thank you."

Mo Dong happily touched the back of his head, his mouth was about to open, and he didn't notice the fire-breathing eyes of David and his group behind him.

and Ye Wangchuan who got off the plane half a step behind Qiao Nian.

"Very happy?"

Mo Dong heard a familiar voice, he turned his head belatedly and saw his boss, the hairs on his back stood up, and immediately shook his head: "No."

Ye Wangchuan's thin lips curled up: "You are not happy to see me?"

Cold sweat dripped down Mo Dong's back, and he buried his head and shouted loudly: "... Hello, Mr. Wang!"

...

There was a lot of movement on their side.

David certainly heard it.

He had just brought someone to meet Qiao Nian, and immediately said with a bad face, "You deserve it!"

Then he took a deep breath, and immediately complained to Qiao Nian: "Boss, look at the people in the dark fort who are almost treating our base camp as their own home!"

Chapter 4579 Sister Nian: Then let him die

"Damn it, I heard that you guys are coming back today, so you drove over early in the morning and stayed here, it's too much!"

The most important thing is that Mo Dong is on his territory, and he runs faster than his own people, running to meet their boss.

What are you doing?

Grab the boss?

David had never been so angry before, his nose was crooked, his chest heaved and heaved, and he said with a gloomy expression: "Just throw him in Wolf Valley!"

Behind him, Chunlei was the first to raise his hand: "I agree."

The group of monkeys following her also silently raised their hands: "We also vote."

It can be seen how frequently Mo Dong and Mo Xi have been running to the base camp recently, which made Chun Lei and others very unaccustomed to it.

They have been rivals for the past few years.

Continent F is just that big.

It is agreed that the two of them will fight to the death.

As a result, the two bosses are together.

The old rivals came to their house every day to eat and drink, and even licked their boss. This magical day happened every day, which made them lose a few pounds because they couldn't eat.

Guan Yan watched the excitement from the sidelines, and smoothed things over in the middle.

"You can do it. The secret castle recently gave you several gold mines, which is enough to pay for your food. Don't talk about being wronged, as if they are bullying you."

"Cough."

David's eyes flashed, and he put aside his old face. He obviously lacked confidence in this regard. Before that, his back was straight and he was vague.

"The food expenses are food expenses, and I didn't force them, they were willing to give it to us."

David didn't want to admit it though.

But I have to admit that Ye Shaoting behind the dark castle knows how to win people's hearts.

Since being with sun.

The dark castle always comes here to give them benefits from time to time, and every time the offer is generous, it is hard for him to refuse the benefits.

How to say.

That person's advantage is like this.

As soon as Guan Yan mentioned it, his guilty conscience of being short-handed would come to his mind, and he would not even dare to sue their boss.

Chicken thief!

"That's right." David quickly calmed down: "Sun, do you want to see who that is?"

Qiao Nian raised her head slightly, revealing a pair of cold eyes under the brim of her hat. After a while, she said calmly, "You mean him?"

David smiled and said: "He really wants to see you."

"Since the first day Guan Yan sent him here, he has often used hunger strikes to protest and ask to see you."

But this is Continent F, not Continent M where Nie Qingru is.

He's not Nie Qingru either, so he doesn't have so much time to waste energy with him, so from the first time Zhai Xicheng threatened him with a hunger strike, David simply and rudely asked the doctor to give him nutrient solution directly when he was about to collapse from hunger .

Anyway, Sun told him that he only had to leave this grandson alive, as long as he didn't die, but he didn't tell him that he should be confessed as his ancestor.

David: "Sun, have you seen him?"

Qiao Nian was unmoved at all, without even thinking about it: "No see."

As she walked forward, the girl's surly voice drifted in the wind.

"You can tell him that he can die if he wants to. I won't stop him. If he died today, I will have someone take him to a random grave and bury him today."

Zhai Xicheng didn't have to threaten her with death.

She is not Nie Qingru, and she doesn't care if her 'grandmother' will be sad.

He threatened the wrong person.

Chunlei is responsible for guarding the secret cell and delivering food.

The task of delivering the message naturally fell on her shoulders.

In the afternoon, she took her two brothers to the secret prison to deliver food, and the people locked inside called her to stop feebly.

"Qiao Nian is here, right?"

Chapter 4580 How could that woman care about him

Chunlei stopped, tilted his head, glanced at the bony person inside, and said nothing.

Zhai Xicheng sneered inside, as if she didn't need an answer, he leaned on the edge of the railing and whispered, "Tell her to come see me."

"Otherwise I'll..."

Chunlei interrupted him impatiently: "Otherwise, will you go on a hunger strike or bite your tongue? Boss said, it's up to you."

"You died today, we will bury you today, we promise not to waste a second!"

"..." Zhai Xicheng was stunned when he heard the words, raised his head, and stared at Chunlei with unbelievable eyes in his messy hair.

Chunlei grew up in Continent F since he was a child. He has a straight-forward personality.

"Don't think of your life as valuable. Who is a big man looking for? We are in State F, not a circus. Who has the time to watch you cry all day long, screaming that you are going to die... If you want to die, die quickly, don't waste our time!"

"you..."

Zhai Xicheng still has some ways to deal with rough people like David, but he has no better way to communicate with Chunlei, who has a gut like Chunlei. He has no better way than vomiting blood from anger.

Chunlei asked him again impatiently: "Are you going to die or not? If you don't die, I'll go."

Zhai Xicheng's complexion was livid, the whites of his eyes were turned out, and a fishy sweetness gushed out of his throat, as if he was going to die of anger from her.

Chunlei didn't care if he was happy or angry, he turned his head and left, as if Zhai Xicheng was not dead as he told her, she didn't even bother to take a look.

The brother who came with Chunlei to deliver the meal next to him complained, "Is there any disease in him? He has been reduced to a prisoner, so what are you crazy about? Threatening us with death, he has a sick mind."

Zhai Xicheng watched the figures of the three drifting away, and saw the door was closed, taking away the only light in the secret prison, and the place returned to deathly silence.

He gritted his back molars, turned over and grabbed the railing, the veins on the back of his hands were bulging, and he stared in the direction of the door, wishing he could grow wings and fly out, fight with Qiao Nian face to face, instead of being locked up here, can't even get out.

He knew very well.

Qiao Nian was transferred from the illegal area to Continent F by him. It was not just an idle move. It must have happened outside, which made her impatient.

He didn't know what was going on outside, but he vaguely knew in his heart that M Zhou and Qiao Nian were at odds again, and that Qiao Nian might come for real.

In this way, whether he can guarantee his life safety depends on the one from M state.

Zhai Xicheng's eyes were extremely gloomy and cold.

Back then, that woman abandoned his uncle for the sake of glory and wealth, so how could she risk her life to manage him now?

He originally wanted to meet Qiao Nian and negotiate a deal with her.

Now this wish has come true.

Letting him entrust his life to Nie Qingru made Zhai Xicheng extremely angry and disgusted, as well as deep in despair...

at the same time.

On a private plane flying to F continent.

Shadow walked lightly into the cabin, still holding a blanket in his hand, ready to cover Nie Qingru with a blanket...

However, when he approached, he found that the people inside were not asleep, and were opening the partition to look at the clouds outside.

The plane is sailing through the clouds.

Outside the sun shines in through the thin plate, and the hazy light shines on the woman's side face. The high-intensity light blurs the traces of time on her skin, as if at that moment, she returned to the age when she was still in her prime decades ago...
