

Madam's 4581

Chapter 4581 I can't control that much

Shadow couldn't help slowing down, even slowing down his breathing.

"Empress."

Nie Qingru didn't look back: "You're here."

Shadow carefully stood in front of her, breathing lightly: "Are you in a bad mood?"

Nie Qingru glanced at him at this moment, and rarely bent the corners of his mouth, as if he thought he asked a stupid question: "Tomorrow is the public execution time for that evildoer. The life and death of Xicheng is uncertain. Do you think I will be in a good mood?"

Shadow couldn't answer her question, looked at her and said, "It's too dangerous for you to pass like this..."

"I know." Nie Qingru was unmoved, with a firm expression on his face: "All of you told me not to go, but how can I leave him alone? Even if I know that evil person has bad intentions, I will not leave him alone."

"..."

Shadow didn't know what to say, so he simply didn't say anything.

He stood quietly next to Nie Qingru's position, silently accompanying her to watch the sunset outside the window.

The clouds outside the plane roll and unwind, and the rays of sunlight inlaid on the edge of the clouds are like overturned paint, which is amazing.

They haven't seen this kind of high-altitude scenery for a long time.

Nie Qingru didn't know what to think of, and suddenly asked, "Has Mr. Xue passed?"

Shadow nodded: "He set off half a day earlier than you, and should have arrived at Continent F by now."

"Yeah." Nie Qingru's tense face eased, at least not as serious as before, but a little more relaxed: "It's good for him to go."

Shadow understood what she wanted to say, and echoed: "Empress, don't worry, Mr. Xue still has a sense of awe for you."

As for the others...

Since Nie Qingru was impeached by the Privy Council, she is no longer the queen of the hermit family.

Many people stood in line immediately.

Keep a distance from them and don't want to approach them.

I was afraid of being implicated by them and offending Quentin.

During this period of time, Yingying followed Nie Qingru to see the warmth and coldness of human relationships, and he became more and more aware of the instinct of human nature to seek good fortune and avoid disaster.

It was not easy for Xue Laoken to reach out to them at this time!

"Where is she?" Nie Qingru lowered her eyes again, and asked, "Has she arrived yet?"

Shadow understood in seconds, and immediately put away the smile on his face, and said with a blank expression: "According to our people's information, Qiao Nian has arrived. The one from the dark castle... should be with her again."

"snort!"

Nie Qingru couldn't hide the sharpness in her eyes, and said mockingly: "She kept looking down on me back then when I bowed my head for power and married someone she didn't like. What about her?"

"She hasn't come to the present step by step like me relying on the man behind her. How noble is she herself!"

Seeing her getting emotional, Shadow hurried over and patted her on the back gently.

While whispering: "She grew up in the countryside and has never seen the world. It is inevitable that she will learn the tricks of inferior people. She is brutal and does not know how to respect her elders. It is not surprising that she can do such a thing... Your empress Don't be angry for her, it's not worth it."

"Yes. Who is she!" Nie Qingru also got emotional for a while, but quickly suppressed it, and told the shadow: "Have everyone on the island come?"

Shadow nodded slightly: "They're all here."

Seeing her relax, Yingying looked melancholy: "Empress, we contacted Dafang's line behind Shilao's back, will we offend him afterwards?"

"I can't control that much anymore!"

Chapter 4582 The people on the island also got involved

Nie Qingru's face was gloomy: "I have approached him a few times, but he is not willing to help me. The Irene family is even more shrewd and sits on the sidelines, and they are not willing to cause trouble for themselves at all... Apart from the big family members, I have other ways ?"

" ... "

Shadow lowered her head and stared at the tip of her shoe, knowing very well that Nie Qingru was telling the truth.

At the same time, he also knew that Nie Qingru made a very dangerous move.

The island has been turbulent in the past few years. The ten-year-old's son died suddenly, and his grandson had an accident. Now there is only one man left, the grandson who was thrown off the island.

The Dafang lineage, who had been suppressed by the ten elders all the time, suddenly emerged, and with the advantage of having children, it attracted many talents.

As a result, the two sides disliked each other, and fought incessantly in private, only to pierce the last layer of window paper.

The queen has been cooperating with ten elders before.

At this juncture, he suddenly turned around and went to privately contact Dafang's lineage and reached this cooperation... Shi Lao is not a person who rubs sand in his eyes. Once he knows that the Queen is behind his back and cooperates with Dafang , It is bound to find the queen to settle accounts.

Shadow is worried.

The situation on the island seems to be changing rapidly. In fact, most of the decision-making power is still in the hands of ten elders, and Dafang has not yet fully grown up.

The two sides seem to have exchanges, and the ten elders are more dominant.

This is also the reason why the two sides have not torn faces for a long time.

Da Fang still has some scruples here, he dare not really turn his face, and he is not reconciled to letting a foreign surname enter the house and become the talker on the island when he still has children in his family.

They are willing to help the Queen this time, there must be a reason why they are interested in the shares of Smith Bank behind the Queen. But who can say that Dafang didn't use the Queen to provoke and test the ten elders.

The queen is a living target in their eyes.

It is only used to test the attitude of ten elders.

Shadow was deeply worried, but there was nothing he could do about the stubborn Nie Qingru.

"As long as you don't regret it."

"...what have I to regret?"

Nie Qingru glanced at him, raised her eyebrows, and immediately looked out the window, her expression was cold and disgusted: "I only regret that I didn't kill her in the first place!"

Shadow knew that she was talking about Qiao Nian, so she fell silent.

The plane continued to sail to Continent F, and it would take another 4 hours to land at their scheduled place, and it was probably evening when it arrived at Continent F.

But there is a jet lag. After they land, it should still be in the evening on Continent F, and it won't be dark directly.

Shadow saw that the sun was fading outside, and the plane began to fly through the thick clouds. There was faint thunder and lightning flashing in the dark clouds, so he pursed his lips and said softly.

"I hope that when Mr. Xue arrives, he will join Yingshi and the others first."

A secret base in Continent F, surrounded by many observation decks, there are patrolling searchlights and patrol personnel on the observation decks at any time.

Following the high-altitude patrol personnel found the dust raised by the southwest convoy, they dropped the binoculars and ran to the main tent to report.

"Captain, we found a convoy coming towards us. Do you want to intercept it?"

The camp tent is a full 100 square meters in size, which is equivalent to the size of three rooms. There are some daily necessities, tables, chairs and benches, and a huge sand table.

The sand table imitates the ups and downs of Continent F, with many small flags planted on it. If you look carefully, you can see the totem of the bunker and David on the small flags.

Behind the sand table is a rectangular desk, enough for a dozen people to hold meetings at the same time, with enough documents piled up on it.

There is a lean man sitting in the first position on the left.

There is a laptop computer in front of the man. The black computer body is not thin, and the thick computer model can be distinguished from ordinary computers outside at a glance. It looks like a style commonly used in professional fields.

Behind the man stood a young man. The man was black all over, with no color other than black except for his skin color. Standing there, he stood there like a black sharp blade with sharp edges. Even the air in the camp slowed down because of his presence.

"Captain?" The lookout soldier who entered the tent called again in a low voice.

Shadow Ten stood behind the internal hacker, pointed at him: "You can check to see if you can control the surveillance in this area."

The hacker flipped his hands over the keyboard, and within a few seconds, he frowned and said to him: "It's difficult. I just tried it. If I break in by force, it will easily arouse the other party's alert."

"Yeah." Ying Ten was not surprised, and calmly pointed to another area: "Then step back further, what about this area?"

The hacker said: "Wait a moment."

Shadow Ten turned back: "They have the help of the Red League, and it is difficult for you to break through to normal. Our main purpose is to grasp their activity trajectory as much as possible. It is best not to startle the enemy. It is better to retreat, and there is no need to worry..."

The hacker kept his eyes on the screen, and his hands were fast.

Another two minutes passed.

There was a thin layer of sweat on his forehead, and he slowly loosened his frown, the tense look on his face eased, and he stopped slowly.

"Just wait until it finishes loading, it should be fine."

Ying Shi glanced at the happy expression on his face, and his resolute face didn't loosen the slightest bit because of it, but said lightly: "That's good."

He ignored the hacker who was sitting there waiting for the progress bar, turned around, and looked at the third person in the camp, as if he had just noticed someone coming in.

"Don't worry about that convoy, let them in when they arrive."

"Yes, Captain."

The watchman didn't dare to have any displeasure, and went out to convey his orders with a well-trained manner.

Twenty minutes later.

The convoy entered the camp.

An old man got out of the car in the middle. The old man was wearing a washed blue cloth shirt with white edges.

The bodyguards are all from M state. They are tall and tall, and they look very professional in a neat suit.

"Old Xue, this way."

After the old man got off the car, the bodyguards beside him took the initiative to lead the way and prepare to lead him to the only tent.

They were quickly stopped by another group of people. The man in black raised his hand to stop them all, and said very forcefully to the old man, "Old Xue, you can only go there."

The bodyguards of Continent M have never received this kind of treatment, and immediately glared at each other, and the two sides clashed: "What do you mean? We must always be by Mr. Xue's side to protect his safety!"

"Oh." The man in black didn't take the bodyguard's words at ease, turned his head and continued to look at the old man, still with haughty eyes and attitude: "Old Xue, this is the rule."

The bodyguard became even more furious, touched the gun on his waist, and warned in a deep voice: "You know who you are talking to, so pay attention to your attitude!"

The man in black was not used to him, and replied coldly: "I advise you not to be impulsive."

Chapter 4584: It's done, the intersection monitoring has been invaded

"So what if I'm impulsive!" The bodyguard confronted him.

The voice just fell.

Red dots appeared above the heads of Mr. Xue and his party, which showed that there were more than one sniper ambushing around and had already aimed at them.

The bodyguard's complexion changed drastically, and he looked at the man in black in disbelief, unable to understand what the other party meant by arranging a sniper.

Aren't they a partner?

Why does the other party act so domineeringly!

The man in black, Shi Shiran, looked him up and down, and still gave the same advice: "I told you, young people should not be too impulsive, they are easy to suffer."

"..." He is too arrogant!

The bodyguard's face turned blue, white, and red, like an overturned palette. The expression on his face was wonderful, full of anger, but he was afraid of the red spot on his forehead, so he froze in place and dared not move.

The old man in green shirt stood up at this time, and said to the man in black casually: "Tell your sniper to put the gun back."

The man in black looked him in the eyes, and the old man in green shirt let him look at him upright, completely different from the bodyguards around him, calm and calm.

The man in black stared deeply, then quickly retracted his gaze, raised his hand, and made a downward gesture. The little red dots that fell on the bodyguards disappeared instantly, as if they had never existed.

But things happen, they happen.

The bodyguards of the Hermit family who followed Mr. Xue were clear-eyed, and there were countless snipers surrounding them from all directions.

The bodyguards were afraid, so they didn't dare to clash with the man in black as before.

The man in black turned sideways, made a gesture of invitation, and said to the old man in blue: "Old Xue, our captain is waiting for you, please."

The old man in the green shirt straightened his sleeves, and before leaving, he told the bodyguards who followed: "You wait for me outside."

The bodyguards looked at each other, looked at each other, then lowered their heads, and replied softly: "Yes, Mr. Xue."

The man in black glanced at the convoy and bodyguards behind him, and walked ahead to lead the way.

In the tent.

The hacker sitting behind the sand table waited anxiously for five minutes, and finally saw the progress bar on the screen loaded to 100%.

He breathed a sigh of relief: "It's done!"

Ying Ten approached from behind: "Let me take a look."

The hacker immediately operated the mouse to bring up the background, hit the Enter key, and a large video frame popped up on the screen, facing a crossroad.

There are cars passing by the intersection from time to time.

Yingshi pointed to the small window next to it and said, "Open this for me."

"good."

After the hacker completed the operation, the monitoring screen on the big screen switched from a bustling intersection to a narrow road.

Compared to traffic at intersections.

No car will pass this path for half a day.

The hacker watched with him for a full two minutes and did not see a car passing by, so he couldn't help but peek at his reaction.

It turned out that Ying Shi looked very seriously, as if he could spot a flower in the empty picture.

Immediately said to him: "Find someone to keep an eye on this place 24 hours a day. Once a vehicle passes by, come and tell me immediately."

"Yes, Captain." The hacker obeyed the order first, then hurriedly glanced at the monitoring screen on the screen, struggled for a moment, and asked in a low voice: "Captain, there is nothing here, we really don't need to find two more brothers to keep an eye on Crossroads?"

Ying Ten left from the supported table, noticed the movement at the entrance of the tent, raised his head slightly: "No, just keep an eye on it."

Chapter 4585: The people on the island didn't take them seriously at all.

Seeing that the hacker didn't understand, he crossed his arms and gave the other side a few pointers: "Did you carefully read the map of the neighborhood before you came here?"

"That small road is the only shortcut to the base camp of the diamond tycoon. If they don't take this small road, they need to go around the main road for 5 kilometers. If you are a person who is familiar with the surrounding environment, you will choose to take the short road. Or take the main road and go around?"

"Definitely took a shortcut..." the hacker blurted out, and immediately understood what he meant.

Yingshi stood upright, raised his chin slightly, his eyes fell on the computer monitor screen, no joy or anger could be seen from his face: "Well, so we can keep an eye on the passing vehicles on this road to grasp their actions. "

The hacker looked at him adoringly.

Still want to talk.

Ying Shi noticed from the corner of his eye that the camp tent was opened, and said to the hacker, "You go out first."

The hacker also heard the movement, turned his head to see the people coming in, responded, got up, packed his things very neatly, closed the computer, and went out first.

When passing by the old man in green shirt, he didn't even say hello, and passed by without looking back.

Not to mention a bad attitude.

But his behavior of turning a blind eye in disguise shows that he didn't take the old man in green shirt seriously.

Mr. Xue has been treated like this since he arrived here. He still has a good temper, as if he didn't see the hacker's ignorance, and followed the man in black who led the way into the camp.

"I'll go out first."

The man in black changed his previous arrogance, and was completely obedient in front of Ying Shi. He led people in without Ying Shi asking.

Old Xue waited for him to go out before he seriously looked at the person in front of him.

Ying Ten doesn't look more than 30 years old, with an extremely young face, bronze complexion, it can be seen that he has been in training all year round, and the muscles on his arms are very strong, like a cheetah.

Ying Shi walked to the long table for receiving guests, took out two cups, poured two cups of tea, gave himself one cup, and pushed the remaining cup to the side.

Turning his head to the old man in green shirt, he said, "Sit."

Old Xue walked over, sat down on the seat where he put the teacup, and said hello: "Are you the Shadow Team that the Queen mentioned?"

Ying Ten doesn't care too much: "You can call me Ying Ten."

The old man in the green shirt said kindly: "Hello, I am from the Privy Council, and my surname is Xue."

"I know, Mr. Xue."

Ying Shishi's naked eyes stared at him closely, as if he didn't like the way of chatting in circles, he drank the tea in his hand in one gulp, put down the cup and said to the old man in green shirt: "Everyone is open-minded, I will be straightforward. Let me tell you."

Old Xue made a gesture of 'please speak'.

Ying Ten: "The task I received this time is to rescue Zhai Xicheng, which does not include the guarantee of your safety and Ms. Nie's safety. So during this period of time, I hope you and Ms. Nie can protect themselves. I don't have so much energy to take care of you with my brothers, don't trouble me..."

Although Mr. Xue has long seen the domineering people on the island, when Ying Shi unabashedly described him as a burden, he still couldn't help his face sinking.

Kaying Ten didn't care whether he was happy or not, leaned back with his arms folded, and said in a domineering tone, "Do you understand?"

Old Xue twitched fiercely, his face was cold and serious, his eyes were dim and unclear: "I remember that we are cooperating."

"That's right, it's cooperation." Ying Shi didn't take his mind off: "So I hope you and Ms. Nie cooperate with us to rescue the hostages as soon as possible."

Chapter 4586: Everything is under Miss Nians control

Old Xue saw the attitude of the other party, and knew that it was meaningless to communicate further, so he didn't touch the tea on the table, got up and said, "I understand."

Ying Ten leaned back on the back of the chair, didn't intend to get up to see him off, and said wearily: "Your room is on the right side of the camp, someone will guide you outside."

"rest early."

"Don't bother!"

Old Xue twitched the corner of his mouth again, this time he lost even the feigned harmony on his face, and walked away without looking back...

at the same time.

Qiao Nian took a shower, changed clothes, and walked to David's base camp. He saw the person in charge of following him intently watching the surveillance screen.

Monkey was there, when he saw the girl walking over, he bowed down and said hello respectfully: "sun."

"Yeah." Qiao Nian responded amicably, walked over and asked them, "How's it going?"

Monkey himself is less than 165 in height, with a thin body, very inconspicuous, with a pair of eyes rolling around, revealing a sense of wit.

Hearing Qiao Nian asking him, he immediately grinned happily: "Hey, just as you expected, Sun, they are watching the surveillance on that small road, thinking that they can control our actions with the surveillance right there. They Hackers have 'successfully invaded' the backstage to steal real-time monitoring images, and are closely monitoring that road!"

The reason why the monkeys are so happy is because the other party's move is all within their expectations.

Before Sun came, they had discussed with their boss how the other party would act in the video. After Sun's guidance, they decided that they could not get the surveillance around them, so they would find a way to zoom in on the target and retreat to the intersection 20 kilometers away.

At first, the boss thought that Sun was referring to Nie Qingru and the others who would keep an eye on the surveillance at the intersection, so they arranged for their brothers to prepare for action.

Who knew that Sun would mention that small fork in the road at that time, saying that Nie Qingru and the others would keep an eye on it.

It was a trail they used to take a shortcut.

If it is not for the locals, it is difficult to find the existence of this path, and they will not regard such a remote road as a key detection object.

Fortunately, Sun has planned a strategy and takes everything into consideration.

It turns out.

Those people really set their sights on this secret shortcut, ran to invade the backstage and intercepted the surveillance footage of the intersection...

"They will never know that the surveillance screen they are staring at now is a screen recording that we prepared in advance."

The monkey smacked his lips and sneered, as if he saw the picture of those fools happily celebrating that he had mastered the surveillance at a secret intersection.

"It's useless even if they keep an eye on the surveillance, because there's nothing on it, tsk!"

Qiao Nian dragged a chair over and asked one of the hackers to let her in. She sat in front of the computer with a flat expression, and said flatly: "They know how to monitor that way, which means at least this time the opponent has a brain, not pure and hard Come on, you know how to deploy control in advance."

Monkey restrained the smug smile on his face, concentrating a lot, and after thinking for a while, he understood what the girl meant, and tightened his mouth.

"Sun thinks these people are difficult?"

Qiao Nian tapped on the keyboard with her pale fingertips, propped her legs up, with a carefree demeanor, and didn't raise her head: "It's not difficult, it's just that I have a little more brains than I imagined, and it doesn't look like the style of the Hermit Family. "

Skinny Monkey had a more solemn expression than before, and couldn't help saying: "Sun, do you think there is a third party involved?"

Qiao Nian raised his legs and looked away from the computer slightly: "It should be."

Then he said casually: "Go and check and see who has come to F continent these two days."

Chapter 4587: I'll check first to find out who else is here in the past two days.

Monkey readily agreed: "Okay."

Then he poked his head curiously and pointed at the computer: "Sun, have you found out where those people are?"

It happened that Qiao Nian hit the Enter key with one hand.

The enlarged map of Continent F pops up on the computer screen, and there is a small red dot that is particularly bright on the map. As time goes by, the map zooms in and out...

The monkey saw clearly the flashing red dot area on the screen, and was extremely surprised: "Wo Cao, did they hide here?"

At this time, the map on the computer has been enlarged enough to see the neighborhood clearly, and even the surrounding houses can be restored one by one.

The place where the little red dot landed happened to be one of the houses.

Monkey's face was solemn, his mouth was tight, and he showed an angry look: "Those bastards, David let them live, they stabbed us in the back."

"What?" Qiao Nian became a little interested, and tilted his head: "Do you know this piece?"

"This area is right in front of our door, you must be familiar with it!"

The monkey clapped his hands violently, and spat out: "Haven't we been expanding our scope? We expanded to them the year before last."

"What David means is that we hide our own outpost in this area. First, we can detect suspicious vehicles coming to the base camp to a greater extent in advance. Second, this place can form a double-team formation with our base camp. It's easy to deal with emergencies."

"Later we went to find the people in this camp."

When Monkey mentioned it, his dark face was full of anger: "They are all locals, and they said that they guarded a piece of land to support a large family. David said that it would not work to arrange jobs for them, and it would not work to give them money. A group of people knelt down and suffered. Begging David not to take their place."

They didn't grab it at first.

Give money, work, and arrange other places. These people just don't agree, and they cry, and even carry the children out.

"David thought that it was not easy for the locals to live in F continent, and saw that they brought their families with them, old and young, so he gave up his previous plan and left them a sum of money to reach a cooperation with them. They help us keep an eye on anyone suspicious, and we send them a lot of supplies every month..."

The most difficult thing to obtain in Continent F is not the scarce resources such as gold and diamonds.

But rice oil noodles and other daily necessities.

They were kind to the gang.

Unexpectedly, the other party took what Naka wanted from them, but secretly betrayed them and gave up the camp to the hermit family.

Monkey rolled his eyes angrily: "We just treat them too well, how could other forces discuss with them."

"That's right, Continent F has always been for the strong to survive." Qiao Nian said in a calm tone, with her hands on her knees, she tapped her fingertips intentionally or unintentionally.

"You go to find out the opponent's background first, don't startle the snake by making mistakes."

"clear."

The monkey stood up straight with a loud voice.

The girl was so noisy that she dug her ears, her long eyelashes drooped, and her eyes were a little blue, it could be seen that she hadn't had a good rest.

Qiao Nian stopped beating with her hands on her knees, and narrowed her eyes slightly: "Forget it, I'll find someone else to ask."

Monkey looked disappointed, still bent down, and bowed to the girl very respectfully: "Yes, Sun, I'll go and find out who came to Continent F these two days."

Qiao Nian looked back at the computer, raised his hand, and didn't look back: "Yes."

The monkey went out first.

When I went out, I happened to meet Chun Lei.

Chapter 4588: You are stupid, isn't there the one from the dark castle?

Chunlei stopped him when he saw his depressed face, and asked him: "What's wrong with you, you look so bad, you were scolded by Sun?"

How does this person talk!

Monkey pushed her big palm away angrily, and snorted: "Why is Sun scolding me, do you think she looks like someone who can scold people?"

Chunlei stroked his chin, and looked at him thoughtfully: "Then you walked out of Sun's tent with a bad face."

Houzi knew at a glance that she had no good things on her mind, so with a dark face, he pointed to his nose: "Do you think I'm an F-state agent?"

Chunlei looked in disbelief, stretched out his hand to touch his forehead, withdrew his hand and muttered to himself: "I don't have a fever."

Houzi became more and more ashamed and angry, avoiding her, emphasizing his tone angrily: "I don't have a fever! Sun just wanted to inquire about someone, but he didn't want me to find out! Is there anyone who knows more about Continent F than me?"

Chunlei was stunned for a moment, and asked him, "Is that all you want?"

Monkey didn't understand: "Isn't this enough to make me sad? Sun obviously doesn't believe in my abilities."

They all dream of getting Sun's approval.

He is best at scouting news.

As a result, sun refused to let him do it.

Shouzi was extremely sad and depressed. He always felt that he couldn't hold his head up in front of Sun, and that he didn't show some skills to make Sun not believe that he could do well.

"Hahaha." Chunlei leaned forward and backward with a smile, tears came out of his eyes, and he didn't forget to slap him on the back with his big hand like a cattail leaf fan, while laughing, he said without sympathy: "No, hahaha, you Can't your brain turn around?"

Monkey's face darkened, and he pulled her hand forcefully: "Go away, I still have things to do, you can go by yourself!"

Seeing that he was about to get angry, Chunlei quickly dragged him back, and said with a suppressed smile, "You must be the one with the best news here."

The monkey barely struggled, waiting for her to finish.

Chunlei smiled: "But have you forgotten that there is still a distinguished guest here?"

"?" Monkeys are not stupid.

He is small and thin, and it is difficult to survive in a land like Continent F that advocates force. He not only survived, but lived very well, all thanks to his brain.

As soon as Chunlei pointed out, he immediately figured it out.

"You mean the one from the dark castle?"

Chunlei looked at him with a smile: "That's right, I don't have any information about the secret castle? You and Moxi are 50/50, what about Ye Shao? What percentage do you have?"

The monkey showed a tangled expression as if he had eaten a fly. Although he didn't want to admit it, he already agreed with Chunlei's statement in his heart.

Now he doesn't suffer from the fact that Sun doesn't believe in his ability, it's another kind of discomfort.

It's hard to be run over by the boss!

The thin monkey slammed his mouth, swallowed his saliva, at least he didn't look bad, and said to her: "Sun asked me to find out who came to F continent in the past two days, I'll go to work first."

Chunlei waved his hand without stopping him, "Go."

She also wants to go in and report to Sun about Zhai Xicheng's situation.

...

When she went in, she saw the girl sending messages with her mobile phone in both hands.

Chunlei saw Y's profile picture on WeChat with his sharp eyes, and immediately avoided it consciously. He stood aside and waited for Qiao Nian to finish sending the message.

Qiao Nian finished it in two minutes. She seemed to have seen her come in a long time ago, put the phone back, and sat on the table with her legs up: "What do you want me to do?"

Chunlei didn't delay: "I want to ask Sun, tomorrow is the execution day, when do you plan to send him out? I'll call the brothers to prepare in advance."

Chapter 4589: Tomorrow is the day to execute Zhai Xicheng

F Continent has a square dedicated to the execution of wrongdoers, and from time to time, there will be people who make mistakes are sent to be executed in public, in order to achieve the purpose of deterrence.

This kind of public execution is more like the animal show in ancient Rome, which always attracts many people to watch.

Chunlei explained to Qiao Nian the rules of the execution in Continent F. In addition to the need for a force with a name and surname, if someone wants to go to the execution stage, the force needs to submit an application in advance, explaining the situation of the person to be executed, name, height, age, and what he has committed. wrong.

After passing the review, the execution party will arrange a time to notify the applying party at a certain time on a certain day.

After the two parties clarify the time, the execution party will post the schedule of the execution on the square to inform everyone, and anyone who wants to watch will take a seat in advance.

The power side needs to send people to the square in advance at a certain time of the day, lock them on a wooden stand, and wait for the specific time to arrive.

This ancient tradition originated from the long-standing local cultural habits of f continent, and it is very rude.

They have taken root here for almost ten years, and they have never participated in this activity, and they do not allow their subordinates to watch.

This is the first time they sent people to the execution show.

So there must be a lot of people watching the excitement on the other side of the square.

Chunlei told Qiao Nian about the possible congestion that he expected, and immediately said: "If there are a lot of people coming to the scene tomorrow, it may be difficult for us to control the people in the crowd who have not mixed into the hermit family."

"If you can't control it, don't control it." Qiao Nian said casually: "Since it's a show, I don't have to worry about the audience watching it."

Chunlei vaguely felt that she had guessed something about Sun, but she respected him very much, so she immediately stopped the desire to guess.

"Then when do we send people there?"

"It starts at ten, right?"

"right."

Chunlei said: "Generally, this kind of execution show starts on time at ten o'clock in the morning."

Qiao Nian propped his chin and thought for a while: "Send it at nine o'clock, at least give them some time to prepare, right?"

Chunlei wasn't sure whether the 'other' she was referring to was the person in charge of the execution or the member of the hermit family.

But these are not things she should take care of, Chunlei doesn't worry about it, just leave it behind, and just carry out the tasks that she should do tomorrow.

"Okay, then nine o'clock."

"I'll ask a few more brothers to guard him so that he won't run away."

Chunlei delivered meals to Zhai Xicheng for a few days, and found out that this person is very cunning and good at acting.

She didn't think that Zhai Xicheng could make troubles under her nose, but she didn't want to make extra troubles and disrupt Sun's plan.

So to be on the safe side, she still planned to * people there tomorrow morning, and then called all the people in her team to go to the square to keep an eye on her.

"Thank you."

When Chunlei heard the girl's voice, he scratched his head in embarrassment, and then realized that his actions seemed to be inappropriate, so he put down his hands and smiled: "Sun, don't be polite to us. As long as it's about you, you can tell the brothers to go up the mountain of swords and go down into the sea of fire." As long as you don't mess up your affairs, we are not afraid of the rest."

Qiao Nian stared at her sincere eyes, paused, and said, "Thank you."

Chun Lei was more than happy to hear anything. He was so happy that he couldn't close his mouth from ear to ear. His skin was tanned darker than the average woman's and flushed. He was at a loss and didn't know where to put it. He was also embarrassed to look at Qiao Nian. I...actually I didn't do anything."

Chapter 4590: Sister Nian: Many new faces appeared around me

Chunlei remembered the WeChat profile picture he saw when he came in, and reacted quickly, and then said: "Sun, I'll go out first, so I won't disturb you."

Qiao Nian's phone on the table vibrated, and when she saw the caller ID, she picked up the phone and put it to her ear: "Hello."

Chun Lei only heard it.

"Well, I'm here to find you."

Then she saw Qiao Nian hang up the phone and said to her, "Let's go, I'll go out with you."

Ye Wangchuan's tent is next to Qiao Nian's tent.

It is a few steps away from the main tent, but it is not far, and it can be reached in a few minutes. David's arrangement is more reasonable.

Qiao Nian walked out of the main tent and separated from Chunlei, and walked towards Ye Wangchuan's tent by himself.

When she opened the tent and went in, she saw a fireplace burning inside, and the heat blowing towards her face was several degrees higher than outside.

F continent has a large temperature difference between day and night.

But Qiao Nian was used to things that didn't need to be heated, so he couldn't get used to the temperature inside all of a sudden. He stood at the entrance and stopped for a while to prepare his mind before walking towards the inside.

When Qiao Nian went in, she saw Ye Wangchuan sitting near the fireplace, with the laptop confiscated by her on the plane still on her lap.

Ye Wangchuan noticed her coming at the first time, put the laptop on his lap aside, got up and said, "Hot? I'll turn off the fireplace."

Qiao Nian walked over to stop him: "Don't turn it off."

"I'm not hot."

Then she went over to find a place, and asked first, "Did Mo Dong go back?"

Ye Wangchuan said very casually: "This is David's territory, it is not suitable for him to stay here, so I let him go back."

Qiao Nian tilted her head and squinted at him a few times, slandering Mo Dong in her heart that he is not suitable to stay here, but he is suitable as the boss of a dark castle?

How could he say these words without blushing?

"You said in WeChat that you have something to ask me." Ye Wangchuan changed the topic to ease the atmosphere: "What's the matter?"

Qiao Nian pulled away from the previous emotions and asked him: "What kind of power is the island you told me about?"

Ye Wangchuan is such a smart person, he immediately realized something, his deep eyes darkened, and a girl's face appeared: "Why did you ask them all of a sudden?"

Qiao Nian told him without hesitation: "I suspect they are also in Continent F."

Ye Wangchuan thought for a second before continuing with the girl's words: "You mean they got involved?"

"Nie Qingru seems to have found a helper, and he seems to trust him very much. I thought about it, and it seems that few people dare to take this hot potato, and 'Island' happens to be one of them."

Of the three giants of the Privy Council in the Hermit Family, two of them rejected Nie Qingru's request, and only Mr. Xue brought someone over.

Then there is Nie Qingru's own power... It has shrunk severely in the past few years, and it is not enough to support her to go to Continent F to rob people.

Since Nie Qingru is here, it is impossible not to find a helper.

Independent Continent Ji Lingfeng will not help her.

There are also many people in Smith Bank who do not agree with her.

Nie Qingru's options are limited.

is actually easy to guess.

Among these people, only the island is not familiar with her, and the island is also the most mysterious and hidden deepest force among these forces.

Qiao Nian didn't know the situation on the island either, but her sixth sense guided her to deduce it.

"Recently, I always feel that someone is following me, and there are many unfamiliar faces around me... It's a bit strange to think about it."

"Let me check."

Ye Wangchuan picked up the phone.
