

Madam's 4591

Chapter 4591: Sister Nian: It's the dragon coiling up for me, and the tiger lying on my stomach

Qiao Nian stretched out his hand to hold his hand, his eyes were clear: "Who are you going to contact?"

Her fingertips secreted cold, sticking it to her skin, and uploading it along the skin of her arm, and her heart was electrified.

Ye Wangchuan raised his eyes and looked over: "Well, ask someone."

Qiao Nian moved his hand away, tugged at the peaked cap, and moved his wrist again, suppressing his irritability and controlling his urge to touch the lighter.

said: "Forget it, it will be over tomorrow."

Ye Wangchuan slowly withdrew his hand, his eyes like inkstones: "Really don't ask?"

Qiao Nian squinted at him, as if saying: No way.

She paused, and then said again: "Don't you want to recognize them? Now that the decision is made, there is no need to get involved with them."

Ye Wangchuan told her that he didn't intend to recognize the so-called 'grandfather' and his biological mother who abandoned him since he was a child... The other party came to the door several times, but he had never seen him, and Mr. Ye tried to persuade him to make peace, but he didn't let go.

Qiao Nian didn't want to force him to contact his biological mother because of his own affairs.

"It doesn't matter who they are."

"Continent F is more important here."

Qiao Nian's face was full of arrogance, and he raised his jaw slightly: "Come to my place, I will be coiled up by the dragon, and lie on my stomach by the tiger!"

...

In the wee hours of the morning.

Nie Qingru's plane finally landed at Continent F Airport.

They didn't dare to land directly near the camp, but chose a farther airport, and then specially arranged three convoys when they left the airport to confuse their sight in different directions.

After the three convoys left for half an hour, Nie Qingru quietly drove out of the airport in the fourth car and headed for the camp in a low-key manner.

It took another hour before Nie Qingru's car drove into the camp.

Shadow got out of the car first and opened the door for her.

This time, the man in black who stopped Mr. Xue came to receive them.

The man in black first looked at Nie Qingru, then his eyes fell on the middle-aged man who helped Nie Qing get off the bus, and finally bowed slightly.

"Uncle Ning."

Shadow lightly supported Nie Qingru to stand still: "Empress, please slow down."

After Nie Qingru stood up, he withdrew his arm, took a step back respectfully, and stood behind Nie Qingru, turning a blind eye to the greeting from the man in black, as if he didn't hear it.

Nie Qingru glanced at the man in black from the corner of his eye, with a solemn face and cold eyes: "Take me to see Ying Ten."

The man in black seemed to dislike her domineering appearance, and looked at the middle-aged man behind her with forbearance.

Shadow still watched his eyes and nose, without giving him a look.

The man in black talked to Nie Qingru and led the way: "...Follow me."

In the tent.

Shadow Ten is still asking hackers.

"How is it? Has anyone passed that way?"

"without."

The hacker shook his head, also looking puzzled.

"It's strange that no car has passed here since the afternoon!"

Ying Shi frowned tightly, staring at the monitoring screen on the computer screen, and after a while, said in a low voice: "Do you think it is possible for the monitoring to be passive?"

The hacker immediately turned his head to look over, met his suspicious gaze, and immediately waved his hand in denial: "Impossible."

"Captain, you are looking at the monitoring background at the intersection I invaded. How could it be a monitoring problem?"

"And you see."

Other operations switch windows.

The window changes from the sheep farm path to a nearby intersection.

There are cars coming and going at the intersection, and pedestrians walking by.

"Everything is normal here."

Shadow Ten saw this scene and was also defeated by the 'fact', so he stopped thinking about it.

Chapter 4592: don't say hello to your uncle

Just at this time.

The man in black led Nie Qingru and Ying Ying to the door.

"team leader."

"Ms. Nie is here."

Shadow Ten patted the hacker on the shoulder and said to him, "Keep watching the surveillance."

The hacker nodded hurriedly: "Yes."

Ying Ten turned around by himself, and walked towards the hill on the map of Continent F, standing next to the sand table, without even looking at the middle-aged man.

Pointing to the sand table in front of him, he asked Nie Qingru, "Here is the topographic map of this area. How does Ms. Nie plan to save people?"

Nie Qingru saw that his attitude towards her was extremely ordinary, so she took a step forward and took off the shawl, and Shadow immediately stepped forward to take it for her.

Nie Qingru smiled slightly, and said to Yingshi, "You don't want to say hello to your uncle?"

The muscles on Ying Shi's resolute face were tense, and his naked eyes like a cheetah finally glanced at the servant-like man behind her.

Immediately, the corners of his mouth moved, revealing an extremely mocking and stern arc.

"Since he voluntarily left the island to follow you, he has nothing to do with the island. Ms. Nie doesn't need to mention him to me specifically. The task I received is to help you save people. Even if you don't remind me, I will do my best. Good thing. It's not for him, it's for the honor of the Ning family!"

He turned sideways again, pointed to the sand table in front of him, and signaled Nie Qingru to see clearly, looked at her expressionlessly and said, "Ms. Nie, let's talk about your plan."

Nie Qingru quickly flashed a trace of resentment in his eyes, squinted his eyes, and walked slowly towards the sand table under Yingshi's merciless gaze.

Shadow followed behind her, always keeping a step away, keeping his head half down the whole time, well-trained and well-mannered.

However, when Ying Shi saw the two approaching, he still tensed his muscles uncontrollably, especially when he saw the uncle he admired so much when he was a child wagging his tail behind a woman like a dog begging for mercy, he was extremely angry and disgusted.

He has been trained anyway, and he is no longer the little boy who would chase after his uncle when he was a child and ask why he left, why he abandoned his family, and why he left the island where they lived.

He had learned how to deal with it all.

Yingshi pursed his lips and said coldly: "We are a cooperative relationship. If Ms. Nie wants to save people, you'd better tell your plan and don't play tricks. Only then can we do our best to save people for you. Both parties are fine..."

Nie Qingru is used to giving orders, when has she been warned one after another by a junior before she even said a word?

She frowned visibly unhappy.

The shadow behind her immediately said in a deep voice: "Pay attention to your tone of voice."

He just finished speaking.

"Crack!" Ying Shi slammed the sand table chess piece he picked up in his hand onto the sand dune, raised his eyes, and yelled at him sharply: "What tone should I speak? When will it be my turn to talk and get a servant to make irresponsible remarks? And taught me how to be a man."

He seemed to be suppressing a forbearing thunder with his brows, and his eyes were fixed on Nie Qingru, feeling full of oppression.

"Ms. Nie, it's true that you are a hidden family. Our island seems to be no worse than your hidden family, right? Since you are asking us for help this time, please take care of your own people and correct your attitude !"

In the big tent, no one dared to speak except him.

The hacker standing behind the sand table pricked up his ears, staring at the computer without squinting, not daring to say anything, as if he couldn't hear or see the quarrel here.

Chapter 4593: old hag deflated

The man in black who brought Nie Qingru and the others in did not dare to say a word. He stared at his shoe tips and cursed secretly.

The captain hated his uncle for betraying the island and running away from home to work for the queen of the hidden family.

The empress dared to mention Uncle Ning's identity in front of their captain.

Uncle Ning is also...

Still when their captain is a child, the children can teach them casually?

The captain has long been the leader of the mercenaries on the island.

And Uncle Ning seems to be still living in the past.

Nie Qingru was unable to react for a while because of his angry accusation. When she came back to her senses, her chest was so painful with anger, she grabbed the clothes on her chest with her hands, and took a few short breaths of air.

Shadow noticed her livid face and the movement of grabbing her collar, and hurried over to pat her on the back gently: "Empress, are you alright?"

"..."

Nie Qingru's stern eyes wanted to tear the domineering young man in front of him to shreds. Her throat gurgled twice, and she opened her mouth again, but no sound came out.

Shadow was more anxious to give her a smooth ride, and kept asking her in his ear.

"Empress?"

"Queen, are you okay?"

"Empress."

Ying Ten felt extremely glaring when he saw this scene, folded his arms around his chest, looked down at the two of them, and pointed in the direction of the entrance of the tent.

"Ms. Nie is not in good health, why don't you go back and rest first, and we will talk tomorrow."

Shadow looked at him sharply.

Ying Ten was unmoved, and there was no room for negotiation: "My time is precious, please go ahead!"

"Empress, let's go first." Shadow helped Nie Qingru to go out.

Nie Qingru suddenly grabbed him vigorously, took a deep breath, and quickly suppressed all her emotions. The veins on the back of her hands were bulging, but her face seemed to calm down suddenly.

"No, I'm fine. Let's talk about how to save people tomorrow."

"OK."

Ying Ten didn't care about her life or death. He only had the task in his eyes, so he picked up the flag he had just thrown away and planted it on a sand dune.

He said calmly to Nie Qingru: "This is the square where the execution show will be performed tomorrow. You should have known it before you came, right?"

Nie Qingru looked at the totem logo of the diamond boss David on the flag. The dazzling red was like the corner of the girl's mouth when she challenged her.

Nie Qingru looked at it with hatred, and squeezed her palms to force herself to calm down: "I know."

Shadow sat on the sand table, put one foot on the ground, and rested the other leg on the edge of the sand table, tilted his head sideways and asked the two of them.

"Then tell me about your plan."

"You are her grandmother, you should know what she will do tomorrow. I also want to meet the legendary Hongmeng sun."

Not long ago, there was a lot of disturbance on Baishi Island, which was managed by the ten elders. If the ten elders were not busy fighting on the island, I am afraid that they would have pulled out their hands to deal with her long ago.

However, Ying Ten was very interested in this woman who was able to get away with one trick in the hands of the ten elders, and was eager to see the opponent's methods.

When Nie Qingru heard him mention 'grandma', her face darkened an inch, and the hatred and disgust in her eyes couldn't be concealed: "I'm not her grandma."

"Oh." Ying Shi didn't care much, and asked again: "Tell me about your plan, don't waste everyone's time."

Nie Qingru knew that the two parties were in a cooperative relationship.

She mainly relied on the people in front of her to rescue Zhai Xicheng, so she was angry again, and forced to maintain a calm attitude to communicate with the other party, and told Ying Shi about her plan...

Chapter 4594 Tell me what you have to say

Shadow Eleven wasn't serious at the beginning, but his expression became more and more serious as he got to the end.

"I'm planning on these for the time being, do you have any additional plans?"

Nie Qingru waited for his reply after finishing speaking.

It took a while.

Ying Shicai had a meaningful expression, and took a long look at the middle-aged man behind her, and said with a half-smile: "It can be seen that Ms. Nie really wants to save him."

Nie Qing frowned subconsciously: "I definitely want to save people."

Otherwise, what would she do in Continent F all the way.

"OK."

"The plan you mentioned is similar to what I imagined before. There are only one or two small discrepancies. We can discuss it again and explain to each other the reasons for the arrangement."

Shadow propped his elbows on the table like a boneless one, and immediately picked up a small flag and inserted it into the sand dune. The small red flag was brightly colored.

"This is David's flag, do you see it clearly?"

Nie Qingru looked at the domineering red flag standing on the sand table, unconsciously narrowed her eyes, and said nothing.

Ying Ten doesn't need her to talk: "In Continent F, David is not easy to mess with. I know you never look down on people outside the hidden family, but there is a saying in the Z country's art of war, ' Know thyself, ever-victorious'."

"My understanding is to recognize the strength of others, and then position yourself in order to win the game between the two sides."

"Now we are saving people on their territory, you can't force it, you have to use your brains. Otherwise... S won't let you take people away."

Ying Ten spit out cold words: "At least I am her, I will not let you take away the living."

Nie Qingru's complexion changed slightly, and she clenched her fists subconsciously. The veins on the back of her hands popped out and squeezed out from between her teeth: "She dares!"

"Chick."

Ying Ten didn't bother arguing with her about Qiao Nian's daring, so he tapped his finger on the sand dunes again, pointing to one of them.

"We have already mastered an intersection surveillance before you come, and they will pass by there tomorrow when they send people off."

He tapped his knuckles, signaling Nie Qingru to look over.

"Look here, what do you think?"

"Speak up if you have something to say."

"Once people are sent to the square, it is not so easy to take them away. Why don't we seize the opportunity and ambush here?"

Nie Qingru straightened his expression, and immediately became serious, walked over to carefully look at the map distribution on the hill, and the possibility of what Yingshi said.

She didn't answer immediately, but showed a thoughtful reaction.

Ying Ten continued: "Leave this to your people."

Nie Qingru narrowed his eyes immediately, and looked at him suddenly, his eyes were sharp, as if trying to pierce him, very unfriendly.

Yingshi seemed to know why she looked at him like this, and under her substantive gaze, he said in a flat tone: "You don't have to look at me like this, I am in a cooperative relationship with you, there are orders on the island, and I have given tasks. I have never had a failure record. So not for you, but for myself, I will try my best to save people, and in this purpose, we are all the same."

"How do you want to ambush?" Nie Qingru calmed down and asked.

Ying Shi began to tell her her own thoughts, and after explaining clearly to Nie Qingru one by one, Nie Qingru fell into thinking...

Ying Ten would not urge her to make a decision right away, but said calmly: "You are in charge of this, and I have arrangements on my side. This way the chances of saving people are much higher, it is up to you to think about it."

Chapter 4595 It's better to say that I worship Miss Elena

Nie Qingru stared at him deeply for a while, as if examining the sincerity in his words.

Ying Ten frankly let her see.

A few minutes passed.

Nie Qingru's brows relaxed: "Listen to your arrangement."

Ying Eleven had already guessed such an expression on his face, and shouted to the man in black behind him in a dismayed voice: "Send Ms. Nie to the camp where she is resting."

"Yes, Captain."

The man in black walked forward, walked in front of Nie Qingru and Yingying, and said politely to them: "Ms. Nie, please."

He saw Ying Shi's attitude, and this time he didn't dare to greet Ying Shi, and he only looked at Nie Qingru as No Ying.

Nie Qingru pressed the corner of her mouth, turned around and left.

Shadow also turned around immediately. Before leaving, he suddenly stopped and whispered to the young man behind him, "It was my own decision to leave home. You shouldn't take your anger out on the Queen."

Yingshi's face quickly turned cold, and he said in a cold voice that seemed to be sarcasm or mockery: "You really think highly of yourself. As I said, the Hermit Family is an overlord on the outside, but in front of the island, it is nothing. I have no obligation to be polite to her. As long as everyone can get along, but you want to ask me to treat her with the same respect as you, don't you think your behavior is ridiculous? "

Given his status on the island, now he only needs to be respectful and polite to the direct line of the Theron family, and everyone else has to respect him.

Why did he act like a dog in front of Nie Qingru?

"It's your freedom to abandon your loved ones and become a dog for a woman, but if you want to kidnap morally, I think too much just like you!"

"Because people who abandon the glory of the family are not worthy of my respect!"

Shadow was defeated by his murderous and heart-wrenching white choking face, his eyes darkened, he clenched his fists, and whispered: "It's not what you think, I have my own reasons, she..."

"Save it for yourself!" Ying Shi suddenly interrupted him, turning his back to him: "I'm not interested in your difficulties, so don't tell me."

Shadow raised the corners of his mouth bitterly, and then fell down quickly.

Then he dragged his exhausted body and left the tent like a teenager.

The camp returned to silence.

Seeing this, the hacker went to pour a glass of water for the young man, and gently handed it to Ying Ten: "Captain, drink some water."

Ying Shi took it, bowed his head and took a sip to moisten his throat. The cold water rolled down his throat, and his emotions that had just been provoked gradually calmed down.

"David is not easy to deal with, especially with the Hongmeng behind him..."

He wants to say that Sun is not easy to deal with.

The hacker was full of confidence: "Hehe, we are not good people. The Hongmeng is so famous, but the outsiders don't know the people on our island. We have now controlled the monitoring of that small road, and we only need to use this monitoring tomorrow, you can catch them off guard!"

Ying Ten always feels that things are not so easy to get things done...at least his sixth sense tells him that things will not be easily successful.

"By the way, you said that Miss Elena contacted you?" Ying Ten clenched the water glass with strength, his sharp eyes fell on the hacker, and he expressed a somewhat happy expression.

Everyone on the island knows that their captain listens to Miss Elena very much.

Many people mistakenly think that their captain has a crush on Miss Elena, but in fact, they, the people who often follow the captain, know it best.

It is more accurate to say that the captain has a crush on Miss Elena than admiration.

Chapter 4596 See who plays who

Their gang of mercenaries only recognize strength, and whoever has the most ability will have the most say. Among the young people on the island, the captain is one of the most powerful and intelligent beings. Before, no one looked down on him. It was not until he suffered two losses at the hands of Miss Elena that the captain completely changed his view of Miss Elena.

It is often said that a woman is a woman, and Miss Elena is Miss Elena.

Miss Elena is not an ordinary woman.

She's a genius or something.

Anyway, I recognize Miss Elena very much.

The hacker knew this, so he answered very simply: "Miss Elena said that she would also come to Continent F, and brought a classmate over."

"She's coming?" Ying Shi's eyes lit up, and he immediately put down the glass again, showing a serious expression: "No, this is too dangerous."

The hacker kept his eyes open and didn't say much: "Miss Elena will definitely take care of herself."

Ying Ten immediately said: "You find two brothers to go there tomorrow and keep her safe. She is more important than ten Zhai Xichengs!"

The hacker said: "Understood."

Ying Ten relaxed his muscles and paced in the tent: "I didn't expect her to come back from studying abroad. It's really great."

The hacker also smiled sincerely, and said, "If Miss Elena is here this afternoon, she must be better than me, and we don't have to only hack into the surveillance at this intersection. If she is here, we might be able to directly get the surveillance of David's base camp." , It's a pity that Miss Elena has only arrived in Continent F just now, what a pity."

Eileen is recognized as a computer expert on their island.

Many people on the island admire her because she is outstanding in all aspects among the younger generation, she is very good, so good that the younger generation are convinced of her.

"That sun also didn't meet Miss Elena, otherwise she wouldn't be the uncrowned king of hackers."

Ying Shi agreed in his heart, but still said: "Don't say that again in the future."

"The rules on the island are there. It is impossible for Miss Elena to compare with people outside, and there is no need to compare with people outside."

The hacker smiled and said, "Yes, Captain."

Early the next morning.

F continent's first ray of sunlight passes through the thick clouds, clearing away the fog of the night and bringing the first ray of light to the earth.

Nie Qingru and Mr. Xue's people have already set off, ambushing at the place they discussed last night.

This road is not a main road, and there are half-person-high plants on both sides that can hide the figure of an ambush person, but this process is a bit difficult.

These people need to lie on the ramp full of gravel. The edges and corners of the gravel are very sharp, and people will definitely get a bone headache after lying on it for a long time.

But the Queen and Mr. Xue gave orders, and the bodyguards of the hidden family could only obey the arrangement, enduring the pain and hiding in the bushes, waiting for the passing vehicles...

After waiting like this, Chenxi pushed through the clouds and the sun came out.

Mr. Xue and Nie Qingru are too old to lie in ambush in the bushes like those bodyguards, but they also waited for two full hours at the intersection not far away.

It was already 8 o'clock.

Old Xue sat in the jeep, turned his head to look at Nie Qingru who had been silent all this time, and said worriedly: "Empress, are you sure Qiao Nian will pass here?"

Nie Qingru pursed her lips, and looked at the intersection in front of her without squinting: "The island has a map, and this is one of the paths they must pass. They are likely to pass here."

When Mr. Xue heard her talking about the island, he paused for a moment, wanting to say something, and finally looked at her expression before swallowing his words.

Chapter 4597 I saw three big trucks driving out

Island...

The Queen admires the strength of the island very much.

But he feels that Qiao Nian is not the kind of master who is easy to handle.

The more confident the queen felt, the more he felt that something unexpected was about to happen. This strong sense of unease made him restless.

at the same time.

Base camp.

The girl was wearing a sweater and a hoodie, with her hands in her trouser pockets and a lollipop in her mouth, walking unrestrainedly behind Chunlei.

"How about it?"

Chunlei didn't realize that someone was behind her until she approached. He was taken aback, but reacted very quickly, tilting his body to make room for Qiao Nian.

"They're still lying there."

"Tsk, is it still there?"

"always there."

Chunlei pointed to the video on the surveillance, where Nie Qingru and Mr. Xue could clearly be seen lying in the bushes and not daring to move.

Chunlei was afraid that Qiao Nian could not see clearly, so he operated the keyboard specially, and clicked the zoom button twice, and the screen on the monitor zoomed in.

I saw the bodyguards of the hermit family lying there with pale lips, bulging veins on the temples, and their hands on the weapons, looking as uncomfortable as they could be.

Chunlei saw this scene, and only said: "It serves you right."

Then he turned his head and said to the girl behind him: "They have been guarding here since 6 o'clock, and it has been almost three hours now, right? A group of people can squat quite well, and the mosquitoes in F continent are not easy to mess with. I Look at them enough."

"Then help them." Qiao Nian suddenly said casually with a lollipop in one hand.

"?" Help them?

Chunlei couldn't figure out what she meant, so he raised his head cautiously and asked, "Sun, how can you help?"

"I remember that IPA asked us to deliver a batch of goods to the dock." Qiao Nian walked over and sat down with one foot on the edge of the computer desk.

"Ah? You said that batch of goods..." Chunlei clapped his hands suddenly, understood what the girl meant, and stood up excitedly from the chair: "I'll tell David right away."

Qiao Nian bit the lollipop again, with tired eyes, and hummed.

Chunlei ran to find David.

five minutes later.

Three or two trucks set off from the base camp and drove steadily towards the square.

Mo Dong just came out early in the morning. He was waiting for someone to open the door for him at the gate guard. When he saw the Sanliang truck driving out, he rolled down the window and put his elbow on the side to watch the excitement.

Before he had time to see what the truck had carried away, he saw David's sentry walking towards him with a sullen face.

The sentry handed the pass to him.

Angrily said to him: "Come here, don't look around!"

Mo Dong immediately made a signal gesture, with a smile on his mouth: "Brother, please."

The sentinel was even more angry, turned around and opened the valve, and warned the other party the moment the jeep passed by him and entered: "This is not your bunker, please don't look around."

"OK." Mo Dong pressed the window of the car, without any sign of anger, as if he had long been used to it, and didn't take the words of the sentinel at ease.

The army green jeep slid into the base camp.

He parked the car outside one of the tents, got out of the car with ease, opened the curtain of the tent and walked in quickly.

People haven't entered yet, but the words on their lips have already been brought.

"Master Wang, I met three trucks at the door and were about to go out. The rear compartments of the trucks were tightly covered with black tarpaulins. Could it be Zhai Xicheng?"

Chapter 4598 Are you sure the person is in that car

"Since when did you gossip like this?"

In the tent, Ye Wangchuan was preparing to make tea with hot water in his hand. As the hot mountain spring water trickled into the purple sand teapot, the clear tea leaves were washed up and down in the teapot, sometimes floating and sometimes sinking.

Mo Dong, who just came in, was subconsciously attracted by his elegant tea-making movements, and stood there watching for two seconds, unable to understand the complicated tea-making techniques.

He came back to his senses, walked forward and said: "This subordinate is just wondering whether Miss Qiao's visit this time is real or fake."

"What is real, and what is false?" Ye Wangchuan pinched the edge of the teacup with his slender hands, turned the cup to soak the first cup of tea around the teacup, and poured the first cup of tea into the teacup next to it without hesitation. in the slot.

Mo Dong unconsciously moved his eyes following the movements of his hands: "It's just...Miss Qiao really plans to teach that so-and-so a lesson, or is she just trying to scare her."

Ye Wangchuan cleaned the teacup and poured himself a cup of tea. This time, he took a shallow sip after smelling the aroma of the tea.

"You still have to have freshly released Longjing tea to taste the rich taste of rain."

"?"

Mo Dong raised his hand and touched the bridge of his nose. He really wanted to say that this stuff tasted like mouthwash when he put it in his mouth, so he couldn't tell the season of tea.

Mo Dong still wanted to continue the previous topic: "Wang Ye, do you think Miss Qiao is really coming this time?"

Ye Wangchuan didn't even look at him, he put the teacup on the table, and asked without beginning or end: "Is what I asked you to do done?"

Mo Dong nodded subconsciously: "The people have been arranged."

Ye Wangchuan got up, put away the tea set and said to him: "Take me out in the car later, don't let anyone find out."

"???" Mo Dong's face was full of question marks, and he opened his mouth: "But..."

But Ms. Qiao doesn't allow Master Huang to run around.

Besides, he has smelled the medicine on Master Wang's body since yesterday, and he doesn't know where he was injured, but judging from Miss Qiao's attitude, Master Wang must have been injured and is still not healed.

He took people out secretly at this time...Mo Dong's back stood up, hesitating a little: "Wang Ye, why don't you discuss it with Miss Qiao?"

Ye Fanchuan only glanced at him lightly.

Mo Dong swallowed all the words that filled his stomach.

"Yes, Master Wang."

the other side.

Three trucks from the base camp drove steadily towards the square, which is also the only way to the pier.

The truck staggered and drove forward slowly. When passing a crossroad, the leader seemed to remember something and ordered the vehicles behind to turn into a fork with him, turning from the main road into a small path...

Just drove it for five minutes.

Along the way, they only saw a jeep parked on the side of the road at the front intersection. They wondered if the tire of the car was broken.

The driver did not get out of the car to ask because he had to * important things, and continued driving as he passed the jeep.

at the same time.

The hacker's instructions came from the Jeep's in-vehicle Bluetooth.

"Here they come."

Nie Qingru just saw three heavy-duty trucks passing by her car, so she naturally knew that Qiao Nian had already taken the bait, a smile appeared on the corner of her mouth, she picked up the walkie-talkie in her hand, and gave orders to the people in ambush.

"Get people ready."

Mr. Xue was not as optimistic as her, and said bluntly, "Empress, are you sure that Young Master Zhai is on that car? The back of the car is covered with tarpaulins, so you can't see clearly."

Chapter 4599 I still want to catch Sister Nian

Nie Qingru is quite sure: "Of course she doesn't dare to expose people to our sight. Xicheng must be inside."

"..." maybe not.

The girl's usual arrogant and undisguised behavior emerged in Mr. Xue's mind, and he looked at the queen beside him who was already excited and showed a winning expression.

He knew he couldn't stop him, so he could only withdraw his hand silently.

"Since you say so..."

Before he finished speaking, the voice of the shadow came from Nie Qingru's walkie-talkie.

"Empress, they are approaching."

"Stop 'em!"

"yes."

Nie Qingru narrowed her eyes, showing a fierce look on her face: "Except for the people behind, the others... will not be left alive!"

The old man in blue was taken aback when he heard this, and shouted at her sharply: "Queen, this is Continent F, Qiao Nian's territory, don't provoke her."

Qiao Nian staged this public execution show because Nie Qingru almost killed her friend in Independence Island.

The queen hurting her people on her territory is definitely adding fuel to the fire.

Mr. Xue still had reason, so it was rare for him to stop him severely: "The purpose of our visit this time is only to save people, not to escalate the conflict. If you don't want to listen to my advice, don't look for me again."

Nie Qingru looked like he had eaten a fly, and didn't answer his threat directly. He turned around and picked up the walkie-talkie and said coldly to the person on the other end: "You just save people, don't hurt their lives, catch them and wait Let's come."

"Yes, Empress." A voice came from the intercom.

Nie Qingru looked back at the old man in the blue shirt at this moment, let go of the walkie-talkie and asked expressionlessly, "Are you satisfied now?"

The taut face of the old man in blue relaxed, and he relaxed his shoulders. Knowing that she was not satisfied with what he did, he still looked into her eyes and said, "Our purpose this time is to save people."

"Heh." Nie Qingru snorted coldly, her eyes flickered, she didn't know where she was thinking, and suddenly said: "I promise you not to move those people. But if that evil obstacle happens to be on these three cars, I can't guarantee it ..."

Xue Laomei's heart skipped a beat. She didn't know how she thought that Qiao Nian was in the car, and quickly glanced at Nie Qingru, feeling uncertain for a moment.

But there is also a faint expectation.

If Qiao Nian happened to be on top of one of these three cars, they would have hit the right spot and caught the most important person this time.

Even he couldn't help thinking about it.

At this moment, there was a sound of firefighting in front of them, attracting the attention of the two.

Old Xue raised his heart to his throat.

Didn't wait for him to worry for too long.

Nie Qingru's voice came from the walkie-talkie again.

"Queen, Mr. Xue, you can come here now."

"Very good!"

Even Nie Qingru, who was not happy, couldn't help showing a cheerful smile, and told the driver to drive over immediately.

At the same time, he said to Xue Lao: "I told you, even if it is her territory here, it can't win the people on the island."

"As it turns out, I was right."

She did not forget to mock Mr. Xue: "You just think too much."

The old man in the blue shirt didn't care about her, and rarely showed a relaxed expression: "I'm worried about changes, as long as the matter is resolved."

When the jeep of the two people stopped on the small road where they were ambushing, Nie Qingru and Xue Lao saw six people standing in the middle with their heads folded.

The shadows and their men surrounded these people with weapons, and they were negotiating something.

Chapter 4600 Stealing a chicken is not a loss

Nie Qingru opened the door without waiting for the car to come to a complete stop, got out of the car in a hurry, ran straight to the shadow, and immediately looked at the three large trucks behind him.

"How is it? Did you find anyone?"

Mr. Xue was a step slower than her, walking behind her, and followed her. His sharp eyes noticed that the complexion on Shadow's face was extremely bad, there was no blood on his lips, and he couldn't see the slightest smug look.

His heart skipped a beat, and he already felt something was wrong.

But Nie Qingru didn't realize it yet, and was still asking Shadow: "Have you checked the car? Have you seen Xicheng?"

Shadow lowered his head at this moment, and said to her: "Queen, we have been fooled."

Nie Qingru's smile faded like a tide: "What do you mean?"

Shadow raised his head and said to her with difficulty: "They are not from David."

"It's not David's people? Then who are they?" Nie Qingru turned to look at the six people, who looked more innocent than her.

"IPA..."

Nie Qingru's eyelids twitched, her expression was ugly, and she couldn't believe her ears: "What?!"

Shadow took a deep breath and repeated: "Empress, they are all IPA people."

"According to what they said, the IPA tracked down an internationally wanted criminal in Continent F not long ago, stopped their transaction, and seized a batch of contraband."

"Then the boss of IPA found David and asked David to take care of the shipment."

"They entrusted David to find a suitable time to transport this batch of goods to the IPA headquarters through the dock... They are the IPA staff who are responsible for picking up this batch of goods to the dock."

"..."

Nie Qingru was silent for a long time after listening.

Mr. Xue also never expected that things would develop in this direction, which completely exceeded their predictions and was heading for the worst.

"How could it be an IPA..."

"Where is the West City?"

Out of the corner of his eyes, Old Xue saw Nie Qingru murmuring in pain, took a deep breath, and said what he had long wanted to say.

"We've been tricked."

Nie Qingru stared at him sharply.

Old Xue was unmoved, and said in a low voice: "I don't know what those people told you, but from the current situation, it seems that Qiao Nian must have known that we would ambush here, so he arranged to lure us here. Take the bait..."

"impossible..."

Nie Qingru actually guessed it too, but she just didn't want to believe it.

"Then what does she want to do with this?"

Old Xue thought of a possibility, but he didn't have time to say it.

They should have let the IPA people go right away, when this never happened!

Nie Qingru's cell phone rang.

When she saw the caller ID, her expression changed slightly, and she reluctantly picked it up.

"Hello, Archbishop."

Quentin didn't talk nonsense to her: "People from IPA contacted me, saying that you robbed them of a batch of physical evidence in State F. Heh, what are you doing to provoke the international police!"

"It was a misunderstanding." Nie Qingru answered after being dumb for a long time.

Quentin said coldly: "I don't care if I misunderstood or not, the people from IPA have already come to the door! They have pictures and videos, and they want us to give an explanation."

"Our hidden family has never had such a scandal."

"Even if you are not the Queen, you are still a member of the Hermit Family." Quentin said neatly: "We will submit this to the punishment hall, and we will deal with it when you come back. Any behavior that harms the collective interests of the Hermit Family will be punished by us." Never condone and appease!"

"Now please let me go!"

Quentin's tone was very hard, definitely not a tone for discussing with her, and he was very disrespectful to her, and his words were quite ugly.

"The Hidden Family doesn't want to have any grudges with IPA!"
