

Madam's 4641

Chapter 4641 He can't die

He quickly calmed down again, threw Zhai Xicheng away like trash, looked at the man paralyzed on the ground, and said, "Listen, take off your clothes and give them to me immediately. Find a way to run away."

Yoderma is well aware of the danger outside, but now he is alone, he has no better way: "This is your last chance."

Zhai Xicheng vomited another mouthful of blood from the side of his head, struggled to get up, and without a word, he unzipped his clothes and began to take them off...

Yoderma was disgusted by his gloomy and taking advantage of his appearance, but because the mission was not easy to happen, he changed his clothes with Zhai Xicheng with a sullen face.

Yodemara got up and zipped Zhai Xicheng's coat, turned around and looked at the man who had been silent all this time, and said something before leaving.

"When I accepted the task, I heard from the queen of the Hermit Family that your family was silenced by conspiracy means, which caused you to find trouble everywhere."

"But to be honest, from what I've seen along the way. Their methods are quite open and aboveboard. It doesn't matter if they arrest you or kill you. Even if you lure us out by executing you, it's a conspiracy. Instead, you are the one who looks like a conspiracy side."

"What do you guys say outside?"

Yodema looked contemptuously at the corners of his eyes: "The mouse in the gutter is describing someone like you! I only help you for the task, and I don't even bother to look at you for someone like you at other times."

Zhai Xicheng clenched his fists tightly, staring at him with dark eyes, as if he was not convinced or restrained, unwilling to provoke Yodermar at this time.

Yodema looked at his unconvinced and dared not speak, and found it even more ridiculous. He sneered, and immediately said: "You can do it yourself!"

Then he put on Zhai Xicheng's clothes, buried his head and put on a hoodie, and rushed out quickly.

Zhai Xicheng looked at his back without looking back, let go of his clenched fists, and looked in the direction where Yoderma disappeared with cold eyes.

said coldly: "Do you know what blood feud is? Even if I am a mouse in the gutter, I was forced by Nie Qingru and the Ji family in Independent Island!"

He bears the lives of dozens of Zhai family members.

He can't die.

Zhai Xicheng thought of Nie Qingru who had been shot again, and his eyes became colder and deeper.

It wasn't that he felt sorry for Nie Qingru who had ventured to Continent F for him, but was shot in the end, and the seventy or eighty-year-old still didn't know if he could survive.

In his eyes.

Back then, Ji Wu Falcon was the enemy who killed his uncle.

Nie Qingru is also a sinner.

If it wasn't for Nie Qingru's greed for vanity, how could his uncle be targeted by Ji Wufalcon, and finally ended up with no bones left.

He even hated his dead uncle...

It's not that he couldn't let go of a woman, so he insisted on going against Ji Wu Falcon.

How could their Zhai family be suppressed by the Hermit Family and the Independent Continent, and finally caused the fire...?

So these people died for him, and Zhai Xicheng would not feel the slightest gratitude or disturbance in his heart.

They all deserve to die.

And Nie Qingru died.

There is only one * person left - Qiao Nian!

Qiao Nian is the offspring of Ji Wufeng and Nie Qingru.

Ji Wu Falcon died early.

Nie Qingru's survival is almost the same this time.

Only Qiao Nian.

Qiao Nian hasn't been punished yet.

So he must not die!

Zhai Xicheng quickly recovered his mood, put aside what Yoderma said before he left, took a deep breath, and combed his hair back with his fingers as gears, taking advantage of the people in the cabin rushing out in a panic, He also mixed in and went out quietly...

Chapter 4642 Brother Dong, why are you here

"My Lord, they are here."

Mo Dong looked at the smoking cabin and the people running out of it, and saw Steve who had already caught up with them, and reminded Ye Wangchuan in a low voice.

Speech time.

The dark-skinned man surrounded them with people.

He saw his plane being blown up with a bazooka, he was furious, and stepped forward to teach the arrested gang a lesson.

I saw a familiar figure in the crowd.

"Dong, Brother Dong?"

The dark-skinned man immediately lost half of his aura, and there was a lot of embarrassment.

He looked at Mo Dong in the crowd and recognized him again and again.

The scar on Mo Dong's face is very characteristic, it is a major sign of his walking in Continent F, and Steve has met him on other occasions before.

Looking again, I still recognized Mo Dong himself.

The people of the dark castle...

The dark-skinned man showed a embarrassed expression, and looked at Mo Dong hesitantly, especially the young man who kept sneaking glances at Mo Dong's side with his eyes.

"Brother Dong, why did you come to my place? Look, you didn't even say hello, and you made such a big noise as soon as you came. Isn't that bad?"

Mo Dong had a sullen face, with scars running from his forehead to his chin, looking extremely fierce and not to be trifled with, he took a step forward to negotiate with him: "You secretly let go of the person David wants, does David know?"

Steve's expression changed immediately, he twitched the corners of his mouth, and stared at him with a smile on his face: "Brother Dong, what are you talking about, I can't understand a single word."

"Besides, it's not that the bunker has always had a bad relationship with David. Why did Brother Dong suddenly become David's radar and come under my control?"

His triangular eyes showed a ferocious look, and he already had murderous intentions.

He could see that Mo Dong didn't bring many people.

They are small forces compared to David.

If Mo Dong and the others were allowed to leave today, he would most likely run to tell David, and it would be difficult for him to explain.

"My place is not the territory of the dark castle, Brother Dong, your hand is too long."

"What do you want to do?"

Mo Dong has been stationed in Continent F all year round, and he can see the change of the other party's attitude at a glance, and stands vigilantly in front of Ye Wangchuan.

Steve became more and more sure of his guess, smiled, but the smile didn't reach his eyes and said to him: "Did the brother next to you shoot the gun just now?"

"I'll give you face, brother Dong, and I don't have any requirements. You can go, but he must stay."

Mo Dong made a cold face: "What if I say no?"

Steve seemed to have expected all this, and immediately replied: "That's because Brother Dong, you don't give face to the brothers, and I have no choice but to ask all of you to stay."

The master behind the dark castle has always been mysterious, even more mysterious than the diamond boss.

It is regarded as one of the three unsolved mysteries of Continent F.

F continent has three unsolved mysteries.

One is the identity of the diamond boss, the other is what the owner of the dark castle looks like, and the thirtieth is an unsolved mystery that just emerged recently—how the dark castle and David turned from deadly enemies to close brothers.

But he vaguely felt that he was about to solve the second unsolved mystery.

The owner behind the dark castle is probably not from M state or O state they guessed before, but a young oriental man.

"What do you think, Brother Dong?"

He is a little smug.

I was a little excited again.

If the young man next to Mo Dong is the owner of the dark castle, then he will get rid of Mo Dong and the mysterious person behind the dark castle together today.

Chapter 4643 Stop, all stop for me

He can imagine that he will become famous in Continent F later.

Even if the dark castle forces counterattack him.

He can also rely on today's bragging to become a hero.

The more Steve thought about it, the more greedy his eyes shone, and the more fanatical he looked at Mo Dong, and he slightly raised his left hand, ready to give an order.

They were surrounded by the other party's people, no matter how angry Mo Dong was at the other party's daring to attack, he had to secretly clenched his fists and backed away without a trace.

"Master Wang, wait for you to go first."

Mo Dong lowered his voice.

The people in the bunker beside him touched their weapons one after another.

The air is filled with the smell of gunpowder smoke.

Wind blows a sense of imminent danger.

at this time.

Ye Fanchuan put his hand on Mo Dong's shoulder, and patted it lightly twice, signaling him to get out of the way.

Mo Dong: "Master Wang?!"

Ye Wangchuan patted him lightly twice again.

Even though Mo Dong was worried, he obediently got out of the way.

Steve and others saw Ye Fanchuan coming out from behind Mo Dong, and immediately pulled the alarm to the red line.

Be wary of this oriental man.

Even drew weapons.

Align the opponent in advance.

"Stop, don't go any further."

"..."

Ye Fanchuan stopped, put one hand in his pocket, raised his eyelids slightly, his dark eyes showed his nervous expression, and squinted at him.

"Before you want to play black and eat black, have you asked yourself about your strength?"

"What do you mean?"

Steve was chilled by the question, and was afraid of the pressure on the other party, so he didn't dare to act rashly for a while.

Ye Wangchuan was just about to answer his question.

Suddenly, there was a sound of galloping tires rubbing against the ground not far away.

"what sound?"

Someone raised his head and said immediately.

Steve looks distracted.

I saw a black jeep galloping towards them, its reckless posture seemed to run over him.

His temples bulged, and he stared intently at the jeep that hit him, the veins on his forehead popped out, and he roared angrily at his opponent.

"Who the * is this?"

"I don't know, boss."

"Do you eat dry food all day long?" Steve cursed angrily, and avoided the jeep that hit him with an extremely honest body.

During this process, he accidentally sprained his ankle, grinning his teeth in pain, and shouted angrily.

"Why are you still standing there!"

"Shoot and stop that car!"

Mo Dong saw the driver through the mirror in front of his eyes, and immediately said, "It seems to be Miss Qiao."

Ye Wangchuan's eyes sank, he took out the earphones stuffed in his ears, and whispered to the person over there: "You can close the net."

at this time.

The sky covered with clouds reminded me of the sound of rumbling propellers turning again.

All the people present were attracted by the loud sound from the sky, and saw more than a dozen helicopters flying over from all directions.

Those helicopters are not the point.

The point is that everyone soon discovered that a dozen helicopters were equipped with downward-firing machine guns, all pointing downward.

besides.

Steve saw with sharp eyes that this torpedo-sized steel pipe was installed under the helicopter.

He is considered a person who has seen a little bit of the world.

At that time, his face turned green.

One of these torpedoes can razed them to the ground. The most terrifying thing is that if these torpedoes are equipped with a tracking system, then even if they go to the sky, they will not be able to escape today...

He immediately realized that he had kicked the iron board, and waved his hands and shouted to the people under him: "Stop, stop all of them!"

Chapter 4644 Sister Nian is here

The people under Steve heard the shout and saw the helicopter circling in the sky. They dropped their weapons on the ground and raised their hands in gestures of surrender.

I am afraid that the machine gun bullets on the helicopter above the head will shoot at myself.

Steve knew he was scared now. Walking in front of Mo Dong with a face full of horror, rubbing his hands, he said awkwardly: "Dong, Brother Dong."

Mo Dong didn't expect Ye Wangchuan to arrange such a move. He was called out before reacting from the state of looking up at the sky, and looked down at Steve who was smiling.

He raised a knife-like eyebrow and mocked: "Hey, who is your brother? You won't let me go, I don't dare to be your brother."

Steve's whole body was stiff, with a smile on his face, trying to raise the corners of his mouth: "Look at what you said, I'm not joking."

"I don't think you're joking." Mo Dong is not his brother, he likes to reason. Everyone in Continent F knows that Mo Dong is more irritable and irritable.

Steve now regrets that he kicked the iron plate, and desperately thinks of countermeasures for himself: "I know that the dark castle has reached a cooperation with the diamond boss for more than a year, and the relationship has eased a lot. But Dong Ge, you also know this The relationship between people may change again someday."

He seemed to be talking to Mo Dong, but in fact he couldn't stop looking at the young oriental man next to him: "You need someone to help keep an eye on the diamond boss at any time... My site is close to David, and I am very happy to help you Contribute."

Mo Dong secretly called him a fool.

Seeing the girl getting out of the car and walking right behind Steve, she shouted awkwardly but politely: "Miss Qiao."

Steve turned his head and saw the girl behind him.

Originally, he didn't worry about it, he just wanted to get out of the predicament in front of him.

The young man beside Mo Dong said with a smile, slowly: "I didn't ask him to do this, he is here to show his loyalty."

"?" Steve was confused.

Seeing the girl walk past him, she left a sentence.

"He wants to follow you, let him follow you."

Mo Dong also waved his hand beside him: "Miss Qiao, don't be joking. We don't dare to ask someone near you, this person is still for you to deal with."

No matter how slow Steve's reaction was, he was able to react to this point.

He looked at the girl in front of him in disbelief.

They are closer to the influence of the diamond boss David, and it is easier to hear gossip than other forces.

So he has actually heard that the diamond boss is actually a very young college student, the kind who just entered college, definitely not more than 20 years old.

Steve looked at the girls walking past again, his head was blank, and he was suddenly dumbfounded.

The girl wears a peaked cap to cover half of her face, but from the exposed part, it can be judged that the other party is young, which fits the characteristics of about 20 years old.

Still a girl...

Exactly the same as the rumors.

A string snapped in Steve's mind, realizing what a stupid thing he'd done again.

The blood on his face faded, his lips trembled: "I, I was joking."

Mo Dong glanced at him, but didn't speak.

Qiao Nian and Ye Wangchuan also ignored him.

The girl walked up to the young man, raised her eyelids and looked at him from head to toe, as if confirming something.

Several seconds passed.

She looked away and reached out to check his pulse.

Chapter 4645 Sister Nian: Don't want to live anymore?

Qiao Nian's fingertips were icy cold, and he could feel the fire of the prairie fire when he pressed against Ye Wangchuan's skin.

She withdrew her hand, raised her head slightly, and said in a bad tone, "You don't want to live anymore?"

Ye Wangchuan seemed to know that she would be angry a long time ago, but he was very good-tempered: "That's not true. I'm not married yet, and my ancestors won't accept me."

"Hehe." The girl sneered twice, her eyes were cold and tired, and the tip of her tongue was pressed against the back of the tooth socket, looking at him with eyes full of fire.

Ye Wangchuan also knew that it was not suitable for joking at this time, so he slightly restrained his joking look, and said seriously: "I just want to come and have a look."

"You should have a good rest!" Qiao Nian emphasized.

The eyes of the two meet.

She was the first to be defeated, and raised her hand to press the center of her jumping eyebrows: "I also made mistakes, so I shouldn't agree to come to F continent with you."

But at that time, she also thought that if she didn't bring him here, with Ye Wangchuan's character, she would use other methods.

She thought about putting the patient under her nose, at least it was better than him coming to F continent in private and no one took care of him.

result...

Qiao Nian couldn't help but said, "Can you take your body seriously? Don't make fun of your health."

Ye Wangchuan said seriously: "You need me."

"..."

Qiao Nian was choked again and had a splitting headache. Seeing his eyes was like looking at a walking bug, and he felt powerless.

Mo Dong saw with his own eyes that his master had dispelled Miss Qiao's anger with just a few words, and he was dumbfounded.

Ye Wangchuan tilted his head again, still with the orchid and jade tree, elegant and dignified, as if he didn't pay attention to the people around him, only him and Qiao Nian.

"Nie Qingru..."

He raised his head.

The girl knew what he was going to ask, and raised her eyes slightly to hide the haze in her eyes: "Dead."

Mo Dong heard this sentence from the side, and immediately looked at Qiao Nian in surprise, unable to control the shocked expression on his face.

"Who did it?" Ye Wangchuan seemed to be sure that Qiao Nian did not do it.

The girl pursed her lips and didn't answer the question right away.

It took a full half a minute before he said slowly, "People from the island."

Now Ye Fanchuan stopped talking.

Qiao Nian didn't care, and continued: "Nie Qingru seems to be cooperating with the island. Those people received the task of rescuing Zhai Xicheng. She never thought that the people on the island would shoot at her in order to complete the task, regardless of her life or death. One shot sparked chaos."

"I looked at the location. The bullet passed by the heart, and the wound ran through the shoulder blade. The final cause of death was shock death caused by excessive bleeding."

"But she didn't feel at ease when she died."

Nie Qingru was still thinking about Zhai Xicheng's safety and the future of Nie's family until he died, and he couldn't close his eyes at the moment of death.

It is estimated that Nie Qingru also knew in her heart before she died that she devoted her only sincerity to her first love nephew, and Zhai Xicheng did not treat her as an 'big aunt' as she showed, and ran away without looking back.

Qiao Nian's eyes were a little cold and dry, impatient to think about it.

She didn't care whether Nie Qingru would regret what she had done before she died, or to put it bluntly, even if Nie Qingru would regret it and admit that she was wrong.

so what?

Things have already happened.

Ji Qing has been dead for twenty years.

The dead cannot be resurrected.

She doesn't need Nie Qingru's apology, nor Nie Qingru's crocodile tears... So whether Nie Qingru regrets it in the end, it doesn't make any sense to her.

Chapter 4646 Someone is helping Zhai Xicheng

Qiao Nian only looks at the result.

As a result, Nie Qingru died, with resentment and unwillingness.

He didn't close his eyes when he finally died.

Dying is painful.

This is enough.

Qiao Nian remembered the business, looked back at the chaotic venue, and then looked at Steve standing there with a pale face and embarrassed.

"Where are the people from Zhai Xicheng?"

"Fly, on the plane."

Now he realizes that he made a big mistake, and hastily explained to the girl with a pale face: "The plane didn't take off successfully, so they probably didn't leave."

Mo Dong walked over and whispered: "Miss Qiao, we are already looking for it."

Qiao Nian looked at the cabin on the runway that was still emitting thick smoke, and saw a familiar figure among the people rushing out of it. He raised his hand and said, "There he is."

"Where?"

Mo Dong immediately turned to look for him.

Seeing the person Qiao Nian mentioned, he ordered two more people to go over.

"Catch people here."

After Yoderma got out of the cabin, he purposely walked close to the edge of the runway sneakily, and saw Steve from a distance leading people to surround their snipers.

He was relieved and was ready to go out.

As a result, the situation on the court turned sharply downwards, and Steve was quickly controlled by the counter, and they were surrounded again.

Yodema saw the girl pointing in his direction, and saw that Mo Dong called some burly men to look for him, and his instinct drove him to find a place to hide.

But just as Yoderma was about to lower his hat and turn around to walk back, he saw Zhai Xicheng coming out behind him, mingling with the crowd, quietly approaching an unused off-road vehicle.

"MD."

Yoderma cursed, his eyes were red, thinking of Yingshi and the others, thinking of the sacrificed Hackers, he clenched his fists and gritted his teeth and turned back.

Seeing that Zhai Xicheng didn't know how to open the car door and climbed into the car.

"Yo hoo!"

He deliberately shouted to attract the attention of everyone on the field.

Then when Mo Dong's men accelerated to chase him, they ran away in the opposite direction.

His behavior really attracted everyone's attention as he wished, the people brought by Ye Wangchuan immediately chased after him, and everyone's attention on the field was on him.

At this time, Zhai Xicheng started the stolen car and sneaked away from the crowd without making a sound...

The site is huge.

The plane that was shot down by Ye Wangchuan and failed to take off was still parked on the runway. The runway was full of thick smoke, and the surrounding vision was not so clear.

Yodema suddenly yelled and ran around, attracting attention in front of him.

Zhai Xicheng escaped very smoothly.

Quickly took advantage of the terrain and drove out of the base, speeding up and galloping outside.

at the same time.

When Yoderma yelled and ran up, Qiao Nian had already discovered that he was only wearing Zhai Xicheng's clothes, not Zhai Xicheng himself.

"He's not Zhai Xicheng."

At this time, someone from the helicopter in the sky found the off-road vehicle that fled, and reported it to Ye Wangchuan.

"My Lord, a car ran out."

Qiao Nian turned around and walked towards the car he drove, still holding the car key in his hand:
"I'll arrest someone."

In the car.

Zhai Xicheng once again heard a woman's rational commanding voice from the collar.

"How's it going, are you in the car?"

The woman's voice was cold and careless.

Zhai Xicheng tensed his nerves. Hearing this casual tone, he couldn't help but think of Qiao Nian. He immediately clasped the steering wheel with both hands and asked coldly.

"Who are you?"

"Who I am matters?"

Chapter 4647 sun, are you sure it is this license plate number

The woman's casual voice came from the other end: "It's important that you know that I'm here to help you."

"Are you from the island?" Zhai Xicheng is not a fool.

After changing clothes with Yoderma, he discovered that a high-tech tympanic membrane conduction device was installed at the collar of the collar, which was connected to the outside world.

At that time, he just replied in a low voice.

The people over there have already detected his identity, exposed him on the spot as not a Yoderma, and accurately stated who he is.

But the other party had no ill intentions towards him, and quickly pointed out a way for him to escape, bluntly saying that as long as he could steal a car and run out.

can help him.

Zhai Xicheng was sitting in the car, but still couldn't relax his nerves, his brain was buzzing, and he was always on high tension, preventing Qiao Nian from catching up.

"You are from the island, you have reached cooperation with Nie Qingru and must rescue me, right?"

"Chick."

The woman on the other end paused for two seconds and answered slowly.

"You can understand it this way."

Zhai Xicheng breathed a sigh of relief instead, his vigilance was not as strong as before, and he asked in a slightly tough tone: "I heard that you are already in the car, what should I do next?"

He extremely disliked the other party's tone of being careless and easily crushing him, as if he was just an ant, not worth mentioning.

Qiao Nian let it go like this.

Why do women on this island have such an attitude now!

He warned the other party with a thick tooth: "Don't forget, if I can't escape smoothly, your mission will also fail."

The reason why Zhai Xicheng relaxed his guard after confirming that the other party was from the island was because he saw with his own eyes how much Yingshi and the others had paid to rescue him.

Yoderma hated him so much that he finally put on his clothes and went out to work for him.

Zhai Xicheng realized that these people on the island valued completing tasks extremely.

He just wanted to use this to give himself a chance.

"Oh?" The woman at the other end of the collar was unexpectedly not angry, but said to him, "Don't worry, I will help you."

Zhai Xicheng heaved a sigh of relief and didn't speak any more.

I heard the woman continue to say: "I can locate your position here, and you will follow my command from now on."

"You'd better not play tricks." Zhai Xicheng said so, and he started to turn the steering wheel according to the woman's command.

the other side.

Qiao Nian was driving with one hand, and was talking to Guan Yan while holding the bluetooth headset with the other.

"How about it, have you located the car yet?"

Guan Yan was a little embarrassed: "Sun, are you sure the license plate number you gave me is correct?"

Qiao Nian raised her hands, was stopped by the traffic lights at the intersection, and said in a calm tone, "I'm sure."

"That's not right." Guan Yan said bluntly: "I entered this license plate number into the information database, but found that there is no information about this car."

F continent also has its own traffic management system.

As long as you have been in a car with a license plate, there is no reason why you cannot find information on the Internet.

That's why Guan Yan wondered if Qiao Nian had misread the license plate number, otherwise she could see the real-time location of the car by entering the license plate number into the system.

"No?"

Qiao Nian held the steering wheel with one hand, and was obviously a little surprised by the answer.

Guan Yan was very sure: "It really isn't. I tried again, but the license plate number still doesn't exist in the system, and it shows that it can't be queried."

The red light at the traffic light blinked, reminding her that it was about to turn green.

Qiao Nian stopped at the intersection.

Once you choose the wrong direction here, it will be difficult to catch up with Zhai Xicheng.

Chapter 4648 He is going to the pier

Qiao Nian was not in a panic at this time, she tapped the reverse dial lightly with her fingertips, as if she was thinking about something, so she said to Guan Yan.

"One of them has good hacker skills. I met her before and worked with her. You see, from time to time, someone invades the transportation system and tampers with the information inside."

"Is there such a person?"

Guan Yan was a little surprised.

Mainly she stayed with Qiao Nian all the year round, and knew very well that Qiao Nian's attainments in hacking were no longer comparable to ordinary people.

Among the main members of the Red League in the early days, the slender waist controller who specialized in computers was able to wrestle with Qiao Nian.

There is no need to talk about the rest between her and David.

It's not enough to see in front of the sun.

But Guan Yan has been wandering outside all year round, so he has a better understanding of the outside situation.

She was very confident that besides Qiao Nian, she would not have many opponents.

Guan Yan himself is a top existence outside.

That's why she was so surprised when she heard Qiao Nian say that she met someone who could break an arm.

If such a person exists in the field of hacking.

How has she never heard of it before?

But Guan Yan was astonished as he was, and his subordinates didn't slow down, so he followed Qiao Nian's prompt and used the anti-tracking program in the hard disk to check.

After a few seconds.

Guan Yan left his hands from the keyboard, his expression gradually serious.

"Sun, you guessed it right, someone has tampered with it and erased the information on that car... I was almost fooled."

Qiao Nian was not surprised, her voice was low: "Check the other party's IP."

"Okay, right away." Guan Yan used the location tracking system written by Qiao Nian before to start tracking the other party's IP address.

This is a relatively long process.

She tried it and found that the other party was just as Sun said he was a master. He had already done the finishing work, and it was a bit troublesome to track it down.

"...Now we can only find out that she is in Continent F. Others cannot be found for the time being. It will take time."

"Um."

Qiao Nian slightly lowered her eyelids, her slender black eyelashes drooped to cover part of her pupils, her face was emotionally calm, and she looked unhappy.

But at this time, the traffic light at the intersection has changed from red to green.

The vehicle behind waited for two seconds to see that she hadn't left, and frantically honked the horn to urge her.

Qiao Nian ignored the noise behind, and calmly ordered: "Leave her alone, check the car in Zhaixi City first."

"good."

Guan Yan said 'this is easy to check', fixed the bugs in the system, and re-entered the license plate number that Qiao Nian said before.

This time, a map popped up from the computer, and a moving red dot was clearly marked on the map.

Guan Yan zoomed in on the map, took a screenshot and took a photo for Qiao Nian.

"Sun, I sent it to you."

Then she zoomed in on the map she had captured and noticed the nearby buildings, so she read to Joe, "He wants to go to Engel Wharf."

At the same time, Qiao Nian received a map from Guan Yan on his mobile phone. He also curled up his fingers to zoom in and saw the direction in which the red dot was moving.

"Thanks for your hard work."

The girl immediately hung up the phone, raised the corners of her mouth, took off the earphones stuffed in her ears and threw them into the passenger seat next to her, turned on the left turn signal, stepped on the accelerator and chased towards the pier.

Zhai Xicheng took the lead to drive to Engel Wharf.

He obeyed the command of the woman on the other end of the bone conduction headset to abandon the car and walk to the depths of the pier.

The dark clouds in the sky are now lower.

The bleak wind blew cold air in the bones, and the low-pressure weather was very similar to Zhai Xicheng's mood at this time.

Chapter 4649: You are not from Shadow Ten, who are you?

He walked forward all the way, and soon saw an old fish pulling cargo ship under the command of a woman.

Zhai Xicheng stopped.

Eyes flickering with anger.

Lower your voice to communicate with the person on the other end.

"You want me to go on a boat like this?"

He was a few steps away from the fishing boat.

From his angle, he could see the flies and flying insects hovering near the fishing boat, and the fishy smell of dead fish all around made him want to vomit.

Before Zhai Xicheng really got close, he couldn't help his stomach churning, covered his mouth and nose, and turned his head to the side, trying to retch.

"Your strength is to let me leave by fishing boat?" Zhai Xicheng said in a bad tone.

The woman on the other end was not used to him, she smiled but said: "Our task is only to save your life, not to provide you with a superior environment."

Zhai Xicheng had a gloomy face and was still unwilling to go there.

"But this one you arranged for me is too bad!"

"You can choose not to leave." The woman continued confidently: "I need to remind you, if you don't leave now, you won't be able to leave after a while."

"The dark fort has sealed off the sea, land and air areas of Continent F. Any private planes and ships that try to leave Continent F at this time point will not be shot down unconditionally! This fishing boat is a cleaning ship responsible for transporting dead fish and rotten shrimp. Get out of here under the ban."

"If you don't want to go, I have no way to change your transportation. Unless you want to be one of the shot down..."

Zhai Xicheng took a deep breath, turned his head to look at the foul-smelling fishing boat parked there again, pinched the palms of his hands and asked, "As long as I sit on it, you can guarantee that I will leave safely?"

"...There is a chance." The woman was slow, not restrained by his words at all.

Zhai Xicheng could tell that she was different from Ying Shi and the others, who did not have such a strong intention to keep him, as if they regarded this as a game.

"Who the * are you?" Zhai Xicheng couldn't help asking.

"Huh?" The other party seemed surprised that he would ask such a question, and said in a casual tone, "You don't know who I am."

Zhai Xicheng heard the other party's unpleasant tone, and lost his mind to Qiao Nian again in a trance, as if the two of them overlapped.

The voices of the two people are completely different.

But it feels like hell.

This kind of situation also made Zhai Xicheng uneasy, and he couldn't control the disgust and disgust in his heart. Gritting his teeth: "You are from the island, but not the group of people who will take over the mission to save me."

He is not stupid, otherwise he would not be able to hide behind and make trouble smoothly for so many years.

"You should just know them, and then just found out that I received your voice, so you helped me."

"What is your purpose?" Zhai Xicheng asked bluntly.

He did not dare to set foot on that fishing boat without asking.

An unclear girl's shout came from the other end.

"Aina."

Zhai Xicheng probably heard a vague name word, and then the communication here was cut off, and there was a rustling electric sound.

About five more seconds passed.

Re-establish communication.

The woman over there spoke again.

"Your backer may be able to talk to me about this. I can sell her some face when I'm in a good mood. You have no right to know my identity."

She lightly threw Zhai Xicheng's question back.

Then when Zhai Xicheng frowned, his eyes fixed on the sea level.

"But I am still willing to help you."

Chapter 4650: Let him be with rotten fish and rotten shrimp

She softened her tone again, and resumed the high-ranking negligence: "So I can tell you clearly that I don't need to waste time designing you. It doesn't mean much to me whether you live or die, and I am willing to help you out." I just want to play with her again to see how capable she is, that's all."

"You were never my target."

Zhai Xicheng got the answer he wanted, but he didn't feel at ease at all. He only felt that he was treated with contempt again.

"The person you're talking about is Qiao Nian?"

The woman asked ruthlessly, "Didn't you understand me?"

Zhai Xicheng's temples throbbed wildly, his brain was rushing around like boiling sea water, trying to vent his dissatisfaction.

But reason dragged him back from the edge of the cliff.

He pinched the palm of his hand, relying on the tingling sensation of nails sinking into the flesh, he opened his mouth and said, "Everyone of you wants to compare with her, but I don't think she's a big deal, it's just that she is better than others every time!"

Qiao Nian is better than human life, there are always people around her who are willing to help her.

But Zhai Xicheng couldn't figure it out.

How could God be so unfair.

A person with a sinful background like Qiao Nian, why can he receive preferential treatment, and he is surrounded by people who are willing to help her and treat her well.

She and Nie Qingru should be spurned by everyone, and they will never turn over.

The other party didn't pamper him, and didn't answer at all, but asked him faintly impatiently: "Are you still going?"

That attitude meant that if Zhai Xicheng didn't want to leave, she would stop wasting time on him.

Zhai Xicheng's heart was beating wildly, and the brain fever that had just come up quickly cooled down, and reason once again took the high ground. He gritted his teeth and said, "Let's go!"

The woman commanded him calmly: "Go and find a blind old man, tell him that you are 7, he will take you on board, and then you need to hide in a plastic bucket containing dead fish, and wait until you leave Continent F and enter the high seas, you can come out of the plastic barrel. They will send you to Xidi Wharf, and when you get there, where you go, whether you can go back to M state or not is nothing to do with me."

"You mean I have to stay with the dead fish from now on?" Zhai Xicheng asked with a slightly gloomy face.

The woman said very indifferently: "You can choose to die."

Zhai Xicheng had nothing to say in an instant.

Of course he was unwilling to pay the price with his life.

Than dead.

After all, spending the next few hours with dead fish and rotten shrimp became less unacceptable.

Seeing Zhai Xicheng's silence, the other party knew his choice, and said more indifferently: "That old man won't answer any of your questions, and he won't talk to you. Just report your number when you go there, and just follow him honestly." .If you talk too much and ask sensitive questions, he will leave without you, and you will bear the consequences."

"..." Zhai Xicheng almost asked her back, don't you care?

The other party continued: "Not everyone dares to take you out of here when the dark fort is blocking everything."

Zhai Xicheng fell silent again.

He has no choice but to follow the arrangements of these people.

Just when Zhai Xicheng was about to go out.

Suddenly there was the roar of a jeep at the pier. He looked from a distance and saw a black jeep driving fast.

Obviously coming straight here.

Zhai Xicheng's expression changed slightly.

It wasn't very good at the time, so I immediately said to the person on the other end: "Didn't you say that no one would catch up, and you erased the traces of me. Now someone is chasing me by car!"
