

Madam's 4651

Chapter 4651: Miss Nian found it here

"Impossible!" The other party also looked extremely surprised.

Zhai Xicheng could only hear a series of typing on the keyboard, but the black jeep visible to the naked eye was getting closer and closer, and had already driven to the pier.

He now has two choices, either go to the fishing boat immediately, or find a place to hide first.

These two choices are related to whether he can leave here.

Zhai Xicheng was at war between heaven and man in a short period of time, and couldn't make a decision for a while.

But quickly.

He saw a man get off the jeep.

The girl wore a peaked cap, a black jacket, and a pair of short leather boots on her feet. She was sharp and ruthless. She walked to the trunk and took out a sniper rifle with a scope. She hung it on her shoulder and closed the trunk door. , go inside the pier...

Zhai Xicheng saw her exquisite and eye-catching face clearly, and immediately his face turned green. He shrunk his body and hid behind the container, lowering his voice and gnashing his teeth to question the person behind the bone conduction sound.

"It's Qiao Nian!"

"She's catching up!"

"Everything you told me was a lie."

After he finished speaking, he didn't care so much, he was afraid that another voice from over there would disturb the girls who had already found him.

"The people on the island are just like that!" Zhai Xicheng sweated a little on his forehead, took out the bone conduction sound transmission in his collar and threw it under the container with anger.

He no longer considered escaping the fishing boat.

Based on Qiao Nian's intelligence.

Even if he hides in the so-called rotten fish and rotten shrimp according to the 'arrangement' of the people on the island, Qiao Nian will definitely find him out!

So Zhai Xicheng knew very well that the next thing he could do was to hide it well so as not to be discovered.

As long as it is not detected.

He still has a chance.

Zhai Xicheng's eyes flickered slightly, and finally he stretched his head outside to observe, and quickly turned around and hid in the depths of the container.

The girl is holding a gun in one hand and answering the phone with the other.

"Well."

"Just arrived."

"I saw a car parked at the pier. It seems that the person is here, but it's hidden, so it's not so easy to find."

David immediately said, "Then I'll send someone over right away."

Qiao Nian stood sideways on the spot, the wind rolled up her sleeves and blew them all up.

She seems to be integrated with the sea and sky here.

Alone and independent.

"No, I want to finish it myself."

"sun..."

David was a little worried about her, especially when he heard that the girl's tone was not pleasant.

Qiao Nian first scanned the surrounding environment.

The terminal is full of containers, and there are many ships that are not allowed to leave the port. Only one of the ships that handles marine garbage is busy loading, and the others are empty.

Finding someone in this environment is tantamount to finding a needle in a haystack.

Qiao Nian's eyes were not happy, he didn't worry about the trouble in front of him, and interrupted David lazily: "And someone must have arrived here before you."

"?"

David didn't react at first.

F continent is his territory.

Who can be faster than his hands and feet.

However, a figure that could be faster than him and have more power to speak than him in Continent F soon appeared in his mind.

Suddenly depressed.

"Sun, let me ask if we can stop showing affection, single dogs are human beings, don't treat them like dogs!"

He complained, but he was actually very worried about Qiao Nian alone.

"It doesn't matter if Young Master Ye and the others can't make it through, and Chunlei and Houzi don't trust you, I still have to come over."

Chapter 4652 What exactly do you want

The girl returned to the car, and sure enough, she found a few small black beetles that Chunlei and the others packed in the co-pilot's drawer.

She said to David on the other end of the phone: "It's up to you."

Then hung up the phone.

Using the mobile phone to activate a few small beetles caught in the hand, the eyes in front of the small beetles light up, emitting a faint green.

It's like a simulated toy.

Qiao Nian threw them all out.

A surprising picture appeared.

The little beetles automatically spread their wings in the air and began to fly away, and a real-time picture appeared on Qiao Nian's phone.

The girl held the mobile phone in one hand and held a sniper rifle in the other hand, watching the video of the Beetle on the mobile phone while walking.

She didn't walk fast, like a stroll in the garden, as if she was just strolling here.

Can be the people on the dock.

Everyone buried their heads in their work, not daring to look this way.

...

The depths of containers stacked at the dock.

Zhai Xicheng was still desperately trying to escape.

He could sense the girl's approaching steps in his direction.

But he didn't know what method Qiao Nian used to find him, and he immediately caught up.

On the one hand, Zhai Xicheng hated the uselessness of the people on the island, and on the other hand, he didn't want to be caught without a fight. The huge pressure in his heart forced him to drill deeper into the container.

Finally he got to the deepest part of the container, and beyond that was the boundless ocean.

F continent is cloudy today.

The dark sky reflects the blackness of the sea, and from time to time, the black waves blown by the wind beat heavily on the shore, stirring up water splashes on the dam.

When Zhai Xicheng saw the sea behind him, his mind went blank for a moment, he gritted his teeth, turned his head and planned to run to the left...

at this time.

He heard the sound of 'tap-tat-tat' footsteps coming from the front, and then the figure of the girl came out from the dark narrow intersection of the container.

When the girl saw him, she raised her head slightly, revealing an extremely young and delicate face under the peaked cap.

Zhai Xicheng's pupils constricted, and he took a big step back subconsciously. His heel stepped on the edge of the embankment and slipped.

He was so frightened that he swayed for a while, and then quickly stabilized his figure.

Looking at Qiao Nian who was already standing a few meters away from him, he took a deep breath, his face livid and ugly, and his lips were purple.

"what on earth do you want?"

"Well?"

Zhai Xicheng heard the sound of waves lapping over, and when he looked back, he saw the black sea that seemed to be swallowing him.

He only took one look, then turned his head suddenly, his face was even uglier than before, staring at the girl in front of him maliciously, clenched his fists, and shouted with all his strength.

"Qiao Nian, Nie Qingru is already dead. She was killed by your conspiracy and tricks. You have achieved your wish. What are you not satisfied with? What do you want to do?!"

The girl looked at his hysterical appearance, raised her peaked cap casually, put her mobile phone back in her pocket, loaded the sniper rifle in her hand casually, and then answered his question.

"Send you to see her."

"..."

Zhai Xicheng didn't expect her to answer so naturally and confidently, his blood surged up in an instant, anger overcame reason.

"Why do you..."

Qiao Nian probably thought his question was quite interesting, put away the gun, and gave him a wink with a frivolous expression.

"Why for what?"

"What do you think?" Zhai Xicheng showed disgust, and at this moment, he seemed to be standing on the moral high ground and pointing at Qiao Nian.

Chapter 4653 Why do you...

"Nie Qingru is greedy for vanity. I was already talking about marriage with my uncle, but he abandoned my uncle to marry someone else in order to gain power. But your good grandfather is even more inhumane! He stole someone else's fiancée, They also imprisoned and killed my uncle! The two of them created a big fire to cover up all this, and burned my parents, sister, grandparents to death..."

"You are their descendant, what right do you have to stand here and point a gun at me like today? Qiao Nian, why do you say you are?"

"Tsk." After hearing what she said, the girl only raised her eyebrows slightly, and squinted at him: "Just for this?"

Zhai Xicheng seemed unable to believe her words: "Just? Is this not enough?!"

"Enough." The girl pulled down her peaked cap, her jaw line was cold and rational.

Since Zhai Xicheng is going to die.

She made him understand!

"Let's count what you said." Qiao Nian's dark eyes were deeper than the ocean: "First, is what Nie Qingru and the others did related to me?"

"You are their descendant, why have nothing to do with you!" Zhai Xicheng was extremely excited.

Qiao Nian made an OK gesture, signaling him to stop, raised his eyes slightly, his eyes were as sharp as hooks piercing through his despicable soul hidden under his anger: "According to your logic, as a descendant, I should enjoy the advantages they brought Conditional living. But it seems that the person who enjoys the benefits of killing your family members and killing your uncle...is you."

Nie Qingru provided Zhai Xicheng with superior living conditions and various resources over the years, and spared no effort to train him.

Even her own brother Nie Qixing was just a shadow she pushed to the stage, just a tool for Zhai Xicheng to block the knife.

And Zhai Xicheng is not as strong as he said.

Regardless of whether he hates Nie Qingru or not, the reality is that he accepts the gifts Nie Qingru gave him and enjoys the benefits Nie Qingru brings.

According to what Zhai Xicheng said, everything Nie Qingru has now is obtained by abandoning his uncle and climbing the dragon and becoming a phoenix, so what is Zhai Xicheng?

What qualifications do you have to stand here and accuse her of being Nie Qingru's descendant?

Zhai Xicheng's face turned blue and white after being stunned by her understatement, and finally turned red, clenched his fists, and the veins on his neck bulged: "I just have to..."

His answer earned the girl a sneering laugh.

"You are not an adult at 15 years old, it is a last resort. Now you are 30 years old, you have already passed the age of adulthood, and you have no choice... Then when is the best time in your life?"

She didn't give Zhai Xicheng a chance to answer, and suddenly realized in the next second: "Oh, you can show it when you bear the humiliation and take responsibility for obtaining all her inheritance."

Zhai Xicheng's face was flushed red, and he gritted his molars with hatred, but he couldn't refute her words.

He has been dormant looking for opportunities, convincing himself that he is just not capable enough to avenge his family... But when will it be the right opportunity, in fact, he doesn't have an accurate answer in his heart.

Maybe the time Qiao Nian mentioned was his real thoughts.

But it's another thing for someone to speak out the dark thoughts in his heart.

"Stop telling me about your dirty thoughts."

Zhai Xicheng was afraid that Qiao Nian would continue to speak out the facts that would make him feel ashamed, so he rushed ahead and said, "Qiao Nian, no matter what you say, you are their descendant. You should kneel down and atone for your sins in front of me, not here Teach me how to be a man!"

Chapter 4654 Let him die clearly

He snorted again, emphasizing his tone: "You can't even kneel down to atone for the sinful blood flowing on your body. You should learn from your grandma and spend your whole life atoning for yourself. Maybe you still have a chance when you die. Go to hell. Otherwise people like you don't even deserve to go to hell!"

Qiao Nian nodded slightly, with frivolous eyes and careless aura, as if he didn't pay attention to Zhai Xicheng's curse-like words, wiped the muzzle of his gun again, and said to him, "So I'll send you down to find her, so that she can have peace of mind." Chance of redemption."

"What?" Zhai Xicheng couldn't believe his ears.

The girl raised her head slightly, looked at him with dark eyes, quite casually: "Didn't you say that she didn't understand the sins on her body, just right, I'll send you down to find her, so that you don't have to live in such pain."

"Qiao Nian!" Zhai Xicheng gritted his teeth and growled, but the clenched fist at his side betrayed his true fear.

He was short of breath, and his expression showed a hint of disbelief. He couldn't believe that he hadn't changed her mind after saying so much.

"Why do you..."

"Obviously you are sorry for my family."

The girl had already cleaned the sniper rifle, raised her eyebrows disapprovingly, and stood up a little: "First of all, I don't think the fire behind Zhai's house has anything to do with Ji Wu Falcon."

"You're still arguing." Zhai Xicheng was excited.

Qiao Nian didn't take it seriously: "As you said, Ji Wusun has never paid attention to anyone in his life. He doesn't even care whether Nie Qingru has a boyfriend. He just needs a marriage partner. He may have touched your uncle. That's because your uncle came to the door and made him feel troublesome, so he finally chose to solve the trouble. But he has no reason to create a fire in your house again, what is reputation to him? Has he ever had a reputation?"

Ji Wu Falcon never cared about fame since he was born as a genius.

No one even made it clear whether Ji Wu Falcon was a good guy or a bad guy.

People in Independent Continent think that Ji Wu Falcon is a good person, because he led Independent Continent from a wild land to an existence that even forces such as the hermit family fear.

People outside think that Ji Wuzhen is a bad person, because he has no background, does things according to his preferences, is not bound by morality, and squeezes and seizes their interests.

Ji Wufeng has never fallen in love with Nie Qingru, and being with Nie Qingru is a pure combination of interests.

How can such a person take revenge on his wife's ex-boyfriend's family members afterwards? It's not impossible, it's unnecessary...

Qiao Nian has never met the so-called cheap grandpa, but from the deeds that have been spread about him, one can roughly guess what kind of person he is.

Such a person would kill the entire Nie family.

Nor will it use intrigue.

What set fire quietly...

She narrowed her eyes, put one hand in her pocket, and continued to casually finish talking to Zhai Xicheng: "...Instead of hating Ji Wu Falcon for harming your family, you should think about whether the Hermit Family needs your family to disappear."

Or... The related interests of the Nie family need Zhai Xicheng's family to disappear.

the reason is simple.

Ji Wuying may not care who his wife pretends to be, but the hermit family at that time needs to rely on his breath to live.

Under such circumstances, Zhai Xicheng's uncle came to find Ji Wufeng again, and told the whole story about Nie Qingru and him.

Will the members of the hidden family choose to let the Zhai family disappear quietly in order to keep this marriage, or because they are afraid that Ji Wuzhen will take his anger on them?

Chapter 4655 Sister Nian will not give these people another chance

So Zhai Xicheng hated Ji Wufun for so many years, or hated Nie Qingru... After all, he didn't think about it or didn't dare to think about it. It was all Nie Qingru's fault for brainwashing himself, so that he could enjoy Nie Qingru with peace of mind. Giving him a good life and a social status even if his family is still there...

So the hatred that Zhai Xicheng talked about was just an excuse for him to gain benefits, so why would Qiao Nian respect him.

Once again the waves beat against the shore in the wind, waking up the speechless people for a while, Zhai Xicheng was wrapped in the clothes on his body, his eyes dodged.

"Don't think that just a few words can wash away the life you bear. You, like Nie Qingru, don't even think about paying off the sins you bear in your whole life."

Qiao Nian glanced at him, seeing his purpose of delaying time, raised his gun, and squinted at the person standing on the shore: "So I didn't want to return it."

"..." She said so much, but she didn't listen at all. Zhai Xicheng touched his lips, and took two steps back, his eyes full of fear.

Qiao Nian didn't give him a chance to escape, so he fired a gun at his feet first, reminding him: "Don't move around."

Zhai Xicheng's legs were firmly glued to the ground like nails, and he dared not move any more. After thinking about it, he took a soft breath and discussed with her: "Qiao Nian, I forgive you for letting me go this time. You are Nie Qingru's granddaughter, so the grievances between us will be wiped out, how about it?"

"Tsk~" The girl couldn't help but raise the corners of her mouth, and her narrowed eyes revealed a little mockery: "You have troubled me several times, now let me let you go."

"You didn't let me go in vain, I forgive you..."

"I don't need anyone's forgiveness." Qiao Nian casually interrupted him, raised the gun again, and aimed it at his eyes.

From the graduated lens of the sniper rifle, she clearly saw Zhai Xicheng's dark eyes, unwillingness, hatred and humiliation.

Such a person will only become a disaster if he is left behind.

With Zhai Xicheng's distorted personality and Nie Qingru's unconditional indulgence, there is no cure for it. As long as he leaves, he will definitely cause trouble in the future.

Qiao Nian is not afraid that he will cause trouble here.

But what about Xu Yi and the others...

Beside her are Master Cheng, Nie Mi, Aunt Yuan, Jiang Li and many others.

She will never give someone like Zhai Xicheng another chance to hurt the people around her!

So Zhai Xicheng must die.

"Nie Qingru won't trust you until she dies, so go and accompany her." The girl adjusted the scale on the gun with her hand.

Zhai Xicheng looked at this scene, almost tearing his eyes, and growled: "Qiao Nian, you are not afraid of thunder!"

As soon as the words fell, Zhai Xicheng felt that the left atrium was pierced by a bullet, and at that moment, blood stained Yun's clothes.

"..." Qiao Nian shot?

Under fear and confusion.

He looked down blankly at the part where he was shot, and all he saw was an enlarged red range, and the dazzling red seemed to dye his eyes red.

At this time, Zhai Xicheng felt the real pain, and he raised his hand with great effort to cover the blood that kept pouring out of his chest.

At the same time, he raised his head unwillingly, looking at the girl with a gun in front of him with scarlet eyes: "You...you will suffer retribution."

Death is imminent.

In addition to the severe pain, he was afraid and unwilling.

"I'm a ghost, even if I'm a ghost, I won't let you go."

He just finished speaking.

Another shot passed through the same position, and the huge impact made Zhai Xicheng, who had already lost too much blood and was unable to stand, his legs go limp, and he fell back and fell down.

Chapter 4656 Life must see people, death must see corpses

Behind him was the boundless ocean, and the black waves were just like what he saw when he came, and they were about to swallow him in.

Before he fell into darkness, he was surrounded by fear and dragged into the abyss of suffocation.

Joe, Qiao Nian!

Zhai Xicheng opened his eyes wide, watching the sky turn into a reflection in his eyes, printing a figure that made him angry and unwilling.

"Boom!"

Accompanied by the sound of falling water.

The man who was standing here just now fell into the sea.

Qiao Nian put away the gun, only looked at the place where Zhai Xicheng fell into the water, and said, "I'll wait for you."

—Qiao Nian, even if I were a ghost, I would never let you go.

-I'm waiting for you.

The dark sky looked like it was going to rain completely, and the wind by the sea whipped up waves and slapped on the port of the pier.

David rushed over just in time to see the girl shooting neatly, and the scene of Zhai Xicheng falling into the sea.

He had a premonition that Qiao Nian was in a bad mood, so he consciously slowed down, quietly approached behind the girl, opened his mouth, and was still thinking about what he could say to ease the atmosphere.

Seeing the girl throwing the gun to him, she lowered her eyebrows and said, "Find someone to fish it later, I want to see the body."

"..." What are you fishing for?

David tilted his head and saw the turbulent ocean, and instantly understood Qiao Nian's meaning, Sun wanted to salvage Zhai Xicheng's body.

"Are you afraid that he is not dead?"

Qiao Nian looked at the endless sea with one hand in his pocket, not a bit impatient, but very calm: "The disaster will last for a thousand years!"

David looked at her seriously again, and saw that the girl seemed to be not particularly unhappy except for a little moodiness.

He was slightly relieved.

just nodded.

"Don't worry, I'll let the monkeys bring people over to fish right away. As long as he's still in this sea area, he won't let him run away."

Finding someone in the sea is tantamount to finding a needle in a haystack.

But David has a lot of good things in hand, such as submarines, high-end detectors, all systems installed by Sun.

Take out the top cow B.

The kind of product that cannot be bought in the market.

So when he heard Qiao Nian say that he wanted to salvage Zhai Xicheng's body, he made sure of it without any pressure.

David was probably afraid that she would still be affected by the matter of Nie Qingru and Zhai Xicheng, and then said: "By the way, there will be a charity dinner on the site of Cage tonight."

Qiao Nian turned to look at him, his eyes were disdainful, as if to say: Do you think I like going to dinner parties?

David just smiled, rubbed his nose and continued: "That's not the point, the point is that the invitation card they sent has a catalog on it, and there is a Shang Shuangyang Zun on it, which seems to be a bronze vessel. It looks quite strange, look The emerald green color should be something that your country left outside. Didn't I think that you, Sun, have been recycling these things? That's why I told you."

Shang Shuangyang Zun...

Qiao Nian narrowed his eyes slightly, and immediately knew what David was talking about.

This one, like the previous animal heads, is one of the precious national treasures of Country Z left outside. She has been asking where this stuff has gone.

She searched for it for a long time but couldn't find it, and she didn't hear that it fell into the hands of any foreign collector... She didn't expect the Shuangyang Zun to be in Continent F.

"Cage also likes to collect these?" Qiao Nian couldn't help asking David with a solemn expression and sharp eyes.

"Hey, hey." David waved his hands quickly, and immediately explained: "He is the same as me. We only like diamonds and gold. We only like a few gemstones, agates and the like at most. For those calligraphy, paintings, copper, iron and stones with historical deposits, we only like diamonds and gold. Sculpture is not of interest."

Chapter 4657 sun, you mean there are still fish that slip through the net

He also said: "The charity dinner was held on his site, but he didn't provide the items. It seems that a friend with whom he has a good relationship organized the dinner. He has held a few times before, and he will auction some things to raise funds for it. charitable."

When David talked about doing charity, he was very disapproving.

He has seen too many people who come to F continent to do charity, all of them are glamorous on TV, and they are patted and posted on social media.

It was a huge battle.

But of the astronomical sums raised by news reports, very little of the money actually ends up in the hands of those in need.

Otherwise, Continent F would not have so many children like Chunlei, Monkey, etc., living in violence and robbery every day, without enough to eat.

Compared with those people who engage in high-profile so-called charity, David has always respected Qiao Nian these years. Putting aside those elegant but illusory charity, he actually benefits the local people, teaches them to make money and sells them to them. channel.

Teaching a man to fish is worse than teaching him to fish.

This is also the reason why Chunlei and Monkey worship Sun.

Because she's really good.

"However, the things you wanted were not included in the auctions before, so I didn't specifically tell you about them. This time, I saw a bronze vessel on the album, so I asked you if you want to go."

David immediately said: "If you want to go, I will give you the invitation letter, and you can go and have a look with Young Master Ye."

Qiao Nian glanced at him, and raised the corners of his mouth with a half-smile: "When did your relationship with him get better?"

David touched the bridge of his nose again, concealing his embarrassment and said, "I couldn't help this time, thanks to Young Master Ye for stopping Zhai Xicheng, otherwise this kid would have run away."

The most important thing is that he has a guilty conscience!

sun asked him to watch Young Master Ye, but he left under his nose.

It was only when Chun Lei called that he found out that no one was there.

Fortunately, there was nothing wrong with Ye Wangchuan's body, otherwise David would want to cry this time, and he doesn't know how Sun will settle the score with him later.

Since Ye Fanchuan took good care of his body and did not lose his arms or legs, David just gave him an invitation letter as if he had saved his dog's life.

He is still very willing, isn't it just to create an opportunity for him and sun.

To prevent the two from quarreling?

The two big bosses quarreled, and it was easy to bring disaster to Chi Yu.

These little fishes and shrimps want to live a good life, but they have to be sensible and have good eyesight?

David's mind has already gone through a series of nine twists and turns, and he said beautifully:
"And Young Master Ye should also know about cultural relics. It's much better than me going with you."

He only likes gold and shiny things.

His private warehouse is full of shiny and golden things, except for these, it is all kinds of cutting-edge weapons that he bought that are not available outside.

Other... Davey isn't really interested.

He is a big old man who can't understand calligraphy, painting and sculpture.

In his eyes, those are worthless.

A piece of paper, a little bronze, and a stone can sell for 9 figures, or even 10 figures. He always felt that this was similar to robbery.

It's more money than doing robbery outside.

Qiao Nian didn't talk to him, but remembered something, raised his hand and twirled his cap:
"Someone is helping Zhai Xicheng escape."

"Huh?" David was still obsessed with the value of the Shuangyang Zun, but he didn't turn his mind when he heard the girl talk about other topics.

But he reacted quickly.

"Sun, you mean there are still fish that slipped through the net?"

Chapter 4658 Can't afford a plane ticket anymore

Qiao Nian didn't answer directly, turned around and walked out: "I'm not sure. So after you pick him up later, check if there is any communication equipment on him. As long as you find that, you can find out the other party's location. Know the identity of the other party."

In fact, there is another way to check the identity of the other party.

The other party's daring hack into the transportation system to erase the information of the car that Zhai Xicheng stole before was a way to give them a chance to check.

However, Guan Yan did not find out the specific location of the other party immediately.

With that person's technology, it should be very difficult for them to find each other through the Internet later.

The other party will definitely wipe away all the clues on the Internet, preventing them from finding her...

Qiao Nian subconsciously frowned and then quickly let go, raised his eyes and said to David: "For the next two days, people from Africa will not be allowed to enter or leave. Look for this person and dig him out."

"good."

David agreed to come down.

Qiao Nian had already walked to the front of the jeep, opened the door, and looked at him sideways: "Is this here for you?"

David helped her put the gun back in the trunk, and walked back in front of the girl, with a serious and reliable expression on his rough face: "Don't worry, leave this place to me, I will definitely get her out. "

"OK." Qiao Nian got into the car without worry, sat in the driver's seat, closed the door, and said to David, "Then I'll go back first and take someone to the hospital."

David's mind turned quickly, and this time he immediately realized who someone was, and couldn't help showing his aunt a smile: "Okay, you go to work."

Qiao Nian put on his seat belt, closed the car window, and stopped wasting time with him. The jeep rolled up the dust from the pier and drove off.

David waited until the rear of Qiao Nian's car disappeared from view, and then let the brothers waiting outside come through, and arranged the salvage work in an orderly manner.

After he had arranged everyone's work, he said casually: "Sun said, you need to see people when you live, and see corpses when you die. Do you understand?"

The group of people who followed him, who didn't enshrine sun as a god, immediately replied in unison: "Yes, boss!"

"It's gone." David waved his hand, took out his mobile phone and went to the side to shake people, ready to let Chunlei, who brought people back, make another trip and bring some equipment.

Otherwise, it is purely salvaged by hand. It is really hard to say whether Zhai Xicheng has been swept away by the undercurrent in such a huge ocean. It is hard to find.

at the same time.

In a five-star hotel in the central business district of Fzhou.

The round-faced girl held her laptop and pushed the door in from the outside, and said a little depressed: "Aina, is there a problem with the Internet in my room? Why can't I buy a ticket to go back?"

And when she came in.

The woman with blond hair and brown eyes was quietly putting away a black computer, put it in a drawer, took out another silver apple, and turned on the computer without any haste, as if she had been using it all the time. It's the same as this Apple computer.

"Huh?" Elena did all this very naturally, without any worry that the friends who came in would find her little tricks.

also got up to get himself a glass of water.

Haitong was indeed as she judged, she didn't notice her series of movements at all, she only thought that her back was turned to her and she was busy with scientific research.

Naturally, he walked to Elena, put down his cutely decorated computer, and showed it to her.

"Look, I tried several times but couldn't afford the ticket. I suspect there is a problem with the hotel's network."

Chapter 4659 Someone won't let them go

As she spoke, in order to prove her statement, she swiped the mouse again in front of Elena.

After the mouse enters the ticket purchase page and checks their identity information, the signal starts to spin for a few seconds.

The page shows that the signal is not good and cannot be purchased, and it jumps back to the original ticket purchase page.

Seeing this scene, Haitong became more and more depressed: "Look, did it jump back again? I said it has a bad signal and can't buffer it. I thought it was a problem with the network in my room, but I didn't expect you to Can't afford it either."

Eileen saw this scene, but she was not as 'naive' as she was. She thought it was just a signal problem, so she immediately got up and went to the side, picked up the hotel internal phone, pressed the loudspeaker, and called the front desk.

The answer over there is very fast.

Immediately, a sweet female voice came out.

"Hi guest, what do you need?"

Eileen's voice was steady: "We can't afford a plane ticket, please find a network maintenance worker to come and take a look."

"Ah." After a short exclamation at the front desk, he said to her: "I'm sorry, guest, it's like this, the weather in F continent has been bad these two days. Many flights have been canceled and many people have been unable to buy air tickets. Otherwise, wait for the airline to notify you, and then I will notify you?"

Haitong also heard what the receptionist on the other end of the phone said, and immediately looked outside.

It is indeed cloudy outside the window, but not even a single rain falls, so what kind of bad weather?

But Elena had already thanked the hotel front desk, hung up the phone, turned back, and said in a calm tone: "Someone probably forbids us to leave."

"?"

Haitong subconsciously patted the table and stood up: "Why should she? This is restricting personal freedom and is an illegal act."

"This is Continent F, not where we study abroad." Elena said indifferently, pulled out the chair and sat down again unhurriedly, then tilted her head to comfort her, and motioned her to sit first: "They probably didn't come here for us, it must be the grounding caused by the game between the forces here. We are not going to leave immediately, and it is the same to wait two days to buy the plane ticket."

Haitong was so angry that he was going to die, but when he heard that his swollen chest seemed to be blown by a breeze, it passed through his limbs and bones, dispelling a little dryness.

"But who is so overbearing? They won't allow us to leave if they have something to do. It's really ridiculous!" Haitong couldn't hide the disdain in his eyes, and said, "No wonder the economy here hasn't developed, it's just a wild place, full of barbarians people."

Eileen said to her noncommittally: "Anyway, we will go to my friend's charity dinner tonight, so we just have two more days to play."

Haitong still couldn't help being depressed, and said sullenly: "I'm afraid that after two days, we still won't be able to leave."

Then her family will definitely find out that she lied, that she didn't play in China at all, but came to Continent F with her classmates.

She was originally born out of trouble with her family, if her family finds out that she is still lying, they don't know what to say about her.

When Hai Tong thought of these things, he became extremely irritable.

After all, it was Qiao Nian who caused the trouble!

It was that Qiao Nian that caused Grandpa Ye, her parents, grandma, and the gang in Beijing to target her.

It was obviously that woman who was greedy for vanity, climbed up on her brother, and somehow coaxed Aunt Lan and Grandpa Ye to like her more, making her an ignorant person.

Chapter 4660 Take Haitong to meet the world

"After all, I still blame that person." Haitong hinted.

Eileen reached out and patted her shoulder to comfort her: "Don't waste your good mood for people who are not worth it, some people are not worth our effort to think about."

Hai Tong felt a little more comfortable listening, and his face softened a lot, so he looked up adoringly, and said from the bottom of his heart: "Aina, you are so kind."

Eileen patted her on the back lightly twice, and said casually: "I will take you to the charity dinner tonight, you will like it."

Haitong didn't know anything about the various forces in Continent F. He only heard Elena tell her that tonight's musical was very big, much bigger than that day's musical.

She happily said: "Then I'll put on the evening dress I brought, and take two more beautiful photos to post on Moments."

She finally came out and sent it to Moments.

Before she went to that musical, she just asked someone for two tickets, and those people put on a great look.

If she goes to a more advanced banquet, she must not smash the faces of those people.

Just let them see that even if they kick her out of the group, she doesn't mix with the circles in Beijing, and there are plenty of high-end circles overseas who can get in touch.

And these high-end circles overseas happen to be the circles that those people who are at the bottom of the well will never have the chance to come into contact with in their entire lives!

"Up to you." Elena didn't care.

Hai Tong was even happier, holding her waist with both hands, and buried her head in her arms: "Aina, you are so kind!"

Eileen resisted the urge to pull her away, a hint of impatience and disgust flashed in her brown eyes, but she still didn't dodge after all.

"We are classmates, I brought you here, and I will definitely show you around."

"Thank you, Ina."

Hai Tong was very happy.

Eileen is not talking.

at dusk. Hai Tong went out with her friend.

When they boarded the luxury nanny car that came to pick them up, Haitong was still fiddling with the hem of her evening dress, her round face hard to hide her excitement.

Getting into the car and watching the driver driving unsmilingly, he said to Elena who was sitting next to her, "Would it be too grand for me to dress like this?"

Eileen looked at her upper body from the E family show. The skirt of the fairy skirt looked like scattered clouds in the car. It looked very high-end, but it was actually too grandstanding.

Especially Haitong asked her innocently if she was dressed too grandly.

Eileen's eyes flickered, and she calmly comforted her: "Fortunately, there should be quite a few people in dresses at the dinner party."

In fact, she simply thought that there were always two or three clowns at every dinner party to adjust the atmosphere, and Hai Tong was the clown tonight.

Yellow skin, black eyes, black hair.

Such an oriental face should have played the role of a clown.

Haitong didn't feel the slightest bit of malice from her at all, and immediately heaved a sigh of relief, and smiled: "Really?"

"Um."

Get Elena's positive answer.

Haitong also became more and more happy, and still cared about her: "Then why didn't you... not wear a dress?"

Eileen watched her sizing her up, put her elbow on the edge of the car window, and dismissed her with a casual sentence.

"I didn't bring any clothes."

Haitong believed it was true, and said: "You should have said earlier, I have a lot at home, if I had known, I would have brought one out for you."

Soon looked at her, admiringly said: "But you are beautiful and have a temperament, even if you don't wear a dress, it doesn't matter whether you wear it or not, you must be the focus of the audience."
