

Madam's 4681

Chapter 4681 I don't have time today, tomorrow or the day after tomorrow

She suppressed her displeasure and watched Offit talking to Mo Dong again.

Haitong on the side was still talking to herself and asked her: "Aina, who do you think the person next to Mr. Offit is?"

"There is a scar on my face, it's so scary."

Elena had noticed Mo Dong a long time ago and said calmly: "People from the bunker."

"The bunker?" Haitong looked confused, as if he didn't know David, let alone the bunker. He smiled ignorantly and said, "Why does it sound so good?"

If Qiao Nian hears her words, he will definitely give her a thumbs up and agree with her words. After all, someone seems to be very good every time he chooses a name.

Whether it's a Yaomen or a bunker.

He has never had any normal names, each one is more ancient than the one that appears in martial arts novels.

Oh, a hobby for the elderly.

It's a pity that Qiao Nian was inside at the moment and missed Haitong's complaints perfectly. Only Elena heard it, and Elena just turned around without comment.

At this time.

Offit has exhausted Mo Dong's patience.

Even though he once again mentioned having dinner together in the evening, Mo Dong lost the patience to mediate with him and refused directly.

"Sorry, no time."

Offit was a little embarrassed by his straightforward words again, and forced a smile: "Mr. Mo Dong has plans for the evening? In fact, I will..."

Mo Dong interrupted him: "I don't have time tomorrow, the day after tomorrow, or the day after tomorrow! I have important guests to accompany me and I can't spare the time."

Haitong is very unsighted and not very polite.

She didn't take Elena far far, but she actually stood by and waited, listening to all the conversation between the two. She was surprised by the other party's attitude: "He actually talked to Mr. Offit like this."

Haitong said in a voice that he thought was quiet: "Who does he think he is? He is too rude."

Elena glanced at her, ignoring her ignorant and stupid words.

Who is Mo Dong?

The people of the bunker.

The status of the bunker in Continent F is self-evident.

It's true that Offit is one of today's upstarts in technology, and it's no problem that he's also the richest man in the world, but these glamorous identities mean nothing in front of the real big guys.

Mo Dong's attitude was not problematic at all in her eyes.

If placed on the island, Offit's status would not even be qualified to go to the island! Haitong thinks how powerful Offit is, but Haitong's personal knowledge is too low and she can only see the information behind the information age that these big guys want ordinary people to see.

Haitong thought he understood the world, but realized that it was only a small space.

There are so many people in this world who are like Haitong, who will never be able to touch a higher level of the world in their entire lives, and will live in ignorance and ignorance forever.

She often finds it boring outside.

"Mr. Offit is also good-tempered. I can still stand there and talk to him. He is so well-educated." Haitong didn't know that he had long been reduced to a clown in Elena's eyes, and he was still making incomprehensible comments.

"So the gap between people is really big. Some people are obviously the richest man in the world but are low-key and humble, while some people seem to have no idea! They don't know what they are!"

Hai Tong didn't understand that any other guest could be more distinguished than Offit and worthy of Mo Dong's rejection of Offit's dinner invitation.

Mo. Not something. 东: "You don't have to ask me out."

Offit was still unwilling to give up the opportunity: "Actually, Mr. Mo Dong can go with his friends..."

Chapter 4682: Sister Nian is out

Mo Donggang said: "No, my friend doesn't like contact with unfamiliar people, so forget it."

Qiao Nian inside made peace with Ye Wangchuan and opened the door just in time to come out.

He ran into four or five pairs of eyes from outside.

Offit and his assistant didn't know Qiao Nian, so they were just stunned. They didn't expect there was anyone in the box.

Mo Dong called out: "Miss Qiao."

Not far away were Elena and Haitong.

Elena raised her eyelids slightly and looked over, her expression changed unpredictable, she tightened the corners of her lips slightly, and looked at the girl calmly.

Haitong was the one who was least able to control his emotions. He exclaimed in surprise: "Qiao, Qiao Nian?! Why are you here!"

She never thought that Qiao Nian would appear in F Continent, still in the box!

This impact was tantamount to refreshing her cognition, making her unable to control her facial expression at all, her muscles trembling as she stared at the girl coming out of the box.

I wish I could see more flowers!

How could Qiao Nian be in Continent F, still in the box where Mr. Offit was waiting? Haitong couldn't figure out the joints inside. Is it possible that Qiao Nian is an important guest in the mouth of the man Mr. Offit wants to date?

Haitong couldn't accept the thought even when he came up with it.

Qiao Nian?

She looked at the girl in plain clothes who came out not far away. There is no way she could be more attractive than Offit.

Mo Dong didn't know what she was thinking. He changed his impatience towards Offit, turned around and faced the girl very respectfully: "Miss Qiao, why are you out?"

He ignored Offit and said without thinking, "Is it too noisy outside?"

Offit and his assistant: "..."

Is it too noisy outside?

referring to them?

However, after the moment of embarrassment of being at a loss what to do, Offit looked at the girl and vaguely felt that he had seen Qiao Nian somewhere.

Girls have an aura that is hard to mess with.

Innate sense of coldness.

Gives people a sense of alienation.

There are not many people with this temperament. Offit quickly searched in his brain.

His memory has been better than that of ordinary people since he was a child, especially when it comes to remembering people.

Otherwise he wouldn't remember Mo Dong, whom he had just met twice.

Offit kept looking at the girl, wondering where he had seen her before.

at this time.

Qiao Nian spoke.

"no."

She was talking to Mo Dong.

"I took him to the hospital."

It is self-evident who he is.

Mo Dong understood it almost instantly, and immediately said: "I tried to persuade Mr. Wan on the way, but Mr. Wan didn't listen..." This was an immediate dismissal of himself, indicating that Ye Wangchuan's decision not to go to the hospital had nothing to do with him.

Qiao Nian turned his left wrist slightly irritably, then lowered it: "It's okay."

Mo Dong breathed a sigh of relief, and when he raised his eyes, he met the deep eyes of the man who came out behind Qiao Nian. That look... Mo Dong felt a chill go down his back, realizing that he seemed to have said something he shouldn't have said.

But he felt aggrieved at the same time.

He was not wrong either.

Mr. Wan refused to listen to him and had to drag himself back to deal with the affairs of the reclusive family. He also heard that Miss Qiao was at the auction, so he rushed over without stopping.

Mr. Wang just doesn't take his body seriously.

He is not making a complaint.

Aren't you afraid that Miss Qiao would misunderstand him and think that he, a subordinate, would not give advice?

Mo Dong felt bitter, but at least he had some brains and didn't dare to say it directly. He just pushed it aside and made way for him.

Talked to Qiao Nian and the young man who came out from behind: "Miss Qiao, Master Wan, I'll drive."

Chapter 4683: Master Wan grabbed him with one hand

At this time, Qiao Nian took out a bunch of keys from his pocket, hooked it on his finger, curled the corners of his lips wantonly, and said casually: "I drove the car myself."

"Ah, that's it." Mo Dong stopped.

Qiao Nian glanced at him and said, "You stay, I'll leave this to you. Help me send the things back."

Mo Dong understood that he was talking about the Double Sheep Zun that Ye Wangchuan had photographed before. He nodded and his sharp face became serious: "Understood."

"Miss Qiao, don't worry and leave it to me." This is not the first time he has done these packaging and follow-up tasks. Mr. Wang has also auctioned many similar cultural relics before.

It was all sent back to country Z by him, as an anonymous person, to avoid unnecessary trouble in the future.

"Um."

Qiao Nian responded, picked up the car keys and prepared to leave.

During this period, she didn't even look at Elena and Haitong, as if she didn't see them.

This made Haitong, who had recognized Qiao Nian from the beginning and shouted out, feel a great sense of humiliation. She was so angry that she wanted to step forward to prevent Qiao Nian from leaving and ask her if she did it on purpose.

"What does she mean!"

Haitong's round face still showed disbelief, he gritted his teeth and lowered his voice.

"She is pretending not to know anything."

Haitong was very angry.

Qiao Nian didn't seem to know them. Compared to the first time, she sneered at them and even slapped them in the face, as if they were just insignificant ants.

But why should Qiao miss her?

She herself is just a peacock who only flutters when she climbs the high branches of the Ye family. Why does a bumpkin who was raised by someone else in the countryside have such an attitude?

"What is she dragging?" Haitong muttered, but actually did not dare to conflict with Qiao Nian.

The last time she was in the musical theater left a deep psychological shadow on her.

She has an indescribable feeling of fear towards Qiao Nian. She hates him but doesn't dare to offend him, so she just dares to whisper a few words behind his back.

Elena seemed not to hear her whispering complaints and stared at one place the whole time, completely ignoring Hai Tong beside her.

at this time.

Offit seemed to have remembered something, and stood in front of the girl who was about to leave, looking a little excited: "Are you Q?"

Qiao Nian was suddenly blocked by someone. She frowned impatiently. Before her black eyes could look over, Offit was pulled away.

Ye Wangchuan grabbed his wrist, locked it in the tiger's mouth, and pressed it slightly hard: "You scared my girlfriend."

He apologized gently and looked polite.

But Offit's face was twisted in pain as he grabbed one of his hands, and he almost screamed out in embarrassment. His face, which was relatively well-maintained, was livid from holding back...

The assistant rushed to rescue him: "President, are you okay?"

Ye Wangchuan let go of his hand, and Shi Shiran stood there, looking coldly at the two of them, with a gentle and dignified tone: "Sorry, I used a little force. Are you okay?"

He said he was embarrassed, but the way he adjusted his cuffs didn't look like he was embarrassed. The feeling of déjà vu is written all over his body, 'I did it on purpose'.

The assistant was so angry that he gritted his teeth and was about to step forward to argue: "You..." These people in F State have gone too far!

Offit was able to ease the severe pain and catch him in time: "I'm fine. Besides, the gentleman didn't mean what he said."

"But CEO..." The assistant looked at him impatiently, then at the unscrupulous Ye Wangchuan, and finally gave in to Offit's own will and swallowed hard.

Chapter 4684: Are you Q?

Offit still felt numb pain in the tiger's mouth of his left hand. Fortunately, he had a bright mind and knew how to assess the situation. After comforting his assistant, he put on a smile and took the initiative to say: "It's me who should be sorry. I was too emotional." I'm so excited, I'm sorry."

His words were not only meant for Ye Wangchuan, but also for Qiao Nian.

Then he asked impatiently: "Qiao? No, Miss Q. I don't know if you still remember the weapons exhibition of country k. The time you went with your team, I was fortunate enough to be there and see I will show you the Tsar. You are not on the team list, but I asked someone to ask about you. Your code name is Q at the weapons show."

Hearing this, Qiao Nian remembered a weapons exhibition she had gone to with Master Cheng and the others. That time, in order to avoid trouble, she did remain anonymous and did not write her name in the list of main members.

She did not expect that anyone would inquire about her afterwards.

Seeing that she finally looked at him, Offit straightened up and said energetically, "Don't get me wrong. I asked you that you had no ill intentions, I was just watching you display the tsar at the scene. I was very impressed and curious, so I asked my friends. "

"So?" The girl's voice was hoarse, suppressing a little impatience.

Offit was on the right track, no longer beating around the bush, his eyes bursting with blazing heat: "I want to ask you, do you also have an account on the CTW forum, and your account name is also Q?"

As we all know, the CTW forum is one of the forums where technology enthusiasts gather the most. There is no doubt about its professionalism, and there are many big names in the field in the forum.

These big guys keep their names anonymous and generally do not register with their real identities. They will take a code name and then search for information or randomly answer questions for some lucky people.

They also like to write out some ideas and opinions that are still in their infancy and discuss them with everyone.

There is a very special person here.

Q.

Q does not appear frequently in the forum, or even rarely appears in the forum.

She will also check the forum information. Except for some browsing history that has not been deleted, there is only one post in the account.

【Autonomous Driving and AI Technology】 .

In this post, the author uses a very calm note-taking method to write down his thoughts on the combination of autonomous driving and AI technology that had not yet emerged at the time.

She did not issue an invitation to explore possibilities like other posts that record opinions.

That post is more like a draft that a person jotted down after looking up information when he was bored. It was complicated and full of confidence.

And after Q recorded that post, he seemed to have left the account behind and never logged into the forum again.

The forum only left one area [unmanned driving and AI technology]. In the subsequent development of science and technology, many ideas and technologies have been proven to be feasible.

That post has also become one of the forum's best posts.

Offit got inspiration from that post and became the first person to try to combine AI technology with driverless driving.

In the end, he defeated many capitals and jumped from a small team to today's technological upstart.

He has always wanted to find this Q.

Firstly, I want to see who the other party is, and secondly, I want to poach people.

This kind of talent should not be left outside.

If Q were not one of those internationally renowned veteran scientists, he would be willing to spend a lot of money to recruit people and recruit them to his company at all costs.

This kind of forward-thinking super talent is what he has always wanted to find.

Chapter 4685 Sister Nian is the person he has always wanted to find

Offit has been searching for a long time, and only found a few clues at a weapons exhibition, but has not been able to investigate further, until today...

How could he control his excitement?

Offit held his breath and looked at the girl again nervously, confirming again: "Do you have that account?"

Qiao Nian thought for a long time before she remembered the forum and account he was talking about. Her eyes flashed, and her dark eyes fell on him. She paused and said bluntly: "No."

Offit didn't believe what he heard: "No?"

He was a little anxious and almost wanted to pull Qiao Nian back: "Think about it again? CTW Forum..."

Meet Ye Wangchuan's eyes.

Offit's left hand ached again, and he didn't dare to rush forward as fearlessly as before, so he had to stand one step away from the girl.

"Miss Q, please think about it carefully, this is very important to me, and I want to thank you very much. If it weren't for your post to enlighten me, I would still be confused and unable to find the direction for the future... Please believe that I have no ill intentions."

In fact, there is no need for him to emphasize the lack of malice at the end.

This is continent F.

If he has malicious intent.

If he died outside tomorrow, the headlines would only be that he had an accident while traveling and died because his car rolled over or he refused to listen to advice.

Mo Dong was confused when he heard what he said, what CTW forum, what Q? What is this person talking about again.

However, he knew that Miss Qiao, like Mr. Wan, liked to use code names very much, and both of them were relatively lazy people.

Generally, they are letters related to names such as Q and Y.

He had a vague feeling that the enlightenment mentor Offit mentioned was Qiao Nian, but Miss Qiao was afraid of trouble and obviously didn't want to admit it.

"Are you Q?" After Offit explained sincerely, he was full of hope again.

The girl was most likely annoyed by his pestering. She was silent for two seconds and gave him an affirmative answer again: "No."

"Impossible, you..." Offit wanted to say something else. Ye Wangchuan shouted in a cold voice: "Mo Dong, would you like to buy some melon seeds and give you a bench?"

Mo Dong felt nervous, touched his neck, and quickly walked over and grabbed Offit, who was still struggling. The two brothers seemed to have to cross their shoulders and pull him away.

"Miss Qiao already told me that you have found the wrong person. Come on, let's talk to the side."

Offit struggled to get away and said unwillingly: "I can't admit my mistake. It's really her."

"Oh, I said no, but you say yes? Do you know her affairs better than she does?" Mo Dong said this.

What I'm thinking about is, if you know better than Miss Qiao herself, then Mr. Wang can throw you into the newly dug mine and bury you tomorrow.

But he was expressionless and had a straight face, looking fierce and terrifying: "You must have mistaken the wrong person."

Offit has a hard time talking about it.

His assistant didn't dare to go there when he saw Mo Dong, who was tall and scarred.

When Qiao Nian was free, he said to the people around him: "Let's go."

Ye Wangchuan glanced back, turned his head, and left the place side by side with the girl...

The two of them walked away.

Mo Dongcai released his grip on Offit's neck, immediately distanced himself, and said to him, "I still have something to do, you continue."

He said and walked away without looking back, looking completely different from the two brothers just now with their shoulders crossed!

The back is majestic.

He is tall and hard to mess with.

Offit's assistant saw that they were all gone before he dared to go over and help him: "President, are you okay?"

Then he said angrily: "Who are these people? This is too much!"

Offit was pinched by Mo Dong's neck before, and his face turned red and his neck was thick. Now he breathed, but he was not angry. He patted his assistant's hand, and he could hear regret: "Q has this kind of character, she ...It can be seen in the forum that she is unique and different from the people I have interacted with before, but it is a pity that she is unwilling to admit it, otherwise...I really want to invite her to the company."

If he could invite Q, he would be able to swallow any grievance no matter how big it was, let alone the previous grievance.

"Why doesn't she want to admit it?" Offit touched his red neck, but still couldn't figure out why Qiao Nian ignored him.

The T Group has gained a global reputation.

He believes in the future vitality of his company.

Qiao Nian was not interested at all and didn't even leave him his contact information.

This feeling...

Offit wanted to impress the other party even more and invite the other party to join.

The assistant supported him and asked cautiously: "President, that person is very important? I think she is not very old. Are you mistaken for the wrong person?"

Qiao Nian does look young, at least not like someone Offit would look for.

But Offit was absolutely sure: "It's her."

The assistant doesn't understand why: "?"

Offit said directly: "If you were pulled over by a stranger and asked if you were so-and-so, even if you were not, would you ask clearly who so-and-so was?"

The assistant was stunned for a moment, thinking about it carefully, and then nodded hesitantly: "I should know more about it, so as not to make a mistake."

Offit looked at him and said, "Yes. Then look at her reaction... She told me straightforwardly that no, and I asked her two or three times, but she just said no, without any extra words."

When the assistant thought about it, it seemed that it was exactly what he said.

The girl was emotionally stable throughout the whole process and just denied it. She didn't even ask the CEO what he wanted to do with Q, and she didn't want to know the origin between the two.

"But she is too young..." The assistant was still angry. How powerful could someone be at such a young age?

Offit did not explain to him any further, and turned around to find his friends in Continent F, wanting to find out where Qiao Nian lived and what his identity was.

At this moment, he noticed Elena and Haitong who were still waiting aside.

Offit was thinking about Qiao Nian's affairs and had no intention of wasting time with them anymore, so he walked over and hurriedly said to Elena: "Aina, when I go back, I will visit your mentor Professor Steven another day when I have time. I have something else to do today, so I'll leave first."

Elena nodded slightly and motioned for him to please: "You are busy first."

Before Offit left, he remembered what she said about introducing Haitong and the mentor behind Elena, so he still took the time to give her a favor.

He took out a business card from his wallet and handed it to Haitong, saying, "This is my contact information."

Haitong was flattered, took the business card with both hands, and said hurriedly: "Okay, okay."

Offit felt that he had given Elena face, so he raised his legs and hurriedly left with his assistant...

He never asked for Haitong's phone number during the whole process. He made it clear that he just gave her a business card and had no intention of interacting with Haitong again in the future.

But Haitong himself didn't realize this. He was very happy that he could get a business card from someone else. He even took the business card to show off to Elena: "Mr. Offit gave me the business card. Does this mean we know each other?"

Chapter 4686: Give her a business card casually

Then he said angrily: "Who are these people? This is too much!"

Ofit was pinched by Mo Dong's neck before, and his face turned red and his neck was thick. Now he breathed, but he was not angry. He patted his assistant's hand, and he could hear regret: "Q has this kind of character, she ...It can be seen in the forum that she is unique and different from the people I have interacted with before, but it is a pity that she is unwilling to admit it, otherwise...I really want to invite her to the company."

Chapter 4687 Don't compare me with others

Elena saw her stupid look holding up the business card and flipping through it excitedly, and didn't want to answer her at all.

In the end, I managed to make do with it.

"Um."

Haitong didn't see the contempt and impatience hidden in the corners of her eyes and brows. After solemnly putting away the business card, she raised her head again and said to Elena belatedly: "By the way, Mr. Offit really knows Qiao Nian." ?The Q he mentioned was Qiao Nian?"

Elena was a little irritable: "I don't know."

Haitong thought thoughtfully and quickly denied it: "Forget it, she can't be Q. Mr. Offit must have got the wrong person! Apart from that face, she has nothing else to say. Pass the exam She didn't go to Tsinghua University either. She hangs out with a bunch of men every day and looks like she won't be able to graduate. Her degree from Tsinghua University might have been bought for her by Grandpa Ye through some connections, or else she..."

Haitong showed a scornful expression, as if he knew Qiao Nian better.

"She feels guilty so she doesn't dare to admit that she is Q, otherwise she would not be able to climb Mr. Offit's big tree! She just doesn't have the courage to seize the opportunity, so she doesn't dare to take it."

Elena has seen stupid people, but she has never seen anyone stupider and more imaginative than her!

She no longer wanted to continue chatting with Haitong on this topic, so she said casually: "Just say it."

Haitong was not stupid enough. He noticed her emotions, hesitated for a moment, and asked in an uncertain tone: "Aina, do you think she is Q?"

"..." Offit repeatedly stopped in front of Qiao Nian to prevent her from leaving. Isn't it obvious?

But Elena didn't want to tell her this, so she said: "I don't know."

She walked out.

"I don't want to know either. Whether she is Q or not has nothing to do with me."

Haitong hurriedly followed her: "She can't be Q."

Seeing that Elena ignored him.

Haitong blurted out again: "She is Q, isn't she more powerful than you?"

Elena stopped suddenly.

Haitong didn't pay attention and almost bumped into her back. Fortunately, he reacted in time and stopped right after her...

She didn't even realize that she had said the wrong thing, so she reached out and patted the woman in front of her on the shoulder: "Aina? What's wrong with you?"

Elena took a deep breath and controlled her temper. She didn't let herself break her defense for a fool. However, she slowly turned her head and told her clearly in an obviously unhappy tone: "I don't like talking to people. Compare. I am who I am and I don't need to compare with anyone!"

She admitted that Qiao Nian had two abilities, so what?

She is the heir to the Eileen family, the second largest family on the island, and the future wife of the island owner. Comparing her status with anyone is self-humiliation.

No one deserves to compare with her.

And she doesn't need to compare with anyone!

Haitong said angrily: "I...I didn't mean that. I also think you are much better than her. Why should she compare you with you? You are still my favorite sister-in-law."

Seeing that Elena's expression did not soften, she pouted, lowered her head reluctantly, grabbed Elena's arm and shook it: "I'm sorry, I didn't mean to do it. Don't worry, I won't compare you with her in the future. Oh, what kind of thing is she worthy of comparing with you?"

Elena thought that she would have to stay in Beijing for a while, and finally suppressed her temper and managed to calm down her expression: "The young man next to her is..."

"My brother!" Haitong said immediately.

Elena showed a thoughtful expression.

Chapter 4688: Qiao Nian, is she not worthy?

Ye Wangchuan always had his back to them. In fact, she didn't see his appearance very clearly. She could only see his slender figure and extraordinary temperament.

And she was deeply impressed by the scene where Ye Wangchuan took action to capture Offit...

A man who dares to stand up to protect women, and who is careful, gentle and strong enough is a plus at any time.

Her first impression of the person she might marry in the future was very good.

Haitong saw that she asked him and remained silent for a long time, thinking that she was still angry, so he thought about it and explained: "My brother must not have seen us, otherwise he would definitely come over."

"You...if you want to get to know him, I can call him and ask him out for a meal." Haitong said it easily, but in fact he didn't know what he was saying.

It's just that she knew that Elena was taking her to a high-profile dinner and helping her meet important people...

In return.

It wouldn't be very interesting if you don't offer some sincere 'benefits'.

She really wanted Aina to replace the annoying Qiao Nian and become her brother's girlfriend...but Haitong wasn't crazy enough to take her face seriously enough to ask someone out.

So she was very afraid that Elena would say something like "That's good" at this time.

She observed nervously, waiting for Elena's reaction.

Fortunately, Elena just glanced at her and saw through her guilty conscience under her flattering smile. She pulled the corner of her lower lip, raised a contemptuous arc, and followed Haitong's intention and said, "I was just asking casually."

Haitong secretly breathed a sigh of relief, thinking that no one could see his little thoughts, so he smiled and said: "That's right, we are not familiar with the place here, and besides, he must have something to do before coming to F state. When we return to Beijing, City, I'll ask my brother out again."

"We'll talk about the future later." Elena was noncommittal, as if she wasn't interested.

Haitong made up his mind to hug her thigh and immediately climbed up the pole: "My brother has never seen a good one. If he knows you, how can he like Qiao Nian?"

Alina did not speak this time.

Haitong accepted her acquiescence and said happily: "It's settled! When I return to Beijing, I will find an opportunity to introduce you to each other. My brother is better than many young masters overseas. I am really a good match for you. You will know it by yourselves." !"

Since she was a child, she has admired the grandson of Grandpa Ye's family, Mr. Ye, who is now famous in Beijing.

Ye Wangchuan is like the bright moon in the sky to her.

She knew she was not worthy to reach the moon.

So I never had the idea of reaching out and touching the moon.

But the same thing.

Haitong also doesn't like others to touch the moon.

Especially for a woman like Qiao Nian whose family background is not as good as mine and who has nothing but a face!

How dare Qiao Nian use dirty hands to catch the moon!

Even if the moon is about to set, it should still be among the stars.

Qiao Nian?

She doesn't deserve it!

Haitong looked at Elena's beautiful appearance, outstanding temperament, and the group of big shots around Elena... and became more sure of her thoughts.

"A lion should be with a lion, not with a mouse."

Joe. Toad eats swan meat. Nian just walked to the car at this moment, stepped on the jeep, opened the door, and turned around to signal someone.

"boarding."

She has an energy about her, she is cool and sassy!

Standing in the night wind.

The wind made the hem of her clothes rustle, blowing up the black hair wrapped around her neck, revealing a delicate and slender neck.

Chapter 4689: Sister Nian: I will drive slower

The eyebrows are wanton.

Like a sharp ancient knife that cuts through the night, he is the brightest night in the world!

Haitong would not be embarrassed to call Qiao Nian a "rat" behind his back if he could see clearly what he is like here.

“You still want me to invite you?” Seeing that he hadn’t come up, Qiao Nian raised her eyebrows, her eyes burning like fire: “Or do you want me to carry you up?”

She rolled up her sleeves as she spoke, looking like she was going to do something big.

Ye Wangchuan rubbed his brows, walked around to the passenger seat and got into the car, preparing to fasten his seat belt.

The girl who jumped into the car next raised her hand and pressed the back of her hand: "No need."

Ye Wangchuan looked over.

Her tone was calm: "You are injured, it is best not to put pressure on the wound."

Then she looked forward, held one hand on the steering wheel, and said quite naturally: "I will drive slower."

Ye Wangchuan let go of his hand on the seat belt, chuckled, and lazily added: "Then it's all up to God Qiao to take care of him."

Qiao Nian glanced at him sideways, shifted gears neatly, put down the brakes and stepped on the accelerator: "Aren't you afraid of death? You still need me to take care of you."

“I haven’t even married a wife yet, but I’m suddenly scared to death.” Ye Wangchuan clearly joked.

Qiao Nian deliberately stepped on the accelerator. Seeing that his body fell forward unexpectedly, he turned the steering wheel and swung across the parking space to balance the impact in the car.

Then he said calmly: "Sorry, my foot slipped. Are you okay?"

Ye Wangchuan really didn't expect that she would suddenly hit the brakes, and he was not wearing a seat belt. At that moment, he almost hit his head unprepared.

But after he stabilized himself, he caught a glimpse of the girl's heroic profile, pursed her thin lips, lowered her eyes and chuckled, and said lazily and solemnly: "It's okay."

Qiao Nian just made a joke and started driving forward again when he saw that he was sitting firmly again.

This time her hand was much steadier. Just like what she said, she drove steadily and slowly along the way. Except for running a few red lights, she was a good and law-abiding citizen.

The jeep quickly stopped at the entrance of the hospital.

Qiao Nian got out of the car first, then walked over to help him open the door. Without saying a word, he stretched out his arm honestly: "If you don't want to get down, you can hold my hand."

"Um?"

Ye Wangchuan realized what she meant and almost laughed out of anger at her.

Men can't say no!

He deliberately avoided Qiao Nian and got out of the car steadily, looking like a normal person. When he got off the bus, he said to the girl, "I'm not as seriously injured as you think."

Qiao Nian retracted her hand to express her respect for his arrogance, put her hands in her pockets and walked forward: "Whether it's serious or not depends on the results of the filming."

Ye Wangchuan pressed the tip of his tongue against his chin, and his long eyelashes covered his eyes. There was nothing he could do to stop her, so he laughed angrily and raised his legs to follow her.

There will always be a shortage of people in hospitals anywhere.

Especially at night emergency rooms.

Qiao Nian did not have any special privileges this time. She queued up to register like ordinary patients who came to see a doctor, and then waited for their turn to see a doctor.

Let's go in together.

There was a black doctor in a white coat sitting inside. When he heard the two people coming in, he first asked coldly: "What's the disease?"

Then he raised his eyes and saw two faces that were completely different from the people on the F continent, with black eyes and black hair?

The doctor was stunned for a moment, then came to his senses and looked at his door.

Make sure you are not an eyesore.

He raised his hand and pushed up his glasses: "Are you here to see a doctor?"

Qiao Nian walked over, sat in front of him and said to him: "Do a CT scan for me."

Chapter 4690: It also alarmed Chunlei

"Are you sick? Where do you feel uncomfortable?" the doctor asked subconsciously.

Qiao Nian pursed her lips, turned around and looked back, raised her finger and pointed at the person behind her: "It's not me, it's him."

Even though the doctor was well-informed, he was confused by them. He then looked at the patient standing there. The patient was very handsome and had a distinguished demeanor wherever he stood.

Everything is fine, except that he looks doting on his face and doesn't look like a sick person.

And the girls who accompany the patients don't look like family members.

"He...is sick?" The black doctor wanted to know if they were here to cause trouble, because apart from making trouble, it looked too strange to the patient and family members.

He was about to press the alarm button of the security department on the table.

The girl actually saw his intention and took the first step to hold his hand.

"What do you want to do?"

The doctor was also a little angry and asked: "I just wanted to ask you what are you going to do, are you looking for trouble? He seems to be sick?"

Ye Wangchuan himself was powerful and standing there properly. It was difficult to tell that he was a patient just by looking at him.

Which sick person is more oppressive than a good person?

It's no wonder that the doctor's first reaction was that two people came to play a prank on him...

Qiao Nian also realized what the problem was. She looked back at the man who seemed to be fine, and then looked at him with an innocent expression on his face as he shrugged his shoulders.

Qiao Nian's temples jumped twice. Thinking of the people who should still be in the hospital, she let go of her hands and said to the doctor: "Wait a moment."

Then he walked outside, took out his phone and made a call.

About five minutes passed.

Chun Lei came over in a hurry.

Saw two people.

She first calls out respectfully. "sun."

Then he nodded politely to Ye Wangchuan: "Young Master Ye."

After she called someone, Qiao Nian said to her concisely and concisely: "Go in and talk to the doctor inside and ask him to order a CT scan."

"Huh?" Chunlei rushed over to find her in a hurry, thinking there was something big going on, but he didn't expect Qiao Nian to ask her to place an order.

Seeing her confusion, Qiao Nian patiently explained: "The doctor thought I was here to cause trouble, so he didn't give me an order. You are from F continent, you communicate with him."

Chunlei probably understood what was going on now. He scratched his head and went in to communicate with the doctor inside.

After a while, a group of management-like people hurried out of the corridor and went in to say something to the doctor inside.

After a while, Chunlei came out with the CT examination sheet and handed it to the girl.

"sun, the list you want."

She thought about it for a while, but did not forget to tell the girls: "I will go with you later."

Qiao Nian rubbed the center of his brows, thinking about his previous experiences, suppressing his manic and depressed mood, and raised his hand to put away the checklist: "Okay."

Then she turned around and said to Ye Wangchuan, who was leaning against the wall and watching the excitement: "Let's go, I'll take you to take a CT scan."

Ye Wangchuan straightened up his long legs and followed him to save face.

Chunlei followed the two big guys to see what kind of fun they were having today. They came to the hospital to take a CT scan without using a special channel.

Qiao Nian watched Ye Wangchuan enter the operation room, watched the red light turn on outside, and waited outside.

at the same time.

Chunlei finally breathed a sigh of relief and asked with concern: "Sun, is Mr. Ye okay? I see him as if he is fine. It shouldn't be serious?"

Qiao Nian was a little irritated. She couldn't find any candy in her pocket. She was even more irritated. She raised her neck, held her eyes with one hand and said, "As long as the sky doesn't fall, he'll be like that. Whether it's serious or not, as long as he takes a CT scan." Only then did I know."
