

Madam's 4691

Chapter 4691: Is Zhai Xicheng dead?

Chunlei nodded and looked away: "Yes."

She can't see through the bunker, nor can she see through the master behind the bunker...

Chunlei didn't care about this very much. After all, the results were coming out soon, so there was nothing to worry about. Instead, she thought of another thing.

"By the way sun, I have something to tell you."

She just started talking.

I was interrupted.

"Qiao Nian."

At the end of the corridor, a haggard man walked over quickly.

Chun Lei immediately became vigilant, stood up and stood in front of him with his gun drawn, and shouted sternly to stop the other party from approaching: "What do you want to do, stay back!"

Qiao Nian could also clearly see the people running towards him.

Shadow seemed to have aged more than 20 years overnight. He went from being high-spirited by Nie Qingru's side to now seeming to have lost his soul, with his hair and temples turning gray.

His eyes were red and slightly swollen, but his face was pale and bloodless, just like a walking zombie.

The shadow looked at the girl inside through Chun Lei.

"I have something to tell you."

"Say it right here!" Chunlei took the lead.

The shadow paid no attention to her, looking straight at the girl inside, acting stubbornly as if Qiao Nian wouldn't let him pass, so he wouldn't say anything.

Qiao Nian only looked at him and called Chun Lei indifferently: "Let him come over."

Chunlei was worried and turned around and shouted uncertainly: "Sun, he is too dangerous..."

"It's okay, let him come over." Qiao Nian was always easy to talk to the people around David, but Chun Lei knew her temper.

Even though he was unwilling in his heart, he put down his gun obediently and motioned for the shadow to go over: "You'd better not use your mind, otherwise... the group of people who came with you will all pay for your actions!"

All the people on the island were killed by Qiao Nian, except for one Shadow Ten. However, before the members of the Hidden Family were killed, Monkey and the others took them back to the base camp and locked them up.

Including Mr. Xue, they all stayed at their base camp and could not leave.

Only Shadow was sent to the hospital with Nie Qingru for death assessment.

Chunlei was reminding him.

There are other people in the Hidden Family. Let him not think about avenging Nie Qingru and go crazy here.

Shadow dragged his legs and walked over, not sure if he heard Chun Lei's threat, and stopped half a step away from Qiao Nian.

He thought Qiao Nian would be wary and scared if he saw him approaching...

But he was disappointed.

The girl watched him approach with great calmness throughout the whole process. There was no fear or vigilance in her eyes, let alone being afraid of him...

Shadow suddenly thought of something and sneered: "Ha..."

Before he could speak, Qiao Nian said to him: "My patience with you is limited. You should think carefully about whether to laugh stupidly here."

Shadow immediately stopped laughing, remained silent for a few seconds, and said in a tearing voice like a broken bellows: "Is Zhai Xicheng dead?"

Qiao Nian raised her eyebrows and met his eyes.

The shadow never hides or evades, and is very persistent.

Qiao Nian said calmly: "He was shot twice in the heart and fell into the sea. He is still being salvaged. I can't answer you until I see the body."

Shadow had already gotten the answer he wanted. He raised the corners of his mouth happily, but tears flowed down: "He deserves to die!"

He raised his head to hold back the tears, then looked down at the girl in front of him and said, "I should thank you for this matter."

"Stop it." Qiao Nian told him to shut up, and then said without mercy: "I want Zhai Xicheng to die, and it has nothing to do with avenging Nie Qingru. If you think that I have any intention of avenging her, Then you can go back."

Chapter 4692 I want the Queen to return to her roots

She wanted Zhai Xicheng to die because she didn't want to give these people another chance. She also wanted Nie Qingru to have no peace under Jiuquan.

Nie Qingru thought about Zhai Xicheng until his death, hoping that Zhai Xicheng could leave Fzhou safely. With Nie Qingru's character, how could he blame Zhai Xicheng for running away ruthlessly?

So what she wants is not to avenge Nie Qingru, but to want Nie Qingru to die in peace even if he leaves.

Shadow understood what she meant: "I am representing myself, not the Queen..."

Nie Qingru did not want Zhai Xicheng to die.

But the shadow wants to tear Zhai Xicheng into pieces!

What Qiao Nian did was not the result the Queen wanted, but it was the result he wanted.

But obviously he overestimated himself.

Qiao Nian just glanced at him and said coldly: "I don't need your gratitude either. You don't think your gratitude is a reward for me, do you?"

Shadow was asked again and had nothing to say.

Qiao Nian's patience with him is indeed limited: "If you come to me and say this, there is no need. There is no difference between you and Nie Qingru in my eyes, and of course there is a high probability that your results will not be different."

The meaning of this statement is self-evident.

Shadow raised his head, not afraid of death, and only said: "I am ashamed of you regarding your mother. At the time, the queen... had no choice. Of course, for you, she had a choice. But Qiao Nian... people have feelings. Yes, she is not perfect, so she made a choice that you think is wrong. For her, it was not like she had no choice in the first place."

"Do you believe what you say?" Qiao Nian interrupted him impatiently.

Nie Qingru must have had a choice at the beginning.

She can resist the Nie family and not marry Ji Wujun.

As long as she makes it clear to Ji Wujun that she has a lover and wants to get married with her lover, she hopes that Ji Wujun can give her freedom.

Ji Wushun's character will not force her.

The reason why Ji Wuxiao forced her later was simply that the two parties had thoroughly negotiated and formed an alliance of interests.

At this time, Zhai Xicheng's uncle came out and said that he and Nie Qingru were in love. Faced with the marriage of two huge interests.

What do you like or dislike?

How could Ji Wuxiao destroy the cooperation that had been reached for such a boring thing again?

So Nie Qingru didn't have no choice.

But she made the choice from the beginning.

She chose not to offend the Hidden World family or Independent Continent, and exchanged her feelings for benefits and status. At the same time, she was unwilling to lose her true feelings, so she blamed all this on family persecution and Ji Wuxuan. Force the top.

He was even so crazy that he killed his own daughter and climbed up on the body of his own flesh and blood.

There is no choice.

It's just a rhetoric that Nie Qingru has used to brainwash herself over the years to get rid of her guilt.

This lie has been told for a long time.

Even Nie Qingru and Shadow themselves thought they had no choice at the time...

Qiao Nian had already gotten rid of the maggot-like feeling of disgust, but now he provoked it again.

"What exactly do you want to talk to me about?" Qiao Nian said with a cold face, extremely bored: "I said, my patience is limited, you need to think clearly."

Shadow saw that she was irritated. He took a deep breath and clenched his fists, but still mustered up the courage to mention it to her: "I want the Queen to return to her roots."

"What?" Qiao Nian licked his ears, looked at him with dark eyes, and asked him to say it again.

Did she hear it correctly?

Shadow asked her to bury her for Nie Qingru, or to send her back to M State for burial.

Chapter 4693 Not only will Sister Nian not let her return to M Continent, she will also not let her die with peace of mind.

Shadow plucked up the courage again: "Qiao Nian, she is dead. Even if there is a big grudge, the queen is dead. I hope you can forgive her. Or if you can't forgive her, she is also dead. You see, with her In terms of your blood relationship, at least let her return to her hometown and bury her properly."

"Pfft." Qiao Nian laughed out loud, but there was no smile in her eyes. She looked directly at him: "You said that it would be over when she died."

Shadow raised his head in confusion. The Queen is dead, what else do you want?

Qiao Nian's mood plummeted. She raised her hand and hooked the brim of her peaked cap, and told him ruthlessly: "If you want her to be buried in peace, go and find Ji Qing's bones, and I will let her return to her roots."

Shadow blurted out: "How is this possible! Ji Qing has been dead for twenty years, and he still died in the sea, and was blown to pieces."

Before he finished speaking, he understood what the girl meant.

Meet the other person's cold eyes.

The look in his eyes seemed to ask him coldly, Ji Qing's body was gone, why could Nie Qingru be buried?

Shadow already had some resentment in his heart, but he stopped pretending and asked bluntly: "Then what do you want? Do you want the Queen to be like Ji Qing? She is already dead!"

"Yes, she is dead." Qiao Nian responded.

Nie Qingru is dead.

So the people in the hidden family and the shadows all think that the dead are the most important, so what else does she want to do.

But she's going to tell everyone today.

Died does not solve the problem.

You can just close your eyes, leave a lot of mess behind, ask others to forgive you unconditionally, and pretend that nothing happened!

There was a dark fire in Qiao Nian's eyes, and she told him clearly: "So it is impossible for her to return to country M. Ji Qing died on the high seas, right? Tomorrow I will choose a day to give her a good ride and send her to meet Ji Qing. Affection."

"You're crazy..." Shadow couldn't believe it, his eyes full of incomprehension: "You hate her so much, she's already dead."

Qiao Nian used practical actions to tell him that this was not an evenly matched negotiation, but a unilateral notice. He raised his hand slightly.

Chunlei received the order to grab the shadow that was on the verge of collapse and prevent him from going crazy here: "Follow me."

The shadow refused to leave, and broke away. His eyes were red and crazy: "Qiao Nian, you will be punished by God for treating your grandma like this! You will not die! You will go to the ninth hell! I am waiting for you and the people around you. They all died unjust lives, and they were all haunted by the ghosts of injustice!"

Chunlei hit him directly on the back of the neck with an elbow, knocking him unconscious. He apologized to Qiao Nian in panic: "I'm sorry, Sun, I don't know him..."

She didn't know that this man could be so crazy and not afraid of death to say these things.

The key point is how can these people have the nerve to say such things to Sun? Forgive them just because Sun didn't act like the TV series and movies? Just do what they want. Can they immediately turn against each other and curse Sun to die?

Where do these people get their faces?

From Chunlei's point of view, it's normal for Qiao Nian to disagree.

Sun just transferred what Nie Qingru did back then to Nie Qingru himself, and Shadow couldn't accept it... These people talk about benevolence, justice and morality, but in the end they all have double standards.

"sun..." Chunlei leaned over uneasily.

Qiao Nian had already calmed down, avoided her caring hand, and said to her calmly: "Tug the person away."

"good."

Chunlei retracted his hand, walked over, and without saying a word, pulled the people on the ground away like sacks.

Chapter 4694 Mr. Wang: Just read it

Shadow is not bad at skills.

The reason why he was so easily subdued and knocked unconscious by Chun Lei this time was simply because he hadn't had a good rest these past few days, coupled with Nie Qingru's sudden death... The collapse of his spiritual world, coupled with his excitement, made him unable to notice the people around him. He was caught off guard and hit by an elbow from Chun Lei.

Qiao thought clearly about this, and while waiting outside, she called David again.

"How are you doing there?"

"It suddenly became windy on the sea. The wind was quite strong. The brothers were still fishing, but they hadn't found the boy yet. They were already preparing to put on the equipment." The wind was very strong on David's side, and the sound of the whistling wind was recorded on his mobile phone. His voice became muffled when he spoke.

Qiao Nian had a subtle sixth sense when he heard that Zhai Xicheng had not been found yet... But the possibility was too small, almost impossible.

She didn't delve into it.

Said to David: "I want to see his body."

"That's for sure." David agreed, and then asked: "Why did you think of calling me to ask me more about recruiting people?"

Qiao Nian had to admit that David knew her very well, so he found a seat and sat against the wall, waiting for Ye Wangchuan, who was taking the CT scan, to come out.

Hand holding the cell phone, he said to him: "Go back and find two people to keep an eye on the shadow. I'm worried that he has other thoughts."

Shadow's behavior this time was not like that of a right-hand man who had been by Nie Qingru's side for decades. Even if he was hit by Nie Qingru's sudden death, he shouldn't have behaved so weakly and incompetently.

He looked like he was deliberately performing in front of me.

Qiao Nian lowered her eyelashes and could probably guess what Shadow was thinking. If Shadow was deliberately showing it to her, his words about wanting Nie Qingru to return to his roots after falling leaves should be true... He just wanted to test her attitude.

It would be best if she is soft-hearted and agrees to send Nie Qingru back to his hometown. If she doesn't agree...

Qiao Nian suddenly became interested and wanted to see how Shadow planned to retaliate against her if she didn't agree.

The idea just came to her.

The red light in the CT room turned green, and the man inside walked out with his buttons on.

Qiao Nian suppressed all her discomfort and stood up to greet him: "How is it?"

Ye Wangchuan tied the buttons to the top, leaving only an abstinent Adam's apple. He looked down at her with long eyelashes covering his eyes: "What?"

"CT results." Qiao Nian recovered her mind and found that she was almost seduced by beauty again.

Ye Wangchuan pursed his lips, and the shadow he drew just surrounded the girl under him, like a silent hug: "I feel fine, but I have to wait for the doctor's results."

They called Chunlei, and Chunlei called the hospital's senior management.

So it is much easier to get the CT results than to ask the doctor to prescribe a CT procedure.

Not long after Ye Wangchuan came out of it, the person in charge of testing came out with a CT scan in his hand.

Qiao Nian asked him to give this to him so that he could see it himself.

Although the staff was hesitant, they still handed the cowhide bag to Qiao Nian because of her strong aura.

Qiao Nian pulled out the examination results and looked at the light, mainly looking at the images of his waist and abdomen. Only when he was sure that the injuries on his waist and abdomen only looked serious and did not damage the bones or internal organs, did he feel relieved and CT was handed to him.

"It's okay, I just need a good rest."

Ye Wangchuan took the cowhide bag from her and simply put the CT in it again. He met Qiao Nian's probing eyes and said lazily and proudly: "You can just take a look at it, but I won't take a look at it."

Chapter 4695: It may be inherited from parents

He has a magnificent appearance, and the lights in the hospital corridor cast a rich color on him.

Qiao Nian was originally a designer and had a keener awareness of beauty than ordinary people. At that moment, he couldn't help itching his fingers and said to him in a hoarse voice: "You stand still and don't move."

Then she took out her mobile phone, found an angle and took two photos.

She didn't have anyone's photos saved on her phone. This was the first time she took photos of people. There was no natural light at night, so it wasn't good to just rely on the lights in the corridor to make up the light.

But some people's own conditions are too advantageous.

Ye Wangchuan's appearance was blurred by the camera, and only his eyes looking at him from a distance could be seen. He was tall and had long legs. Whenever he stood there, he felt as if he was jumping out of the screen.

Qiao Nian saved the photo, put away her phone, raised her eyes and suddenly said to him: "I'll give you a necklace another day."

"Um?"

Ye Wangchuan cooperated with her to take the photo before walking to her side. Hearing Qiao Nian's words, he was obviously stunned, raised his eyebrows slightly, and his appearance became more and more outstanding.

Qiao Nian touched her chin and admired it for two seconds, then said calmly: "Wear it around your neck. You can put it outside. You can wear it in both formal and casual wear."

She had already made a rough sketch in her mind, and could imagine how well he would look wearing that necklace.

As a designer, Qiao Nian was ready to take action and wished he could go back and pick up a pen to sketch out the prototype in his mind.

But now she has a more important thing to do than designing the necklace, which is to take him to prescribe medicine.

Judging from the CT results, the situation is pretty good.

However, it is true that the injuries to Ye Wangchuan's waist and abdomen were serious. It can only be said from the CT scan that the muscles and bones inside were not injured.

"I'm going to get the medicine."

Qiao Nian raised his hand and pulled down his peaked cap: "Just wait for me here, don't run around."

Ye Wangchuan was still holding the cowhide bag in his hand. Seeing that she was just as worried about telling him as she was telling a child, he raised his lips with laughter.

"Um."

"..." Qiao Nian was relieved and turned around to leave.

...

the other side.

Ye Wangchuan waited for her to leave, collected his gentle aura, lowered his eyelids, walked to the seat, and put down the cowhide bag in his hand.

Then he took out his mobile phone and called Haijia's number, which he had not contacted for a long time.

Haifu got through the call immediately.

"Ye, Mr. Ye?"

There was disbelief in Hai's father's voice. After half a second, he didn't know what he was thinking of and asked very uneasily: "Why did you call me suddenly? Did... Haitong cause something?"

As if he was sure that Haitong had caused trouble again, he apologized nervously: "I'm sorry, Mr. Ye, I didn't take care of the child. This child has been very rebellious since she came home. I told her mother many times that if Haitong... I offend you, but please consider the relationship between the two families, I have a lot of adults, don't care about her."

The relationship between the Ye family and the Hai family has always been maintained, otherwise Haitong would not have the opportunity to visit the Ye family's old house often.

With this old relationship, the Hai family has been doing pretty well in Beijing over the years. Otherwise, they would have been in trouble long ago and would have no chance to continue to develop in this circle.

Haifu, before Ye Wangchuan said his intention, it was actually the stupidest thing to do to bring out the old relationship!

Favors will eventually run out.

Not to mention that the Hai family has used this favor frequently for more than ten years.

As the beneficiary, he always talks about human relations and really has no emotional intelligence.

It can be seen that Haitong's emotional intelligence may also be inherited from her parents.

Chapter 4696 Mr. Wan: Stay away from my people

"I met her in F Continent." Ye Wangchuan's voice was calm. He did not answer Hai's father's question, but mentioned it alone.

Father Hai's scalp tightened, and he immediately said: "She went to F Continent with her classmates, saying they were traveling. You also know that she has been studying abroad in the past few years, and it is estimated that her classmates know friends from F Continent. Mr. Ye, what's wrong? ?"

Ye Wangchuan tilted his head, the bridge of his nose was very high, and his long eyelashes were half closed. The light and shadow cast a nice shadow on his face: "Do you know her classmate?"

Hai's father thought about it and thought about it seriously: "Well, Haitong brought her to his house for a few meals. He said her name was Aina, she was a classmate of theirs in a major, she was very outstanding, and she was a close disciple of Professor Steven. , has her name on several international-level research projects... She is also proficient in musical instruments, golf and equestrian. When Haitong mentioned her, she admired this classmate very much. I also asked her about her family situation and said that she had a younger brother. I'm still young. I don't know about the rest."

"You haven't investigated her background?" Ye Wangchuan asked calmly.

Hai's father was stunned for a moment, then hesitantly said: "I checked it out, I just searched it on the Internet based on what Haitong said. Her classmate has won many awards and is very famous in the school."

"In other words, except for her experience in school, you didn't find any other information online." Ye Wangchuan grasped the key point.

"Uh..." Hai's father was confused by the question and a little uneasy: "Master Ye, is there something wrong with this person?"

Haitong is still with Elena.

If this man has a problem, then his daughter...

Hai's father became anxious: "Master Ye, Haitong has known you since childhood, and she can be considered as your half sister. She is alone in F Continent now, you can't ignore her."

Ye Wangchuan thought for the sake of the old man who died in his family, so he didn't care how ridiculous his so-called half-sister was. He only said: "If she doesn't commit suicide, nothing will happen to her."

This means that Haitong wants to die on his own and he will not care.

Haifu's heart felt cold and he wanted to say something else.

Ye Wangchuan lowered his voice and warned him with a slightly cool voice: "For the sake of the old man in the family, let me remind you. Take care of the people in your family and avoid getting together with people of unknown origins. It will not be good for her!" "

Aina...

This name is the same as Qiao Nian said, very similar to the name of the island.

And he had seen that man before, and those brown eyes impressed him deeply.

The more pure the blood on the island, the higher the status of the people, the more pure brown eyes they tend to have. They use this as a filter to distinguish the blood.

That Aina happens to have a pair of brown eyes.

This made him have to think about the island.

Ye Wangchuan hung up the phone call to Haifu and pondered for a long time with his head lowered and his eyes lowered. Finally, he found a dusty number from the blacklist.

Hit him.

"Keep your people away from me. Also, don't touch the people around me, otherwise... you don't want to end up with everyone falling out."

The island.

The martial arts field is in full swing with gestures. One group is the newcomers, mainly Borui, and the other group is the old people who have been on the island for some years.

The two parties had a quarrel in the morning over the competition for the venue.

The more senior party was definitely not willing to give way to the newcomers, and during the push and shove, one newcomer's arm was injured, which aroused the anger of the newcomers.

In the end, the two sides turned into a hand-to-hand fight. Adam, as the representative of the newcomers, fought with the opponent, a big guy close to 1.9 meters tall.

Chapter 4697 Who is so arrogant?

The sound of applause in the martial arts arena.

Cheers.

It was very lively.

"good!!"

“Adam, come up!”

“Okay, okay, get up!”

The two parties vaguely have their own camps. One side occupies one side, with the old and the new as the central axis, forming two distinct forces.

Bory looked at the anxious situation on the field, and then looked at the group of old people opposite him who were constantly provoking. He narrowed his eyes and planned to go on his own.

I heard someone running over quickly.

He shouted at the lively fighting on the field: "Oops, something happened! Stop making trouble!"

Adam was being choked and was showing his weakness. He was about to lose. When he heard someone shouting, he secretly breathed a sigh of relief and punched the person away.

“Let’s hear what’s going on first.”

“Hmph, coward.”

The tall, strong man grunted and let go of his horse.

The martial arts arena also became quiet.

I heard the person running over in a hurry to regain his breath, hold his knees up, and whisper: "Something happened to Ying Shi and the others."

“What?!” A group of old people led by a strong man reacted hugely: “What’s wrong with the captain?”

Bo Rui also looked surprised, waiting for the man to continue.

The man swallowed his saliva: "I heard some news from Shi Lao and the others. It seems that only the captain and Jodema are left, and the others are all dead."

Everyone present seemed to be listening to a book from heaven, and no one believed it: "Is there something wrong with your ears? How is that possible? Broken? What do you mean, all dead?"

Shadow 10 brought all the elites in the team this time, talents in various professional fields, including blasters, snipers, and hackers.

Who has the ability to make others fall?

"It's true." The man looked serious: "Shi Lao and Mu Lao are holding an emergency meeting. I also heard a little bit from the corner."

"Where did it go?" The strong man was silent for a moment and asked with a gloomy face.

"F continent." "F continent?" The strong man said fiercely: "Who is so brave and dares to touch the people on the island? Don't want to live?"

They are used to running rampant on the island.

Even the Hidden Family, a force that is said to control the financial lifeline of half of the world, has to show courtesy to them, and it has not yet suffered.

Everyone on the island thinks they are half as good as the people outside.

Even if their status on the island is not high, they still feel that they are better than the people outside.

No one can accept that there are still people who dare to show their authority over them.

“It seems...it seems to be called Qiao Nian.”

As a newcomer, Borui was just listening from the sidelines, until he heard the familiar name again, he was stunned.

Qiao Nian?

It won't be the Qiao Nian he knows.

David's sister?

He once again thought of continent F...

Isn't David in continent F?

Bory suddenly had a splitting headache, and the psychological shadow left on Baishi Island hit his heart again.

Sure enough, someone asked: "Qiao Nian? What Qiao Nian? I haven't heard of it."

“Have you heard of Fzhou David? It seems to be David's person. I don't know who he is. David listened to her arrangement this time.”

That person said it very accurately.

Everyone fell silent, and the person who brought the news continued: "I heard that she asked someone to send the news back to the island and asked the ten elders what they planned to replace."

..."

Everyone who had been silent opened their mouths one by one, with stunned expressions, complex and disbelieving looks on their faces, and they were speechless for a long time.

Who does this Qiao think of?

So crazy? !

What do you mean by asking them to compensate for overturning their situation?

Chapter 4698 Contact David

"David allowed her to do this?" someone asked.

The man shook his head: "I was shouted out when I heard this, so I don't know David's attitude."

Bory got up and walked to the dormitory while no one was paying attention.

They live in a collective accommodation building behind the martial arts arena.

Because they are still newcomers, the place they live in is more simple than others, but it is still a two-person room.

He was in the same room as Adam.

Bory took out his cell phone from under the pillow when he got back and turned it on. He originally wanted to send a message to David directly, but after thinking about it, he chose to go online.

I sent an email to David on my computer to a fixed mailbox, asking him if what happened in Continent F was true, and if he really planned to go against the island.

When the news spread, Adam also came back.

Seeing him playing on the computer at the table, he was stunned and asked with suspicion: "What are you doing, coming back to watch a movie at noon?"

Bory had closed the special contact software David had given him as early as he entered the door. The desktop was clean and there was no clue.

He still turned off the computer in front of Adam, put the notebook back in the drawer and locked it, and said calmly: "It has nothing to do with you."

Adam hated to see him go away, and then reluctantly said, "Ten Lao asked you to go to the council hall."

Borui opened the cupboard door and was about to change clothes. Hearing this, he turned around and looked at him sharply with his eyes half-squinted.

Adam kicked the chair angrily: "Look what I'm doing. Do you think I want to inform you? The team leader asked me to tell you."

They were chosen together from Baishi Island.

In the end, Borui got favored by the superiors before him and became the squad leader. Now that something happened to Shadow Ten, Borui is likely to be promoted to another level.

How could Adam not be jealous?

He muttered: "I really don't know what Shi Lao sees in you!"

Hands away his head, not wanting to talk to Borui anymore.

Bory was sure that he didn't mean to play a prank, but that someone really asked him to come over, so he stopped wasting time and changed clothes, closed the cupboard door and went out. Adam waited for him to go away and sulked in the room for a while. After thinking about it, he got up and opened the drawer where Borui had just put his laptop.

Find out that the other party is locked.

He resisted the urge to pick the lock.

Bori is not someone to be trifled with.

He is also very thoughtful and careful.

Having worked with him for many years, Adam knew very well that if he forced open the drawer lock and rummaged through the other person's computer, he would see what the other person was doing.

It would be better if I dug something out.

If nothing is revealed, Borui will definitely grab him and maybe drive him off the island.

When Adam thought of this, he gave up the idea of opening the drawer and walked away angrily.

at the same time.

Bory has arrived at the Parliament Hall.

When he arrived, he discovered that besides him, several people had arrived early and were waiting outside, including several people who had clashed with them in the morning.

When everyone saw him coming, they all looked at him unfriendly.

With the attitude of not taking the initiative to cause trouble, Borui found a seat to the side and stood there, watching and waiting.

Others know very well that this is where the big guys from all over the island come to discuss matters, and anyone they meet may be a noble person on the island.

They were competitive in private, but they didn't dare to upset Borui on the stage. In addition, Borui was obviously more sensible than the newcomer Adam, so they just stared at Borui and let it go.

There is no external 'harmony' inside.

Chapter 4699 The situation on the island is also unclear

There were more than a dozen people sitting in the parliament hall.

They are all the talkative people on the island, including several hall masters and elders in charge.

Among them, the elders Mu and Shi Lao of the big house are sitting on the left and right at the top.

Compared to the ten elders who have accumulated power on the island for decades, the old man sitting at the top on the right looks kind-hearted, always smiling, and easy to get along with.

There were several people sitting behind him, and he was also the leader of a relatively weak church on the island.

One of the hall masters spoke unceremoniously to break the silence of the parliament hall.

“So, Shi Lao, you mean that Ying Shi and the others failed their mission and were caught by others. Is this what you mean?”

Shi Lao glanced at him and said calmly, "Yes."

The hall master was very bold: "In this case, there is no need to keep him on the island. After all, there are no useless people on the island."

Jie Jie, an elder behind the ten elders, laughed sarcastically: "Hehe, that's very well said. But if I, an old man like me, remember correctly, he seems to have gone to F Continent on the orders of Elder Mu. I just want to ask Elder Mu. Why do you want to get involved in Nie Qingru's family affairs and make things become what they are now?"

Shadow Ten is not an ordinary shadow guard.

His birth is much nobler than that of Bo Rui, Adam and others.

They belong to their own people on the island.

The grandson of the elder of the Ying family.

He is a descendant of the island with good roots, similar to Elena, except that the Ying family made their fortune as a bodyguard and is not as noble as the Elena family based on their lineage.

But not ordinary people either.

This time he opened his mouth to turn the fire on Mr. Mu and attracted someone, who was Ying Shi's grandmother and one of the eight elders on the island.

She has always stood in the camp of the ten elders and is a staunch supporter. However, her grandson has been fascinated by the little girl of the Elena family since he was a child. He admires her very much and regards her as a goddess.

Forget it, this time he went to F Continent behind her back to carry out the so-called mission of the Dafang lineage without telling her.

It is said that we are one family on the island.

But the eldest family and the second family are in two different camps.

Shadow 10: He would refuse to go if he had the chance.

But this boy listened to Elena and really believed that there was no evil on the island and that everyone should unite as one and live in peace.

If Elena herself is the same as what she said, she might as well be the middle person and be impartial.

It just so happens that I am very ambitious.

She repeatedly jumped and chose between the first and second bedrooms. Only her stubborn grandson couldn't see it. He was coaxed by someone on the phone and couldn't tell the difference!

Something happened now.

How could she not be angry?

"I heard that Elena is also in Continent F. Could it be that this operation was agreed upon by Elena and Mr. Mu? Why didn't you just tell everyone about it?"

She spoke with resentment and was very merciless.

The name of Dafang was called twice in a row. The old man with a smile on his face couldn't help pretending to be stupid and said in a leisurely manner.

"Elena has been studying abroad. Everyone knows this. She went to F continent this time to travel with her classmates. There is no special meaning."

Then he changed his voice and said immediately: "I know Elder Ying is not so satisfied with me, but there is really no conspiracy in this matter. At that time, the queen of the hidden family came to me and asked me to help save someone, and offered half of the money I had. The conditions for the shares of Smith Bank... I thought it was just a matter of saving people and it wasn't a big deal, so I definitely agreed."

Chapter 4700: Leave her alone

"We happened to need to reach a series of financial cooperation with Smith Bank. She came to us at this time and proposed an exchange of conditions. I agreed based on the interests of the island. I have no selfish motives. Who knows what will happen?"

"You didn't know something was going to happen? You didn't know why you didn't let Mo Di go?" Ying Shi's grandmother choked back with anger.

The smile on Elder Mu's face gradually faded: "Elder Ying, we are all from the island, and we are dedicated to doing things for the island. What you said is a bit too much."

"I'm not telling the truth? You've made it clear..."

At this time, the old man who had been silent suddenly said: "Okay."

The sound volume is neither high nor low.

Suppress the momentum of the two people arguing.

They both shut up at the same time.

Then everyone looked at him.

Only then did Shi Lao scan the crowd, and with an absolute sense of oppression, he slowly said: "Ying Shi and the others are working for the island. We definitely can't give up just because we want to. Otherwise, what will those people outside the island think of us? "

Then his sharp gaze swept over the old man on the right, raised his chin slightly, without looking at the other man, and said indifferently: "Do you think so? Mr. Mu?"

Mu Qingtian gritted his teeth and forced a smile: "Of course."

Shi Lao said lightly, "Yeah", and seemed to be very satisfied with his attitude, so he gave the order to the others: "No matter what conditions are offered by F Continent, we agree to bring the people back first."

"Isn't this too cowardly?" someone asked in a low voice.

Ten eagle eyes fell on him, and with just one glance, the hair on the man's back stood up, and he broke into a cold sweat: "Ten old man, I just..."

Shi Lao slowly gathered his body and said solemnly: "Do you have other ways to ensure the safety of Shadow Ten?"

As soon as these words came out, everyone fell silent.

Who can guarantee this?

That Qiao Nian from Fzhou was too brave.

It's too much to do. She dared to do things that Nie Qingru did not dare to do.

No one present dared to pat their chests and guarantee that Qiao Nian would not kill Ying Shi.

Seeing the parliament hall quiet down.

Shi Lao made the final decision without giving anyone else a chance to say anything further: "That's it. I'll let a team of people contact her first to see what she wants, and by the way, make sure that Shadow Ten is still alive."

He waved his hand to signal to the others.

"Let's disperse."

There were obviously people sitting on the left and right, but when he opened his mouth, he had the momentum of thousands of troops, suppressing all the rightists into speechlessness.

The crowd dispersed under his command.

Mu Qingtian could no longer maintain the smile on his face and was the first to leave.

As soon as he left, the group of people who followed him also left the parliament hall. In a blink of an eye, only Shadow Ten's grandmother and representatives of the Elena family were left.

Grandma Ying Shi stood up from the table and said meaningfully: "I hope some people can take care of their own family members. This is an island. People who don't know better think that going to study abroad means going out to become a female star."

Female celebrities are social butterflies.

She is saying that Elena is like a courtesan, trying to get her way among men, which is not a good thing.

The representative of Elena's family turned dark on the spot.

However, the other party left after saying this, without giving her a chance to refute.

She took a strong breath and tried to maintain her dignity. After everyone was gone, she asked Shi Lao: "Shi Lao, who do you call me?"

Theron still has the charm of his youth even when he is old. A bit of the handsomeness of his youth can still be seen on his face with ridges and grooves, and his sharp contours are three-dimensional and charming.
