

Madam's 4701

Chapter 4701 I appreciate smart people, but I don't like those who are too smart

He picked up the cup on the edge of the table and lowered his head to take a sip of black tea: "I heard that Elena went to see a musical with Moody when she was studying in Europe?"

"The Mudina child liked her very much."

As soon as these words came out, the expression of the representative of Elena's family changed greatly. He looked at him in fear. He did not dare to say a word and hesitated: "Young Master Mu and Elena grew up together. Like brothers and sisters, they should have met in Europe and we went to have a meal together."

"That's it." Shi Lao's eyes became cold and he said slowly: "Young people have their own way of making friends. We old people really shouldn't interfere with children's freedom."

Elena's family representative couldn't tell whether he was happy or angry, and didn't dare to talk to him.

Shi Lao added: "It is good for young people to be ambitious. I admire children who are smart and ambitious. But similarly, I also dislike children who are too smart, independent and ambitious. The former is just right, and the latter ...It's a bit like treating others as fools. Don't you think so?"

Even those who don't understand the words can't fail to understand the meaning of his words at this time, and immediately admit their mistake: "Elena and Master Mu are definitely just brother and sister!"

At present, their family is more attached to the branch of the Ten Elders. Compared with Mu Di, the grandson of the Ten Elders who is living outside is easier to control, and they will have greater say in the future.

Elena herself has the same thoughts and ideas as her family.

She and Moody got close, they just fished for each other first.

However, Shi Lao directly warned them that they must express their attitude: "She also wants to meet the young master when she goes to F continent this time."

This meaning is so obvious.

Since both parties have the intention of marrying each other.

In the future, the grandson of Shi's hometown who is living outside will be Elena's fiancé. One of her noble-blooded heirs of the Erin family specially went to see him, which is enough to show his sincerity and position.

The ten old man then softened the murderous look on his face and smiled slightly: "Look at you, I will leave you here to chat for a while. Why are you becoming more and more serious as you talk?"

He patted the other party's shoulder with his hand and said lightly: "We are just chatting casually, don't be too nervous..."

The back of the representative of the Irene family has long been soaked with sweat, and he still has a smile on his face: "Yes, yes, you are right."

She couldn't believe that the other party was just chatting casually with her, and that he would not leave her alone while chatting casually.

Ten Lao seemed to mention it casually: "I'm still discussing with his mother how to get him back, and it hasn't been decided yet. Elena can just play there, and don't run around."

The members of the Eileen family raised their heads and carefully observed the expression on his face when he spoke. They probably got some clues from his tone and heard that the ten elders meant to tell Eileen not to disturb that person...

Is that person still unwilling to come back?

She was a little confused about Shi Lao's thoughts, but she agreed quickly: "I will convey it to her."

The old man raised his hand again and motioned to her: "You should go and do some work too."

The representative of the Irene family stood up slowly, expressed concern for his health for a few more words, and left first.

In a blink of an eye, only the old man was left in the parliament hall. He sat in the first position on the upper left. He picked up the tea cup unhurriedly, lowered his head again and took a sip of tea. Then he went out to explain to Borui and his party that they should Go to F Continent Representative Island to negotiate terms with David.

Bory was also selected as one of them.

Let's set off to F continent together.

Chapter 4702 He knows everything about you going to the concert together

Fzhou Hotel.

Haitong went to answer a phone call and came in, his expression not very good.

Elena came out of the shower, wrapped in a bath towel, and was wiping the water droplets hanging from her hair with the towel, when she saw Hai Tong complaining to her with an anxious look on his face.

"What do you think happened to my dad? He called me before and insisted on going back, but now he calls and doesn't let me play with you. Are they crazy??"

Elena paused in the action of wiping her hair. She probably didn't expect Haitong to say it so directly. She looked at her speechlessly and continued to wipe her hair unhurriedly.

"Uncle is also worried about you."

Haitong sat down on the sofa and pointed at his nose, showing no appreciation: "Are you worried about me? I think it was Qiao Nian who went to my dad to file a complaint!"

The more she thought about it, the more it seemed possible!

"She must have seen us at the auction. She just pretended not to know us. She turned around and ran to tell my dad and said bad things about you."

"Why else would my dad suddenly call me and strictly forbid me from playing with you? He had obviously liked you before... Apart from Qiao Nian, I can't think of anyone else who could be doing this behind your back."

Elena wiped the moisture from her hair, threw the towel on the sofa, walked over and picked up the charging phone, and said in a casual tone: "Uncle won't let you play with me, what do you think?"

"Forehead?"

Haitong was stunned, and then said immediately: "What does my father know? He can see the vast world of Beijing in his eyes, so of course he is afraid of Qiao Nian. After all, that woman... climbed up to Grandpa Ye and the others, and she didn't know what to do to Ye. What kind of ecstasy soup did grandpa drink to make grandpa Ye like her. My dad just doesn't want to offend the Ye family..."

But there is heaven outside the sky, and there are people outside people.

Her father only saw the world in Beijing.

She is different!

After this time, she had already seen that there was a vast world outside the capital city, and it was right in front of her. Haitong couldn't wait to seize the opportunity and soar into the sky!

And the only way up the ladder for her is the classmate + friend in front of her, Aina.

How could she stop playing with Aina just because her family didn't let her get close to her?

"But Aina, when can we go back?" Haitong was still worried about not being able to buy a plane ticket.

Elena had restarted her phone at this moment, and several unread messages popped up on her phone.

She opened one of them.

【Moody: Nana, when will you come back? Are you still playing outside? Let me know when you get back, everyone is waiting to throw a reception party for you. 】

Elena replied to him casually, perfunctorily.

Then she saw an email sent to her from home.

Elena clicked it, lowered her eyebrows and lowered her eyes, her expression gradually changed from the initial casualness to a serious one...

I saw an email at home that clearly said - [Old Shi left me alone today. I am very dissatisfied with your behavior of hanging on to Moody, and you have warned me. 】

—[In addition, he also mentioned that he wants you to have fun there and don't mess with that person. It seems that they haven't negotiated with him about returning to the island yet.]

— 【Have you already contacted that person privately? If so, it's best to stop first and not disrupt Shi Lao's rhythm. 】

— 【You should be very aware of Shi Lao's character. This old man is not a vegetarian. He sees your little tricks, but he just didn't say anything about it before. 】

— 【He even knows that you are going to European concerts, which shows that he knows your whereabouts very well. 】

Chapter 4703 Her little thoughts are nowhere to be found

Elina felt a chill rising from the soles of her feet to the sky, making her stand there for several minutes.

Only then did he come back to his senses amidst Haitong's shouts one after another.

"Aina, what's wrong with you?"

"Aina?"

Elena suddenly came back to her senses: "What?"

Haitong asked again: "As for the flight tickets, should we call the front desk again and ask how long it will take for flights to be resumed?"

She pointed outside. There were bright lights and busy traffic outside the window. She looked up at the sky. The dark clouds that had blocked the whole day and night dispersed at some point, and a bright moon rose.

“Look, the moon is out. It won’t rain tomorrow. Can we buy tickets for tomorrow?”

Elena glanced at her: "Are you in such a hurry to go back?"

Haitong was embarrassed and worried that she would misunderstand, so she hurriedly explained: "I have to hand in my graduation thesis the day after tomorrow, but the USB flash drive with the original manuscript is at home. I'm afraid I won't be able to make it in time..."

They will graduate this year.

According to the previous plan, Haitong should directly join the Ninth Institute as an intern after graduation, working behind the back of top domestic masters such as Master Cheng, learning some practical skills first, and then slowly take on her own role and become a major member of the Ninth Institute. ...

This is a bright road. There are many people outside who are trying to become a master and lead the area, but they have not yet had the opportunity.

She was the only one who didn't cherish the opportunity when she got it, and threw it away as if it were a waste.

“Aina, can we go back before the day after tomorrow?” Haitong asked cautiously.

Elena thought about Cage's promise to help her get the tickets, and then thought about the warning she received, and said: "I'll ask."

She sent a message to Cage and asked if she could temporarily get two plane tickets for tomorrow.

It took ten minutes for Cage to come back and said succinctly: "Okay."

Elena put down her phone and said, "Okay, I'll go back to Beijing tomorrow."

Haitong jumped up and shouted happily: "That's great!"

"Aina, you are awesome!"

Elena was not in the mood to pay attention to her flattery, so she lowered her eyebrows and lowered her eyes to open the email in the background of her mobile phone, and looked at the few lines of text sent from home again.

The more I looked at it, the more chills ran down my spine.

She always thought that her behavior was very well concealed. At least the younger generation on the island, such as Ying Shi and others, did not think of her as deliberately hanging on Moody.

And Moody was firmly held in her hands.

But she didn't expect that every move she made would be under the gaze of Shi Lao, including her little calculations, and her little thoughts would be invisible.

This feeling of being crushed in all directions is not pleasant. At least Elena feels unprecedented pressure, which makes her dare not act rashly for the time being.

Originally, she was still thinking about finding an opportunity to create a chance encounter to get to know Ye Wangchuan first, so as to lay a good emotional foundation for their future marriage.

Now it seems that these plans have to be put on hold, and she will think of a solution when Shi Lao no longer pays attention to her.

Then it would be meaningless for her to stay in Continent F.

"You go back to your room and pack your luggage." Elena was always affected by the emails and was in a bad mood. She had no time to deal with Haitong anymore, so she issued an eviction order: "I also have to pack and prepare."

"OK."

Haitong sensed that she was in a bad mood, so he stood up, picked up his things, glanced at her secretly, and when he saw that Elena had no intention of sharing with her, he left the room angrily.

Chapter 4704 David said that Cage wanted to send two people away

Until there was a click of the door closing.

Elena untied the bath towel, took out the bathrobe from the closet and put it on her body. Then she walked to the computer, opened the laptop, and entered a name on the web page.

Ye Wangchuan.

She hit the Enter key.

A string of search results pops up on the web page.

Elena looked at it at a glance and soon discovered that there was almost zero information about this man on the Internet. The only one was a post on the Qingdao University forum.

There is a photo related to Ye Wangchuan.

Elena double-clicks the mouse to enlarge the photo.

What caught her eye was a photo of a couple secretly taken from a distance. In the photo, the girl was wearing a sweatshirt, with her hands in her pockets, as if she had just walked out of school.

The man got out of the car, holding a light green scarf in his hand, and looked at the person coming out with stern eyes.

The two of them looked at each other from a distance.

The picture is frozen at this moment.

However, because it was taken secretly with a mobile phone and the focus of the camera was widened, the picture quality is very blurry and can only be seen roughly.

Elena couldn't even see the man's facial features clearly. She could only vaguely tell that he looked good from the photo, which gradually overlapped with the back figure she saw at the auction tonight...

She looked at it for a few seconds and then exited the post. She saw the title of the post [I photographed my goddess boyfriend coming to pick her up from school].

A subtle thought emerged in her mind. Could it be that this post has been preserved until now because of this title?

As soon as this idea came up, Elena twitched her lips, feeling extremely ridiculous...but soon she stopped laughing.

Because she thought about it and found that it was most likely like this!

There is not a single photo or information about this man anywhere on the Internet.

However, this hot post on the Qingda Forum has a frontal photo of him. Even though the photo is very blurry, judging from the fact that the entire network has been cleared of information.

Ye Wangchuan could not have known that there was such a post and such a photo on the Tsingta University forum... but he did not delete it. I'm afraid it's not just the name of the post, but also because this photo shows him and Qiao Nian in the same frame, and the photo is very good.

Elena pursed her lips and her eyes flickered.

This is not a good sign.

What she cared most about was joining forces with the Shilao lineage, not Mo Di.

Moody was just the next best thing she did, leaving a way out for herself.

If the main road was still there, who would choose to take the narrow path?

She was originally confident that she could win over the opponent and make him fascinated by her, but now Elena suddenly lost her confidence.

First of all, Qiao Nian is more outstanding and attractive than she imagined.

And Ye Wangchuan... doesn't seem to be an easy man to handle, at least not like Mo Di, who can hook him with just a little finger.

Elena forked the webpage and started to think again about what she should do next.

The next day.

Qiao Nian swaggered into someone's room with an apple in his mouth, found a seat and sat down, and said to him carelessly: "David said that Cage wants to send two people out."

"Who?" Ye Wangchuan guessed the candidate.

Sure enough.

Qiao Nian took a bite of the apple and replied casually: "Haitong and her classmate, Aina."

Elena probably hasn't figured out one thing yet.

That is, even though Cage is also one of the three giants in Continent F.

But Cage's main area is at sea, and he is the dominant one at sea. As for the air, it still depends on the bunker and David's face.

Chapter 4705 Sister Nian: She hopes these people will stay away

This time it was Qiao Nian and Ye Wangchuan who jointly blocked the sea, land and air.

If Elena and Haitong take the pier, they can also take Cage's route directly to leave F Continent without passing through Qiao Nian...

But they chose airplanes.

Cage himself never thought there would be a conflict between Elena and Qiao Nian. He had helped David once before, but this time he directly asked David to let him go.

Ye Wangchuan saw her putting her legs on the coffee table, as if she was lying on the sofa without any bones, so he raised his eyes and asked her: "Do you want them to leave?"

Qiao Nian took a bite of the apple halfway and almost didn't bite it down. She looked at him for half a second before looking away. He took a bite of the apple in his hand and said, "Do you have clairvoyance or mind reading?"

He is like a walking scanner. No idea she has can escape Ye Wangchuan's eyes. He knows what he wants to do every time without her having to say it.

He saw through his thoughts, and Qiao Nian did not hide it. He threw the apple core into the trash can, retracted his legs, sat up slightly and said, "That Aina is 100% from the island, but I'm not sure yet. What role does she play on the island?"

"I don't know anything about the island, and I don't want to know about it for the time being. The only thing I can be sure of is that she was most likely the person who helped Zhai Xicheng escape at that time."

"Because at that time, a hacker invaded the transportation system and erased the license plate number of the car that Zhai Xicheng drove away. She had used this method before in Beijing. It is certain that she is a hacker with pretty good skills..."

There is nothing too coincidental in this world.

Aina appeared next to her again and again, and coincidentally, she had the same hacking skills as the person who later helped Zhai Xicheng.

Then the answer is obvious.

"Then you will let her go?" Ye Wangchuan raised his jawline slightly, his neck was superior, and he seemed to have guessed Qiao Nian's thoughts, but he still asked.

Qiao Nian glanced at him casually and admitted casually: "Because she won't go far, I think she seems to like you."

Ye. Causes fire and burns the body. Wanchuan.

Qiao Nian just said something casually, and it was not so boring to argue with him over a passerby who appeared out of nowhere.

"The reason why I let her go is very simple. First of all, she has never done anything to harm me or the people around me, except for letting Zhai Xicheng go."

"She is originally from the island. It is not difficult to understand that she will help Zhai Xicheng hide his traces later. It is just a cooperation mission reached by Nie Qingru on the island."

With clear eyesight, the girl continued: "Secondly, I want to see what she wants to do when she has been around me recently."

It's not impossible to just leave Aina behind, but it would be difficult to figure out what the other party's purpose is.

She wanted to know what Aina wanted to do.

Qiao Nian raised her third finger and half-squinted her eyes, with a cold look in her eyes: "The third point is also the most important point."

She looked into Ye Wangchuan's eyes and said calmly: "I want to finish Nie Qingru's matter first."

Since Aina has a purpose in her surroundings, there is a high probability that she will not leave until she achieves her purpose... But Nie Qingru is already dead.

Qiao Nian needs to deal with her funeral affairs.

In this process, she didn't want to be disturbed by 'little things'. She could wait until she had dealt with Nie Qingru and then slowly play with these people.

At least for now, she hopes these people will stay away.

Chapter 4706 Because it is specially designed for Mr. Wang

Ye Wangchuan looked at her for a long time and saw through the fragile side under her calm surface without exposing it: "I asked Mo Dong to release her."

"Yeah." Qiao Nian was not interested.

Ye Wangchuan did not let this matter continue to affect her mood. He stood up and went to get another apple. He brought a peeling knife with him. He sat opposite her, raised the apple in his hand, and said in a low voice: "Do you want to eat?"

Qiao Nian looked at his clean fingers holding the knife, the finger bones were slightly raised, and the hand was very beautiful. She couldn't help but lower her eyebrows and take a closer look.

Hand did not answer his question directly for a long time. Instead, he propped up his chin and asked an irrelevant question: "Do you want to wear a ring?"

Ye Wangchuan looked relaxed and tired, and raised his eyes slightly: "Huh? Ring? God Qiao wants to trap me?"

Qiao Nian ignored his ungrateful smile and gestured to him: "It's this size, black. Using a silver circle as the base, add a layer of black agate on the surface, or embellished with broken diamonds. The texture is probably darker."

Qiao Nian made a rough sketch for him with her hands, and she wanted to put it on his finger immediately to see the effect. It would be best to add the necklace from before...

With a whole series in mind, she got up and said to the man in the room: "I'll go back to the room to draw a picture, and I'll see you later."

Ye Wangchuan was used to her vigorous and resolute style, so he said to the girl who was about to walk out: "I will peel the apple and send it to you."

The girl turned her back to him, raised her hand and made an OK gesture, then went back to the room to find a notebook and pen from the drawer, sharpened the pencil, and drew the entire series she designed with Ye Wangchuan as the model in her mind.

She is very serious when doing things. When she does something, she concentrates on it and is rarely disturbed by other people.

So she didn't even notice that Ye Wangchuan came from behind to give her an apple.

Until sunset.

After Qiao Nian finished the last stroke, he picked up the mobile phone next to him and took a photo of the draft, then sent it to Yuan Yongqin.

She looked at the progress bar of the transfer and was still running forward slowly. Qiao Nian simply put down her phone to charge next to it, then got up and went inside to take a shower.

By the time she got out of the shower, Yuan Yongqin's phone call came.

Qiao Nian wiped the moisture from her hair, put the towel on her hair, and lowered one hand to answer the phone.

"Hello, Aunt Yuan."

"Those pictures you sent me, are they the new series you designed?"

"Um."

Qiao Niansong responded lazily, then walked aside to prepare the bottle of water to drink. With the tip of his eye, he saw a bowl of beautifully peeled apples on the table.

She simply walked to the lazy sofa with her bowl in hand and sat down, and said to Yuan Yongqin, who was still excited: "I will not sell this series."

"?" Yuan Yongqin was happily preparing to ask Somo to tell everyone to prepare for the meeting. When he heard this, he slowed down in getting up: "Not selling?"

Qiao Nian hasn't published a picture for a year.

Finally, she finally released a complete series, but she actually said she wouldn't sell it.

Yuan Yongqin couldn't describe his psychological activities at this moment. He felt like he was on a roller coaster, reaching the top all of a sudden, and then being pulled down to the bottom by Qiao Nian's words.

"Why not sell it?" Yuan Yongqin was not too disappointed, but was a little curious about the reason why she did not sell it.

Qiao Nian has known her for ten years and has long treated her as a relative. She leaned back on the lazy sofa and said, "Because it is specially designed for one person, I only want to give it to him."

Chapter 4707 I bought another house for Sister Nian

"Master Ye?" Yuan Yongqin revealed the identity of the person she mentioned.

Qiao Nian admitted openly: "Yeah."

Then he said: "Since last night when I saw him, several ideas suddenly emerged in my mind. This idea became more and more complete at noon today, so I drew it. Since it was specially created for one person Inspirations, I don't want them to appear on the second person!"

This is the designer's mysophobia.

At least Qiao Nian thinks this is a strange mysophobia. She just doesn't want this series to be sold as merchandise.

Money, she has a little.

Since she likes this design and wants to only design it for one person, Qiao Nian feels that she can pay for it.

"Aunt Yuan, can you help me find some craftsmen..." She explained the material requirements and some polishing techniques.

Remembering that there were several fine agate rough stones in David's warehouse, he said to Yuan Yongqin: "I will have the gemstones inlaid on rings and necklace pendants sent over later, so you don't have to worry."

When Yuan Yongqin heard what she said, he knew that the gems delivered would not be ordinary gems. He smiled and said, "Okay, you send the things over, and I will have someone make them for you. I will let you know when they are ready."

"But this series..." Yuan Yongqin also wanted her to produce a similar series, or ask the designer to change the details.

As soon as she spoke, Qiao Nian seemed to be aware of what she was going to say, and interrupted her casually: "I will only give him this series."

Yuan Yongqin suddenly touched his earlobe and said, "By the way, you're not in the capital?"

"Well, it's outside." Qiao Nian picked up the fork, took a small piece of apple into her mouth, and leaned back on the sofa lazily.

Yuan Yongqin knew that she had many things to do, so he didn't ask her where she was. He just said to Qiao Nian: "I bought a courtyard house in your name a few days ago."

?)

Qiao Nian's eating speed slowed down a bit.

"Why buy a courtyard house?"

"Pfft." Yuan Yongqin smiled and said: "You are too young. I know you have money, but money is not as reliable as real estate, and you don't like to buy it yourself. There is no other way. I can only buy some for you and put it there. ."

She then told Qiao Nian: "This courtyard house is in Nanluogu Lane. Don't you often go there to eat? If you don't want to go back to Mr. Ye's place someday, you can stay nearby."

Yuan Yongqin never married or had children in his life.

Qiao Nian reached out to her when she was at her lowest point, and injected capital into her to found the Chengfeng Group. Yuan Yongqin has always regarded Qiao Nian as his family, and has become his daughter.

A mother is not afraid of her daughter acting like a friend, but she is afraid that her daughter will have no support in the future and will be looked down upon by her husband.

Yuan Yongqin certainly knew that this big boss was not short of money and connections, but she couldn't help but want to buy more real estate for Qiao Nian.

She has given Qiao Nian a house as a gift during birthdays and New Year celebrations in recent years.

They are available in Beijing and overseas.

Over ten years, he has accumulated a lot of real estate for Qiao Nian.

She gave the entire house book to Qiao Nian last time. She has bought several new houses in the past year, but she has not yet found a chance to give it to her.

Qiao Nian probably knew Yuan Yongqin's mentality. He rubbed his eyebrows and paused for a few seconds before saying helplessly: "Aunt Yuan, you know I don't choose a place to live, so I don't have to spend money randomly."

Chapter 4708 Are you sleeping together?

"Anyway, I bought everything. If you have time, you can live there. If you don't have time, just stay there... If you really don't want to manage it, I'll let Somo take care of it for you."

Yuan Yongqin didn't give her a chance to refuse. When he saw that Qiao Nian wanted to refuse, he immediately made an excuse to hang up the phone: "I have a meeting to hold later, so I won't tell you now. You have to take care of yourself outside. It's time to eat. , and your sleep..."

Qiao Nian immediately said: "It's been much better recently."

Yuan Yongqin was a little surprised: "Really?"

Qiao Nian suffered from severe insomnia when she was going around the city. She often could only sleep for three hours a night, and then she couldn't fall asleep at all.

She often goes to the guard house to get medicine, and what she gets is a special sleeping medicine with minimal side effects specially developed for her by the Pharmacy Association.

Because it was Zhong Yiliu who personally developed the special medicine for Qiao Nian's inability to sleep, the formula is only available to Zhong Yiliu.

Every once in a while, the Pharmacy Association will send medicines from country M to China, and then deliver them to Qiao Nian through the Weilou channel.

Sometimes Wei Lou is too busy, so he will ask Yuan Yongqin to help him get medicine, so Yuan Yongqin is one of the few people who knows that Qiao Nian has severe insomnia.

She knew how serious Qiao Nian's insomnia symptoms were, so she was surprised when Qiao Nian said 'much better'.

Yuan Yongqin was extremely serious in this regard and immediately asked seriously: "Nian Nian, have you found a more effective medicine than the one developed by Mr. Zhong?"

Qiao Nian glanced at the bowl of apple chunks placed on her lap. Her mood seemed to have improved a little, and she raised the corners of her lips: "No, I didn't take any medicine."

"Um..." Yuan Yongqin asked uncertainly: "Physiotherapy?"

She has heard that acupuncture can treat insomnia just like massage, which is considered a physical therapy method in traditional Chinese medicine.

However, Qiao Nian doesn't like others touching her head, so she has never used this method before. Could it be that Qiao Nian has figured it out.

Qiao Nian stood up and put the small apple that Ye Wangchuan peeled for her beside the desk and computer, and said to Yuan Yongqin in a hoarse voice: "None of them."

"That's..." Yuan Yongqin is always particularly concerned about Qiao Nian's affairs. This is probably the legendary saying that caring leads to chaos.

Fortunately, Qiao Nian was very patient with her. If someone else had asked her this question, she might have found an excuse and hung up the phone long ago.

But Yuan Yongqin kept asking, Qiao Nian didn't get angry, and patiently explained to her: "I just didn't take any medicine. I don't know why I got better."

Yuan Yongqin is still saying: "When you return to Beijing, I will arrange for a brain specialist to take a CT scan for you?"

Qiao Nian didn't expect that she would mistakenly think that there was something wrong with her brain. She put her hands on the table and said with a dumb smile: "It's not without reason."

"what reason?"

She coughed lightly and said quite seriously: "I have observed myself and found that I sleep better every time I am with him, but I still have insomnia when I am alone."

"Oh." Yuan Yongqin seemed to understand, mainly because she hadn't reacted yet, but she quickly realized what Qiao Nian was talking about.

Shocked and disbelieving: "You guys sleep together?!"

Yuan Yongqin's heart was beating fast, and the volume of what she had just spoken unconsciously increased by half a degree. Sumo who opened the door and came in to deliver information to her even looked over in surprise.

She herself didn't care about her image. She walked quickly to the floor-to-ceiling window irritably and looked at her own shadow printed on the glass.

My heart is in a mess.

Ai Ai opened her mouth and said: "I, Nian Nian, I have never been married, and I have no experience in raising children."

Chapter 4709 Sister Nian: I thought about it, but he didn't agree.

"But you call me Aunt Yuan. As an elder, I still want to tell you that if you and Mr. Ye fall in love, I support you. But living together... you are still young, have you considered it? "

Qiao Nian has just turned 20.

Yuan Yongqin knew that she was extremely insensitive to feelings and that no ordinary girl could fall in love. This is the shortcoming of genius.

She is not afraid that Qiao Nian will suffer a loss and be deceived, but she is afraid that Qiao Nian will get pregnant out of wedlock at such a young age...

"Young Master Ye..." Yuan Yongqin frowned and carefully said, "Ye Wangchuan is also messing around."

Qiao Nian understood what she meant, pinched the bridge of her nose with her slender hands, and interrupted her guess: "Aunt Yuan, it's not what you think."

"But you didn't mean that you..." Yuan Yongqin didn't know what else it could be. A new way for young people to play?

Qiao Nian was dumbfounded: "I mean we sleep under the same roof."

"Not sleeping together?" Yuan Yongqin originally wanted to sleep on the same bed, but couldn't.

Qiao Nian put her chin on her hand and said seriously: "I thought about it...but he didn't agree."

Yuan Yongqin: "..."

Yuan Yongqin: "?"

She thought it was Nian Nian who suffered the loss, but she didn't expect Qiao Nian to be so direct and frank, which made Mr. Ye look helpless and pitiful...

After all, Qiao Nian was her half daughter, and she was reluctant to talk about Qiao Nian, so she was silent for a while and had to say: "Then you should respect Young Master Ye's ideas."

"Yeah." Qiao Nian responded and said to her: "I know."

Yuan Yongqin had more and more mixed feelings. He didn't know how to communicate this trouble to his rebellious daughter. He could only find an excuse: "Nian Nian, I have to go to a meeting. Hang up first."

"good."

Over there, Qiao Nian motioned for her to hang up.

Yuan Yongqin felt worried. After hanging up the phone, he raised his eyes and looked at Sumo who was sorting out the messy papers on her desk in her office.

Said to Somo with a very sad expression: "You said girls are too proactive, what should I do?"

Sumo straightened up holding the document and turned to look at her.

Yuan Yongqin didn't realize it at all, frowning, bathing in the morning sunshine, capable yet mature, not a great beauty but still charming.

She herself had never noticed her own charm, and she was extremely distressed when talking to Somo: "I should tell her, but I don't know how to speak."

Qiao Nian is too independent-minded, and Yuan Yongqin is just used to taking care of her in life, rarely influencing her thoughts.

"You mean Miss Qiao?" Sumo put away the documents in his arms one by one, then turned around and gave her the coffee on the table.

When Yuan Yongqin took it and took a sip, he stood beside him and said unhurriedly: "Miss Qiao and that person are not ordinary people. They are definitely different from us when it comes to falling in love. You don't have to worry too much about them. Even if Qiao The young lady doesn't understand, and Young Master Ye won't mess around."

Yuan Yongqin was lost in thought while holding the coffee cup. Thinking of what Qiao Nian said, his heart calmed down again.

"makes sense."

Nie Qingru is already dead, and it is not a problem that his body has been left in the hospital morgue.

So on the third day, Qiao Nian still followed the plan and asked Chunlei to bring Shadow, Mr. Xue and the Yinshi family, including Ying Shi.

They all went out to sea with her in the boat.

In order to prevent this gang of people from causing trouble on the ship, Qiao Nian was not polite to them. They were all shackled, handcuffs and foot shackles were available, and there were also dedicated guards.

Chapter 4710: Don't you have any idea?

Shadow and others were allowed to go sightseeing on the deck, but Qiao Nian did not allow them to enter the cabin. The sea was very rough and the wind blew on people's faces like a slap in the face. After a while, this group of upper-class people with delicate skin and tender flesh were blown away. Cheeks hurt.

The younger ones are okay, such as Ying Shi and the bodyguards from the Hidden World Family, they can still survive.

But for older people, such as Mr. Xue and Shadow, the wind on the deck made them less friendly. Mr. Xue barely managed to stand with a few bodyguards surrounding him to protect him from the wind.

Qiao Nian was quite polite to him. Considering his age and the fact that he had helped her in Continent M, at least he was not handcuffed or shackled.

A little bit of wind on the light deck made the old man who had always been pampered suffer enough.

After 6 hours of sailing at sea.

The girls just came out of the cabin.

The people on the deck had already been dizzy and shaky due to the wind, but everyone still looked in the direction of Qiao Nian for the first time.

Compared to their embarrassment.

Qiao Nian was so refreshed.

Wearing a simple black sweatshirt suit, with his hands in his pockets, he walked from the cabin to the deck, facing everyone's angry and hateful eyes.

She was arrogant and did not pay attention to their anger at all. She only said to Chunlei calmly: "Okay, let the brothers go in and have a sip of hot tea and ignore them."

Chunlei made a gesture to signal them to go in, and said to Qiao Nian worriedly: "Sun, what if they..."

Qiao Nian seemed to know what she was going to say. He raised his chin slightly, and his black eyes casually scanned the black waves split by the ship, as if talking to spring thunder, more like telling everyone on the deck.

"Jump as you like. This area is called Tiger Shark Reef. As the name suggests, in addition to tiger sharks, there are countless reefs on the seabed. If you jump down, you will die."

As if to prove that she was not threatening, several sharks jumped out of the water not far away and then fell to the bottom of the sea, as if they were following their ship all the way.

Everyone on the deck was silent.

In this way, even those who are thoughtful will no longer have the idea of jumping off the ship to survive.

Not to mention that they were still shackled on their hands and feet. Even if they went down with bare hands, if Qiao Nian told the truth, they would have no possibility of escaping.

"Qiao Nian, what do you want to do?" Ying Shi was depressed for a few days and finally spoke.

However, Qiao Nian only glanced at him lightly and ignored him at all, as if whether he could speak or not had nothing to do with her.

This kind of disregard often makes people feel the pain of having their dignity trampled even more than humiliation.

Ying Shi realized that she really seemed not to have heard anything. His handsome face gradually became distorted and he became a little excited: "You..."

In exchange for Chun Lei kicking him, he pushed back very rudely: "Who are you talking to? It's mine!"

"Captain!" Jodma rushed over desperately to help Shadow Ten.

Look at the corner of Yingshi's mouth with bloodshot eyes, he raised his head angrily, and growled with red eyes: "You will pay the price for your actions!"

Chunlei despised the past from top to bottom: "My aunt will be responsible for everything she has done, unlike you, all the old men who look like individuals and dare not do what they do. Why are you here? I have no idea in my heart." Points? Who are you clamoring with? Even if you can clamor, are you worthy?"

Everyone on the deck was speechless by her simple and rude questions.

They came to F continent from their own territory. They originally wanted to cause trouble for others, but they lost out and were caught by others.

It is really shameful and humiliating to shout now.
