

Madam's 4721

Chapter 4721: Not staying in a hotel, but living in a courtyard

Elena came back in a hurry this time. Apart from Haitong saying that she wanted to come back and write her graduation thesis, there was another important reason.

–She received news that Xie Tingyun came to Beijing.

One of her main purposes for coming out this time was to show Xie Tingyun the project she had been researching for three years and ask the weapons master to give her some advice.

Of course, the more important thing is that she wants to use this opportunity to win Xie Tingyun's favor and become his close disciple.

The island has always been aloof, and there are not many people who can take notice of it.

Xie Tingyun is one of the few people.

Even the ten elders expressed regret in public that the other party retired before the age of forty. It was a pity.

If she could successfully convince this long-retired master to be her teacher and re-enter the circle, Elena could imagine how many compliments there would be on the island.

She was determined to win this, and she was fully prepared to have a private chat with Xie Tingyun when they met, so that the other party could see her talent in this area.

She also used the same method to become Master Steven's close disciple.

talented people are always particularly favored in this circle.

"Where does she live?" Elena immediately wanted to ask the other party out to meet.

But the man in black said: "Ms.

Elena was stunned for a moment, then looked back at him: "You said she lives in a courtyard house? Not in a hotel?"

This is strange.

The man in black did his duty: "Miss, it's true. It was precisely because Ms. Xie didn't stay in the hotel that we spent a few days to confirm that she had come to Beijing."

Elena thought about it and stopped worrying: "...Maybe it's a property owned by the Nan family in Beijing."

Nan Tianyi is good at investing.

Assets are located around the world. Nan Tianyi invested in a real estate in Beijing, which is the best explanation.

The man in black moved his mouth and was about to say, "This is not an ordinary area. That courtyard is not for sale to the public."

But Elena didn't see his troubled expression behind her. She stepped into the car without looking back and ordered: "Contact the other party and make an appointment to go out for dinner."

"Okay." The man in black gave up explaining to her the courtyard where Xie Tingyun was staying, nodded, carefully watched her get into the car from behind, and helped close the door.

Then he quickly walked around to the front passenger seat, opened the door, quickly got into the car, fastened his seat belt, and told the driver the name of the hotel.

After the car drove away smoothly.

The man in black turned sideways and whispered to the people in the back row: "Miss, Master Mu is coming to see you."

Elena frowned slightly: "What is he here for?"

The man in black didn't dare to talk to me.

She relaxed her frown again, thinking that Ye Wangchuan had not returned to the capital, so she said, "Tell him that I am busy recently and may not be able to spare time to accompany him."

"Yes, Miss." The man in black couldn't figure out her thoughts, and he didn't dare to make random guesses, so he responded hurriedly.

Only Elena feels like a big stone is weighing on her heart. Whenever she thinks of the warning given to her by the ten elders, and also thinks that Moody may want to open up an ambiguous relationship with her.

She is just as big as her head and two.

Moody is pretty good.

Character, family background, appearance, all aspects are good.

It's a pity that the Mu family is always one level lower than the Theron family. When the ten elders are still a day old, it is difficult for the Mu family to form a climate.

Chapter 4722 I'm here to celebrate Sister Nian's birthday

Elena is a smart person.

She knows what she wants.

"Well, you have already moved in?" Qiao Nian walked to the floor-to-ceiling window, and the girl's slender figure was printed on the glass.

Her hair had not had time to dry when she received a call from Xie Tingyun. It was hanging wetly on her shoulders, messy yet casual and cool.

Qiao Nian listened to Xie Tingyun's voice on the other end of the phone, walked to the bar, found a high stool and sat down, propped up half of her face with her elbows on the table, and lowered her long eyelashes.

The light shrouded the girl's body, drawing a long arc.

"If you need anything, you can find...a friend of mine."

Qiao Nian said, "Wait a minute," then took away the phone, found the guardhouse's phone number and sent it to her. Then she put the phone to her ear and said, "He is familiar with the city. You can ask him to take you around." Take a walk."

Xie Tingyun stayed in a courtyard house that Yuan Yongqin bought for her this time.

Qiao Nian has many properties in Beijing.

They are all houses that Yuan Yongqin has bought for her from time to time in the past ten years.

Generally, Qiao Nian doesn't live in the property himself and leaves it to professional agents to take care of the properties.

However, properties like the courtyard houses in Nanluogu Lane are not allowed to be rented out or used for other commercial purposes.

Qiao Nian just needs someone to take care of it regularly so that it doesn't become overgrown with weeds.

She herself has never lived there once.

This time Xie Tingyun suddenly came to Beijing to look for her.

Qiao Nian thought about it and asked someone to clean up the courtyard.

This place is located on the second ring road, so it is convenient to go everywhere, yet it is quiet and quaint in the bustle, which is in line with Xie Tingyun's usual requirements for a place to live.

"I gave you his phone number. I'll talk to him later." Qiao Nian works quickly and resolutely, rarely procrastinating and wasting time. Xie Tingyun on the other end asked her how soon she would be back.

Qiao Nian looked at the time and said, "Just these two days, I'll take care of the things here and then go back."

Xie Tingyun was very happy and chatted with Qiao Nian for a few more words about home affairs. Seeing that it was getting late, she reluctantly hung up the phone.

At this moment, there was a knock on the door.

“叩叩。”

Very polite.

Qiao Nian picked up the bathrobe on her body and said with a sharp jawline: "Come in."

I saw Ye Wangchuan walking in with a glass of milk. He saw the girl come back with her mobile phone in her hand. She put the milk on the table and raised her eyebrows and said, "Are you on the phone?"

Qiao Nian pulled up the chair and sat down, resignedly picked up the glass of milk and took a sip with her head down, looking a little lazy and casual: "Ah, Aunt Xie's call. She's coming to Beijing."

"Huh?" Ye Wangchuan thought about it and said, "Should we let Qin Si arrange it..."

Qiao Nian said: "No, I have already let them live in the courtyard house that Aunt Yuan bought for me."

Ye Wangchuan knew that Yuan Yongqin had bought a lot of real estate for her, so he was not surprised. He walked over with his long legs, took out a candy from his pocket, put it in the palm of his hand and handed it over.

"Eat a piece of candy."

Qiao Nian looked at the extra orange candy in front of her and felt much better. She slowly reached out to pick it up, peeled off the candy wrapper and threw it into her mouth to chew. The sweet and sour taste of the orange candy diluted the sweetness of the milk, and she was finally satisfied. I felt a little more comfortable.

She then said: "They came to celebrate my birthday."

Ye Wangchuan's eyes darkened slightly and he did not answer the topic. Instead, he mentioned: "I asked Qin Si to go over and visit to see if Aunt Xie and the others need help. Even if not, you can also ask Qin Si to accompany them around. Let's go shopping and have a look around Beijing."

Chapter 4723 Let them waste food

"I found Wei Lou." Qiao Nian was very open about this. She met his gaze with clear eyes and said bluntly: "Uncle Nan had contacted Wei Lou before to buy medicine. The two of them were familiar with each other and they got along well. Be more harmonious."

Xie Tingyun is introverted and likes to be quiet. She doesn't like to get along with strangers, let alone complicated interpersonal interactions...

Chin Si is just the opposite.

He is a very lively person.

Compared to Qin Si, Wei Lou is indeed more suitable to be a tour guide for Xie Tingyun and Nan Tianyi.

Ye Wangchuan pinched the girl's finger gently, just once, then let go, and walked inside to find the hair dryer.

He turned back and said to the girl who was not afraid of his jealousy at all: "Come here, I will blow dry your hair."

Qiao Nian had been in love with him for more than a year, so she knew something about it. She pondered for a moment, walked over and sat down on the sofa, and said, "Wei Lou and I are just friends."

Ye Wangchuan ran his fingers through her black hair and used his hand as a tooth comb to comb through her short, shoulder-length hair that was not smooth. He had bright eyes and deep lips, and raised his thin lips: "I know."

Qiao Nian subconsciously twisted her neck to see his expression. A cold hand grabbed the back of her neck and said to her in a low voice: "Don't move around. I'll help you dry your hair first to avoid catching a cold."

His fingertips were cool, and they only lightly touched the skin on the back of his neck, but that skin seemed to be heated up by being scalded.

Qiao Nian pursed her lips and sat without moving, enjoying his hair-drying service with peace of mind.

Ye Wangchuan blew slowly and carefully, setting the wind speed to the minimum, and gently dried each strand of her hair. Before finally turning off the hair dryer, he did not forget to move the hair dryer away to avoid burning the girl in front of him. .

He caught a glimpse of Qiao Nian sitting cross-legged on the sofa drowsily, her head nodding little by little, then she put away the hair dryer and said calmly: "You never have to explain to me, I believe you."

Qiao Nian's half-squinted sleepy eyes sobered up a little, and he took a moment to realize which sentence he was answering.

Suddenly, he came back to his senses and blinked his eyes: "What if one day I cheat money and sex..."

Ye Wangchuan didn't wait for her to finish: "No need to lie, I'll give you whatever you want."

Qiao Nian's heart was very full. The depression and emptiness of the past few days had found a new support point, and she was no longer confused and wandering in the darkness.

She was pulled back to the ground from the endless abyss.

Nie Qingru's death and Shadow's words about Ji Qing can no longer affect her mood.

Qiao Nian chewed the orange candy in his mouth, stood up, turned around and said to Ye Wangchuan: "I will handle the follow-up matters here as soon as possible in the next two days, and then return to the capital."

Ye Wangchuan saw that her mood seemed to be getting better. He placed the hair dryer on the sofa next to him and straightened up: "Don't you plan to keep them anymore?"

The girl's eyebrows were very evil: "What are you keeping them for? Hey, they have no other use except to waste food. Why don't you make the best use of them and exchange them for money? I really want to see their expressions after all the water in their bamboo baskets is empty." How wonderful."

The reason why Nie Qingru can get the people on the island to stand up for her is because she has given them enough benefits.

Now she takes all these benefits away.

The reaction from those people must have been wonderful.

She just wanted to see how those people's calculations failed.

"We'll go back to the capital first after we deal with them." Qiao Nian was not under any psychological pressure and was not afraid of offending the two major forces on the island and the Yinshi Family.

She has many debts but no burden on her. It makes little difference to her to have one more enemy or one less enemy.

Chapter 4724 Sister Nian: Help me find a good lawyer to read the contract

Anyway, from what we can see before, none of these people are planning to let her go. Even if she doesn't take the initiative to provoke the people on the island, the people on the island will still come to provoke her.

Since this is the case, then everyone no longer needs to maintain superficiality, it is best to just break the relationship. It's as if the people on the island always think she doesn't know they exist.

Qiao Nian half-squinted his eyes: "Now let's wait for them to send money first, and whose people will leave first..."

It turns out that the hands and feet on the island are a little faster.

Chunlei sent the share transfer and gift contract from the island the next day, and said to Qiao Nian: "Sun, they have also prepared a lawyer to complete the transfer with you remotely."

"Let me see."

Qiao Nian stretched out his hand.

Chunlei handed over the cowhide bag with both hands.

She pulled out the document and scanned it, not seeing any unscrupulous traps hidden in the contract.

However, Qiao Nian was cautious and took a dozen photos of the contract and sent it to someone, along with a message.

[Q: Do you know a lawyer? Help me find a better lawyer to see if there are any problems with the contract.]

After sending the WeChat message, she put her phone back.

He turned back to Chunlei and said, "Let's get the people on the island out of the dungeon."

...

In the dungeon.

The reclusive family and the people on the island were imprisoned together. After returning from the sea one by one, it was as if their energy had been drained, and they were embarrassed and decadent.

The dungeon is damp and cold.

These people have tender skin and tender flesh, and have actually not suffered much.

I can't stand it anymore.

So when the top of the dark dungeon opens, a ray of light shines in from the outside.

Everyone can't wait to raise their heads. Then they saw the girl they hadn't seen for three days appear in front of them again.

Their moods, which had finally gotten high, quickly fell to the bottom the moment they saw Qiao Nian... one by one, they lowered their sense of existence.

Only Ying Shi and others are a little better, and they don't change their color when they see Qiao Nian.

"What's she doing here again?" Yodema squatted next to Ying Shi. When he saw Qiao Nian, the expression on his face was very complicated. He was angry but did not dare to show it.

It can be seen that the last time he went to sea and witnessed Qiao Nian throwing Nie Qingru's body into the high seas to feed the sharks, how much of a deterrent he was to him.

At least he now knows that Qiao Nian is not ignorant. It is possible that people really don't take the island seriously.

Ying Shi also saw the girl coming down the stairs with dark eyes and said, "I don't know."

Yodema gritted his teeth and looked at the people who were gradually approaching. He was extremely vigilant and stood in front of his captain without leaving any trace.

Qiao Nian came down soon.

He winked at Chunlei.

Chunlei called the two guards over without her having to say anything, and said to them: "Come here."

They walked over and said, "Sister Chunlei."

Chunlei pointed at the two people inside: "Hey, bring them out."

Yodema felt that she was pointing in his direction, and gritted his teeth angrily: "What do you want to do? Just come to me, don't embarrass the captain."

Chunlei was too lazy to pay attention to him, or in other words, no one, including the guards, paid attention to him.

Two people entered and pulled them out of the dungeon.

Yodema and Yingshi had not had any rest or food for several days, and were in an extremely weak state. They also wore special handcuffs and shackles on their hands. They were pushed out in public without any ability to resist.

While being pushed out, he almost stumbled and fell to the ground, in such a state of embarrassment.

Chapter 4725 Mr. Wang replied

But Yingshi remained silent, holding his head high and staring firmly at the girl's face, like a wolf who refused to admit defeat.

Of course Qiao Nian could feel the hatred in his eyes, so she simply said lightly: "Do you hate me?"

Ying Shi's cheek muscles tensed up and he gritted his teeth without making a sound.

Qiao Nian Ting looked at him with a cannibalistic look and continued speaking indifferently: "I just like the way you hate me and still can't kill me."

"You can continue watching." Qiao Nian said slowly: "But I want to remind you, you have to look around yourself clearly. You are still on someone else's territory. If I were you, I would at least restrain my temper. Incompetent and furious, It's the stupidest thing to do!"

When Yodema heard this, he immediately stood in front of Ying Ten regardless of the obstruction. He looked at her warily again. After holding it in for a long time, he blushed and apologized: "I...captain him, he doesn't mean any harm."

Ying Shi raised his neck, and his voice was as rough as sand after not drinking water for several days: "You can kill me."

Yodema turned around in shock: "Captain!"

Ying Shi looked away and refused to look at him.

"Hi." Qiao Nian sneered at this time, her dark eyes and eyelids drooped, looking down at him: "Do you think you are quite tough?"

Shadow Ten didn't speak, and the twitching of his neck revealed his true inner thoughts.

"Tsk." Qiao Nian clicked her tongue again, looked away, and said rather boringly: "Dirty hands."

Then she said to Chunlei: "Take them out."

"Yes." Chunlei waved his hand, and without giving any orders, the people under his hands were very discerning and pushed the two of them out of the dungeon one after the other.

Everyone in the dungeon felt sad when they saw this scene. The atmosphere was so low that it was almost depressing. No one dared to speak.

Even he didn't dare to ask Qiao Nian where he wanted to take Ying Shi and the others to and what they were doing.

Afraid that the knife hanging above his head would fall on him.

Outside.

Yodema and Shadow Ten walked in front and were pushed out first.

They stayed in the dungeon for two days, finally seeing the light outside and breathing fresh air.

Normally, you should be in a good mood.
mood to appreciate their surroundings.

But neither Jodma nor Shadow Ten was in the

They held their breath, just wanting to know what Qiao Nian was going to do.

However, the girl seemed to be against them and walked behind. It took a long time before she came out.

While walking, I was still looking at my phone.

Shadow Ten looked at the girls' careless attitude towards them, and then thought about the gang of brothers who came out with him but could never go back.

Just about to speak.

He was pulled by Jodma next to him, and he shook his head at him as if praying: "Captain..."

Ying Shi's thin face froze, thinking that if he angered Qiao Nian, he might implicate the only surviving Yodma...

He silently endured his anger.

Qiao Nian didn't care about their little actions at all, or in other words, he didn't even look at them.

She lowered her eyes and opened the newly received WeChat message and clicked on it.

She saw Ye Wangchuan replying to her.

【Y: There is no problem with the contract. 】

She raised her eyes, with a flash of surprise, as if she didn't expect that the island would be so cooperative and didn't use any tricks.

She put away her phone, glanced at Ying Shi and Yodema, and finally her sharp eyes fell on Ying Shi.

Yodema's heart skipped a beat, and he had an ominous premonition.

What does she want to do?

However.

What awaited them was not a sentence, but a very casual sentence: "You can go."

Chapter 4726: If Qiao Nian was born on the island

"What, what?" Jodma suspected that he heard wrongly.

Qiao Nian was not interested in telling him a second time.

Chunlei's men had already begun to untie their handcuffs and shackles, and with quick hands and feet, they took back the shackles in three strokes.

Yodema and Shadow Ten felt a lot lighter, and then looked down and saw that they were free.

The two of them seemed to be stepping on the clouds, which felt unreal.

"Are you going to let us go?" Ying Shi suspected that she was playing some new trick.

Qiao Nian only brought her mobile phone with her, and nodded casually. Her legs were straight and long, and she looked at them casually: "What, you don't want to leave?"

Ying Shi moved his lips and wanted to say something else.

He didn't believe that Qiao Nian would let them go.

Isn't she afraid of their subsequent retaliation?

However, Yodema didn't give him a chance to speak. He grabbed him, squeezed hard with one hand, and said first, "Thank you, Sun."

Ying Shi turned his head and frowned slightly. Before he had time to ask what he was doing, he was pulled away by Jodma vigorously.

The two passed through David's base camp and met many brothers returning with weapons along the way. Yodema's nerves were tense and his temples were bulging.

But he soon discovered that those people didn't seem to see them, and they didn't stop them, nor was it a joke.

Qiao Nian really wants to let them go...

From the dungeon exit to the outside of the base camp, it only takes about ten minutes.

Yodema's back was soaked with sweat and his clothes were soaked. When he walked outside, he let go of Ying Shi's hand, his legs went weak, he exhaled a thick breath, and said in an indescribable tone: "I, we are out."

He looked back at the base camp with the flag flying, still in disbelief.

"Why do you think Sun would let us go? I thought..." He thought he was going to die in Continent F this time. Shadow Ten was also surprised that they walked out of the base camp so easily, but compared to Jodma, he was a little calmer.

"She should have been found on the island."

Yodema was stunned: "Is she afraid?"

Ying Shi was not sure, but said expressionlessly: "If she lets us go, doesn't that mean everything."

Yodem bit his lip, always feeling that something was wrong, but he couldn't pinpoint what was wrong. After a long time, he hesitated and said: "I always feel that she looks like Miss Elena... It gives people a sense of oppression. It's obviously true. She doesn't care about anything, but as long as her eyes lock on you, it's... just... breathtaking."

The feeling of oppression given to him by Qiao Nian was even more exaggerated than that of Miss Elena.

Miss Elena rarely got angry a few times, and he just felt that the atmosphere cooled down quickly, and he was a little stiff and couldn't speak.

But Qiao Nian is different.

When her light glance fell on them just now, Jodma trembled from the depths of his soul, and the huge pressure made him breathless.

God knows that such a person is two or three years younger than Miss Elena.

He couldn't imagine that if Qiao Nian was born on the island, who would be the most powerful person on the island between her and Miss Elena?

Shadow Ten's complexion suddenly sank when he heard this, he glanced sideways, and scolded extremely severely: "Don't compare her with Miss Elena. Are you insulting Elena?"

"...Captain, I didn't mean that." Jodma said weakly: "I just think they have the same aura."

Ying Shi gave him a hard look and said.

Yodema couldn't say any more.

"Yes, she is not as good as Miss Elena. Miss Elena is the heir to the Irene family and is of noble birth, so how can she be compared with her."

Chapter 4727 David's sister holds a hand full of hatred

Only then did Ying Ten retract his gaze, his scowl softened slightly, he raised his eyes and looked forward, no longer obsessed with this topic: "If someone from the island has been looking for her, someone should pick us up. Let's go further and see. Is there a car to pick us up?"

"kindness."

Joder shifted his attention on horseback and put the topic behind him. He steeled himself and went with Ying 11 to find the person who picked them up.

The facts were as they expected.

At the boundary 5 kilometers away from the base camp.

They finally saw three black jeeps.

The people in the jeep saw them walking out and hurriedly opened the door and jumped out of the car to greet them.

“Shadow Team.”

The visitors were none other than Borui and his party.

However, as a newcomer, Borui was not qualified to get out of the car to greet Shadow Ten, but was left in the car to wait for people to come back.

This is continent F, not counting the territory on the island.

The group quickly picked up Shadow Ten and Jodema and returned to the car.

The black and strong man opened the car door and turned sideways to let Ying Shi get in first: "...get in the car first."

Shadow Ten and Yoder got into the car immediately.

Bory is responsible for driving.

After all three people got up, he stepped on the accelerator, turned the steering wheel, restarted the car, and drove toward the tarmac outside the Gobi Desert.

After resting for a while on the way, Ying Shi, who had adjusted himself, asked the dark man who came to pick him up from the back row: "Why did we talk to her on the island? How could she let us go so easily..."

The black and strong man was a little embarrassed: "This..."

Ying Shi stared at him urgently, as if he insisted on what he said.

Due to Ying Shi's special status, the dark and powerful man could not refuse, so he bit the bullet and said slowly: "I just heard... I heard that Mr. Mu gave shares to F State, and Miss Elena also helped to transfer them to overseas accounts. A sum of money."

"..." Ying Shi seemed to have his neck stuck and was slapped. His face turned blue and white for a long time and he could not speak.

He was saying a second ago that Qiao Nian must have been afraid of the island, so he let them leave. The fact is that the island spends money and energy...lower its profile and beg Qiao Nian to let them go.

Even hurt Elena...

The * man looked at him with sympathy, put his hand on his shoulder and comforted him: "Shadow Team, don't think too much."

Ying Shi looked extremely embarrassed and pinched his palms. He wished he could turn around and go back and let Qiao Nian lock him in again, which would be better than the shame and discomfort in his heart at the moment.

Yodema could probably understand his mood. He pursed his lips and said, "Captain, let's wait until we get back to the island."

Ying Shi rolled his throat several times and finally squeezed out a broken syllable: "Yeah."

No matter how uncomfortable he feels now and how much he hates himself for causing other people to suffer, he has to admit that the island spent a huge price to redeem him.

He is not qualified to be willful, and everything must be discussed later.

Just when Ying Eleven remembered what the * man said about Elena remitting money for him to Qiao Nian's overseas account, he felt moved and depressed at the same time.

Two complicated emotions burned in his chest, and finally turned into obsessions.

—Qiao Nian.

Ying Shi grabbed the armrest beside him and gritted his teeth: "Sooner or later I will make her regret doing this!"

Bory, who was driving in front:...

David's sister...she always gets a hand full of hatred.

Last time I was robbing things on Baishi Island, but this time I got into trouble with Shadow Ten on the island...

The corner of his mouth twitched, and he was just glad that he caught the person without going wrong, otherwise he wouldn't know where he should stand if the two sides were fighting.

Bo Rui had no say in this, so he drove silently, stepped on the accelerator to the bottom, and rushed to the tarmac as soon as possible to send Ying Shi and others away first.

To avoid further mishaps.

Chapter 4728 Come here an hour early to wait

at the same time.

Qiao Nian received another ransom and share transfer contract from the Yinshi family.

The Nie family is not as happy as on the island.

Qiao Nian got the share transfer contract and sent it to Ye Wangchuan, asking Ye Wangchuan to help find a lawyer to read it. After the lawyer saw it, he called and said that there were a lot of pitfalls in it.

Qiao Nian didn't waste any time and directly contacted the people from the Hidden World Family. By the way, he took a 6-second video of Nie Tao's leg being broken and sent it to them.

Tell them succinctly and concisely that they have three chances left.

When Nie Tao's legs and feet are completely broken, they don't need to transfer the shares and come directly to F Continent to claim the body...

As soon as these words came out, the Nie family yelled and cursed for a long time, but the whole family went crazy and drafted a new share transfer document and sent it to Qiao Nian.

They didn't try to be clever this time. Qiao Nian asked the lawyer to read the contract, revised a few regulations, and reissued it to them.

The share transfer agreement sent by the Nie family was changed a few times by Beijing City's lawyers, and it turned into a gratuitous gift contract just like the one on the island.

Mr. Nie was so angry that he suffered a heart attack and was sent to the hospital. He received emergency treatment for half an hour, and finally signed the contract in the ward while supporting his body.

The members of the Hidden Family did not dare to delay and urgently sent the signed contract to F Continent.

It was already the third day after the paper contract arrived in Qiao Nian's hands.

She signed her name on the last page of the contract, left the remaining notarization work to Ye Wangchuan to handle for her, and was ready to return to the capital.

As for Mr. Xue and others, she was not ambiguous either.

When the Hidden Family sent the contract to her and received the ransom, she asked David to release them and kindly sent them to the dock.

However, everyone including Mr. Xue seemed to have a psychological shadow on sea navigation, and they did not take a more convenient waterway afterwards.

Instead, they chose to contact M State and sent another plane to pick them up.

After this farce breaks out, even if Nie Qingru is buried in F Continent, Mr. Xue will have to pay a huge price. When he returns, he needs to report to the Privy Council immediately and give an explanation to everyone in the Privy Council who has been waiting for a long time. The losses caused to the Hidden Family due to this operation must now be counted on him alone...

It can be said that Mr. Xue relied on finding out Qiao Nian's bottom line this time, and he also trusted Nie Qingru too much to tell him about his elder identity... and finally fell into a trap.

He realized something was wrong later, and it was already too late.

The result this time is most likely that he will be stripped of his status as a conservative elder, and together with the Xue family behind him, he will be implicated by the Nie family and become a ninth-rate family.

However, all this gave Mr. Xue no chance to regret.

Beijing City.

Same weather.

Compared with the turbulent changes in F continent, it is much calmer.

Since Haitong returned home, she has been strictly monitored by her family and is not allowed to go out again.

She was locked up at home for three days. She cried, went on a hunger strike, and protested. No matter what she did, Hai's father was determined not to let her go to her so-called classmates again.

In the end, Haitong had no choice but to contact Elena via mobile phone and tell her about her situation, while apologizing and saying that he would go to her as soon as he could go out.

When Elena received the text message, she didn't care whether she could come out or not. She just replied to her a few words and stopped replying to the message.

She made an appointment with Xie Tingyun in the afternoon.

In order to show her sincerity, she arrived at the drinking place an hour early, found a seat first, ordered a cup of coffee and sat there waiting for the heavyweight master to come over.

Chapter 4729 Elena takes the show in a big way

Xie Tingyun pushed open the door of the cafe on time and listened to the crisp clang of the doorbell.

I saw a clerk waiting at the door. He bent down and said politely: "Is this Ms. Xie?"

Her eyebrows were as dark as dark blue, and she glanced at the store with a slightly surprised expression. She found that there were almost no customers in the huge coffee shop, and it had been cleared out long ago.

She was surprised for a moment, but she quickly buried this little surprise in her heart and did not show it. She said gently to the clerk: "I am."

The clerk never dared to raise his head. He stepped aside to make way for her and said, "The customer is waiting for you inside. Please come with me."

Xie Tingyun followed him and entered the cafe.

At a glance, I saw the young woman sitting by the window.

She was wearing a black slim-fitting shirt underneath and a black plush short jacket outside. When she looked towards her and stood up, she was wearing white wide-leg pants. The color was not too ostentatious and yet she was capable.

"Ms. Xie."

Xie Tingyun walked up to her, without taking his eyes away from her, but looked at her more carefully.

"Are you...Professor Steven's student?"

Elena raised her hand to invite her to sit down first, and then said to the clerk: "Please give me a glass of water, warm water."

She turned back to talk to Xie Tingyun and asked very politely: "I heard from the professor that you are not in good health. Can you drink warm water, sir? Or do you need juice?"

Xie Tingyun had a gentle look on her face and said to the clerk: "Just a glass of warm water, thank you."

"OK."

They both have outstanding looks.

The clerk couldn't help but look at the two of them, and quickly walked away to prepare warm water.

Xie Tingyun put down her bag and sat down opposite her.

I saw the girl opposite waiting for her to sit down before taking her seat again.

The education is impeccable. When she saw such a person, she couldn't help but speak softly: "You're taking over this place?"

Stephen's student sent her a message to make an appointment for dinner.

She is not used to being in contact with people she is not familiar with. Eating together is considered a private social interaction, so Xie Tingyun declined the other party politely and offered to come over for a drink of water.

Then she chose a cafe close to the courtyard where she lived.

Nanluoguxiang is not as prosperous as Chang'an Street.

But there are also many people.

This coffee shop has always been doing very good business. It was the afternoon, so it was unlikely that there was anyone in the shop, and they happened to be the only ones.

Elena admitted graciously: "I guess sir is not used to crowded environments, so I discussed it with them."

Xie Tingyun admitted that Elena's actions were very considerate and heartwarming. But she didn't forget the purpose of coming today.

Just then the clerk brought her the warm water she asked for.

Xie Tingyun held the glass in both hands, lowered her head and took a sip of water, then got to the point: "Professor Steven said you have a question to ask?"

Elena seemed to have investigated Xie Tingyun's preferences in advance. She took out a laptop from the shoulder bag she brought, turned it on, and after some operations, turned the laptop over and pushed it to Xie Tingyun. before.

"This is the 3D model I made."

Then while Xie Tingyun was looking at the computer, she took out a stack of organized research materials from her shoulder bag and put them on: "These are experimental data."

When Xie Tingyun saw the model on her computer, she was surprised for a moment and looked up: "Did you complete this model alone?"

"Hmm." Elena was neither arrogant nor impatient: "I built a laboratory myself and simulated the experiment on the computer first."

Chapter 4730 Are you good at computers?

She then used the data from the simulation experiment to adjust the real-life experiment, and finally used the real-life experiment to back-end the computer data to obtain the final experimental data.

“...Such experimental data are closer to accurate data.”

Xie Tingyun looked at her frequently and whispered first, "Let me take a look at your computer."

“Sir, please do it.” Elena was very cheerful.

Xie Tingyun unceremoniously used the mouse to operate her computer. She first looked at the 3D model that Elena showed her in 360° without blind spots, and then called up the model's data to take a look...

Finally, she picked up the stack of experimental data reports that Elena had taken out, and flipped through them page by page.

She is extremely focused and conscientious in her work. Once she enters working mode, she hardly cares about the people around her.

Elena was completely ignored.

A full hour has passed.

Xie Tingyun breathed out softly, raised his eyes again, and looked at the person sitting opposite him: "Did you complete these by yourself?"

“Yes.” Elena nodded without humility.

Xie Tingyun pursed her lower lip and looked at her again.

Elena sat up straight and accepted her scrutiny openly.

Two seconds passed.

Then I heard Xie Tingyun's voice: "You are very talented in this area. No wonder Professor Steven wants to accept you as a closed disciple, and even called me specifically to ask me to help you."

Of course Elena knew that Xie Tingyun came out this time for the sake of her teacher, so she was willing to come out to see her.

However, she made up her mind to use this opportunity to capture Xie Tingyun and further consolidate her position on the island.

"Thank you, sir."

She knew that Xie Tingyun didn't like girls who were grinding away, but preferred people who focused on research.

So she opened her mouth and said, "I have a few questions to ask you."

Xie Tingyun took the lead and picked up the experimental data form on the table: "You want to ask why the final experimental results deviate so much from the computer results, right?"

Elena also did not expect that this heavyweight master was so capable and could see through the most fatal loopholes in her research at a glance.

"yes."

"Hmm." Xie Tingyun thought for a while and said to her, "Wait for me, I'll ask someone."

Elena was a little surprised that a master of Xie Tingyun's level would ask others for help when encountering problems. However, she had received an elite education since she was a child and was very good at hiding her true inner thoughts. Although she was extremely curious in her heart, she still managed to remain calm on the surface. .

"Sir, please excuse me."

Xie Tingyun stood up and planned to walk away to make a phone call. He came back within two seconds and said to her with a slight apology on his face: "She didn't answer the phone."

"..." Elena was a little unable to keep up with the rhythm. She barely maintained a smile, raised her head and said to the person in front of her: "Then sir, why don't you sit down and chat for a while."

Xie Tingyun thought for a while, nodded, walked over and sat down again.

She is not a talkative person. Apart from talking to Nan Tianyi, she doesn't like to socialize with unfamiliar people, especially those she has just met.

However, Xie Tingyun looked at the girl in front of him, especially her eyes, and felt an inexplicable sense of familiarity.

This sense of familiarity was mixed with a little kindness, which made her put down the water glass involuntarily and proactively asked: "Are you good at computers?"

Elena didn't know why she suddenly mentioned this. Seeing Xie Tingyun's kind eyes looking at her, she humbly replied: "I know how to do some simple operations."
