

Madam's 4831

Chapter 4831 Mr. Wang knows that the Hai family is involved.

Qin Lang faced his friends who were the same age as his son, but he didn't have the momentum in front of Qin Si. He sat across from the desk according to the other party's instructions.

From the moment he entered the door, his momentum was reduced by half for no reason, and he was invisibly suppressed by Ye Wangchuan.

Ye Wangchuan held the tea cup with his slender hands and watched Mao Feng floating in the bright yellow tea. After a long while, he spoke slowly to break the silence in the study.

"You have something to do with me?"

Qin Lang just took a sip of tea. Hearing this, he thought of business. He quickly put down the teacup in his hand and said solemnly: "Mu Di has taken action."

Ye Wangchuan played with the tea cup leisurely: "Huh?"

Qin Lang said: "He replied to me twenty minutes ago, saying that he agreed to the conditions I proposed and hoped to start cooperation as soon as possible."

Qin Lang acted vigorously and resolutely: "I sent someone to check and found that not long before his phone call, someone from the Hai family came to see him."

"Then I asked someone to check the Hai family. People in the Hai family mobilized a large amount of funds and didn't know what they were going to do..."

He said he didn't know what he was going to do, but in fact he already knew what he was going to do.

Qin Lang didn't explain it because of the relationship between the Hai family and the Ye family.

He looked directly at this leader of the younger generation in Beijing, frowned, and subconsciously asked for his opinion: "Should we... remind the Hai family?"

Qin Lang is waiting for Ye Wangchuan's attitude.

If the Hai family did not have the connections of the Ye family, Qin Lang would not care about the life and death of such people at all. Greed is a taboo in the shopping mall.

The two families have little friendship.

Haijia's actions are disrupting his plan in disguise. Qin Lang's thunderous methods will not give Haijia face, but will just crush Haijia to death like a bug.

But it happens that the Hai family is related to the Ye family.

Qin Lang still depends on Ye Wangchuan's attitude.

Ye Wangchuan was not in a hurry to answer him. He took a sip of tea, raised the cup in his hand and said to Qin Lang, "This is this year's new tea. I got it from the old man. What does Uncle Qin think of the taste?" Qin Lang was stunned for a moment: " Well enough."

He had something on his mind, so he didn't actually taste the tea seriously, he just took a sip.

But Ye Wangchuan mentioned it specifically, Qin Lang picked up the tea cup he put down and took a sip. This time he drank the long fragrance of tea leaves.

He sighed in admiration.

"Good tea."

There are many people in Beijing who know how to taste tea, but there are only a few people who really love tea. Ye Maoshan is one of them, and Qin Lang is also one.

Ye Wangchuan nodded slightly and said to him: "I will ask Gu San to pack the tea later, and you can take it back and taste it slowly."

Qin Lang just tried the tea carefully and really liked it, so he was not polite to him: "Thank you, Mr. Ye."

The tense atmosphere in the study was diluted by Ye Wangchuan's casual interruption, and Qin Lang didn't even notice that his fierce aura was relieved.

Ye Wangchuan just sat back in the chair and suddenly picked up what he had said before. He tapped the table with his slender fingertips and said, "Don't worry about the Hai family. My grandfather just promised to take care of their family. No." The representative wants to control them to death."

Qin Lang came back to his senses and relaxed completely: "That's good."

The Qin family spent energy and money on connecting with Lavidia Technology this time. He was also afraid that Ye Wangchuan would terminate the plan for the sake of the Hai family.

Then the Qin family will be in trouble.

After Qin Lang relaxed, he frowned and thought of something: "The Hai family...how could they have anything to do with people from Lang Yi?"

He was vaguely aware that the people behind Lavidia Technology were not simple.

Otherwise Ye Wangchuan would not have targeted the opponent.

Chapter 4832 The Hai family is about to end. I can't control those who want to die.

But Qin Lang is very aware of the situation of the Hai family. The Hai family can hardly get along in the circles of the capital city, let alone contact with foreign forces.

"Chi." Ye Wangchuan raised the corners of his mouth, his eyes were wild, a bit like Qiao Nian's usual speaking style, and his eyebrows were a little crazy: "If they want to find a backer, let them find it. Can I still stop someone who wants to die?"

Qin Lang has been busy with work recently and has not attended the important events in the circle. However, he has heard a lot of rumors that Hai Tong, the eldest lady of the Hai family, has caused a lot of troubles.

He and Qin Si have completely different personalities. Qin Si is more enthusiastic and gossipy, while Qin Lang is steady and measured.

Even though he vaguely heard something, Qin Lang did not pursue the question.

He nodded and figured he knew it. He picked up his phone and checked the time. He stood up and said to the people in the study: "Since Mr. Ye has plans, I won't ask any more questions."

He thought of his son outside, couldn't help but look at him, and said a few more words: "If Qin Si disturbs Mr. Ye, you don't have to be polite to me, just kick him out when he needs to. He'll be like this all day long, and he won't do it." Business, wandering outside every day..."

Ye Wangchuan didn't like to meddle in other people's business. He raised his head when he heard this, met Qin Lang's helpless eyes, his deep eyes turned dark, and he asked.

"The Qin family plans to marry? With whom?"

"..." Qin Lang looked over in surprise.

Ye Wangchuan doesn't mind other people's business. This is the consensus in the circle.

Although the other party is one round younger than me, he is a true junior. But Qin Lang has never treated Ye Wangchuan as a junior in his heart, and he is very aware of the Ye family's skills.

The Ye family and the Qin family have a close relationship, and they are considered to be friends.

Even though Qin Lang was surprised that Ye Wangchuan would ask such an intimate question, he paused and answered him: "It hasn't been decided yet. His mother and I just plan to let him take a closer look."

Then Qin Lang looked at him doubtfully: "Why did Mr. Ye suddenly ask this?"

Ye Wangchuan spoke calmly under his gaze: "I have something I want to entrust him to do this year. I am in M Continent and may not have enough time to come back."

This means that during this year, Qin Si is afraid that it will be inconvenient to fall in love. Qin Lang frowned, and then looked at the young man who couldn't see anything strange. He felt that he was thinking too much, so he nodded: "I'll go back and discuss it with his mother."

"Sorry for bothering Uncle Qin."

Ye Wangchuan stood up and sent him out.

Qin Lang went out and saw his son who was still in the living room. He didn't want to say anything, so he took the tea given by Gu San and left Rhine in a hurry.

After Qin Si and others left, they saw Ye Wangchuan walking out of the study.

He was about to speak.

Seeing Ye Wangchuan look at him first, he suddenly said to him: "Are you interested in going to M State to help me out?"

Ye Wangchuan continued: "If you promise me, you will need to travel between M state and Beijing this year. I'm afraid you won't have time to do other things."

Qin Si's heart moved vaguely.

Ye Wangchuan continued with a nonchalant expression: "I heard that Hongmeng has some things to deal with recently, and Guan Yan is also over there."

Qin Si didn't need him to finish his words, and immediately shouted: "I want it, I want it!"

Ye Wangchuan raised his eyes, glanced at him, walked over and said, "I asked you to go over to help Ji Lin. There is really something to do. If you do well, you can develop your own power... hiding is not a good idea. You hide It won't last a lifetime. Now that you have thought about it, then go for it with all your strength."

How could Qin Si, who had been his friend for many years, not understand what he was talking about? His heart felt like he had been punched hard, sore and astringent. He couldn't even wear the carefree mask on his face. He looked at him seriously and said He said: "Thank you."

Chapter 4833: I thought it was God's blessing

Nine institutes.

Haitong didn't know that she had been exposed to surveillance for a long time.

She walked out of the bathroom and kept pretending to follow Zhao Shu to 'visit' the Nine Houses.

Zhao Shu only promised to take her in for a walk, and the time could not exceed one hour, otherwise she would inevitably be punished even if she was an old employee of the Nine Institutes.

So she walked around the neighborhood at Haitong's strong request, then raised her hand to look at the watch on her wrist, and said to those who didn't want to leave yet: "Haitong, it's almost time. I'll take you out first."

So fast? Haitong subconsciously clenched the shoulder strap of her handbag and forced a smile: "I want to see it again."

"The outside is probably the place I showed you, and going inside is not within my scope of authority."

Zhao Shu did not dare to take her to stay here for too long, and tried to communicate with her: "Normally, you couldn't come in. I was also thinking that you were about to graduate and return to China to enter the ninth school, and because of your family's relationship with Mr. Ye, I will make an exception and bring you in to familiarize yourself with the environment in advance. Haitong... don't make it difficult for Auntie!"

Haitong pursed her lips and moved reluctantly, as if she didn't want to leave yet.

Zhao Shu looked at her in surprise, a little confused as to why she still didn't want to leave. Could it be that she really wanted to visit the laboratory area?

But the rules in Jiuzhou are strict.

She has been a little thin-faced after working in the 9th Institute for many years, just a little bit thin-faced.

It is absolutely impossible for Haitong to visit the interior.

Zhao Shu reached out and pulled her: "Let's go."

Haitong's heart was in a state of turmoil. She was nervous, unwilling and impatient. She didn't want Zhao Shu to discover her thoughts, but she was also eager to find a chance to visit 3302...

Just when she had walked a few steps for a long time, Zhao Shu was already a little impatient.

Suddenly, a person who looked like a responsible person came out in a hurry and walked straight towards them.

Zhao Shu saw the man's face change slightly and became nervous: "Congratulations to the team leader."

The man was wearing Jiu Suo's clothes and was about forty years old. He didn't seem to notice Haitong next to Zhao Shu. He walked up to Zhao Shu and said, "I have something to do with you. Come with me."

As he said that, he turned around and walked back.

Zhao Shu couldn't help but breathed a sigh of relief, then turned to look at the girl next to her. After briefly weighing the pros and cons, she told the girl: "Wait for me here. I'll be back soon. Don't run around."

"good."

Haitong didn't expect that even God would help her, so she hurriedly agreed.

He did not forget to urge her: "Aunt Zhao, you should be busy with your own business first and don't worry about me."

Zhao Shu looked back three times with each step, always feeling uneasy.

But she didn't dare to delay, so she had to leave here full of worry.

In a blink of an eye, Haitong was the only one left in this area.

She waited for Zhao Shu's figure to disappear, then put away the cute smile that was deliberately raised on her face, and immediately turned around and walked to the left.

When she asked Zhao Shu to take her around before, she specifically inquired about the location of 3302 and even walked around there.

Haitong didn't expect that she was really lucky.

She originally thought that 3302 was inside, an area that required 5-star permission to enter, but she didn't expect that Zhao Shu took her around.

3302 is located in an inconspicuous corner room outside.

When she was wandering around, she deliberately looked around and saw that no one was passing by. It was remote, like an abandoned room that no one would use.

Haitong walked in a hurry all the way, but he sneered at Qiao Nian in his heart.

Hmm, she thought Qiao Nian was so powerful and had such a good relationship with Jiu Suo, but it turned out that she couldn't get in and could only put things in the utility room.

Chapter 4834: Got caught red-handed

Because she was afraid that Zhao Shu would come back soon, she quickly found 3302 and pushed the door open directly.

Haitong opened the door and found that the inside was very neat. There was a computer and a swivel chair, and a pile of information was piled on the computer table.

There are green plants in the room, the blinds are half-opened, and the sunlight refracted in from the outside is just right.

It's not a utility room.

But in her eyes, such a simple room is no different from a utility room, and it doesn't even have high-end furniture!

After she came in, she closed the door.

Can't wait to find it in the room.

Probably Bo Jingxing made it easier for Qiao Nian to find something. The thing was placed next to the computer keyboard. It was a light green USB flash drive.

There is a piece of paper next to it.

Haitong picked it up and scanned it around. His almond-shaped eyes were slightly startled, and there was a look of surprise on his face.

On the paper is a printed list.

The recent research projects of nine institutes are listed above.

Haitong saw that the list above even included 6G technology, as well as the most popular chips and artificial intelligence...

Her heart beat suddenly, rapidly.

She could hardly wait to sit in front of the computer, turn on the computer, insert the USB flash drive, and began to wait eagerly for the computer to turn on.

at the same time.

Zhao Shu was taken to the monitoring room.

She was worried at first, not knowing why Team Leader Zhu brought her to the monitoring room. When she opened the door and walked in, she found that Bo Jingxing and Qiao Nian were there.

She knows Qiao Nian.

I have seen it several times before and know that Qiao Nian is a talented college student from Tsinghua University who has a very good relationship with Master Cheng.

Before she could take a closer look. Bo Jingxing said calmly: "Coming?"

Zhao Shu's heart was pounding and she didn't dare to look into the other person's eyes: "Bo, Mr. Bo."

Bo Jingxing let her pass, then motioned for her to look at the surveillance camera: "Is this the person you brought?"

Zhao Shu raised her head from fear and looked at the surveillance screen pointed by Bo Jingxing. Immediately the blood drained from her face and she couldn't help but open her eyes wide.

"she!"

"What is she doing?!"

Bo Jingxing turned sideways calmly: "I also want to ask you, what is she doing? Why did she appear in Jiusuo and how did she get in."

The fact that Zhao Shu was able to enter the Ninth Institute showed that she was not a fool. She immediately understood the importance of it and immediately explained to herself with a pale face: "She came to me in the morning and said that she wanted to visit the Ninth Institute and understand the environment of the Ninth Institute in advance. I didn't think too much about it. Just brought her in..."

Bo Jingxing interrupted her without changing his expression: "Don't you know that she was rejected by Jiusuo?"

Zhao Shu's face turned pale: "...rejected by the Ninth Institute? No, no. Her mother told me that she would enter the Ninth Institute after graduation, and she also said that she was... with..."

Zhao Shu glanced at Qiao Nian, as if she didn't dare to continue.

Qiao Nian looked lazily, as if he was just a bystander watching the fun: "What are you following?"

Zhao Shu, however, was so overwhelmed by her momentum that she could not raise her head. She apologized with trembling lips: "I'm sorry, Mr. Bo. It's my fault. I shouldn't...shouldn't be careful."

If she hadn't seen Haimu often showing off her relationship with the Ye family in her ears, intentionally or unintentionally, she wouldn't have taken the risk of bringing Haitong in.

She brought people in with the intention of establishing a good relationship with the Hai family.

People from Jiusuo are certainly very superior in front of ordinary people, but they are no more than that in the circle of Beijing.

Unless you are a master-level figure with hard power like Master Cheng.

Otherwise, peripheral members of 1-3 stars like them would only have a name in Jiusuo.

Chapter 4835: She wanted to copy all the information from the Ninth Institute

Zhao Shu knew that she had caused trouble this time, so she had a good attitude in admitting her mistake, and immediately defended herself: "But I just agreed to take her for a walk in an unimportant area outside. I really don't know what she is going to do, and I don't know what she is going to do." I know she won't enter the Ninth Institute..."

Bringing in outsiders who are not from Jiusuo and bringing in people who will enter Jiusuo in the future are two completely different concepts.

Zhao Shu knew that the former would definitely be expelled, and those expelled from the Nine Institutes would also be finished in the academic world.

"Master Bo, believe me." Zhao Shu was more anxious than anyone else.

Bo Jingxing did not make a judgment immediately, but looked at her with half-squinted eyes.

Zhao Shu felt like her heart had been thrown into boiling water, and she wanted to break it open to prove her innocence.

Fortunately, Bo Jingxing did not pursue the matter further: "We will deal with your matter later. I will check whether you knew about it in advance."

"Thank you, Mr. Bo." Zhao Shu felt as if she had been fished out of the water. She knew in her heart that even if she was deceived into bringing someone into the Nine Houses, she would definitely be punished.

But rather than being kicked out of the Nine Houses directly, she at least has a chance to stay.

"Yeah." Bo Jingxing responded with a very cold attitude and ignored her again. It was obvious that he was very dissatisfied with Zhao Shu's behavior this time.

Zhao Shu regretted bringing people in now, so she could only stand there and watch what Haitong was doing under the surveillance camera.

Hai Mu told her that Hai Tong was about to enter Jiusuo...

They also told her that their family has a good relationship with the Ye family and the Bo family, and they would visit the Ye family during the holidays. Haitong is Young Master Ye's sister...

Now it seems that it is all lies.

Zhao Shu just wanted to wait for this to be over, and then go to Haimu to ask her why she lied to him and why she wanted to harm her!

Over there, Haitong didn't know that her every move was under everyone's surveillance. She thought that her behavior was very secretive and no one noticed that she was hiding in 3302.

She probably watched too many movies abroad and really thought of herself as 007. She never thought about surveillance. As soon as the computer was turned on, she couldn't wait to copy the contents.

She didn't expect that she would gain so much before she came, so she didn't bring a USB flash drive. There seemed to be a signal jammer in the Ninth Institute, so except for making phone calls, the mobile phone she brought had no internet connection.

She tried it. The computer needs to be authenticated to connect to the Internet.

Haitong didn't dare to verify, so she could only use her phone as a USB flash drive and copy the folders on the USB flash drive to her phone.

Haitong watched one folder after another successfully copied to her phone, her palms holding the mouse sweating with excitement.

She herself studied physics, and no one knew better than her how valuable the contents of these folders were.

She is thinking about developing overseas in the future. If she can "exchange" these things in the USB flash drive, among other things, she can imagine how smooth her future development will be.

These are the most advanced technologies in the country.

Although she believes in her heart that domestic technology cannot be more advanced than foreign countries, she can at least see from these folders where domestic scientific research has gone.

Haitong waited nervously for half an hour before copying all the files into her phone. During this half hour, she could hear her own strong heartbeat.

She was afraid that Zhao Shu would come back suddenly and find that she could not be found.

She even thought of an excuse.

If Zhao Shu calls her, she will say she has a stomachache and is in the bathroom, asking Zhao Shu to wait for her...

Chapter 4836: I stole something and wanted to run away.

However, this time it went surprisingly smoothly.

Zhao Shu didn't look for her for a whole half hour.

Haitong copied all the large files in the USB flash drive to her mobile phone. She breathed a sigh of relief when she saw the progress bar on her computer slowly entering 100%.

"Succeeded."

She immediately took off her phone and put the USB flash drive plugged into the computer back into its place. She also cleverly thought of cleaning up the traces of use on the computer.

She did these things in a hurry, but she is a top student anyway, so it wasn't too difficult.

By the time she finished cleaning up the browsing traces she had used on the computer, almost ten minutes had passed, and in the blink of an eye, Zhao Shu had been gone for almost 40 minutes.

Haitong turned off the computer, stood up, picked up her cell phone and walked outside.

She now forgot that the purpose of coming here was to find out what the cooperation project between Qiao Nian and Master Cheng was. She only wanted to leave with the files she copied...

As long as she successfully leaves the Nine Institutes, these documents will be a boost for her to soar and help her quickly establish a foothold overseas.

Haitong's blood boiled uncontrollably whenever he thought of this, as if he saw himself trampling Qiao Nian and even the entire capital city under his feet.

What will the Ye family be then?

She can even ignore Grandpa Ye and Aunt Ye!

Haitong walked out of the room and closed the door, leaving as cautiously as when he came in, and walked back to where he was waiting for Zhao Shu.

She stood there for another five minutes.

Seeing that Zhao Shu has not come back yet.

Haitong's heart was beating fast, realizing that if he stayed here for another minute, he would be at greater risk.

She gritted her teeth and stopped waiting for Zhao Shu to come out. She turned around and walked out alone.

There are nine guards at the door.

Haitong didn't have a magnetic card from the Ninth Institute, so she had to ask the guard to open the door for her: "Hello, I'm the one who followed Aunt Zhao in just now."

Under the watchful eye of the guard, she called him nervously: "Aunt Zhao can't accompany me for something, so I have to leave first. Can you open the door for me?"

She thought the reason she gave was reasonable and should be fine.

Who knew that while the guard was looking her up and down, someone seemed to be talking in his ears. The guard pressed his ear and replied: "Okay."

Then Haitong felt that the atmosphere had changed.

The guard's aura became fierce, he raised his hand to stop her, and said mercilessly: "You can't go out."

Haitong's mind went blank for a moment: "..."

She reacted immediately and became emotional: "Why?!"

The guard was very conscientious and did not open the valve for her. Faced with her questioning, he did not even raise his eyelids: "No why."

Haitong felt guilty and didn't want to stay here at all, so she immediately started making a fuss: "I'm not from your ninth institute, why don't you let me go?"

The guard didn't even look at her, and remained there unmoved, except to open the valve.

Haitong's heart kept falling, and she couldn't care about so much. She reached out to touch the valve. The guard had to remind her: "There is current on it, but anyone who has not passed the magnetic card and fingerprint verification will enter or exit if they touch the valve." I lay in the hospital for ten days and a half, and I was so severe that I might be paralyzed."

Haitong shrank back when he reached halfway, his face was round and pale, he bit his lip and shouted angrily: "I want to go out! Open the door!"

The guard just reminded her out of humanitarianism and had no intention of helping her open the valve. Seeing that she didn't want to force her way in, he ignored her again.

Haitong is used to being arrogant in Beijing, and he has been treated like this before.

Chapter 4837: Stopped at the door by Sister Nian

At Qiao Nian's banquet, it was Ye Wangchuan who threw her out.

But there was just a guard in front of him, and he dared to ignore her.

Haitong was extremely angry for a moment and scolded: "Do you know who I am?"

at this time.

There was a casual chuckle behind him.

"Oh, who are you."

Haitong felt as if his acupuncture points were being tapped. He couldn't move for a long time. He pinched his palms and tried to calm himself down before slowly turning around.

I saw two acquaintances at once.

Forget it about Bo Jingxing.

Haitong thought that she had not met Bo Jingxing a few times, but at least they had some friendship with each other, and she subconsciously believed that Bo Jingxing was with her, so he would not embarrass her too much.

Haitong paid most attention to another person.

The shirt Qiao Nian wore today had half of the shirt tucked into the waistband of his trousers, which made his shoulders straight and his waist narrow, making him slender and lazy.

She was still wearing a peaked cap, and the black hair hanging down from her neck was winding around her porcelain white skin. Her eyes were dark and inky, and she looked at herself with a smile but not a smile.

Haitong felt horrified as if he was being targeted by a hunter. The hairs on his back stood on end. He subconsciously took half a step back, and his momentum was mostly weakened.

"You, why are you here?"

She regretted it as soon as she said it.

Sure enough.

She heard the girl sneer softly again, and then asked casually: "You don't know I'm here?"

Haitong was so panicked in his heart that he still refused to admit it: "What do you mean? I didn't follow you, how could I know you were here." Because he was too guilty.

She also taunted beforehand: "You don't think I followed you to the Nine Institutes, do you? Ha, I'm just here for a visit, it has nothing to do with you!"

She has not seen Zhao Shu until now. Although she is very panicked, she sees that Zhao Shu is not with Bao Jingxing and Qiao Nian.

Haitong always had a sense of luck in his heart, so the villain bit back and said, "Qiao Nian, can you stop being so narcissistic?"

"Except for your face, which can deceive men, what makes you worthy of me following you? Unfortunately, I am not a man! I am not interested in that face of yours!"

Qiao Nian raised his eyebrows arrogantly, tilted his head and glanced at Bo Jingxing beside him, with a somewhat surprised tone: "She is praising me?"

Bo Jingxing smiled slightly and nodded: "That's right. I compliment you on your beauty."

Qiao Nian put her hands in her pockets, feeling quite contented: "Oh, I have a mirror at home, she doesn't need to tell me."

This arrogance is very Qiao Nian!

It was enough to make Haitong, who originally wanted to ridicule her, blush with anger and open her mouth to curse.

Before she spoke, Qiao Nian said coldly: "Where do you want to send the stolen documents?"

There was a thud in Haitong's heart as a heavy object fell to the ground, which made her eardrums buzz and her subconscious mind went blank.

Her eyes flickered, not daring to look at the people in front of her, and she immediately denied her theft in a vague way: "What documents? What nonsense are you talking about. I just came to visit the Ninth Institute and I don't know the documents you are talking about."

"You didn't steal anything?"

"I don't know what you are talking about!" Haitong was flustered and wanted to leave the place again: "Get out of the way, I want to go home!"

Two guards quickly surrounded her to prevent her from escaping.

Although Haitong didn't have a magnetic card, he couldn't escape at all.

But faced with this situation, her expression suddenly changed, she turned around suddenly and stared at the girl fiercely: "Qiao Nian, what do you mean? You can't understand human language, I want to go home!"

Chapter 4838: She is already shameless

She felt extremely guilty at the moment, and regardless of whether it was useful or not, she instinctively brought out her biggest support: "You treat me like this, don't even think about marrying into the Ye family. Grandpa Ye will not want a rude and uncultured woman like you!"

Who would have thought that after she finished speaking, Qiao Nian just raised her hand and pulled off her peaked cap impatiently, then turned around and asked Bao Jingxing, "Is she always like this?"

Bo Jingxing looked Haitong up and down, slightly curved his fox eyes, and spread his hands: "I don't know, I'm not familiar with her."

Everyone present knows the relationship between the Ye family and the Bo family.

If Haitong is really as he said, his status in the Ye family is so high that he can sway Ye Maoshan's decision.

It is impossible for Bo Jingxing to have a normal relationship with her.

The people who came out from the Ninth Institute and the guards all looked at Haitong as if they were watching a showman's performance, full of sarcasm.

Haitong's face was stabbed by such eyes, and his face turned blue and white. He pinched the palms of his hands and tried to use the stinging pain to prevent himself from falling into the disadvantage.

Continuing Ya Sensen's threat: "I grew up with Grandpa Ye, and he doted on me the most. Don't think that just because my brother likes you, you can run rampant in Beijing. If you don't let me go today, wait until I'm at Grandpa Ye's place. If I sue you, you won't be able to marry me!"

"They are just deceived by your appearance now. Only those who don't understand you will agree to you being with my brother. If they know that you treat me like this in private, sooner or later they will see through what kind of person you are!"

"You don't know that surveillance is everywhere in the Ninth Institute?" Qiao Nian didn't even bother to ask her what kind of person she was. After all, it was not Haitong's turn to define who she was.

Qiao Nian stepped closer to the girl who suddenly turned pale: "We discovered you from the time you eavesdropped in the bathroom."

'boom!'

Haitong felt as if the world in front of her was shattering, and the huge impact shook her body.

"I..."

She bit her lip and subconsciously stopped Qiao Nian from continuing.

"My family has a very good relationship with Grandpa Ye's family. Grandpa Ye is in poor health. You..."

Ye Maoshan is not in good health.

This is something that many people in Beijing know.

There were few people of that generation who were in good health. Wei Lao died of illness, and Jiang Weishang was admitted to a nursing home early for five or six years.

Ye Maoshan is considered to be physically strong among those people, but he is not particularly good. The loss in his youth cannot be easily made up for.

It's also a shame that Qiao Nian treated the pills as health supplements and gave them to the two old men for free.

Otherwise, Ye Maoshan and Jiang Weishang's bodies would definitely not be as strong as they are now.

Haitong had been studying abroad before and occasionally came back twice a year. Even if he had to visit Ye's house, Ye Maoshan would not be able to tell her important things. At most, he would care about her studies and life.

This also resulted in her not having the slightest understanding of Qiao Nian, let alone Ye Maoshan's health getting much better over the past year or so.

She had the impression that Ye Maoshan was in poor health. The doctor asked him to avoid getting angry so as not to affect his heart. The heart is a big problem for the elderly, and Ye Maoshan was no exception.

By bringing this up now, she is undoubtedly using Ye Maoshan's heart to threaten Qiao Nian not to pursue her further...

But she thinks she is a life-saving straw and a trump card that can threaten others.

In exchange, the girl will not take a step back.

It was Qiao Nian's eyes that suddenly darkened.

Haitong could feel the changes in the air around him, raised his head, and felt a little guilty: "What are you doing? I'm just reminding you..."

Chapter 4839: Mr. Mu, can you do me a favor?

"Grandpa Ye was not in good health to begin with..."

She had not yet finished speaking.

Qiao Nian had already walked up to her, raised her hand, and slapped the left side of her face so loudly that she almost stopped standing while covering her face.

"Snapped-"

Haitong was caught off guard. The pain and humiliation forced her to raise her head: "You dare to hit me?"

Qiao Nian has already taken the lead: "I'll ask your family to come pick you up."

Haitong was still immersed in his own world, covering his face, the anger in his eyes almost tearing Qiao Nian apart: "Why do you hit me!"

Qiao Nian turned around and said to her before leaving: "You want Mr. Ye to know that it's OK to continue making trouble."

Haitong seemed to have been tapped on his acupuncture points and was immediately speechless.

She made a big fuss and actually didn't have the guts to let Ye Maoshan know about the good things she did today.

After Qiao Niansa gave her a slap, she passed by Bo Jingxing and said very coldly, "It's not convenient for me to get involved in the affairs of your ninth institute. She leaves it to you."

Nine institutes are independent institutions.

Haitong's intrusion into the Ninth Institute should be handed over to Bo Jingxing.

Qiao Nian didn't know why Haitong came to Jiusuo to steal things, and she didn't want to spend time and energy on such a person.

"Okay." Bo Jingxing probably knew what she was thinking, so he followed her and said, "Shall I take you back?"

The girl raised her hand angrily and pulled down her peaked cap, then rejected him: "No need."

When Bo Jingxing saw her finish speaking and strode away without looking back, he knew that she really didn't want to get involved in Haitong's troubles.

He stood there and thought for a while, then called Ye Wangchuan and explained what he had encountered here.

Then he turned back to Haitong and stretched out his hand gracefully: "Let's go to the police station."

Haitong suddenly raised his head, his face turned pale with fright. He finally realized that he was afraid and took a few steps back to hide.

"I, I won't go."

She now forgot the pain of Qiao Nian's slap in the face, tears were about to burst out of her eyes, and she opened her mouth to apologize. "I apologize, yes, I'm sorry. No big deal, no big deal, I'll give you my phone and you can delete it yourself..."

In her opinion, no matter how big a mistake is, she can get over it by putting down her pride and apologizing.

We are all in the same circle.

Bo Jingxing will not break his face.

She never thought that she would not be able to reach the threshold of this circle based on her own conditions.

Bo Jingxing really didn't give her this 'face'.

Let the guards control the evading person, and looked down at the embarrassed Haitong. He looked very gentle but actually said coldly: "This is also Wang Ye's intention."

"!"

Haitong's face turned completely pale and he was speechless.

The Haitong incident was a big deal.

From the moment Bo Jingxing sent her to the police station, he never thought about blocking the news.

The Hai family used to have a good relationship with the Ye family, and many people in the capital knew of their existence, so as soon as Haitong entered the police station, the news immediately spread to all the major families in the capital.

Ye Wangchuan did not notify the Hai family specifically.

The Hai family finally received the news that Haitong had entered the police station after the news spread throughout the capital.

Haimu was so frightened that she cried and asked her husband to think of a solution.

Hai's father found a circle of 'friends'. Those who had chatted and laughed with him at the bar in the past would not even answer his phone calls, let alone help inquire about the situation.

Haifu searched around but couldn't find anyone to help, so he had no choice but to call Moody.

He was at the end of his rope.

As soon as the call is connected.

Haifu said in a hurry: "Mr. Mu, can I ask you a favor? My daughter has entered the police station..."

Chapter 4840: That's not my consideration

Mu Di had just finished a phone call with Mu Qingtian on the island, and then explained his situation in the capital, and by the way, he talked about the cooperation with the Qin family and the conditions offered by Qin Lang.

Same as he thought.

His father was very dissatisfied with his ability to do things. Fortunately, the Hai family, the big boss, helped to shoulder part of the problem. Mu Qingtian gave him a few verbal words but didn't teach him much.

Moody just went to the bathroom to take a cold shower. When he came out, he received a call from Hai's father. Hearing his panicked description on the phone, he probably knew what happened.

"Why did she go to the Ninth Institute for nothing?" Mo Di still didn't know that the reason why Haitong went to the Ninth Institute was instigated by Elena.

He just felt that Haitong seemed to have no brains and was always getting into trouble: "I know, I will try my best to help you find out."

Having said that.

But when Mu Di found his connections in Beijing and came out and explained his purpose of coming, the other party immediately put away his smile and said with a half-smile, "Mr. Mu has a good relationship with the Hai family?"

Moody was dissatisfied with the other party's attitude, but he did not reveal his identity on the island, so he said sternly: "...It's a bit of a cooperative relationship. He found me and wanted me to do a favor."

The person he invited out was the person in charge of attracting investment in Beijing. He held a high position and had connections and status.

There are relatively few people in Beijing who can eat well.

"Chu Bu..." Mo Di just started.

The man whose name was called raised his hand, interrupted him with a faint smile: "I can't help Mr. Mu."

Moody frowned: "I just asked you to help me find someone at the police station..."

The other party's attitude was firm: "This is really not possible!"

The expression on Moody's face turned cold.

The man sitting opposite him probably considered Lavida Technology as an important foreign investment, so he still gave him some face. He smiled bitterly and explained: "It's not that I don't want to help Mr. Mu, but I can't help you."

"Mr. Mu doesn't understand the situation in Beijing. The person who sent her in was none other than one of the princes. This means that she has offended someone."

"And now the police station doesn't give them a chance to inquire about the information. Everyone is waiting for the results. Only when they are notified will they know what trouble she has gotten into."

"Before the police announce the results, even I have no ability to say that I can find out the internal situation, let alone arrest people..."

Chu Ying considered that he was one of the important business partners in Beijing, but saw that he did not seem to understand the seriousness of it.

He gave him another reminder: "Mr. Mu, you are not from Beijing. I advise you not to wade into troubled waters. You are just a partner. There is no need to drag yourself into the water."

The buttons of Moody's suit reflect the light and shine.

"She is still my sister's classmate."

Chu Ying retreated slightly, regaining the calmness of an old fox, and Shi Shiran said: "That's not the scope of my consideration."

This means...he won't help.

Moody heard the implication of what he said, and his frown became more serious. He endured the unhappiness in his heart, reluctantly stood up, and politely said goodbye to the other party: "I still have something to do, and I disturbed the Ministry of Reserves today."

Chu Ying pretended that she couldn't see the displeasure in his eyes, so she pretended to stand up and shook hands with Mo Di: "Mr. Mu, see you next time."

Wait for Moody to leave with his assistants.

Chu Yingcai picked up his things and followed him into the car.

He was asked out by Moody for half of the meeting, and now he has to go back to continue the meeting.
