

Madam's 4901

Chapter 4901: Mr. Wan almost killed someone

The assistant was shocked and frightened. He looked in the direction of Ye Wangchuan, wondering what this living king of * in Beijing wanted to do.

He wanted to tell Moody's identity, but he didn't dare to talk about what happened on the island casually. His face was full of surprise and confusion.

At this time, Ye Wangchuan returned to the chair he had moved personally and signaled to the security guard: "Bring him here."

"Yes, Lord Wan." The two bodyguards grabbed Mu Di's hair and dragged him to the front of the chair before throwing him to the ground like a rag.

Ye Wangchuan looked at the man lying on the ground and couldn't get up. He raised his feet, stepped on the fingers of Mo Di's left hand with the toe of his leather shoe, and crushed it lightly.

Mu Di cried out in pain: "Ah——"

Ye Wangchuan looked like a * and Buddha, but he showed no compassion at all. Instead, he increased his strength, crushing Mu Di's five fingers with a force that almost made them sink into the ground.

"Uh-huh!" Mu Di was in pain like a dying crane. He raised his head, the veins on his neck bulged, and a layer of cold sweat broke out on his forehead. His eyes were bloodshot and he stared at Ye Wangchuan.

If looks could kill, Ye Wangchuan would have been cut to pieces long ago.

But he was in too much pain at the moment. The pain from his fingers to his heart forced him to moan in pain but could not speak. He could only open his eyes wide to vent the anger in his heart.

He did not expect that Ye Wangchuan would dare to treat him like this.

If Elena had already approached Ye Wangchuan, Ye Wangchuan should know his identity. Regardless of their kinship relationship, he also had the Mu family behind him.

Even if Shi Lao himself came, he would not treat him like this!

"You..." Moody felt the toe on his finger move away a little, took a deep breath, and finally managed to make a human voice from his throat.

He just said a word when he heard Ye Wangchuan order his men: "Remove his left arm."

Moody: "..."

Bo Jingxing knew why Ye Wangchuan was doing this, so he had no intention of helping to stop him. He just regarded himself as a backdrop.

Looking at the two bodyguards without saying a word, they pushed the struggling Moody down on the chair, took his left hand and pressed it on the back of the chair, and then pressed down * the elbow joint...

"Click!"

Only the sound of bones was heard.

Immediately afterwards, Moody made an uncontrollable sound of pain.

"ah!"

The two bodyguards let go of their hands. Moody hugged his left arm and rolled on the ground in pain. The severe pain penetrated his nerves and stimulated his brain to go blank. He completely lost his ability to think. His whole body was surrounded by pain and he wanted to faint. past.

His driver and assistant also had pale faces when they saw this scene, and they were trembling and unable to speak.

Faced with Ye Wangchuan's merciless approach.

No one dares to get into trouble at this time.

The assistant didn't even dare to mention the island, lest he become the next person.

Fortunately, Ye Wangchuan had no intention of liquidating them, so he had Mu Di beaten half to death and his left hand was disabled. Ye Wangchuan glanced at the person who was only breathing on the ground, and calmly said to Bao Jingxing, who had been watching the excitement for a long time: "Okay, send the person to the hospital."

Bo Jingxing took a look at Mo Di's condition and knew that someone would die if he didn't send him to the hospital, so he didn't waste any time and took out his cell phone to make a call.

The ambulance he called would be here for a while. At this time, he said hello to the manager of the club to clear the place, and repeatedly warned him to keep his mouth shut and not to spill the beans about someone being carried out of the club today.

Chapter 4902: No need to go, I found someone

The manager of the club here is very clear-minded and knows what to say and what not to say. He has repeatedly promised that no matter who comes to the lobby, he will not see, hear or know.

Bo Jingxing understood what these people were doing, so he waited patiently until the ambulance crew came and carried Mu Di onto a stretcher. Then he said hello to Ye Wangchuan and left in the car.

at the same time.

The news that Moody had been kidnapped quickly spread back to the island.

Mu Qingtian was very angry when he heard the news. He immediately asked the people who followed Mu Di to find people and find Mu Di's whereabouts as soon as possible.

He himself is also contacting people in country Z.

He hasn't contacted a few people yet, but the shadow guard who followed Mu Di has already found Mu Di.

When Mu Qingtian received the call, he didn't believe his ears for a while: "What did you say? Hospital?! How can a good person enter the hospital?"

The shadow guard reported in detail what he found: "...it was Ye Wangchuan. He intercepted the young master with his people and took them to a private site. It didn't take long for the young master to be sent to the hospital."

"The doctor said that the young master was seriously injured. In addition to external injuries, the young master's left hand had soft tissue contusions of varying degrees from the shoulder to the fingers, and bone dislocations."

"Fortunately, that person sent him to the hospital in time, otherwise the young master's life may be in danger."

"Mr. Mu, what should we do..."

Mu Qingtian's shoulders were trembling, not from fear, but from a physical reaction that only occurs when a person is extremely angry. He clenched his cell phone, tried his best to suppress his rage, and gritted his teeth and said, "What on earth did Moody do?! Tell me!"

Shadow Guard hesitated: "This..."

Mu Qingtian showed his majesty: "Don't make me say it twice. What did he hide from me during this time? Tell me quickly."

The shadow guard did not dare to hide anything, so he explained everything about how Mu Di and the Nie family, a hidden family, found a car and hit Qiao Nian.

At the end, the shadow guard said in fear: "Master Mu didn't let us tell you, saying that this is his private matter and he is not allowed to tell you anything."

Mu Qingtian had known that Ye Wangchuan would never do anything for no reason, but when he heard about the "good deeds" his son had done without telling him, he did it.

He was still so angry that his face turned green and he could not recover for a long time. After a long time, Mu Qingcai suppressed the evil voice in his throat: "Does Elena know these?"

"..." Shadow Guard didn't dare to say anything nonsense.

But Mu Qingtian was already angry and couldn't allow him to hide it: "Say!"

The shadow guard bit his tongue hard and replied: "...The young master vaguely mentioned it to Miss Elena once or twice. He only said that he wanted to 'surprise' Miss Elena. His subordinates didn't know what Miss Elena was. Do you know or not..."

"Of course she knows." These two sentences were enough for Mu Qingtian to determine what role Elena played in the process.

He said no more and hung up the phone.

Then he said to the confidant who was waiting in the room and was ready to go to the capital to find someone in person at any time: "There's no need to go, we've found someone."

"Have you found Master Mu?" The person who spoke to him was a middle-aged man in his forties, with slender eyes and a thin face. He was a strong team leader in the outer sect.

Same status as Shadow Ten.

But there is a Shadow Guard family behind Shadow Ten. He became a squad leader in his twenties and had his own group of people.

The thin horse-faced man had no family background and had to wait until he was forty to reach his current status.

He is extremely good at setting up camps.

He had been relying on Mu Qingtian very early, and had done a lot of things for Mu Qingtian. Before Nie Qingru was looking for someone, Mu Qingtian sent people under the thin face.

Chapter 4903: He's a fool himself

Hence, Mu Qingtian valued this person very highly and would tell him directly if he had any questions.

"We found him. He is in the hospital. Someone broke an arm and saved his life." Mu Qingtian said in a gloomy tone.

The thin horse-faced man looked up at his face and said cautiously: "Who is so bold and dares to touch Young Master Mu? Do you want me to..."

Mu Qingtian shook his head, suppressed his anger, and gritted his teeth: "Humph, he is stupid and has no brains. He was used as a gunman by a woman, ran away and did stupid things and was caught by others. We are not reasonable. There's no point in making a fuss!"

Mu Qingtian is such a smart man, otherwise he would not have been able to gradually encroach on the power of his family in just ten years, relying on the unexpected death of his tenth son, and become vaguely on an equal footing with the tenth elder.

His brain is much easier to use than Moody's.

Thinking a lot.

Mu Qingtian looked gloomy: "Even if we make a fuss, that old guy cooperates with us and pretends to be held accountable. As long as he finds out and knows that the fool did it for Elena first, do you think the ten elders will let it go?" This opportunity? He will definitely take this opportunity to bite off a piece of my flesh!"

"It's not that I'm afraid of them so I won't pursue the case, but it's for the sake of that idiot that I can only endure it."

People on the island knew it well and all agreed that the marriage contract between Elena and Ye Wangchuan existed. However, Moody went to provoke Ye Wangchuan for Elena and was seriously injured.

If word of this gets out, Moody will only become a laughing stock.

And he had no way to hold Ye Wangchuan accountable.

the reason is simple.

Mu Dixiao wanted to put his fiancée first and take action later.

No matter what the reason was for Ye Wangchuan to do this, Mu Di had to get a beating for nothing this time.

Mu Qingtian only has one son. No matter how strict he is in his discipline, he always hopes that his son will succeed, and he protects his shortcomings more than anyone else.

Moody was beaten like that and left half-dead in the hospital. How could he possibly swallow this breath?

He always needs someone to vent to.

Compared to those who hit others.

Mu Qingtian was even more angry at the person who caused the accident - Elena.

He suppressed the viciousness in his tone and said through gritted teeth, "I don't have to argue with Ye Wangchuan, but I need to remind someone not to treat my son as a fool."

The thin horse-faced man immediately understood who he was talking about: "You mean Miss Elena."

Mu Qingtian chuckled: "I was also optimistic about her. She is of noble birth, ambitious and capable, plus Mo Di likes her... I have never stopped Mo Di from getting closer to her, thinking that the overall situation in the future will be decided. , she is so smart and must know how to choose, so she may not be a good candidate for Mo Di's wife."

"But I didn't expect that she was too ambitious and too smart. She actually wanted to rely on her beauty to travel between two families...I can tolerate all this!"

Elena is ambitious and strategic.

Such people are not very sincere to begin with.

Moody couldn't see clearly.

His age should not be too clear.

"She is not only ambitious, but also greedy. Even if she is greedy, she still dares to use Moody to do things for her, which almost leads to a big mistake!"

If something happens to Qiao Nian, the Independent Zhouji Family, the First Research Institute and the Red League will not let it go, not to mention that Lu Zhi in the illegal zone seems to have different feelings from Qiao Nian.

At that time, these people will definitely avenge Qiao Nian, and Moody will become the target of public criticism and be hunted by these people. Even if he is confident that he can save his son's life, he will be annoyed to death by these people.

Chapter 4904: Mu Qingtian wants to slap Elena from the air

As for Elena.

She dealt with her love rival through Moody's hands, and someone helped her take responsibility.

She can enjoy the results without having to pay anything, pretending to be a good person to get close to Ye Wangchuan who has lost his lover...

By the time the father and son were entangled by Qiao Nian's 'friends', she would join forces with the ten elders and push the illegitimate son into the position of the new generation heir of the Theron family.

When he comes back after dealing with the external disputes, there will be nothing left...

Mu Qingtian was thinking long-term, so he was shocked by Elena's ambition and cruelty.

"I can tolerate her ambition, but I cannot tolerate her using Moody to do shameful things and become her vassal."

Mu Qingtian's throat rolled, and he turned back to look at the thin horse face, with more seriousness in his eyes: "I remember that she got a lot of private property behind the back of the Eileen family outside. Go take good care of her business and wake her up. , let her know what to do and what not to touch!"

He doesn't want to fall out with the Eileen family for the time being, otherwise Mu Qingtian will be able to crush Eileen to death for what she instigated behind her back this time.

Even if Mu Qingtian can't crush her to death for the time being, he doesn't want to make it easy for Elena.

"In addition..." He sneered: "There is a younger sister in the Irene family who is about the same age as her, and she is also very good. But she has been suppressed by her a lot in recent years, and she even coerced her elders and sent them away to study and gain experience. '."

Mu Qingtian, as an old fox, shouldn't understand Elena's thoughts too well.

Elena is ambitious and wants to climb up the ladder. She also wants to control half of the island through marriage and become a woman like Nie Qingru.

While she is working hard externally, she also does not forget to suppress her brothers and sisters at home and prevent any of her brothers and sisters from taking the spotlight.

This includes her biological sister.

Eleanor was a child who showed intelligence at the age of seven or eight, and was sent into exile by the Eileen family in her teens.

Eleanor's euphemistic claim was that she was sent out to study and gain experience by her family, but in fact she was exiled by her family and was not allowed to return to the island.

Mu Qingtian knew how to make Elena frightened and suffer, and said to Shouma Lian: "...I will personally tell the leader of the Eileen family and ask her to bring the person back. The family, my sister, was killed by everyone on the island. Surrounded like a little goddess, how can my sister be exiled outside and not be able to return home even once a year?"

"She is usually good and knowledgeable. I think she will be very happy that her sister can come home!"

Mu Qingtian was smiling, but the smile did not reach his eyes, and there was only a terrifying coldness in his eyes.

He waved his hand, as if he was tired, and said to the thin horse-faced man: "Go, you go and finish what I told you first."

"Okay, Mr. Mu." The thin horse-faced man didn't care what Mu Qingtian said to him.

After all, only those young people in Shadow Ten who have never experienced hardship will be seduced by Elena's clumsy methods. People like them who have worked hard step by step from the outer sect can see at a glance that the so-called leaders of the younger generation on the island are nothing at all. The arrogant and aloof person is not the goddess he appears to be, he is just a young man who likes to put on airs.

He bowed to Mu Qingtian, quietly turned around and left, to complete the task assigned by Mu Qingtian, and to teach the superior eldest daughter of the Irene family a lesson.

In fact, Mu Qingtian wanted to slap Elena in the face.

Chapter 4905: You just won once
at the same time.

At the end of the performance of Tsinghua University's anniversary program, Liang Conglin and Nie Mi took the stage to speak respectively and accepted interviews from the media.

Qiao Nian saw that the time was almost up, so he sent a message to Jiang Li and slipped out of the back door.

Liang Conglin wanted her to be interviewed on behalf of Tsinghua University students, but Qiao Nian had always disliked being in the news. If she didn't leave, she would be caught. She wouldn't want to be in the limelight by then.

As soon as she walked out of the Great Hall, she met someone she didn't want to meet at the corner.

"It's you?"

Steven and Elena were talking outside. Before they could say a word, they heard a noise from behind. When they looked up, they saw someone slipping out of the side door and preparing to escape.

He narrowed his blue eyes and quickly recognized that the girl in front of him wearing a peaked cap and carrying a shoulder bag was the Qing Dynasty student who had just slapped him in the face at the experimental base.

Stephen's face was not very pretty, and the look he looked at Qiao Nian was not friendly enough. He was very wary, as if Qiao Nian didn't just happen to come out of the side door, but deliberately hid there to eavesdrop on their conversation.

He said very displeasedly: "Why are you here?"

Elena naturally saw the girl coming out of the side door. She glanced at Qiao Nian's left arm and took it back. She pinched the fingers hanging by her side and dug her nails into her flesh. She tried to maintain her strength by feeling slight pain. Dress decently.

Qiao Nian didn't expect that she would meet someone she didn't want to see if she came out early, so she was only depressed for a moment. When she heard Steven's words, she raised her eyebrows, her black eyes pierced the cold mist, and she stood up straight, not used to it at all. He went back without politeness: "This is Qingdao University, where do I need to report to outsiders?"

"You!" Steven raised his eyebrows angrily before he could lower them.

He heard Qiao Nian sneer and looked at him: "Professor Steven?"

She bit the last word very hard, the title professor was more like ridicule than respect, mocking the fact that the master of physical engineering in front of her was nothing more than that.

Stephen was used to being respected by others, but this was the first time his name was called in such an unkind tone, and he frowned.

Qiao Nian didn't give him a chance to speak. Shi Shiran said, "If I remember correctly, you were the one who lost at the base a few hours ago. What? Cambridge still wants to compete?"

Her eyes gently turned between Steven and the woman next to Steven, she raised her eyes angrily, and her smile gradually faded: "...Or do you think the professor and your best student still want to discuss with me privately?"

Steven was really worried about losing the game before, so he handed Elena over alone and asked her if she knew the origin of Qiao Nian.

Before they could say a few words, they saw the person they were chatting with coming out of the side door, and were ridiculed in front of them.

Even though Steven was old, he still couldn't calm down and said sternly with an angry face: "You only won once. How immodest!"

Qiao Nian raised his hand and pulled down his peaked cap. There was no smile in his eyes, and he looked at the two people darkly, showing their shadows.

Answered in a rather casual tone: "I can win once, I can win twice, three times, countless times. I'd better keep the professor's words for myself. Cambridge needs those two words more than Tsinghua University."

Who is Steven? He can figure out what Qiao Nian is talking about even if he uses his brain a little. She is sending back words that require humility!

"you..."

"I have something else to do, so I won't accompany you anymore." Qiao Nian interrupted him rudely, and impatiently pulled off the shoulder bag strap to leave.

Chapter 4906: She is a genius, so what is Qiao Nian?

As she passed by the two of them, she suddenly thought of something, and suddenly stopped in front of them. She ignored Steven's face that was uglier than a dead man, and her eyes fell on the woman who had never spoken before, and she paused for a moment.

She could feel that the other person was tense because of her sudden stop. Her back was extremely tense and she was very alert.

Qiao Nian curled her lower lip and said as if she had no intention of saying, "You are looking at my hand."

Elena tried to stay calm and didn't want to be left behind. Her eyes flickered and she said coldly: "You are thinking too much, I didn't look."

"Oh." Qiao Nian did not argue with her, but just said: "It doesn't matter, I will check, and when I find out it is related to you..."

Qiao Nian did not continue.

But Elena is a smart person, and she instantly understood the second half of Qiao Nian's unfinished warning, pursed her lower lip, and said very bluntly: "It has nothing to do with me!"

As soon as she finished speaking, Qiao Nian was sure that Elena was responsible for the out-of-control truck outside the school gate. Even if she was not the mastermind, she must be an insider.

Because when a normal person faces this kind of questioning, the first reaction is not to deny it in a hurry, but to wonder what is wrong with her hand.

After all, Qiao Nian is very good at endurance skills. Even in the previous game, he did not show any injuries to his hands, except for Liang Conglin and Nie Mi.

No one else in Qingda University would know about her injured hand.

But Elena's reaction showed that she knew it!

Qiao Nian smiled almost immediately, but he just smiled and did not do anything at this moment. He pulled down his peaked cap, looked away, and walked away without looking back.

Today is the 100th anniversary of Tsinghua University. Elena is here on behalf of a prestigious overseas university. Even if they really have conflicts, Qiao Nian tends to resolve them privately.

Rather than destroying the image of the school out of anger.

She will investigate clearly.

If Elena is involved, she won't let it go.

The girl's back quickly disappeared from sight.

Stephen suppressed his extremely ugly expression and spoke to his student with a sullen face: "What was she talking about just now? What is she trying to check? Do you know each other?"

"I don't know, are you having a seizure? I've only met her twice, so we're not familiar, not even friends." Elena was in a bad mood at the moment, and countless things were entangled in her mind, which was about to become a mess. Mao Yao, I don't have the patience to explain.

"Huh." Steven suppressed his anger, but was still dissatisfied with Qiao Nian's previous attitude, and said coldly: "Today's young people are too uneducated, and I don't know how Qingda University taught her."

Elena didn't answer, still thinking about her own things.

She didn't know how much Qiao Nian had seen, why he suddenly stopped and asked her if she was involved, and whether she would be traced...

She didn't even hear what Steven was saying.

She just felt that nothing had gone as she wished recently. Not only did she hit a wall this time, but she also lost to the opponent several times in a row in areas where she was good at.

She was really caught off guard, and her heart began to waver, and she began to doubt whether the teachers, Shadow Ten, and others who said she was a genius were actually telling the truth.

Since she is a genius, who does Qiao Nian count?

Elena pursed her lower lip, not caring about the dissatisfaction of her tutor in the field of physics. She raised her head and suddenly interrupted the other person: "Teacher, it's almost time, let's go in. Otherwise, people from other schools will gossip when they find out that we are not here."

Chapter 4907: Now the fire is burning on myself

Steven seemed to have his neck stuck. He stopped complaining, took a deep breath, suppressed all the dissatisfaction in his heart, and thought that he would give the student eye drops in front of Liang Conglin later and restore the usual reserve that a master should have. Turning around and walking in front: "Let's go in together."

Elena's cell phone rang. She took it out and looked at the caller ID, then stopped and said to the person walking in front: "Teacher, please go in first, I will answer the call."

Stephen looked back and saw that her phone was on, but without saying anything, he gave her a few words and went in first.

There are many media reporters in the General Assembly Hall.

As one of the representatives of prestigious overseas universities, it is really hard for him to leave for too long, otherwise it will not only disgrace himself, but also the face of overseas countries.

Stephen ignored Elena and went in first.

Outside.

Elena found a deserted corner and answered the phone.

"What's wrong? Didn't I tell you not to call me?" She was in a bad mood and her tone was bad.

The person on the other end of the phone panicked and said anxiously: "Miss, something happened to our business. Several of our offices were vandalized. There was also a problem with the stock company. Someone revealed some of our side operations. The FBI has already An investigation has begun."

Elena didn't react to his words for a long time, and she was slow for a moment: "What?"

The person on the other end of the phone tried his best to calm down and repeated what he had said before, explaining in detail what problems he had encountered that were difficult to solve.

Elena heard clearly this time, and her beautiful and proud face rarely showed a look of frustration: "What's going on? Who did it!"

She has always been ambitious and unwilling to be led by others.

Ever since she left the island and studied outside, she has been relying on her connections and Moody's help to establish a lot of her own power.

The person on the other end of the phone was the professional manager she was looking for to help her manage her personal property. He has been doing a good job over the years and has made her personal business bigger and bigger.

The companies and companies in her hands are enough to support her prosperity on the island in the past few years, and they are also one of the reasons for her growing voice in the Erin family.

How could everything happen overnight?

Moreover, the other party also accurately hit several of her most important companies and strongholds. It has to be said that no matter how calm and rational Elena is, she was still annoyed by this sudden news.

"Is it...F continent?" Her first reaction was Qiao Nian.

Because Qiao Nian had just threatened her.

She suspected that Qiao Nian would directly retaliate against her without checking.

But Elena felt vaguely that it was impossible. Even if Qiao Nian retaliated against her, it would be impossible for him to find out her details so clearly.

After all, these companies are Elena's private industries that are hidden from everyone. People in the Erin family only know that she has her own influence outside, but they don't know what they are.

Does Qiao Nian have this ability?

Just when she was suspicious, the person on the other end of the phone said with certainty: "It's not Continent F, it's a bit like...like..."

"explain!"

Elena was extremely irritated this time and just wanted to find out who did it immediately.

I heard the person on the other end of the phone hesitantly: "It's a bit like the handwriting on the island."

"..." Elena took a breath and almost suffocated. She couldn't believe her ears, and asked in an erratic voice: "Where do you think it looks like?"

"Island."

Elena felt that her anger was about to burst out, and she lost her temper again.

Chapter 4908: Sorry, you can't go in

Soon she knew the reason why the "island" did this.

—Moody is in hospital.

She left Qingda University in a hurry and sat in the car going to the hospital.

The driver felt the coldness all over her body and remained silent all the way, not daring to say a word to her. He finally drove to the hospital.

Elena hurriedly got out of the car and strode toward the ward.

At this time, Bo Jingxing had already left, taking his people with him, giving Zumu Di and the people on the island a chance to take over.

Two shadow guards outside the ward did their best to stop people.

He raised his arms and said expressionlessly to Elena who rushed over: "I'm sorry, Miss Eileen, you can't go in."

"What did you say?" Elena's beautiful brows furrowed, a pair of angry eyes shot over, and she coldly ordered: "Get out of the way!"

The two shadow guards did not move out of the way, but remained motionless in the front, saying very conscientiously: "Miss Eileen, you can't go in."

Elena suppressed the anger in her eyes, took a half step back and asked, "Who asked you to stop me? Moody?"

The shadow guards on the island have been trained, and they are not people who can be persuaded by just a few words. The expressions of the two of them almost did not change, like two eternal hard rocks that just refused to get out of the way.

"I'm sorry, Miss Eileen."

Elena pinched the palms of her hands and tried to calm her breathing so as not to be irritated by the small obstruction in front of her and lose her mind.

She took a deep breath, grimaced, and said to the two shadow guards blocking the way: "I just went in to see him, and I won't hurt him. Based on my relationship with Moody, you shouldn't stop me."

The two shadow guards just refused to give in, turning a deaf ear to what she said, as if two stone tablets were blocking the way, preventing Elena from passing.

Seeing that it didn't make sense, Elena was about to take out her mobile phone to call Moody. From the corner of her eye, she saw the assistant Moody usually brought with him come out of another ward with the help of a nurse.

She simply gave up on forcing her way in, grabbed the assistant's arm in three steps at a time, stopped the person, and asked the nurse to go away first.

"I have something to ask you."

"Miss Eileen?" The assistant saw Elena's surprised expression and immediately said to the nurse taking care of him: "I'll go get the medicine later. It's troublesome."

"Okay." The nurse didn't want to get involved in the private conversation between the two, so she readily agreed, took her notebook and went to take care of other patients.

Moody's assistant then turned back to Elena and said, "Miss, let's go over there and talk."

He limped ahead and led the way.

Elena followed him.

The two of them walked to the corner of the corridor. The assistant stopped first, carefully observed the surrounding environment, and made sure that few people were passing by, and then relaxed.

He looked at Elena, as if he knew what Elena was going to ask, and said directly: "This time, Mr. Mu was alarmed. Mr. Mu was very angry. He specially called and scolded those of us who were taking care of Young Master Mu, and returned the money to Mr. Mu. I will recruit a few people around you. These people only listen to Mr. Mu, so... Miss, don't mind."

"You mean those people at the door are Mr. Mu..." Elena instantly understood why those people didn't take her seriously.

The assistant nodded: "Well, Mr. Mu hasn't woken up yet. Just wait until Mr. Mu wakes up."

"..." Elena didn't speak, her face was extremely solemn.

She knew Moody better than anyone.

It was impossible for Mu Di to disobey her father's order. If Mu Qingtian spoke up, it would be difficult for her to see Mu Di.

Chapter 4909: Only then did she know how Mu Qingtian wanted to take revenge on her

"Young Master Mu has undergone surgery and received general anesthesia. I don't know when he will wake up. Miss, why don't you go back and wait for news? When Young Master Mu wakes up, he will take the initiative to contact you."

The assistant can't take care of the arrangements above. He just knows his master's feelings for the girl in front of him after following Moody for many years, so he is willing to take the risk to reveal some information to Elena in private.

By the way, I would like to explain that many of my masters did not let Elena in, but the masters were still in a coma and did not know anything.

"Master Mu was seriously injured this time, and his left hand was almost broken."

"Left hand?" Elena was still immersed in thinking about why Mu Qingtian did this, and when she heard this sentence, she guessed something.

The assistant was a little surprised: "You don't know?"

Seeing his expression of 'You didn't know you came to the hospital', Elena pressed the bulging veins on her forehead and said patiently: "I just heard that he was hospitalized, and I haven't had time to figure out the reason yet."

The assistant did not hide anything from her and told Elena everything about how they were kidnapped as soon as they left Qin's Building and how they were taken to a box and beaten.

Elena is a smart person, and she would like to make a connection between what he said and her own experience of being blocked from the ward.

It was immediately clear that Mu Qingtian knew what she was doing behind her back.

Elena's face became extremely ugly, she pinched her palms and didn't speak for a long time.

Mu Di is easy to deceive, but Mu Qingtian is not easy to deceive at all.

It should be said that none of the old people on the island is easy to deceive. Otherwise, for so long, even though she is the best among the younger generation on the island, in fact, no old person is willing to put a bargaining chip on her... These old guys want to have 700 tricks. Once they are targeted, they will never get any good results.

Elena quickly understood why her companies and markets had been tampered with.

Why do those people know her core power accurately?

Because the person behind the scenes was none other than Mu Qingtian!

Over the years, she has been using the connections in Mo Di's hands to revitalize those businesses, and everything about Mo Di comes from Mu Qingtian.

Mu Di cannot escape Mu Qingtian's control.

So Mu Qingtian knew everything about her.

Mu Qingtian didn't care before because she wanted to sell her brother out and was too lazy to take care of it.

This time Mu Qingtian took action, just to teach her a lesson, let her remember it, and warn her that no matter what she thinks about next time, she can't use her ideas on Mu Di.

Elena's hands and feet were cold, she felt like she had been slapped hard, her throat felt fishy and sweet, and she could only swallow this dumb loss.

Mu Qingtian will only redouble his revenge on her if this matter becomes a problem.

She can only accept these losses as if nothing happened.

Elena understood the whole story and knew what Mu Qingtian meant, so she stopped humiliating herself in front of Mo Di's ward. She hurried over and left the hospital in despair.

She returned to the hotel, and before she could take a breath, she received another call from home, telling her that Mr. Mu had brought her biological sister who was living abroad back to the island...

Elena tried her best to deal with the 'family' on the other end, but when she saw that the family was determined to ask Eleanor to go home, even her faint threats were useless. There was no room for change, so she suppressed her rising anger. hang up the phone.

The moment she hung up the phone, a flood of frustration and shock hit her brain. Veins popped out in her neck, and she slammed the phone against the wall.

It was broken into pieces and fell to the ground.

Make a loud 'pop' sound.

Chapter 4910: Sister Nian: Accompany me to catch someone

Elena's eyelids were red, she gasped and squeezed out two words: "Qiao Nian!"

She changed her mind.

At the same time, the person she was thinking about left Qingda University and found a health clinic. She bandaged the wound on her shoulder and gave her two injections of penicillin to prevent tetanus. She then pulled down her sleeves and made a phone call like a normal person. , and soon a big G stopped in front of her and rolled down the window.

"Hey~" the person inside whistled, raised his eyebrows like a rogue, his peach blossom eyes were burning: "Hey, we are so busy, are we willing to find me?"

Qiao Nian opened the car door with one hand and said to him: "Don't talk nonsense."

Then he quickly got into the car, put on his seat belt, leaned back, and sat lazily in the passenger seat: "Help me go to the airport to catch someone."

Wei Lou turned the steering wheel with one hand, and the Mercedes-Benz G63 spun in a circle, turned around and drove towards the airport. He said unforgivingly: "How did you know that you asked me to accompany you to arrest someone this time? Where is that person?"

Qiao Nian was very tired after taking injections and taking medicine. Hearing this, she glanced sideways at him and saw his short, stiff hair, which was cut to only an inch. She pressed the corners of her mouth and said, "I don't want him to know."

Wei Lou: "?"

Qiao Nian didn't explain much, just leaned on the back of the leather chair and said to him: "I'll close my eyes and sleep for a while. You drive more slowly."

Wei Lou has been friends with her for many years. Even if he no longer has the intention to pursue her, he still treats her as sincere friends. Seeing that she was really tired, he didn't say anything more.

The big G drove steadily towards the airport.

Airport.

The radio starts broadcasting the boarding reminder.

“Passengers heading to country m, please be aware that the plane is about to take off, please board the plane as soon as possible.”

The people on that flight heard the announcement and queued up at the boarding gate to check in and prepare to board the plane.

In order to keep a low profile and not attract other people’s attention, Nie Tao deliberately chose economy class this time and blended in with the crowd to board the flight back. He did not dare to use a private plane to enter the country.

Because private jets need to be reviewed by the aviation bureau before entering, personal information can easily be exposed.

He can only use a false identity to pretend to be an ordinary person visiting Beijing, so that he can sneak in in the most inconspicuous and convenient way.

As long as he takes off smoothly and returns to his territory, even if Qiao Nian finds something later, there is nothing he can do against him!

After all, once he returns to Continent M, due to the conflict between the Hidden Family and Qiao Nian, no matter what he does, the Archbishop and the others will definitely find a way to keep him this time.

After all, the Hidden Family has already lost one Nie Qingru, which is enough to embarrass the whole world.

If you can't protect your own people at this juncture, it will be a shame to be thrown into the grandma's house.

This is one of the reasons why Nie Tao dared to do this this time.

He and his family couldn't swallow the fact that Qiao Nian took away the shares of Smith Bank. Qiao Nian wanted more and was too greedy.

Shaken their foundations.

The old man at home has been so angry that he has frequently been admitted to the hospital recently. They contacted Beijing City several times, but Qiao Nianli ignored them.

Nie Tao was extremely angry before he agreed to cooperate with that person and teach Qiao Nian a 'lesson'.

In his thoughts.

Since Qiao Nian refuses to care about family ties and cannot be used by them, she might as well be destroyed.

It's a pity that the driver is so useless!

He found a kidney source for his woman and gave her money for surgery. The driver promised that he would handle the matter, but he still failed to kill Qiao Nian.

Beijing City is not their territory after all, and Nie Tao really can't stir up any big trouble except for using some tricks.

He failed, so he had to go back first.
