

Madam's 4931

Chapter 4931: She has to get this man!

Elena clinked glasses noncommittally, raised her head and took a sip of champagne, feeling happy: "I have achieved my goal, there is no need to continue. Continuing will only make Mr. Ye hate me. My goal is not to make him hate me. ."

Her target is Ye Wangchuan.

This time the goal is very clear, she must * the man from Qiao Nian.

In the past half month, she returned to the island with Mu Di and saw Mu Qingtian's attitude thoroughly.

Mu Qingtian first deprived Mu Di of all his power, then put him under house arrest and did not allow them to meet. Even when Ying Ten came forward to make an appointment, Mu Qingtian didn't give him any face and wouldn't let Mu Di come out...

Even though Elena was angry, she also understood. In the past, Mu Qingtian turned a blind eye to the matter between her and Mo Di and agreed to her riding a donkey to find a horse.

Now Mu Qingtian has changed his mind!

Mu Qingtian will no longer allow Mo Di to become a fish in her fish pond, and will definitely find a suitable marriage partner for Mo Di during this period of time.

She never allowed herself to become the abandoned person.

Since she didn't want to be laughed at by the people on the island, she had to capture Ye Wangchuan before Mu Qingtian found that person.

She must get this man, and her marriage with the Theron family will be confirmed!

She wants to support Ye Wangchuan, stand on the side of the ten elders, and bet that her status will be even higher in the future.

Elena shook the goblet in her hand and watched the liquid in the glass swaying. She felt calmer than ever before. She quietly said to Wei Ling: "The purpose of my coming here today is just to tell everyone in the capital that Wang Chuan only has one fiancée." ,that's me."

"I am the fiancée set by his mother for him. Even if my grandfather kisses me, he can't kiss his mother...so even if it is better than this, my marriage contract is stronger!"

Only the person who loses in the end is called Xiao San.

She must be the winner.

Wei Ling knew there was something sinister about this as early as when Elena came to the door. She curled her lips in disdain, laughing at Elena's self-deception in her heart, but she followed her and said: "What you said makes sense. I I would like to congratulate Miss Eileen in advance."

She clinked glasses with Elena and did it herself. Then he showed Elena the wine glass from which she had drunk a clean glass, her eyes burning: "Our cooperation with Lavida Technology..."

Elena's posture was relaxed, looking at her like a lackey she had raised, and said comfortingly: "Don't worry, since I promised to take you to play, I will definitely take you."

Wei Ling put her heart back in her stomach and stopped bringing up this topic, but continued to compliment Elena in other ways.

This is not an island, and there are no outsiders here. There was only one Wei Ling who wanted to be with her, and she had no need to hide her true feelings, so she just raised the corners of her lips the whole time, enjoying Wei Ling's compliments to her...

At the same time, many people at the banquet were still talking about her.

"When did a fiancée appear in the Ye family? Doesn't that person have a fiancée? What does this mean, two fiancées?"

"Didn't you hear that she came here under the arrangement of 'Auntie'? Young Master Ye's mother has been missing for twenty years, right?"

"This is wonderful."

"Which one do you think Mr. Ye will choose?"

"What's the point? In the past two years, Mr. Ye has been doting on that guy!"

"But now this seems to be arranged by Young Master Ye's mother, who knows what the final choice will be."

Everyone's talk revolved around Elena.

It can be said that she made her sudden appearance today and announced her identity, which made everyone pay attention to her.

Chapter 4932: Don't talk nonsense

Li De opened his mouth slightly and turned his head with a look of disbelief on his face: "She is Mr. Wan's fiancée? Who is this? Isn't Mr. Wan's fiancée Miss Qiao?"

A friend who played well with Li De recognized her: "I've seen her! She was very close to Haitong before and said they were classmates. Haitong also took her to play with my sister. When my sister came back She told me... that she is the sister of Mr. Mu of Lavidia Technology, who is very famous in Beijing these days."

Another person chimed in: "Mr. Mu of Lavidia Technology broke his hand in a car accident and has returned to China for treatment."

Only a few people knew about the fact that Mu Di was taken to the "Ji" box by Ye Wangchuan and beaten up.

Bo Jingxing is different from Qin Si in that he has a strict mouth.

So even Zhang Yang didn't know about it.

But that doesn't stop Zhang Yang from guessing some of the inside story.

"Mr. Mu of Lavidia Technology has gone back. Why is his sister still staying in the capital? Could it be that the two families are getting married? Mr. Wan doesn't seem like someone who would accept a marriage."

He had a solemn expression and reprimanded him rudely: "What are you two guessing here? Didn't you see the eldest lady and they didn't recognize it? Look back and watch your mouth, don't go out with a loudspeaker as if you were going out. Nonsense. If you let me know that you are spreading rumors... we will all stop playing together in the future."

The marriage between Cen and Li is not a big event in Beijing. If Ye Maoshan had not agreed to support it, not many people would have come today.

Even though many people came to support Ye Maoshan today, there were only a few people from the top circles.

For example, no one from the Wen family or the Wei family came.

Zhang Yang's status in Beijing has risen sharply in the past two years, and the people around him seem to follow his lead. When he spoke, others did not dare to offend him even if they wanted to gossip.

Everyone smiled apologetically: "Brother Yang, don't worry, you don't know how many of our brothers are there? Let's talk about it in private. After leaving this door, I didn't see or hear anything today. Even if I Mom asks, I don't know either."

"That is to say, Brother Yang, don't worry."

"We don't talk nonsense."

"Um."

Zhang Yang responded, turned around and said to Li De, who was still out of the situation: "Go and ask your uncle and aunt, check the guest list, how she got in."

"You mean Elena?"

Zhang Yang found a corner where he would not be easily disturbed, took a glass of red wine, and observed the 'uninvited guests' who broke into the banquet from a distance.

Elena was able to act like a normal person despite being looked at by many people. She talked to Wei Ling when she needed to, and clinked glasses with people who came over to say hello when she needed to. Her words and deeds were generous and graceful, and she couldn't find any faults. Come.

Zhang Yang had a sixth sense that she was pretending.

Different from Ye Wangchuan and Bo Jingxing, his family is involved in the entertainment industry, and he often encounters women at dinner parties who throw themselves at him and ask for resources.

He has seen all kinds of women, many of them, and he is quite vicious.

He could see through Elena's restless soul at a glance. She was ambitious and calm enough. Such a woman is not easy to get rid of.

Zhang Yang didn't know the other party's background, so he didn't go up to test him easily.

Chapter 4933: This time I came out with my real identity.

After he waited for Li De to find out from his family how Elena came in, he pursed his lower lip and his head hurt even more.

"You said she is the boss of HL Media?"

HL Media is a large multinational media company that has emerged in the past few years. It has many trolls and marketing accounts on foreign social media software such as INS and Facebook.

The company's operations are very complex. It is involved in the investment and entertainment circles, and it also has public relations cooperation with many nobles and royal families.

It can be said that HL Media Company is a good player in foreign public relations. It is also very good at AI control and evaluation developed by itself. Recently, it has also entered the hot short video field.

They have developed relevant software and are promoting it globally.

Short videos are a hot topic right now, and hot money from around the world is flowing into the short video field, among which TT is the most successful.

The boss behind TT has not yet appeared. Only the executive CEO has been pushed to the stage to be interviewed and manage the company.

HL is one of the best among the new generation of short video software that emerged after TT. Once the follow-up financing is successful.

The industry predicts that HL will become a strong rival of TT.

TT's boss was recently listed as the world's richest man by World Financial Magazine. If HL can successfully rise, Elena's worth will be immeasurable.

The key is that she is still so young!

Had Zhang Yang not hung out with Qiao Nian so much and had seen the abilities of geniuses in this world, he would have been amazed by Elena.

However, he had been hanging out with Qiao Nian for a long time and had met Qiao Nian and the kingdom behind him. He was slightly surprised by the news that Alina was the boss of HL Media. He accepted it well and quickly controlled his emotions.

"She came to the big room this time. She seems to be very confident in herself! It's interesting." Zhang Yang asked Li De not to reveal Elena's identity to others as much as possible.

I went out and made a phone call.

He told Ye Wangchuan about the episode that happened at today's engagement party, and finally told him the identity that Li De found out.

"Li De found out that she did not rely on others to get the invitation letter this time, but came as the boss of HL Media. It seems that she plans to stay in Beijing for a long time. Do you need me to suppress the news? Miss Qiao... I'm afraid it will affect her if she hears it. Feeling."

Rhine.

Ye Wangchuan received this call when he got up at noon. He pressed his left hand on the back of his neck where he slept with a stiff neck last night. His deep eyes narrowed slightly: "...you said she told people everywhere that she was my fiancée?"

Zhang Yang said: "She blocked Mr. Ye's way in public and introduced herself as your fiancée. It can be predicted that after the engagement banquet is over, rumors will spread in the circle that you have two fiancées."

"Heh." Ye Wangchuan didn't care about Elena's boasting and said calmly: "Don't worry about her. I have my own arrangements."

"Okay." Zhang Yang breathed a sigh of relief and said with a smile: "My friend's hot pot restaurant has launched a new product. I wonder if Miss Qiao has time to try it? If Miss Qiao wants to go, I will have someone prepare the dishes in advance."

Qiao Nian doesn't like French food or Western food.

She likes the taste of S province.

Even the always proud Mr. Wan has changed his hobbies. Recently, he has been eating a lot of hot pot restaurants, mutton-boiled meat, and various roadside stalls.

Of course, Qiao Nian doesn't only eat these, there are private restaurants such as Guanlan, Fusheng Sanchong, Tingchao and others ordered by Mr. Ye and Jiang Zongjin.

She also went there frequently.

But Qiao Nian's favorite is the hot pot restaurant opened by Zhang Yang's friend.

Chapter 4934: Promise him to attend the afternoon activities

The taste is spicy and authentic. Among the sweet restaurants in Beijing, it is one of the few restaurants that maintains the original taste of hot pot.

He is now the major shareholder of this hot pot restaurant, so he asked his friend to be the boss in name only, so as not to make his licking too obvious and make Qiao miss it.

With just one word, he could have the restaurant booked out and closed to accommodate just one table for Qiao Nian and the others.

"Master Wang, are you going to see Miss Qiao?"

Ye Wangchuan drooped his eyelashes, suppressed the helplessness in his eyes, and pondered for a moment and said: "She can't eat spicy food recently, let's wait for a while."

"Okay." Zhang Yang was very discerning. Even if he wanted to seize the opportunity to curry favor with Qiao Nian, he would not go too far.

He knew how to measure and said to Ye Wangchuan: "Whenever Miss Qiao wants to eat, please send me a message at any time. I will arrange it."

"Um."

Ye Wangchuan saw how much he was trying to please him, so he responded calmly, to give Zhang Yang some face and accept his offer.

As expected, Zhang Yang immediately realized what was going on and said, "I won't disturb Mr. Wang anymore, bye."

ifier

It's twelve o'clock noon.

He pushed the door open and went out, just in time to see Gu San coming out with a hot meal. There was already someone sitting in the restaurant.

The girl was still wearing a pullover hoodie, and the white hoodie she wore was refreshing and clean. However, the girl's brows were downcast. When she saw him coming, she said hello in a hoarse voice: "Good morning."

"Morning." Ye Wangchuan took the glass of water and handed it to her, pulled out the chair opposite her and sat down: "Would you like to go out with me this afternoon?"

Qiao Nian was eating the steak in front of him. Hearing this, he put down his knife and fork and glanced at him: "Where are you going?"

"There is... a fashion circle event inviting me. I need a female companion." Ye Wangchuan said very naturally: "You don't need to dress specially, just go with me."

As soon as Qiao Nian heard about any activity, one of her heads was bigger than the other two. She supported her forehead with her hands and asked with clear eyes, "I have to go?"

Ye Wangchuan touched the resistance in her eyes and was no longer willing to give up. He threw all the previous calculations behind him and looked into the girl's beautiful eyes and said: "It's not necessary. If you don't want to go, don't go."

Qiao Nian's IQ is over 200, and it's not like she is blind and can't tell that he has something to do before she lets her go. However, in the blink of an eye, she relents: "I'll go."

Ye Wangchuan raised the corners of his lips: "Would you like me to call you the stylist?"

Qiao Nian glanced at him sideways: "You're not saying that I can wear whatever I want."

Ye Wangchuan's eyes were full of adoration. He helped her pick up a strand of hair that fell by her ear, and then withdrew his hand: "As long as you don't mind, that's fine."

Qiao Nian's earlobe brushed against the warm touch of his fingertips, and her heart was tingling and tingling with dense currents. Her back relaxed a lot, she looked back and said lazily: "You can call a stylist, I don't wear anything too complicated. And don't let them put too much on my face."

Gu San also brought the remaining sweet soup and fruits.

"Master Wang, Miss Qiao, do you want coffee?"

"She doesn't want a glass of iced Americano." Ye Wangchuan held the silver tableware in his slender hand, elegant and graceful.

"Okay." Gu San turned around and was about to leave, but was stopped again.

Ye Wangchuan said: "Ask my sister's stylist Andy to come over this afternoon."

Chapter 4935: What a coincidence, I didn't expect to meet you here

Gu San was busy in the kitchen just now and didn't hear them talking. Suddenly he heard Ye Wangchuan asking the stylist to be stunned for a moment and reacted immediately.

"Okay, Mr. Wang."

"Go ahead."

Ye Wangchuan Songkou.

Gu San got inside again to make coffee.

The most prosperous business district in Beijing.

DM is located here.

Today, Beijing, which has not seen a sunny day for a long time, ushered in the long-awaited good weather. The sunshine cast a golden light on the rows of high-rise buildings in the central business district.

Several nanny vans were parked outside an independent building in the Central Business District. All the ladies and celebrities who were going to attend fashion parties in the afternoon came here to do their styling.

Andy has been famous for a long time.

Before she returned to China, she worked in Hollywood, and she worked with all international top models, superstars, and daughters of global families.

Later, she returned to China to develop and establish DM, which has a very high status in the industry.

She is different from ordinary stylists.

Ordinary stylists will beg to work with these celebrities and ladies.

DM is not.

Domestic high-profile celebrities and socialites in turn beg DM to style their hair.

So DM does not provide door-to-door service.

Those who want to do styling must make an appointment three months in advance, and then come to your door on time and wait for the styling team to start work.

Even so, not everyone can find Andy himself to cooperate with.

Most of the celebrities and socialites who come to seek cooperation are received and served by Andy's work team. Andy himself only styles a very small number of people.

Tang Ning came here at ten o'clock in the morning. She is not a high-ranking person, and she is not a demon. She came early to change clothes and wait according to the DM's requirements, and did her hair and makeup with others in the hall below.

Styling is time-consuming.

She had been sitting in front of the dressing table for three hours and had just done her hair. Her agent brought her a glass of water.

"Drink some water. You won't be able to drink water when you put on makeup later."

"Thanks."

Tangning took a few sips from the water glass and moistened her throat. Just as she was about to talk to her agent, she heard noise coming from the door.

She raised her eyes and saw a group of people walking in, surrounded by a beautiful lady with wavy hair.

But the warm sunshine in winter is not dazzling.

But the other party wore sunglasses that covered most of her face, with only her pointed chin exposed. The woman looked superior from head to toe, even in her hair.

After the other party came in, he raised his hand and took off his sunglasses, revealing his beautiful almond eyes. He arrogantly stopped a DM staff member and raised his chin slightly.

"Where is Andy?"

"The teacher is upstairs."

Si Xue lifted her hair and gave the assistant beside her a wink. The other person immediately took the sunglasses she handed over with both hands and carefully coaxed: "Sister Xue, let's go up."

"Yes." The bright and beautiful lady responded softly and walked inside.

Tang Ning held the water glass in her hand. She was not surprised by the scene in front of her. She quickly averted her gaze and used it as a qualified backdrop, pretending that she didn't see anything.

But she didn't want to cause trouble.

It doesn't mean that others don't want to cause trouble.

Someone who was about to go upstairs noticed her for some reason, and suddenly stopped walking. As if he had just seen her, he greeted her in surprise: "Tangning? You are here too."

Here it comes... The string in Tangning's mind sounded like an alarm, and she reflexively raised a smile: "Ah, Si Xue. I didn't expect to see you here. It's been a long time."

Chapter 4936: I also came to Andy for styling.

Si Xue, as a well-deserved top female in the country, immediately looked her up and down, caught a glimpse of the off-season dress she was wearing, then looked away, and said reservedly: "I made an appointment with Teacher Andy."

She immediately said: "You also made an appointment with DM, so what..."

The words were not finished, but the meaning was expressed clearly.

You also made an appointment with DM, but why are you sitting in the lobby on the first floor still wearing an out-of-season dress?

Tang Ning sighed inwardly. The expression on her face did not change, and she still maintained enough politeness: "I can't date Teacher Andy."

Si Xue's vanity was greatly satisfied, and she shouted again, covering her mouth with an 'embarrassed' smile and said: "That's it, look at me. I'm just asking a few questions, don't worry."

"Well, I know you were just asking casually." Tangning didn't want to cause trouble, nor did she want to provoke someone like her boss Xue, so she almost immediately went down the steps.

Si Xue was very satisfied that she knew the current affairs well enough. After achieving her goal of attracting people, she was too lazy to look at this little star who was not a third-tier star. She lifted up her skirt and prepared to go up to see her stylist for the day...

She is a contract artist of Pan-Star Entertainment and is also the company's first sister. She has been in the industry for eight years. In addition to her popularity, she has also filmed many hit TV series.

Si Xue herself is also the daughter of the vice president of Pan-Star Entertainment. She came with her own resources when she debuted. She is popular and has resources. It is not wrong to say that she is a little princess in the entertainment industry.

She has been developing smoothly since her debut. Few female celebrities are as popular as her and her fans are crazy.

Normally speaking, such a celebrity is not even close to Tang Ning, so the two of them shouldn't get into trouble. However, Si Xue's partner, Jiang Li, who is also one of the top celebrities in the entertainment industry at the moment, had a scandal with Tang Ning. The scandal was quite big... In addition, fans discovered that Tang Ning was also pretty and had good looks, and netizens started gossiping about Jiang Li. , always compare the two together.

In terms of popularity and performance, Si Xue surpassed Tang Ning by eight blocks.

But in terms of appearance and temperament, Si Xue is slightly inferior to Tang Ning.

Si Xue's own fans must insist that Tang Ning is not as good as Si Xue, but not everyone is a fan of Si Xue.

There are always one or two passers-by who tell the truth in those news reports, saying that Tang Ning's facial features are superior and her temperament is more majestic.

Si Xue is a little princess who wants to be popular in the circle, and she does have some interest in Jiang Li, but she just doesn't like Tang Ning.

She didn't find trouble once or twice, and Tang Ning was used to it. As long as Si Xue didn't go too far, she would just step on it.

Tang Ning usually treats it as a dog bite and endures it.

Who caused the decline of the Tang family? Si Xue's family was not powerful, but it was better than the current Tang family. Tang Ning didn't want to offend her and cause trouble for the family.

However, every time Tangning's manager, Ms. Wen, sees her artist being bullied, she still can't help but complain: "She just wants to show off that she can work with Andy, so she's pretending to be a big-tailed wolf."

Tangning didn't care: "It's great that she can work with Andy. There are not many female celebrities in the industry who can do it themselves. She should be the highlight of the red carpet today."

The most amazing thing about Andy is not how good she is at styling, but her close relationship with major luxury brands, and she is able to get collections of dresses from brands.

"She is also relying on her family connections, otherwise her status would not be enough to attract Andy's favor." Sister Wen was unconvinced.

Tangning was very calm: "The relationship in the family is also about strength, and the circle is very realistic. No one really doesn't care about these."

Sister Wen stopped talking.

Because she could imagine how Si Xue would ridicule them when she met Si Xue again at the event in the afternoon... They could only suffer in vain.

Just imagining that scene made Tangning's manager feel extremely uncomfortable.

But things were not going so smoothly in the separate dressing room upstairs.

As soon as Si Xue entered the door, she sat down and the staff gave her a glass of water. She crossed her legs and was playing with her mobile phone while waiting for Andy to come over and do some styling.

I heard my manager talking anxiously to someone outside.

"Teacher Andy, you can't leave. Our artist has already come here. If you leave at this time, what will happen to our artist? We can't find someone temporarily."

"I'll call you someone again."

"But Teacher Andy... we have made an appointment with you. If we hadn't made an appointment with you, we wouldn't have made time to come here. Isn't it appropriate for you to suddenly switch to an assistant for us to do the styling?"

"I have to leave for something. If you agree to change, I will change. If you don't agree, I will go through the breach of contract process. I will pay you liquidated damages! But I can't do her look today. You are just talking about it. If I can't do it, I will do it. No. You either find someone to do it, or you don't do it."

The woman who was talking to her agent had a cold tone and raised her voice. It was obvious that she was unhappy.

"I still have something to do, please get out of the way and don't block my way."

As a top player, Si Xue was always held in the center by others, but this was the first time that someone stepped in and let him go.

She couldn't help but walked out of the room and saw two people confronting each other in the corridor.

One is her agent, and the other is Andy, the styling guru in the industry.

Andy was followed by several assistants, who were busy moving clothes. Si Xue himself had a good family background and had been a top-notch person for many years.

At a glance, it can be seen that the row of clothes hanging on the hangers are all limited editions of the season, and there are also many top-notch clothes that belong to the brand's collection and can be displayed in museums.

As long as she wears one of these casually, she will be the focus of the spotlight today.

Hands will appear online immediately.

Her fashion resources will be much better later.

Si Xue's eyes were hot when she met Andy's extremely impatient gaze. She suppressed her usual bad temper and became extra docile: "Teacher Andy."

"Hmm." Andy knew her. He had met Si Xue several times at some brand press conferences before. Si Xue greeted her warmly every time and even gave DM a gift during holidays.

Although Si Xue's approach is what most people in the circle do, Si Xue, as a top-notch person, still knows how to behave.

Andy himself has a good impression of her.

So even though she was busy leaving now, when Si Xue came out in person, her attitude was much gentler than when she was communicating with her agent. She rarely explained: "I'm letting you go this time. I'm sorry, if you still use DM's stylist, I can help you with your styling next time, and I can also help you with your V magazine cover. If you don't want to use DM's styling anymore, I will compensate you for liquidated damages."

Si Xue bit her lower lip, her almond-shaped eyes twinkling, and whispered softly: "Teacher Andy, can you tell me whose style you want to help? I'm just curious."

Andy would definitely not be able to go out and play with him and so many clothes.

That is, someone also wants Andy to do makeup, and Andy chooses to put makeup on that person even if she doesn't.

Chapter 4938: Doing things secretly

Si Xue was extremely annoyed, but he still maintained a gentle and innocent mask on his face, as if he was just asking out of curiosity and had no ill intentions.

Andy has seen too many dirty tricks in the entertainment industry and does not believe that there are noobs in the entertainment industry. He immediately frowned, but he extended his hand to avoid hitting the smiling person, and still gave her some face: "She is not from the entertainment industry."

Andy's point is over.

Si Xue gritted her silver teeth and called her agent: "Okay, Sister Wen, if Teacher Andy is busy, we will just find other stylists to do the styling. Get out of the way quickly, don't waste the teacher's time."

"But..." They were on the front line and had never encountered a situation where a stylist had to leave temporarily. Sister Wen was very unwilling to do so.

Si Xue was very forceful: "No but, let Teacher Andy do his work first."

Sister Wen reluctantly gave way and received an admiring look from Andy. Before she left, she said to Si Xue: "You are very sensible and I like it very much. I will introduce some friends to you this afternoon."

Andy has a high status in the fashion circle and knows many big names in the foreign fashion industry. Her willingness to go through the motions is a blessing that celebrities cannot ask for.

Even though Si Xue was a top class teacher, she was extremely surprised when she heard this. She couldn't hide her excitement and thanked her: "Thank you, teacher."

"Hmm." Andy didn't waste any more time, called his people downstairs, and told the assistant next to him: "You can ask Lily to help her with her styling later."

"Okay, Sister Andy." The assistant wrote it down to find someone.

In a blink of an eye, the second floor was empty, leaving only Si Xue and the people they brought.

Sister Wen stamped her feet and said angrily: "Why did you let her go? We signed the contract, and their temporary substitution is a breach of contract!"

"You think she is short of money. They said they can compensate us for liquidated damages. After we get the liquidated damages, we will no longer be able to cooperate with DM."

"Get someone to check which ladies from Beijing and City are going to participate in this afternoon's event. I want to see who wants to steal clothes from me!"

Si Xue likes to tease people in private the most.

Even if she occasionally meets someone with a better family background than hers, she will use her fans to show off her. All the famous ladies in Beijing know her faults. Due to her huge number of fans, basically no one messes with her.

Those who can afford to mess with her rarely interact with her.

This also developed Si Xue's egotistical character.

She is always docile and humble in front of the camera, with a soft and frail little white flower image, but behind the camera she is arrogant and domineering, and she is used to being self-centered.

"In addition, let me send some news to the fan club and tell them that someone stole my stylist. I was so sad that I didn't even eat lunch. The staff around me also secretly had red eyes when they saw me."

"Understood." This is not the first time that the manager has done this kind of thing. He has been familiar with this process for a long time. Only by abusing fans can he improve the fans' fighting power, and only then can they rely on their fans to fight against each other.

"I'll do it right away."

"By the way, tell these brands to the fans." Si Xue is smart and very good at using fans. She reported the names of several high-end luxury brands to her agent.

You will definitely find that all the names she quoted are the brands of the gorgeous clothes hanging on her own hangers.

It's a pity that the people staying upstairs are all people from Si Xue's team. It's impossible for these people to betray her at the risk of losing their jobs.

Rhine.

When Andy arrived at the place, he changed from his aggressive behavior in DM and cautiously entered the door and said hello: "Master Ye."

Then she saw the girl inside, nodded and bowed politely: "Miss Qiao."

Ye Wangchuan moved out of the way: "Let your people come in."

"Okay." Andy didn't dare to delay and asked his people to move in clothes, makeup boxes and other items. He specifically told everyone to be gentle and not to bump into any furniture in the room.

She doesn't recognize these furniture, but she has been in the upper class circles for a long time, and has also been to the homes of royal families and international celebrities to help with styling.

Andy still has this bit of vision.

She didn't know the brands of the furniture in the room, but she could tell at a glance that the room was all high-end custom-made. The real top luxury items were never limited editions.

It is a customized model.

These customized models are not even accessible to most people in the upper class. Brands don't make them, and designers don't make them either.

But there is always a small group of people standing at the top of the pyramid in the world who can make brands and designers bow their heads.

Andy knew very well that the person in front of him was one of the top of the pyramid.

After she called her people in, she asked someone to open the dust cover on the clothes hanger so that Ye Wangchuan and Qiao Nian could see the row of clothes she had brought.

"Master Ye, Miss Qiao, these are the clothes I brought. You can choose the style you like, and I will style it for you according to your preferences."

Speak the truth.

Her row of clothes is not something that screams celebrities and ladies. It contains the most top-notch luxury items that can be borrowed in the country.

No matter who wears one of these to attend an event, the news will be all over the next day and it will attract a lot of attention.

But these "resources" that she was proud of were used now, and Andy became uneasy.

She brought good things, but she instinctively felt that the people in front of her had seen too many such good things, and they did not even realize how valuable the clothes she brought were.

"Actually, Miss Qiao has fair skin, so she can choose this one." Andy accompanied Qiao Nian to choose. Seeing that Qiao Nian didn't like the clothes, he took the initiative to pick one out.

It is a white fishtail swaying floor-length skirt. The colorful fish scale fabric embellishes the skirt, just like a mermaid coming ashore, turning into the protagonist in a fairy tale.

This skirt is the most outstanding piece among the clothes she brought, and it is also a treasured collection at the bottom of her suitcase.

The designer of this skirt has passed away. This is the last work left by the designer in the world. She bought it at a high price before it was put on the market.

The fashion circle has only circulated the design draft of this skirt, and no one has ever seen what this skirt looks like in reality.

"Miss Qiao has a good figure. If she wears this skirt, she will definitely become the focus of the audience." Andy is still trying to take care of his baby.

As a result, Qiao Nian suddenly lost interest when she heard "Focus of the whole audience". She turned her eyes away and looked at other clothes. Her voice was slightly hoarse: "Well, are there any clothes that are not very conspicuous?"

"Huh?" Andy suspected that there was something wrong with his ears.

Qiao Nian stopped reading, took back her hand, and stated her needs quite casually: "I want a simpler style, which doesn't have to be too standout, as long as it's not too abrupt in the occasion."

She even wanted to wear her own sweatshirt.

Fortunately, as a stylist with excellent professional skills, she had seen a lot of the world. She immediately put back the luxurious collection known as the 'Last Mermaid', picked out one piece from a row of clothes, and took it out. Come out and show Qiao Nian.

"Miss Qiao, can you take a look at this?"

"kindness?"

Qiao Nian took a look at the clothes she was wearing and saw that they were okay, so she didn't choose any more.

"Just this one."

Andy breathed a sigh of relief and immediately asked someone to take the clothes to be cleaned and ironed. He approached the girl and said to the girl: "Then Miss Qiao, come with me. I will do your hair and makeup first."

Qiao Nian did not wear a peaked cap at home. Her shoulder-length black and translucent hair was casually pulled up into a ponytail with a hair rope, revealing a smooth forehead.

She heard Andy saying that she still needed to do her hair, she raised her hand to press her eyebrows, tried hard to suppress the depression and impatience in her heart, and followed him with her legs.

The people brought by Andy are all experts in the industry. The division of labor is clear as soon as they enter the store. The person in charge of clothing is organizing the clothes, and the person in charge of makeup is setting up the dressing table.

They brought a complete set of things, and soon they set up a professional dressing table in the living room, and someone else neatly placed the corresponding cosmetics on the table for Andy's convenience.

These are the brands that Andy usually uses. From cosmetics to paint, she changed them all into new ones before going out.

Because when Mr. Ye called her, he clearly reminded her to replace all the things Qiao Nian would use today with new ones.

He doesn't want his girlfriend to use other people's leftovers.

This is quite rude to any stylist, because they pay attention to the touch when doing styling, and some powder brushes and eyebrow pencils are easy to use if you are used to them. The more famous the stylists are, the more eccentric they are, requiring customers to follow their own personalities.

Andy is one of them.

She is most afraid of other people's requests for styling. Generally, she can do whatever she wants. Celebrities and socialites don't even have the right to be picky about their makeup styles.

Let alone picky with her about whether the cosmetics are brand new.

She actually doesn't have that many principles to uphold.

Qiao Nian obeyed the request and sat in front of the makeup mirror. She raised her thin eyelids and saw the person in the mirror, and her headache became more and more intense.

I regret that I agreed too quickly, and I shouldn't have agreed to go to the afternoon activity.

But I agreed.

My own boyfriend is the only one I love.

She cleared her throat and said, "Please make it simple, I don't like too much powder on my face."

Andy picked up the paint and was eager to try it, and agreed: "Okay."

According to Qiao Nian's request, Andy didn't use too much foundation for her makeup. Compared to celebrities who often use several layers of foundation, Andy's foundation this time was as light as none.

It's not that she was so licking her knees that she didn't even dare to use foundation. After all, as a professional stylist, Andy knows the importance of foundation better than anyone else.

She was asked to do styling work. No matter how much she obeyed the customer's instructions, she still had to produce some results. The reason why she didn't do much makeup later was because she realized Qiao Nian's skin was too good after close contact with her. Her porcelain white skin didn't require much makeup.

When she used liquid foundation on the market to cover it up, it would destroy the natural lightness of her skin and make Qiao Nian's complexion look a shade darker.

Andy gave up the idea of powdering the girl after trying it, and started to simply shape her eyebrows according to Qiao Nian's request. He used a brush to apply a little highlighter and swept it on the girl's corners to deepen it. Shadow part, modify the outline.
