

Madam's 4941

Chapter 4941: Wan Ye's heart is moved

"Okay." Within an hour, she had finished all her makeup.

Andy still held several brush heads in his hand. He stepped back half a step to admire today's 'work', with a flash of satisfaction in his eyes.

She finally showed her first relaxed and natural smile today, and said to Qiao: "Miss Qiao, please change your clothes and see the effect."

The people under her hands had already hung and ironed the clothes, and handed them to the girls with both hands.

Qiao Nian took the clothes and went upstairs to change.

It didn't take her a few minutes to change her clothes and come down.

Ye Wangchuan came out of the study and was talking to Andy. When he came out, Qiao Nian had already finished her makeup and went up to change clothes.

So he didn't see Qiao Nian after putting on makeup.

Until Andy shouted: "Master Ye, Miss Qiao is down."

Ye Wangchuan raised his eyes and looked towards the stairs, standing up straight in an instant, his eyes filled with unabashed amazement.

What Qiao Nian finally chose was a high-end silver sequined skirt style, a mixed route of mature woman style but girly hair. The entire cutting line, the straight silhouette of the upper body feels like the liquid of the lower body, combined with the irregular long skirt, gives people a It feels both dignified and elegant.

Ye Wangchuan's throat was a little dry, and he raised his hand to touch the itchy Adam's apple, as if the electric current felt by a feather was tickling through his heart at that moment.

Causing a series of heart palpitations and tremblings.

"It's so beautiful!" Andy was extremely satisfied.

Qiao Nian seems to be born for black. The blazing sun bursts out of the shell and crushes the inherent dullness of black, which is eye-catching.

She was brought into a unique realm, forming a breathtaking light.

"It's beautiful." Ye Wangchuan's voice became half hoarse, like intoxicating chocolate: "You did a good job."

Andy didn't dare to take credit, and said modestly: "It's because Miss Qiao has a good foundation." She told the truth.

The clothes Qiao Nian chose were not something that stood out among her row of high-end luxury items, but instead were inconspicuous clothes.

The clothes themselves don't have much design in them. The reason why Andy collects them is purely because of the stylist's ultimate pursuit of tailoring.

Good tailoring means beautiful lines, and ultimate perfection requires not the person wearing the clothes, but the clothes picking up the person.

Most people cannot suppress it.

Andy collected it but never thought that anyone could wear it.

Until this moment, she could probably imagine what the designer's initial inspiration for designing this dress should look like.

Qiao Nian is the muse of inspiration.

Even she was itching to let Qiao Nian go into the entertainment industry. Then she would definitely cooperate with Qiao Nian and experiment on girls with all her treasured clothes and the styles she wanted. Just thinking about it made her blood boil, and she was eager to try out a few more looks.

At this time, there was a knock on the door, interrupting their chat.

Ye Wangchuan leaned over and opened the door.

People outside give you square gift boxes.

"Thanks."

Ye Wangchuan took the things, thanked the person, closed the door, and returned to the living room with the square box.

Qiao Nian has already come down from upstairs.

He walked over and handed the gift over: "This is for you."

Chapter 4942: They are a perfect match

"what?"

Qiao Nian took it and opened it.

Lying quietly in the square box is a snake-shaped bracelet. Diamonds are dotted on the bracelet and it looks like a real snake. Two emeralds are inlaid on the tip of the bracelet. The green color is mysterious and resembles a thousand-year legend of traveling through the yellow sand. ...

"Eye of Amon?!" Andy exclaimed.

Amon is the ancient Egyptian sun god. Qiao Nian picked up the snake-shaped bracelet, tilted her head, and glanced at Andy with her black eyes, as if asking what it was.

Ye Wangchuan took her hand and put on the bracelet for her. He took half a step back, smiled deeply in his eyes, and praised without hesitation: "It suits you very well."

Qiao Nian lowered his eyes and glanced at the extra bracelet on his wrist. As a designer, he still admired his aesthetics.

"Thanks."

Ye Wangchuan shook the black ring on his finger and raised the corners of his lips at her: "I should also thank God Qiao."

His fingers are slender and well-proportioned, and the black snake-shaped black onyx ring makes his finger bones look like jade and snow ice muscles, perfect without a trace of excess fat. The flesh and bones are well-proportioned, and there are many indescribable temptations in the abstinence.

Andy noticed his ring and was about to say why it looked so similar to the work style of S, the head designer of the domestic SEVEN family.

But before she had a chance to ask, Ye Wangchuan said in a low voice: "I'm going to change clothes."

ten minutes later.

The man who had gone back to his room to change clothes came out.

Andy's eyes lit up.

Ye Wangchuan wore a casual white shirt today. The collar of the shirt was casually spread out, revealing half of his collarbone. The matching black onyx necklace hanging on his chest reflected the dazzling effect on his skin.

That is a necklace and a ring.

He is usually an ascetic person who buttons his shirt to the last position on his collar. It is rare for him to dress in a lazy and * way. Ye Wangchuan has a bit more of a willful style.

Qiao Nian likes to look at good-looking people, and her eyes have been on him since he came out, which greatly satisfied Ye Wangchuan's purpose.

The skin of their fingers was close together, and the warm and sticky touch plucked Qiao Nian's heartstrings. She felt very fresh about this feeling and did not reject it. She clasped his fingers together with her backhand: "Yes."

Andy looked at the two of them standing together and felt that they were particularly harmonious. She couldn't describe the intimacy that the two of them gave each other.

Anyway, I had a gut feeling that the two of them would be the focus of the spotlight today.

And no one can fail to see that the two are lovers.

According to the professionalism of their stylists, a couple's red carpet must match their makeup, which is very complicated.

^ It requires a good design by a stylist, from the matching of men's and women's clothes to the intimate connection of hairstyles and accessories, in order to create a sense of atmosphere between the couple.

But today Qiao Nian's look was hers, but Ye Wangchuan's was the one who put it together without letting her interfere with anything.

Andy felt that Ye Wangchuan had chosen today's dressing style from the moment he saw Qiao Nian coming downstairs, including the set of jewelry that echoed the snake-shaped bracelet on Qiao Nian's wrist.

It's so beautiful!

^ Gtwe is known as one of the top fashion events. Members of the royal family of King M once supported this event.

As the royal family member faded away, people around the world missed her, and the standards of the events she once participated in Gtwe increased with the tide.

In recent years, it has become the top event in the fashion industry.

Chapter 4943: Beijing 8 license plate

Whether they are celebrities or celebrities, they are proud to participate in this event. Being able to attend Gtwe events can reflect a person's identity.

Of course some people don't need an event to improve their social status.

But most people want to catch the eye at this top social event, make a good show, and raise their own worth.

The entrance was crowded with reporters from various media. Each one of them set up a long gun or cannon behind the railing and pointed it at the red carpet less than 200 meters away.

As the first nanny car parked outside and a star got out, the reporters knew that today's fashion festival had begun.

Fans received the news and cheered for their favorite celebrities in the field. They wanted to let the celebrities and bigwigs participating in the event see the popularity value of their idols, and then support their idols and help their idols' careers.

Tang Ning's status as a celebrity is not high, so she relied on Zhang Yang's connections to gain admission to Gtwe.

She didn't have many thoughts about being in the limelight. She walked down the red carpet and entered the venue without being a show off. She waited at the door for her agent to bring her a water glass.

This event starts at 3pm.

It is now two forty.

Tang Ning expected that the nanny cars of the big names in the circle who wanted to be the finale would be wandering around nearby, one or two people who wanted to be the final finale.

She narrowed her beautiful peach blossom eyes and watched the red carpet become more and more lively. There was not much emotion on her bright face. When she saw her agent coming over, she handed the water glass to her.

Tang Ning raised her chin slightly, motioning her to look at the red carpet: "When do you think Si Xue plans to come?"

Tangning's manager recalled what happened at noon and replied angrily: "You know what she is. She's not used to making small moves. I don't think that girl will be on the red carpet until the end, just for fear of being the last one!"

The agent complained: "Gtwe is not considered an event in the entertainment industry. She still has to do the finale, which is quite ugly."

Gtwe Many celebrities came today. It was not an announcement event for the entertainment industry, and the organizers did not specialize in red carpets.

The 200-meter red carpet at the entrance is purely for the convenience of guests attending the event. There are no hosts or hostesses on site.

As for the on-site media who came to take photos, they came because of Gtwe's own style, and they were not people hired by the organizers.

In other words, Si Xue and others regarded the 200 meters as a red carpet.

"Anyway, she's coming soon." Tangning's manager frowned, thinking that Si Xue would make trouble again later, with a gloomy look on his face: "You stay away from her later, lest she bite you like a mad dog again."

Tang Ning was noncommittal: "I know."

Today, a few friends from her good circle came. Zhang Yang and Li De didn't come because today was Li De's engagement party.

However, several socialite friends who were close to the Li Dejia and Cen families came to participate in the Gtwe event, and Tang Ning's uncle also came.

She is not afraid of Si Xue looking for trouble, she just simply doesn't want to conflict with people like Si Xue and is afraid of trouble.

Just as the two were talking and preparing to go in, a commotion from reporters was heard at the entrance—

“What’s the license plate of Jing8?”

“Who is coming?”

“Jing 8? It can’t be that one.”

“Woocao, who will attend Gtwe’s event? No way, no way... I’m making a lot of money today! Young Master Ye’s personal attendance means that you can take photos. Hurry up and take a few more photos to take back.”

“Who is here and you are so excited?” There are also newcomers who don’t know who is coming.

Chapter 4944: Mr. Wan and Sister Nian walk on the red carpet

The senior next to him couldn't hide his excitement and asked him who was using the license plate of Koputin 8. The newbie's mouth was slightly open and his jaw dropped to the ground.

“People of this level also come to participate in the event?”

A well-informed person explained: "Mr. Miuo, the founder of Gtwe this year, seems to be friends with Mr. Ye. He must have come to support his friend."

Miuo has an outstanding position in the international fashion circle. To be precise, he is from the wealthy circle. Currently, he is the leader of several blue-blooded high-end luxury brands.

His experience is quite legendary. He did not grow up under the protection of the group. He heard that his mother was from country Z, and he met an old married man in power by chance abroad, and they started a beautiful transnational love affair.

After that, the two separated, and the woman found out that she was pregnant and returned to China to give birth to a son.

When the child is 16 years old, he takes people abroad to recognize his relatives in a high-profile manner, demanding that his son has the same legal inheritance rights as other children.

This news made a big fuss at the time, and the uproarous fight between wealthy families for family property ended five years later when the fourth son became the management of the high-end luxury group at the age of 21.

In recent years, Mr. Miuo has become more and more prosperous in the family, and he has become qualified to challenge other brothers and sisters.

The fourth son of a foreign luxury brand group and the domestic prince are friends, which is a bit alienating.

After all, it sounds like the two of them are incompatible with each other. How could they know each other and still be good friends?

But reporters' attention was soon diverted.

Ye Wangchuan came down first.

He dressed up like a lazy young man today and killed a lot of films in an instant. The reporters almost broke the shutters of their cameras.

People whose eyes are exposed to the flash of spotlights have pain in their eyes.

But Ye Wangchuan did not look in the direction of the reporter. He lowered his thick eyelashes, stretched out his hand like a gentleman, and said to the people in the car: "Hold my hand and come out."

A hand came out of the car and grabbed his hand steadily, and then Qiao Nian got out of the car. Her appearance today was stunning enough, and she stood firmly beside Ye Wangchuan, without losing her edge at all to the outstanding men around her.

She and Ye Wangchuan stood in perfect harmony, like a golden boy and girl made in heaven.

Every exchange of glances between the two people can make people feel the feeling of falling in love flowing in the air.

"Wocao! Mr. Ye's girlfriend!"

"It's chasing the light!"

"Shoot, snap, snap!"

The reporters on the scene went crazy.

Bombing the two of them with long guns and short cannons, I wanted to ask them to cooperate with the camera to pose two POSS.

But everyone is crazy, and no one is crazy enough to dare to yell at Ye Wangchuan and Qiao Nian to cooperate with the camera, so they just hurry up and shoot.

I'm afraid that I won't be able to take the photo in the next second.

The one whose jaw dropped was also Tang Ning inside.

Tangning was surprised to see Ye Wangchuan coming, and when she saw Qiao Nian getting out of the car, her peach blossom eyes were full of surprise.

"Qiao, Miss Qiao?"

"That's Mr. Ye? Darling, no wonder the blurred picture of the previous financial summit was on the hot search. If it weren't for the official popularity, this person's appearance would have been fine for his debut."

Her agent didn't know the power behind Qiao Nian. He only knew the information that the public knew, and paid more attention to Ye Wangchuan.

Then the manager noticed Qiao Nian next to him, took another breath, and said with emotion: "Is that Chasing the Light? She's so beautiful. No wonder he was able to win over Mr. Ye. This guy is also someone who can make a clean debut. Lord."

Chapter 4945: Mr. Wan: I make it official

Tang Ning turned a deaf ear to her sentiments and was filled with surprise. She had no idea what Mr. Wan could do to convince Miss Qiao to show up for the event.

Ye Wangchuan and Qiao Nian are not people in the entertainment industry, nor are they social celebrities. They did not accept interviews.

Hand in hand, they passed the reporters and entered directly.

Qiao Nian raised her eyebrows, stopped, and said hello: "Are you here too?"

Tang Ning looked at her, then at Ye Wangchuan who was standing together, her peach blossom eyes rolled, and her eyes fell back on Qiao Nian.

"Ms. Qiao, it's normal for me to come here. I didn't expect you to come back here. Why did you and Master Wan think of coming to participate in the event?"

"Ask him." Qiao Nian shrugged her shoulders, indicating that she didn't know.

He said to Tang Ning, "Nothing. I brought her over to meet a friend. By the way...an official announcement."

"Use your actions to tell the outside world that I have a girlfriend, so that no dirty people can criticize me."

Ye Wangchuan didn't have a close relationship with her. He knew that she was brought by Zhang Yang and had an ambiguous relationship with Jiang Li. He was considered a member of the same circle, so he gave her face and answered the question she just asked.

However, this answer was so shocking that Tangning didn't recover for a long time.

Who is siding with Mr. Wang?

Everyone in their circle knew that Mr. Wang and Miss Qiao were together, and they were locked together. They even gave the two of them private names.

Be careful not to think too wildly.

Tang Ning carefully thought about the suspicious people in the circle, and she couldn't think of anyone who would be brave enough to stick to Mr. Wang.

She couldn't think of...

Ye Wangchuan was not in the habit of explaining his actions to others. He took Qiao Nian's hand again and squeezed it tightly. He lowered his eyes and said in a deep voice, "Let's go in first." "Okay."

Qiao Nian didn't ask him who he was talking about just now, and followed him in first.

"Huh?" Tangning raised her head in a daze, her mind still sifting through the surroundings to find out who would slander Mr. Qiao and try to pry Miss Qiao's corner.

Even he forgot who Si Xue was.

When she followed the agent's gaze, she saw Si Xue getting out of the Mercedes-Benz nanny car, trembling like a proud peacock.

She... suddenly felt uninterested and didn't even bother to look at Si Xue's style, so she looked away and said to her agent: "Let's go in, too."

Si Xue's style today may remain at the same level as before, ranking first in the most popular searches and overwhelming the audience.

But Si Xue came out late today.

If Si Xue didn't want to make the finale, and didn't delay outside for a long time without coming over, she would have walked in front of Miss Qiao.

She might even be the center of attention.

After all, Si Xue is a top-notch person, his family has money, and the clothes he wears and the jewelry he wears for every event are above par.

Ordinary ladies cannot compare to her.

Today is different.

Tangning didn't need to look at what Si Xue was wearing today or what jewelry she was wearing. She said to her agent with a calm expression, "Do you remember the bracelet on Miss Qiao's hand?"

The agent thought about it for a moment and then remembered: "That silver snake-shaped bracelet?"

"right!"

Tangning walked without looking back, leaving behind Si Xue who was lingering on the red carpet, not even bothering to look at her.

Chapter 4946: Wear a set of courtyard houses on your hands

"That's the 'Eye of Amon', a serious antique. Its value...is similar to that of the Sunflower on display in the museum. In terms of collection value and historical value, it may be a little higher than that world-famous painting. "

Her tone was very disdainful, as if she said the weather was nice today: "She is destined not to be the center of attention today!"

Tangning's agent was one step behind her, mainly because he was shocked by the price of the antique bracelet she mentioned. You can put an egg in your mouth, and you will be more surprised on the inside than on the outside.

She could not imagine anyone casually wearing a BJ set of courtyards on their wrists as decorations.

She was born as an ordinary person. She had not been in the upper class circles like Tang Ning, and had not seen much of the world... Whenever she thought about Qiao Nian, who had no protective measures at all and no security guards, her heart trembled and her legs became weak. Later, she felt lucky that she was far away just now. If the thing got bumped or even scratched, it would be something she couldn't afford to pay if it was sold.

As for Si Xue that Tang Ning was talking about.

At this moment, the agent's mind started to spin, and he said with approval: "If it's the same as what you said, then... Si Xue will not be on the hot search today."

Not only is it not on the hot searches, no one will notice Si Xue today.

The protagonist is not her.

Today's protagonist has been decided.

In fact, Si Xue himself, who was walking on the red carpet, also noticed the unusual behavior of reporters today.

She tried her best to slow down and cooperate with the reporters' taking photos, and she even took the initiative to smile and look at the camera several times.

But the difference is that every time she worked hard in business, the reporters were very enthusiastic and always asked her to stay a little longer and take a few more pictures.

Today, the reporters still asked her to walk slower and look at the camera more... But everyone was distracted. Si Xue noticed that several media outlets turned off their cameras while she was still on the red carpet, and gathered together to look at the camera. Photo.

This is a situation she has never encountered before.

Si Xue was inexplicably anxious, and even the smile on the corner of her mouth was a little fake. She stiffly walked the 200-meter red carpet, and as soon as she entered, she coldly told her agent: "Sister Wen, go check who has just walked the red carpet before me? Is there some big shot that we don't know about?" "

She has high traffic among female celebrities and has many fans.

The only person in the circle who is more famous than her is the movie queen.

But the actresses in the industry are older and relatively low-key. Even if they occasionally attend events and walk on the red carpet, they can't look fancy.

But the reporters' behavior on the red carpet today was like taking a break after finishing filming the finale. Their perfunctory attitude of taking the best photo ever and treating the rest as better than nothing stung her unattainable self-esteem.

Si Xue didn't understand why, but she would feel uncomfortable itching all over her body, making it difficult to stand still.

She felt very uncomfortable now. She tugged on her clothes dissatisfiedly and complained with a cold face: "There must be something wrong with the clothes I wore today."

"If Andy was styling me, I wouldn't have to wear such unattractive clothes! It would be a waste of the high-end jewelry I borrowed from V's house."

"Oh, please don't be angry." The manager could only helplessly calm her down and said: "You are also wearing new styles, but they are not the exquisite ones collected by DM. The one you are wearing is not suitable in the circle. It's very rare that you are the first to wear it in China... Don't worry, we will definitely be the number one hot search today."

Chapter 4947: I'm going to check to see who was before us.

DM had Andy greeting her specially. He treated Si Xue well and gave her resources that are difficult for female stars in the entertainment industry to come across.

It was just that there was a certain gap between the row of clothes they saw Andy taking out.

However, the agent did not dare to tell her directly that even if Andy personally styled them today, he might not be willing to lend them one of the clothes in the row...

Andy is not the first to collect those clothes. He has also worked with many celebrities and celebrities, but he has never seen anyone wearing those clothes.

Andy just agreed to help Si Xue do the styling, which does not mean he agreed to let Si Xue wear those high-end products.

But it was impossible for the agent to say these words to Si Xue.

She has been with Si Xue for several years and has figured out the big star's temper. She only picks out the words that Si Xue likes to hear.

"Um."

Si Xue pinched her palms to suppress the boiling displeasure in her chest, and walked quickly into the venue with a straight face. Her agent took the time to find someone to ask who else had walked the red carpet before...

Si Xue lifted up the hem of her skirt and walked in. She saw the fragrant figure on the temples underneath, and they mingled with each other.

There were also many media at the scene.

The media inside are all columnists from international front-line magazines and media, compared with the noise of reporters outside.

The media there are much more respectable.

Even if they came to take pictures, they were dressed in formal attire, suits and ties, and stood behind the camera with serious expressions to capture the stunning people on the scene.

"Kaka."

When she appeared, several media outlets took a few photos as if they were on a mission, and then the cameras turned to other places to take pictures of other people. Si Xue suppressed the discomfort in her heart, pursed her lips and walked inside.

Today there are many big names in the fashion industry, as well as heirs of fashion groups... As a popular female star in China, her status is not enough for such an occasion.

Si Xue is very aware of her status, and her reaction to the infield reporters' reluctance to take more photos of her was not as big as her reaction to the red carpet outside.

She searched around and found the editor-in-chief of a magazine she was familiar with, and walked straight towards him.

“Sixue?”

The editor-in-chief was surrounded by several domestic media people, and they all occupied a small corner of the venue to chat together.

The editor-in-chief saw Si Xue coming when she heard someone calling her, and immediately looked at Si Xue's appearance today with a critical eye.

Si Xue smiled reluctantly.

Her outfit is the first to be worn in China, not the world. The other person seemed to compliment her on her beautiful dress, but actually named the origin of the dress.

But she still wanted to curry favor with the other person, so she could only pretend not to understand and thank the other person for the compliment.

“Darling, last time I went to Paris, I saw a women’s watch that suited you well. I bought it and asked someone to send it to your studio another day?”

The editor softened his sharp attitude and finally gave her a good look. He took Si Xue's arm and introduced her to his friends.

"Hey, let me introduce it to you. This is Si Xue, our top female star in the country. You must have seen it on TV, right? Si Xue is my friend. She has collaborated with our magazine on interior page illustrations before. In the future, everyone can You have to help me take care of her."

Chapter 4949: Sister Nian: I have no interest in targeting you

She lowered her eyebrows to look cold and surly, raised her eyes, and glanced at the person blocking the way. She didn't recognize him...

After she finished speaking, she walked away from Si Xue.

Si Xue stepped forward and stopped her again: "You don't know me?"

^^Qiao Nian: “Should I know you?”

Si Xue raised her chin slightly, flipped up her hair confidently and then put her hand down. She looked at Qiao Nian with her almond-shaped eyes and said, "I thought you must know me. Of course you don't want to admit it, and I can't provide any evidence to accuse you of lying. "

...Neuropathy!

Qiao Nian didn't have the patience to listen to her going crazy, so she wanted to walk away with an expressionless face.

This time, Si Xue simply raised her hand to block her, and said bluntly: "Isn't it appropriate for you to steal my stylist and just leave like this?"

Qiao Nian finally walked away without lifting her legs. Instead, he looked at her carefully with his thick black eyes and spoke to her in a hoarse voice.

Si Xue thought she was pretending, folded her arms and said, "Who else could it be? Of course it's Teacher Andy. Teacher Andy made an appointment to do my makeup today, but ended up breaking the contract and leaving. What you're wearing is I recognized one of the clothes she took away, so you don't have to deny it to me, I know it's you."

Qiao Nian didn't expect that it was just a piece of clothing with so many twists and turns inside.

But she was not one to waste energy on such trivial matters, so she asked directly: "So what do you want to do?"

Qiao Nian's appearance is too outstanding.

Si Xue has never been so unconfident in the entertainment industry.

She suppressed the discomfort in her throat and saw that Qiao Nian did not wear any jewelry on her neck or ears except for her clothes, so she classified Qiao Nian as someone like a boss's canary. He said directly: "I still want to ask you. I don't know you, why did you steal my stylist and hit me in the face? You must be targeting me on purpose, right? Have we met before?"

Qiao Nian understood what she heard and saw that Si Xue was here to cause trouble. She immediately lost interest, lowered her eyelashes to cover the unruly look in her pupils, raised her legs again to get around her, and said softly: "I don't know you, either. I'm not interested in targeting you. You've got the wrong person."

Si Xue couldn't start arguing with Qiao Nian in this situation. He could only watch Qiao Nian walk away, frowning and wondering if he had really made a mistake. Qiao Nian didn't mean to target her before talking to her. Grab a stylist.

She saw Qiao Nian walking towards a person she hated extremely.

Tang Ning.

Si Xue's eyes instantly hardened, and she looked at Qiao Nian with a look that made her want to tear him into pieces.

She hates being lied to.

Hate even more vixens who rely on men to steal her spotlight.

She has decided to teach Qiao Nian a lesson, letting Qiao Nian know that being with rich people cannot solve all problems, and at least she should not offend others.

Her manager also came back at this time, and whispered the result of the investigation into Si Xue's ear: "The person who stole your clothes is Zhui Guang, Jiang Li's sister, a college student from Qing Dynasty. She is not in the entertainment industry. She is quite low-key and her boyfriend is not easy to mess with."

If the agent came back early to say this, Si Xue might just forget about it and not care about it.

Completely ignored the broker's findings.

"Go and tell the fans that I was bullied again when I entered the infield. The person who snatched my clothes did it on purpose. She is friends with Tangning."

Si Xue has never been so unconfident in the entertainment industry.

She suppressed the discomfort in her throat and saw that Qiao Nian did not wear any jewelry on her neck or ears except for her clothes, so she classified Qiao Nian as someone like a boss's canary. He said directly: "I still want to ask you. I don't know you, why did you steal my stylist and hit me in the face? You must be targeting me on purpose, right? Have we met before?"

Qiao Nian understood what she heard and saw that Si Xue was here to cause trouble. She immediately lost interest, lowered her eyelashes to cover the unruly look in her pupils, raised her legs again to get around her, and said softly: "I don't know you, either. I'm not interested in targeting you. You've got the wrong person."

Si Xue couldn't start arguing with Qiao Nian in this situation. He could only watch Qiao Nian walk away, frowning and wondering if he had really made a mistake. Qiao Nian didn't mean to target her before talking to her. Grab a stylist.

She saw Qiao Nian walking towards a person she hated extremely.

Tang Ning.

Si Xue's eyes instantly hardened, and she looked at Qiao Nian with a look that made her want to tear him into pieces.

She hates being lied to.

Hate even more vixens who rely on men to steal her spotlight.

She has decided to teach Qiao Nian a lesson, letting Qiao Nian know that being with rich people cannot solve all problems, and at least she should not offend others.

Her manager also came back at this time, and whispered the result of the investigation into Si Xue's ear: "The person who stole your clothes is Zhui Guang, Jiang Li's sister, a college student from Qing Dynasty. She is not in the entertainment industry. She is quite low-key and her boyfriend is not easy to mess with."

If the agent came back early to say this, Si Xue might just forget about it and not care about it.

"Go and tell the fans that I was bullied again when I entered the infield. The person who snatched my clothes did it on purpose. She is friends with Tangning."

Chapter 4950: Set the pace online

Pollen are most taboo about two things: robbing a career and robbing a man.

It is also a career for a female celebrity to participate in events and gain limelight. As for robbing men... Tang Ning's stealing of her CP partner means that in the eyes of her fans, she is robbing men.

Tang Ning just grabbed it herself, and even asked her friends to deliberately embarrass her, which was enough to stimulate fans to tear them apart for her.

Si Xue's family has some connections in the capital city, and her background in the entertainment industry is quite strong... Her background is too far away from Ye Wangchuan's circle.

She doesn't know Qiao Nian, nor has she met her. She really thinks that Qiao Nian is Jiang Li's sister, a very popular online musician.

Tang Ning is also considered to be a socialite. She estimates that Qiao Nian is Jiang Li's younger sister and she is also a socialite.

But Si Xue is not afraid.

This is not the first time that she has used her fans to tear up famous ladies, she has won every time, and she is not afraid to compete with these famous ladies.

Anyway, she can just pretend to be pitiful and weak in public afterwards, but whenever she loses a resource, she will use public opinion to bully the opponent again.

Often those socialites can only suffer the consequences of being mute. They will stay away from her when they see her in the future and never dare to provoke her again.

The manager is used to doing these things and is also a courageous person. He immediately arranged for professional fans to set the pace according to Si Xue's request.

Just as they expected. Si Xue's fan circle is the most competitive among current female celebrities, and her fans are extremely competitive.

Several topics have been listed on the hot search list, but they have not yet reached the top ten, hovering between 10-20.

As long as you click on these topics, you will find that Si Xue's fans are not tearing Tang Ning apart as before, but rather this time they are insulting one of Tang Ning's "friends" in a biased way.

Fans revealed that Tang Ning's 'friend' went too far and took away Si Xue's stylist. As a result, Si Xue had no clothes to wear and had to make a temporary substitution. When she got to the infield, she was blocked by the other party and humiliated in public. The behavior is very arrogant.

Si Xue was greatly wronged and did not say a word on Weibo.

Compared to Tang Ning and her 'friends' who acted as a scapegoat, Si Xue was a model of repaying evil with kindness. He was a beautiful man with a kind heart, but the female goose suffered a lot of injustice.

Because Qiao Nian was not mentioned in these topics, only Tangning was mentioned, so Qiao Nian was unaware.

She got rid of Si Xue's entanglement and went to find Tang Ning. She saw Tang Ning asking her very nervously: "Miss Qiao, I just saw her... Is it okay if she stopped you?"

"It's okay." Qiao Nian didn't take what Si Xue said to heart, and she didn't know him, so he muttered a few words to her, but she didn't care that much.

"Huh, that's good." Tangning breathed a sigh of relief and said to Qiao Nian, "She is used to being domineering in the entertainment industry, so you should stay away from her."

Qiao Nian fiddled with her bracelet carelessly: "I didn't pay attention to her. I'm leaving soon anyway, so I shouldn't have any conflict with her."

While the two were talking, Ye Wangchuan had already returned.

Beside him was a mixed-race young man with a very outstanding appearance. Compared with Ye Wangchuan, he was slightly inferior, but he also had a thick-faced appearance.

"Miss Qiao." Miuo came over and greeted Qiao Nian. It was obvious that they already knew each other.

"Yeah." Qiao Nian responded in her throat, then turned to look at the man next to her: "When are you leaving?"

She didn't like this kind of occasion. It was too stuffy inside the venue, the smell of perfume floated in the air, and all kinds of perfumes were mixed together.
