

Madam's 4961

Chapter 4961: The company simply gave up

Jiang Li doesn't want to give up the dream he pursues, but if this dream hurts people in his family, Jiang Li will not hesitate.

He can play music in a different way and go behind the scenes.

But no one can use him as an excuse to hurt the people he cares about.

Si Xue wants to use public opinion to put pressure on him, but he is not afraid. At worst, he will withdraw from the circle. Who can outsmart whom?

Jiang Li Shenyan: "She contacts the fans, so you should go too, let the fans control the comments, don't let them post comments everywhere on the Internet."

This is the first time the manager has seen him willing to mobilize fans to criticize him. Unfortunately, this time it is not for his own career, but for Miss Qiao's reputation.

However, the agent has been in contact with Qiao Nian, and he likes Qiao Nian's character very much. He almost did not hesitate: "Brother Li, don't worry, I will take care of it right away."

Before leaving, he patted Jiang Li's shoulder and whispered comfort: "Brother Li, you don't have to worry too much. With Miss Qiao's ability, she can definitely handle this matter. She just doesn't have time now. When she takes her hand out, Si Snow is what grasshoppers cannot jump after autumn."

Jiang Li closed his eyes: "I know, but I am her brother, so it is impossible for me to do nothing."

The manager knew it well and knew that he regarded his sister as if she were a treasure, so he stopped persuading her and turned around to do the work.

the other side.

After more than an hour of heated argument, Agent Si Xue walked out of the conference room in despair.

Si Xue was waiting for her outside.

When he saw her coming out, he put down his mobile phone and strode towards her without paying attention to his personal fans.

"Sister Wen, how are you doing?"

The always arrogant big broker looked at her with obvious frustration. He shook his head and told her: "The company doesn't plan to... take care of it anymore."

"What?" Si Xue didn't expect this result and was a little anxious: "My contract is still with them and they don't care?"

She is the cash cow of the brokerage company and the number one sister of the company. As long as it is not a big deal that breaks the sky, the company will find a way to cover it.

Up until now, Si Xue has not realized the seriousness of the matter, and simply thinks that she has offended the fourth son of Miuo from an overseas fashion group.

Miui has a high status overseas, but it is not all their brand overseas. There are other brands and resources that can be connected.

What she expected was that her agent would go in and discuss follow-up matters with the company, and the company would find a way to help her connect with other overseas brands to regain her respect.

They then reconnected with miuo through the company's contacts, resolved the misunderstanding about today's event, and slowly repaired the relationship.

This is a routine often used in the entertainment industry.

How could Si Xue think that the company would ignore her: "Are they crazy?"

The agent looked at her eyes and asked in a low voice with disbelief in her eyes. Her face was full of complex expressions, and she didn't know how to speak to her.

"Si Xue, do you have any connections at home? Look for connections at home and see if you can contact Mr. Ye. If nothing else is said, let's apologize to them first. There may be room for change in this matter..."

"ha?"

"Do you know who is here today?" The agent looked at her.

Si Xue took it for granted: "I know."

"The people in their circle have the best reputation. As long as we don't admit it, they won't let us go. I am a celebrity, and celebrities have great public opinion. People in their circle care about reputation most and will not want to have anything to do with us...I know these people better than you do."

Hearing her innocent words, the agent interrupted her with a wry smile: "That's someone else. We've hit a brick wall this time."

Chapter 4962: Still don't understand Sister Nian's positioning

Si Xue was startled, her face turned a little pale, and she pinched her palms to try to calm down: "I'll contact my family first. You can watch the public opinion on the Internet for me, and kill them before they bully me."

"As for Mr. Ye..." She now regrets her impulsiveness, and even hates the fans for their bad eyesight. It's not good for anyone, especially Mr. Ye.

But Si Xue contacted her biggest supporter, and the other party gave her a reply while she was waiting for her agent to come out, saying that he would help her solve the problem.

So even though Si Xue was flustered, she was not in a hurry yet.

She knows very well how to pick the softest persimmons and pinch them.

He told his agent: "I have a way to solve Mr. Ye's problem and guarantee that he will not pursue us. All you need to do is keep an eye on the public opinion on the Internet, let it bite her to death, use public opinion to put pressure on her, and portray us as victims. If she can only let go without getting scolded, then I can find a way to turn around."

"Okay." Her agent had no choice but to listen to her and said to her with worry: "Don't offend anyone again..."

Si Xue suppressed her resentful eyes and whispered: "If she hadn't snatched my clothes first, how would I have known that she was capable of dating such a powerful man?"

Si Xue himself is a big star and his family has a little background, so he has no contact with people in that circle.

The people she comes into contact with the most are young ladies like Tang Ning or rich bosses whose families have some money. These people are considered to be upper class in the eyes of ordinary people.

But in the eyes of the upper class, it's nothing!

Si Xue's family is also rich, and she has some connections in the entertainment industry. She can get a little higher in the rich circle, but that's all.

She had limited information.

Even now, I still think that Qiao Nian, apart from chasing the spotlight and being the top scorer in the college entrance examination, is the same as she has seen many female celebrities in the entertainment industry who marry well or find good boyfriends.

In addition to being good-looking, I have no background.

The biggest background is Jiang Li's cousin.

Jiang Li's family is said to have some background, but most people in the entertainment industry don't know what Jiang Li's background is.

Si Xue thinks she knows the rules of the circle thoroughly, and she prefers Jiang Li's noble son. The rumor is that the rumors were created by Jiang Li's agency to secretly raise Jiang Li's worth. Fans now have a lot of admiration.

Which of the newcomers who have recently debuted are not with 'background', they are all 'rich second generations' 'Bai Fumei' were tired and comfortable, and they want to debut as celebrities.

But in fact, are there really so many white, rich, beautiful and rich second-generation people to become stars?

Si Xue knows it too well.

It's just packaging.

Most of the celebrities with this kind of packaging just have a little money in their families and are better off than ordinary people, so they dare to pretend to be the rich second generation to let their fans fantasize.

In her eyes, Jiang Li is a 'rich second generation'.

Jiang Li's cousin...that's even more of a non-event.

Qiao Nian didn't know yet that Si Xue regarded her as a canary with her face leaning on her face. She accompanied Ye Wangchuan to the hospital and checked the burnt area on one side.

Make sure that the bottle contains only boiling water and not chemicals.

She then returned to the Rhine with Gu San and Ye Wangchuan with a cold face.

The news of Ye Wangchuan's injury was tightly blocked, and few people knew about it. Qiao Nian only received concerned text messages from Zhang Yang when she returned.

Qiao Nian was in a bad mood and did not reply to him.

Wait until you return to your residence.

She immediately went back to her room and opened her laptop to check Si Xue.

It has been a long time since she came back from Independent Continent to check on a person in person. Qiao Nian checked people on her own, and it took less than half an hour to check Si Xue from top to bottom.

Chapter 4963: So I stole her clothes?

Si Xue's life is very simple.

That is, she went to school normally, was admitted to an art school, and then relied on connections at home to enter the entertainment industry. Then she acted in TV series and became a first-line female star with her pretty face and strong connections.

She is best at using public opinion to support her, that is, inciting her fans to tear up other artists, quarrel with fans of other artists, and then increase her own popularity.

This method is dirty, but very useful.

Si Xue has gradually reached the position of a top female star in the entertainment industry.

Qiao Nian also found out that this was not the first time that a situation like this happened today. Si Xue fans had done harm to others before. There was a famous lady who was thrown dirty water by her fans when she participated in an event, and there was also a female celebrity who was thrown rotten eggs by her fans...

The most serious incident was when Tangning was chased by a car by her fans and almost had a car accident. Fortunately, the driver was experienced and hit a speed bump. Tangning only suffered a scratch and was admitted to the hospital.

These people, including Tang Ning, were all people who had conflicts with Si Xue.

Fans will immediately retaliate.

And this kind of fan behavior will be wiped out in the end.

Because after the incident happened, fans would always cry in front of the media or the police, saying that they were 'young, ignorant, and ignorant of the law', or that they were 'poor at home, impulsive, begging for forgiveness', and then Si Xue would buy some water. The military guides public opinion.

In the end, the victim had to settle the case under pressure from public opinion.

This afternoon was obviously another act of revenge on her fans.

Qiao Nian tapped her fingers on the table and thought for a moment, then picked up the mobile phone next to her and dialed a number.

lived.

When there is a ring over there, pick it up.

"Hello."

"It's me, Qiao Nian."

"Ms. Qiao." The voice on the other end was tight, and he said quickly: "I heard about what happened on Gtwe, and I was just trying to explain it to you."

Qiao Nian interrupted her: "Did I * her clothes?"

Andy was stunned for a moment and replied flatly: "Absolutely not!"

"I promised someone from the HL Media Public Relations Department to style her today, but as she is, I can't give her the clothes I treasure. The most I can do is choose a set of clothes for her according to the standards of the entertainment industry, so There is no such thing as you grabbing her clothes..."

Andy knew about the good deeds done by Si Xue's crazy fans, so he became uneasy and waited for the chopping knife on his head to fall.

But she felt aggrieved too!

"I made it very clear to her that I let her go this afternoon for personal reasons, and DM was willing to compensate her for liquidated damages. She said she didn't mind, and I also hired a big stylist of my own to take over her styling and dress her. It is also the world's first wear of a top luxury brand...I really didn't know she would cause a farce of splashing water behind her back! I swear I didn't know beforehand."

Qiao Nian's broken hair hung down from her forehead to cover her eyes, and she just focused on the important point casually: "That's why I didn't steal her clothes."

"Of course! Of course you didn't steal her clothes. Does your identity require you to steal her clothes? She is just slandering and spreading rumors."

Andy rubbed his numb cheeks and walked out to the corridor to talk.

"The reason why she targeted you must be related to Tang Ning. Tang Ning looks the same as her and is involved in an affair with your brother. People in the circle assume that Tang Ning is her meal replacement and will take her place in the future. She has always been at odds with Tang Ning. I see you know Tangning, so..."

Deliberately targeted.

Andy really wanted to say, "There's something wrong with your brain"!

Chapter 4964: Mr. Wan: No matter what you say, I'll tell you the truth

Does Si Xue know Qiao Nian's background? Just dare to use this trick of the entertainment industry to deliberately target it. The implication made her tremble with fear.

That's Mr. Ye.

Behind is the Ye family.

Fortunately, the liquid her crazy fans threw was not corrosive, otherwise Andy would have been involved and ruined her future.

"Anyway, I didn't know about the fact that she asked someone to pour liquid on her, but after all, it has something to do with me, Miss Qiao...please see if you can help me apologize to Mr. Ye. I originally wanted to come to apologize, but Afraid of disturbing you..."

"I see."

Qiao Nian never plays the trick of expressing anger, and responded very calmly.

Andy apologized profusely again.

Qiao Nian hung up the phone.

Her eyes completely turned cold, leaving only a cold and murderous look. She raised her eyes and scanned the screen that was still emitting a faint blue light. She looked at the news reports searched on the screen about Si Xue's fans who had been harassed and attacked in recent years. She pulled out her chair, bent his long legs in front of the computer desk, and sent Tangning a WeChat message.

【QN: Do me a favor. 】

Qiao Nian called Yuan Yongqin again and specifically asked Wei Lou.

Half an hour later.

She opened the drawer, took out the car keys inside, and walked out with her head held high.

Ye Wangchuan had just taken anti-inflammatory medicine in the living room when he saw her change her clothes, tie up her hair to reveal a swan neck, and swing her hair into a sharp arc.

"Want to go out? Where to go?"

Qiao Nian hooked her finger on the car key, her beautiful face was sharp and beautiful, but her tone was very soft: "I have to do something."

She saw the red marks on the back of Ye Wangchuan's neck again, and quickly said: "I'll be back soon, don't worry, I'm not going to kill people or set fire to him."

"Chi." Ye Wangchuan hummed and chuckled, "I'll ask Gu San to accompany you."

Then he looked at her with those deep eyes and added: "It doesn't matter if you go kill people and set fires. I'll tell you the truth."

Qiao Nian's heart felt hot, and she remembered the moment in the afternoon when his strong hand grasped her wrist and he turned around to protect her in his arms.

She couldn't help but raise the corners of her mouth, raised her eyebrows and raised her eyes: "Okay." It was rare that she refused Gu San's request to accompany her. She put the unused car keys in the tray at the entrance and went out with Gu San.

Ye Wangchuan heard the slamming sound coming from the door, then he held the arch of his eyebrows and pressed it with his hands, then stood up to call Bao Jingxing.

"Keep an eye on it for me."

"She is not fit to make a big fuss."

"Let me know if something happens and I will come forward."

Bo Jingxing knew what Qiao Nian and Master Cheng were studying recently, and understood what his friend meant that Qiao Nian was not suitable for making a big fuss.

"I know."

He was a little curious.

"However, Qiao Nian has always been calm, and few people and things can attract her attention. Who is so capable, and what has he done to make you worry that Qiao Nian will come to your door and take action?"

"You don't have to worry about it, just help me protect people."

Ye Wangchuan didn't want to say.

Bo Jingxing didn't ask any further questions: "Okay, I'll follow you right away and take a look. I'll call you if I need anything."

"Thank you." Ye Wangchuan said softly.

Bo Jingxing blamed him: "There is no need to talk about the relationship between the two of us."

Qiao Nian and Gu San did not go to Si Xue, but went to the police station.

This time she used her connections and went through the process to visit the fans who were caught.

It was not the first time for this male fan to come in. When he came in, he had a hard time with the police, saying that he was just standing up for his idol and did it impulsively.

Then he said that he had a sick old mother at home and knew that his behavior was wrong and he was willing to reflect on it and asked the police to let him go.

Chapter 4965: Okay, I'll apologize to you

When the police asked him questions, he pretended to be stupid. He didn't know anything when asked, and was very uncooperative. He would also ask questions from time to time, saying that he had offended a rich person. He was an ordinary person who was punished when he was in jail. It was the rich who oppressed poor people like him. .

Before Qiao Nian went in, the policewoman who was responsible for taking notes for him was so angry that she blushed and said to Qiao Nian embarrassedly: "He...he is just a scoundrel. If he says something unpleasant, don't do anything." He deliberately angered you."

"I know."

Seeing that she was very calm, the policewoman said nothing more and stepped out of the door to let her in.

Gu San did not follow this time.

Waiting at the door.

After Qiao Nian went in, she saw a man sitting on a chair with his hands cuffed.

The man was ordinary-looking, with a yellow-black complexion. He looked like a man who had endured hardship, but his eyes were not simple and kind, only fierce and dissatisfied with everyone.

When he saw Qiao Nian coming in, he first shrank subconsciously, looked up in the direction of the camera and then calmed down, with an expression like a dead pig not afraid of boiling water.

"What are you here for?"

"Oh, are you here to see my joke? Or do you want me to apologize to you?"

The man smiled again and said arrogantly: "Okay, I apologize to you. I did something wrong. I was too impulsive. But you are so rich, so there is no need to care about an ordinary person like me. Please have mercy on me." Let us ordinary people get away with it. I didn't hurt you, just a little hot water. If you have the conditions, you can find the best doctor and just apply some medicine..."

Qiao Nian walked over, pulled out a chair and sat down. She ignored what he said and asked him directly, "Did Si Xue ask you to do it?"

The man frowned fiercely, stared at Qiao Nian, and immediately retorted: "What does it have to do with Si Xue! I did it myself. I said, I was just impulsive. I have no education and don't understand so many of your methods. I just can't stand it when you bully others."

"So who told you that she was bullied?" Qiao Nian asked calmly.

When the man realized that he had been trapped, his eyes immediately became fierce and his temples bulged. He quickly broke into a sinister smile and sat back on the chair with an uncooperative look on his face: "No one told me, I just said it casually. I guessed it myself, and I heard people say on the Internet that you are a mistress, and a mistress friend is bullying others. What, do you dare to do it but dare not admit it? "

Qiao Nian kicked off the chair and pushed him against the wall. Then he stood up and looked down at the man whose back was hurt by the bump. He couldn't believe the man who raised his head.

twisted his collar and looked back with the same eyes he had just looked at, with an extremely calm tone and an extremely oppressive tone.

"Actually, I can check the chat records of all your accounts even if you don't tell me. It's too easy to check you! But I want you to speak up and speak out for yourself."

"Why should I..." the man reacted subconsciously.

I heard the girl's calm threat: "I've investigated you. You haven't got married, don't have a career, and don't have many friends, so you feel that your life is meaningless. Star chasers regard their idols as their spiritual sustenance and other half, but those are all virtual. Yes, you still have relatives in reality."

"You also said that I'm someone you can't afford to mess with because I'm rich and powerful. So guess what, if I don't touch you and find a few people to mess with your family members, what can you do?"

"You dare!" The man's neck veins popped out and he became excited.

Chapter 4966: Sister Nian wanted her to be unable to survive from the very beginning.

Qiao Nian looked at him and smiled. It was an angry smile that did not reach her eyes: "You dare to touch my people, why don't I dare?"

"Do you think I can tell you the rules and morals?"

She looked at the man's eyes, which turned from being carefree at the beginning, to fear, and continued: "Unfortunately, I don't have that! From the moment you cross the bottom line, you shouldn't think that I will let you go."

"..." The man didn't take her seriously at first. In his opinion, she was just a young girl. She could do anything to herself. This was still a police station.

Similar things have not happened before in their fan base. Si Xue's team would bail people out in the end.

There is no need to even pay compensation.

In the end these things will definitely come to nothing.

Only then will he be bold enough to do it.

He had been in the police station for so long, relying on the fact that he would be fine in the end so he could act rogue, until Qiao Nian clearly told him that he was going to target his family members.

Only men know how to be afraid.

He was not afraid of Qiao Nian, but he was afraid of what Qiao Nian said, 'I have power and background.' This was originally his trump card to morally kidnap the other party, but the other party told him directly that he had no morals. ...and he was afraid.

"If I speak out, can you let me go?"

Qiao Nian watched his expression change several times, and finally hesitantly spoke, let go of his hand, and said coldly: "No."

The man almost lost his temper and became furious again: "You..."

Qiao Nian interrupted him casually: "I can't touch your family, but you can do whatever you want and pay for your own actions."

He gritted his teeth: "It's you who is begging me!"

Qiao Nian sneered: "I told you, even if it doesn't happen to you, I can still check your chat records. Those are enough evidence."

She gave the other party enough time to think, and she was not surprised. This person did not hesitate for long before he chose to betray Si Xue's team.

"I...we have a small group, and the group is full of die-hard fans. I prepared the hot water after seeing the news in the group. I didn't want to do anything. I just wanted to scare you and teach you a lesson."

"I will speak out..." ...

Half an hour later, Qiao Nian came out of the interrogation room.

Gu San hurried forward to greet her: "Miss Qiao, how are you?"

Qiao Nian said to him calmly: "Delete the surveillance in the interrogation room later."

Gu San's eyes sharpened, and he pursed his lips. He was already wondering whether the man inside was dead or alive, but he acted quickly: "Okay, I'll do it right away."

Qiao Nian waited for him to go away.

He walked not far away and made a phone call.

"Aunt Yuan, you can ask the reporters who are ready to come over for interviews."

"Are you OK?"

"Me?" Qiao Nian looked into the distance, looking at the media vehicles that had been waiting outside for a long time, and twitched her lips: "What can happen to me? I can't be any better! Just wait and see what she has left. There are so many tricks to play."

She had no intention of relying on her background to suppress Si Xue.

Qiao Nian had planned it from the very beginning to make Si Xue unable to survive in the entertainment industry!

Only when people lose what they care about most will they regret it and examine what they have done in the past.

The next day.

Si Xue was woken up by a call from her agent.

She lifted the quilt and picked up the phone irritably and answered it: "You'd better be fine."

Before she could finish speaking, she heard the panicked voice of the agent on the other end, trembling: "Si Xue, something happened."

Chapter 4967: This is just the beginning

Si Xue didn't fall asleep until midnight last night. He hadn't slept for three hours when he heard her roaring in his ears and his whole body was shaken, and his brain suddenly woke up.

She sat up from the bed, went to the bathroom and washed her face with cold water. Looking at the haggard face in the mirror, Si Xue gritted her teeth, with resentment flashing in her eyes, and walked out with her cell phone.

...Tell me, what's the matter."

"You haven't gotten up yet?"

Si Xue walked to the living room and poured herself a glass of ice water to drink. Her mind was completely clear: "Get up now."

The agent hesitated for a moment and said uneasily: "...I didn't know you weren't up. Forget it, let's get down to business. Something happened."

"I heard it, let me just say it, don't beat around the bush here. I didn't wake up early in the morning to hear you repeating what you said before like a sparrow." Si Xue was extremely impatient.

The agent said: "Yesterday, Qiao Nian went to the police station to visit you. I don't know what she said to your fans, and they turned against you."

"What?"

"The fan revealed our small group to the media in an interview, accusing him of throwing water in public because he was asked by a big fan in the small group. He also revealed the big fan's ID, and the media dug up the big fan's background. . All the news coming out now accuses us of using professional fans to incite fans to retaliate against others... Public opinion is very unfriendly to you!"

Si Xue's mind went blank. He stood there for a long time, unable to move. He didn't know whether it was a few minutes or ten minutes.

Her downed brain resumed operation, her throat was dry and itchy: "The company..."

Her agent was the first to take the lead: "The company said yesterday that it would not care about it, and no one in the public relations department was in charge. The interview was very popular. If the incident continues like this, the judiciary will intervene in the investigation."

Once the law intervenes, Si Xue can easily become a bad artist.

Then Si Xue's career will be ruined!

The reason why agents are anxious is that if they haven't done it, no matter what the fans say, it doesn't matter whether the judiciary intervenes in the investigation.

They are not afraid of their shadows being distorted if they are upright.

They just don't understand!

Si Xue and she have often used this method to clean up the entertainment industry, offending their peers, and even bullying outsiders.

They cannot stand the investigation at all.

Si Xue suppressed the scream in his throat: "It's so hot! Spend money to remove the hot search!"

"I just called you to tell you this..." the manager said in an extremely bitter voice: "I can't explode relevant topics and I can't remove hot searches. So I want to ask you if you have contacted your family and whether you have found them. People, let's apologize quickly. Now you can only save your career by reaching a settlement with them as soon as possible. Otherwise, if the trouble continues, your career may be over."

"My fans won't believe what he says, they will help me control the comments..." Si Xue was still struggling.

The manager said: "It used to be. Once fans complained, even if we couldn't suppress the hot search, it wouldn't ruin our popularity. This time it's different, you forgot. We also offended Jiang Li's fans! Yesterday Jiang Li left the stage to reply in person He has received your fans' comments. Now his fans are like dynamite, searching for your old accounts everywhere, eager to post your dirty information all over Weibo. We don't have enough fans to fight with them, and we can't control the comments at all."

They are both top players, and Jiang Li's fans are known for their strong fighting ability.

It's okay for Si Xue to provoke other people. Fans are tearing up the entertainment industry and there are few rivals. Jiang Li is an exception... In the past, Jiang Li's fans didn't care about her because they were thinking about her brother's reputation and didn't want to entangle with female celebrities to gain popularity. Also Even Jiang Li himself is a well-known gentleman in the circle.

Chapter 4968: Si Xue spoke up

Fans never argue with female celebrities.

Whether Si Xue is enjoying the popularity or fans take the lead in scolding Jiang Li for being a heartless person, Jiang Li's fans all grit their teeth and endure it.

This time is different.

Jiang Li personally responded to Si Xue's fans' scolding yesterday. He expressed his position in a tough way and said he couldn't bear Si Xue and her fans anymore.

Brothers are all gone.

Fans are definitely following suit.

Since Jiang Li's reply yesterday, the pear blossoms have been beating Si Xue's fans back step by step. As long as there are relevant topics and news, there must be old news about Si Xue's previous bullying.

Many passers-by saw related topics on the Internet and were just bored to check it out, but they were also popularized by Jiang Li fans.

Si Xue's reputation is very bad now.

There are many people scolding Si Xue on the Internet.

Specially, Si Xue's male fan who was caught came out to attack her personally. After the media exposed the big fan's identity as a professional fan, the Internet was even more scolded.

"Now the voice on the Internet has affected your resources. The TV dramas and movies we were talking about before have all come to you to express their non-cooperation... If the public opinion continues to ferment, it will also affect your business endorsements. Si Xue, we can't do it anymore. Wait, you must get the other party's understanding. I know you are angry but don't want to bow your head. You are under the roof, so you just have to endure it."

Si Xue bit her silver teeth into pieces, and her complexion changed from pale to green. It took her a long time to endure the vomiting of blood in her stomach and said, "I asked my family to contact me."

Agent: "Contact the other party as soon as possible."

Si Xue held the phone so hard that veins popped out on her back, and responded in a depressed mood: "Yeah."

The agent informed her and hung up the phone.

Si Xue pulled up the chair and sat down, opened the social software and logged in, and saw 99+ messages popping up in the background, various Aite and private messages.

She took a deep breath and opened the private message backstage. In the past, the backstage, which was mainly filled with private messages from fans, was filled with a large number of questioning and insulting messages from passers-by.

Si Xue only read one article and lost the courage to continue reading. After all, she is not a soft persimmon. She has been in the entertainment industry for several years. She has been a popular female star since her debut and has been praised by fans all day long.

Si Xue only took a moment to make what he thought was the most powerful counterattack.

She took screenshots of the private messages in the backend, edited the latest updates and sent them out. She pointed her finger on the confirmation button. Si Xue let out a long breath and stared at the phone screen with cold, snake-like eyes, waiting for the effect of her counterattack.

'Ding-'

Rhine.

Jiang Li's manager's phone rang with a notification tone. He hurriedly picked up the phone and pulled out his special attention list on Weibo.

The expression on his face changed.

Hand the mobile phone to your artist.

"Brother Li, Si Xue has come forward."

"Let me see."

Jiang Li, Zhang Yang, and Bo Jingxing all came and gathered to see the "wounded", but a certain "wounded" was too unconscious and was busier than them.

Since the first of them arrived, Ye Wangchuan has been holding a video conference in the study room, and he hasn't come out for more than an hour now.

Qiao Nian waited with them in the living room.

However, this big boss never talks much. He has his laptop on his lap, his left hand pressed against his ear, his posture is relaxed, and he wants to speak a few words to people from time to time.

Those with eyes can see that she is also very busy, but she is just sitting here to accompany them.

Jiang Li glanced at the cell phone handed over by his agent, his face darkened, he raised his eyes to look at the girl who was browsing the information, hesitated for a moment, walked over and handed over the cell phone.

“Nian Nian, look at this.”

Chapter 4969: That thing is really useful

"Um?"

Qiao Nian took the time to raise his head and saw what Jiang Li handed over. He reached out to take it, glanced down at it, and brushed it with his fingertips.

“She doesn’t know the fan? She doesn’t know the fan’s extreme behavior...and wants to apologize to me and hope I can forgive her? Tsk. That’s interesting!”

Jiang Li raised his lips coldly: "It's just a common public relations method in the entertainment industry. Do you really believe that her studio doesn't have private connections with fans? The fans themselves stood up and admitted it. Only a fool would believe her rhetoric. Now she's running out. To distance herself from the relationship is just to see that public opinion is not favorable to her and she wants to shift the blame."

Bo Jingxing raised his beautiful fox eyes and glanced at Jiang Li, who was scratching his hair in annoyance, and then at the calm girl.

He pursed his thin lips, not wanting to tell Jiang Li.

The reason Si Xue’s fan rebelled and accepted the interview was because Qiao Nian went to the police station to find him.

How could the person Qiao Nian personally found believe Si Xue's poor excuse?

Sure enough.

Qiao Nian returned the phone to him: "I don't believe it, I just think that's all she did by tossing it over and over."

Jiang Li took his cell phone and was stunned for a moment before he opened his mouth to ask.

I heard the girl Qingyue's voice like a cold spring: "I have already made arrangements, just waiting for her to speak up. It's not easy to deal with her if she doesn't speak. It's best to jump out on your own."

"...You knew this a long time ago?" Jiang Li felt a little stupid when he asked, and this question was also stupid.

Qiao Nian was good-tempered and said to Xu Yi on the other side of Erhui: "Wait a minute."

She made eye contact with Jiang Li again, folded her hands in front of her, and answered calmly: "I don't know, I just made some arrangements in advance."

"..." Jiang Li's originally restless heart suddenly calmed down for some reason, as if Qiao Nian was there, and Qiao Nian had a convincing charm.

Jiang Li's manager also spoke up: "Brother Li, don't be anxious, wait for Miss Qiao to arrange it."

Jiang Li rubbed his cheek, threw the phone back to him, and sat down on the sofa: "Okay, I want you to teach me how to do things."

The manager chuckled twice, and Gu San came out with the fruit.

"Master Jiang, Master Bo, have something to eat first."

Qiao Nian dismissed Jiang Li, lowered his eyes and continued with his own business. He raised his hand and put it on his ear again, and said to the person on the other end: "Keep talking."

Xu Yi couldn't hear what they were saying. He was waiting for Qiao Nian to contact him in the laboratory while continuing to observe the mycelium in the petri dish.

After finally waiting for the girl's voice to reach his ears again, he continued: "Our last experiment did not specifically place bryophytes in it. A month later, I saw that the mycelium in the soil in the petri dish began to Growth shows that 'that thing' is indeed useful."

"Yes." Qiao Nian was not happy for just one success, but calmly told him: "One or two times can't prove anything, maybe it's a coincidence. This is very important. We must do a few more experiments to ensure that it is Effect! Otherwise, even if we develop it, it will be just another form of junk and have no meaning."

"I know."

Since Xu Yi started doing this research with her, he has known the great significance of this research to mankind. He has long regarded this research as a major issue in his life. Needless to say, Qiao Nian also knows that he must be cautious.

Chapter 4970: Grandpa asked us to go back

"I just want to report my findings to you. The deputy dean and I will conduct two or three experiments in the future, and I will try to put other plant samples in. When the plant samples can survive, I will do biological experiments..."

"Can."

As soon as Qiao Nian finished speaking, the study door opened.

She saw a man wearing a black turtleneck and thin sweater walking out. He was tall, long-legged, and had an outstanding temperament... Qiao Nian couldn't help but squint her eyes, focusing entirely on the man who came out, and her tone became casual: "Hang up first. Yes, I'll tell you later."

"good."

Xu Yi is also preparing to take the petri dish to find Shifu.

Qiao Nian took off the ear loops smoothly, put the notebook aside on his lap, stood up and walked towards Ye Wangchuan.

"Have you taken your medicine?"

Ye Wangchuan pressed his slender hand on his forehead and pulled away from the complicated data. He looked at the person in front of him with his narrow eyes, and the sharp anger in his eyebrows silently subsided, like snow melting on the top of a mountain: "... Did not have time."

Without saying anything, Qiao Nian turned around to get him a glass of water, then found the place where he put the medicine, took out the amount he wanted to take, returned, handed the medicine and the water cup together: "Take the medicine first."

The anti-inflammatory drugs prescribed by the hospital are mainly used to prevent infection of the burned skin area and cause unnecessary inflammatory complications.

Ye Wangchuan took the medicine from her, lowered his head to take a sip of water from her hand, raised his neck and took the medicine, then his eyes darkened and his voice was hoarse: "Okay."

Bo Jingxing, Zhang Yang and Jiang Li all became backgrounds, watching them interact intimately in front of them.

Only Gu San was not surprised and had long been used to it. Without Qiao Nian's help, he went over to help get the water glass and went into the kitchen to prepare lunch.

Zhang Yang was the most shocked.

He was the one who joined the small group after Qin Si. He had never gotten along with Ye Wangchuan in private before, and he had never thought that Mr. Wang would have this style when it came to love.

Just...I listen to Miss Qiao very much.

"Cough!" The love-filled atmosphere in the living room was broken by Jiang Li's cough. Bao Jingxing glanced at Jiang Li, who had a stiff expression, and fully understood Jiang Li's satisfied and depressed mood.

He took the initiative and said: "Wanchuan, let's come over to see you. Is your back... okay?"

"It's okay." Ye Wangchuan raised his hand and rubbed Qiao Nian's head, raised his thin lips, and felt very happy. He held Qiao Nian's hand tightly and led him to find a seat in the living room to sit down, stingy with his attention. After glancing at a few people, he roughly knew who was coming, and said calmly: "It was a small accident, I'm fine."

Bo Jingxing looked away and nodded: "As long as it's okay."

Zhang Yang took the opportunity to say: "My parents knew about it and asked me to bring some nutrition to Master Wan, and asked me to deliver it."

He was afraid that Ye Wangchuan would not accept it, so he said obediently: "It's just an ordinary nourishing food, it's a little bit of their thoughts. Master Wang, please accept it."

Ye Wangchuan glanced at him from a distance and knew that Zhang Yang had done things in a measured way and would not give him a gift that was too smart for him.

"Leave it to Gu San."

"Okay." Zhang Yang was overjoyed and agreed repeatedly.

Ye Wangchuan ignored him and lowered his head to talk to Qiao Nian: "Grandpa asked us to go back, do you want to go back?"

The little accident he caused yesterday could not be hidden from the old man. The old man still knew about it. He just received a call in the study asking him to go back. The old man must be worried and wanted to see him with his own eyes.
