

Madam's 4991

Chapter 4991: As long as we don't admit it, it'll be fine

The police officer who took the notes here couldn't find any breakthrough. She came up with reasonable explanations over and over again. When asked a question that she couldn't explain, she would directly deny it three times in a row: I don't know, I don't know, I'm not responsible.

Compared to her lack of progress here.

The room next door is not going so well.

The policeman in charge of recording asked the same question to Si Xue. Si Xue's psychological quality was not as strong as her agent's.

Facing the police question: "How do you explain the connection between those managers, professional fans and the fans who caused the incident?"

"I..." Si Xue's face was as white as paper, and his nervousness was visible to the naked eye.

The police officer responsible for questioning is very good at breaking down a person's psychological defenses. When she is in a panic, she clicks the pen in her hand and uses the sound made by the pen to exert psychological pressure on her.

When forcing Si Xue to look at him, he spoke again with an imposing manner: "Miss Si Xue, please cooperate with our work. It's not too late for you to say it now. After all, this has something to do with your agent, not you directly. . If you are willing to cooperate with our investigation, it will be regarded as meritorious service. Maybe you can leave as long as you explain clearly... You don't want to waste time here, right? "

Si Xue's expression was extremely nervous and tangled, which was reflected in her twisted hands, and her nails left a crescent-white nail mark on her skin.

Soon, a policewoman poured her a glass of water and whispered, "Drink some water first."

Si Xue's eyes were dazed. When the paper cup was placed in front of her, she swallowed, then picked it up with trembling hands and took a sip of water.

She probably calmed down and spoke in a hoarse voice after not sleeping all night: "I...if I cooperate, can I really leave?"

The police officer in charge of taking notes saw hope and made no promises. He coughed lightly and said, "You will have a chance as long as you cooperate with our work."

Si Xue felt a war between heaven and man in her heart. After a few tangles, she calmed down and raised her eyes: "I say!"

The next twenty minutes.

She put all the blame on her manager. Contacting professional fans and using fans to retaliate against other people all became her manager's idea. As an artist, she was accustomed to obeying her manager's orders and did not realize that these actions were illegal.

As for the audio messages sent by Qiao Nian, they are her recorded voices that can be searched on the entire Internet, and Si Xue also found a reasonable explanation.

—It was her manager who asked her to come forward to interact with fans.

She did not consciously instigate fans to do bad things, she just treated it as a normal communication with fans, which was a bit excessive.

It's because the fans themselves misunderstood.

It has nothing to do with her.

The police officer who recorded the incident let her talk the whole time and recorded everything she said in the case book. There was also a recording pen next to it to prevent any mistakes or omissions.

After Si Xue finished speaking, the lawyers hired by the Si family and HL completed the bail procedures.

It will take time for the police to characterize her.

So the police officer in charge of her transcript stood up generously and said to the person who had stayed up all night: "Miss Si Xue, you have already prepared the transcript. You can go out and sign it later before you leave."

Si Xue was so happy that she thought she was fine: "Really?"

Get a nod from the policeman: "Really."

She went out happily and signed the contract happily. At the door of the police station, she met her agent and lawyer who had come out one step ahead.

The agent was still talking to the lawyer. Seeing that she had come out, he happily walked over and grabbed her hand and said, "It's okay. We are on bail for the time being. As long as we don't admit it, it will be okay."

Chapter 4992: if i admit it

Si Xue's face suddenly turned pale, his eyes flickered and he didn't dare to look at her. He hesitated and said, "What if... what if I admit it?"

Her agent and two lawyers all looked over and saw Si Xue's flickering eyes, and their hearts went cold at the same time.

She can't be that stupid, can she?

Among them, the lawyer from the HL Public Relations Department whom Elena hired took a deep breath, walked up to her and said seriously: "Miss Si, what did you tell the police? I need you to repeat it completely now. This is very important to me, you'd better not Conceal it! Only if I know the whole story can I find a way to clean up the mess for you."

Several other people were also looking at her and wanted to know what Si Xue had said.

"Me." Si Xue faltered, his eyes darting around. Several times he encountered the agent's gaze and then avoided it out of guilt. He lacked confidence and said, "I didn't say anything."

The lawyer had a stern face: "Miss Si, you have to believe that I am here to help you! If you don't cooperate with me like this, I can't help you."

Si Xue was flustered, and then she said vaguely: "I, I just mean that those things have nothing to do with me. I am... just a star. I usually leave the studio and company to take care of the maintenance of fans. What do I do?" Do not know at all."

The agent's heart sank as he thought of a possibility and suddenly looked at her with fierce eyes, as if he wanted to tear her apart.

Si Xue felt guilty and blamed others: "They asked me who the studio was referring to, and I said I have my agent."

"You backstabbed me?!" The agent's eyes were bloodshot and he was about to rush to argue with her.

The lawyer hired by Si Xue's family was quick to stop him, but he couldn't stop his manager from yelling angrily: "I didn't say anything inside, and I defended you wholeheartedly. But you ended up throwing the blame on me for yourself, right? Si Xue!" Do you think you can get away with it this way? Let me tell you! If I am caught and imprisoned, you will have to take part in it!"

She has been a manager for so long, so it is natural for her to have leverage over two artists. Si Xue has done many dirty things. As an accomplice, of course she has evidence in her hands.

She originally kept these evidences only to use them in negotiations in the future when the artist's wings became stiff and the contract with her was not renewed.

Unexpectedly, it became her life-saving talisman today.

"I treat you with all my heart. If you hadn't disliked those people and insisted on teaching them a lesson, I would have wiped your * for you? Now you are pushing me over. Do you really think you are the peerless white lotus that fans say you are?! I also have evidence in my hand. If you play like this, we will all die together!"

Sister Wen is now filled with anger in her chest that is about to explode. Her red eyes are staring at the artist she has been protecting for several years, and she wants to tear him apart to see what evil person is inside!

Si Xue was protected behind her, knowing that the agent could not do anything to her, but she was still afraid when she heard Sister Wen yelling at the top of her lungs that she had her evidence.

Si Xue bit her lip and wanted to pretend to be pitiful: "I didn't want to push you out, it was them... they forced me. I didn't say it was you who did it, I just said it was the company, and the company had to force you to do it. You can blame it on the company and nothing will happen to us."

"Hey." The agent said coldly, not bothering to expose her lies.

"Okay." The lawyer from HL raised his hand and lowered his eyebrows to stop the dog-eat-dog behavior between the two.

Chapter 4993: Wait for Sister Nian to take the initiative to call

He reminded them in a low voice: "We are still in front of the police station. There may be reporters around at any time. You can make a louder noise and call all the police and reporters. I don't have to bail you out anymore. You can just go back."

Si Xue and her manager looked stiff, turned away at the same time, and finally stopped.

"Originally, it was difficult to determine your matter from a legal perspective, but now..." Lawyer HL gave Si Xue a meaningful look, walked down the steps, and said, "Let's go back first."

The relationship between celebrities and fans can be said to be simple or complex. It is difficult to determine whether Si Xue deliberately instigated fans.

At first, the lawyer was confident of pulling Si Xue out of the whirlpool.

Now he is no longer sure.

The police just called the person to talk, and Si Xue confessed everything himself, even naming his agent.

The agent will definitely not be able to run away.

It is impossible for an agent to be willing to take the blame alone.

The final result can only be dog bites dog, with a mouth full of hair.

He said that the two of them should go back and talk about it. In fact, things have reached this point, and with Si Xue as a hindrance, it is irreversible.

Si Xue pursed her lower lip and followed her, asking in a low voice as thin as a gossamer: "I, will I be okay?"

"Let's see if they are willing to let you go." Lawyer HL opened the car door and let her get in first: "Get in."

Si Xue sat up uneasily.

"who?"

The lawyer was puzzled that she could still ask such a question. He looked at her face suspiciously, as if he wanted to see her brain capacity from her face: "Qiao Nian."

..."

The lawyer asked curiously: "You still don't understand who you have offended?"

Si Xue opened her mouth before she could speak. She must have offended that person from the Ye family. As for Qiao Nian... she hasn't taken it seriously until now.

Lawyer HL didn't want to explain to a beautiful and brainless woman like her, so he lowered his voice before her: "It's meaningless to say this now."

Sixue, shut up.

Rhine.

"Master Wan, Si Xue was taken away by a lawyer." Gu Sanzheng lowered his head and respectfully reported the news to the man: "She can't leave the capital in the near future. Even if the police let her out on bail, it shouldn't take long to find her. Evidence to arrest her."

"Yes." Ye Wangchuan turned a page of the book and held an original book on atomic energy in his hand. The light shone on him and his eyes were light, as if everything was as he expected, and he casually did not take Si Xue seriously. Something happened.

After thinking about it for a moment, he added, "Ms. Qiao told me before going out to remind you to apply the medicine."

The man reading the book pressed his white fingers on the page, raised his head weakly, glanced at him with deep and narrow eyes, and said in a hoarse voice filled with dust in the empty valley: "Why didn't she remind me herself?"

"This..." Gu San scratched his head and heard that he had never been in love, so there was no need to ask him about such dog-abuse questions.

While the two were talking, Ye Wangchuan's cell phone on the table lit up, and Qiao Nian's name was dancing on it.

Gu San saw it with sharp eyes: "It's Miss Qiao!"

Ye Wangchuan picked up the phone without him saying anything and put it to his ear: "Hello."

The other person leaned back, leaning on the back of the sofa chair in an absolutely relaxed posture, with his long legs crossed and straight under his suit pants.

"Well, I'm getting ready to apply the medicine."

Gu San is next to you:...

Ye Wangchuan ignored his existence and jumped to the next topic without blinking: "When will you come back from Master Cheng."

Chapter 4994: Sorry, I'm jealous

Qiao Nian should have given an approximate time over there.

Gu San saw how worthless his father was and said, "Okay, I'll pick you up half an hour early."

Gu San:...

Ye Wangchuan had already hung up the phone, bent down and put the phone back, closed the book, and said to Gu San: "Let people keep an eye on Si Xue, don't let her cause trouble again."

Si Xue is currently awaiting investigation. According to regulations, he cannot leave the capital, let alone go abroad... In short, it seems that he has been released on bail, but in fact it is no different from staying at the police station.

Ye Wangchuan was not worried about her running away, but he was more worried about her disturbing Qiao Nian again while waiting for the investigation at home.

He propped his elbows on the sofa cushions, leaned back, thought for a moment, tilted his head and told Gu San again: "Block her account."

Gu San raised her eyes and quickly glanced at the man, shouting in her heart. She really wanted to say that Miss Qiao didn't usually surf the Internet and didn't pay attention to the voices on the Internet at all. If Si Xue hadn't implicated Mr. Jiang this time, Miss Qiao might not be too lazy to speak out online. Even if Si Xue takes the account and talks nonsense on the Internet, Ye will not be able to affect Miss Qiao...

Ye Wangchuan turned the black agate ring on his fingertips, lowered his eyelashes slightly, and thought of something: "And that super word."

Gu San quickly answered: "I asked them to ban those fans who talked nonsense."

Who would have thought that Ye Wangchuan raised his eyelids and said with a chill: "Don't bother, just turn it off. She doesn't need this kind of entertainment forum."

Gu San:...

His eyelids twitched several times, wondering whether Miss Qiao did not need to be entertained by discussions, or whether the manager behind Miss Qiao's forum was Mr. Wen.

Even though Gu San was holding back a lot of complaints, he did not dare to say a single word. He nodded and said very well: "Yes, Mr. Wan."

Ye Wangchuan raised his hand and looked at the time. It was close to an hour before the time Qiao Nian said. He stood up, picked up the coat and car keys on the sofa, and prepared to go out.

"I'm going to pick someone up."

Gu San caught up: "But..."

Ye Wangchuan had already put on his woolen coat and opened the door with one hand. Without giving him a chance, he entered the elevator and pressed the button.

The elevator door closes.

Gu Sancai squeezed out: "You haven't applied any medicine yet..."

Master Cheng is located in the experimental base outside.

After Qiao Nian finished chatting with Master Cheng about the last match, he picked up his shoulder bag and prepared to leave first. Before she left, she remembered what she had in her bag, stopped and put it down, opened the zipper, found the bottle of pills and handed it over.

"This is for you."

"So much again?" Master Cheng took it and said too much, but his face changed from solemnity to a smile, and said seriously: "Fortunately, with this medicine you gave me, I sleep much better and don't have to stay up all night. I had a headache all night and couldn't sleep."

Qiao Nian never told him about the value of these small pills on the black market, just like the supplements given to treat sleep.

“This is a Chinese patent medicine, which can regulate sleep to a certain extent. But you still need to stay up late, take a rest when the time is up, and develop a good sleeping habit.”

"Why."

Master Cheng waved his hand and said nothing more.

But he showed that he didn't listen.

Qiao Nian has come across people like them. The older generation are always more stubborn than the young people. The same was true for Mr. Wei before. He was always afraid of not having enough time and had to finish what he was doing even if he was holding on for a breath.

This generation is not afraid of death, but they are afraid of not having enough time to burn themselves out to fulfill their ideals and ambitions.

Chapter 4995: His girlfriend doesn't want him to add someone else's WeChat account

"Just leave me alone. I know what I'm doing at this age."

Qiao Nian looked at him deeply, withdrew his gaze, and zipped up his backpack: "Okay."

"How are you going to go back later?" Master Cheng breathed a sigh of relief, but he was afraid of her persuasion. After all, he didn't have much time and couldn't spend time sleeping.

Qiao Nian carried her satchel with one hand and turned around: "Someone is here to pick it up."

Master Cheng smiled and said, "It's Young Master Ye."

Qiao Nian said generously: "Yes."

Master Cheng waved his hand: "Then I won't send you out. I'll continue the experiment I'm doing and wait for the results to be sent to you."

"good."

Qiao Nian was not pretentious, reminded him to take his medicine on time, then took his things and went out.

Master Cheng's laboratory outside was also built underground. In addition to the underground experiments, a large courtyard with red bricks and green tiles was also built above.

In December, the leaves of the sycamore trees were in full bloom. As soon as Qiao Nian went out, he saw the big G that had been parked at the door for who knows how long. This was Ye Wangchuan's recently purchased car.

The engine modified by Zhang Yang.

The man, who is about 1.8 meters tall, is leaning against the car. His smoky gray coat is hung down on his thighs, and he looks like an aristocratic gentleman.

Ye Wangchuan was looking at his cell phone with his neck raised, and he probably hadn't noticed that he was out yet.

Qiao Nian was about to walk over when he raised his eyebrows and saw three women not far away. You pushed me and I pushed you. She leaned over with an embarrassed blush on her face.

The most beautiful woman in the middle was pushed out to represent her. She raised her hand to cover her lips, coughed lightly, and spoke softly with a pair of loving almond eyes.

"Handsome guy, are you alone?"

The man looking at the phone raised his head, probably feeling disturbed. Ye Wangchuan looked at the person who spoke coldly with shallow creases at the corners of his eyes.

“et al.”

The three women were embarrassed. You looked at me and I looked at you. You could tell that they were not the same person.

However, it was not easy to meet a handsome guy of this level on the road. The handsome guy also drove a Mercedes-Benz G. No one was willing to give up such a good opportunity.

The woman in the middle pursed her lips and hesitated for a moment, then pretended she didn't understand and took out her phone: “Just add a WeChat account.”

When Ye Wangchuan was a teenager in Beijing, there was no shortage of people from the opposite * asking for WeChat. Even in school, he was often blocked at the door by people asking for WeChat.

He was used to this kind of scene. He raised his thin eyelids and raised his thin lips. He was about to refuse: “No...” There was no mobile phone.

Three words haven't been finished yet.

Someone came over and spoke for him.

“His girlfriend doesn't want him to add other people's WeChat accounts.”

Ye Wangchuan's eyelids twitched when he saw Qiao Nian coming out at some point. He raised his hand to press down his peaked cap, revealing a cold white wrist from the cuffs of his sweater.

A man stood in front of him, blocking three people.

She is not comparing herself to anyone.

Temperament is unique.

The three women were obviously a little less imposing. The woman in the middle looked at Qiao Nian with an embarrassed expression and said, "Who are you?"

Qiao Nian picked her ears, raised her face in surprise, and asked her, "Isn't it obvious?"

The meaning is clear, can't you see it?

Even if the three of them wanted to act stupid and were asked about this, they could only walk away and say: "Sorry to bother you."

Qiao Nian watched the three of them walk away.

Then he looked at the culprit, his eyes roaming over his smoky gray coat and the turtleneck white sweater underneath.

Chapter 4996: Qin Si was taken away in broad daylight

Qiao Nian reached over him and opened the car door, and boldly raised her legs to sit on it. She didn't forget to comment: "flowers and butterflies."

Ye Wangchuan:...

He helped close the passenger door, walked to the other side and got in the car. Before driving, he felt the need to defend himself: "I don't seem to be attracting bees and butterflies. God Qiao can't blame me."

Qiao Nian glanced sideways and said nonchalantly, "Then who are you? You're not content with your home?"

Ye Wangchuan:...

This is the first time that he has been judged as a flower butterfly who is restless in the house... It seems that this is not the first time for the flower butterfly, she also said it last time.

Ye Wangchuan laughed dumbly and lost his temper. He raised his hands in surrender and said, "Okay, I will go out in a sack that time."

Qiao Nian raised his head and looked at him in disbelief: "Are you going to run naked?"

Phi sack/Guo Ben. Ye: "...Then I won't go out."

Qiao Nian held her chin with her hand, turned her head, looked him up and down, and clicked her tongue for a long time: "It must be quite expensive to support you. What should I do if I can't support you?"

Ye Wangchuan has a habit of transitioning from being a soft-boiler to being a supporter. He raised the corners of his lips slightly, and his deep eyes concealed a depth that she couldn't understand: "I guess that's fine."

Qiao Nian reached out and touched his chin, saying like a gentleman: "Okay!"

Ye Wangchuan knew that she was just joking. After the incident, he asked her: "Go back directly or do you have somewhere to go?"

Qiao Nian just wanted to go back first.

The phone buzzed in his sweatshirt pocket.

She stretched her legs and found her cell phone to answer it: "Hello."

Ye Wangchuan saw her quickly put away the cynical expression in her eyes, a coldness appeared on her body, and her voice lowered several degrees.

"When did this happen?"

I don't know what to say over there.

Qiao Nian's face turned even worse. She held the phone and said, "Don't worry, I'll let David check it."

She hung up the phone and quickly said, "Something happened to Qin Si," before Ye Wangchuan could ask.

Ye Wangchuan's eyebrows skipped a beat.

Qiao Nian: "Guan Yan said that she saw Qin Si being taken away by someone in a daze, because she was upstairs at the time and saw it but had no time to get down. When she got down, the person had been taken away in a traffic jam. She immediately checked that The car was a fake car, and when she caught up with it, there was no one in the car. Qin Si was taken away. "

Mzhou is not their territory, and there is not much that Guan Yan can do.

A living person as big as Qin Si disappeared on the street like this, right under Guan Yan's nose. The other party was so arrogant!

Ye Wangchuan just said: "Could it be a hidden family?"

There is no doubt that the Yinshi family has a grudge against Qiao Nian.

Lei Kai from the radical group is okay, his attitude is rather ambiguous, and he seems to be unwilling to help both sides, but in fact he is more inclined to help Qiao Nian.

The archbishop is close to the conservatives. If it weren't for Xu Yi's relationship, he would have fallen out with Qiao Nian long ago.

The two sides are not completely at odds now, but it is not the same cooperative relationship as before.

So it is possible for both the archbishop and the Xue family.

You can even doubt the Nie family.

The Nie family also suffered a heavy hemorrhage this time, and the quarrel with Qiao Nian was very ugly. After Nie Tao was taken away by Interpol, the Nie family was on the verge of falling apart.

Not long ago, Mr. Nie, who was eighty or ninety years old, flew over and did not see Qiao Nian. There are too many reasons to say that the Nie family hates Qiao Nian.

But the Nie family has done similar things, so there is no reason to kidnap them again.

Ye Wangchuan has always been thoughtful and has everything in his hands, and he quickly picked through the possible candidates behind him.

Chapter 4997: Coming to the island!

Qiao Nian had a different idea than him.

“If the Yinshi family has a grudge against me, they should attack me. If not, they should attack Guan Yan. When Guan Yan is also in M state, why did they kidnap Qin Si?”

Guan Yan is a major member of the Red League.

If the Hidden Family wanted to regain their face, they really shouldn't go to Qin Si, but directly attack Guan Yan.

Ye Wangchuan also found something unreasonable in this.

He held his forehead and frowned, about to think deeply.

Qiao Nian is also in contact with David who is far away in Continent F. He has a wide network of contacts and knows people everywhere. He also has many business partners in Continent M.

Qiao Nian wanted to find some clues about Qin Si from him.

Ye Wangchuan's cell phone screen also lit up at this time. It was not a call coming in, but an unread text message.

The sender is not the person to whom the note was made.

But a completely unfamiliar number.

The moment the screen lights up, the content of the text message is also displayed at the top of the screen—[I invited your friend to be a guest at home, do you want to come home and have a look?]

Ye Wangchuan's eyes turned extremely cold for a moment. In anger, he put the tip of his tongue against his cheek, trying hard to suppress the murderous intention at that moment.

In the confined space in the car, Qiao Nian sensitively noticed his instant mood change. After hanging up the phone, David looked over: "What's wrong?"

Ye Wangchuan didn't want to say anything, so he handed over the phone.

Qiao Nian took it and glanced at it, and immediately understood what was going on.

"Island?"

She gave the phone back.

Ye Wangchuan lowered his eyebrows and said coldly: "They asked me to go back more than once, but I didn't agree. Maybe they can't wait any longer. If they come up with this method to force me to submit, they must ask me to go back!"

In fact, those on the island don't need to do anything extra. He originally planned to go to the island to take a look, meet the so-called biological mother and grandfather, and also help Qiao Nian to see what these people were like.

As a result, before he had time to make arrangements, someone else came to his door, only to put a wind and frost sword to his temple and force him to go to the reunion.

Is this kind of reunion considered a reunion of family members?

Ye Wangchuan's heart suddenly froze, and he couldn't say he was disappointed, because he had never had any expectations for these people, but he didn't expect that these people could refresh the lower limit of his knowledge even if he didn't expect them.

"Qin Si's life will not be in danger in their hands for the time being. Please tell David not to check. I will pick him up myself."

Ye Wangchuan's tone was light.

"All they want is for me to come over. They want to see me whether I go there in the morning or in the evening. They just want to advance the time."

Qiao Nian could feel that he was trying to control his emotions. He didn't want to bring these bad emotions to himself, so he tried to suppress them.

She is not a person who is good at comforting. She raised her hand and put it on the back of his hand and grabbed it hard. She looked forward and said, "I'll go with you."

Ye Wangchuan turned his head to look at her, his thin lips pursed slightly, as if he had something to say.

He had promised Qiao Nian to go with him before, but according to his plan, he did not go there in such a forced way.

He still doesn't know what the situation is like on the island, why the person who pretended to be a good grandpa and mother for two or three years suddenly changed his face and forced Qin Si to go to the island even if he kidnapped him...

It would be dangerous for Qiao Nian to go with him.

Qiao Nian seemed to know what he wanted to say and was very calm: "If there is danger, I will go too."

Ye Wangchuan blocked all his words, raised his hand, held her hand with his backhand, squeezed it tightly, and said to Qiao Nian in a deep voice: "I'll tell the Qin family first."

Qin Si's disappearance was such a big deal, he had to give the Qin family an explanation.

After all, he was the one who transferred Qin Si to M Continent to help. Now that he is gone, it is his responsibility to appease the Qin family.

Chapter 4998: Sister Nian had offended many people on the island.

Mrs. Qin lost her strength and fell on the sofa on the spot. She covered her face with her hands, bent down, buried her head in her knees and started sobbing.

Qin Lang was a little better. He took a deep breath to suppress the fear and worry in his heart. He went over to pat his wife's back and comforted him in a low voice: "That * will be fine. You don't know what kind of character that kid is. Throw him into the primitive state." In society, he can get involved with others right away."

"But..." Mrs. Qin raised her head with red eyes. Before she finished speaking, tears fell down.

Qin Lang gently wiped away her tears and coaxed in a low voice: "Okay, don't cry. Young Master Ye is still here. It's not good for us as elders to cry."

Mrs. Qin wiped away her tears and remained silent.

They all know in their hearts that the island is not a primitive society. Primitive society is not that dangerous, but the island is full of dangers.

Qin Si was 'invited' to the island. How could their parents not worry about the safety of their children?

Ye Wangchuan felt the terrifying atmosphere in the living room. After Qin Lang coaxed Mrs. Qin to stop crying, he said, "This happened because of me. I will bring you back safely!"

Qin Lang is much more mature and steady after all. Hearing this, his features tightened and his face looked serious as he said, "Have you discussed it with Mr. Ye? If there is any danger..."

Qin Lang frowned and asked again: "Why don't you let Mr. Ye come forward?"

Ye Wangchuan's identity is unusual.

Although he was worried about his son's safety, if Qin Si returned home safely and Ye Wangchuan was trapped there, the Qin family would not be able to bear the responsibility.

The third generation of the Ye family has only one seedling.

The recognized heir of the Ye family.

As the Qin family is a vassal of the Ye family, Qin Si is not worthy of letting Ye Wangchuan sacrifice his life in exchange for it.

Qin Lang knew the importance in his heart, and when he was hesitating, he heard the man say firmly and forcefully: "It is not convenient for my grandfather to come forward. It is me they are looking for. Qin Si is only implicated by me. As long as I pass, they will let him go." Don't worry, Uncle Qin, I will tell the old man when I get home. He is not a person who doesn't care about the life and death of others, so I can understand."

Qin Lang didn't know what to say for a moment, so he just nodded heavily, pursed his lips and said, "Be safe."

"Um."

Ye Wangchuan nodded lightly and said to him: "I have to go back to make some preparations, so I won't disturb you."

Qin Lang didn't notice that a few strands of hair were hanging down in front of his forehead. His face was full of exhaustion and decadence, and he waved his hand at him: "Go and do your work, I won't send it away."

Ye Wangchuan knew that he still wanted to comfort Mrs. Qin, so he wisely left Jingyuan.

Outside.

Qiao Nian sat in the car and waited for people to come out.

When she saw Ye Wangchuan coming out, she walked straight over and opened the door and got into the car. She tilted her head and said with bright eyes, "How is it?"

Ye Wangchuan changed his seat on the passenger seat and put on his seat belt: "I told them. Uncle Qin is fine, but Auntie is crying."

Qiao Nian covered her head on the back of his hand, remained silent for a moment and said, "Don't worry, we will definitely be able to take Qin Si home."

Ye Wangchuan was not worried about this. Instead, he turned his head and looked at her with blazing eyes: "How do you plan to go with me?"

It would definitely not work for Qiao Nian to just go there like this.

Nie Qingru originally cooperated with the island and was determined to bury her in the vast wilderness of F Continent. However, Qiao Nian counterattacked and killed her, and many people on the island fell into her hands.

She showed no mercy to those people at the beginning. She took them to the high seas and performed a performance of feeding sharks, which scared those people to death.

Chapter 4999: Things from F state were delivered.

On the island, a ransom was paid before the people were taken back. The leader was seriously injured and had to lie down for three months without being able to get out of bed.

This beam is getting bigger.

It's fine for her to stay in Beijing.

Country Z has sound laws and it is difficult for black forces from outside to get in.

This is also the main reason why their life was so peaceful during this period!

If Qiao Nian rashly left the capital city and went straight to the base camp on the island, it would be too risky. It was no longer dangerous, but she was seeking death.

Ye Wangchuan agreed to take her there with a precondition, which was to ensure his own safety.

If Qiao Nian cannot guarantee his own safety.

Even if he had trouble with her, he couldn't take her there.

Qiao Nian raised her eyelids and raised her eyebrows, as if she knew the purpose of asking this question. She stretched her long legs slightly and said nonchalantly: "Don't worry, David has some good stuff there. I've asked him to deliver it. It will be ready tomorrow if nothing happens." When you get to Beijing City, you will know when I get it."

Ye Wangchuan threw the car keys to her: "Are you driving?"

Qiao Nian took it and threw it into the card slot. He stepped on the accelerator with one foot and turned the steering wheel with one hand. His jaw line was sharp and straight: "Sit down."

As soon as she finished speaking, the * G shot out like a stream of fire.

Fortunately, this section belongs to a wealthy area, and there are very few cars on the road in the Xiangshan Villa area at night. Otherwise, she would have been caught on camera as she was racing at such a high speed, so she would have been invited to the police station for tea.

...

The next day.

In the afternoon, a courier arrived from Rhine.

Gu San took the flat express box from the courier, signed it, and asked the courier to take a photo of his face. The courier checked his identity with the person on the other side of the headset before rushing to him. Nodding, indicating that he received the message successfully.

"Is express delivery so strict now?" Gu San held the strange express box in both hands, went back and hooked the door with his foot, closed it and walked in.

He lowered his head and glanced at the recipient's name Qiao Nian written on the express box. After thinking about it, he climbed up to the second floor and knocked on Qiao Nian's door.

“叩叩。”

Miss Qiao, I have your express delivery. "

There were sounds inside, and after a while, Gu San heard footsteps approaching. The door in front of him opened, revealing the girl's tired and sleepy face.

When Qiao Nian didn't wake up, the folds at the corners of her eyes were clear, cold and dry, her black and white eyes had cold pupils, and she was wearing a pullover sweater. At first glance, it looked like the clothes on the bedside that she had just picked up when she got up. She stepped aside to get out of the way. .

“Ang, put it inside.”

The voice is dry and hoarse.

Gu San didn't dare to look around, so he went in and put down the box. When he turned back, he said, "This express delivery is a bit strange. There is no sender information..."

Qiao Nian grabbed a handful of broken hair hanging down from her forehead, followed it, lowered her eyelids, as if she was a little more awake, and replied casually: "It's from F state."

She opened the express box in front of Gu San, who peeked over curiously.

There was nothing valuable in the box, not gems or antiques, but a bunch of warm yellow tape items.

That thing collapsed together softly, and it was hard to tell what it was at first glance.

It wasn't until Qiao Nian took the thing in his hand that Gu Sancai opened his eyes wide, pointed at the thing, and said in disbelief: "Human, human skin mask?!"

He has seen Hollywood movies, and there are often things like this in movies. The protagonist looks like a different person.

But everyone knows that it is a makeup effect, and there is no such thing in reality.

Chapter 5000: What did you see?

But now what he thought was just a movie prop suddenly appeared in front of him, and it really existed, subverting Gu San's three views.

He noticed that the human skin mask Qiao Nian was holding was much thinner than the one in the movie, and its almost translucent texture under the light was very much like real human skin.

This is not real skin, is it?

Goose bumps appeared on Gu San's back, and he felt horrified afterward.

It's not that he hasn't seen the world before, but even if he wears a skinned human skin on his face, he still can't control the goosebumps all over his body.

At this time, Qiao Nian finished checking what David had sent, raised his legs and leaned on the edge of the chair. From the corner of his eye, he noticed Gu San's face suddenly turning red and blue. She guessed what he was thinking, raised his eyebrows, and rushed He raised the object in his hand.

"What are you thinking about! This is a simulated mask made of polymer nanomaterials. If it were real skin, it would have weathered long ago."

"Huh..." Gu Sansong said, embarrassed to admit that he had speculated on the possibility of human skin with his dirty thoughts. Curiously, he stepped forward and asked, "Miss Qiao, why do you need a human skin mask?"

Qiao Nian pulled up a chair and sat down: "Dress up!"

Gu San's head was full of questions.

Qiao Nian was not going to explain to him, so she said to him without looking back: "Hold the door for me when I go out, thank you."

"...OK."

Even if Gu San didn't want to leave, he had to go out obediently and close the door as Qiao Nian asked.

He stood in the corridor for half a minute, touching the back of his head, and whispered in an unclear voice: "...No, why does Miss Qiao need a human skin mask? She wants to dress up? She wants to film a movie?"

As Gu San walked downstairs, he mentally denied his foolish guess.

Qiao Nian has been scouted by talent scouts since he was around the city.

Jiang Li's manager has so far wanted Qiao Nian to enter the entertainment industry. He praised her as a swaggering sister, saying that there is no such female star in the entertainment industry.

After all, in the entertainment industry full of young people, even if a female star adopts the style of a royal sister, she is still a royal sister on the surface. In private, she still has to show her soft and cute side to gain fans.

Like Qiao Nian's arrogance that drives her to the bone, there is no meal replacement in the entertainment industry.

Not to mention that Qiao Nian herself has a face that can be beaten, and she wears cross-dressing. She usually wears a hooded sweatshirt when walking around Tsinghua University. She is also the beauty of Tsinghua University who is still discussed in Tsinghua University.

Shao Wen is still thinking about Bai Yueguang's first love.

Gu San concluded that even if Qiao Nian is in the entertainment industry, she doesn't need to cross-dress. She can directly face the mirror. In the entertainment industry where traffic is king, she won't have to worry about having a job.

Then why does Miss Qiao get a mask...

Gu San walked tangledly all the way, only to find that Ye Wangchuan had come out at some point.

He quickly put away his random guesses and walked over: "Master Wan, why are you out? Do you want coffee?"

Ye Wangchuan pressed his temples and went to get a glass of water. He turned around and asked him: "I just heard a sound..."

"Oh." Gu San immediately explained without him asking, "Someone rang the doorbell just now. It was a courier. There was a courier from Miss Qiao. I collected it for her and it has been delivered to Miss Qiao's room."

"Hmm." Ye Wangchuan took a sip of water to moisten his throat, his eyelashes slightly drooped, and he was about to say something when he suddenly turned his face sideways as if telepathically, looking past Gu San toward the stairs.

Then he stood still!

"Wang Ye?"

Gu San found that he suddenly stopped talking, felt strange, and looked over.

The next moment, shocking swear words burst out of his mouth.

“Wocao!”
