

Madam's 5031

Chapter 5031: Looking for trouble again

Who doesn't know that the island is divided into two places: inside the protected area and outside the protected area.

The protected area is where they usually stay, including the martial arts training ground, the parliament hall, the punishment yard, the Bodhidharma hall, etc...

Private residences of major families are also here.

The nature reserve is a different world, similar to the outside world. It is bustling with high-rise buildings and is divided into two areas: Gangcheng District and Wucheng District.

These two cities are in the hands of Mu Lao and Shi Lao respectively, and they are also mixed with the entangled interests of multiple families, which is very complicated.

That part is not accessible to his level.

Adam doesn't know much, he only knows that it is unreasonable that Ye Wangchuan does not live in the reserve...

"God, I hope you won't trick me to death."

Adam muttered and followed.

Ahead, Qu Si has already led people to the front of the car.

An ordinary black Jaguar was parked outside the airport, with an ordinary license plate number.

After Qu Si brought them here, he knocked on the car window.

Turning back to Ye Wangchuan and Qiao Nian, he said, "The space in the car is relatively small. Major General Ye will just take a seat."

His words were perfunctory and there was no sincerity in them. Then he knocked on the car window impatiently and cursed: "Where are the people? Where have they gone?"

He took out his mobile phone in front of Qiao Nian and the others and made a call.

Then he frowned and argued loudly with the person on the other end of the phone: "We're here, where are you? I asked you to drive a * car, but you're still missing. Come here quickly!"

Qiao Nian raised his eyebrows, and his cold eyes guessed what was coming next.

Sure enough.

Seeing Qu Si's eyebrows raised and his little eyes twinkling, she said loudly: "What? You can't come? Does your stomach hurt?"

He watched Ye Wangchuan's reaction with his small eyes, then put his hand around the phone's microphone and said angrily: "You fart with me? How can you go to the hotel if you don't come as a 'distinguished guest'... On such a cold night, you let people walk there? ..."

Qu Si cursed a few more times, probably saying that the driver was useless and was delaying things. He hung up the phone and looked at Qiao Nian and Ye Wangchuan with an embarrassed look on his face.

"Well... Mr. Ye, I'm really sorry. The driver I prepared for you has a stomachache and can't come over."

Ye Wangchuan's mouth curled up indifferently, holding the phone with his long fingers, lazily and casually: "It's okay, since you are so busy, I will go back."

Qu Si's whole body stiffened, and he forced out a chuckle: "Young Master Ye, what do you mean?"

"It's not interesting. You can't spare the manpower to accompany me around, and you can't find a driver to drive. I'll call the person who wants me to come, and I'll come over from Beijing when you make arrangements next time. ." Ye Wangchuan pretended to leave, and at the same time seemed to be preparing to make a phone call.

Qu Si's expression changed completely, and he stepped in front of him with three steps and two steps to apologize: "Ye, Mr. Ye, please don't be joking."

He looked at the man's hand warily and stopped him: "Don't call."

Little people have their own rules of survival. Qu Si followed Mu Qingtian's wishes and gave Ye Wangchuan a slap in the face, but it didn't mean that he was willing to offend the ten elders head-on.

The reason why he dared to do this was because he saw that the Theron family also wanted to give the future heir a show of strength.

Big shots can have undercurrents in private, but once such things are brought to light, a cannon fodder must be sacrificed to quell the anger.

If Ye Wangchuan called Shi Lao and made a fuss about going back, he would be the cannon fodder who died tonight!

Chapter 5032: Mr. Wang made him restrain himself with just one word.

Ye Wangchuan smiled: "What, you found the driver?"

Qu Si stopped pretending: "Master Ye, I am just a small character, so please don't embarrass me. I will drive for Master Ye later and ensure that you are safely delivered to the hotel."

Ye Wangchuan looked at him deeply, his eyes were not sharp, but very oppressive, until Qu Sikuai could no longer withstand the pressure and his back was straightened.

If you are amnesty, hear him say.

"I hope nothing more happens before I get to the hotel."

Qu Si smiled and said: "Of course, of course!"

The next thing Qiao Nian saw was him quickly finding the car keys, opening the door, waiting for Ye Wangchuan to get in the car like a loyal lackey, and then sitting in the front seat.

Qiao Nian was at the back, so she didn't rush up. Instead, she stuffed her luggage into the trunk at an angle where people in the car couldn't see her.

She looked at Borui who came with them.

"you."

Bo Rui raised his head at the same time, and his eyes met hers. He frowned slightly, with a heavy look in his eyes.

Qiao Nian took one look and confirmed that Borui did not recognize her.

The human skin mask given by David is indeed a high-quality product that is not circulated on the black market. It is the only black technology in the world.

She saw a man next to Borui looking over in surprise. She didn't want to cause unnecessary trouble, so she immediately shut up.

Qiao Nian put the luggage into the trunk, raised her hand to close the door, walked around to the front, opened the passenger door and got in.

Bory looked at her back and felt vaguely familiar, but couldn't remember where he had seen her before.

"Eh." Adam lowered his voice and came over: "Was that little potato talking to you just now? I think I heard 'he' called you."

Borui looked away coldly: "Maybe he wanted us to help him put his luggage, but he gave up later for some reason."

"Is that so?" Adam's face was full of confusion and disbelief.

Bori's face was expressionless, as if he didn't care at all.

He stopped worrying and looked back at the three people who got on the bus. He said in his heart, "Tomorrow there will be instructors for the school exam at the end of the month... I hope I can go back early and go to bed early."

He just finished speaking.

The driver's window is rolled down. Qu Si showed his thin, narrow face, glanced at the two of them with unkind eyes, and said, "Hey, you two, come here."

Bory and Adam stepped forward.

Seeing that they were unhappy, Qu Si naturally said in a bad tone: "Young Master Ye said that he would just go back to the hotel and rest without your protection. You can go back first and go over tomorrow."

"Really?" Adam was overjoyed.

Qu Si looked at him coldly: "Leave your contact information."

Qiao Nian handed the phone over from the other end and asked Qu Si to pass it to the two of them.

Borui took it and found that what the other person handed over was a QR code. They each scanned it, added their Signal account number, and returned the phone.

“Didi.”

Soon their cell phones rang.

They each have one more message.

is a series of phone numbers that Qiao Nian sent to them respectively.

Borui also sent his phone number and saved the string of numbers Qiao Nian sent.

Look again at the nickname of the other party’s account.

A simple M.

This simple way of naming with only one initial letter is not special, but it reminds him of a person.

Bory didn’t delve into it.

After all, it is impossible for Qiao Nian to come here.

He saved the phone number, put the phone back into his coat pocket, and watched the black Jaguar disappear into the night.

Until invisible.

He turned around and called Adam.

“Let’s go, let’s go back to sleep too.”

Chapter 5033: Sister Nian and the others have already seen it.

Qu Si did not cause any trouble along the way and successfully sent them to a hotel on Central Street in a bustling neighborhood.

Qiao Nian seemed to be taking a nap on the road, but in fact she was observing her surroundings through the rearview mirror.

The car drove to the door of the hotel and stopped.

Qu Si said a few words to the person who handed over.

Immediately, someone respectfully took their luggage for them and sent them back to their room.

Qiao Nian didn't let them take it. She carried her shoulder bag and pushed the suitcase with one hand. She followed the person leading the way and swiped her card to enter the elevator and went to the top-floor presidential suite.

According to Ye Wangchuan's request, Qiao Nian, as his bodyguard, needs to follow him 24 hours a day.

This group of people did not arrange a separate room for her, but gave her an extra room card so that Qiao Nian could enter and leave the suite at any time.

Then they asked Ye Wangchuan if he needed to prepare a midnight snack.

Ye Wangchuan said there was no need for the queen.

They wisely went out and closed the door of the suite.

There are no outsiders inside.

Qiao Nian checked around the inside, looking at the oil paintings on the wall for a while, then tapping on the wall with his fingers. After a while, he bent down and picked up the fruits on the coffee table, looked at them one by one as if he wanted to eat them, and then put them down...

She walked around the living room, put down the ornaments on the wall cabinet, and then turned back to the man and said, "Fortunately, they are not so crazy that they set the surveillance camera in the hotel."

Ye Wangchuan took a glass of water and handed it to her: "Take a rest."

Qiao Nian didn't ask for it, so she went over him to get her bag, took out her laptop, and found a seat on the sofa to sit down.

Qiao read the notebook and put it on his lap. He leaned back and said, "Just in case, I'd better cut off the network here."

Ye Wangchuan watched as her fingers quickly tapped a few keys on the keyboard. The hotel's defense system popped up on the screen, and then Qiao Nian calmly entered it and took over the hotel's network security.

Then she blocked all the signals in her room and quickly disconnected from the network. The process was smooth and took less than a minute.

Even if someone is watching the hotel backend network 24 hours a day, it would be difficult to notice the one-minute network fluctuation arc... No wonder Qiao Nian can become a top hacker.

With just one hand, he was far more powerful than the people he kept in the bunker.

"alright."

Qiao Nian put down the notebook at this time, stood up and found paper and pen from the cabinet, walked back and put them there again and sat down.

“While time is still available, I will first draw the route I took tonight.”

Ye Wangchuan also walked over and sat down next to her, waiting for her to draw first.

Qiao Nian deliberately took note of his surroundings on the way.

She has an amazing memory.

Not long after, the scratch paper under the tip of the pen sketched out the rough outline of the road they walked tonight, including what shops were on both sides of the road.

After reading it, Ye Wangchuan took the pen from her: "I still remember a few places, and there is a hidden whistle here."

Qiao Nian tilted her head and watched as he marked a cross at the 30° position of the airport entrance and exit he drew. Then Ye Wangchuan started writing and quickly made several more crosses on Qiao Nian's original foundation...

"There were defenses all the way until we drove through a dark road on both sides...and exited a gate. We never saw similar deployments on the road behind."

Ye Wangchuan leaned very close to talk.

Qiao Nian could smell the faint scent of cedar on his body. She was distracted for a moment and was pulled over by the man again.

“...In other words, they are divided into two areas, inside the island and outside the island. The inside of the island is their core area. It is heavily guarded and no outsiders are allowed to enter.”

Chapter 5034: The island is actually the sixth continent in the world

"The area outside the island is where we live. It's more like the outside world, with hotels, commercial areas, and industrial areas all available. Even the people living here may not know enough about the people on the island and can't get in touch with the core. Circle."

"Yes. I discovered it too." Qiao Nian also agreed with this point. She raised her eyes and looked at him and said, "When I checked into the hotel, I saw the reaction of the front desk. The front desk was very respectful to Qu Si, but not that kind of fearful in his bones. ...It doesn't look like he knows Qu Si's identity."

"And the people here are more like ordinary people."

"Yes, more like an ordinary person." Ye Wangchuan's eyes gradually turned dark, and he said something with emotion in an understatement.

The two of them looked at each other at the same time as if they had a tacit understanding, and they both saw caution in each other's eyes.

The island is the home of the Theron family.

There is actually another world hidden here, with one or even more than one city standing in it, and the people in the city may not know much about the Theron family.

This shows how powerful the Theron family is in controlling people's hearts. They are definitely not the same people they have seen before.

"Since this place is divided into an inner island and an outer island, the area of the island may be much larger than we previously predicted."

Ye Wangchuan rubbed his eyebrows and frowned slightly.

This is not good news for them.

This place is no longer an island, but closer to a continent!

"Island...may just be their name. This is a continent, the sixth continent independent of the five continents."

Qiao Nian was also aware of what Ye Wangchuan said.

She put her left hand on her knees, bent her legs, pressed her body forward, slightly supported her chin, squinted her eyes, and thought about the current situation quickly.

If the island were there, it would be the sixth continent in the world.

Then the preliminary preparations they made were too childish.

They want to find Qin Si in a vast place, which is like looking for a needle in a haystack, and they can only rely on the other party to 'return' Qin Si to them.

Otherwise, the possibility of them finding someone on their own is very small.

It's too risky.

Qiao Nian raised her eyelids and looked at Ye Wangchuan: "But judging from the people we met tonight, it seems that your family doesn't intend to repay you easily, and they also want to give you a blow and wear you down."

Ye Wangchuan was noncommittal: "I didn't expect the scene of relatives reuniting and hugging each other. They are not that kind of people, so I am not surprised by what happened tonight."

Qiao Nian held her chin: "Actually...if you hold your head and cry, and your mother is kind and her son is filial, we can get Qin Si back a little bit. How about...you go and show off and act coquettishly?"

Ye Wangchuan glanced at her.

Qiao Nian immediately sat up straight, coughed slightly, and said righteously: "That's definitely not possible!"

"How can I make our Mr. Ye surrender? As your loyal bodyguard, I will defend your dignity to the death! We will not surrender. Whoever wants to surrender will obey."

Ye Wangchuan was graceful and graceful. He looked at her with his eyelashes lowered at the end of his eyes, outlining the light and shadow: "Huh? Will you defend it to the death?"

Qiao Nian could hear a sense of settling accounts in his voice, and raised her hand honestly: "...I remember what I promised you, don't worry, I won't regret it."

"You'd better remember." Ye Wangchuan emphasized his tone, not quite believing her.

Qiao Nian turned her eyes away and didn't look at him. She felt guilty. She coughed again and looked away without looking at him: "Remember, I promised you that I would not act alone or take risks. I will do what I promised. Do it and you won't forget it."

Chapter 5035: Qin Si was not restricted from freedom

Ye Wangchuan suddenly raised his hand and rubbed the top of her head, interrupting her: "Let's figure out a solution for Qin Si's matter slowly. Let's take this opportunity to find out the situation on the island first. What do you want to do next? helpful..."

What Qiao Nian wants to do is bound to change the world.

The major secluded families in the world, including the Theron family, would never stand idly by and let her break the power blockade they had secretly reached on her own.

Then he would use the Theron family as the fulcrum, pry open a piece of the sky for her, let her fly, and see how big the sky she could tear open.

And he is always below to catch her.

Ye Wangchuan's rough fingertips gently landed on her cheek, sliding and touching her back and forth, his eyes full of charm: "So don't worry, let's find out the situation in the Sixth Continent first."

The temperature of Qiao Nian's skin touched by him rose, and her heartbeat became erratic. Her eyes wandered around the color of his lips twice.

Finally, after thinking about it, they two 'men' lived together.

If Ye Wangchuan went out with a ring of teeth marks on his lips tomorrow... Qiao Nian thought about that scene and the gossip-probing looks of the people around him.

She silently retracted her little thoughts, stretched out her hand to push him away, exhaled a thick breath, and the old monk tilted his neck back in concentration. Said: "Are you going to take a shower? If not, I will go."

"you go first."

"good."

Seeing her standing up while stroking the back of her neck, Ye Wangchuan quickly walked into the bathroom as if she was running away. He curled his lips, suppressed his joy, and then picked up the defense plan drawn by Qiao Nian on the table again, revealing his sharp black eyes. I squinted and thought about what to do next...

The person he and Qiao Nian were thinking about at the moment was still in Gangcheng District.

A black Ferrari Panther crashed down the street in a busy neighborhood and raced past.

The almost completely black car body gives people a strong sense of oppression, a bit like Darth Vader, Sir Alex, and the Sith Lord Darth Vader are standing in front of them, preparing to choke with a Force choke. Full of impact.

The black glare was followed by four or five off-road vehicles.

The off-road vehicle's horsepower couldn't keep up with the supercar, but it didn't stop them from chasing the Ferrari in front of them until the dazzling Ferrari flicked its tail and braked suddenly, stopping at the door of the courtyard.

The off-road vehicles chasing the car behind them seemed to be relieved, and they were well-trained in blocking the front, rear and left sides of the court, not giving anyone a chance to escape.

The man on the black off-road vehicle stopped behind the Ferrari pulled the handbrake and picked up the walkie-talkie that was placed in the card slot.

Report to the person on the other end in a bad tone.

"He came to the hearing again."

"He didn't do anything unnecessary in the middle?"

"without."

The man on the off-road vehicle had sloppy hair and an unkempt beard, and was very impatient: "He reached 180 yards in the whole process and almost threw us all away. If we hadn't chased with our lives, we wouldn't have caught up with this kid. At such a fast speed, he could still do it Who do you do unnecessary things with?"

As he spoke, he squinted his eyes and saw Qin Si opening the car door and getting out.

In their eyes, an oriental man who was definitely not tall was supposed to be synonymous with gentleness and gentleness. When the man thought of the torture he had experienced in the past few days, he patted the steering wheel angrily and said angrily in a low voice: "Damn it, you guys from country Z. They are so desperate, one is more crazy than the other. Why does he come to the court every day? Why does he just torment at night and not sleep? "

"He did it on purpose." The person on the other end of the intercom was completely calm and even indifferent to the complaints: "We have also checked. He just comes here to play every day. He doesn't make any mess. He just spends money inside, orders wine, and can't drink. It's just a waste. I didn't ask anyone to accompany me. What do you think he was doing in there?"

Chapter 5036: We met at the school performance

"So every night when it's time for him to go to bed, he goes to the courtyard to sleep, and tells us all to stop sleeping and keep our eyes open to keep watch for him?"

The man smiled angrily.

"He treats us like dogs??"

If Shi Lao hadn't asked them to only keep an eye on Qin Si's whereabouts and not harm Qin Si, he would have wanted to get out of the car now, rush in, drag the person out and beat him up to relieve his anger.

"How the ten elders arrange it, how we will execute it." The person on the other end of the intercom reminded him: "Don't do unnecessary things."

The man was unwilling to give in: "...I know."

Through the glass in front of him, he saw Qin Si entering the courtyard. He was so energetic that he didn't look like he had just tormented a person during the day.

He found a cigarette again in annoyance, took out one and lit it, thinking that he would have to sit outside all night waiting for someone to come out.

But the boy was eating and drinking inside, drinking foreign wine and sleeping... The cigarette in his mouth suddenly became tasteless, and he was very depressed.

It is destined to be sleepless tonight.

The next day.

The training ground wins the basic test before the monthly assessment.

This basic test was conducted by Master No. 003, known as Devil Instructor. A total of 6 instructors participated, all 6 of whom are well-known ruthless characters on the island.

Bory and Adam came early in the morning.

By the way, Ye Wangchuan and Qiao Nian, who called them in the morning, also came with them.

Bory asked the instructor.

The instructor asked for instructions from the superiors and allowed Ye Wangchuan and Qiao Nian to watch from the side, and everyone deliberately pretended not to see them.

The Ying 11 gang saw this scene when they arrived.

The man wearing a brown woolen turtleneck sweater and the little follower he brought stood ten steps away from the ring. The two tilted their heads and exchanged words.

He was far away and couldn't hear what the two of them said specifically.

But I can feel a subtle atmosphere surrounding the two of them, as if everything around them has nothing to do with them, a barrier unique to people with strong hearts. He lowered his eyes and became violent.

“Why is he here?”

"who?"

The friends around him saw Ye Wangchuan and Qiao Nian in the direction and subconsciously rejected them.

“Where do the Asians come from?”

This kind of people with yellow skin, black eyes and black hair, in their eyes, represents an inferior race that is weak, timid and incompetent.

Shadow Ten snorted coldly: "You haven't received the news? The Theron family has called back the * son who was living outside."

Dowell showed an expression of sudden realization: "It's him."

They looked at Ye Wangchuan from a distance, as if he were evaluating goods: "It doesn't look like much. He's just a pretty guy, so why should he compete with Mu Di?"

As we all know, Shi Lao and Mu Lao come from the same pure bloodline of the Theron family. In this generation, the original heir of the Shi Lao family suddenly died suddenly, and his only son had an accident. This forced Shi Lao to find Sailan's young man. When talking to the son of life outside.

But how could Mr. Mu's family, who were also of pure blood, be willing to let an 'outsider' with an irregular bloodline inherit their family business.

Now there are two forces on the island, those who support Mu Di and those who support Shi Lao.

These two forces often clash.

There are constant overt and covert fights.

These struggles also affect the younger generation.

Ying Shi's family is a supporter of Shi Lao. It is said that he should firmly defend Ye Wangchuan, but besides having a personal grudge against Ye Wangchuan, he has a personal grudge against Ye Wangchuan.

There is still a woman in his heart that he regards as a god.

This person is destined to be engaged to Ye Wangchuan and become Ye Wangchuan's wife.

Chapter 5037: Do you think he won't bite you if he recognizes you?

Based on personal emotions, Ying Shi could not support Ye Wangchuan as firmly as his grandmother in considering the interests of the family.

Even he couldn't control his feelings and couldn't hide his disgust for men.

"Baby face?" Ying Shi sneered coldly: "He is not a pretty boy. You have seen the wrong person. He is a venomous snake. If you dare to provoke him, be careful that he bites your throat and seals it with blood!"

"Hiss." Dowell was covered in goosebumps at what he described, and looked at him suspiciously: "Is it that exaggerated? I don't think he has a lot of flesh on his body, how powerful can he be?"

Ying Shi pointed to his temple and looked ahead with an expressionless expression: "Some people's strength isn't their muscles, it's their muscles."

"Brain? Is there anyone here who has a lot of brains? There aren't many fools these days." Dowell still didn't believe what he said and thought he was exaggerating.

Shadow 10 will not be explained anymore.

He mainly doesn't want to mention his experiences in Continent F. Those experiences are a nightmare that haunts him every night, and they are also a shame that he doesn't want to mention!

"Just forget it if you don't believe it."

Dowell and few of the other second-generation people believed his 'exaggerated' threats. They all looked at the two people in the distance and pointed at them with playful smiles.

In their view.

Ye Wangchuan does not have a strong physique or strong explosive power, and he is not a dangerous person in any way. Even the opponent's overly outstanding appearance has become 'evidence' in their eyes that he is a pretty boy.

Ying Shi listened to their discussion with a cold eye and did not interrupt.

Instead, he folded his arms and leaned on the edge, his eyes constantly observing the man not far away and the inconspicuous bodyguard brought by Ye Wangchuan.

Before coming here this morning, he thought Qiao Nian would follow.

Until I came here.

He discovered that Ye Wangchuan did not bring Qiao Nian, but a male bodyguard, who was not very tall, only about 170 years old.

170 is a very ambiguous height.

If the bodyguard was any shorter, he would have to think in other directions.

But Qiao Nian and this bodyguard really didn't match up at all in appearance. That kind of resemblance can't be changed simply by applying makeup, but the facial features and contours are different.

In addition, there is also a slight difference in height.

Ying Shi didn't think too much, and walked around Qiao Nian's body for a few times before looking away coldly.

at the same time.

Seemingly not noticing the two people on their side.

Qiao Nian raised her neck slightly to talk to the man.

"He has looked at me several times, wouldn't he recognize him?"

Ye Wangchuan glanced over inadvertently from the corner of his eyes, with a smile on his lips, half-smile but not a smile: "Qiao Shen, do you think he will recognize you and won't pounce on you and bite you?"

Qiao Nian raised her hand and touched her earlobe: "No."

Ye Wangchuan glanced at her with a smile, his eyes seemed to say, 'You buried all his twenty-something brothers in F Continent, with such hatred as the sea, what are you thinking about?'

Qiao Nian met his eyes and coughed: "Well, seeing how calm he is, that means he didn't recognize it. It's good that he didn't recognize it!"

Ye Wangchuan didn't take Ying Shi seriously and said lightly: "It doesn't matter if he recognizes it. Just kill him before he says it. It's just a little troublesome."

"..." Qiao Nian glanced in the direction of Ying Shi again, and said after a long silence: "Then I'd better try not to let him notice."

...

While the two of them were sizing each other up, the school martial arts field was filled with wails.

Chapter 5038: Make up your mind to target newcomers

Some people were overjoyed and celebrated their luck in not being selected to compete with the instructors, while others couldn't laugh and were so dejected that they just had "unlucky" written on their faces.

Bory and the others belong to the latter.

After the instructor randomly selected the people, the selected people stayed, while those who were not selected found the best viewing point below.

Adam walked over with a livid face, clenched his fists, and veins popped out on the back of his hands: "TMD, they are targeting us again! These people did it on purpose."

Not surprised, Borui raised his hand and patted him twice on the shoulder: "Okay, don't think about it."

Adam glared at him fiercely: "It happens every time. They choose us every time. I don't want to think about it, but they are targeting us too obviously! It's just that they didn't use us as sandbags. Whoever changes it will be angry!" "

After Adam finished speaking, he looked at him again and was suddenly discouraged: "I almost forgot... you are not angry. Among all our brothers, everyone is filled with indignation, but you are the only one who is not angry every time... Sometimes I don't understand whether you are not angry. I still don't think these people are deliberately humiliating us."

Bory raised his hand and patted him again. Seeing that he was in a low mood, it was rare for him to tell him the truth: "Neither of the two. I just think it's useless to be angry."

Adam raised his head and met his eyes.

Boritan is magnanimous.

His mood was uncontrollable and a layer of haze enveloped him. Unable to vent anger gathered in his chest and got stuck in his throat. It became difficult for Adam to even breathe.

Sometimes he wanted to fight the gang in the school martial arts field regardless, but his reason told him that even if he went out and acted impulsively, he would be nothing more than a joke in front of these bastards.

If he doesn't want to be a joke, he has to do what Borui said and become strong enough to shut up all those who laugh at them.

but...

Where can one become stronger so easily? Their path to advancement has long been blocked by people with backgrounds and qualifications.

A group of second-generation people headed by Ying Shi usually use them as sandbags. Even the fair monthly exams and mock exams are not always based on favors.

Shadow 10, Dowell and his gang are clearly here too.

The teachers didn't seem to see them. They didn't even come up to gather. A group of second-generation ancestors just watched the fun and pointed at them.

The teachers were also very targeted when selecting people. After picking and choosing, they selected their new candidates, and then selected a few strong ones with very senior qualifications.

The result can be imagined later.

With everyone watching again, this year's new batch of newcomers were beaten back by the teachers and were in a state of disarray...

The other group of selected old people will use their "strength" to prove that it's not that the teachers are too harsh, but that they are the newcomers who are * and cannot survive five moves in the hands of the teachers.

Then there was Ying Shi and his gang laughing nearby, pointing at them, laughing and cursing, and making sarcastic remarks.

Probably it's because they can't hold up the wall, and they're at the bottom of the monthly exams.

The more Adam thought about it, the more frustrated he became, and the more he thought about it, the more suffocated he became.

He clenched his fists and forced himself to calm down, but his increasingly red eyes betrayed his inner unease...

He was not even in the mood to care about the distinguished guest that Qu Si had entrusted to their care.

Adam stared intently at the school martial arts field. He saw that one of the new recruits in the field had been called up by the instructor.

Chapter 5039: You didn't know that was Moody's man five minutes later.

"good!"

There was a burst of cheers from the school martial arts field.

I saw a strong man wearing a rookie training uniform who had been kicked by a suit instructor and fell outside the ring. He held his stomach and bent down to spit out a tooth.

"Hahaha, look, all his teeth have been knocked out."

"There are not many good newcomers this year. You haven't looked at the movies and you haven't picked up on any of them. In previous years, he would have picked at least one or two people from them."

Dowell raised his eyes and did not regard Bo Rui and others as human beings. He seemed to be commenting on a poor quality product: "Really, Shadow Ten?"

"A bunch of trash." Shadow Ten was also watching the trial with a cold expression. Even if he saw someone being kicked off the stage and losing a tooth, he didn't react.

"Hey." Dowell bumped his shoulder playfully and grabbed him: "You think everyone is like you and has been a fighting genius since childhood."

After saying that, Dowell looked towards the ring again and watched as the instructor called out another person. The newcomer continued to be beaten by the instructor until he was unable to fight back.

Withdrawing his gaze: "This is the upper limit for these people. If you stay on the island shamelessly, you will live like a trash fish. People, you have to accept your fate!"

In fact, they, the second-generation ancestors, knew very well the intentions of the teachers in singling out these two groups of people.

The teachers selected the new recruits so that they could get some glory before the monthly exams in a few days. The injured people would naturally not be able to show much strength. There was no need to worry about these stupid young people taking the monthly exams in a week. I won a good ranking without opening my eyes.

The second type of people selected are old people who are very capable but have no background. These people have been on the island for a long time and have real abilities, so they are inevitably ready to make a move.

The teachers called them out, firstly, to warn them, and secondly, so that they could see clearly their background.

to be honest. Both types of people on the court are just stepping stones for them. The newcomers and the capable old people are just things to make them better.

Dowell naturally does not regard these people as human beings.

The only one who can rival him is Shadow Ten, who has been friends with them since childhood.

Ying Shi pushed his hand away and said coldly: "That guy named Borui is quite capable. We can see how he performs later."

"The one named Adam is not bad either." Dowell didn't know what he thought of, narrowed his eyes and said meaningfully: "So the teachers will focus on 'taking care' of them!"

Ying Shi frowned and glanced in the direction of Qiao Nian unconsciously. He frowned even more when he thought of something, and said coldly: "When beating a dog, it depends on the owner. The teachers may not be so courageous when the owner is nearby. Blatantly not giving that person face..."

Dowell immediately understood who he was talking about, and asked with a smile: "Are you really not aware of this or not?"

Ying Shi glanced over: "What do you mean?"

"It seems you really don't know." Dowell nodded his forehead, showed his mouth to show him, and said with a smile: "That instructor No. 003 is from the Mu family, the teacher of Moody's fighting class."

"Isn't Elena back? How could Moody give that face? If he hadn't been locked up by his father, he would have run out to cause trouble for the illegitimate child, and he wouldn't be as quiet as he is now."

Dowell looked ahead: "But even if he can't get out, with his character, he won't let that person have an easy time. How could he let go of such a good opportunity to slap him in the face?"

Ying Shi moved his lips, trying to say that Mo Di was too narrow-minded and had no big plans.

Chapter 5040: cat and mouse game

But his inner disgust for Ye Wangchuan took over and he didn't say it out loud after all. He went from having an uneasy conscience to watching indifferently.

...

In the blink of an eye, seven or eight people had already arrived.

Soon it was Adam's turn.

Qiao Nian took a few more glances because he was following Bo Rui. His expression also changed from cynical to more serious...

After Adam went up, he politely clasped his fists and said, "Instructor..." Okay.

Happily I haven't finished yet.

The teacher on the opposite side swept his leg and attacked, and the fierce leg wind swept across the ring. Even from a distance, Qiao Nian could feel that if Adam was accidentally touched by his leg, he would be unable to get off the bed for several days.

“Is this... a test?” She narrowed her eyes.

Ye Wangchuan is also watching.

“This is beyond the scope of a test, it’s more like a deliberate... humiliation.”

The next situation in the ring confirmed what he said.

The instructor was not testing Adam's level at all and correcting Adam's fighting skills, but deliberately trying to trick Adam around like a cat playing with a mouse.

Adam received many blows on his body, including wounds on his face and neck...these were visible places, but the wounds he could not see were even more serious.

Even Qiao Nian could see that he was seriously injured, but Adam seemed to be very angry at the teacher's deliberate public humiliation, and he was stubborn and refused to admit defeat.

Fall down again and again and get up again and again.

There was also a burst of deliberate ridicule outside the ring.

“Hahaha, he’s lying on the ground again. Is he acting like a turtle for us guys?”

“No way, I’ve never seen a turtle standing on two feet.”

“He’s getting up, you’ll see it soon!”

Following this was another burst of merciless laughter. Qiao Nian's temples bulged and jumped twice due to the noise, and her dark eyes looked at the man who got up again on the ring and fell back when the trainer stepped on his back.

She felt an uncontrollable anger burning in her heart.

The laughter and laughter around her gradually faded away from her eardrums, and she seemed to see those people who were captured by the organization and trained in the cave many years ago, forced to kill each other, and watched for fun as they struggled to survive when they fell and got up.

Those people are the same as the people here.

Watching them fall down again and again in the ring, and get up again and again, like a high-level executioner who can control the life and death of others.

Qiao Nian suddenly felt unhappy, extremely unhappy!

Bory has already stepped onto the ring, standing in front of his companions who can no longer get up, and is negotiating something with several teachers.

Qiao Nian vaguely heard the teacher's ruthless refusal.

"No, you can't replace him!"

"You are also one of the people who will be tested later, how can you replace him?"

"If I say no, it's no."

"You can substitute someone if you want, or let him admit defeat, or there will be someone who is not participating in the test who is willing to take his place."

"You choose one or two."

“One or two are fine.”

"But I don't think he will appreciate it. I gave him several opportunities before and told him that it would be over as long as he admits defeat, but he refused to admit defeat."

Qiao Nian knew why Adam would rather risk being beaten to death than admit defeat.

Because the other party's testing method is too humiliating.

No one with blood would accept the humiliating question from the other party in that situation: Do you admit defeat?

Sure enough, Borui frowned and turned around to ask Adam, who was lying on the ground and had fallen into a semi-conscious state.
