Chapter 1301

Just as the two of them were busy helping Savir, he gave a hint to the other two who were not injured.

They quietly retreated and moved behind Jasmine and Fade carefully. Savir gave them a signal. They took out wooden sticks that were as thick as their arms and smashed it hard on their backs.

Their actions were fierce and unexpected. Had they been any ordinary people, they would never have been able to react to it. However, Fade and Jasmine were both martial artists. They were able to react quickly, and with a light leap, they dodged their vicious attacks.

"What are you guys doing?" Jasmine glared at them in confusion and anger as she questioned them sternly.

Savir did not expect their sneak attack to fail. He was shocked, but then his face darkened and he said in a cold voice, "Since you have found out about it, then I won't beat around the bush anymore. Leave behind your food, water, medicine and bags."

"What do you mean by that?" Jasmine asked coldly.

Savir sneered and said, "What do I mean? The ravine is over 30 meters high. The road in front is blocked and there is no way out. There are not many people here, and we don't know how long it will take for rescuers to find us."

"We lost our food and water, and we haven't eaten anything for a whole day. Originally, we were in despair, but we did not expect you two to fall down here with so much food and water."

Hearing what he said, Jasmine's heart turned cold and she said, "If you want food and water, you should have just told us. I would have given it to you. Why would you ambush us?"

Savir sneered and said, "You'd give us your food? Do you think I'll believe you? Besides, the amount of food is limited and there are six of us. If we can have fewer people to share the food, our chances of survival will be bigger."

"You, you..." Jasmine could no longer speak coherently, "Mr. Chen and I have a way out. We were originally going to bring you out with us so how could you treat us like that? How could you..."

"Haha..." Savir sneered, "It's too late. There's no point in lying anymore. We're in a desperate situation and our only goal is to survive. I can do anything to survive."

"Leave your bags behind now, and I will spare your lives." Savir ordered with a cold smile.

Jasmine was so angry that she was trembling. She never expected her good intentions to be maliciously intimidated in return, nor did she expect them to ambush her.

Fade patted Jasmine's back and said faintly, "There's no need to be angry with them. If that's the case, we'll just leave them here."

After that, Fade picked up his bag and was about to leave.

Savir's expression changed when he saw it. He cried out loud, "You think you can leave? It won't be that easy."

"Don't let them leave and most importantly, don't let them leave with their bags."

Hearing Savir's orders, the two people who were uninjured and armed with wooden sticks, charged fiercely toward Jasmine and

12:58

Fade. It seemed like they were desperate for a fight.

Fade's face turned cold. Without waiting for them to approach him, he struck out with his palm. An invisible force sent them flying through the air.

On the other hand, Jasmine was soft-hearted. She did not attack the girl ruthlessly, but she still knocked her away easily.

"You..." Savir and the others did not expect Fade and Jasmine to know martial arts. They were shocked.

Fade turned his head, as he glanced at them and said coldly, "If you die here, it will be because of your stupidity and viciousness."

After that, Fade wrapped his arms around Jasmine's waist. With a light leap, he stepped on the steep cliff wall and continued to leap forward. In just a few seconds, he was at the top of the 30-meter-high valley and they disappeared from their sight.

Savir and the others looked up and were in complete silence. They were all dumbfounded.

They really did not expect that to happen. Fade and Jasmine actually left the place so easily.

When they thought of Jasmine's words earlier, their faces turned pale. Their expressions were so bad that they were sweating. At that moment, they fully regretted their actions.

Had they not launched a sneak attack on Jasmine and Fade, or tried to rob them of their bags, they would have been able to leave the place with them.

However, there was no what if in life. The reality was that Jasmine and Fade had left the place easily, while they were still trapped there. They had no water, no food, nothing; they did not even know how long they could last there.

At the thought of it, the three other people all looked at Savir with a weird look.

Savir's heart was filled with regret, but he could not admit that he was wrong. He gritted his teeth and said, "How would I know that they could really leave. Back then, the best solution was to take away their things for survival."

However, these people, who had always been in favor of Savir, were exceptionally quiet at this moment. They did not speak.

Meanwhile, Fade and Jasmine reached the mountain trails. They moved ahead quickly and went back the same way they came from.

After passing through several mountains, they could finally see their car which was parked at the end of the mountain road. Fade quickened his pace. Jasmine, on the other hand, was silent, and seemed a little distracted.

"Jasmine, what's wrong?" Fade asked.

"Mr. Chen, I, in the valley, they..." Jasmine said.

Fade asked, "Are you worried about Savir and the others?"

Jasmine nodded and said softly, "Even though they didn't treat us well, it's still four human lives. If we leave them there, they will surely die. I..."

Fade said, "I understand what you mean, but life is cruel. In the future, once you enter the martial arts world, the world will be even crueler. Things like that will keep happening. Sometimes, you have to learn not to be soft."

"I, I understand!" Jasmine nodded gently. Even though she said it in such a manner, it was still difficult for her to accept it.

12:58 A small battery icon is located next to the time 12:58.

Fade sighed softly. He knew that it was still difficult for Jasmine to quickly accept the cruel reality of the martial arts world. She was too pure and innocent.

He patted Jasmine's head lightly and said with a smile, "Even though I said that, the four of them will still be fine."

"Really? But, they were so deep in the mountains and forests. They..." Jasmine could not believe it.

Fade pointed at a team approaching them from afar. "Do you see that? They're probably members of the search and rescue team. They'll reach there soon. It'll take them two days at most to reach them. Savir and the rest will be saved."

"There are so many plants in the ravine. As long as they can endure hardships, they can survive for two days. This should be considered a lesson for them." Fade said.

Jasmine was finally relieved. She nodded and said, "Yes, I understand. Thank you, Mr. Chen!"

12:37

Chapter 1302

After returning to school, Fade and Jasmine did not mention the matter of cultivating in the mountains during the weekend. Instead, they attended classes as they usually did.

On the Internet, there was news about a few college students who were trapped in the mountains and how they were finally rescued. People would read the news and gossip about it but only Fade and Jasmine knew what really happened.

That afternoon, after Fade finished his class, he packed up and prepared to return to the dormitory for a rest.

However, at that moment, Joey skipped happily towards Fade. She did not care about the gazes of the other students. She held Fade's arm and asked with a smile, "Fade, are you free tonight? Let's go out."

"Where are we going?" Fade did not agree immediately; he needed to know first.

Joey blinked and said, "To a concert."

"A concert!" Fade was a little surprised, "Which celebrity? I didn't know you were interested in celebrities."

Joey shook her head and said, "I'm not interested in celebrities, but someone asked me to go. I promised and I thought about inviting you over to watch it together."

"Who invited you to the concert?" Fade asked.

At that moment, the sound of car brakes could be heard. A black BMW stopped and when the door was opened, Gentro, who was dressed in a suit, walked out with a smile. He told Joey, "Joey, it's almost time. The concert is about to start. Come on, let's go!"

Gentro noticed Fade who was next to her and he was slightly stunned. However, he still nodded and greeted with a smile, "Hello, Mr. Chen."

Fade nodded and then looked at Joey in surprise and curiosity, "Did he invite you to the concert? Didn't you ignore him earlier? Why are you..."

Joey did not explain. She just shook Fade's arm and said coyly, "Are you going or not?"

"This..." For a moment, Fade did not understand what Joey was implying.

Joey pouted and said, "Don't think that I don't know. Recently, you have been with that girl, Jasmine, in your class. You two are very close. I'm going to tell the old master that you're a playboy. You said that you came over to Capital City to take care of me but you left me for another woman in just the blink of an eye."

Fade was speechless and hurriedly said, "Okay, okay, I'll go with you. Don't talk nonsense."

"Thanks Fade!" Joey's expression changed instantly as she held Fade's arm and laughed. Then, she looked at Gentro and said, "I'll be going with him; that won't be a problem, right?"

Gentro nodded and said with a smile, "It's my honor to go with you, Mr. Chen. Please, get in the car!"

Gentro then took the initiative to open the door.

Joey was oblivious of formalities so she just took Fade to the back seat. Gentro drove the car, feeling like a chauffeur.

However, Gentro seemed nice. At least he showed a good attitude and he did not say anything. Instead, he smiled and chatted with them along the way.

Fade also found out from their conversation that they were going to a Jennifer Loo concert; she was a local female singer of folk songs. She was not very famous in the singing industry.

However, in the circle of folk music, she had a good reputation and the quality of the songs she composed was great too. She had a group of loyal fans and was quite popular too. Her fans were enthusiastic young people, which meant that she had a great image.

That evening, they reached a huge and old factory. A few decades ago, it used to be a huge steel factory. Later, the business moved out but the factory was preserved so it attracted a group of art enthusiasts. It slowly developed and became a famous art center in the Capital City.

The concert was held in a steel factory with numerous steel components that were over 10 meters high, supporting the structure. It was filled with all kinds of artistic decorations, which made the venue look quite distinctive.

By the time they arrived, there had already been almost four hundred people at the venue and most were in their twenties. Everyone chatted excitedly and occasionally played a few songs. It was quite a lively atmosphere.

Although Gentro liked socializing, he still would not mingle with the common audience. Instead, he chose VIP seats that were separated from the crowd near the stage. He took Fade and Joey to their seats.

Since the concert hadn't started yet, Gentro chatted with them. He introduced the singer and her songs which would be performed.

Fade was listening with interest, but Joey, who accepted the invitation, was not in high spirits. Instead, she took the initiative to talk about Gentro's family, which made Fade feel a little surprised.

While they were chatting, several people went over to their seats.

A high pitch voice could be heard in that instant, "Hey, isn't this Young Master Luo? He's here to watch Jennifer's concert!"

The three of them all looked over.

Fade immediately saw their faces. There were four of them and they were all dressed in expensive clothing. However, they looked a little vulgar, which seemed to be discordant with the atmosphere.

Among them was a man in his early twenties. He was not tall, standing at only 1.7 meters, but he was very fat, and it was obvious that he weighed almost 200 pounds. With the dazzling golden jewelry all over his body, he looked like an upstart with bad tastes.

Gentro looked over; he smiled and then told the fat man, "I have invited two friends over. I didn't expect to meet you here, Evan."

"Friends?" Evan narrowed his eyes and then looked at Fade and Joey. When his eyes swept over Fade, he glossed over him immediately. When his eyes landed on Joey, he brightened up, and from the looks of it, he was interested in her.

Evan immediately got up and walked over. He greeted her, "I am Evan. And you are?"

Joey did not like Evan's greasy and pervert gaze, so she ignored him and looked away.

Gentro explained quickly, "Young Master Ding, this is my friend and also my classmate from Capital University, Joey."

Evan showed that he was slightly displeased when he saw Joey ignore him. Then when he heard her name, he thought of something and nodded, "Joey, I know her. She's the campus belle of the Capital University. Some time ago, you competed with Young Master Chung to pursue her, which caused chaos. Is she your girlfriend now, Young Master Luo?"

12:37 A small battery icon is located next to the time 12:37 in the top left corner.

Chapter 1303

Hearing Evan's crude words, Joey was even more displeased. She glared at him.

Gentro also frowned and reminded him, "Evan, Joey and I are just classmates. Don't misunderstand."

Evan waved his hands with a look of disbelief and said, "There is no need to hide the matter of pursuing a woman. If you are pursuing her, then just admit it. It's not a big deal."

After that, Evan walked to Gentro and said in a wretched tone, "This girl looks good. How is she in bed? She must be excellent!"

When Gentro heard what Evan said, he frowned and said, "Joey and I are just friends. It's not what you think."

Gentro expressed his dissatisfaction, but Evan was still being ignorant and continued to speak obscenely. As he spoke, his eyes kept glancing at Joey. "Gentro, we are all the same, so there is no need to hide. Let's share. What is she like? Is she a virgin? I have a few girls with me. Do you have any interest in exchanging for fun?"

His words became more obvious and disgusting. Joey was not a person with a good temper. She stood up and slapped Evan as she shouted coldly, "Shut up!"

Evan was stunned. He then stared at Joey angrily with cold eyes. He said in a cold voice, "B*tch, how dare you hit me? I'm going to kill you..."

As he spoke, he moved forward to attack Joey.

12:37

However, before he could do anything, Fade, who was sitting beside her, stood up and kicked Evan in his belly, and he fell to the ground. He looked at Evan coldly and said sternly, "If you don't have anything nice to say, then keep your mouth shut. Don't make our ears bleed with your nonsense."

"D*mn it, who do you think you are! You dare to hit me, I..." Evan did not think highly of Fade at all. He did not expect the guy to actually hit him. He was fuming.

He struggled to get up, while the three men next to him surrounded them aggressively, wanting to start a fight.

Gentro stood up, looked at Evan and said coldly, "Evan, they are my friends. Are you sure you want to attack them?"

Hearing Gentro's words, Evan stopped in his tracks, but his face still looked gloomy. He gnashed his teeth and said, "They hit me. I can't let them go just like that. You must give me an explanation!"

Gentro frowned as he glanced at Fade and Joey. He knew that the two of them would never give Evan an explanation. Moreover, during the wedding in Szeto Academy, Gentro had witnessed Fade's horrifying strength, so he dared not disrespect Fade at all.

Hence, Gentro stepped forward, looked at Evan sternly and said in a deep voice, "I'll repeat myself. They are my friends and I value them very much. Moreover, you were the one who spoke rudely first."

"If you really want to fight, I am willing to oblige."

Evan was stunned and was a little surprised. He did not expect that Gentro, who had always been gentle, would say such malicious words to defend the two nobodies.

Evan was silent for a moment while his expression changed; he seemed to be in a dilemma. After all, even if the Ding family had nothing to be afraid of, he was not sure that he would win, but if he let the matter off easily, he would feel humiliated.

12:37

At that moment, loud music came from the stage and the lights dimmed. A graceful female figure walked up to the stage with a guitar. It was the folk singer, Jennifer.

Someone next to him persuaded, "Young Master Ding, the concert is starting. Let's enjoy the concert first. We'll settle this later."

That gave Evan a way out. He glared at Gentro and the other two before he sat down while pointing at Fade and said, "B*stard, just wait and see!"

Meanwhile, a follower wiped Evan's wound with a handkerchief and he commented in a flattering way, "Evan, don't be angry. I have checked out some information for you. Apart from Jennifer, there are several new singers in this concert. They are all innocent students. If you like them, you can just take them home and enjoy yourself. Use them to quell your anger."

Evan's eyes lit up and he showed an excited look. He could not help looking at Jennifer who was on the stage. He gritted his teeth and said, "These musicians all look very classy on the surface, but when I throw money at them, they'll take off their clothes as fast as they can. I love making these types of people bow down to me."

"That's right. Who can resist your charm, Young Master Ding?" The follower next to him quickly repeated.

At the other end, Gentro sat down and apologized to Fade and Joey, "I am sorry about that."

Joey waved her hand and said, "It was not your fault. That pig has a bad mouth."

Fade asked in a low voice, "Who is he?"

Gentro explained, "His name is Evan, the young master of the Ding family. He has always been like this. The Ding family initially started their trading business in the North-east District. Over the years, since the foreign trade of the country has expanded, the Ding family has flourished along with their business that continues to grow exponentially. The Ding family then moved to Capital

"In terms of foundation, there is still a gap between the Ding family and the other large families in Capital City, such as the Luo family and Chung family."

"But the scale of the Ding family's business is huge and they have connections with many foreign underground organizations in sea logistics business. They are very vulgar, never follow the rules and are reckless, but they are not weak either. So under normal circumstances, even the Luo family and the Chung family are not willing to have a conflict with the Ding family. After all, no one knows for sure what they would do when they are aggravated!"

Fade and Joey nodded as they came to know about Evan and his family background.

At that moment, Jennifer, who was on the stage, started singing. They stopped talking and just enjoyed the concert.

It was undeniable that Jennifer was quite talented. She wrote a couple of folk songs herself. Although the songs were not complex, they gave people a gentle, warm and happy feeling when she sang. The crowd immersed themselves in it and the atmosphere gradually became more lively.

After Jennifer sang a few songs in a row, she left the stage for a rest and had a change of clothes. Her break time was the time for other guest singers' performances. Among these guests, some were her friends and some were new students from music schools. It was considered the veterans giving a platform to feature the newcomers.

Chapter 1304

As the concert continued, Gentro chatted with Joey while he listened to the songs. He shared with her about the melodies and lyrics of the songs. One could tell how attentive he was.

At the other end of the VIP seats, Evan and the others were talking about unpleasant things.

Several followers were around Evan and each of them pointed at the female singers performing on the stage. They talked about their appearances, figures and shared their disgusting thoughts. They even talked publicly about how great it would feel to touch their bodies.

Such vulgar topics immediately caused dissatisfaction among the audience, but there was nothing they could do about it. After all, the people in VIP seats were not the type of people whom ordinary people would provoke.

The concert continued and it was reaching its end.

Jennifer went on stage once more and made an introduction to the audience, "Next will be my last song tonight. However, I will not be singing this song. Instead, a newcomer will perform it. She is my junior and also a friend of mine."

The audience suddenly became curious and puzzled. They started to discuss amongst themselves.

"What's going on? Since it's the last and grandest song, Jennifer should sing it herself. Why is she letting someone else perform it?"

12:37

"How could she do this? We are here for Jennifer!"

"We want Jennifer, we want Jennifer!"

"Jennifer, sing, sing sing!"

The voices gradually became louder. Jennifer smiled and made a gesture for them to calm down. She smiled and said, "I understand how you feel, but please trust me. This friend of mine will definitely give you a surprise."

"I can guarantee it. I can even promise you that if you are not satisfied with this last song, I'll never sing again."

The audience did not expect Jennifer to say such strong words and they were all very surprised.

Hearing what Jennifer said, everyone's curiosity and expectations about the new singer grew immediately.

Under the eager gaze of tens of thousands of people, the lights on the stage dimmed gradually, before slowly brightening up again. Everyone could see a graceful figure walking to the center of the stage.

"Look at her body, she looks great!"

"It's so dark. What can you even see? Let's see her first!"

.....

While the noisy discussion was going on, the lights lit up completely and the figure on the stage gradually appeared clearly in front of everyone.

12:37

When the crowd saw the girl's appearance clearly, they could not help but burst into a cry of surprise. They all had a look of surprise.

That was because the girl on the stage was eighteen, dressed in plain clothing and there was almost no trace of makeup on her face. Her hair was simply tied into a ponytail behind her head.

However, the girl's delicate face and casual clothes gave people a refreshing feel. It was like she was a girl serving cool drinks on a hot and sunny day. They all felt comfortable and refreshed.

Everyone was in a daze.

"She looks so beautiful!"

"She's pure and beautiful. I think I've fallen in love with her."

"No way, she's mine. Get out of here!"

"She only looks good but what about her singing? We don't know if she is good at that."

"Look at her, she's gorgeous. It doesn't matter if she can sing anymore."

.....

While the debate was going on among the audience, Evan, who had a wretched look earlier, immediately looked at the girl like a lascivious pig. He stared at the girl on the stage and he almost drooled.

At the same time, his followers also started to jeer.

"Young Master Ding, this girl is superb and her figure is great too."

"She's pure. Young Master Ding will surely like her."

"Young Master Ding, what do you think?"

.....

Evan wiped his mouth. With sparkles in his eyes, he said, "I want her. I want her to sleep with me tonight, understand?"

"Yes, we will prepare for that now." Several people immediately spoke.

.....

At the other end of the VIP seats, Gentro and Joey were also quite surprised by the appearance of the young girl and they could not help but look at her a few more times.

On the other hand, Fade smiled after looking at her in shock at first. He gently shook his head and muttered to himself, "I did not expect her to be here!"

It turned out that the new singer was Yuri whom Fade knew. When they were in Bay City, Fade discovered Yuri's vocal talent and led her on the path of singing.

Later, under Susie's introduction, Yuri was taken to the Capital City Music Academy to study music.

More than a year had passed and Fade did not expect to meet Yuri again in such a situation, nor in such a place.

.....

Suddenly, amidst everyone's discussion, Yuri, who had not said a single word, started singing along with the background music.

12:37

The moment she sang, the audience went into silence. Everyone was stunned; they all looked at Yuri, and were completely intoxicated by her.

It was because Yuri's voice was too outstanding. It was clear and ethereal, like the voice of an angel.

Her singing was amazing, everyone really enjoyed themselves.

It was so great that Yuri's singing was considered to be better than Jennifer, the original singer of the song.

After she ended her performance, the crowd remained silent. A few seconds later, the crowd came to their senses and they gave enthusiastic applause and cheers.

"It's too beautiful. It's awesome."

"This is what I call the sound of angels!"

"Her vocal cords must have been blessed by angels!"

"Jennifer, I'm sorry, we were wrong. You were right, you would never let us down!"

"Encore, encore!"

In the midst of the enthusiastic cheers, Jennifer went back up on stage. She held Yuri's hand and asked the audience, "Everyone, are you all satisfied with the performance?"

"We are satisfied!" All of them cried out in unison.

12:37 A small battery icon is located next to the time 12:37.

Jennifer continued to smile and said, "It's great that you're satisfied. Now, let me formally introduce her to you."

"Her name is Yuri. She is a student of Capital City Music Academy and she is also my junior. Yuri is a very talented singer and she can sing really well. At the same time, Yuri is also making good progress in music. I hope that all of you can support her in future."

"We'll definitely support you, Yuri!" The audience shouted.

Someone even shouted, "Just from her looks, I'll support her for the rest of my life."

When Jennifer heard this, she put on a look of disappointment and said, "I knew all of you only prefer good-looking people. Since I'm old and unattractive, I guess I should retire."

"You are very attractive, you are very attractive."

"Jennifer, you are beautiful too!"

"We love you as well!"

Chapter 1305

There were loud cheers among the audience. Jennifer and Yuri, who were on the stage, thanked the audience and soon left the stage.

The audience got up, readied to leave. Gentro called Fade and Joey as they were ready to leave too.

At that moment, Fade said, "Wait a minute. I have to go backstage for a while."

Gentro was quite surprised, "Mr. Chen, which singer do you prefer? How about I arrange for you and the singer to have a meal together?"

Joey joked with Fade, "Fade, which beautiful woman caught your attention? Could it be that little beauty who performed the final song? I can tell at a glance that she's your type."

Fade rolled his eyes at Joey and then explained, "That last singer, Yuri, is my friend. We have not seen each other for over a year. I am going to meet her."

Joey looked surprised. "So it really is that little girl! Are you two really friends, or do you have any bad thoughts instead?"

"You, little girl, all you do is tease me. If you don't believe me, let's go and meet her together., Fade said.

Joey glanced at Gentro, who nodded and said, "She is really good. I also want to get to know her. In that case, let's go together."

After they made up their minds, they headed backstage together.

12:37

With Gentro around, the staff naturally didn't stop them. The three of them successfully reached the backstage area.

Fade quickened his pace as he was about to meet Yuri.

However, in the dressing room backstage, they heard someone shouting.

"What are you doing? Do not touch me!"

A few men's flirtatious words could be heard.

"Gorgeous, you have to know that this is Young Master Ding's invitation. You'd better come with us!"

"You're lucky that he takes a fancy to you. Don't be ungrateful!"

"Hurry up, don't let him wait for you. Otherwise, you will suffer."

.....

Screams and sound of objects colliding could be heard.

Fade's expression suddenly turned cold. He quickened his pace and rushed forward. Behind him, Joey and Gentro also looked serious and they entered hurriedly.

Two young men were pulling Yuri and trying to take her away by force.

The staff member stood aside as they persuaded and tried to stop those men. The scene was chaotic.

"All of you, release her at once!" Fade let out a stern shout and charged towards the two men.

The two heard him and turned around. When they saw that it was Fade, they were shocked. "It's you. You son of a b*tch, don't spoil Young Master Ding's plan. Otherwise, don't blame us for being rude."

Fade looked at them. These were Evan's followers. His expression turned even colder and he shouted, "Get out of here!"

"F*ck you, shameless f*cker!" The men were furious and started to attack Fade.

However, Fade was faster. He immediately struck out and hit their faces and they immediately fell to the ground.

Then, Fade grabbed the frightened Yuri and said softly, "Yuri, don't be afraid. Everything will be alright."

Yuri, who was originally frightened, was a little hesitant with the embrace of the stranger. However, when she looked carefully and realized that it was Fade, she was surprised, "Brother Chen, it's you. How did you..."

Fade smiled gently, he rubbed Yuri's head and said, "It's me. Since I'm here, no one can bully you."

"Okay!" Yuri smiled sweetly and leaned into Fade's arms, her expression relaxed.

Joey stared at Fade with a jealous look. She deliberately squinted her eyes and said, "You really came for this beautiful girl! You completely forgot about me and you're hugging her now."

As soon as Yuri saw Joey, who was a beautiful girl too, she thought that she was Fade's girlfriend. She quickly let go of Fade's arm, waved her hand and explained, "You've misunderstood us. There's nothing between Brother Chen and I. We are just..."

Fade pinched Yuri's hand and said softly, "Yuri, it's fine."

Then, Fade glared at Joey and said, "Joey, stop joking around."

Fade introduced them to each other, "Yuri, this is my junior, Joey. She is now studying at Capital University. This is her classmate, Gentro."

12:37

"This is Yuri, a friend whom I met in Bay City."

After Fade officially introduced them, they shook hands and greeted each other. They finally got to know each other.

At that moment, Jennifer walked in and said to Yuri with a worried face, "Yuri, bad news, those people..."

Before Yuri could speak, Fade smiled confidently and said, "Since I am here, there is nothing to worry about."

"But they seem to be Young Master Ding's men. We..." Jennifer was still a little worried.

Fade snorted coldly and said with disdain, "That b*stard? How dare he come over? I'll destroy him immediately!"

Joey and Gentro believed in Fade, but Jennifer and the other staff members did not. After all, from their perspective, Yuri's friends were still only students. How could they do anything? How could they even stand up against Young Master Ding?

A group of people pushed the staff member away aggressively and they rushed straight to the backstage area.

After taking a closer look, they saw that the one taking the lead was Evan. Behind him, apart from the three followers, there were several strong burly men who looked like thugs. It seemed that he had just called them over.

"Where is Yuri? Come out now!" Evan shouted angrily when he entered.

Jennifer and the others' faces suddenly turned pale. They were so scared that they took a few steps backward.

Fade walked right in front of Yuri, looked at Evan and said coldly, "Wasn't the earlier punishment enough? How dare you come here!"

"It's you!" Seeing Fade, Evan's face suddenly darkened and his expression turned colder. He gnashed his teeth.

12:37 A small battery icon is located next to the time 12:37.

After all, before the concert earlier, Fade and Joey slapped him and he had yet settled it with them. Not only did he not get his revenge, they were causing more trouble for him. It was a great insult to Evan.

"Were you the one who attacked my men?" Evan stared at Fade and asked coldly.

Fade said coldly, "Yuri is my friend. If your men lay a finger on her, then they deserve to be beaten up!"

"Deserve it?" Evan snorted heavily while his eyes turned colder. He took a step forward and said in a cold voice, "I have never heard of the words 'deserve it' in my life."

"I am going to have this chick today no matter how." Evan pointed at Yuri and snapped.

Fade's eyes turned cold, "If you dare, I will cripple you." A small redaction icon (a square with the number 2) is located at the end of the sentence.

Chapter 1306

"Are you threatening me?!" Evan's gaze fell. He raised his right hand and was about to command his men. "Go..."

When they saw this, Jennifer and the other staff members were all very nervous; their faces were filled with worry.

Just then, Gentro stepped forward and said in a soft voice, "Evan, Mr. Chen is my friend, and Miss Zhang is Mr. Chen's friend too. Naturally, she is also my friend. For my sake, let's just forget about it."

When Gentro, who was thin and gentle, appeared, Jennifer and the others grew even more worried. What could he even do against someone like Evan?

However, to their surprise, Evan really did stop. He stared at Gentro for a few seconds, and then he acknowledged, "Gentro! Young Master Luo."

Hearing this name, Jennifer and the others could not help but be shocked. They looked at Gentro in surprise.

They did not expect this weak young man to be the young master of the Luo family, Gentro.

If Gentro had showed up, then there was still a chance for Yuri to be saved. After all, all of them had heard of the Luo family's power in Capital City.

However, Evan narrowed his eyes for a few seconds and then continued in a cold voice, "Generally speaking, since you have spoken, I should show you some respect."

12:37

"However, I can't do that after what happened today. I have endured the slaps from your friends for your sake, Gentro, but now, I can't forgive him. He attacked my men and stole the woman I want."

Evan's harsh words made Jennifer and the others, who had just relaxed a little, become nervous again.

Gentro also frowned slightly as he replied, "Evan, there are some things that you mustn't make a big deal out of. With your status, which woman can't you have? There is no need to do this."

Evan snorted coldly and returned, "Today, all I want is Yuri. Nothing anyone else says or does will change my mind."

"The Luo family is powerful in Capital City, but the Ding family is not one that can be bullied easily too."

Evan's attitude was very cruel; there was almost no room for negotiation, which made Gentro frown.

He did have a crush on Joey and it was true that he had been trying to win her favor. However, Fade was just Joey's friend and they were not that close either. The conflict between him and Evan might lead to a conflict between their families, which would become a big deal.

If his family knew about this, no one in the family would support him anymore.

Just as Gentro was hesitating if he should go against Evan, Fade stepped forward and patted Gentro on the shoulder. "Thank you, Young Master Luo. However, I will handle it from here."

Fade understood Gentro's hesitation and thoughts. He would not force Gentro to risk his life for him. It was already good enough that Gentro had helped him out to this extent.

"Mr. Chen, I..." Gentro was a little embarrassed.

12:37 🔋

Fade waved his hand and continued with a smile, "It's okay. Everyone has their own difficulties. Besides, it's just the Ding family. That is nothing to me."

After that, Fade walked towards Evan.

Upon seeing this, Evan repeated coldly, "The Ding family is nothing? Nonsense. I'd like to see what you are capable of. How dare you think lowly of the Ding family?"

Fade responded coldly, "You will soon know what I am capable of."

"How arrogant!" Evan shouted and waved his hand. "Go, beat him up."

In an instant, Evan's strong hatchet men, who had been behind him just now, were now pouncing towards Fade, wanting to knock him down.

Evan's face was filled with delight from the vengeance that he was going to get. He rolled up his sleeves, gritted his teeth and commanded, "Hold him tight, I want to return the two slaps that he gave me."

Evan stepped forward and was ready to teach Fade a lesson.

Faced with the siege of several strong men, Fade knocked them out with lightning fast strikes several times. They all fell to the ground one by one, where they fainted and remained motionless.

At this moment, Evan, who had just been walking towards Fade, was stunned. He looked at this scene in disbelief and his expression was stiff. "Uh, I..."

Fade came over with cold steps as he looked at Evan, and said, "Are you still going to cause trouble?"

12:38 🔋

After that, Fade swung his hand and slapped Evan in the face. This time, he used even more strength and Evan's cheek immediately became red and swollen. His whole body fell to the ground and he was in great pain.

"Y-You, how dare you hit me. I-I am the young master of the Ding Family. They will not let you go," Evan glared at Fade as he threatened him.

Ignoring Evan's threat, Fade stepped forward and lifted his leg to kick Evan.

Upon seeing this, Evan was so scared that he screamed out loud.

At this crucial moment, a figure suddenly appeared in front of Evan and blocked Fade's attack. At the same time, he ordered in a deep voice, "That's enough. You can stop now."

Fade glanced at the middle-aged man in front of him and he could feel a majestic aura of positive energy from him. He seemed to be a martial arts expert. His strength was around the late or peak stage of the Black Level. He could be considered a pretty high level expert.

However, in Fade's eyes, it was still nothing.

At this moment, the horrified Evan looked surprised when he saw the middle-aged man in front of him. He got up from the ground and hid behind the man. He hurriedly said, "Nadav, you're here. This guy attacked me. Teach him a good lesson."

Nadav looked back at Evan and gave him a reassuring look. "Evan, I am here. Don't worry. Everything is alright now."

Then, he looked at Fade and questioned coldly, "Young man, have you thought about the consequences of provoking the Ding family?"

12:38 A small battery icon is located next to the time 12:38.

Fade glanced at Nadav coldly as he narrowed his eyes and ignored him. He continued to step forward, and he slowly approached Evan.

When Nadav saw this, he frowned and commanded in a cold voice, "Stop at once. Otherwise, don't blame me for being rude."

Fade remained cold and calm as he said, "I have said that if Evan dares to continue causing troubles, I will cripple him."

"And I, Fade, intend to keep my word."

"You..." Nadav's eyes suddenly narrowed and a horrible chill and pressure came towards Fade. "It's a good thing for young people like you to have a temper, but being too arrogant just means that you are not smart."

Fade faced the pressure of Nadav's positive energy and continued to walk forward. He gently shook his head and returned lightly, "I am definitely not the arrogant one."

"You're looking for death!" Nadav was really angry now. His eyes flashed and then he moved forward. He was encased by his energy and he flew out like a bullet, rushing toward Fade ferociously.

The attacks from this martial artist were so strong and powerful that it was horrifying.

The afterwinds of the attack were enough to suppress the rest of the people in the room and no one could move at all.

Chapter 1307

Upon seeing this, Evan gnashed his teeth; there was a delighted look from tasting sweet revenge on his face and he shouted, "Nadav, kill him. As for the woman behind him, bring her here to me. I want to enjoy her and let her know the consequences of refusing me."

When they noticed the sinister smile on Evan's face, Jennifer and the others could not help but tremble. They looked at Yuri, feeling worried for her.

On the contrary, Yuri, the woman who was being targeted, looked relatively relaxed.

Although she did not understand martial arts and did not know how strong Nadav was, she knew that she trusted in Fade.

This was because back in Bay City City and Dragonville City, Fade had proven time and time again that he was like a roof to her, that he could shield and protect her from all troubles. She had never been disappointed by him.

She believed that it would be the same this time!

"Arrogant b*stard, have a taste of my strength!" Nadav smiled cruelly as he attacked Fade.

Faced with this terrifying attack, Fade lightly shook his head and replied, "That's all you've got? You're too weak that I'm not interested in fighting you at all."

Then, with a loud thud, Fade's palm slapped against Nadav's fist.

12:38 A small battery icon is located next to the time 12:38.

Nadav's ferocious attack had been easily blocked by Fade. Without waiting for Nadav to come to his senses, Fade sent a tremendous force hitting Nadav along his arm.

The immense force sent Nadav's entire body flying backwards. He smashed through a few walls and finally collapsed into a pile of rubble. Blood gushed out of his mouth and his face turned pale. He almost fainted.

Evan really had not expected this to happen.

His face, which was originally happy from being able to get revenge, quickly fell at this moment. He muttered, "How... How is this possible? Nadav is my father's bodyguard, a martial arts cultivator at the peak of the Black Level. How did you defeat him? How..."

Just as Evan was still muttering, Fade had already walked towards him.

Fade, who was originally not that tall, now looked like a giant in Evan's eyes and he felt an overwhelming pressure. Evan found it hard to breathe and he was frightened.

"W-What are you going to do?"

Fade then replied coldly, "I said I'm going to cripple you and I don't intend to go back on my word."

Then, Fade attacked him. After a few loud sounds, Evan's terrible screams could be heard.

His body had been completely broken and he laid on the ground like a puddle of mud. He was in excruciating pain.

"Get out of here!" Fade coldly waved his hands as he ordered.

The people that Evan had brought immediately carried him and Nadav before they scrambled away.

12:38

Everyone else backstage were shocked by this scene before they came to their senses. They turned Fade with shocked expressions on their faces.

As for Fade himself, a smile had returned to his face. He rushed over to Yuri's side and said, "Yuri, the matter has been settled. You'll be fine in the future."

"Thank you, Brother Chen!" Yuri thanked him sweetly.

Later, Fade thanked Jennifer and the other staff members before leaving with Yuri. He wanted to look for a place to have a good chat to talk about the old days.

Seeing Yuri and Fade chatting intimately, Gentro then chose to leave first.

Of course, before he left, he left Fade his phone number and said, "Mr. Chen, if the Ding family finds trouble with you or causes other problems for you, you can give this number a call. This is my private number. I'll pick up at any time."

"Thank you!" Fade had a good impression of Gentro. He nodded his head and accepted the name card.

Then, Fade, together with the two beauties, Joey and Yuri, left together and went shopping. Finally, they had a meal together. After sending Yuri back to Capital City Music Academy, Fade returned to the dormitory of Capital University.

The next day, Fade drove to the music academy when he was free.

On one hand, he wanted to take a look at Yuri's living environment and he also wanted to learn about her life in school. On the other hand, he wanted to take the opportunity to visit Susie to express his gratitude for her, along with all of Yuri's other teachers.

Fade called Yuri when he arrived at Capital City Music Academy.

When Yuri came to him, they walked around the whole music academy and Fade had a thorough observation. Because it was a music school, the ratio of girls in the school was much higher than that of ordinary universities. Moreover, there were quite a lot of beautiful girls there and they were all quite eye-catching.

These students were long used to people like Fade driving to their campus. They did not even give him a second glance.

After all, Fade's BMW was too ordinary here. Not far from Fade's side were several prominent sports cars waiting in line. Someone entered the car, started the car, and left quickly, leaving a trail of envious or emotional gazes behind.

Seeing this, Fade could not help but sigh softly as he whispered to himself, "I did not expect the best music school in the country, Capital City Music Academy, to be like this. No wonder the entertainment circle here is... It seems like I have to continue protecting her in the future when she enters the entertainment circle."

Just as Fade was sighing, he heard a clear shout, "Brother Chen!"

Fade turned around and saw Yuri, who was running towards him. She had tied her hair into a ponytail and she trotted towards him with a backpack on her back.

"Yuri, you're here," Fade greeted Yuri with a bright smile.

Seeing their intimate interactions, the people around them looked at them with strange expressions, and all of them started to discuss it.

"D*mn, it seems like he is here to pick up the campus belle, Yuri."

12:38

"No way. Yuri is so famous and she is a goddess in our school. She has always been innocent."

"That's right. So many rich people have offered her a high price before, but Yuri had always rejected them. How could she..."

"Haha, she's just pretending to be reserved. I'm not sure what happened, but look at her now. She is behaving so intimately with that man. They don't look innocent at all."

"That's right. She might even be an indecent woman behind closed doors. Men are all perverts. They are all fooled by these women who like to pretend to be innocent. Haha!"

"Well, they look so intimate. Is it true? My goddess, Yuri, how could this happen to you? Ahh..."

.....

Their discussions were not loud, but Fade had heard all of it. He frowned as he asked Yuri, "Yuri, do you want me to explain it to them?"

Yuri shook her head and answered, "Brother Chen, there is no need for that. It is useless to explain myself with gossips like this. For those who believe in me, they'll keep on believing that I'm innocent, but for those who want to slander me, they won't believe me even if we explain it."

Upon hearing this, Fade nodded. "Alright then, let's go. I have already booked a private room at a restaurant outside the school. You should invite Susie and your teachers to come out. We'll have a meal together."

Yuri said, "Brother Chen, Sister Song is having a performance outside. She is not in school now so I only invited Mr. Noah. He is also a teacher of mine."

"Okay, then let's have a meal with Noah first. As for Susie, I will invite her again in the future," Fade agreed.

Yuri nodded and introduced Mr. Noah to Fadee. "Although Mr. Noah is young, he is a graduate from abroad. He is very capable. It was Sister Song who allowed me to learn under him."

Just as the two of them were about to drive out, a woman who was dressed in fashionable clothes stood in front of their car. She seemed to be around 21 or 22 years old.

The woman knocked on the windows and said, "Yuri, are you leaving?"

When Yuri saw the woman, she lowered the window and replied, "Cynthia, my friend came to pick me up. I have something to do so I have to leave."

Upon hearing this, Cynthia frowned discontentedly and questioned, "You want to leave just because you have something to do? Is there anyone who is as irresponsible as you? Have you cleaned the music classroom? Have you cleaned the trash? Have you cleaned up all the tables, chairs, and musical instruments?"

Yuri then replied, "Cynthia, I've finished cleaning the classroom. The tables, chairs, and musical instruments have been cleaned yesterday. I will clean them again tomorrow."

"So you think you shouldn't wipe it since you have already done it yesterday. You are just slacking off, do you know that? Are you still here to learn? You became arrogant after just getting a little famous! Don't be too proud. At the end of the day, you are still someone who only entered this place because of other people."

Cynthia's tone was very unfriendly and Fade immediately frowned. He questioned coldly, "Who do you think you are? What makes you think you can talk to Yuri like this?"

Cynthia glanced at Fade and immediately sneered, "I am her senior, as well as Mr. Noah's student, Cynthia."

"So you're just her senior?" Fade snorted. "You and Yuri are both students. What rights do you have to order Yuri to do this? And with your old and ugly face?"

"You, how dare you..." Cynthia hated it when people said that she was old and ugly. Furthermore, when compared with a beauty like Yuri, it made her appear even more ugly.

She grew angry in an instant. She glared at Fade and retorted, "How dare you scold me? Who do you think you are? You're just driving a plain old BMW! And yet you just want to hook up with girls from our school. How cheap."

After that, she continued to attack Yuri. "Yuri, I really didn't expect this! It seems like you have always been pretending to be innocent, but you've quickly found a man in the blink of an eye. Moreover, he's even a poor man with no taste. Oh, it turns out that you know that you are really useless and only suitable for this kind of man."

12:38

"Cynthia, how could you..." Yuri did not expect her senior to say such vicious words to her, and her face was red from anger. At this moment, Fade's face fell. He got out of the car without hesitation, and he strode towards Cynthia. He then slapped her hard in the face with his hand.

"You, how dare you hit me, you..." Cynthia covered her cheeks as she glared at Fade angrily.

Fade immediately slapped the other side of her cheek. He grumbled in a low voice, "You have a bad mouth. You deserve to be slapped!"

"Someone's attacking me. I'm going to be killed. Help!" Cynthia shouted as she waved her hands around.

Fade unceremoniously gave Cynthia another few slaps, which immediately made Cynthia's face swell and look like a pig's.

When the students around saw this, they could not help but be surprised and they all stepped back. Even if some of them wanted to help, they dared not move after seeing Fade's skills.

A few seconds later, Cynthia, who had been considered somewhat hot and sexy, now looked like a pig. Her face was red and swollen, and she was in a mess. She fell onto the ground and could hardly speak.

"In the future, if you dare to bully Yuri again, I will make you wish you were dead," Fade roared.

Cynthia dared not say anything at this time and she ran away.

Fade gently held Yuri's hand and asked, "Yuri, it's okay. Why is your senior acting this way?"

Yuri lowered her eyes and replied in a low voice, "Ever since Mr. Noah has returned from abroad, he rarely accepted new students. As she was able to become a graduate student of his, Cynthia is indeed very good. She is proud of this."

12:38

"After that, Sister Song introduced me to Mr. Noah as a student, and Cynthia's glory was dispersed. So..."

There was no need to continue; Fade had already understood everything.

It was because of the arrival of such an outstanding and beautiful student like Yuri. Because of her, Cynthia, who had been very famous before, suddenly lost her glory. Naturally, she was jealous, so she was deliberately making things hard for Yuri.

At the thought of this, Fade said, "Yuri, I know that you are kind-hearted. When you encounter unfair things, you would endure them. However, when you encounter such things, you must not bear it yourself. The more you tolerate them, the more arrogant they will become and they will think you are an easy target. Therefore, if you come across such things in the future, you must not give in. If you really can't do anything, just call me."

Yuri listened to Fade's words and she fell silent for a moment. Then she nodded and agreed, "Okay, Brother Chen, I understand."

At this time, when the students around saw the scene, they all gossiped and discussed it.

"That guy looks so thin and small, yet he's so brave and manly. No wonder Yuri went with him."

"Haha, who does he think he is? He's just being reckless. He's just good at beating people up for fun. When the school and the police start investigating this matter, he'll suffer."

"That's right. We are living in a civilized society, there should not be men who fight and kill. The most important thing for a man now is to have money and power. What's the use of him knowing how to fight?"

.....

In the midst of the crowd's discussions, Fade and Yuri got in their cars and they were ready to leave.

12:38

However, at this moment, there was a burst of lively discussion in the crowd, and many students all gathered around.

"Look, it, it's Young Master Xu. He's back to school!"

"Didn't someone say that Young Master Xu went out to travel, but got lost in the mountains? Wasn't he just rescued recently?"

"What do you mean by 'getting lost in the mountains'? He was brave and taking risks. What would you losers know?"

"Weren't we talking about men just now? To me, someone like Young Master Xu is a real man. He is rich and has a powerful family, and he is also good-looking. What's more, he is so talented too. He's perfect."

"If only I could be Mr. Xu's girlfriend! How wonderful would that be!"

"Haha, stop dreaming. Young Master Xu only likes campus belles such as Yuri. You? Keep dreaming."

12:38

Chapter 1309

In the midst of their discussion, when Fade heard Savir's name, he frowned.

Yuri thought that Fade had misunderstood her relationship with Savir, so she hurriedly explained, "Brother Chen, Savir is a well-known student in the music academy. His family is very rich and they do a lot of business. He also likes to travel and play in bands. He is very popular in the school but I have nothing to do with him. We..."

Fade waved his hand with a smile and said, "I know. I am not misunderstanding your relationship with Savir. It's just that I have met him once."

"Brother Chen, you've met Savir? Where? When?" Yuri asked curiously.

Before Fade could explain himself, someone told Savir that Yuri had entered a strange man's car.

All at once, Savir, who was surrounded by a group of people, led a group of onlookers to surround Fade's car.

Savir was dressed in famous brands and casual clothes, and his hair was well-trimmed. There was a smug smile at the corners of his mouth, which made him look energetic. It was difficult to tell that he had only been trapped in the mountains some time ago.

He knocked on the window and ordered in a commanding tone, "Hey, you inside, can you hear me? Open the door and tell Yuri to get out of the car."

12:38

Fade opened the door and walked out of the car. He stood in front of Savir and questioned coldly, "Were you talking to me?"

"Of course I'm talking to you..." Savir replied. However, once he saw Fade's face, he was shocked and his eyes darkened. He glared at Fade and gritted his teeth, saying, "It's you!"

Fade continued calmly, "It's you! You stayed in the ravine for two days. It must have been very comfortable, wasn't it?"

"You..." When it came to the matter of being trapped in the ravine, Savir's expression quickly fell. He gritted his teeth and glared at Fade with hatred in his eyes.

Back then, after he and his companions failed to steal Fade and Jasmine's food, he fell into a ravine and they were short of food and water. Furthermore, his legs were injured. At that time, he was in despair and he even thought of taking his own life.

Fortunately, the rescue personnel had arrived in time and they rescued Savir.

When he thought of how he had nearly died in the valley because of Fade, Savir's face was immediately filled with hatred. He clenched his teeth in anger. "How dare you still appear in front of me!"

"Why would I be afraid of showing up in front of you?" Fade returned. "I am not so shameless as to steal someone else's food, unlike some trash."

"You..." Savir's expression fell. He looked around and there was a hint of worry in his eyes. After all, if the incident in the valley was revealed by Fade, it would affect his reputation.

Hence, he waved his hand and shouted, "Come on, get him!"

Suddenly, four strong men who were behind Savir rushed towards Fade.

12:38

These four people were not weak and it was obvious that they were professional martial artists. They were bodyguards that his father, Maeve, had paid for for him. They were all martial artists at the middle stage of the Black Level. He had spent a total of one hundred million yuan on the four of them, which was really expensive.

The four middle staged Black Level martial artists surrounded Fade aggressively.

Savir was smiling happily as he was finally getting revenge. He crossed his arms and his gaze was cold.

As for the students around, they were all afraid and curious as they hid far away to watch the scene.

"Now this is what I call real fighting skills. Do you see this, these are real professional martial artists. What that guy did just now was nothing compared to this, haha."

"That's right. What's so great about attacking a woman? He's done for now that he has to fight Young Master Xu's men."

"That's what he deserves. Who asked him to go against Young Master Xu? He's digging his own grave."

"Yuri is blind as well. She has so many pursuers, and yet she went with such a disgrace."

.....

Among the skeptical voices, Fade looked at the four martial artists who were besieging him, and he shook his head slightly without the slightest interest on his face. "These men are all nothing but a waste of my time."

"You have a death wish!"

"You're too arrogant!"

"Let's kill him!"

12:38

"Come on now, together!"

The four strong men were furious and they almost used all their strength. They all pounced towards Fade.

Facing their attacks, Fade gently raised his right arm and pointed at all of them once.

It was such a simple action, but after four attacks, those four fierce martial artists were stunned and they could not move at all. They stayed where they were and suddenly fell onto the ground with loud thuds.

No one, absolutely no one had expected this to happen. In an instant, everyone there was dumbfounded as they watched the scene stupidly.

"H-How could this be possible?"

"What happened? Why are they on the ground?"

"How did that guy do it? Is he also a martial arts cultivator?"

.....

At this moment, Savir was the one who was most shocked. He clearly knew the strengths of these four bodyguards. But now, they had been knocked down by Fade so easily and he was frightened.

At the same time, he could not help but think of the scene in the canyon. Back then, Fade had held Jasmine in his arms and easily jumped out of the ravine which was 20 to 30 meters high.

"Now, do you still want to take revenge on me?" Fade walked towards Savir and patted him on his cheeks.

Although Fade's slap was not strong, it was a great shame for Savir to be slapped in public. However, Savir dared not make any resistance. He could only lower his head and grit his teeth. "I-I wouldn't dare."

"Really?" Fade replied. "I can forgive you once, I can endure it twice, but if there is a third time, I won't be so polite."

"No, there won't be a third time." Savir hurriedly shook his head.

"That's good. I still have something to do today and I don't have the time to waste with you. Get lost!" Fade patted his face and ordered.

Savir nodded and bowed. He left in a dispirited manner.

After that, Fade returned to the car with Yuri, and he started the car. They drove away with the crowd watching them.

Everyone around was still stunned at the moment. It seemed like they were still processing what had happened in front of them.

Among these onlookers, Cynthia, who had hid herself in a corner far away with her swollen face, gnashed her teeth with hatred in her eyes as she whispered to herself, "How dare he. He has actually offended Young Master Xu! The both of you are done for."

At this moment, Fade and Yuri drove to the restaurant outside the school. Yuri curiously asked him about Savir.

Fade did not hide the truth from her as he told Yuri about his conflict with Savir in the ravine.

After listening to this, Yuri's pretty face turned indifferent. She clenched her fists and said, "Savir has gone too far. I thought that he was just a playboy, but I did not expect him to be so vicious."

"He was still thinking about robbing people of their supplies while he was trapped. If you were an ordinary person, you would have died."

"Don't worry, I'm not an ordinary person." Fade smiled gently.

Chapter 1310

Soon, they reached the restaurant. After parking the car, Fade brought Yuri to the private room.

In order to show his sincerity, Fade had booked the most expensive dining room in the hotel, and the decorations and dishes there were all top-notch.

After everything was prepared, it didn't take long for Noah to arrive. Fade and Yuri went down to greet him personally.

Noah was only in his early forties. He wore a pair of sunglasses and had a small braid behind him. He looked very fashionable. His looks were just what Fade expected from someone in his field.

When Fade brought Noah to the room, his eyes flashed and his smile became brighter. "Yuri, Mr. Chen, you shouldn't have spent so much money."

Fade smiled and asked him to sit down, and then replied, "It's nothing. This is just a meal. Besides, as Yuri's friend, I think that you have done a lot for her. It is only right to treat you to a nice meal, Mr. Noah."

After that, Fade asked the waiter to serve the dishes, and he gave Noah the menu too. He told him that he could order anything he liked.

Following that was a series of expensive and rare dishes, and Noah smiled even more brightly. He took the initiative to propose a toast to Fade.

After drinking a few more glasses of wine, Noah started to speak more.

He talked about the famous universities he had studied abroad in before, the famous musicians who had taught him music, and how he had met some big musicians abroad too. After he was finished bragging about his achievements abroad, he started to brag about his achievements locally.

At one point, he talked about being a member of some association, then in the next second, he would talk about the recent projects he was working on. He would also talk about the celebrities he had cooperated with.

At last, they finally talked about Yuri. After he praised her, he began to brag about how much he taught her.

Fade did not understand much about theories in music, but he felt like there was no need for him to know about it. All he had to do was listen to Noah and his boasts.

After all, Fade could see that Noah was not the kind of artist who was aloof and stubborn. After drinking too much, he was like any other ordinary person and he would talk and boast about his own achievements.

It was easy for Fade to deal with these types of people. After all, as long as he boasted about his own wealth or powers, he would win them over. It was all too convenient.

Therefore, Fade went along with Noah and vaguely revealed his wealth. Noah's eyes suddenly lit up. He patted his chest and stated that he would teach Yuri better in the future and that he would teach her everything he knew.

Yuri did not expect her teacher to act like this in private. Although she didn't like it a lot, she could understand him. She listened in silence and did not say anything.

Just like that, after a round of drinking, the atmosphere at the table gradually got warm.

However, at this moment, there was a knock on the door of the room.

Noah, who had been bragging excitedly, could not help but frown when he was interrupted. He asked unhappily, "Who is it? Why are you knocking at the door?"

The waiter outside said, "Is Mr. Noah here? A lady said that she is your student and needs to see you urgently."

"My student!" Noah paused for a moment and then continued, "Come in!"

The door of the private room opened and a girl with a swollen head entered.

"Who are you?" Noah, who had drunk quite a bit, did not recognize her at all when he saw her.

However, Fade and Yuri recognized her in an instant. That was because this person was not anyone else, but Cynthia, the girl Fade had slapped a little while ago.

"Mr. Noah, It's me, Cynthia!" Cynthia glanced at Fade and Yuri as she spoke to Noah.

Upon hearing that, Mr. Huang was stunned and asked in surprise, "You're Cynthia? Why do you look like this?"

Upon hearing this, Cynthia's eyes were full of resentment. She pointed at Fade and Yuri and said, "This is all Yuri's fault!"

When Yuri was mentioned, Noah couldn't help but frown and ask, "What on earth happened?"

Cynthia immediately blamed Fade and Yuri with a sad tone, and she told him everything that happened just now. After that, she glared at Fade and Yuri with resentment.

After Noah heard the story, he couldn't help but frown. He looked at Fade and Yuri and asked, "Yuri, Mr. Chen, about this..."

Fade immediately said, "Yes, I was the one who hit her. However, that was because she has a foul mouth and she constantly bullies Yuri. I taught her a tiny lesson this time. If something like this happens again next time, I won't be so polite."

"Mr. Noah, see that? They are still so arrogant. You have to serve me justice! I..." Cynthia talked to Noah in a coquettish tone.

Mr. Noah frowned and rolled his eyes. After weighing it for a while, he told Cynthia, "Cynthia, Yuri is here to learn music from me. The cleaning staff are responsible and can clean up the rooms. Just let them do it. What's more, Yuri is gentle and I believe in her."

Cynthia didn't expect Noah to be so protective of Yuri and she was really stunned. Then, she tightly hugged Noah and said coquettishly, "Mr. Noah, I didn't bully Yuri. She was too..."

However, before Cynthia finished her words, Noah took the initiative to withdraw his arms as he stated coldly, "Cynthia, I am your teacher. Please pay more attention to your actions in public. I will investigate this matter when I get back. If there is nothing else, you should head back first."

"Mr. Noah, I..." Cynthia didn't expect him to even ignore her trump card. This was a trick she used on him to get more of his attention back then.

Although Cynthia was somewhat careful, she still couldn't understand the situation in front of her clearly.

Having received such superb treatment from Fade, Noah would still show some respect to him. The benefits that Cynthia could provide to Noah was naturally not worth mentioning at all.

Moreover, Cynthia was no match for Yuri at all. Therefore, under such situations, Noah was naturally not interested in Cynthia.

Cynthia did not expect this to happen. Her gaze grew cold as she stared at Fade and Yuri, who were inside the private room, and she was reluctant to leave.

Seeing this, Noah grew a little impatient. He waved his hand and said, "Cynthia, Mr. Chen and I still have things to discuss. If you have nothing else to say, please leave first!"

It was obvious that he was trying to drive her away.

However, Cynthia still did not leave. Gritting her teeth, she looked up at Noah and said, "Mr. Noah, there is something that I want to inform you of."

"What is it? Hurry up," Noah urged her impatiently.
