

Magic Doctor: CEO Lady's Humble Husband

Chapter 346

The people outside could not see the situation on the island clearly. At this moment on the island, Francesca Sun looked very serious. She didn't expect that she had underestimated Fade Chen's strength. Her ultimate move was actually destroyed by Fade. Moreover, the raging flames just now actually gave her a sense of danger. Suddenly, Francesca's eyes narrowed slightly, and there was an unprecedented sense of seriousness emanating from her body. At this moment, she stared at Fade behind the mist and whispered, 'It seems that I have to get serious!' Then, Francesca clenched her hand and crushed the walking stick in her hand. Then, a crooked branch appeared in her hand. The branch was only half the length of an arm. It was twisted and shriveled, looking like an ordinary dry branch. But at the top of the branch, there were two leaves that seemed to be carved from ice, and they seemed clear as crystal on the top of the dry branch. Francesca stared at the dry branch in her hand and muttered, 'This branch was given to me by her. I thought that I had no chance to use it anymore. Unexpectedly, I still have a chance to use it today.' Then, she stared at Fade and said in a cold voice, 'If you can make me use this branch, you deserve to die.' While speaking, Francesca generated a stream of inner energy from her palm, and the energy rushed into the branch. Suddenly, the crystal-like leaves on the top of the branch began to shine, blooming with gleams of glittering translucent light, like a magic wand from the movies. Then, Francesca pressed hard with her palm and a strong stream of energy was poured into the branch. The two leaves started shining with dazzling light, like ice crystals. All the trees and flowers along the path seemed to be illuminated by this light.

‘Pa!’ With a crisp sound, a leaf suddenly burst open. In an instant, a white icy gust of air burst out from the leaves, spreading rapidly from the island in the middle of the lake. A gust of chilly air quickly swept over the lake. The original sparkling surface of the lake was immediately frozen by the gust of air and formed a thick layer of ice at a speed visible to the naked eye. Moreover, the ice layer continued to expand, and in the end, half of the surface of the lake was frozen. The people standing by the lake suddenly felt a cold chill coming from the lake, and this chill was not any ordinary chill, but twice as cold as ordinary ice. In an instant, many people couldn’t help but tremble and try to keep themselves warm. For a moment, many people looked extremely shocked. It was late spring and cold winter had already passed, so the weather should be warm. Even in this weather, Francesca could change the climate of this place by herself. What great strength!

However, it was not over yet. On the top of the dry branch in Francesca’s hand, the remaining ice crystal leaf was still blooming with cold white light, and it was flourishing more and more, as if it was about to burst open at any time. At this time, in the sky above the lake, a dark cloud drifted over. The raindrops fell one after another, and then the rain became heavier. The raindrops all over the sky fell down, and when they were about to reach the ice surface, the cold air on the surface immediately caused them to freeze and turn into tiny ice balls, which then fell onto the icy surface. Seeing this, Francesca showed a smile at the corner of her mouth and said, ‘It’s raining. God is really helping me.’ While speaking, Francesca clenched her fist, and the remaining ice crystal leaf on the dry branch burst out, and a gust of white icy air rose up to the sky instantly. The cold air immediately froze all the raindrops in the air above the island. They turned into thin ice crystals and fell from the sky like countless needles. Moreover, these needles were much tougher than ordinary ice. When they fell from the sky, they pierced through the leaves and even the branches on the island. Francesca waved her hand, and the ice crystals in the sky suddenly increased in speed and rushed toward Fade. At the same time, the frozen surface of the lake cracked and created a loud sound. Icicles burst out from the surface of the lake one after another and rushed toward Fade. In an instant, countless icicles from the sky and from land attacked Fade from everywhere. When the people at the lakeside saw this, their eyes were full of incredible shock. 'Is, is this the strength of a Late-stage Black Level master? She's too strong!' 'It's over. It's over. Fade is completely surrounded and has no way to escape.' 'The flame he used just now was powerful, and I didn't expect that. But now, I'm sure that he's going to lose.' Logan Huo, Naomi Ying, and the other young martial arts talents beside the gambling stall were muttering excitedly with envy and disdain in their eyes. 'Is, is this the strength of the most powerful person in Long City? It's too strong, and too shocking. I must reach this level in the future!' Logan said firmly and confidently. Naomi's eyes were full of light, and her eyes fell on Fade. She shook her head and said, 'The strength that Fade showed just now was beyond my expectation. His potential is not bad. If it hadn't been for this battle, he could have undergone proper training. It is a pity indeed.' 'Humph, what is there to be pitied. He provoked the Sun Family on his own, and he looked for his own death' Logan said disdainfully. All of a sudden, a lot of voices could be heard in the crowd. ‘Hum, there are many talented warriors. But before you are really powerful, you must keep a low profile. Otherwise, you will end up like this.’ ‘That’s right. Besides, Fade’s talent is just mediocre. He’s not even close to our level, yet he acts so arrogantly. He asked for trouble.’ In short, we didn’t waste our time here this time. It’s really worth seeing the strength of a Late- stage Black Level warrior such as Elder Sun.’ In the midst of everyone’s discussion, countless icicles in the sky and land had already arrived in front of Fade. They surrounded him completely, leaving him no room to dodge them. Francesca had a grim smile at the corner of her mouth. She looked at Fade with narrowed eyes and said coldly, ‘You, you shouldn’t have provoked the Sun family. This is the consequence for doing so.’ But at this moment, Fade did not seem to realize the danger he was facing at all. Instead, he shook his head and said, ‘Are these all your trump cards? It seems to me that the number one master in Long City is nothing more than just a joke.’ ‘You...’ Francesca didn’t expect that Fade was so arrogant. She snorted coldly and reached out her hand. She said in an icy tone, ‘Initially, I wanted to kill you quickly. But now, I’m going to torture you and make you experience pain before you die.’ Francesca’s shriveled hand clenched, and the icicles suddenly changed their directions. They deliberately avoided Fade’s vital organs and turned toward the places where his body would experience great pain..

Fade Chen saw that this move, which could win the battle, was about to succeed. He rolled his eyelids gently, glanced at the icicles around him and said softly, 'This attack is not bad. However, that's all there is to it.' 'Such arrogance' Hearing what he said, Francesca Sun shouted. She waved her palm as the icicles in the air and under the ground suddenly sped up and rushed toward Fade. The people on the lakeside couldn't help but shout when they saw this. At this moment, Fade pointed two fingers and formed the shape of a sword. A crimson gust of energy shot out from his fingers. Then, the radiant gust of energy surged and transformed into a crimson long sword. The sword glimmered and shone like a burning flame. As he swayed the long flame-like sword, it formed an arc shaped light around Fade's body. The light kept rotating and finally transformed into a cocoon, completely enveloping Fade. The icicles in the sky and from the lake were still densely approaching him, all moving directly toward the crimson cocoon. When the icicles touched the burning flame of the cocoon, they immediately melted and evaporated, emitting a gust of white steam, which blocked the view of the crowd. Francesca saw that the first wave of icicles was completely blocked by this crimson cocoon, but she did not panic at all. She sneered and said, 'This is just the beginning of my attack. Let's see how long you can endure this.' With a wave of her arm, the raindrops in the sky and the ice in the lake transformed into countless icicles and shot toward Fade continuously. Many icicles struck the crimson cocoon with burning flames that Fade had created. The continuous layers of gas caused by this collision created a layer of white mist. This mist compressed the cocoon constantly, causing its size to become smaller. 'Well, you will die soon,' Francesca sneered, and the icicles all over the sky continued to shoot toward him. At this time, the white mist had completely enveloped the island in the middle of the lake and everyone could not see what was happening there at all. Francesca shouted coldly and suddenly put her hands together, sending out a stream of internal energy. Instantly countless layers of ice in the lake were meshed together and turned into a huge icicle, rushing toward Fade. 'The last blow, she said. But at this time, the crimson cocoon that was getting smaller and smaller suddenly exploded, and Fade's faint voice was heard. 'It's time to end this battle after having fun with you for such a long time.' 'What did you say...?' Francesca was stunned and then sneered with disdain. 'You're putting on an act. Go and die!' she said. The huge icicle, which was in the shape of an ice dragon, rushed fiercely out of the lake and was about to swallow Fade. At this point, Fade pointed his finger gently, as a beam of brilliant light in the shape of a sword burst out and attacked the ice dragon directly. Looking at the small sword that was less than half a foot long, Francesca couldn't help but sneer. 'Do you think you can defeat my ice dragon with this small sword?' she said. 'Yes, I think so.' Fade replied. The corner of his mouth was gently lifted, revealing an indifferent smile. At this moment, Francesca heard a sharp sound indicating friction. She turned around and saw that the short sword was flying swiftly around the ice dragon. The small sword continuously cut across the surface of the ice dragon, cutting off layers of ice, and these little pieces flew all over the sky. The ice dragon seemed to have been cut off layer by layer, becoming smaller and smaller. In the end, it exploded with a bang and directly turned into countless ice cubes, splashing all over the sky.

‘How, how is that possible? You...’ Francesca said. Her face was full of shock. Then, she clenched her teeth, her face froze and her eyes showed a sense of determination. Her shriveled palm condensed the aura of her inner energy and she was ready to launch a fatal blow at him. Fade raised his finger lightly and a red beam of energy shot in front of Francesca, which instantly suppressed the inner energy surging in Francesca’s body. She was unable to use this energy ‘You...’ Francesca was shocked. Fade said lightly, ‘You don’t have to try anymore. You haven’t reached the peak of the Black Level yet. If you force yourself to use the strength of the peak of the Black Level, you will only hurt yourself. Moreover, even if you are at the peak of the Black Level, you can’t hurt me at all.’ ‘How do you know.’ Francesca said. She was shocked, and when she heard the end of his sentence, she was even more incredulous and she was in a state of disbelief. ‘The powers of the peak of the Black Level also can’t hurt you? Is, is it possible that you are an Earth Level master? This, this is impossible,’ she said. Fade didn’t explain anything and directly shot a stream of energy into Francesca’s core. Francesca was shocked because her core energy had been completely sealed by this force. She could no longer generate any inner energy. Just as Francesca tried to channel the inner energy to break away from Fade’s energy, she suddenly realised something and looked at Fade in disbelief. ‘That, that’s not your inner energy, that energy comes from the true energy aura. You, are you really an Earth Level expert?’ she asked. Fade did not respond to this question. He just looked at Francesca coldly and said in a low voice, ‘I don’t want to kill you because it was not easy for you to reach this level. Now, I want you to be my slave. Will you surrender?’ ‘Your slave!’ These words stung Francesca immediately. She was the master of the Sun Family in Long City, the top master of Long City, and the Elder of the Sun Family who was well known. She was respected by everyone. Even when she was just an unimportant member of the Sun Family, she was at least a wealthy martial artist that was envied by others. But now, Fade wanted her to be a slave, which was something that was very difficult for her to accept. Her face fell and she shouted, 'No, that is impossible. I, Francesca, can't be someone else's slave.' Then, she looked at Fade with a determined look and said, 'You won this competition. It's up to you to kill me or do whatever you want.' Fade looked at Francesca and said faintly, 'Won't you surrender?' Francesca said coldly, 'You hurt my son so many times and crippled my grandson. How can I surrender? Even if I lose this time, it's only because I'm not as good, but my Sun Family will not give in to you.' Fade sneered and said, 'Did I hurt someone from the Sun family?' 'The Sun family took advantage of your power to bully others and wanted to force Shinnie Sun to marry into the Zhan family. They also intended to force Quin to be Nathaniel Sun's concubine. Don't tell me that you only remembered that other people had hurt your family, but forgot that people from the Sun family had also hurt others?' Fade's question caused Francesca to become stunned, but she was still stubborn. She said, 'At first, it was because Quin used the fake jade pendant to deceive the Sun family. We, the Sun family gave her a little punishment, so what's wrong with that?' 'Fake jade pendant, don't lie!' Fade sighed and said coldly. 'Francesca, you have lived a wealthy life for so many years. It seems to me that you have forgotten your past life as a slave!' he added. A slave! Hearing these words, Francesca's face changed greatly. Then, she stared at Fade in horror and said in a trembling voice, 'You, you are talking nonsense..' Fade snorted and took out an exquisite jade pendant from his arms. He handed it to Francesca and said in a cold voice, ‘Do you still remember this?’.

Chapter 348

When Francesca Sun saw the delicate warm jade pendant in Fade Chen’s hand, she thought of the jade pendant that had been sealed in the box in her study for a long time. She instantly thought of the beautiful woman, and her face turned pale instantly. ‘How, how did you get this?’ she asked. ‘How did I get this jade pendant?’ Fade snorted. ‘Isn’t this the jade pendant that Quin brought to the Sun family when she asked for help that time?’ ‘In the end, the Sun family completely forgot about your previous promise. Not only did you not help her, but you also tried to force Quin to remain there. Is this how the Sun family returns a favor?’ Fade asked angrily. Francesca trembled all over, as if she couldn’t believe what was happening in front of her. She shook her head desperately and said, ‘No, it’s impossible. She, she is already dead. It’s impossible for her to return. It’s impossible!’ ‘Don’t tell me that the Sun family’s promise doesn’t count when the other person is dead. Can’t you repay the favor you owed?’ Fade said coldly. ‘A favor, a promise!’ Francesca muttered these words and shook her head desperately. There was a determined light in her eyes as she said, ‘No, no, I don’t owe her anything. She didn’t ask me for a favor, so I don’t owe her anything.’ ‘Is that so?’ Fade asked coldly. ‘Of course!’ Francesca replied. She was so agitated that she felt slightly insane at this moment. 'I have already returned the things that she gave me. I have been a servant for so many years and was controlled by her like a dog. I have already returned her the reward that was not worth mentioning, she added. 'A reward that is not worth mentioning?' Fade sneered. 'You seem to have forgotten how you got your current strength. Without that person, how could you, a neglected member of the Sun Family, suddenly rise to power? How could you have returned to the Sun Family and become the top master in Long City?' he continued. 'She helped me slightly in the beginning, and the rest is all through my own efforts. All this has nothing to do with her,' Francesca shouted, with a hint of agitation in her eyes. 'I became stronger now and I am the most powerful person in Long City. I am no longer afraid of her and I am no longer a servant to anyone,' she added. 'Moreover, she is already dead. Who knows whether the jade pendant is hers or not. Even if she personally returned with the jade pendant, I will no longer be her servant and will no longer be controlled by her. I am now more powerful than her,' Francesca shouted excitedly. Fade shook his head and said coldly, 'It seems to me that you don't know who is the person that you served in the past?' 'Who is she?' Francesca asked. She was stunned, and then said, 'Isn't she just a martial artist? She is probably just a late-stage Black Level expert. I was too weak at that time, so when I followed her, I felt that she was so powerful. But now, I am the top master in Long City. Who is she then?' 'You are ignorant, but you still act like you know everything. Look at this jade pendant carefully!' Fade said as he threw the jade pendant over. Francesca held the jade pendant and looked at it carefully. She soon discovered that it was different from the jade pendant in her box. This jade pendant was carved with exquisite patterns of stars and the moon on both sides of the pendant. The pattern was very delicate and ancient, but Francesca felt that it was foreign. She was not familiar with this pattern. 'What is this? Don't try to carve a few things and lie to me,' she said. 'Lie to you?' Fade sneered and shook his head. 'It seems that you, the top master in Long City, have lost your mind after all these years. You don't even know the symbol of the Wushuang Tower?' he asked. 'Wushuang Tower? What Wu.' Francesca said. Then, she suddenly thought of something and was shocked. Her face was full of surprise as she said, 'You, you're talking about the Wushuang Tower, one of the four great Heaven-Level forces? No, this is impossible. The symbol of Wushuang Tower is not like this. You're lying to me.' Fade said coldly, 'The Wushuang Tower has changed its symbol 20 years ago and it has been simplified. This symbol is the symbol of the old Wushuang Tower and it is an elite symbol that only disciples from the inner circle can wear.' 'Therefore, the person you followed at that time is at least an inner disciple of the Wushuang Tower,' Fade said. He looked at Francesca and said, 'Now, do you still think that the favor she gave you is a small reward? Do you still think that being her servant is a shame?' 'This, this... is impossible, and this can't be true,' Francesca said. She found it hard to believe what she had just heard. 'She, how could she be a member of the Wushuang Tower? This...' she continued. Francesca was a little confused. It was known that, for the top Heaven-Level forces like the Wushuang Tower, any ordinary disciple would be a talented person that powerful forces would fight over to recruit. Many seniors and masters in the martial-arts world would even volunteer to be a servant of these ordinary disciples, hoping to receive some guidance and care from them. That was just an ordinary disciple, not to mention the disciples of the inner circle of Wushuang Tower. That woman was definitely an elite member, and any one of these members would be an Earth-level expert. Even if someone were to become a servant, a slave or even a dog to such a master, many people would be willing to do so. Francesca was guided by such a master when she was ignorant. This was something that many people were eager to have. At this time, Francesca thought of the training methods that this woman had taught her and the herbs that she had given her. She realized the amazing situation she had encountered. How could she have advanced by leaps and bounds in her middle-age? It turned out that this was due to the strength of a top force. At this moment, Francesca recalled her unwillingness to respect her and her self-confidence. Suddenly, she felt a jolt in her heart. She felt ridiculous and horrible. Francesca's so-called strength, the title of the so-called No. 1 master in Long City, and the so-called power of the Sun Family were not worth mentioning at all in that person's eyes. Her existence was just like an ant. Francesca didn't want to believe all these facts. Suddenly, her brain seemed to be triggered and she thought of something. She shook her head crazily as if she was trying to grasp at straws. 'No, this is not true. You made this all up. You are lying to me. You must be lying to me,' she said. 'Otherwise, there is no way for you to explain why such a strong woman, who was a disciple in the inner circle of the Wushuang Tower, had died without any news. Wushuang Tower also did not mention anything about an investigation on this matter. This is impossible, and it doesn't make any sense. So, you must be lying,' Francesca shouted wildly. 'Dead?' Fade said. He frowned slightly, and he could not help but tremble at the thought of his wife, Quin Lin. However, he shook his head and said, 'I don't know what happened to her. But I'm not lying to you about this matter.' 'No, you must be lying, you.' Francesca was still denying it. She didn't want to believe that the person she was trying her best to reject would turn out to be a disciple of the Wushuang Tower. Fade did not explain anything. He directly took out a jade pendant and asked, 'This logo has not changed. You should recognize it, right?.'

Francesca Sun, who was screaming madly, looked at the warm jade pendant in Fade Chen's hand, with the pattern of the mountain peaks and the long sword on it. She suddenly became stunned and her voice trembled. She said, 'This, this is the symbol of the Tianwu Clan. It's the symbol of the Tianwu Clan, one of the four great forces of the Heaven Level. You, you are..' Francesca looked at Fade, full of disbelief. It was already shocking that her former master was a disciple of the Wushuang Tower, and now, the person in front of her was actually from one of the four major forces of the Heaven Level, a disciple of the Tianwu Clan. This caused Francesca to feel as though she had been struck by lightning. Her whole body became completely stiff on the spot and she was greatly shocked. Fade put away the jade pendant and looked at her coldly. He then spoke in an icy tone, 'Now, I will give you another chance to be my slave.' 'Your slave, ... Francesca wanted to say something. Fade sighed coldly and said, 'I'm not as kind as that woman back then. This time, you will be a real slave.'

You must do whatever I ask you to. You can't go against me. If I ask you to die, you must die.' 'Of course, you can choose not to be my slave. Then, you will die now! In my eyes, a person at your level is just an ant,' Fade said. He looked down on her with a disdainful expression 'I, I agree to be your slave!' Francesca said. Her face suddenly turned pale. She hesitated for a moment. When she looked at Fade's cold expression, she suddenly trembled and nodded in agreement. After she agreed, she couldn't help but feel more at ease. She thought of the previous scenes when she was with her former master. Thinking back now, she thought that her former master at that time was obviously very kind to her. There were no commands and orders from her at all. She spoke softly and showered her with some benefits from time to time. However, Francesca had thought that her status was higher than that and she couldn't stand the humiliation of being shouted at. When she discovered that Fade was also a disciple of one of the four Heaven-Level forces, she felt that being a slave to a Heaven-level force's disciple was not that unacceptable after all. Francesca didn't know how lucky she was previously until there was a comparison between both her masters. Fade nodded his head slightly after Francesca agreed to him, and a ray of light from his fingertips was placed into her head. 'I have inserted some energy into your brain. If you go against me, you will know the consequences,' he said. After that, Francesca felt that her head was warm, as if it was going to burn. She was so scared that she trembled all over. She quickly knelt on the ground and said repeatedly, 'I don't dare, I really don't dare to. In the future, I will listen to Mr. Chen's orders, and I won't go against you.' 'Okay, get up!' Fade said. He nodded, as he had his own plans in his heart. The reason why he had spared Francesca's life was because her strength had reached the peak of the Black Level. Before that she was at the late stage of the black level. A martial artist with this strength could be regarded as a great master. Although Fade's strength was powerful, he could not split into two persons to take care of so many things. Therefore, keeping a master like Francesca could help protect some of his relatives and friends. Together with Master Xie, who was at the peak of the Yellow Level, Fade now had two subordinates beside him. It was enough for him to deal with most situations. As Fade and Francesca were talking on the island in the middle of the lake, the crowd around Green Peace Lake started chattering loudly at this moment. They were pointing at the island and discussing about this matter. 'What's going on, it's been almost ten minutes now. Why is there no movement?' 'Who won? The fog is so thick that I can't see anything at all!' 'It must have been Old Sun who had won! Didn't you see the dense icicles and the last ice dragon just now. How could Fade escape?' 'If Old Sun won, why hasn't there been any movement after so long?' 'Perhaps, Old Sun has her own plans. We shouldn't make wild guesses.' 'Anyway, this battle is worth witnessing. I've seen Old Sun's powerful strength.' Among the noisy crowd, the gambling stall was particularly crowded. Logan Huo, Naomi Ying, and all the other youngsters walked to Old Mr. Hu's stall one by one and said with a smile, 'Old Mr. Hu, the result is clear now. You can give us our reward now!' 'Yes, Old Mr. Hu, even if you continue to delay, there will also be no change in the result. Return us the money!' Old Mr. Hu touched the sweat on his forehead and almost cried out in his heart. He had lost a lot of money this time. However, he still said, 'The fog is too heavy. The situation on the island in the middle of the lake can't be determined clearly. I'm not sure about the result.' 'Old Mr. Hu, there is no need to think so much. If you delay for more than ten minutes, the result will not change. There is no need to think!’ Many people encouraged Old Mr. Hu to give out their reward. But since Old Mr. Hu insisted on waiting, everyone just chattered, laughed and stopped urging him. After all, the reward was entering their bags for sure, so they didn’t have to worry about it. After they stopped pestering Old Mr. Hu, everyone’s attention was on Jimmy Wei, and they couldn’t help but speak in a mocking tone. ‘This brother, you didn’t listen to my advice at the beginning, and now you will regret it!’ ‘That’s a hundred million yuan. It’s wasted now. Brother, you must be sad!’ ‘Brother, in my opinion, you shouldn’t bet on these things. Don’t gamble anymore next time.’ Jimmy said calmly, ‘The result is not out yet. Why are all of you in such a hurry to say all this?’ ‘Brother, don’t lie to yourself. In this case, is there any possibility for the result to change? Haha!’ Just as everyone was discussing this, a figure suddenly walked out of the crowd and headed directly to the island in the middle of the lake. Everyone was shocked and gazed at the figure. The man was in his sixties, with long hair and a beard. He wore long robes with three silver lines embroidered on his chest. After seeing this symbol, many people suddenly felt excited in their hearts. They were shocked as they said, ‘That, that’s the symbol of the ‘Three River Clan!’ ‘Why is someone from the Three River Clan’ here? Moreover, he is heading toward the island in the middle of the lake. What is he doing?’ ‘You don’t know what happened! When Fade, or Lunatic Chen, showed his power in Bay City, he killed Elder Saga He’s former senior brother of the Third River Clan. Later, he killed the disciple of the Third River Clan, Yacob Cui. The Third River Clan is a Black-level force. How would they let this matter go? They must be here for revenge! If I’m not wrong, this must be Saga, or Elder He, of the Third River Clan.’ ‘Yes, that is Saga. I’ve seen him before. He’s an elder of the Third River Clan and his strength is at the Middle-stage of the Black-Level!’ ‘What is Elder He going to do on the island in the middle of the lake? Is he going to seek revenge?’ ‘Haha, that Fade must be dead. Not to mention Elder Sun, now there is another Elder He. Even if he has wings, it will be difficult for him to escape!’ ‘That boy is doomed. He offended so many masters of the martial arts, and he is seeking death!’.

On the other side of the betting stall, when the people heard about Saga He’s appearance, the discussion suddenly became louder, and the mocking of Jimmy Wei became more and more intense. ‘Brother, even if Fade Chen was lucky enough to defeat Elder Sun as you wished, now that Elder He of the Third River Clan has appeared, he won’t have any chance to escape!’ ‘Brother, I think you had better stop struggling with this matter. It’s a done deal. No matter how hard you struggle, you won’t be able to get your money back.’ Just as everyone was discussing this, Saga stepped on the surface of the lake and walked to the edge of the island. He did not enter directly but said in a clear voice, ‘I’m Saga from the Third River Clan. Greetings, elder of the Sun family.’ After announcing his name, Saga passed through the white mist and walked onto the island in the middle of the lake. When Fade heard this shout, his eyes trembled slightly and he said lightly, ‘The Third River Clan. What will happen will come to pass. It's good that it's happening now. Let's deal with this!' As he spoke, Saga passed through the white mist and stepped onto the island in the middle of the lake. As soon as he walked in, Saga felt that his surroundings were filled with a rich sense of inner energies.

These were the traces left behind by the fierce battle between the two just now. Saga looked at the trees and the ground around him and sighed softly, 'The elder of the Sun family is really powerful. She deserves to be the top master of Long City. Her strength is almost the same as our guardian.' 'I didn't see Fade. Could it be that he has been killed by the elder of the Sun family. If that's the case, I won't have a chance to teach that guy a lesson,' Saga thought to himself. He walked toward the interior part of the island in the middle of the lake. Saga introduced himself again, but still did not receive any response from Francesca Sun.

Suddenly, he frowned with some doubts. 'Did the elder of the Sun family leave directly after killing Fade?' he thought to himself. Just as Saga felt puzzled, he passed through the trees and saw a figure in front of him. He looked carefully and discovered that it was Francesca. Saga was about to greet her with an obeisant gesture, but he was surprised to find her kneeling on the ground with her head down and silent. Her attitude was even more respectful and frightened. Saga frowned. As he walked toward Francesca, he said slowly, 'Elder Sun, you are.. As a result, before Saga finished speaking, he had walked around several trees and saw a figure standing in front of Francesca. Saga was shocked. Then, he fixed his eyes on the figure and saw that it was Fade. Saga was completely shocked and looked at this scene in disbelief. 'What, what's going on here?' he thought to himself. Saga looked at Fade warily as he walked quickly toward Francesca and stretched his hand out to help her up. ‘Elder Sun, what are you doing? Why are you kneeling down before this guy? He...’ When Saga said this, Francesca who was on the ground suddenly shouted, ‘Be quiet, and don’t be rude to the master.’ Saga was stunned by this shout. After a few seconds, he came to his senses and said, ‘Elder Sun, I’m here to help you deal with that guy, Fade, you...’ ‘As I said, don’t be rude to the master’ Francesca said. She bounced up from the ground and grabbed Saga’s throat with her shriveled hand. There was an intense murderous intent in her eyes. ‘If you talk nonsense again, I will kill you,’ she said. Saga felt the strong murderous intent toward him. He immediately knew that Francesca really wanted to kill him. He was shocked. ‘What, what’s going on? Why is this happening?’ he said. Seeing Francesca almost break Saga’s throat, Fade waved his hand and said, ‘That’s enough!’ Then, he said to Francesca, ‘Go and heal your wounds, then come and meet me. I will reorganize the Sun family.’ ‘All at your command!’ Francesca said respectfully. Fade nodded and soared into the sky. He leaped upward from the island and left as he flew off like a fleeting shadow, disappearing quickly. The people around the lake who were discussing about this matter were shocked when they saw this. They pointed at the shadow and shouted. However, the speed of the shadow was so fast that it disappeared without letting them have any time to figure out who that was. For a moment, everyone looked at each other. ‘Who’s shadow was that?’ ‘Do you still need to guess? It must be Elder Sun! Fade must have lost. Maybe he is dead now. How can he escape!’ ‘That’s right. Speaking of that kind of speed, it’s not something that Fade can do.’ ‘It’s such a pity that Elder Sun left just like that. She didn’t let us enjoy the triumphant glory of the winner!’ At this time, in the middle of the lake on the island, seeing that Fade had completely disappeared, Francesca let go of Saga, snorted coldly and threw him to the ground. Saga touched his throat and coughed violently. Then, he looked at Francesca in confusion and indignation and shouted, 'Francesca, what were you doing just now? You actually attacked me. I..' Francesca snorted and said, 'I saved your life. What else do you want to say?' 'Saved me? You obviously wanted to kill me. If you don't clarify the situation, our Third River Clan and your Sun Family will be irreconcilable, Saga shouted. Francesca sneered and said, 'Saga, I don't know if you are really stupid or not. Didn't you observe the situation just now?' 'Are you talking about the situation where you knelt down in front of Fade and called him master?' Saga asked and frowned in confusion. 'Why, why, that boy.' he added. After hearing Saga calling Fade that, Francesca glared at Saga and said in a cold voice, 'Mr. Chen has defeated me and spared my life. Now he is my master. You'd better not have other ideas, otherwise... Hmph!' 'He killed my senior brother, as well as my disciple, Yacob Cui. It's impossible for me to..' Saga shouted in a deep voice. Francesca Sun said coldly, 'If you want to destroy the Third River Clan, go for revenge!' 'Do you think that he has the strength to destroy the Third River Clan?' Saga said, and he was full of disbelief. 'Master's strength is not something that you can question.' Francesca said coldly. 'Moreover, do you think that if Fade had no strength, I would be like this?' she continued. Saga was stunned, but he still shook his head in disbelief and said, 'Even if he is strong, I am not the only one in the Third River Clan. We are a clan, a Black-Level force. With hundreds of disciples and more than a dozen Black-Level masters, I don't believe that he can destroy our Third River Clan.' 'Really?'

Francesca said coldly, 'What if the master also has a high status?'

'What identity?' Saga He asked. He frowned, with a look of disbelief in his eyes. Francesca Sun looked around as if she was worried that someone would hear their conversation. Then, she lowered her voice and said, 'Just now, my master showed me a jade pendant from the Tianwu Clan.' 'The Tianwu Clan!' Hearing these words, Saga was so shocked that he jumped from where he was standing directly. His face was full of disbelief. He stared at Francesca and murmured, 'Is that the famous Tianwu Clan?' 'Apart from that clan, which clan has the same name?' Francesca asked. 'But, this, how can this be possible? Is this for real?' Saga asked. He still found this hard to believe. 'I'm no match for a young man in his twenties. Do you think that it's fake?' Francesca asked. When Saga heard Francesca's personal admission of defeat, his expression changed suddenly. 'This, this is true. He is a disciple of the Tianwu Clan. No wonder he is so powerful,' he said. '...' Thinking of Fade Chen's status and his attitude just now, Saga suddenly felt fearful and cold in his heart. Francesca sighed and said, 'Mr. Chen is not a petty person. Since he didn't kill you this time, you should be fine as long as you apologize sincerely to him.' Hearing Francesca's words, Saga couldn't help but heave a sigh of relief and hurried out. 'Then, I'll apologize now!' he said. Francesca said, 'Let's go, we'll go together!' After that, they walked out from the island and headed toward the shore. At this time, the audience on the shore saw two figures coming from the island in the middle of the lake, and their attention was attracted by the sight of them. They started to chatter and discuss about the matter. 'They have come forward from the island. That is Elder He right!' 'There's another person with him, and is it Fade?' 'Is Elder Sun so kind and merciful that she spares Fade's life?' Everyone was chattering as Francesca and Saga approached them. The crowd spotted them and was instantly stupefied. 'That, that's not Fade, it's Elder Sun!' 'Didn't Elder Sun leave earlier? Why is she still on the island?' 'Then, who was the shadow that left? Was it really Fade?' 'Who, who can tell me what happened on the island? Why did this happen?' Everyone looked at this scene in confusion. Logan Huo, Naomi Ying and the other people who went to the small stall to claim their reward from the bet also shook their heads at this moment and looked on the scene in surprise. But at this moment, Jimmy Wei, who was squatting on the side, laughed loudly. He walked pass Logan and the others directly toward the stall owner and said, 'Old Mr. Hu, I'm here to receive the reward from my bet.' 'You want to receive the reward!' Old Mr. Hu said. He was stunned as he looked at Jimmy. Logan, Naomi and the others glanced at them when they heard their conversation. 'Brother, you lost too much money and now you are confused!' 'You bet on Fade's victory. Why are you here to claim your reward?' 'Brother, don't cause any trouble. I will suffer because of it. Don't try to make fun of the situation.' Hearing the voices from the crowd, Jimmy said with a serious expression, 'Who said that I'm confused? It's you who are confused. The situation of the battle is so obvious. Don't you see it?' 'Yes, it is obvious that Elder Sun won! The crowd said. Jimmy shook his head and said, 'You made a mistake, Francesca and Saga just returned from the island. The figure of the shadow who just left must have been Mr. Chen. Mr. Chen leaving in that manner means that he was the winner.' 'Haha, brother, you're good at making a fool of yourself.' 'Even if the person who left earlier was Fade, we still can't conclude that he has won the battle!' 'Brother, don't be sad. Quit gambling in the future.' The crowd was being scornful and jeered at him. At this time, Saga and Francesca, who had walked to the shore, suddenly stood still. Then, Francesca said in a clear voice, 'Just now, I was defeated by Mr. Chen. From now on, I will obey orders from Mr. Chen.' Saga immediately said, 'The grudge between Mr. Chen and the Third River Clan is just a misunderstanding. On behalf of the Third River Clan, I solemnly apologize to Mr. Chen and plead for Mr. Chen's forgiveness.' After that, the two of them drifted away. At this time, everyone was stunned and could not recover from the shock brought on by these words. Jimmy knocked on Old Mr. Hu's stall and said with a smile, 'Old Mr. Hu, can you give me the reward for my bet now?' At this time, everyone suddenly came to their senses. The crowd became lively once again. 'Did I hear wrongly just now? Elder Sun actually admitted defeat?' 'This, this can't be true, can it?' 'Elder He has apologized in person. It must be true.' 'Could it be that Fade has really defeated Elder Sun and Elder He? This, this...' 'This is unbelievable!' 'How did he do that? Could it be that his strength has reached the peak of the Black Level?' A flurry of questions rose one after another. Everyone was confused. They wanted to know what had happened, but no one knew. At this moment, Old Mr. Hu's expression turned bitter and he gave Jimmy his reward for the bet. Then, Jimmy left under the surprised gazes of Logan and the people of the crowd. The area around

Green Peace Lake started to bustle, and news on this matter quickly spread to Long City and around the region. The No. 1 master in Long City, Elder Sun, who had not come forward for more than ten years, had been unexpectedly defeated by Fade. Even Saga, the elder of the Third River Clan had shown up to apologize and surrendered to Fade. For a moment, Long City was in an uproar. Harvard Sun, Susanna Yang and the other members of the Sun Family were at home waiting for the good news from their Elder, but they didn't expect to receive an order from Fade. They had to hand over all their assets and they were expelled from the Sun Family's residence! From now on, the Sun family's residence was officially taken over by Fade. When Harvard and the others heard the news at that time, they thought that it was just a prank and fake news. But then, when they heard details of the events at Green Peace Lake, everyone was stunned. They were all driven out from the Sun Family's residence. They wanted to cry, but tears didn't appear. In the business world of Long City, many businessmen were caught off guard by this news. The bosses of companies who wanted to break away from Fei Enterprises Holdings Inc due to the threat of the Sun Family were sullen and regretful. Some people even knelt at the door of Fei Enterprises Holdings Inc to apologize and plead for mercy. However, the Dai family, the An Family and the Qian family had hesitated and missed the deadline set by the Sun family to choose between Francesca and Fade. In the end, they had good fortune as they actually stood on the winning side inexplicably, and they benefited and made a lot of profits out of the situation..

In the midst of their ecstasy, the leaders of the three families thought of the scenario before the battle and could not help but feel fearful. If they had made their choice a few minutes or even a few seconds earlier, they would have faced a different outcome. The unexpected benefits from this situation enhanced their confidence in Fei Enterprises Holdings Inc and Fade Chen. They no longer dared to have other disloyal thoughts in their minds. The outcome of this battle started to influence Long City. With the departure of the martial-artists from the scene, the news on the detailed happenings of the battle spread around the region. The name of Fade, and his nickname, Lunatic Chen, caused a great uproar around the region. After Francesca Sun admitted to her defeat, Fade, or Lunatic Chen, officially received the title of the top master in Long City. He was looked up as a role model for all warriors in Long City to train hard. He was also an example for them, being someone who had challenged a top master and obtained fame. After all, Fade was considered young. He had defeated Francesca and was said to be a master at the peak of the Black Level. However, there were still some martial artists, especially the stronger ones, who didn't believe this. Many people didn't believe these news, but Saga He was utterly convinced by these facts. Although he didn't fight against Fade at that time, he was aware that Francesca had been defeated. Moreover he knew of Fade's status as a disciple of the Tianwu Clan. Therefore, after Saga apologized to Fade, he rushed back to the Third River Clan. He went to meet the Guardian and advised him to let go of the previous feud with Fade, formally surrender to Fade and admit their mistakes. The Guardian had heard the relevant news beforehand but there were still many questions in his mind. He was waiting for the return of Saga, to listen to his detailed explanation. As a result, he was not expecting Saga to have apologized to Fade. This matter caused him to frown with dissatisfaction. After all, the Third River Clan was a Black Level clan. It was really embarrassing that he had admitted to his defeat so easily. Other elders present couldn't help but scoff at him this time. 'Elder He, you didn't succeed when you went on this trip. Instead, you were intimidated by that kid. I don't think you are qualified enough to be an Elder anymore!' 'Our Third River Clan is a clan that has lasted for hundreds of years. Our disciples have been killed, but now you have admitted to our defeat and apologized to Fade. Doing this will destroy the reputation of the Third River Clan.' 'Elder He, did you gain some benefits from Fade? Why did you speak up for him as soon as you returned?' Saga was angry and anxious. His face turned red and he defended himself, saying 'I didn't gain any benefits from him. However, Fade had defeated Francesca, and he is at least a master at the peak of the Black Level.' 'Haha, someone at the peak of the Black level in their twenties. Do you think that this is possible?' 'There are too many rumors circulating around. Elder He, you're perhaps too old now, and can't differentiate which rumor is true and which is false!' 'Hmm, even if he is really a master at the peak of the Black Level, so what then? Our Third River Clan is also a Black Level clan. There are hundreds of people in this clan. Will we all lose to him?' At this moment, the guardian of the clan also frowned slightly and said to Saga, 'Elder He, what happened to you? Why are you acting like a dying duck in a thunderstorm?' 'If you understood Fade's identity, you wouldn't be able to calm down!' Saga thought to himself. He glanced at the members of the clan, and finally looked at the Guardian. He spoke in a low voice, ‘Guardian, I don’t have any selfish interest. Everything that I do is for the good of our Third River Clan.’ ‘Then why are you still spouting nonsense?’ An elder who had a bad relationship with Saga spoke sarcastically in a cold voice. ‘Nonsense!’ Saga snorted. He glared at that Elder, and then spoke to the Guardian, ‘Guardian, the reason why I’m saying all this is to inform you that we can’t afford to offend Fade due to his status!’ ‘He’s just a young kid. What status can he have?’ The stubborn elder continued. Saga’s eyes darkened. He looked at the Elder and said coldly, ‘Fade is a disciple of the Tianwu Clan, one of the four great forces of the Heaven Level.’ There was a dead silence, and then all the elders’ eyes were wide open, revealing extremely shocked expressions. ‘Tianwu Clan!’ ‘Heaven Level!’ ‘Is this true?’ Even the Guardian was triggered at this moment. He suddenly bounced up from his seat and looked at Saga, saying, ‘Are you sure about this?’ Saga nodded and said seriously, ‘Yes, I’m sure, and it’s absolutely true.’ The Guardian couldn’t sit still at all. He quickly walked down and said, ‘Hurry, hurry up. Apologize to Mr. Chen. You have to be sincere. Don’t deny any responsibility and we will admit to making a mistake.’ The news of Fade’s victory shocked the Third River Clan. However, at this moment, it was a different situation with the Zhan family of South Hanover City Quintus Zhan, who was injured, was sent home, and the marriage between the Zhan family and the Sun family was also ruined. The injuries of Quintus also caused the Zhan family to become quite furious. For a time, many members of the Zhan family shouted that they would go to Dragonville to kill Fade and avenge Quintus. But later, detailed investigation clarified the situation. In addition to that, the identity of Fade as a general of the army became clear and news on the battle with Francesca from the Sun Family also spread to South Hanover City. The desire of the Zhan family to avenge Quintus decreased quite a lot. After all, Quintus was just a playboy in the Zhan family. He didn't have an important role in the family. As for Fade, he was a general, and he was now famous as the top master in Long City. It was not worthwhile to offend such a person for the sake of avenging Quintus. Therefore, the Zhan family members were extremely resentful, but they could do nothing about the matter. They were not willing to stand up and fight for themselves. Every time the topic of revenge was broached, they would muddle through the conversation and not come to any definite conclusions. After being refused by the other Zhan Family members again, Quintus's parents returned home with a gloomy expression. They were so angry that they smashed up many things. At this time, the painful groans of their son could be heard from the bedroom. They felt more distressed and their resentment against Fade increased day by day. At this time, the cell phone rang suddenly. Quintus's father looked at the phone and his expression turned brighter. He smiled excitedly as he patted his thigh and said, 'Good, this is good news, this comes at the right time.' Quintus's mother asked curiously, 'What do you mean by that? Why are you so excited?' Quintus's father laughed loudly and said, 'Lazzaro Zhan is returning home, in one month's time.' 'Lazzaro, are you referring to your cousin who left the Zhan family 15 years ago?' Quintus's mother said. Quintus's father nodded and said with a smile. 'Yes, that's him. He is five years younger than me. He was a little kid who followed me around back then. However, Lazzaro's talent in the martial-arts is amazing.' 'At the age of 16, he passed the assessment and selection process and entered into the Wild Dragon Special Task Force, becoming a member of this elite group. Then, he remained in service there for four years. When he was just 20 years old, he became the military leader of the Wild Dragon Special Task Force, and he is an absolute warrior.’ Speaking of his talented cousin, Quintus’s father seemed very excited.

Chapter 353

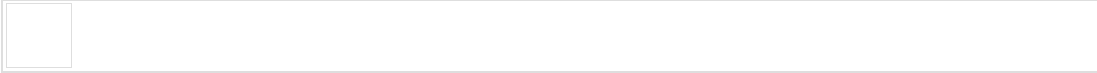

‘At that time, Lazzaro Zhan went to the Capital City to participate in a competition among all the special task forces. He represented the Wild Dragon Special Task Force. His results were amazing. He passed all the tests, until he was defeated by the royal guard of the Capital City in the semi-finals. ‘After this competition, Lazzaro felt that he had no more room for improvement in the army. Therefore, he rejected the rank of general granted by his superiors and quit the army.’ ‘At that moment, many people, including myself, thought that Lazzaro had left the army in order to take over leadership of the Zhan family. After all, Lazzaro was a shining star of success, and nothing posed any obstacle to him. His reputation and strength among the younger generation of soldiers were unmatched.’ ‘Even if he was not an important family member, he won over the hearts of many senior members in the Zhan family. They tried their best to recommend Lazzaro as the patriarch of the Zhan family. Hearing his words, Quintus Zhan’s mother couldn’t help but feel excited yet regretful. She said, ‘It would have been great if he had accepted the arrangements of the senior family members at that time, and became the patriarch of the Zhan family. With your close relationship with him, your current status in the family would have improved a lot. We wouldn't have found ourselves in such a quandary. Even when your son was crippled, not a single member from the family was willing to take the lead to avenge Quintus. When Quintus's father heard his wife broaching this subject, he quickly changed the topic of discussion. 'I'm talking about Lazzaro, so why bring my position in the family into this conversation? Besides, it may be a good thing that Lazzaro didn't accept the position as the patriarch of the Zhan family. After all, with his personality, he can't remain idle. If he was really appointed to be the patriarch of the family, I'm afraid that the outcome would not be positive, he said. 'Then, where did he go after that?' Quintus's mother asked. Quintus's father said, 'Lazzaro is the kind of person who can't remain idle. He is aggressive in nature and will constantly pursue progress in his martial arts skills, Therefore, during the time he was home for three months, he challenged all the warriors in South Hanover City, and defeated them all.' 'He was only in his early twenties at that time, but he had already reached the peak of the Yellow Level. He was one of the top masters among all the martial artists in South Hanover City.' 'He's so powerful!' Quintus's mother said, and she was impressed by Lazzaro. Quintus's father continued, 'As he had no rivals in the martial- arts circle, Lazzaro felt that these so-called traditional martial arts were just deceptive tricks. For him, they were not useful in actual combat. Therefore, he decided to venture out and learn some practical skills that were valuable in actual combat, also improving his strength in the process as well.' 'He traveled abroad. At first, he went to challenge various masters and studied martial arts of various countries in Southeast Asia. Later, he went to Europe and participated in the Underground Boxing Circle championship, and became a famous master there.’ ‘After that, he traveled around North America and South America, leaving his footprints around the world. As a result, he has wandered around the world for more than ten years. Then, he felt that his pursuit was no longer meaningful, so he decided to put himself into life and death situations and test his survival skills.’ ‘Therefore, he went straight to the war zone of Africa and the Middle East, joined the army there and trained himself on the battlefield to improve his strength. He pushed himself and improved his strength in these dangerous situations.’ ‘Now, he is finally back. I am looking forward to see how much he has improved in skill and strength. I can’t wait to meet him again,’ Quintus’s father said excitedly. Quintus’s mother was extremely surprised. ‘Isn’t he being too extreme!’ she said. Quintus’s father said in a low voice, ‘In the pursuit of strength and skill, Lazzaro can indeed be described as extreme. However, his determination to improve himself caused him to become the greatest warrior in the Zhan family. Even the retired senior leaders of the army keep singing the praises of Lazzaro’s strength.’ ‘What Level has he reached in the martial arts? Can he defeat Fade Chen?’ Quintus’s mother asked. She was more concerned about whether his cousin could avenge their son. Quintus’s father shook his head and said, ‘I haven’t seen him for many years. We communicated occasionally through letters or phone calls. I don’t know what Level he has reached.’ ‘However, I am certain about something. Lazzaro’s strength is definitely powerful. After all, when he was traveling through Europe, he had already reached the Middle-stage of the Black Level. Now, he should have reached the Peak of the Black Level!’ Hearing his words, Quintus mother’s eyes lit up. ‘That means that he is almost at the same level as Fade. There should be hope for him to defeat Fade,' she said. His father gave a cold snort and said disdainfully, 'Is Fade that strong? Lazzaro may be at the same level as him, and even if Lazzaro were one level lower, Fade would not necessarily be a match for Lazzaro. Lazzaro's fighting skills have been sharpened due to his experiences with life and death situations. He will be way stronger than the so-called martial-arts masters.' Quintus's mother was instantly excited. 'Great, great. There is finally hope for Quintus's revenge,' she said. Quintus's father said, 'There is still one month before he returns. Don't be impatient, and just wait for him to arrive. During this period, your main task is to take good care of Quintus.' Quintus's mother nodded and said, 'He is our only son. Of course, I will be responsible for taking care of him. You should also research on this matter, gather more information and recruit some allies during this period of time. After all, the chances of our victory will be higher if we have more allies. Quintus's father was confident. He said, 'Don't worry. As long as Lazzaro returns, Fade will definitely not be able to escape.' After that, Quintus's father fixed his gaze at Dragonville, and his eyes revealed a piercing expression. At this time, Fade was also busy in Dragonville. As news of his victory against Francesca Sun spread, many people came to him and fawned over him. He was after all the top master of Long City now. Fei Enterprises Holdings Inc expanded their businesses again. Fade was too busy to handle everything on his own, so he asked the secretary of the company, Lily Wei, who was in Bay City, to come over and assist him. Also, Fade had to deal with matters related to the martial arts. Many business transactions were carried out due to Fade's relation to the martial arts. Fade met ten groups of businessmen in the martial arts circle who had come to visit him. Thereafter, he rejected six groups of people who had come to learn martial arts from him. Finally, he rejected eight warriors who had come to challenge him. Then, he found some free time and had a good rest. Back in the office, Master Xie, or Lucas Xie, became Fade's secretary during this period of time. He served tea to Fade habitually and reported work-related matters to him. Master Xie seemed suitable for this job. Moreover, he sometimes had to teach some invading martial artists a lesson. They were there to cause trouble, and he would throw them out of the company.

Master Xie had no complaints about this routine. On the contrary, he was very satisfied with it. His strength and status were constantly improving when he was by Fade Chen's side.

Whenever he went out, many people would bow to him and treat him with respect. This satisfied Master Xie's vanity and caused him to feel happy. At the same time, he was glad that he had made the right choice when he chose to follow Fade. Fade had just laid down for a while and rested for less than ten minutes, when a phone call came through. Master Xie answered the call and dealt with the matter five minutes later, Master Xie came back looking a little embarrassed. Fade asked, 'What was the call about?' 'The call was about the matter regarding the Sun family, Master Xie replied. Fade also felt a headache when he heard the name of the Sun Family. The Sun Family was a Black Level family and they owned many assets and businesses. After he had defeated Francesca Sun, he owned all of their assets. The former patriarch of the Sun family, Harvard Sun and the other members of the family were all driven away. Therefore, the decision on who should take over their businesses was a big issue. Who could manage and control these matters on behalf of Fade ? After all, the Sun Family was a huge family. If someone wanted to manage and control their affairs, then they needed extraordinary abilities. Of course, besides having these abilities, the new patriarch of the family would also need the appropriate character and temperament to manage these affairs. If they found someone without character to take charge of the assets and businesses of the Sun Family, they might claim these properties and assets to be their own when Fade was no longer in Long City. It did not matter how efficient and skilled this person was if he had no loyalty to Fade. After all, Fade was not very good in business matters and he was too busy to manage everything. Therefore, he needed a capable and trustworthy person to take charge of the Sun family businesses and such affairs. Therefore, during this period of time, no suitable candidate could be found for this task. As a result, some discontented major shareholders of the Sun Family's businesses came to look for Fade in a huff, hoping that he could make up his mind quickly. After all, the Sun Family's businesses were not completely owned by the Sun Family, and many external investors and shareholders were involved in these matters. If they found themselves in this complicated situation without any leadership, the interests of those external shareholders would also be affected. Therefore, they were eager to elect a supervising leader as soon as possible. In the process of selecting a supervising leader, it was inevitable that there would be some quarrels, which caused Fade to feel troubled. When Fade heard that the call was about the Sun Family again, he couldn't help but wave his hand feebly and said, 'Old Xie, tell me, do you have a suitable candidate in mind for this position?' Fade was just casually asking this question. He didn't expect Master Xie to give him an answer. Unexpectedly Master Xie thought for a while and said, 'I do have someone in mind.' 'Who?' Fade asked. 'Edward Sun!' Master Xie answered with this name. 'Shinnie's father,' Fade said. He was surprised. After all, his initial idea was to choose a suitable person from those shareholders. Then, Fade began to think about this matter. In terms of character, Edward was a great candidate. However, in terms of management abilities, Fade did not know much about him. Therefore, Fade asked someone to find out information on Edward and discovered that he was good in business management. However, he had always played a small role in the Sun family's businesses, so his successes were not conspicuous. Since there were no issues with his abilities and his character, Edward became Fade's top choice for this position. Shinnie Sun also had a close relationship with his wife, Quin Lin. Also, Fade had saved Shinnie and Edward's lives. This was crucial as they would be loyal to him. Fade was certain that he could confirm the candidate for the supervising leader of the Sun family's affairs. After all, he wouldn't mind if the Sun Family had less profits, but he couldn't allow anyone to plot secretly against him, hiding behind this title. Fade made up his mind and he didn't want to delay this issue any longer. He immediately contacted Edward and informed him of his decision. After thinking about the matter, Edward agreed immediately. After all, who didn't want to take charge of the vast businesses of the Sun Family? As a result, Edward was secretly decided as the new supervising leader of the Sun Family. Fade also announced that a business meeting would be held in regards to the Sun Family's businesses, and that the new supervising leader would be announced at the meeting. The next day, the meeting was held. Businessmen and merchants from the Long City business circle couldn't help but look forward to this announcement. They wanted to see who Fade would choose among all the shareholders and family members of the Sun Family. At the moment, the major shareholders in front of the round table of the conference room were also anxious and nervous. They wanted to know if they themselves would be selected as the supervising leader or not. Therefore, they began to discuss the matter with each other. A middle-aged man in his forties, wearing a pair of gold rimmed glasses, was particularly calm at this moment. He smile confidently as his eyes swept over the major shareholders around him. He nodded to them and smiled discreetly. His name was Zenon Huang, and he was one of the major shareholders with the largest amount of shares among everyone present that day. At the same time, he was also a famous entrepreneur with excellent business skills. Therefore, during this period of time, Zenon's name was mentioned as being in contention of being the supervising leader of the Sun Family's businesses. He was highly regarded by many people Zenon was also confident that Fade would choose him. He made private agreements with several major shareholders, asking them to support him as the new supervising leader of the Sun family's businesses. Once he became the supervising leader of the Sun Family's businesses, he would be able to transfer the assets of the Sun Family, withdraw the shares, fire some employees, or act in other ways. In due time, he would be able to acquire the assets of the Sun Family as his own. After all, the Sun family had no more support from their

Elder. Harvard Sun and the others had been exiled by Fade. The remaining family members were no match for him at all. Fade was very powerful in the martial arts. However, in terms of business, Zenon was not afraid of him at all. Zenon smirked as he formed a plan in his mind. 'Fade, oh, Fade, if you are smart enough, you wouldn't want to take charge of the businesses of the Sun Family. You'd better leave these matters to us. When the time comes, I will be the supervising leader. The Sun Family will make profits and you'll have your share. You will earn money without doing anything, and we'll do all the work for you. It's a win-win situation, isn't it?' he thought to himself. Zenon became more arrogant when he thought about this matter. With the trump card that he had, he was almost certain that he would be elected the supervising leader of the Sun Family's businesses. Fade had no other good options. Zenon was feeling gleeful. At that moment, the sound of footsteps at the door could be heard by everyone in the room. Then, everyone spotted a young man in his twenties coming in. It was Fade. Almost all the shareholders present were middle-aged men. When Fade entered the room, they got up and gazed respectfully at him. The atmosphere in the room suddenly became a little tense. Fade gazed at the shareholders, nodded slightly, and said, 'Please take your seats!' Then, Fade was direct with his words. He said, 'I think that everyone knows why we are meeting today. I will be revealing who will become the supervising leader of the Sun family's businesses.' After a pause, Fade said, 'I've already decided who this person is.'

Hearing this, all the shareholders could not help but become nervous. Many people looked expectantly toward Fade Chen. Among them, Zenon Huang looked even more confident and was almost about to stand up to receive words of congratulations. But just then, Fade suddenly waved to a person at the door and said, 'Come in!' At that moment, Edward Sun entered the room. He glanced at all the shareholders, nodded slightly, and then stood next to Fade. Fade introduced him immediately, saying, 'This is Edward. He used to be a member of the Sun Family in Long City, but later he left the Sun Family. Now, I have appointed him as the new supervising leader of the Sun Family's businesses.' As soon as he said that, all the shareholders on the scene were stunned, and their expressions froze. Zenon, who was full of confidence and felt gleeful just now, was disappointed. His expression couldn't help but darken, seeming a little gloomy. Fade acted as if he didn't see their expressions and said blandly, 'Edward is my choice. Do any of you have any objections?' The shareholders didn't dare to say anything. After all, this person in front of them was the top master of Long City, and a martial arts master. If they accidentally angered him, he might kill all of them, and they would be doomed. Among the people, Zenon's expression was the most gloomy. Initially, he was determined to get the position of the supervising leader, but he did not expect Fade to choose someone outside of the shareholders. Instead, he had found an unknown member of the Sun Family to take over the businesses, which completely messed up Zenon's plans. For a moment, several shareholders who had reached an agreement with Zenon in private looked at him. Zenon's eyes darkened. He looked at those shareholders and nodded slightly. Zenon immediately stood up and said, 'Mr. Chen, you are the owner of the Sun Family's businesses. We actually have no objections to your decision.' 'However, we are the main shareholders of the Sun Family's businesses, and there are many other shareholders beside us. The profits of the Sun Family's businesses also belong to us. Therefore, I think we should consider everyone's opinion about the candidate for the supervising leader,' Zenon said. He spoke carefully, choosing his words appropriately so that Fade would not be provoked. After that, the shareholders who had secretly made a pact with Zenon also nodded approvingly. Then, they fixed their gazes at Fade. Seeing their reactions, Fade knew that they had colluded with each other secretly. His face fell and he asked, 'Who do you think would be an appropriate candidate?' Zenon gathered his thoughts and said, 'I think that the supervising leader should possess at least a few qualities. Firstly, he should have sufficient business experiences and skills; next, he should have a high status; also, he should have made significant contributions to the Sun Family's businesses.' 'Yes, these few qualities are very important!' 'That's right!' Someone echoed. Fade continued to ask, 'What quality do you think Edward lacks? Are you doubting my recommendation?' 'Ahem, ahem!' No one dared to speak, and they all looked at Zenon. Zenon coughed softly and said, 'I went to visit the Sun Family quite a few times before and met Mr. Edward as well. He is considered decent in many aspects. But to be honest, although he is decent, neither his business experiences, status nor contributions satisfy the requirements for the supervising leader. I don't think he can take charge of the Sun Family's businesses.' Edward's face turned pale and his expression was unpleasant. However, he couldn't deny that Zenon was telling the truth. Fade pondered the situation for a moment and said, 'Edward has managed his own company and his performance is decent. Even if his skills are not sufficient right now, they can be improved. As for his contributions, Edward is still a member of the Sun Family. No matter how small his contributions are, they are still considered greater than those of the shareholders.' All the shareholders were stunned. They felt that Fade was forcing them to accept Edward as their supervising leader. Zenon narrowed his eyes slightly and said, 'Even if Mr. Chen's points of view are correct and he meets two of the requirements, Edward's status is too low. This cannot be denied. After all, the Sun Family has many assets and businesses. If he is not respected and has no influence over us, then it's not realistic for him to lead us or control our business matters.' 'His status is too low?' Fade said. His eyes were slightly narrowed and cold. He said in an icy tone, 'In this case, you are voicing your disapproval of me.' All the shareholders' expressions immediately changed and they quickly waved their hands to deny this. Zenon smiled and spoke confidently, 'Mr. Chen's status is certainly high enough. However, you are not a businessman, and it is impossible for you to manage these businesses by yourself. If that's the case, I'm afraid that if Mr. Sun were to try to influence us or lead all the businesses, he would.' Fade's eyes sank. He slammed his palm on the table, and suddenly a hand-print was seen on the solid wooden table 'How about this? Will this help to persuade you?' he said. Everyone was shocked, and Zenon was also frightened. Fortunately, he was prepared. He laughed and said, 'If Mr. Chen threatens us with violent actions or martial arts skills, we are naturally no match for you. However, not everyone is afraid of death.' AS soon as he said that, Fade snorted and the atmosphere suddenly became tense. Zenon did not panic and he was not in a hurry. He clapped his hands and said, 'Come in now!' Immediately, several elders in their seventies or eighties, entered the room holding crutches. There were more than a dozen of them. At a glance, Edward recognized that these elders were all from the older generation of the Sun Family. Previously, due to Francesca Sur's oppressive existence, the statuses of these elders had been lowered. However, Francesca had been defeated and she had not returned home yet. Her status and prestige had been greatly reduced. Therefore, the status and prestige of these elders were naturally raised. At this moment, they looked at Fade and Edward with stern expressions and said, 'We strongly oppose Edward as supervising leader and master of the Sun Family. He can't manage these large businesses at all.' 'He is just an unimportant family member. How can he be supervising leader of the Sun family's businesses?' Fade looked at Zenon, who was gleeful and then he looked at the elders in front of him. He narrowed his eyes and said, 'What rights do you all have to say this? I'm the person supporting Edward.' His words shocked all the people on the spot and they became quiet. However, around ten seconds later, an elder with crutches came forward, shook his head and spoke in a sarcastic tone, saying, 'We are naturally aware of Mr. Chen's strength. However, not everyone is afraid of death. Anyway, we are in our seventies and eighties and have lived enough. If Mr. Chen wants to kill us, you can directly do so in one move, However, I don't know if this act will persuade all the people here?' For a moment, this group of elders stepped forward in unison, without any fear of death. Edward's face fell. He glanced at Fade, and his mouth moved slightly. He wanted to say something, but the words could not come out. Fade shook his head at Edward, and he frowned slightly. He didn't expect Zenon to pull such a move, which forced him to rethink his decision..

Fade Chen could killed this group of old guys, even the shareholders on the spot with ease. However, the result of killing them was not what Fade wanted to see. After all, he wanted to control the Sun family which could made money for himself, instead of an explosive bag. Moreover, even after killing this group of old guys, it was almost impossible for Edward Sun to become the master of the Sun Family. After all, this group of old guys still had a lot of supporters in the Sun Family. After they were killed, the supporters would definitely oppose Edward. If Fade was still around, he might be able to suppress them with his force and fame. But once he left, Edward would certainly lose control of the situation. Therefore, he must let Edward show enough prestige so that he could suppress them and not worry about anything else. As for prestige, it could be said that Edward was lacking that the most at present. Zenon Huang took advantage of this, so he was fearless. At this moment, he looked at Edward and the old guys of the Sun family with confidence. Zenon had spent a lot of money to persuade these old guys to go out and face Fade fearlessly. After all these old guys were not really fearless. Just as Zenon thought he had the upper hand and was about to continue his next move. Suddenly, Fade looked at the time and said blandly, 'It's about time for her to arrive!' 'Eh, who should be here?' Everyone was puzzled. Zenon's face also showed a hint of worry, and he said in his heart, 'Does Fade have any more cards on his table?' However, as soon as he thought of this, he immediately shook his head and said in his heart, 'Impossible? Edward is a nobody in the Sun family, and it's impossible for him to improve his prestige unless the the elders of the Sun family supported him. However, the powerful ones in the Sun family have long been driven away by Fade. The rest of the old guys is basically in the same line with him. It's impossible for any powerful people to come and support Edward Sun.' This thought crossed Zenon's mind and he relaxed slightly. A series of footsteps sounded at the door, and then an elder slowly came in. Everyone was shocked when they saw the elder, and their faces were filled with shock. Especially for those elders of the Sun Family who looked determined, and they were even more stunned and terrified. Because the person who came was not someone else. It was Francesca Sun, who had never shown up since the defeat. After Francesca came in, she glanced at everyone and said in a cold voice, 'It seems that everyone's has been active during the days when I was not here!' As soon as she said that, several old men and some shareholders suddenly felt weak in their legs and almost fell to the ground. Because the pressure and fear that Francesca brought to them were not only in terms of strength, but also in terms of psychological pressure over the decades. Therefore, when these people saw Francesca, they were even more frightened than when they saw Fade. For a moment, they were trembling and unable to speak. At this time, Fade took a look at Francesca Sun. Francesca said, 'I have already known the decision in Sun Family to choose a new master. Edward is suitable. I support him. What do the others think?' Hearing what he said, Zenon's face changed immediately, and his expression was somewhat unnatural. If Francesca were to support Edward Sun, it would be more difficult for him to deal with it. However, it was impossible for him to give up so easily. He could only grit his teeth and say, 'Old Sun, I don't agree with your opinion. Edward is lack of experience and have no prestige, so he is not qualified to take this position. I think I have to be responsible for everyone and choose a more suitable leader.' 'So who do you think is suitable?' Francesca said coldly. Zenon looked at several shareholders who had negotiated with him. They immediately said, 'We recommend Mr. Huang!' 'Me too. Mr. Huang is very suitable for both experience and prestige. 'This is the choice made by the person in charge of the Sun family, all the shareholders and shareholders of the stock.' 'Really?' Francesca's eyes narrowed slightly as she looked at Zenon. 'Do you think you are better than Edward?' Zenon nodded and said, 'Indeed!' 'That's not for sure!' Francesca sneered. Zenon was about to object But at this time, a series of footsteps approached. Everyone couldn't help but feel a quiver in their hearts, and they were a little worried Under their gaze, a man in his sixties came in. Without waiting for him to introduce himself, a shareholder in the room looked at the man in shock. 'This, this is Yanko, Mr. Shi! The richest man in the Westmont District! Why is he here?' Under everyone's surprised gaze, Yanko Shi smiled and then said, 'Sister Sun and I have known each other for a long time. This time, the Sun Family has chosen a new helmsman. As an old friend of hers, I should come here to have a look and support her.' With this, Yanko Shi looked at Edward and said with a smile, 'You are Edward, right? Good, in the future, our Shi family must partner in business with you more.' Edward was overjoyed to hear that and quickly express his thanks. As for Zenon and the others, their faces sank at this moment. Yanko, a rich man, showed his support towards Edward at this moment and promised to do business with him. Thus, he immediately stabilized Edward's position. After all, no one wanted to lose a huge business partner like the Shi family. And things like this was not over yet. A well-maintained woman came in with a little smile on her face. She nodded to Francesca and then said coldly, 'I am Latifah. Our Gong family would support Sister Sun's decision too.' 'Latifah, the head of Gong family and is a big family in Lucksea District. Latifah Gong is a famous female swordsman in Lucksea District. Her reputation and status are in the same level with Francesca's.' Such a successful woman also expressed her support towards Edward. Zenon and others had no emotions on their faces. Then, many rich businessman and martial artist came in one after another and all expressed their support towards Edward. They promised that they would have more business contact with the Sun family in the future and help each other. A total of 12 people expressed their support. With such a huge formation and the huge force they represented behind them, Edward's position suddenly became very stable, and no one could overtake him. At this time, Fade said again, 'Now, does anyone of you have any other opinions?' No one spoke. Everyone shook their heads, indicating that they had no objections. Fade nodded and said, 'If that's the case, let's call it a day.' The crowd shouted in unison, ready to leave. Zenon sighed and also got up to leave. He felt very regretful in his heart. But then he thought about it and was not too disappointed. After all, he was also a major shareholder of the Sun Family's estate. If Edward could developed the Sun Family.

He would also be benefited from it. This would also be a kind of compensation for his defeat in fighting the master position to him!.

Chapter 357

Just as Zenon Huang was plotting secretly, Fade Chen's faint voice rang out. 'Zenon, right? I don't think that you're suitable to be a share holder of the Sun Family's businesses anymore. You should withdraw from the businesses. I'll ask someone to buy your shares according to the market price.' 'No..' Upon hearing Fade's words, Zenon's face changed dramatically and he shouted instinctively. However, when he saw Fade's cold eyes, he swallowed the rest of his words and dared not say anything more. 'Are you not willing to do so?' Fade asked coldly. Zenon shook his head and said with a bitter expression, 'No, I'm willing to, I'm willing to do so!' Fade nodded and looked at the few shareholders who had colluded with Zenon. 'What about you guys?' he said. They trembled violently and quickly said, 'We are willing to sell our shares too. We'll sell them immediately.' 'Very good!' Fade said. He nodded and waved his hand, saying, 'You guys can go now!' After the shareholders had left, Francesca Sun, Edward Sun, and the other influential personages who had come to support them were the only ones there. At this moment, Francesca immediately bowed and said to Fade respectfully, 'Mr. Chen, everyone that you wanted me to invite are here. Some of them even came here on their own initiative after hearing about this matter.' Fade sized up these famous and wealthy people in front of him, nodded and said, 'That's great!' Fade was looking at them from head to toe; and at the same time, these famous people were also sizing up Fade. They were all like Francesca, who had once received the help of Quin Lin's mother. Now, they had basically achieved the highest positions in their respective families. They had achieved success in their careers and had great reputations. A few days ago, Francesca contacted them out of the blue and told them that the descendants of their master have emerged. She intended to ask them to help comprehend this situation. Therefore, this group of people rushed over to see Quin. As for their support of Edward, it was just a matter of convenience. At this point, Fade cried out gently, 'You can come in now!' Then, Quin walked in gently. Edward walked out knowingly and closed the door properly. Quin walked over to Fade. Fade then introduced her, saying, 'This is Quin, the daughter of your former master.' Quin's expression seemed a little nervous. Looking at these famous personages, she wasn't sure how she felt at that moment. After all, both her mother and these people were like strangers to her. At this moment, this group of people began to size Quin up. Each of them had different expressions on their faces. Some of them were sincere, fanatical, and wanted to rush forward to declare their loyalty to her immediately. Some looked anxious, as if they were worried that Quin would go too far and ask them for benefits. Some of them had confused and disdainful expressions on their faces, as they realized that Quin did not possess any martial arts strength at all. This was a huge difference between her and their previous master. How could Fade not discern their various thoughts? Without saying anything, he stretched out his right index finger directly and tapped gently on the solid steel plate on the table. The surface of the table seemed to be punctured, as if it was paper. The edges were smooth, as though they were cut by a knife. At this moment, the expressions of the people there shifted. The eyes of those who knew martial-arts were burning. Fade spoke immediately, 'Quin has another identity, and she is my wife.' Upon hearing Fade's words, their countenances could not help but change, and they noticed the warning tone in Fade's voice. Then, Fade said again, 'You don't have to worry about this matter. I instructed Francesca to invite you here, not to give you any orders, or ask for any favors. I would like to know more about my mother-in-law's past.' As soon as he said this, many people heaved sighs of relief. Some of them who were shrewd immediately said, 'Mr. Chen, you're being too polite. Everything we have now was given to us by our master. Now that her daughter and son-in-law needs our assistance, we will certainly help you. Let's not talk about these worldly possessions. Even if we lose our lives, we'll follow Miss Lin and Mr. Chen's orders.' Fade nodded and did not say anything else. Instead, he turned to look at Quin. Quin took a breath gently. Then, she looked at the crowd and said, 'I want to know everything about my mother from the past. Since I have time, I hope that everyone can give me detailed explanations.' The crowd nodded, and they began to tell her their story. Quin listened quietly. Sometimes, she would take out a notebook to record something. Sometimes, when she heard about her mother's frustration, she could not help but smile. Sometimes, when she heard about her mother's sadness, her eyes began to redden slightly. In this way, they conversed for almost one whole day. Finally, Fade and Quin managed to sketch in their minds a general image of Quin's mother through their explanations. When Quin's mother, Chrystal Xie, ventured out of Wushuang Tower, she began to travel around the world. At that time, she could be described as gentle, kind, innocent, and curious about many things. Along the way, she was guided by Francesca and the other guides. They traveled through most of China. Although Chrystal had encountered many disheartening events along the way, she had always remained kind. She always felt that people should be kind, and she would always help those who were in trouble. Later, during a trip to the Western Gobi Desert, they encountered a group of imprisoned travelers. Therefore, Chrystal helped them and rescued these travelers. Among this group of travelers, Chrystal met Daniel, Quin's father. Daniel and Chrystal soon got to know each other and fell in love with each other. Half a year later, the two of them went to the Lin family in Capital City and was prepared to get married. In the Capital city, the Lin Family was a large family. As a descendant of this family, Daniel was naturally well-regarded by society. At that time, because Chrystal did not reveal her identity, they faced a lot of opposition from the Lin Family. However, Daniel's attitude was very determined. Later on, Chrystal had a talk with the Lin family, and their attitudes changed. Then, they agreed to their marriage. However, just as the wedding was drawing close, Chrystal left the house suddenly. She returned home a week later. When she came back that time, she seemed to have suffered quite a number of injuries. The Lin family asked her what had happened, but Chrystal didn't disclose anything. She just told Daniel that she had taken certain actions for the good of the Lin family. However, at this time, no one knew what happened to the Lin family. Their attitudes changed drastically, and they strongly opposed the marriage between Daniel and Chrystal. Daniel refused to acquiesce and he fell out with the Lin family. Then, he left the Capital city with Crystal and went to Bay City. After that, they settled down there permanently. As Chrystal's marriage was settled, Francesca and the other guides left separately, and they gradually lost contact with Chrystal. Both Fade and Quin were aware of what happened next. The couple established Fei Enterprises Holdings Inc and their business affairs went well in Bay City. However, when Quin was 16, her father died in a car accident. Her mother also disappeared a week later. After that, Quin grew up all alone. Until the day she met Fade, and the rest was history..

Quin Lin wasn't sure what emotions she felt when they told her these things about her parents. She had too many emotions and doubts. She couldn't tell what kind of feelings she had in her heart. Then, Fade Chen asked Francesca Sun and the others to leave. He returned to his Long City's residence with his wife and prepared a bowl of Chinese medicine for her to recuperate from the revelations. He asked his wife to take the medicine and rest well for one day. The next day, official news that Edward Sun had taken over the Sun Family's businesses started to spread. Everyone was talking about this matter. Francesca, the other elders and important members of the Sun Family, as well as most of the major shareholders, stepped forward to support Edward.

With the collaborations of Latifah Gong, Yanko Shi and the other masters and important personages, Edward's position became quite firm. Almost without any opposition, he took over the position of the supervising leader of the Sun Family's businesses. As for Shinnie Sun, Edward's daughter, her position and status rose with him as well. Originally, she was just an insignificant descendant of the Sun Family. However, she was now a famous young madam of a rich and powerful family in Long City. Therefore, she was now admired by many people. Such attention caused this young girl to feel uncomfortable, and she specifically ran to Quin and Fade's house to avoid being harassed by others. At home, with Shinnie's company and the medicine brewed by Fade, Quin's emotions became stable. Fade and Quin also started to talk about her mother, Chrystal Xie. Francesca had told Fade about the places where Chrystal had traveled to in the past, as well as clues and other evidence that she had left behind before her departure. If Quin wanted to investigate in detail the news regarding her mother, Fade would be willing to accompany her in this journey, even if it meant that he needed to leave everything behind. However, just as Quin was hesitating whether to venture out and investigate this matter, a message was sent to her phone which caused Quin to feel nervous all of a sudden. The contents of the message were very simple, with only one sentence and a photo. The sentence was: Come to Fuma Town within this three days, or he will die! The sentence was accompanied by a picture of Quin's elder brother, Jeremy Lin. He was tied up in a dilapidated hut. Looking at this photo, Jeremy had many scars on his body, and his head was bloody. He seemed close to death. At the sight of this message, Quin's body trembled. She almost flung the phone in her hand, When Fade saw this message, he couldn't help but frown. Jeremy was friends with Howard Zhang and his companions. At that time, he had colluded with them to force Quin to marry Howard. them to On the night of the wedding in the hotel, Fade had killed Howard and Shancus Wan. He taught many people the lesson they deserved. Since then, Jeremy had disappeared. Later, Fade and Quin sent people to look for him, but there was no news about him. Therefore, the both of them didn't pay much attention to this matter. After all, Jeremy didn't regard Quin as being part of his family. Moreover, at that time, Fade and Quin also believed that Jeremy was afraid. He was afraid that Fade would give him a beating, so he ran away and hid by himself. However, Fade didn't expect that almost half a year later news on Jeremy would appear again. Apparently, he wasn't running away by himself, and his news came to them in this manner. Evidently, the person who had sent them this message wanted Quin to go to Fuma Town. Whether they intended to blackmail her for money, discuss business transactions, or harbor other ulterior motives, it was impossible for them to judge the situation just based on this single photo and sentence. Therefore, Quin was now facing a dilemma. Should she take the risk to save her useless elder brother? If it was up to Fade, he would definitely not want his wife to take the risk to save such a guy. After all, ever since Fade met Quin, Jeremy had not done anything good. It would be better for such a person to be dead. However, Quin and Jeremy were brother and sister after all. In addition to this, she had just learned about their parent's history, so Quin was feeling sensitive about her relationship with her family members at this time. Quin also spotted the bracelet left by her mother on Jeremy's wrist, which caused her to feel even more shocked. Therefore, she decided to take the risk and try to save her indecent brother. Since his wife had made up her mind, Fade was supportive of her decision. Therefore, he made arrangements for the work matters that were pending and passed them over for others to manage. After gathering some information, he set out with Quin on the journey to Fuma Town. Fuma Town was 1000 kilometers away from Long City. Fade and Quin flew by plane to a nearby city, and took a train to the city where Fuma Town was located. Finally, they arrived at the bus station of that city and rushed toward Fuma Town. It was burdensome and tiring for Quin to travel by plane, take a train, and travel by car through this long journey. Therefore, Fade allowed Quin to lean on his shoulder. He covered her clothes carefully and let her fall asleep. Fuma Town was not a prosperous town. When the car drove away from the city center, the road became bumpy. The car swayed so much that many passengers felt dizzy. Some of them even opened the window and threw up. Some of them were very excited. They took out their cell phones and cameras and began to take pictures of the scenery on the roadside. Then, Fade noticed something. Although Fuma Town was not large, its scenery was quite unique. Occasionally, they would see picturesque mountains, clear flowing rivers, tiny ridges, houses with tiled roofs among green trees, fertile farmland and grazing cattle. The scenery was leisurely and rustic, evocative of the countryside. It looked like a pleasant tourist attraction. Moreover, most of the passengers in the car seemed to come from other places, and many of them were well dressed businessmen. 'There are so many foreigners here. No wonder the locals didn't react much when they noticed my wife and I' Fade thought to himself. Then, he saw that the car was entering a road with lush surroundings along the mountainside. There was a large sign beside the mountain road, with the words 'Fuma Town' written on it. Next to it, a bright red banner was hanging there. On it was written, 'A very warm welcome to the business investment team arriving at Fuma Town for their research and investigation.' AS soon as he saw this banner, Fade immediately understood why these businessmen in the car were there. They seemed to be part of a business investment team. AS for the contents of the investigation and research, Fade faintly remembered something. When he searched for news on Fuma Town online, he learned that the town was going to build a tourism resort on the famous Fuma Mountain. The town board was actively engaged in this project, trying to attract more investors. 'Why did the other party choose to send that message to us during this period of time? Did they do so to cover their tracks, or do they have some hidden purpose?' Fade thought to himself. Just as Fade was contemplating this matter, the car slowed down, turned into a corner, and drove into a road with lush trees along the way. The scene in front of them was full of greenery and they were close to nature. The people from the city couldn't help but be surprised. They took out their cell phones and cameras and began to take pictures..

In the seats opposite Fade Chen and Quin Lin, a couple who were in their mid-twenties became even more excited. They cried out in exhilaration as they took out their expensive cameras and video equipment and began to take pictures and videos However, at this time, the car suddenly braked and it came to a complete halt. Many people who were taking pictures fell forward suddenly as they did not anticipate this. Some of their cell phones and cameras were broken as well. Many people collapsed on the ground as well. These people immediately began to complain and curse about this situation. Fade was a master of the martial arts, and he was highly skilled. He quickly supported himself with the seat in front of him and hugged his wife at the same time, so that she would avoid falling down. But because of this sudden halt, his wife woke up in shock. Just as Quin, who was still groggy, was about to ask what was going on, the car door opened with a loud crash. Then, four men with black velvet caps rushed in fiercely. They held daggers, hammers and other weapons in their hands. One of them rushed up and threatened the driver into submission. The other three walked to the back of the car and shouted angrily, 'Sit down and don't move. Take out all your valuables now.' Seeing this, all the passengers in the car were in a state of panic. They didn't expect to meet robbers in this situation. They became extremely nervous. Someone in the car wanted to call the police secretly, but the robbers were obviously experienced. One of the robbers grabbed the cell phone and smashed it into pieces with his hammer. At the same time, he threatened in a fierce tone, 'If you dare to move again, the next thing that I'll smash is your head.' Now, everyone was scared and did not dare to move. They could only sit still on the spot, trembling with fear. Fade furrowed his brows slightly and hugged Quin, who was trembling all over. He was thinking quickly on how he could help out in this situation. It was not an issue for Fade to take down these four robbers. However, he was not sure if these four robbers were related to the people who had kidnapped Jeremy Lin. Also, he wondered if they had done this on purpose so that his wife and himself would step forward. With these doubts in his heart, Fade didn't make any move. He shrank his head and pretended to be scared. At this time, the robbers had already taken out the bag that they had prepared and began to collect the treasures of the passengers in the car. The robbers did not miss out on any valuables at all. All the cell phones, cameras, purses and jewelries were taken and placed into the bag. Most of the people in the car were outsiders, and they obviously valued their own safety more than money. They cooperated with them and handed over all their valuable items. The robbers looked at the full bag and seemed pleased. Obviously, they had earned a lot today. Soon, they came to the young couple opposite Fade and Quin, urging them to hand over their belongings. The young man looked anxious and he promptly gave them his wallet, cell phone, and camera. The burly robber saw the thick pile of money in his wallet and laughed immediately. 'Hey, I didn't expect to meet such a rich man today. Not bad, not bad at all!' he said. As he spoke, the burly robber slapped the young man's face several times with the side of his dagger. The young man was so frightened that he started to tremble. He said in a quivering voice, 'I, have given you all of my valuable items. Please don't hurt me. If you still want more money, I can call my family. As long as you don't hurt me, I can pay you as much as you want.' Well, this guy was obviously a fool who was afraid of death. Otherwise, why would he have revealed his family background at a time like this. Fortunately, this group of robbers were quite professional. They smiled and said, 'Kid, we are robbers, not kidnapers or blackmailers. Anyway, we will remember you.' The young man immediately let out an awkward laugh and didn't say anything. At this time, the robber urged the girl next to the young man to hand in her valuables. The girl handed over her things reluctantly. When she finally handed over the camera, she said, 'Can I take out the storage card in the camera? There are a lot of photos in it and I didn't make any backup copies. I don't want to...' 'Young girl! We are robbers, not businessmen. Hand over all your things now!' A robber behind her said. He grabbed the camera and stuffed it into the bag. At this moment, the burly robber, who was holding a dagger, could not help but chuckle. 'I didn't expect to meet two weird people during this robbery. One is so timid that he handed over the money so willingly. The other one is bold and ignorant, and she even tried to bargain with us. Interesting, very interesting indeed.' Hearing this, the young man was so frightened that he shuddered and shrank back in fear. The girl, however, sighed and looked at the camera thrown into the sack with a regretful expression on her face. After collecting the money from this young couple, the robbers naturally turned to Fade and Quin. Fade held Quin in his arms and took the initiative to take out his wallet and cell phone, The robber nodded and packed up his things. He was ready to go forward and collect the items of the next passenger. But at this moment, the burly robber, who was holding a dagger, looked at Quin who was in Fade's arms. He said, 'What's wrong with her? Pull off the clothes that are covering her.' Fade was holding Quin in his arms and he had covered her head with his clothes. Fade explained, 'This is my wife. She's ill and can't be exposed to sunlight.' However, the burly robber did not want to listen to his explanation. Instead, he stretched out his hand and said, 'She is ill? Even so, I'll need to search her body.' As he spoke, the robber extended his hands toward Quin Fade immediately moved his body sideways to block the robber's movements. The robber's eyes darkened and he shouted, 'You are looking for death!' Then, the robber ripped off the clothes wrapped over Quin's head. Immediately, Quin's delicate and beautiful face appeared in front of everyone. The robber couldn't help but be stunned, and he looked at Quin in surprise. He licked his lips and said with a smile, 'No wonder you won't allow me to search her. Your wife is so beautiful!' 'Hey, this girl has a pretty face and a nice figure. She is really not bad. She is even more beautiful than the celebrities on TV' he said. As he spoke, the burly robber's eyes shone with lust. The other robbers also came over at this moment. When they saw Quin's appearance, their eyes immediately lit up, Even many passengers were amazed at Quin's beauty. Obviously, they did not expect such a beautiful woman to sit in the same car with them. A robber laughed and said, 'Boss, let us bring her down and have some fun with her.' 'We can't miss the chance to have fun with such a beautiful girl! Boss!' 'Boss, you can have fun with her first. After that, we'll take turns.' 'Hey, it's worth having fun with a girl like her, even if it is just once in a lifetime.' As they spoke in such a foul manner, the robber with the dagger smiled and pointed the dagger at Fade. 'Kid, let us have fun with your wife, and we won't rob your money, he said. Fade's eyes sank, and there was a cold glint in his eyes. He was about to make a move..

At this moment, the short-haired girl in front of him couldn't help but stand up. She shouted, 'Don't cross the line.' When the robbers heard this, they immediately turned their heads and looked at her. The leader of the robbers sneered and said, 'Cross the line? We are robbers, so what line can we cross?' As he spoke, he flashed the dagger in his hand, and it glinted sharply and coldly. Seeing this, the expression of the man next to the girl instantly changed. He quickly pulled the girl's clothes and reminded her in a low voice, 'Eileen, stop talking. Sit down now, hurry up!' However, the girl didn't listen to that boy at all. She pushed the man's hand away directly and said, 'Marco, don't pull me back.' Then, the girl stared at the robber and said, 'If you want money, we'll give it to you. But now, you still want to hurt that girl. This act is inhuman. You can't do that.' The robber laughed and said, 'Oh dear, this young girl sure has a sense of justice. Not bad indeed. However, you seem to have forgotten that we are robbers and bad guys. We won't be reasonable.' As he spoke, the robber turned around and was about to head over toward Quin Lin. This young girl was named Eileen Yao. As she saw the situation escalating, her eyes widened. She was going to rush over to stop the robbers. Seeing this, Marco Ji, who was the man next to her, was so frightened that his face turned pale. He quickly grabbed Eileen and said, 'Eileen, don't be impulsive. It's none of your business, so why are you being aggressive?' Eileen turned her head and gazed at the man with a look of disbelief. She said, 'Marco, how can you say such a thing? What do you mean by saying that this is none of my business? Do you still need to be taught by others to see what is right and act courageously when justice is needed?' 'But, they...' Marco said. He looked at the four robbers with a panicked expression on his face. Eileen shook her head and said coldly, 'Marco, you don't act like a real man at all. When you meet these bad guys, you are frightened like this. If you... you don't do something, will!' As she said this, Eileen struggled to escape Marco's hands and was about to rush over to stop the robbers. At the same time, she shouted, 'Hurry up, let's do something together. There are only four of them. Let's do something together, and these people won't be able to fight back against us.' While speaking, Eileen pounced on the robber with a dagger in his hand and gritted her teeth. She rushed toward the robber fiercely Her behavior could be described as brave. Unfortunately, when the other passengers heard her cry for assistance, they didn't get up to help. They lowered their heads and shrank into the corner without any intention to fight. Even Marco, at this moment, was nervous. He shouted, 'Eileen, you are crazy. Even if you want to be crazy, don't bring trouble to us.' When Eileen heard the words of her companion behind her, she could not help but feel a little down in her heart. However, her desire for justice burned in her heart resolutely. She gritted her teeth, clenched her fists, and pounced on the robber holding the dagger. The robber with the dagger looked at Quin's delicate face, which was like a fairy. The fiery lust in his heart was unbearable. He was extremely anxious. At this moment, he was disturbed by this little girl, and he was furious. He turned around and blocked Eileen. Then, he took out his dagger and shouted, 'Little beauty, don't be too anxious. When I finish having fun with this beauty, I will have fun with you.' Immediately, the robber with the dagger grabbed Eileen's arm and pushed her away. He said to another robber, 'Third Elder Brother, control her. Don't let her cause any troubles!' Third Elder Brother rushed over and grabbed Eileen from behind. A large hand grabbed Eileen's hands directly so that she could not escape. At the same time, a lustful smile appeared on his face, and his right hand reached out to Eileen's chest. 'Little beauty, don't worry, our boss will take us to have fun with you in a while,' he said. 'Now, just let me enjoy myself and relax first!' While talking, the Third Elder Brother's perverted hand was about to land on an important part of Eileen's body. After all, Eileen was a girl in her twenties. Although she was courageous, she suddenly couldn't control herself when she was insulted by the robbers like this. She burst into tears and cried as she asked for help, 'No, don't stop it, someone please save me,' she said. However, the passengers were very nervous. They were so scared that no one dared to come forward to save her. Even Eileen's companion Marco couldn't wait to bury his head, and he didn't dare to look at Eileen at all. He even covered his ears and didn't want to listen to Eileen's call for help. Concurrently, the leader of the robbers with the dagger shouted at Fade, 'Get out!' He stretched out his hand and was about to push Fade away. Then, he licked his tongue and lunged at Quin. At this time, Fade's eyes became dark, and there was a hint of murderous intent in them. He patted Quin's back gently and comforted her, saying, 'We will be alright.' Then, Fade raised his head and looked at the leader of the robbers. He stood up immediately. The leader of the robbers was stunned, and his face showed a fierce expression. 'Sit down, boy. Don't move,' he said. The surrounding robbers also came over and shouted, 'Don't move, or we will cripple you.' 'Boy, don't think too much about this situation. She's just a woman. You don't have to sacrifice your life for her.' 'Besides, after we have fun with her, you can still enjoy her. Don't worry, we don't have any diseases,' The robbers said with a smile. Fade's eyes turned cold and he said in an icy tone, 'All of you must die!' The robber with the dagger felt a unique sense of energy rising up before him and felt that something was wrong. He immediately took a step back and said in an alert manner, 'Act now! Get hold of that guy!' In an instant, two robbers rushed over and were about to press Fade to the ground. However, at this time, Fade snorted and a gust of invisible energy appeared in his palm. The energy surged and was transformed into a sharp knife. With a wave of his hand, Fade drew an arc shape, and the invisible sharp knife was launched toward the two robbers. Their throats were slit. In an instant, the two robbers felt a sense of pain in their necks, and then blood started to spurt out. They were terrified, and they instinctively covered their necks with their hands, but it was too late. They lost their breaths and their life flowed away just like that. They fell into a pool of blood and did not move anymore. Just in the blink of an eye, he had killed the two of them. Moreover, it was in such a violent manner. Such a scene frightened the people so much that their faces turned pale and they couldn't help screaming. Even the leader of the robbers was shocked. His face turned cold at this moment. He knew that he had met someone ferocious. A layer of sweat oozed from his forehead. He held the dagger and kept retreating. 'You don't come over,' he said. Fade ignored him and walked toward him with a cold expression on his face. As soon as the leader of the robbers saw Fade's cold eyes, he suddenly felt a shiver and was completely frightened. He dropped the dagger, turned around, and rushed out of the car, trying to escape. Fade snorted, and he kicked the dagger from the ground. Launching that dagger with the sound of violent wind, he stabbed the leader of the robbers in the back. The leader of the robbers fell down suddenly at the entrance of the car. Then, his whole body collapsed. Blood gushed out and a pool of blood began to form on one side of the road. Thereafter, he stopped breathing..
