

A Man Like None Other Novel

Chapter 2077 – 2078

Chapter 2077

After seeing Sonya, David's eyes suddenly turned scarlet, his fists were clenched, his teeth clenched!

David put one hand on Ning Zhi's head and stared at the magic envoy: "Let go of my girlfriend, or I will kill him now..." The magic envoy sneered: "You can do it, he It's just a piece of trash now, and it's useless to our Demon Heart Sect..."

"But your girlfriend is very important to you..."

After speaking, only in the picture before the meeting, a whole body wrapped The guy in the black robe, with a leather whip in his hand, kept beating Sonya on the body!

Although I can't hear the sound, I can clearly see Sonya's painful expression!

Looking at Sonya right in front of him, being tortured so much, David's body was shaking, and blood and tears flowed from his eyes!

The terrifying murderous aura on David's body rose up in an instant, and the pervading murderous aura continued to spread, and half of the city of Kyoto was shrouded in it!

Countless martial arts families ran out of the house one after another, with horror in their eyes, because they had never felt this murderous aura!

In the Guardian Pavilion, Mr. Shi frowned slightly and forgot to take a look at the direction of the Martial Arts Alliance: "This David, when will his temper become more stable, it will be easy to be used by others."

"Mr. Shi, you are so worried about that David . Ping, why don't you help him?"

Xing Jun asked in confusion.

He stayed by Mr. Shi's side, and often saw Mr. Shi worried about David's affairs. He didn't understand that with Mr. Shi's strength, he should be able to help David easily.

"I can help him for a while, but I can't help him for the rest of his life. He needs to walk all the way. This is his life, it was destined from the moment he was born..."

Mr. Shi sighed softly, then turned back room.

At this time, Davidping was facing the demon, his whole face was hideous, as if he was crazy.

"My day. Your grandmother's, if I don't kill you, I swear I will not be human..."

David said word by word, and the whole person rushed towards the magic envoy like a cannonball!

Boom.....

David slammed into the demon's body, but directly penetrated the past. It turned out that this was just a phantom of the demon, not the real body!

David's blow directly smashed the demon's phantom!

"Hahaha, David, let me tell you, if you dare to kill Ning Zhi, your girlfriend's torture will be more than whipping..." The ghost of the demon disappeared, leaving only a cold voice. !

David's anger reached its peak at this time, but there was nothing he could do. He wanted to start a killing spree!

But if you can't even enter the secret realm, how can you start killing people?

"David, at this time, you can't lose your mind, obviously that old thing is deliberately angering you!"

Hu Mazi saw that David's eyes were scarlet, and there seemed to be signs of a magical change, so he hurried forward to persuade David!

"Brother David, you have to calm down..."

Long Xingxu also hurried forward to persuade David.

At this time, David's mood slowly calmed down, and the scarlet in his eyes has also receded!

Looking at the entrance to the secret realm in front of him, but it couldn't be opened, David could only sigh, turned around and said, "Let's go back..."

David walked up to Ning Zhi and kicked Ning Zhi fiercely!

Then everyone returned to the Dragon Gate!

David knew that Ning Zhi should be very important to Demon Heart Sect, otherwise the Demon Envoy would not show up, and it would be impossible to use Sonya to threaten him!

Although they kept saying that Ning Zhi was not important, they kept warning themselves that they could not kill Ning Zhi!

Even if the Demon Heart Sect did not warn, David would not kill Ning Zhi. He wanted to let Ning Zhi see himself destroy the Demon Heart Sect, and let his mind collapse little by little

Chapter 2078

"David, don't be discouraged, don't we have other ways? When the pavilion master of Bailian Pavilion leaves the customs, I will accompany you to Bailian Pavilion. Liange, just bring the order of that day!"

Hu Mazi was afraid that David would be worried, so he patted his shoulder comfortably.

"Master Hu, I'm not so easily defeated, don't worry..."

David squeezed out a smile!

In the next few days, David did not leave Longmen, and he practiced every day, thinking about the days.

Now there is only the secret order of Bailian Pavilion, which can let him open the entrance to the secret realm of Demon Heart Sect!

On this day, David practiced cross-legged as usual, and Long Xingxu pushed the door and walked in.

"Brother David, the head of the Ge family is here..."

Long Xingxu said to David.

"Come in quickly..."

David got up quickly. During this time, David did not contact the Ge family. It seemed that Ge Fuhai came over, and he should be looking for him for something.

"Mr. Chen..."

Ge Fuhai entered the door and shouted respectfully towards David!

"Patriarch Ge, are you looking for me for something?"

David asked.

"Mr. Chen, the clan elder came to you and said that there are some things to discuss with you."

Ge Fuhai said.

When David heard this, he nodded: "Okay, then let's go now!"

When following Ge Fuhai to the Ge family land, David asked, "Master Ge, did the elder Ge not tell you what it was?"

Ge Fuhai shook his head, "No, but the expression on the elder's face doesn't seem very good. , and the atmosphere in the secret realm has become a lot more tense recently."

After speaking, the two reached the entrance of the secret realm, Ge Fuhai muttered something in his mouth, waved his hand, and a door of light appeared!

After David entered with Ge Fuhai, the door of light disappeared instantly!

When David came to the Ge Family Land, it was still the same, nothing changed, but there was a chill in the air!

When the guards at the door saw David, they all bowed respectfully and opened the door!

Entering the hall, when Ge Cangsheng saw David coming, he hurriedly stepped forward and knelt down directly: "Meet the hall master..."

"Old Ge clan, you don't need to do such a big ceremony, don't call me the hall master in the future, I don't want anyone I know..."

Although David is the lord of the Tianlong Palace, he is still a little uncomfortable to give him such a big gift!

"Yuhan, come and say thank you..."

Ge Cangsheng shouted.

Soon, Ge Yuhan hurried over and saluted David: "Yuhan thanked Mr. Chen..."

David nodded slightly, seeing Ge Yuhan now fully recovered, David was also very happy.

"Actually, I didn't do anything. If it wasn't for Senior Gorefiend, I'm afraid Miss Ge wouldn't be able to recover!"

David felt that he deserved it. After all, Ge Yuhan's recovery has nothing to do with him!

"Mr. Chen, Fuhai has already told me about Penglai Island. If it wasn't for Mr. Chen, how could the Gorefiend take action!"

Ge Cangsheng was grateful to David.

"Old Ge clan, I don't know if you came to me, what's the matter?"

David didn't want to be polite, and directly talk about things. After all, he is very busy now, and he will go to Bailian Pavilion in a few days!

Ge Cangsheng looked around, then said, "Fuhai, Yuhan, you all go out, I'll talk to Mr. Chen about something..."

Soon, Ge Fuhai and Ge Yuhan left, leaving only Ge Cangsheng and David in the hall. !

"Mr. Chen, did you find that there was a change in the secret realm when you came?"

Ge Cangsheng asked. David nodded: " Yes, I feel it. Although the environment has not changed, there is a chill in the air!" The respective sects and families in the secret realm are all living in peace and harmony!" "Because all the sects and families know that the day when the spiritual energy recovers is the day of real turmoil!" "All the sects and families They are all silently preserving their strength, and no one is fighting." "But Penglai Island's spiritual qi recovery failed, and no one knows when the next spiritual qi recovery will be. Many aristocratic sects couldn't bear it anymore and began to compete for resources in the secret realm. " In just a few short days, in our secret realm of Fire Sect, there are several aristocratic sect families that have disappeared because of the fighting." Ge Cangsheng sighed heavily, his expression full of helplessness!
