Chapter 2475

Chapter 2475

"Everyone, now that we have taken off our masks in violation of the regulations, it proves that we are now grasshoppers on a rope. If anyone has a different heart, he will be punished by God."

"Now our family, our disciples, and only ourselves Think of a way."

"We have secretly followed the power of the Demon Heart Sect for decades, but in the end we are nothing more than pawns. Now looking at our disciples, they have become Ning Zhi's cultivation resources, which is simply too much... .."

Yu Qian said with a cold face and eyes full of killing intent!

"Patriarch Yu, what do you say, we will listen to you. Although we, as monks, should throw away our emotions and desires, we are human after all, and we cannot watch our disciples and family members die without being indifferent.

" Yao Qisheng, the suzerain of Zilei Sect, said!

"Yes, we all listen to Patriarch Yu. Among us, Patriarch Yu is the strongest."

Another purple-robed messenger said!

"With just the few of us, it will be as difficult as reaching the sky if we want to rescue our family members and disciples. The strength of Almighty is unfathomable. If we fight together, we may not be opponents!"

"If we can unite Others, if we fight against the Demon Heart Sect together, will we have a better chance of winning?"

At this time, Feng Jingyan, the master of Fengyue Valley in the secret realm of the mountain gate, said!

"Master Fenggu, who do you plan to unite with?"

Yu Qian asked.

"David..."

Feng Jingyan said.

When David said the word, everyone was stunned.

It can be said that they had a deep hatred directly with David, and the other two purple-robed envoys were killed by David.

Besides, Feng Wuhen, Feng Jingyan's disciple, was also killed by David at the Secret Realm Conference. They couldn't figure it out, how did Feng Jingyan think of cooperating with David?

"Master Fenggu, you also know the situation between us and that David, do you think that David will help us?"

Yao Qisheng, the lord of the Zilei Sect, asked.

"If David's IQ is online, he will definitely help us. His girlfriend is trapped in the secret realm of Daoist sect, and David's enmity with Moxin sect has nothing to do with us."

"We Joining the Demon Heart Sect and becoming the purple-robed envoy of the Demon Heart Sect is also for the recovery of spiritual energy, and then we will have a place in the secular world."

"We should have a cooperative relationship with the Demon Heart Sect, but now the power of the Demon Heart Sect has put Our disciples were used as resources, massacred at will, and locked up our family members to control and threaten us, so we must find that David to cooperate!"

"Only that David can prevent the recovery of spiritual energy, and that David's His strength, I think, is already higher than ours, as long as the recovery of spiritual energy fails, the power of the Demon Heart Sect will have no other means, and he may give up the secret realm of the Demon Heart Sect and go to the Heavenly Human Realm."

"In this way Come on, won't our family members and disciples be saved? And if we cooperate with Davidli, the chances of rescuing our family members will be higher!"

Feng Jingyan followed the crowd to analyze carefully!

"Master Fenggu is right. We can find David to cooperate with him. Master Fenggu's disciple was killed by David, and he can clear up the past. Those of us who follow David have no deep hatred. I believe David will agree to go with him. We cooperated."

"It's just that this matter is very important, who will go to David to lobby? And there is an attempt to prevent us from being discovered by Da Neng, otherwise we and our family members will die without burial This is the land."

Yu Qian also agreed to Fengjingyan's proposal!

The six purple-robed envoys looked at each other, and none of them wanted to go. After all, no one was sure to convince David, and it would be extremely risky to go to contact David!

Seeing this, Yu Qian sighed softly and said, "Since no one wants to go, then I'll talk to David..."

After the discussion, the six purple-robed envoys put on their masks again and left separately!

And Ning Zhi, who is currently cultivating, has to absorb the strength of more than a dozen people every day to improve his realm!

Looking at the disciples who went to die every day, the six purple-robed envoys dared not speak out!
