

A Man Like None Other Novel

Chapter 2492

“Dragon Slaying Sword, it’s really Dragon Slaying Sword, brothers, take a look...” the old man shouted, and the other three identical old men all looked over in shock!

“Seniors, as the elders of the Artifact Sect, why are you imprisoned here? What’s going on here?”

David asked the old man.

“Didn’t the hammer tell you that our Artifact Refining Sect was attacked by the Huoming Sect and was wiped out, and our suzerain was taken away, as well as us high-level people who were taken away at the same time!”

“It’s just us and the suzerain We have been detained separately, we have been detained here for more than ten years!” the old man said slowly!

“Why are you being imprisoned here? This is not the world of heaven and man, but the world of the secular, in the secret realm of the Demon Heart Sect?”

David was very puzzled. They should be locked up in the Huo Fen Sect. Why? Will be locked in the secret dungeon of the Demon Heart Sect in the secular world!

This is too outrageous!

"What? This is the secular world? What kind of Demon Heart Sect? We've never heard of it?" the old man said in surprise!

This time, David was also confused, it seems that several elders of the Artifact Sect were imprisoned here, and they seemed to have no idea where it was!

"Let's not talk about that for now. Since you are the elders of the Artifact Sect, we are destined. Let me rescue you first!"

David walked towards the old man!

"Don't move, we all have a formation control here, maybe you will be injured by the formation." The old man hurriedly dissuaded David!

But David didn't stop, but went straight to the old man, and immediately around the old man, a light curtain appeared, surrounding the old man inside!

David then tapped lightly on the light curtain with his hand, followed by waves of halos like water ripples spreading continuously on David's fingertips!

Along with the ripples, a dazzling golden light flashed from David's fingertips, followed by the formation light curtain, like a piece of cloth being torn, a gap appeared, and then the light curtain disappeared completely!

The old man looked at David in surprise, he didn't expect David to break the formation so easily at such a young age!

The other elders were also shocked from ear to ear when they saw this scene.

“Senior, can I save you by cutting off this chain?”

David asked the old man.

The old man nodded, “That’s right, if you cut off the chain, we will be free, but the chain is made of tungsten steel, even though it looks ordinary, it is extremely hard, and...” The old man hadn’t finished speaking yet. , David waved the Dragon Slaying Sword in his hand, and the iron chain instantly became two pieces!

The iron chain was pulled from the old man’s body, and the wound was dripping with blood, but the old man didn’t care, but said excitedly, “I’m free, hahaha, I’m free...”

David did the same thing, putting the The other three were also released!

“Little brother, the four of us were originally quadruplets. I am the Great Elder. Thank you so much. If it weren’t for you, we might never see the light of day.

“ Bye...”

Saying that, the four old men were about to kneel down, but they were stopped by David in a hurry!

“Several seniors, you mentioned that I have a deep relationship with the Artifact Refining Sect. Now Master Iron Hammer is recruiting troops for the Artifact Refining Sect, and plans to rebuild the Artifact Sect. If these seniors go back, the Artifact Refining Sect will definitely be able to create another glory!”

David said to several old men!

“Little brother, what happened to the secular world you just mentioned, the Demon Heart Sect? We have no memory of it. We have left the Heavenly Human Realm. Isn’t this the dungeon of the Burning Fire Sect?”

asked the old man!

“Senior, it’s a long story. Let’s explain it to you when we go out. I’m going to the third floor to save people. I’ll talk about it after I save everyone!”

David didn’t have time to give them a detailed explanation!
