Chapter 2493

"Okay, we will accompany you to save people..."

said the old man!

David did not refuse, but walked towards the third basement with the four old men!

This time, the demon envoy didn't dare to follow, because those four old men made him very scared. He never thought that there were so many unpredictable experts imprisoned in this dungeon!

And they are all from the world of heaven and man? He really can't figure it out, they have always dreamed of going to the world of heaven and man, even Da Neng once said that they want to go to the world of heaven and man!

But why is it that all the people in this dungeon are from the world of heaven and man?

what on earth is this kind of happenings?

No one gave the magician an answer, David led the four elders to the third floor of the dungeon!

Although the third-floor dungeon is the deepest part, the environment is not the worst. There are many people imprisoned in each cell, including men, women, and even children!

"David? You...how did you come here?" David had just walked down the third floor when he heard someone calling him!

It turned out to be Yu Jiameng, Yu Qian's daughter. They met at the secret conference, so Yu Jiameng knew David!

"Miss Yu..." David hurried over after seeing Yu Jiameng, "I'm here to save you. Your father found me and asked me to rescue you..."

"What's going on? Where is my father? Someone picked us up and said they wanted to see my father, but they locked us here."

Yu Jiameng asked David.

"It's a long story, I'd better get you out first!"

After David finished speaking, he smashed the cell with all his strength!

Soon, David rescued the family members of the purple-robed envoys, and when they returned to the cell on the first floor, the four elders of the Artifact Sect released all the prisoners!

David didn't stop them either, after all these people were the enemies of the Demon Heart Sect, and if they were released, they would only cause trouble for the Demon Heart Sect!

When David came out of the dungeon with all the people, the Great Elder of the Artifact Refining Sect sensed the atmosphere around him, and suddenly frowned and said, "This is really not the world of heaven and man, what is going on, how could we Brought to the secular world?"

David did not answer him, but took out the 90,000 Li Mountains and Rivers Map, and then said to Yu Jiameng, "Miss Yu, I will use the teleportation array to send you back to your respective secret realms Go, no matter what happens, don't leave your secret realm easily."

After David finished speaking, the 90,000-mile map of mountains and rivers began to flicker, and the screen began to change accordingly!

"I'm not leaving, I want to find my father, and I want to ask what's going on!"

Yu Jiameng didn't leave at all.

Looking at the stubborn Yu Jiameng, David didn't bother too much, because he really didn't have much time!

After sending the family members of the other purple-robed envoys back to their respective secret realms, David said to the Great Elder of the Artifact Refining Sect, "Senior, you tear up time and space and return to the world of heaven and man. This junior has important matters to deal with, so don't worry about it." Sending you off..." The Great Elder said, "We have been trapped for more than ten years, and we are still chained, and now we have just come out, how can we have the ability to tear time and space, and open the gap between the secular world and the world of heaven and man?" The passage..."

Once the elder said, the others also looked at each other in blank dismay, and they couldn't tear apart time and space to open the passage!

This time, David was a little embarrassed. Although David had the God King Bow, he could open the passage, but if he opened the passage now, he would exhaust his energy and need to recuperate!

But he doesn't have time to recuperate, now that the spirit energy recovery formation is about to start, he has to rush to stop it as soon as possible and save his girlfriend.

“Senior, otherwise you are waiting here. I have a very important matter to deal with. If I can come back alive, I will help you open the passage and return from the secular world to the world of heaven and man...”

David faced The Great Elder of the Artifact Refining Sect said!
