Novel

Chapter 2525

This time, the elderly villager of Dashi Village lowered his head and stopped talking!

Everyone was listless, and the atmosphere became very depressing!

Yun'er looked at her injuries and was also worried. She originally wanted to go hunting to earn more money to treat her grandma's eyes, but now there is no money to treat her eyes, and now she is injured again!

"Yun'er, is it difficult for you to heal these injuries?"

David asked very puzzled!

Because these traumas can be healed with only some simple medicinal materials, and no expensive medicinal materials are needed, but why is it so difficult?

"Of course it's very difficult. We were injured and had to go to a town hundreds of kilometers away to seek treatment from a pharmacist. They charged a very high price."

Yun'er said to David!

Upon hearing this, David decided to gather some herbs on the mountain, and then heal the villagers of Dashi Village. Although David's strength has not yet fully recovered, there is no way to refine high-level elixir, but if he wants to refine some elixir to heal these injuries, he still has to Very simple!

“Ali, take them back first. I’ll pick some herbs from the mountains and go back to heal your wounds!”

David said to Ali!

When Ali heard this, he looked at David in a daze, “Are you going to collect medicine? Are you a pharmacist?” The others also looked at David in shock, waiting for David’s answer!

“I just learned some alchemy techniques, so I’m not a pharmacist, but it’s no problem to heal this kind of trauma.”

David said very relaxedly!

When Ali heard this, he immediately became very excited. He stepped forward and grabbed David’s hand and said, “You... what you said is true, didn’t you lie to me?”

David looked at Ali’s excited look. , very puzzled and said, “I didn’t lie to you, I just healed your trauma, what’s there to lie to.”

Ali happily stepped forward and hugged David directly!

And the others happily surrounded David, with admiration for David in their eyes!

Even Zhuzi stepped forward and looked at David in disbelief, “Brother David, you are actually a pharmacist? I didn’t expect you to be so strong, and you are still a pharmacist?”

Looking at the expressions of everyone, David was a little confused, he didn't understand, even if they are pharmacists, these people wouldn't be so happy, right?

Isn't it just being able to heal their trauma? Why are they all so happy as if they saved their lives?

"Brother David, I really didn't expect you to be a pharmacist. You don't know that a pharmacist is a very respected and enviable profession here.

" For thousands of years, there has never been a pharmacist!"

"Now, people in Dashi Village no longer have to go to the town to see a doctor, no longer have to be slaughtered, and my grandma's eyes have hope!"

" Brother David, can you heal my grandma's eyes?"

Yun'er asked David excitedly!

But David shook his head. In fact, David had observed the old lady's eyes a long time ago, because the eyes had been blind for many years, and they seemed to be caused by poison, so David couldn't cure them!

But there are no absolutes in everything, maybe if you find a kind of celestial herb that is specially used to heal your eyes, the old woman's eyes can also be restored!

"Yun'er, with my current ability, I still can't heal your grandma's eyes!"

David said with a little guilt!

When Yun'er heard this, she immediately felt very disappointed, and lowered her head slightly!

“Yun’er, although Brother David can’t heal your grandma’s eyes, you don’t have to be discouraged. After we sell the body of the demon wolf, we can ask Dr. Zhang to heal your grandma.”

Ali stepped forward to comfort Yun’er!
