Chapter 2583

Seeing this scene, all the villagers in Dashi Village were heartbroken, but there was nothing they could do!

The old village head quickly stepped forward and said, "Pharmacist calm down, calm down, then David is not in Dashi Village now, I can send someone to find him right away!" The old village head knew that David had fallen into a coma. If David handed it over, David would surely die. I'm afraid their Dashi Village would also be in bad luck!

If he could delay the time and wait for David to wake up, maybe David would be able to deal with these two guys!

"fu** you, who are you lying to? Just now there was a burst of demonic energy in your Dashi Village. It must have been caused by David. He is in the village."

"If you don't hand him over, I will kill you all right now.

" All slaughtered!"

Wu Feiyu slapped the old village chief away!

The old village head fell heavily on the ground, spitting blood, everyone hurriedly helped the old village head up!

Everyone glared at Wu Feiyu, but no one spoke, and no one said where David was!

Seeing this, Wu Feiyu raised his palm again, and a terrifying aura began to rise. If he palmed down, many villagers in Dashi Village would die again!

“Stop...”

At this moment, the old lady yelled loudly, and then walked out!

Seeing the old woman, Wu Feiyu frowned slightly and said, “Old man, who are you?” “

Then David was never in the village at all, and the devilish energy rising in the village just now was because of me!” After the old woman finished speaking, Waves of black mist rose around her body, and wrapped in the black mist, the old woman’s appearance became very terrifying!

When everyone in Dashi Village saw this scene, they dodged in fright. They didn’t expect that the old lady was actually a demon cultivator!

You must know that this old woman has lived here for decades, and no one knows that she is a demon cultivator. Now seeing the old woman showing her true colors, the villagers of Dashi Village feel a little scared!

Wu Feiyu was also stunned and said, “You are actually a demon cultivator?”

“Yes, I am a demon cultivator.”

After the old woman finished speaking, she jumped up and went straight to Wu Feiyu!

“Hmph, although you are a demon cultivator, your strength is not enough!”

Wu Feiyu snorted coldly, and also jumped up!

“Junior brother, don’t kill her, keep her alive, it’s very valuable...”

Nie Heng said to Wu Feiyu!

“Eldest brother, don’t worry, I finally met a demon cultivator, how could I kill him...”

After Wu Feiyu finished speaking, he waved his palms, and instantly scattered a cloud of red powder.

Seeing this, the old woman knew that Wu Feiyu had used poison, her body shook slightly, and the black mist around her instantly solidified, forming a barrier in front of her!

Boom...

When the red powder thrown by Wu Feiyu touched the barrier of black mist, there was an explosion!

Accompanied by the sound of the explosion, the sky was filled with red powder, instantly surrounding the old woman!

The old woman only felt her body go limp and fell to the ground in an instant!

She wanted to stand up, but found that her body had no strength!

“You don’t need to struggle anymore, your skill has already disappeared after being hit by my loose attack powder.”

Wu Feiyu sneered all over his face, and stepped on the old woman’s body!

The old woman closed her eyes in despair. As a demon cultivator, she knew what the consequences would be after revealing her identity!

But in order to buy time for David, she had to sacrifice herself!

Otherwise, everyone in Dashi Village will suffer!

At this time, everyone in Dashi Village saw the old woman being stepped on by Wu Feiyu, and they were all very angry. Although they knew the identity of the old woman Moxiu, the old woman had never done a bad thing for so many years!

"I didn't expect to catch that David, and there is an unexpected harvest." Wu Feiyu looked at the old woman under his feet, slightly raised the corner of his mouth, and then glanced at the people in Dashi Village and said, "I will give you five minutes to hand David over." Come out, if I don't see David in five minutes, I will make your village disappear completely!"

Chapter 2584

Hearing Wu Feiyu's threats, all the villagers in Dashi Village fell into panic, because they knew that Wu Feiyu would definitely do what he said!

But no one would tell David's whereabouts without the old village chief opening his mouth.

When Wu Feiyu saw that the villagers in Dashi Village were smelly and stubborn, no one would speak, and his face flushed with anger!

"Okay, since you don't say anything, then I'll kill you all and see if David will show up!" After Wu Feiyu finished speaking, he slapped everyone in Dashi Village with a volley. Zhang's extremely huge palm print, with terrifying coercion in the palm print, slowly pressed towards the crowd, making everyone in Dashi Village feel like a mountain was pressing down on their heads!

Seeing that the villagers of Dashi Village were about to be smashed into flesh by this palm, suddenly a ray of light seemed to come from the sky, directly hit the terrifying palm print, and defeated it!

"Who is it? Who is behind the shot?"

Wu Feiyu has already looked around quickly!

Nie Heng also frowned, looking around vigilantly!

With their current strength, if someone approached, they would have noticed it a long time ago, but now they only found out when the opponent made a move, which shows that the opponent's strength is very strong!

"You members of the Jade Cauldron Sect should take the responsibility of hanging the pot to help the world, but you are here to kill innocent people..."

Along with a flash of white light, an old man held a whisk, and two Taoist boys, a man and a woman, slowly appeared behind him up!

"You old bastard, what are we doing, you still need to make irresponsible remarks, who are you?"

Wu Feiyu yelled at the old man!

But at this time, Nie Heng, who was beside Wu Feiyu, was frightened after seeing the old man, and even trembled when he heard that Wu Feiyu had spoken rudely to the old man!

"Prince Wuji, my junior brother has eyes that don't recognize Mount Tai, please don't be offended."

After Nie Heng finished speaking, he gave Wu Feiyu a hard look and said, "You bastard, why don't you kneel down and apologize to Daoist Wuji..."

When Wu Feiyu heard that the other party was Daoist Wuji, she also trembled in fright, plopping Kneel down!

“Prince Daoist, please forgive me. I didn’t know it was the Priest Daoist who came here!”

Wu Feiyu was sweating coldly. One must know that Taoist Priest Wuji’s reputation is well-known in this area!

The strength of Daoist Wuji is even more unfathomable. Some people speculate that Daoist Wuji is a real immortal!

Everyone in Dashi Village knelt down and bowed down after hearing that the old man was Taoist Wuji!

They have all heard of the reputation of Taoist Wuji, but they have never seen it!

Daoist Wuji asked coldly, “As disciples of the sect, you came to this remote village to massacre, isn’t it a bit too much?”

“ People are killed, we are just here for revenge!”

Nie Heng hurriedly explained!

“The people in Dashi Village can kill your junior brother? Is this possible?”

Taoist Priest Wuji knew the strength of these low-level villagers, how could he kill a sect disciple!

“Daoist, it is absolutely true. There is a guy named David in Dashi Village. He is very powerful, but he has been hiding his strength. He took advantage of my junior brother’s unpreparedness and killed my junior brother.” “I suspect this guy He is a demon cultivator who hides his identity in this Dashi Village, and the demon energy rising from this Dashi Village just now is a good illustration of this point!" "The people of Dashi Village have been protecting David, and these people followed Demon cultivators colluded and should be killed."

Nie Heng said!

Daoist Promise Wuji nodded, "I came here to take a look because of that devilish energy. It's been a long time since I've seen such a strong devilish energy appear." "Daozhang, we caught a demon cultivator in Dashi Village, and these old man Things have also been admitted by themselves."

Wu Feiyu picked up the old woman and said to Priest Wuji!

Daoist Wuji glanced at the old woman and said, "Sure enough, he is a demon cultivator, but the magic beads in his body are gone, so he can't exert much strength. It seems that the demon energy rising from Dashi Village is someone else."

Chapter 2585

"There are no other demonic cultivators in Dashi Village. The demonic energy just now was emitted by me."

The old woman roared, she couldn't let these people find David.

Taoist Priest Wuji didn't speak, just made a look. A Taoist boy behind him took out a vase made of mutton fat jade, and then took a photo at the old woman. A golden light shone on the old woman in an instant, and then the old woman's The figure disappeared and was directly sucked into the treasure bottle!

Wu Feiyu and Nie Heng saw Mo Xiu in their hands being taken away by Taoist Wuji, and they all felt distressed, but they didn't dare to say anything!

"Daoist, there must be a demon cultivator in Dashi Village, I hope the Taoist priest can find that demon cultivator..."

Nie Heng said to Daoist Wuji!

He hoped to find David out through Taoist Wuji's ability. At this time, in their eyes, he could be sure that David was a demon cultivator!

Priest Wuji nodded, and with a light wave of his palm, a soft white light enveloped the entire sky of Dashi Village in an instant!

The soft white light keeps falling, falling on people's bodies, making people feel refreshed like a spring breeze!

But if it is a demon cultivator, this white light will be very painful when it falls on the body, and the light will continue to flicker, so that the demon cultivator has nowhere to hide!

The soft white light passed through the roof and slowly fell on Zhu Zhu and Yun'er. The two of them felt warm and comfortable all over!

At this time, David, who was lying unconscious on the bed, was enveloped by the soft white light. After the white light entered David's body, David's body did not respond, and there was a force in David's body that was constantly sucking food. Look at the white light entering the body!

After a while, Daoist Wuji withdrew his hands, frowned slightly and said, "There is no magic cultivator in Dashi Village, but that magic energy will never come from that old woman.

"Chasing and killing, so I disappeared in advance, leaving only an insignificant old woman standing here!"

"I thought I could gain a lot this time, but I didn't think it would be in vain..."

Daoist Wuji sighed, turned around and prepared to leave!

Wu Feiyu and Nie Heng were a little confused, and began to wonder if David had really left Dashi Village. If David was still in Dashi Village, Taoist Wuji couldn't have missed it!

"You two can take revenge, but don't kill innocent people indiscriminately..."

Taoist Wuji suddenly told Wu Feiyu and Nie Heng when he was about to leave!

"I would like to follow the Taoist priest's instruction..."

The two agreed respectfully.

Taoist Wuji left, Wu Feiyu and Nie Heng looked at the people in Dashi Village, and finally had no choice but to leave. Since Taoist Wuji said that innocent people should not be killed indiscriminately, the two of them dare not disobey!

"Brother, what should we do? If David really escapes, where can we find him?"

Wu Feiyu asked Nie Heng!

"Then David probably won't escape. I suspect he's still in Dashi Village."

Nie Heng narrowed his eyes slightly!

"Brother, since David is still in Dashi Village, let's go back and find him."

Wu Feiyu said.

"How to find it? Those untouchables are determined to help David, and they don't even say anything about David's whereabouts. We don't dare to do anything to them anymore. How can we find it?"

Nie Heng said with a gloomy face!

"Then what should we do? We can't just go back like this? If we don't catch David, Master will blame him."

Wu Feiyu said with a sad face!

"I have my own way. Since Taoist Wuji said that we won't let us kill innocent people indiscriminately, he didn't say that we won't let others kill them." "Do you think about who here has a grudge with Dashi Village?"

Nie Heng smiled lightly.

"Daqing Village?" Wu Feiyu said.

"That's right. Let's go to Daqing Village and let the people of Daqing Village kill the people of Dashi Village. This has nothing to do with us. I don't believe that David will not show up if we kill all the people in Dashi Village." Nie Heng There was a cold killing intent in his eyes, and then he headed towards Daqing Village!
