

A Man Like None Other Novel

Chapter 2619

"Since the matter has come to this point, then let him go. If you want to take revenge, then I'll just wait..."

David smiled, not caring at all!

"Mr. Chen, don't you live in my mansion? After all, the environment here is much better than that at the foot of the mountain."

Nie Heng asked David!

"No, I still like to be with the third elder!"

After David finished speaking, he walked towards the Jade Cauldron Sect!

After returning to the dilapidated house of the third elder, the third elder looked at the token of the inner door that David took back, and couldn't help being surprised, "Mr. Chen, you finished the assessment so soon?"

"The assessment is quite simple..."

"That's right, this kind of assessment for outer disciples, how can it be difficult for you." "

Since you have passed the assessment, then you are also considered a member of our Jade Cauldron Sect. My God, when the medicine pool is opened, I will give you a chance." "

It's just that my resources here are poor, and I have nothing to give you, and you can only cultivate with the aura of heaven and earth." The third elder said apologetically, After all, David healed his body, and he had nothing to repay David.

"Thank you, Third Elder, it is enough to have the opportunity to enter the medicine pond!" "

I wonder how the Third Elder's health is?

" Unexpectedly, the toxins in the third elder's body should be completely removed!

"My body is much better, and the toxins in my body have disappeared, thanks to Mr. Chen's rescue." The third elder looked at David gratefully and said.

"Third Elder Hanging the Pot to save the world is supposed to be a person with a long life, and this is also your own good fortune."

If David hadn't seen that the Third Elder was kind-hearted, he would not have rescued him.

The third elder smiled faintly, and then called out.

"Fang Shu..."

With the shout of the third elder, a young man came in soon!

And this person is the one who blocked David yesterday!

"Master, what's the matter?"

Fang Shu asked!

"Take Mr. Chen and arrange a place for him, choose a better room..." The third elder finished speaking to Fang Shu, then looked at David and said, "Mr. Chen, this is my eldest disciple Fang Shu. Let him take care of your food and daily life for a few days."

"Thank you, Third Elder!" David thanked him!

"Mr. Chen, please come with me..."

Fang Shu said to David very respectfully!

Today's Fang Shu's attitude towards David has changed a hundred and eighty degrees. After all, David rescued his master, and Fang Shu is also grateful to David in his heart!

Moreover, David's alchemy skills also made them very impressed. He was able to refine such a high-level elixir and produce such a beautiful elixir cloud. Few people in the Jade Cauldron Sect could do it!

Fang Shu found the cleanest room for David and said, "Mr. Chen, you should live here first. The conditions are a little rough. I will send someone to deliver three meals a day at regular intervals. In addition, if Mr. Chen wants to go around, we will help you." I can accompany you."

"Thank you very much..."

David said thanks!

After Fang Shu left, David was sitting cross-legged on the bed, concentrating on the art of operation, absorbing the aura of heaven and earth and began to practice!

But just after David settled down, he suddenly felt something outside the window!

David opened his eyes, listened carefully, and found a cooing sound outside the window as if a bird was calling!

David sat without moving. After all, it is normal for birds to appear in this kind of place!

But that bird seemed to be calling David, cooing all the time, and knocking on the window from time to time!

Seeing this, David could only get up and open the window, and found that it was a bird with colorful feathers. The eyes of the bird were very bright. Seeing David open the window, the bird flew directly onto David's shoulder, and raised his leg, so that David could see a piece of paper tied to his leg!

Chapter 2620

David took the note down, and after opening it, he realized that this beautiful bird came from the Demon Imperial City, and the content on the note was written by Princess Isa!

Tell David that the mole monsters in the Demon Imperial City have never been to the village to steal things, it should be done by the rat monsters in other royal cities, and the theft of the mole monsters is not allowed in the Demon Imperial City of Yihe of!

Since it is not the Demon Imperial City, it is very likely that the mole monster in the Mingli King City did it. David can only pray now, hoping that the mole monster who stole the God King Bow does not know the value of the God King Bow. That's good!

Now he has no way to directly go to Mingli King City to investigate. Right now, he can only solve the matter of Jade Cauldron Sect, improve his own strength, and go looking for Shenwang Gong!

David let the bird fly back, then closed the window, and practiced again!

For three days in a row, David did not leave the room, and three meals a day were delivered to David. David quietly waited for the opening time of the medicine pool!

On this day, David meditated as usual, but outside the room, it seemed that someone was arguing. The noise of the quarreling woke David up, and then he walked out!

David saw that all the disciples of the three elders gathered in the courtyard, there were only a dozen of them in total, and Fang Shu was scolding them loudly!

"Why are you all so timid? What's wrong with going to the inside of the sect with me? You must know that we are also disciples of the Jade Cauldron Sect. How can we go to our own sect and scare you like this?" Fang Shu roared loudly

"Brother, it's not like you don't know. Every time we go, we are bullied and insulted like dogs. It's too embarrassing..." "That's right, the last time someone splashed footwashing water on me, I didn't dare to say anything. Withhold the supplies given to us."

"We are not cowardly, we are too cowardly, we can't bear that anger..."

The group of juniors and brothers said each word, and some people even cried aggrievedly, which made everyone feel aggrieved. Fang Shu sighed, not knowing what to do!

"What's wrong?" At this moment, David came over!

Seeing David coming, Fang Shu hurriedly waved his hands to let the crowd disperse, and then said, "Mr. Chen, it's nothing, I just asked these guys to come with me to the sect to collect supplies, and no one dared to go." " Receive Supplies?" David was taken aback.

"Yes, although the resources in the sect will basically not be given to us, some necessary materials will also be distributed to us, and we people have to live."
"However, the sect stipulates that we can only go there for seven days

. Once the sect received supplies, because every time I went there, I was humiliated by other elders and disciples in the sect, so these guys were unwilling to go with me."

Fang Shu said embarrassingly!

"Then I'll go with you..." David said!

"No, no, how can Mr. Chen do such a thing? If Master finds out, he will scold me."

Fang Shu waved his hands repeatedly.

One must know that David is the savior of the third elder, how could he do this kind of rough work!

"It's okay, I live here for free, so I should do some work, let's go..."

David patted Fang Shu on the shoulder and said!

Seeing this, Fang Shu could only nod his head, and followed David towards Jade Cauldron Sect!

Because they are all disciples of the Jade Cauldron Sect, it is easy for David and the others to enter the sect. After passing through the outer gate, they came to a building. At the moment in the courtyard, David saw many Jade Cauldron Sects. Disciples are waiting in line!

"These should be disciples who receive supplies, but these disciples can come to collect them every day, and receive whatever they lack, but we can't, we can only come to collect them once every seven days, and the quantity and category are also specified!" "Same as Jade Cauldron Sect My disciples, since that Hu Yixiao became suzerain, we have never had a good life!"

Fang Shu sighed and said full of complaints!

Chapter 2621

"Then why are you still following the Third Elder? Why don't you order someone else?"

David asked!

"Then how is it possible? As the saying goes, being a teacher for a day and being a father for life, how can I betray my master for some resources.

" People are too utilitarian, and they need money and resources to do everything, but those mountain people are very difficult, and they have no money or resources at all!" "You can't just watch them suffer from illness and die because of these things, right? "

Fang Shu said with a straight face!

Seeing this, David glanced at Fang Shu with some admiration. There are really very few people like Fang Shu in this celestial world where interests are more preoccupied than in the secular world!

Soon, it was David and the others' turn to collect supplies. Fang Shu hurriedly took a list and walked up to a disciple of the Jade Cauldron Sect who looked only about twenty!

"Little brother, this is our list, look..."

Fang Shu handed over the list, and the young man looked up at Fang Shu, and asked coldly, "Are you from the same line as the third elder?"

"That's right!" Fang Shu nodded repeatedly!

I saw that the other party took the list directly without even looking at it, and threw it aside and said, "You don't have supplies to distribute, so come back next time."

Fang Shu was slightly taken aback when he heard this, and said, "No, we have supplies every week. Yes."

"If I say no, then there will be no, you or I will distribute the supplies?"

The young man said coldly without respecting Fang Shu at all!

Fang Shu could tell at this moment that his heart was full of anger, but he was trying his best to restrain himself!

"Junior brother, if you don't take a look, we must have supplies."

Fang Shu said with a blushing face because of the strong suppression!

"Don't shout one by one junior brother, who is your junior brother, if I say no, then there is none..." "

Hurry up, don't get in the way here..."

The young man waved Fang Shu to leave quickly!

At this moment, Fang Shu couldn't bear it any longer, stepped forward and grabbed the other party's collar and said, "Little bastard, when I joined the Jade Cauldron Sect, you fuing peed on the mud, take out the supplies for me..."

"I've beaten someone, I've beaten someone, and the disciples from the third elder's line came over to beat someone and grab supplies..."

Accompanied by the young man's shout, many disciples of the Jade Cauldron Sect flocked to Fang Shu and David. Surrounded!

Seeing the helper coming, the young man raised his mouth and said, "Let go of it immediately. If you don't let go, I will tell you never to get the supplies.

" Slowly let go of the handle!

The people around looked at Fang Shu as if watching a joke, their eyes full of sarcasm!

Seeing this scene, David finally understood why the other disciples of the Third Elder didn't want to come!

"Mr. Chen, let's go..."

Fang Shu turned around helplessly and prepared to leave!

But David didn't move, but looked at the young man who distributed the supplies, and asked in a cold voice, "You said the disciples of the third elder's line don't have supplies?" "

Yes, no!" The young man nodded!

Slap...

Just as the young man finished speaking, David slapped him unexpectedly!

With David's strength, this slap directly sent the young man flying, and all the teeth in his mouth fell off!

Seeing that David hit someone suddenly, Fang Shu was stunned, and the others looked at David in disbelief, feeling that David was very strange!

The young man who was beaten covered his face and yelled loudly, "You dare to do it, who are you? Don't even think about leaving here today..."

With the young man shouting loudly, many people started to move toward David surrounded, ready to make a move!
