

A Man Like None Other Novel

Chapter 2904

What David said made Ji Yun and Wa Gang stunned!

"Mr. Chen, there are demon cultivators among these people? Why can't you feel it at all?"

Wa Guan stepped forward and asked in a low voice!

"I can't feel it either. I guess they used some method to hide the aura, but there is a change in the magic whip. It must be that there are magic cultivators among these people." David said !

"These devil cultivators are really brave. They dare to sneak into the treasure-hunting team, but when they find the treasure, they will definitely do it. Once they do it, these devil cultivators will definitely be exposed!" Wa Gang was a little surprised by these devil cultivators

. courage!

"I'm afraid these demon cultivators are playing tricks, so you all have to pay more attention, and don't trust anyone in it!"

David warned!

"En!" Everyone nodded!

The group continued to move forward, and at this moment, the cave was filled with extremely cold air, and everyone had to mobilize their spiritual power to resist the cold air!

On the contrary, Wa Gu, Gao Qijie and the others didn't particularly care about the cold air!

After all, they have already adapted to such an environment!

After everyone walked slowly for a few miles, the cold air became heavier and heavier, as if the whole space was about to be condensed!

At this time, David and the others seemed to be walking in an ice palace, with ice crystals all over the top, bottom, left, and right!

At this time, Liu Ruyan's body began to tremble, and her clothes were covered with thick frost!

Seeing this, David held Liu Ruyan's hand, and a warm current followed David's hand into Liu Ruyan's body, which made Liu Ruyan feel better!

"Everyone, pay attention, if you go deeper, the cold air will get worse."

David reminded!

But just after David finished speaking, Gao Qijie who was walking in front suddenly stopped, followed by a scream!

"Third young master..."

Several servants of the Gao family hurried towards Gao Qijie!

Hearing Gao Qijie's screams, everyone stopped, and immediately saw that Gao Qijie, who was not afraid of the cold, started to freeze rapidly at this moment!

Gao Qijie struggled desperately, but it was useless at all. Even if he tried his best to absorb the cold air, he still couldn't stop the freezing speed!

Several servants of the Gao family also made quick moves and began to absorb the cold air, trying to rescue Gao Qijie, but they also started to condense frost on their bodies, and they still couldn't rescue Gao Qijie!

Seeing that Gao Qijie's lower body was completely frozen, Gao Qijie panicked!

"Help me, save me..."

Gao Qijie shouted, his eyes full of fear!

"None of you move around!"

Seeing this, David let go of Liu Ruyan, and quickly walked in front of Gao Qijie!

Immediately after the palm, a flame rose suddenly, and the hot current was instantly driven into Gao Qijie's body by David!

At the same time, a flame flickered on the soles of David's feet, and the ice under his feet began to melt!

Just when David cast Zhihuo, two people in the crowd became obviously surprised and puzzled!

Soon, Gao Qijie got rid of the shackles, David pulled Gao Qijie, and quickly retreated!

"Third young master, are you alright?"

Several servants of the Gao family hurriedly asked!

Gao Qijie shook his head, then looked at David, and said gratefully, "David, thank you..."

Gao Qijie did not expect that it would be David who saved him in the end.

"The road ahead has been casted in a formation. If you take a wrong step, you will be frozen by the cold..."

David said, looking at the road under his feet!

"Have someone cast a formation? In this way, there is a high probability that there are treasures in this cave. After all, there are human traces."

Ji Yun said!

"Maybe, don't move around, wait for me to observe carefully!"

David refused to let anyone move forward!

Chapter 2905

David carefully looked at the cave in front of him, it was empty, except for the cold air and the surrounding ice crystals, nothing could be seen!

David bit his finger, and took out a talisman. After drawing a figure on it, a spirit fire ignited the talisman paper.

Although David is not as deep as Hu Mazi in terms of spells, David still knows this simple spell to make the formation active!

As the spell turned into smoke and burned out, a magic circle appeared in David's eyes instantly, and he saw that the road under their feet had become like a chessboard, square by square!

When walking, only by guessing the right place can you pass smoothly. If you guess wrong, you will be frozen by the cold immediately!

After careful inspection, David wanted to laugh slightly!

However, David did not break the formation, but said to Ji Yun and Gao Qijie and others, "I will walk in the front in a while, and you all follow where I go, and don't step on other places.

"Do you understand? You must step on the place I walked."

David carefully warned!

Now only David can see the entire formation, and no one else can see it at all!

"Okay..."

Several people all nodded!

David started to walk forward, but he walked very slowly. After all, there were still people following behind. David was afraid that some of them might not see clearly and made a mistake!

Liu Ruyan was behind David, followed by tile tanks, Ji Yun...

Everyone lined up and walked slowly!

When the others saw that David and the others had opened the way ahead, they also started to move forward!

However, these people didn't notice David's footsteps, but walked forward casually!

After walking a short distance, someone soon went to the wrong place, and his body began to be frozen by the cold air!

"Help, help..."

"Help me, I'm frozen too..."

People started to be frozen, shouting for help!

But at a time like this, who can save whose life?

“Old Kong, Zuo Qing, something bad happened...”

At this moment, Lao Sun suddenly stopped, his eyes full of horror!

Looking down, he found that his feet were also blocked by ice, and it spread rapidly towards his legs!

Seeing this, Lao Kong and Zuo Qing hurriedly took a step back, opening the distance to follow Lao Sun!

“Save me, you two hurry up and save me...”

Lao Sun yelled, and kept pumping his strength, trying to shake off the frost on his feet!

But no matter how hard Lao Sun tried, it was of no avail!

“Old Sun, I’m sorry, we can’t save you, you can do it yourself...”

Lao Kong said, and hurried forward, Zuo Qing also followed behind!

Old Sun’s eyes were full of fear, just when he was desperate, suddenly a flame shot towards him!

The flame exploded in front of them, and the scorching fire instantly surrounded Lao Sun!

Under this flame, the frost on Lao Sun’s body melted, and his body was no longer bound!

Seeing this, Lao Sun hurriedly jumped forward and landed elsewhere!

Although the old grandson looked very embarrassed at this time, he would not be frozen up!

Old Sun looked up and found that David was looking at him. It was obvious that the flame just now was sent by David, and it was this flame that saved him!

"Follow my footsteps, don't run around..."

David followed Lao Sun!

At this moment, everyone heard it, and then they realized why David and the others didn't have a single person being frozen!

It turned out that there was a trap on the road under his feet, but David saw through the trap, as long as he followed his steps, he would be fine!

"Why the hell didn't you say it earlier? My brother was frozen?"

"That's right, what do you mean? So many people have been frozen, you don't care, how cold-blooded are you?"

Some people began to dissatisfy and shouted at David!

Chapter 2906

After all, David's strength is not high. These people's companions are frozen, and there is no way to save them in a hurry. Now hearing what David said, it is just right to vent their anger on David!

"Shut up the fuck, dare to beep, don't worry about the old man, who the hell let you in." "

Since you want to get the treasure, you must be prepared to die, why bother with you, you are him Son?"

The aura on Lao Sun's body exploded instantly, and he looked coldly at those who yelled!

The strength of the eighth rank of the old grandson is considered to be the most powerful person in this team, so when he got angry, those people shut their mouths instantly!

Old Sun was rescued by David just now, so of course he has to speak for David!

David didn't pay attention to those shouting people. The reason why David didn't say anything about the formation was to let some people be frozen!

If there are really treasures in this cave, the more people there are, the more difficult it will be for David to get the Ice Soul Pill!

David didn't care about the life and death of these people, and it had nothing to do with David!

The reason why David saved the old grandson was precisely that this guy helped him with a few words when he was outside the city of Jialing County!

Another reason is Lao Sun's strength. If Lao Sun, Lao Kong and Zuo Qing team up to find the treasure, David and the others have no chance of winning!

So now David wants to win over one person first, and among the three, only Lao Sun intends to make friends with David.

A pedestrian continued to move forward slowly, this time they all followed behind David obediently!

After about an hour, he walked out of this area!

"Okay, I have finally passed this area..."

"This area has been put under a magic circle. If you pass by rashly, you will not be able to get out at all!"

David let out a long breath!

Even though it was extremely cold here, David was actually sweating, and the steaming heat turned into white mist!

David also walked very cautiously along this road!

Seeing that they had walked out of that area, everyone let out a long sigh of relief!

But on the way, there are still a few people who have become ice sculptures!

David sat cross-legged and slowly adjusted his breath. Although David had the ultimate fire, the ultimate fire was not inexhaustible and needed to be absorbed and refined!

Only by making the Zhihuo grow slowly, the Zhihuo in David's body is still too little!

Just after rescuing Gao Qijie and Lao Sun in succession, David's Zhihuo was very weak!

"Little brother, thank you..."

At this time, Lao Sun came over and followed David to thank you!

"Senior, you're welcome..."

David said with a faint smile!

"This is a life-saving grace, how can you not be polite!"

Lao Sun said, stretching out his hand and taking out a fairy grass from his pocket, this plant is now a bright red color, and it is still warm!

"I have a warming grass here. Although it is not very helpful for cultivation, it can resist the cold air." "

I brought it because I came to the extreme north. I see you My girlfriend's strength is low, and it's difficult to resist the cold, so I'll give her the warm grass!"

Old Sun said, and handed the warm grass to Liu Ruyan!

But Liu Ruyan didn't take it, but looked at David.

"Since it's senior's wish, let's accept it!"

David said with a slight smile!

"Thank you, senior..."

Liu Ruyan put away the warming grass, and when she carried it on her body, she really felt much warmer and more comfortable!

Lao Sun sat next to David and started talking with David!

The two chatted a lot, and laughed from time to time.

After talking, David realized that Lao Sun, Lao Kong and Zuo Qing were just a temporary team!

Although the three have known each other for a long time, their friendship is not particularly deep.

No wonder the two of them had no intention of rescuing Lao Sun when he was frozen!
