

A Man Like None Other Novel

Chapter 2952

Along with the continuous spread of colorful brilliance, an illusory world was outlined in David's body!

"I know, I know, this is the original space, this is not the sea of consciousness..."

Suddenly, Gao Qiqiang shouted loudly!

"Original space? Have I realized the original space now?"

David also looked confused, he didn't feel that he had realized any original space!

Could it be because of the last thunder tribulation and the Great Luo Jindian?

"This must be the original space. Congratulations, Mr. Chen. Once the original space is formed, you will be able to comprehend and hunt for the original." "I didn't expect that you could also feel the original space in the state of integration. It's a miracle, it's a miracle...

Gao Qiqiang was full of envy!

"What is my original space? Could it also be a palace?"

David was also very curious and happy at this time.

“No, judging by the structure of your original space, it should be bigger than the palace, it must be the sea, a huge space like a mountain!”

Gao Qiqiang said!

“Is it true that the bigger the original space, the better?”

David asked!

“Of course, the larger the original space, the greater the future development space, but this is relative. The larger the original space, but the greater the source.” “Just like your physical body, the physical body The stronger you are, the more difficult it will be for you to upgrade, and the more resources you will need, but after upgrading, you will gain a lot, and this is all relative.” Gao Qiqiang followed David to explain

At this moment, the multicolored brilliance had disappeared, and everything that came into view was full of stars, but these stars were all gray and not lit up!

The two looked at the dots of stars around them, as if they were standing at the end of the Milky Way universe!

“This... what is this? Where is my original space?”

David looked around, but there was nothing!

There are no palaces, no seas and lakes, no mountains!

Gao Qiqiang was also full of doubts, and he didn't find anything that became the original space!

"It's so strange, what's going on here? Could it be that the original space generation failed?"

Gao Qiqiang kept flying, hoping to find something, but no matter how he flew, he couldn't see anything!

David looked at the stars around him, the gray stars seemed to be waiting to be lit up!

"Patriarch Gao, do you think my original space is the thousands of galaxies?" "

I always feel that these dark stars are the original source, waiting to be lit by me..."

David whispered!

In fact, David himself didn't know much about it, so when he said it, he felt a little guilty!

"How is it possible? I have never heard of this kind of original space. If such a large cosmic galaxy is your original space, then it's okay!" Gao Qiqiang didn't believe it at all

"However, there is nothing else in the galaxy that suddenly appeared. How can I be sure if I have succeeded?"

David asked!

"This is easy to handle. You can feel a kind of origin. With this kind of original breath, you can use that breath to find the original space." It is something that can be encountered but cannot be sought, and sometimes it is simply impossible to ask for." "

And there are many theories about the origin of each person's body, which is suitable for comprehending."

Gao Qiqiang said!

"I'll give it a try, maybe I can get it..."

After David finished speaking, he closed his eyes slightly, and immediately felt the power of thunder and lightning continuously shuttle in his body!

David swallowed the Sky Thunder Fruit, and was forcibly split eleven times by Lei Jie, so now it is most appropriate for David to understand the origin of thunder and lightning!

Chapter 2953

Soon, David felt his body shaking constantly, and electric arcs spread all over his body!

A huge suction force came suddenly, and the bodies of David and Gao Qiqiang rose up uncontrollably!

When the two came to a star, the force stopped, and the electric arcs on David's body shot straight towards the star!

Under the blessing of the lightning power in David's body, the gloomy star started to become brighter!

In the end, a shining star appeared. Among the many dim stars, this shining star was so bright!

Seeing this, Gao Qiqiang was stupid, completely stupid!

"This, this, this..."

"This original space is really the entire galaxy? It's too outrageous..."

Gao Qiqiang only felt his head buzzing.

He has never heard that the original space can reach the floor of the cosmic galaxy, which is a bit outrageous!

Such a large original space!

That means that David's body has infinite possibilities. No matter what happens in David's body, it is possible.

This time, David's original space is almost at the end, there will be no more restrictions, he can feel and absorb the original breath endlessly.

Some people have created the original space, but because the space is limited, the original breath they can comprehend and absorb is also limited, so they can only break through again to expand the original space!

But this kind of situation will not happen to David. This time, his perception is almost life-long, and he will no longer be trapped in the huge original space by the universe galaxy!

Looking at the countless gray stars in the galaxy, Gao Qiqiang didn't know how long and how much effort David needed to light up these stars!

If David could fill the entire original space with the original breath, it would be a terrifying existence...

"Patriarch Gao?"

Looking at Gao Qiqiang who was already sluggish with a confused face, David called out softly !

This time, Gao Qiqiang woke up from the shock!

"I didn't expect it, I really didn't expect it, the eleventh thunder tribulation should help you open up your original space." "

Otherwise, your body wouldn't be able to resist that thunder tribulation."

"God, this is God's will... .."

"You don't even need to practice. With your body, how many monks will never envy you."

"Destiny..."

Gao Qiqiang sighed, his eyes full of envy!

After crossing the Tribulation Realm, he realized the original space and absorbed the original breath, which is already considered a gifted existence!

But in front of David, he was simply not good enough!

"Patriarch Gao, I seem to have sensed the aura of the source of thunder and lightning..."

David said, and opened his hand gently, an electric arc jumped in his hand, and the star of the source of thunder and lightning also began to flicker!

"Mr. Chen, it is not easy to comprehend the original aura, and it is even more difficult to absorb and refine the original aura, so you should not waste the original aura easily." "You don't have much original aura, don't use it as a demonstration..."

Gao Qiqiang persuaded David road!

David so easily comprehended the original space and possessed the original aura, so he didn't understand the rareness, and it was not difficult for him to obtain the original aura!

But for Gao Qiqiang and the others, it is extremely difficult to comprehend and refine a trace of the original breath!

This is a typical full man who doesn't know how hungry a man is hungry!

David put away the original breath in his hand, and then asked Gao Qiqiang, "Patriarch Gao, is there any other way to obtain this original breath besides slowly comprehending and refining it?"

"If it is too slow, it will be much easier if you can eat spiritual fruits and beast pills like you can get spiritual energy."

Chapter 2954

"Of course there is. In fact, some things have their own original breath, just like the sky thunder fruit you eat, which actually contains the origin of the power of thunder and lightning." "Otherwise, you can't easily feel the power of lightning ." The original breath."

"There are also monsters in this extreme north, such as the ice giant beast, if you can kill the ice giant beast, you can absorb the beast pill of the ice giant beast, or eat its flesh and blood, you will be able to eat it." There is a chance to comprehend the original aura of ice." "

It's just that there is not a 100% chance of realizing these things, but it is much better than sitting at home and abruptly comprehending various original auras. It also depends on each person's talent and strength."

Qiqiang explained to David in detail the sect's perception of the original breath.

"Besides this, is there any other way?"

David asked!

"There is another way, that is to kill the cultivator who has the original aura. As long as the other party's spirit and soul are wiped out, then his original aura will become an unowned source, and other people can absorb and refine it."
"It's just that Very harsh, let alone whether it is possible to kill a monk with the original aura, even if he is really killed, the original aura will dissipate between the heavens and the earth." "Unless there is a magic weapon or a magic circle that can temporarily It is very difficult to trap the dissipated original breath and quickly absorb and refine it." "There is another way, that is the ancient battlefield. In the past, there were countless ancient battlefields in the war of gods and demons, and the fallen monks were even more powerful." Countless."

"In some places, due to the environment and geographical location, after these monks fall, the original aura will gather there, and there is no way to dissipate, and these original aura will become ownerless." "But such places are rare

. , It's hard to find, even if you can find it, the ownerless original aura is chaotic, so it's aggressive, if you don't have enough strength, not only can't absorb and refine the original aura, you're afraid it will fall there."

"So, this original breath is very precious, and it's not so easy to get..."

Gao Qiqiang explained to David in detail, he was emphatically emphasizing the preciousness of the original breath, and let David know how to cherish it!

"Oh, it seems that this original aura is really difficult to obtain. It seems that after successfully crossing the catastrophe, it is not so easy to truly ascend to immortality." David also thought that as long as he went through the transitional period of catastrophe, he would be able to take one step at a time

. Step by step practice, wait until the realm is perfect and ascend to immortality!

But now it seems that even if one breaks through the Tribulation Transcendence Realm, one does not know how much time and difficulties one will have to go through in order to achieve consummation!

David and Gao Qiqiang turned their minds, and the two returned to reality from David's original space!

At this time, the spiritual rain has also stopped, but all the disciples of the Gao family have improved a lot under the irrigation of the spiritual rain!

For the Gao family, this is an opportunity, a great opportunity...

Gao Qiqiang and David were suspended in the air, and then Gao Qiqiang said to the Gao family, "Wait, hurry up and bow to Mr. Chen, thank him for the opportunity... .."

After Gao Qiqiang's words, all the members of the Gao family bowed down on the ground in admiration, and shouted in unison, thanking David!

Even Gao Qisheng, who was sloppy with one finger and was dissatisfied seven times, knelt on the ground piously at this moment, and he was completely convinced by David!

Because all of them have seen the scenes that David has experienced from breaking through from the third rank of the Composite Realm to the fourth rank of the Composite Realm!

This was enough to shock all of them. Although many of them had a higher realm than David, their admiration for David came from the bottom of their hearts!

Eleven Thunder Tribulations!

Whoever is not convinced can try it, if he can resist the nine thunder tribulations, he is like the favored son of heaven!

"Patriarch Gao, this..."

David was a little at a loss, he didn't know what he had done for the Gao family, it was worth making everyone in the Gao family bow down!

"Mr. Chen, you have brought a great opportunity to my Gao family, and it is only right for them to bow down to you!" After Gao Qiqiang finished speaking, he brought David back to the ground!
