Chapter 3136

Resurrection

Just when David was happy to find the way out, suddenly the water in the pool created huge waves, and scarlet monsters appeared one after another!

These monsters are blood red all over, and they can clearly distinguish their hands and feet, but they can't see their faces clearly, just like blood men covered in blood all over their bodies!

Looking at the humanoid monsters in front of him, David seemed to have guessed something. The lairs of these monsters are connected here. I believe these guys should be caused by the blood in front of him. After all, these are the blood of ancient immortals and demons, and the energy contained it goes without saying!

And these bloody waters connected to the ink sea outside through the cave, slowly nourished by this bloody water, this kind of red monster appeared!

Otherwise, there shouldn't be such a monster in the ink sea!

When the other people saw the blood soul monster appearing suddenly, they all became nervous, because they didn't know how strong the blood soul monster was!

Accompanied by low growls, these blood soul monsters instantly attacked everyone on the shore!

Indiscriminate attack, hit anyone you see!

At this time, everyone rushed up with their weapons, and now it was a battle to save their lives, and no one dared to keep their strength.

David held the dragon-slaying sword, and slashed at one of the blood soul monsters with a sword. A beam of sword light shot out, piercing through the head of the blood soul monster. The blood soul monster instantly turned into a pool of blood, and then fell on the blood Tan Zhong!

Chen Pinghu stood in front of Jin Dong and Luo Xi, looking at the blood soul monster that he had killed with a single sword, he couldn't help but wondered: "This monster is too weak, so he was killed like this?" "Mr. Chen, do n't Carelessly, this blood soul monster can be revived, but cannot die..."

"Otherwise we wouldn't be chased around."

Jin Dong hurriedly reminded David!

Sure enough, the blood soul monster that was beheaded by David began to slowly condense out of the blood at this time!

Many other monks have also discovered this situation!

They can't be killed at all, they can't be killed...

This time, everyone's head is getting bigger!

Although the strength of the monster is not strong, it cannot be killed if it continues to consume like this, and everyone will be consumed to death!

David looked at the blood soul monsters that kept resurrecting, and seemed to have an idea in his heart!

"Attract these blood soul monsters to the shore, don't kill them in the bloody water, or they may not be able to revive."

David shouted loudly!

After finishing speaking, David looked at Jin Dong: "Use the blood soul orb to attract a blood soul monster, let's try..."

Jin Dong nodded, then took the blood soul orb, blood The soul orb radiated light, instantly attracting three blood soul monsters rushing towards this side!

Jin Dong took the blood soul orb and began to run towards the distance, wanting to stay away from the blood Tan!

The three blood soul monsters kept chasing after them, with hoarse growls coming out of their mouths!

David took a look and found that he was far enough from the shore, so he swung the Dragon Slaying Sword in his hand, and a bright light instantly penetrated the bodies of the three blood soul monsters!

The three blood soul monsters were instantly killed and turned into three pools of blood, but the three pools of blood kept flowing!

From the looks of it, it seems to be flowing in the direction of the blood tan!

It is obvious that he wants to flow into the blood Tan to resurrect himself!

Seeing this, David knew that his guess was right. These guys could not be revived if they were not in the Blood Tan, so he slapped his palm, and a ball of flames instantly ignited in his palm!

The source of fire erupted, and the temperature of the flame reached tens of thousands of degrees. It was only a matter of a moment, and the three pools of blood turned into steam and disappeared!

When David saw this, he immediately told everyone about this method, so everyone led the blood soul monster to the shore to kill it!

Someone used flames to evaporate the blood, and someone used something to block the flow of blood!

Some people used containers to fill up the blood!

After all, these blood waters contain a lot of aura, which is also a good resource for cultivation!
