

Chapter 3742

"It's really strange. Did you pass the illusory formation in Guanghan Palace?"

Shen Jizi asked!

"Of course, I also passed the test of Guanghan Palace. I will go to the Pole the day after tomorrow, so I came to Wantong Pavilion to buy some items."

David said without any secret!

"It's so expensive to buy things in Wantong Pavilion. Why don't you go to the underground trading market?" Shenjizi said with regret!

"Underground trading market?"

David was stunned. He didn't know that there was an underground trading market in Nanjing City!

"Yes, although the things in this underground trading market are uneven, you can still find good things. The most important thing is that they are cheap and can be marked down." "

The information on the sales of Wantong Pavilion is pretty reliable. Others Nothing works!"

Shenjizi doesn't seem to particularly like Wantong Pavilion!

"Where is the underground trading market?"

David, who was about to leave, suddenly became interested!

If you can find some good stuff, that's good!

Shen Jizi glanced at David and stroked his beard. The meaning was very obvious!

David also had no ink marks, so he took out a purple gold spirit coin and threw it to Shenjizi!

Shen Jizi's eyes suddenly lit up, and he quickly put away the purple gold spirit coin and said, "We are all old friends, why are you so polite? I'll just take you there. I'm the most familiar with you there, and I have acquaintances. If you don't have any acquaintances, it's You can't get in."

After Shen Jizi said that, he took David towards the side of Nanjue City!

Soon, David was taken to a small courtyard by the magic machine!

But in such a small courtyard, there are actually three monks of the fifth level of the Tribulation Realm inside, and it seems that these three monks are just guards!

"Shenjizi, are you here to cheat again?"

A guard said jokingly after seeing Shenjizi!

Shen Jizi was not angry either, but he chuckled and said, "I brought guests here today. They are big customers. You all have bright eyes. It will be uncomfortable for you if you offend a big customer." The three guards looked at David . , The cultivation level of the third level of Tribulation Realm, and he looks ordinary, and he doesn't look like a young master from a wealthy family, so they don't believe it!

But just when the three guards were attacking David in large numbers, David directly threw out three purple gold spirit coins!

"This is a reward for you..."

David said calmly!

The three guards were stunned when they looked at the purple gold spirit coins in their hands!

You must know that this purple gold spirit coin is equivalent to a million ordinary spirit coins. The three guards were stunned!

Who rewards so much?

This must be a big customer!

"Sir, please come inside, please come inside, we are blind!"

The three guards instantly became polite to David!

Shenjizi said arrogantly, "I told you, this is a big customer, but you still don't believe it."

Shenjizi opened the door and walked in!

David also followed in and found that it was an ordinary room with a small area. There was some underground trading market there.

Seeing David's doubts, Shen Jizi lightly stomped on the ground three times, and soon a ray of light enveloped David and Shen Jizi!

Then there was a burst of brilliance, and David and the others came to another dimension!

There are many monks passing through here, and it's very lively!

And it's like a market, with various stalls on both sides!

"The Wantong Pavilion is strictly managed and no private market is allowed. Therefore, this underground trading market can only be in this opened space. We must always be wary of the Wantong Pavilion!"

Shenjizi said helplessly!

David looked at the bustling underground trading market and couldn't help but admire the people behind the market for actually carving out a space to conduct the market...
