Chapter 3762

David smiled lightly and did not blame these saints. He knew that after this time, these saints would not question him again!

“Go and have a good rest. We will set off tomorrow. All I can do is try my best to protect you. But the polar regions are dangerous and no one knows what will happen, so everything depends on you. The future development of Guanghan Palace also needs Yours.”

David said to many saints!

“I sincerely follow Mr. Chen’s teachings!”

Binglu took the Saint to rest!

“I see you were in a daze just now. What were you thinking about?”

After the saints left, the palace master asked!

When David saw the Palace Master asking this, his face suddenly turned red. He was peeking at the Palace Master at first. Was he discovered?

“I’m... I’m looking at the moon in a daze. People’s birth, old age, illness and death are due to the passage of time, but it is difficult for us to see the passage of time. After all, it takes decades to change from birth to old age and death.”

“Monks like us can’t even see the change of time. It’s easy to live for hundreds of years. Even after a hundred years, our appearance may not change.” “

But when I looked at the moonlight just now, I can I can clearly feel the change of time, because every minute and second, the position of the moonlight is changing, and the change of the moonlight is the change of time.” “

Although I understand the truth, it is difficult to understand the origin of time...

David said with a slight frown!

“You are just going through the Tribulation Realm. If you want to understand the origin of time, you are really going crazy. But the fact that you can say these words proves that you have indeed begun to have a preliminary understanding of the origin of time.”

The Palace Master listened to David's words , I felt a little surprised that David had just passed through the tribulation realm, but he had already begun to think about the origin of time!

“Palace Master, you...have you realized the origin of time?”

David asked when the Palace Master said this!

If the palace owner realizes the origin of time, then ChenYou can ask Ping for advice, it's much better than just thinking like this!

The Palace Master smiled and shook his head quickly, “I have only comprehended the origin of ice, and I have not yet comprehended the other origins. How can I comprehend the origin of time? The comprehension of the origin of time, unlike other origins, requires personal experience of life and death, and the realization of the origin of time.” The rhyme of life and death, that way we can understand the origin of time more quickly.”

“Life and death? The rhyme of life and death?”

David fell into deep thought. The palace master's words were a bit profound, and David couldn't understand them for a while!

“Okay, don't think about this. When you have more experience and reach a higher level, you may understand.” “We will set off tomorrow. You should also have a good rest. You have to be careful about the Mu family. Take action.”

The palace owner reminded David!

“Okay, I will pay attention!”

David nodded!

The palace owner turned around and left, but David was still thinking about the palace owner's words!

“Boy, it seems that you have good qualifications, but you are actually stupid enough. If you want to truly understand the origin of time, you must truly understand life and death. The change of life and death is actually the flow of time. Life and death are the results, and time is the rule!”

Red Cloud Demon Jun said at this time!

“Results, rules?”

David's eyes suddenly burst out with a ray of light, as if a ray of sunlight was shining through the thick fog!

David seems to have realized it!

Demon Lord Chiyun deserves to be from the Ninth Heaven, and he can tell the truth about David with just one sentence!

The position change of the moonlight is the result, time is the rule!

The changes in the seasons of the year are the results, and time is the rule!

A person's life and death is the result, time is the rule!

Time is reflected in each item, and the results obtained are different, but they all abide by the rules of time!

“Senior, thank you...”

David suddenly smiled!

Chapter 3763

After the words fell, David's body made a soft buzzing sound, and the original power outside his body continued to flow and became stronger and stronger!

In David's original space, a dim star began to slowly gain luster!

The stars at the origin of time are bright!

boom! A cloud suddenly floated in the sky, and under the moonlight, the cloud exuded colorful light!

One of the largest beams of light descended from him and enveloped David's body!

This sudden vision instantly attracted many disciples from Guanghan Palace to come out to watch!

The palace owner had just returned to the room and ran out immediately!

Almost everyone jumped into the air to see where the colorful light was shining!

"Mr. Chen, why did this light hit Mr. Chen? What is this?"

"Is Mr. Chen making a breakthrough to survive the thunder tribulation? But the thunder tribulation cloud is not like this!" The thunder tribulation is filled with thunder and lightning. Thunder!

But in this cloud, there is nothing but bright light, and this light is very gentle. When it shines on the person, there is a warm feeling, just like being in the arms of mother!

"How could this happen? Has he really become enlightened?"

"Did he become enlightened just because of my words?"

The palace master's eyes were full of disbelief!

Her understanding of the origin of time was only superficial. Even so, she still told David everything she knew!

Who would have thought that David would actually realize it!

The palace owner didn't know that David didn't realize it after listening to her words!

“Palace Master, what did Mr. Chen realize?”

Binglu asked curiously!

“The origin of time...” The palace owner said in a low voice with shock in his eyes!

“The origin of time?”

Binglu couldn't understand. After all, she had never even understood the origin of ice., I don't even understand the origin of time!

“You won't understand. It seems that Mr. Chen is a real genius, a truly chosen person.” “

You must stay by Mr. Chen's side during this polar trip. This time may be the most beneficial thing for you in your life.” Once, I'm afraid I won't have a chance in the future.”

“You must know how to cherish it. If I hadn't had a fate with Mr. Chen, you would never have seen this kind of scene in your life.”

“Take advantage of this excellent opportunity and immediately Practice, this kind of rays of light that penetrates the heavenly path can only be encountered but cannot be sought!”

After the palace master finished speaking, he took the lead in entering the state of cultivation!

Under the illumination of that light, the speed of cultivation is doubled with half the effort, and the body is also very comfortable!

Upon seeing this, Binglu and others quickly started practicing!

At this moment, David fell into a state of suspended animation. He felt like he was dead, but he had no fear of death!

The whole person was suspended under that light, and his spiritual consciousness also entered the original space!

Rays of light hit the stars of the origin of time, and the dim stars of the origin of time began to light up continuously!

As the origin of time continued to light up, the final brightness directly surpassed the stars of other origins!

You must know that David's other origin stars have been cultivated for a long time. David has absorbed and refined the origin of thunder and lightning, and the origin of fire, making the origin stars brighter and brighter!

But at this time, the original star had just lit up, and it had already surpassed other stars!

The light is still shining on the stars at the origin of time!

Even the moonlight seemed to be focused on David himself!

The constantly rolling original energy is like a vast ocean, constantly pouring into David's body!

David was suspended in mid-air, passively accepting the baptism of this original energy!

"Fortunately, your kid's origin space is large enough. If it were for others to realize this, he would have exploded and died long ago. How many people can bear this scale of origin absorption!"

Demon Lord Chiyun said with a hint of sadness in his eyes. Said enviously!

Chapter 3764

I don't know how long it took, but the light slowly dissipated, the clouds in the sky also dissipated, and even the moonlight became much dimmer!

It seems that it was absorbed too much by David and lost a lot of luster!

And David slowly fell to the ground, and his eyes slowly opened!

David is still at the third level of Tribulation Realm, but the aura exuding from him at this moment is breathtaking!

David's eyes swept over Binglu and others, but these saints all fell to their knees involuntarily!

It was as if the person standing in front of them was not David, but the Lord of Heaven and Earth, forcing them to kneel down.

Even the palace owner was shocked and felt terrified by David's eyes! Chen

Ping seemed to notice something was wrong, and quickly put away the otherworldly aura on his body, and looked at Binglu and the others with some shamelessness!

"Everyone, get up. We are not superiors or subordinates, so there is no need to kneel down!"

David said quickly!

Binglu and others were also embarrassed. They seemed to be controlled by someone just now, and they couldn't help but kneel to the ground!

"You all go back and understand what I just said to you."

The palace master waved his hand and asked all the disciples of Guanghai Palace to go back!

After the disciples left, the palace master looked at David with a bit of envy in his eyes!

"Mr. Chen, congratulations on understanding the origin of time. You must know that the origin of time is the most difficult thing to understand," the palace master said!

"Thanks to the Palace Master's advice, otherwise I wouldn't have realized it."

David said quickly!

Although he understood the origin of time and had little to do with the palace master, the palace master taught him everything he could, and David was still grateful!

The Palace Master smiled and then shook his head, "What I told you is nothing at all. It's all about your own understanding."

“If I weren’t the Palace Master of Guanghan Palace, I could be with you right now. As a dual practitioner, you may be able to gain some insights into the origin of time from you!”

After hearing this, David paused. I have a big head sometimes!

He did not expect that the palace master would have such thoughts. At that time, in the Ji family, the ancestor of the Ji family took a fancy to his bloodline and forced him to practice dual cultivation with Ji Meiyang and Ji Meiling.

Later, he met Bai Qian, the Fox Princess, who also took a fancy to David’s bloodline and forced David to practice double cultivation all day long. He almost treated David like a beast!

But now, the Palace Master of Guanghan Palace actually has this idea.

David was speechless. Is there only transaction between men and women and no feelings?

These monks in the world of heaven and earth value the cultivation of realm more than anything else, including feelings!

The palace master seemed to see David’s doubts, and smiled slightly and said, “In the face of huge interests, feelings are the most unreliable thing.”

“Don’t think about getting the affection and love of women in the world of heaven and humans. That’s all It’s a lie.”

“If you are not the chosen one, if you don’t have the skills you have now, how many women are willing to practice double cultivation with you?” “

They are willing to sacrifice their bodies because they can get more from you.”

“Including I have the same idea, do you understand?”

After the Palace Master said that, he turned and left, leaving David blankly looking at the Palace Master’s messy back!

David thought about the palace master’s words, maybe she was right!

I have too many women now. From Sonya at the beginning to Bai Qian now, how many of them are I truly in love with?

David fell into self-doubt!

“Silly boy, don’t think so much. Whether you have feelings or not, whether you have love or not, whether it’s an exchange of interests or forced helplessness, the women around you have already given themselves to you.” “

As long as they have you in their hearts, As long as they are willing to fight for you and sacrifice to save you, then that’s fine!” ” You don’t care whether she does it because of love or because she gets more benefits from you, don’t worry about it.” “The best person in the world

What is difficult to see clearly is the love between men and women, don’t ask for trouble.”

Demon Lord Chiyun’s words rang out, pulling David out of his self-doubt!

Chapter 3765

Early the next morning!

The palace master summoned more than ten saints and waited for David!

David walked out of the room slowly, with a tired look on his face!

“Mr. Chen, haven’t you had a good rest?”

the palace owner saw this and asked!

“Not bad!” David smiled lightly!

He spent the whole night thinking about his woman last night, which one was his true love!

“You can set off now. There shouldn’t be any dangers along the way. Lan Yingying and her outer disciples and the monks who have passed the examination have already set off yesterday.” “

I asked them to leave signs along the way. You just need to follow the instructions. Just follow the signs and there won't be much danger!"

The palace owner said to David!

David nodded, he knew that those outer disciples were just cannon fodder, the vanguard to open the way!

But there is nothing we can do about it. The development of a sect always requires sacrifices.

After saying goodbye to the palace master, David set off with Binglu and the others!

We have reached the southernmost point of the Southern Territory!

But the direction David and the others started from continued to the south!

The chaotic boundary of the world of heaven and man can be seen. Is the polar region in the chaos?

"Mr. Chen, our Guanghan Palace is not the southernmost point. There are still thousands of miles from here to the border of chaos."

Binglu followed David and said!

As the saying goes, this is what it means to be a dead horse in Wangshan!

It looks very close, but in fact it is still far away!

Because someone had already opened the way in front of them, David and the others walked very fast and relaxed!

At this time, on a hill not far from Guanghan Palace, everyone from the Mu family gathered here!

"Miss, the people from Guanghan Palace have already left..."

Mu Yao reported to Mu Kui's aunt!

"Well, you go ahead too. Don't do anything on the road. It's just a good time to use the people like Guanghan Palace to fight in the front line and take action when you reach the pole." "

It's done. Be smart, don't be sloppy, and don't leave anyone alive, otherwise Guanghan Palace will catch you. "

Aunt Mu Kui said coldly!

"Understood, Miss..."

Mu Yao nodded, then waved his hand and left with everyone in the Mu family!

When everyone in the Mu family was heading to the polar region, they were hundreds of miles away. There are also several groups of people heading towards the polar regions!

After all, there is temptation, and many people want to have adventures in the polar regions!

Among these people, one of them is wearing a strange black robe, embroidered with a monster beast with teeth and claws. !

This person is Qi Peijia who was injured by David!

After this guy was injured by David and escaped from the Tianmo Sect, he recovered from his injuries. Later, he heard that the pole was the place where immortals fell, so he hurried here

! , I am afraid that there will be a lot of excitement in the polar region!

And in Guanghan Palace, the palace master is sitting in the main hall!

"Palace Master, the Mu family has already set off, and there are also teams from several families heading towards the polar region. . "

"There are also many casual cultivators, the total number of them is no less than a hundred. "

A Guanghan Palace disciple reported!

"Got it! "The palace master waved his hand and asked the disciple to go down!

"Palace master, the news that resources were discovered in the polar regions is the place where immortals fell, why do you want to spread it? "

We openly promoted it in Nanjing City. Although it attracted a large number of monks to sign up, there will also be many people competing for resources with tens of thousands of dollars!” “

A disciple next to the Palace Master asked very puzzledly!

But the Palace Master smiled faintly, “Let me ask you, comparing the strength of our Guanghai Palace with the Mu family, who is more powerful? “

The Guanghai Palace disciple was stunned, then shook his head, “I don’t know...”

The palace master knew that this disciple did not dare to say anything, so he said, “Our Guanghai Palace has just started, and the strength of the disciples in the sect is still too low, so there is no way to follow. The Mu family resisted. “

The reason why I spread the news is to cause chaos in the polar regions. Only in this way can we have the opportunity to take advantage of the chaos.” “

After the palace owner finished speaking, he raised the corners of his mouth slightly and smiled.

Chapter 3766

David is currently on his way to the polar regions with tens of thousands of saints. He didn’t know that there would be so many people coming to the polar regions!

It was an easy journey, and they were getting closer and closer to the Pole!

“Stop...”

Suddenly, David, who was walking at the front, frowned.

“Mr. Chen, what’s wrong?” Binglu stepped forward and asked in confusion!

Someone had already walked this road in advance, so there shouldn't be any danger. She didn't know why David stopped!

"Do you smell blood?"

David asked!

Binglu shook her head, "No..."

The other saints also shook their heads. No one smelled the smell of blood!

David closed his eyes slightly, and his consciousness spread instantly!

In an instant, everything within miles was covered by divine consciousness!

But there was no danger, nor any living creatures.

"Strange, I always feel that the air is filled with the smell of blood. How come there is nothing?"

David frowned and looked around!

"Mr. Chen, there shouldn't be anything wrong. After all, someone already explored the road yesterday."

Binglu said!

"Maybe I'm too sensitive. All of you, please keep your distance and be vigilant!"

After David finished speaking, he walked forward again!

The saints all followed David's arrangements, distanced themselves one by one, and increased their vigilance!

After walking forward for a few miles, a saint suddenly shouted!

"Ouch..."

A saint girl fell down in the snow, and then said angrily, "Who tripped me?"

Everyone's eyes were focused on the saint girl, and only her feet were visible. , the hand that had been stiff was exposed from the snow!

Seeing this scene, everyone's hearts suddenly tightened, and David even jumped up and landed next to the saint!

Immediately after David slapped his palm, a heat wave swept across and the snow melted instantly!

After it continued to melt, the body of a woman was revealed!

"This is our outer disciple of Guanghan Palace..."

A saintess exclaimed in shock when she saw the woman's body!

David looked at the woman's stiff corpse and the scars on the corpse. It was obvious that she died of an attack!

"Mr. Chen, this...what is going on?"

Binglu asked with a frown!

David didn't speak, but looked around as he thought, and then the aura on his body exploded, and strong winds suddenly swept across!

The surrounding snow was blown all over the sky by the strong wind!

Soon, the snow was blown away, and the stiffened corpses were exposed!

Bodies were lying in a mess!

There are the outer disciples of Guanghan Palace and those monks who have passed the examination!

Looking at everything in front of them, all the saints were stunned!

These people who were photographed by Guanghan Palace and took the lead all died tragically here!

You must know that this place is still some distance away from the Pole. These people all died miserably before they reached the Pole!

"Who is it? Who did it?"

Binglu's eyes burst out with anger!

So many people were all killed, Binglu felt like it must have been done by a certain sect!

David just glanced at it, then shook his head and said, "These people were not killed by people, but encountered monsters. Are there any powerful monsters in this place?"

"A very powerful monster?" Binglu He frowned slightly and began to think deeply!

"Sister Binglu, isn't there the Snow-Stepping Cloud Beast in our area?"

A saint girl suddenly said!

"I haven't seen the Snow-Stepping Cloud Beast for a long time. Isn't it already extinct?"

Binglu said in confusion!

"What is the Snow-Stepping Cloud Beast?" David didn't know much about the monsters here!

"It is a monster beast similar to a cheetah. It moves very quickly and is huge. It runs on the snow as if it is flying on the clouds." "

So people in this area call it a beast riding on snow clouds, but this kind of I haven't heard of monsters in many years!"

Binglu explained to David!
