Chapter 4596

Generally, you want to know about the situation of the other party. In that case, you will use the power of consciousness to explore the other party's sea of consciousness, and you can find out some of the other party's situation from the other party's sea of consciousness!

This is all done by people with strong consciousness to explore people with weak consciousness. If the difference is huge, many cultivators can't even detect that they have been explored!

If you don't explore the consciousness, how can you know the details of the other party?

"If it's not exploring the sea of consciousness, then where is he exploring?"

David asked in surprise!

"How should I know? Don't forget that I'm just a remnant soul living in your sea of consciousness, not the all-powerful demon king."

"If you want to know more, then help me collect the bones and let me be reborn. Then I can make you the master of this world of heaven and man."

said the Red Cloud Demon King!

David could hear that the Red Cloud Demon King was a little angry. After all, he had neglected to find the bones of the Red Cloud Demon King during this period of time!

But he couldn't blame himself for this. The world of heaven and man is so vast, and the Heavenly Demon Mountain alone is so big! It is harder than finding a needle in a haystack to ask David to find the scattered bones in such a huge place!

But David has asked Wantong Pavilion to help find them!

Wantong Pavilion has many branches in the southern region, and there are many disciples. It must be much easier to find them than David himself!

"Don't worry, I haven't forgotten about finding the bones!"

David comforted the Red Cloud Demon Lord!

Don't let this old thing fool you, after all, David still has to rely on him a lot!

"It's time to go out, go back to the cell!"

At this time, the guard's voice rang!

All the prisoners and monks got up and walked towards the cell obediently!

David also left the ancient tree and prepared to go back to the cell!

"Mr. Chen, I'm going to ask General Xing for an amnesty order so that you won't suffer in prison."

Bai Cheng whispered to David!

"You can have an amnesty order, but don't let me go, let him go!"

David pointed to the youngest sister's brother not far away and said!

Bai Cheng took a look, then nodded and said, "Okay, I know!"

David walked towards the cell, and the youngest sister's brother followed closely, saying somewhat unhappily, "Brother-in-law, why don't you let me stay under the ancient tree, I also want to see what's so special under the ancient tree."

"Shut up, if you want to go out, then follow me honestly and don't talk!"

David was very displeased with the youngest sister's brother calling him brother-in-law!

Seeing that David was angry, the youngest sister's brother was so scared that he dared not speak anymore!

After returning to the cell honestly, David took out another pill and gave it to the youngest sister's brother!

"Take the pill and recover well. I guess you will be able to go out tomorrow!"

David said to the youngest sister's brother!

The youngest sister's brother was not polite either. He threw the pill directly into his mouth, and then said excitedly: "How can I get out tomorrow? Are you going to take me out?"

After seeing David's strength, the youngest sister's brother also had great expectations for David to break out of the prison!

"No, there should be an amnesty tomorrow to let you out!"

David said!

"Amnesty?" The youngest sister's brother was shocked: "Only the three beast generals of the Beast City are qualified to issue amnesty."

"Do you have a relationship with the three beast generals of the Beast City?"

"It doesn't matter to me, don't guess randomly, have a good rest, and leave here tomorrow!"

David asked the youngest sister's brother to have a good rest!

But just after he finished speaking, the strong man who had been curled up in the corner suddenly knelt down in front of David: "Daoyou, can you also give me an amnesty and let me go too?"

"Don't worry, after I get out, even if I work as a cow and a horse for you, I will repay you."

"You are a bear, what kind of cow and horse are you?" The youngest sister's brother looked at the strong man and sneered!

With David around, the youngest sister's brother is not afraid of that strong man!

Chapter 4597

The sturdy man knew that the youngest sister's brother was mocking him, but he didn't dare to do anything in front of David.

He ignored the youngest sister's brother, but looked at David and begged: "Daoyou, please, please take me out with you!"

David looked at the sturdy man and sneered: "Why should I take you? We are not related, and we have no friendship."

When the sturdy man heard it, he hurriedly said: "Daoyou, I also have a sister, I can also give her to you, and let you be my brother-in-law..."

“fu**...”

David was speechless!

“Come on, you big black bear, your sister is definitely not pretty, and you still want to steal my brother-in-law?”

The youngest sister’s brother looked at the sturdy man and mocked!

The sturdy man looked ugly and said with a bitter face: “My sister is indeed not very good-looking, but... but I have a secret to tell you.”

“What secret?” David looked at the sturdy man!

The strong man looked at the youngest sister’s brother and didn’t say anything. It seemed that he was afraid that the youngest sister’s brother would know!

“Daoyou, I know a spiritual vein mine of fairy stone. Now the price of fairy stone is rising. This spiritual vein mine of fairy stone is a huge fortune.”

“To be honest, I was arrested because I brought too many fairy stones and secretly sold them to private buyers.”

“If you can take me out, I can tell you the location of the spiritual vein mine, and then we will split it!”

The strong man whispered to David!

David was a little surprised when he heard it. If he really knew a spiritual vein mine of fairy stone, it would be a huge resource!

It would be much faster than buying it bit by bit with purple gold spirit coins!

However, David didn’t know whether what the strong man said was true or not!

“Hmph, stop talking nonsense here. There are no spiritual veins of fairy stones in the entire Beast City. They have been mined out long ago.”

“There are only scattered fairy stones left. You have to rely on luck to pick them up. How can there be spiritual veins of fairy stones?”

“If it really exists, the people in the City Lord’s Mansion would have sent people to occupy it long ago!”

The youngest sister's brother snorted coldly, not believing what the strong man said at all!

After all, he has lived here for such a long time, and he has never heard anyone talk about this spiritual vein mine!

"Just because you don't know doesn't mean it doesn't exist. Do you know what is underground in this beast city?"

The strong man retorted to the youngest sister's brother!

The youngest sister's brother was stunned, but he still looked a little unconvinced!

"How can I believe that you are telling the truth?"

David looked at the strong man and asked!

"Daoyou, you can go out and verify it. My name is Xiong Kuo, and my sister is Xiong Ying. This time, I am the only one who entered the beast city to trade."

"After you go out, I'll give you something to take. You go to my sister, and then she will make you believe that what I said is true."

Xiong Kuo whispered to David!

David looked at Xiong Kuo and didn't seem to be deceiving himself, so he nodded and said, "Okay, as long as you don't deceive me, I will take you out of the prison!"

"Don't worry, I'm not deceiving you. This is the jade pendant I carry with me. You take the jade pendant to the southwest of the Beast City, a hundred miles away, and you can see a big tree. My sister is waiting for me in the tree hole."

"As long as you give this jade pendant to her and explain the situation to her, she can prove that what I said is true!"

Xiong Kuo handed David a jade pendant and said!

"Okay!" David nodded and took the jade pendant!

The youngest sister's brother was on the side, looking a little nervous. After all, he couldn't take anything out. Would David still save him?

He only has one sister, but compared to the spiritual veins of the fairy stone, his sister is simply worthless!

“Don’t worry, I’ll let you go out tomorrow!” David looked at the scared look of the youngest sister’s brother and smiled slightly!

After that, David rested, and the youngest sister’s brother was relieved!

Chapter 4598

In the center of the Beast City, a magnificent city within a city stands tall. That is the mysterious and majestic City Lord’s Mansion in the eyes of all people in the Beast City.

The City Lord’s Mansion is like a giant beast entrenched in the core of the city, exuding an awe-inspiring atmosphere.

There is a mansion in each of the three directions of the east, west and south. The decoration of these three mansions is simply astonishing.

The walls of the mansions are all made of precious jade, shining warmly under the moonlight; the glazed tiles on the roof are colorful and shining; the doors and windows are carved with exquisite patterns, either auspicious beasts galloping or fairy grass and flowers, and every detail shows the ultimate luxury.

These three mansions are in a corner, tightly surrounding the City Lord’s Mansion, forming an indestructible defense system.

The mansions echo each other, forming a tight whole. Anyone who wants to attack the City Lord’s Mansion must first break through the defense line of these three mansions. Its strategic significance is self-evident.

These three mansions are the residences of the three beast generals under the city lord. They are not only the residences of the beast generals, but also important barriers to the city lord’s mansion.

In the middle of the night, the entire beast city was immersed in silence. Everything was silent, and only the guards on duty were patrolling diligently.

Their footsteps echoed in the empty streets, adding a bit of quietness to the night.

However, in the mansion to the east, the lights were still on, forming a sharp contrast with the surrounding darkness.

In the hall, the atmosphere was a little tense. Sitting in the first seat was a middle-aged monk eight feet tall. He was General Xing, one of the three beast generals.

General Xing's eyes were like copper bells, deep and sharp, as if he could see through people's hearts, exuding a majestic aura that people dared not look directly at.

He was wearing a black robe with golden patterns embroidered on it. It shimmered with light as he moved, making him look even more noble and extraordinary.

"Bai Cheng, is what you said true? Are there really dragon cultivators in that prison? And they are from the Golden Dragon Clan?"

General Xing's voice was low and powerful, echoing in the hall, with a hint of doubt and curiosity.

He frowned slightly, staring at Bai Cheng closely, as if trying to find a flaw in his expression.

Bai Cheng sat at the bottom and answered with certainty: "General Xing, how dare I deceive you? Everything I said is true."

There was a hint of eagerness in his eyes, and his body leaned forward slightly, hoping that the general would believe him.

He knew that what he said was too bizarre, but if he didn't tell the general about it, he was afraid that there would be greater trouble in the future.

After hearing this, General Xing frowned slightly, obviously still not quite believing Bai Cheng's words.

At this time, a guest official said, "General Xing, there has never been a real dragon cultivator in this beast city for thousands of years, let alone a golden dragon.

Bai Cheng is just a dragon snake, wearing a fake dragon horn, and wants to pretend to be a dragon. I wonder if he is crazy about turning into a dragon and has paranoia."

The guest official's words were full of ridicule and suspicion. The corners of his mouth slightly raised, and a look of disdain appeared in his eyes. The other guests also nodded in agreement, and a low voice suddenly sounded in the hall.

Bai Cheng was anxious after hearing this, and loudly defended: "Don't slander me, I saw it with my own eyes, how could I be wrong?"

His face flushed, his eyes flashed with anger, and his hands clenched into fists, as if he would rush up to argue with the guest official at any time.

He never thought that his true words would be questioned and slandered in this way.

Another guest official also said, "I also think what Fellow Daoist Bai said is a bit strange. He said that the other party was just a ninth-grade cultivator in the Tribulation Realm, but he himself was a fourth-grade cultivator in the Mahayana Realm. In the end, he was defeated by a ninth-grade cultivator in the Tribulation Realm. How is this possible?"

Chapter 4599

As the guest official spoke, he shook his head with an expression of disbelief on his face.

Bai Cheng said helplessly: "What I said is true. If you don't believe it, I can bring Mr. Chen here in person.

However, the general must issue a pardon order. After all, he is still in prison."

There was a hint of helplessness and grievance in his tone. He knew that without a pardon order, Mr. Chen could not be taken out of prison.

"Bai Cheng, I think you just want the general to give you a pardon order so that you can rescue the person you want to save, right?"

Someone else questioned Bai Cheng's motives. This person's eyes revealed a hint of suspicion, looking straight at Bai Cheng, as if he wanted to see through his mind.

"I didn't, I really will bring Mr. Chen here, let you see it!" Bai Cheng shouted loudly to express his sincerity and the authenticity of what he said.

His voice echoed in the hall with a hint of determination and firmness.

But what he said was too bizarre, no wonder everyone didn't believe it.

"Okay, stop arguing..."

General Xing frowned and said with a very ugly face, "You are all my guests, you should be united, how can you fight in this nest? Now the other two generals are secretly cultivating forces and want to kick us out. If we don't unite, we will be kicked out of the Beast City and wander in the wilderness!"

General Xing's words were like a heavy hammer, waking everyone up. Everyone immediately shut up and showed a trace of worry on their faces.

They knew that in this Beast City, if they lost the protection of General Xing, their life would not be easy.

“Bai Cheng, this is an amnesty order. You will take it with you tomorrow. I also want to see who this dragon cultivator is. A ninth-grade realm of the Tribulation Realm can defeat you, a fourth-grade cultivator of the Mahayana Realm. I have never seen such a genius.” After General

Xing finished speaking, he threw out a white light. Bai Cheng stretched out his hand and grabbed it, and a small token appeared in his palm.

The token exudes a soft light, and some mysterious runes are engraved on it. This is the amnesty order, which has the power to release prisoners in the Beast City Prison.

Seeing the amnesty order in hand, Bai Cheng immediately promised: “I will bring Mr. Chen tomorrow...”

He held the amnesty order tightly, as if holding his own hope, and secretly swore in his heart that he must make everyone believe what he said.

The next day, just after dawn, Bai Cheng hurried to the Beast City Prison with the amnesty order.

His steps were hurried, and there was a hint of urgency in his eyes. He just wanted to get Mr. Chen out of the prison as soon as possible.

As soon as he entered the prison, he was stopped by Captain Zhou.

Captain Zhou said unkindly: “Bai Cheng, you are only responsible for taking people to take care of the ancient trees, and you are not qualified to enter the cell!”

Captain Zhou stood in front of Bai Cheng with his hands folded across his chest, blocking his way, with a hint of vigilance in his eyes.

Bai Cheng hurriedly explained: “Captain Zhou, I am here to release a prisoner on the orders of General Xing.”

“To release a prisoner, you need an amnesty order. Do you have one?” Captain Zhou asked.

He did not take the amnesty order immediately, but looked at Bai Cheng with scrutiny, as if judging the truth of his words.

“Of course!” Bai Cheng said, and took out the amnesty order directly. The amnesty order emitted a faint light in his hand, which was particularly eye-catching.

Captain Zhou frowned slightly when he saw the amnesty order. Although he was unwilling, he still moved his body out of the way and made way.

After all, the amnesty order was recognized by the entire Beast City, and the three beast generals had the power to issue it, and he could not stop it.

This was also the reason why Qiu Yu dared to make trouble before and was not afraid of going to jail. As one of the beast generals, his father could be released with an amnesty order even if he was caught and imprisoned.

Chapter 4600

Captain Zhou was secretly unhappy, but he could do nothing but watch Bai Cheng walk towards the cell.

When Bai Cheng entered the cell and saw David, he said happily, "Mr. Chen, I got the amnesty order. I can take you out now."

His face was filled with a joyful smile, and his eyes revealed a hint of expectation, as if he had seen the surprised expressions of everyone when they saw Mr. Chen.

"I'm not going out. You can take him away with the amnesty order!" David pointed at the youngest sister's brother and said.

David had a calm face, and he didn't seem to care whether he could leave the prison. He was more concerned about the safety of the youngest sister's brother.

Bai Cheng said with difficulty: "Mr. Chen, this amnesty order is specially applied for you. General Xing wants to see you."

told General Xing about your situation, but no one believed it. They insisted that I take you to the general's mansion.

If this amnesty order is given to others and you can't go to the general's mansion, I can't explain it. Many people will think I'm lying, and General Xing will not trust me."

Bai Cheng's tone revealed a hint of helplessness and anxiety. He didn't know how to persuade David.

When the youngest sister's brother heard this, he suddenly became nervous. He was afraid that David would ignore him. If he was released by the amnesty order, he would never leave.

There was a hint of fear in his eyes, his body trembled slightly, and he tightly grasped the corner of David's clothes, as if he had grasped the last straw.

David thought for a moment and said, "You can take him out with the amnesty order first. You can wait for me outside the prison at night. I will go to the general's mansion with you."

David's eyes revealed a hint of determination. He knew that he could not watch his youngest sister's brother being trapped in the prison, and he did not need the amnesty order to leave the prison.

Bai Cheng reluctantly agreed and took his youngest sister's brother out.

When leaving, David told the youngest sister the address of the inn, where the youngest sister was waiting for him. After thanking David profusely, the youngest sister followed Bai Cheng away. His steps were a little hurried, and his heart was full of desire for freedom and gratitude to David.

Captain Zhou was very surprised to see that Bai Cheng did not bring David out. He thought that Bai Cheng had asked for an amnesty and would definitely release David, but he did not expect that it was not David. There was a hint of doubt in his eyes, and he secretly guessed the relationship between Bai Cheng and David.

After Bai Cheng released the youngest sister, he still led people to guard under the ancient tree.

Although he was a little worried about whether he could take David to the general's mansion smoothly at night, he still performed his duties conscientiously.

When it was time to let out the wind, David walked under the ancient tree again. With yesterday's test, David did not hesitate to send his consciousness into the ancient tree this time directly.

Then, his soul instantly appeared in a chaos, surrounded by dense spiritual power.

These spiritual powers were like materialized mist, emitting soft light. David was in it, as if he had entered a mysterious fairyland.

David knew that this was a rare opportunity to improve. Although half an hour was not a long time, he desperately absorbed the spiritual power around him, and his cultivation was also rapidly improving.

He closed his eyes and devoted himself to the process of absorbing spiritual power. The aura on his body was constantly increasing.

After all, these spiritual powers are from other cultivators. It is much faster than simply absorbing spiritual energy and then using magic to transform it into spiritual power.

Just as David was frantically absorbing the spiritual power around him, a white light slowly condensed and finally formed an old man who stood in front of David
