Chapter 4976

David still said nothing, his face full of tension. If they alarmed the soldiers in the city, they would have a hard time escaping.

“My dear son-in-law, if we bypass this place, we will have to walk a long way and encounter other checkpoints!”

Bai Yi said to David!

They have already arrived here, and the mountains are in front of them. If they take a detour, it will be a waste of time.

“We must take a detour. This is not a city at all, but a huge barracks. There are fully armed soldiers inside, estimated to be tens of thousands of people.”

David followed Bai Yi and Feng Xian and said!

“Take a detour, take a detour immediately...”

When Feng Xian and Bai Yi heard this, the two ran faster than David. In order to bypass the city and enter the mountains from another direction, David and his men walked hundreds of miles more.

But soon, another city appeared in front of them!

However, this city was obviously much smaller, and on the city gate, there were a large number of soldiers wearing black armor.

David and his men had just approached the city, and there was still a range of hundreds of miles, but they saw a large number of soldiers flying out of the city!

These soldiers went straight to where David and his men were.

“Hide your breath quickly, who leaked the breath?”

David was shocked when he saw this. They had clearly hidden their breath, and it was impossible for those soldiers to discover it at such a distance.

“It was me...” Niu Ben said a little embarrassedly.

It turned out that this guy had been hiding his breath for a long time, and his skills were not good enough, so he finally leaked his breath.

Seeing this, David could only wave his hand, and a barrier appeared, blocking the breath of several people, and then quickly left the original position!

A large number of soldiers surrounded the place where David and his men started, but they did not find anyone.

“Look, they must not be able to run far.”

The captain of the soldiers immediately ordered people to search everywhere!

David and his men took advantage of the emptiness of the city and quickly wanted to rush through the city.

But just when David and his men secretly reached the city, another team of soldiers suddenly rushed out of the city!

This time, neither side expected it, and they met like this!

Swish...

David reacted quickly, and the Dragon Slashing Sword was launched instantly, and thousands of sword energies slashed at the soldiers in front of him!

These soldiers died tragically on the spot before they could react.

David then had flames beating in his palms, and then he used a fire to burn the bodies directly into ashes.

So many bodies fell at the gate of the city, and they would soon be discovered.

Now that David destroyed the bodies, it would take some time for the other party to find them!

“Let’s go...”

Several people flew into the sky and rushed directly into the city.

Because there were no soldiers guarding, they did not notice the whereabouts of David and his men!

After passing through the city, the mountains were finally in sight. The continuous mountains seemed endless, and they were many times larger than the Tianmo Mountain in the Tianren Realm.

“Let’s go. There are fewer cities on this mountain range. After crossing this mountain range, we will reach the territory of other beasts, and we don’t have to hide here and there.”

David saw the majestic mountains in front of him and said with a long sigh!

Building a city on the mountain range requires huge manpower and financial resources, so when it comes to this mountain range, there are obviously fewer cities in Feihu City.

David and his team moved forward quickly along the mountain range, and they did not see a city for a thousand miles.

“Brother Chen, can you take a break? I can’t keep up.”

Niu Ben said with a heavy breath.

After all, Niu Ben is still young, and the energy consumed in his body cannot be replenished quickly, so he must take a break. “Okay, take a break, don’t run around, I’ll go to the front to see!”

David simply set up an illusion array and let Fengxian and others enter the illusion array. If someone passed by, they would not find them.
