Chapter 5031

“Xuan Nu, the people in the temple were indeed driven away by this Senior Chen, and they also defeated the Eighth Palace Master of the temple. We all saw it with our own eyes, it can’t be fake.”

The man who brought David and the others here immediately began to prove it to David.

If he hadn’t seen it with his own eyes, he wouldn’t have dared to believe that a first-grade Sanxian Realm could defeat a fifth-grade Sanxian Realm.

“Is it really true?” Lan Lianhua was very surprised.

“What the hell are you talking about? Did you take their money to deceive us like this?”

“A first-grade Sanxian Realm defeated a fifth-grade Sanxian Realm cultivator, it’s simply bullshit.”

The King of Dongmeng shouted at the man!The man’s face changed slightly, and it can be seen that he is very afraid of the King of Dongmeng.

“How can you believe it?” David looked at the King of Dongmeng and asked.

“Being a human is for us to see with our own eyes, so that we can be convinced.” The King of Dongmeng said!

“Then may I ask, what realm are you in now?”

David asked!

“I am at the peak of the second level of the scattered fairyland. In time, I will soon reach the third level of the scattered fairyland.”

The King of Dongmeng said very proudly.

Pah...

But just as the voice fell, David suddenly appeared in front of him and slapped him!

The King of Dongmeng was stunned by the beating, and after reacting, he was about to attack David!

But he found that his body seemed to be imprisoned by something and could not move at all.

David slapped him several times in a row!

Pah pah pah...

“How about it, do you believe it now?”

David asked while beating.

This scene made the other two kings stunned.

Lan Lianhua took a breath of cold air, her face full of disbelief.

If she hadn't seen it with her own eyes, she would not believe it even if she was beaten to death. Even she didn't have the ability to beat the King of Dongmeng without the ability to fight back.

David, a first-grade Sanxian realm, actually did it.

“David, you're going too far. Didn't you say that you should let me do the pretentious thing?”

Seeing this, Hu Mazi pulled David away, and he shot arrows at the King of Dongmeng.

Hu Mazi slapped the King of Dongmeng again.

David and Hu Mazi's realms were not inferior to him, but in front of these two people, he was like a child, without even the room to resist.

“David, Master Hu, that's enough, don't beat him to death.”

Mo Qingyun saw this and hurriedly spoke out to stop it.

At this time, the face of the King of Dongmeng had already swollen like a pig's head.

The man who brought David and the others couldn't help but laughed with his mouth covered.

Ashnu laughed fearlessly: “Hahaha, now you believe it, your face is swollen.”

Although the King of Dongmeng was very angry, he began to fear the strength of David and Hu Mazi in his heart.

Although the two people's realm is not high, their strength is too strong.

This is really a case of not judging a person by his appearance, and not measuring the sea by a bucket!

"Qingyun, where did you get to know these two masters?"

Lan Lianhua asked curiously!

"In Feihu City..." Mo Qingyun briefly recounted the incident.

After hearing this, Ashnu suddenly became excited, stepped forward and grabbed David's hand and said, "In Feihu City, you saved my daughter and my people, but you?"

"Your daughter?" David was stunned!

"My daughter is Ayisha..." Ashnu said!

David remembered it instantly and nodded, "Yes, I rescued them from Feihu City..."

"Benefactor, thank you so much..."

Ashnu said, and was about to kneel down to David.

David stretched out his hand and gently supported Ashnu, and Ashnu could no longer kneel down, which made Ashnu respect David even more.

A person so young, with only the strength of the first rank of the scattered fairyland, has an unfathomable strength.

When Lan Lianhua heard that David had rescued many people from Cang Xuan Continent from Feihu City, she was immediately grateful!

Chapter 5032

"Today, I will treat our distinguished guests from Cangxuan Continent well."

Blue Lotus said!

“Go to the floating island?” Mo Qingyun said!

“I knew you would definitely go there, I had already ordered people to prepare!”

Blue Lotus smiled

“Miss Mo, what is the floating island?”

David asked curiously!

“You will know when you go there, it is lovely.”

Mo Qingyun said!

Soon, everyone walked out of the hall, and Blue Lotus saw that there were three women outside the hall!

One of them was Huo Jingjing, who was being guarded by Hu Mazi’s two women!

In order to prevent Huo Jingjing, the arrogant guy, from self-destructing, David sealed the meridians in her body.

Huo Jingjing now is just like an ordinary person, and she can’t perform self-destruction.

“Who are these three?”

Blue Lotus asked curiously!

Mo Qingyun introduced them, but when she knew that Huo Jingjing was Huo Zhao’s daughter, Lan Lianhua’s eyes were filled with anger.

Huo Zhao led people to kill so many people in Cangxuan Continent and robbed so many resources. How could she not be angry?

But in front of David and others, Lan Lianhua couldn’t do anything to Huo Jingjing, after all, Huo Jingjing was captured by David and others.

And with Huo Jingjing, she could threaten Huo Zhao and not cause trouble for Cangxuan Continent.

Everyone flew towards the floating island!

Just as David and others were heading to the floating island, the Eighth Palace Master Huo Zhao led everyone from the Eighth Palace to the demon clan area.

Huo Zhao stopped in front of a blood-red city.

This is the territory of the Bone Erosion King. Huo Zhao looked at the blood-colored skeleton soldiers on the city wall, and waved his palm gently. In an instant, all the blood-colored skeleton soldiers turned into powder.

“Who dares to go wild in my Bone Erosion City?”

There was only an angry shout, and then a burly and intimidating demon cultivator appeared on the city wall.

Behind him, there were thousands of skeletons, each holding a scimitar, with red eyes, looking very scary.

“Stop yelling, and get down.”

Huo Zhao shouted coldly.

The Bone Erosion King trembled slightly when he saw this, and grinned, revealing his teeth with a cold glow: “It turns out to be the Eighth Palace Master of the Temple. I am sorry for not welcoming you from afar, I am sorry for not welcoming you from afar...”

The Bone Erosion King appeared in front of Huo Zhao in an instant, and the thousands of skeletons behind him seemed to disappear out of thin air.

“I wonder what the Eighth Palace Master has to say to me?”

The Bone Erosion King asked!

“You want our Palace Master to stand at the door and talk to you?” The Great Elder of the Eighth Palace frowned.

“Please, please come in...”

With the Bone Erosion King waving his hand, the city gate slowly opened!

Huo Zhao led the people of the Eighth Palace into the city.

If there was no other place to go, Huo Zhao would not come here. As a member of the God Clan, he looked down on this kind of magic cultivator the most.

Many demon cultivators like the Bone Erosion King rely on absorbing the Yin Sha Qi of the dead to cultivate, and some turn corpses into puppets, and even turn some skeletons into skeleton soldiers.

This kind of demon cultivator is the most despicable existence among the demons. As a proud god, they are not willing to deal with such people.

But now, Huo Zhao must use these people.

When he came to the main hall of the Bone Erosion City, Huo Zhao took the initiative to sit in the main seat, and the Bone Erosion King dared not fart.

He would not dare to offend the people in the temple even if he had a hundred courage.

“Bone Erosion King, if I ask you to attack the Cangxuan Continent, are you sure?”

Huo Zhao asked!

Huo Zhao can't attack the Cangxuan Continent by himself now, because his daughter is still in David's hands, but he can let others do it.

Huo Zhao felt uncomfortable without letting out this breath.

“Palace Master Huo, although my Bone Erosion City also has 100,000 brave soldiers, it is slightly inferior to the Cangxuan Continent.”

The Bone Erosion King said euphemistically!

“Then unite other people from the Demon Tribe, and people from the Beast Tribe are fine too, then you can divide up the resources of the Cang Xuan Continent.”

“And I can provide you with a million immortal stones for the Erosion Bone City, what do you think?”

Huo Zhao said!

Chapter 5033

“One million immortal stones?” The Bone Erosion King was stunned for a moment. After a while, he nodded repeatedly and said, “Okay, okay... I will contact someone and destroy the Cangxuan Continent.”

“Palace Master Huo, please rest here first. Let me find someone...”

“Go!” Huo Zhao waved his hand!

After the Bone Erosion King left, Master Huo looked at Huo Zhao and asked, “Father, where do we have one million immortal stones?”

If the Eight Palaces had one million immortal stones, they would not have to come to the First Heaven to plunder everywhere.

Huo Zhao said with a cold smile! Master

Huo nodded as if he had realized something!

Cangxuan Continent!

On a floating island, a waterfall falls like the Milky Way, and here there are birds singing and flowers blooming, just like a paradise on earth.

Mo Qingyun looked at the floating island in front of him and couldn’t help lying on the grass: “What I miss most in these years is this floating island.”

“You only miss this floating island, not me?” Lan Lianhua rolled her eyes and said!

“Yes, of course I miss you too!” Mo Qingyun smiled faintly.

On the floating island, Lan Lianhua had already ordered people to prepare spiritual fruit and fairy wine.

Everyone sat in a sea of flowers, surrounded by spiritual energy, cranes circling, like a paradise on earth.

“Come, fellow Daoist Chen, try our Cangxuan Continent’s unique ‘Nine-turn Spiritual Brew’, which is brewed with thousand-year-old spiritual fruits and is of great benefit to cultivation!”

Lan Lianhua smiled and raised the glass, his eyes full of enthusiasm.

David took the wine glass and took a sip gently. Suddenly, a warm spiritual power flowed into his limbs and bones, making him refreshed.

“Good wine!”

David exclaimed.

Hu Mazi had already gulped down the wine, his face intoxicated: “Hahaha, this is much better than the wine in the mortal world!”

Mo Qingyun leaned against a spiritual tree, looking at the waterfall in the distance, with nostalgia in his eyes: "When I was a child, I often came here to practice, and I always felt that this place had an indescribable mystery."

David's heart moved slightly when he heard this.

He looked around, and for some reason, he always felt that this floating island was a bit strange.

Although the spiritual energy on the island was rich, it did not seem to be formed naturally, but was deliberately gathered by some force.

What was even more strange was that when his divine sense was exploring, he faintly felt a faint fluctuation of the ban, as if something was hidden.

"Could it be... there is a secret on this island?" David thought to himself.

Just as he was thinking, the low voice of the Red Cloud Demon Lord suddenly came from the sea of consciousness:

"Boy, this place is not right."

David frowned and responded with divine sense: "What did the senior find?"

"This island... is not formed naturally."

The voice of the Red Cloud Demon Lord was solemn, "It should be an ancient relic, which was forcibly lifted into the air by a formation and disguised as an ordinary floating island."

"Relics?!" David was shocked.

"Yes, and the restrictions of this relic are so strong that even a peak Loose Immortal would find it difficult to break it by force."

The Red Cloud Demon Lord pondered, "If there is a chance, we can explore it and maybe find some good things."

David's eyes flickered, and he was about to ask again, when suddenly –

"Boom!!!"

A deafening sound came from the distant sky, and then the entire Cangxuan Continent shook violently!

"What's going on?!"

Lan Lianhua stood up suddenly, his face suddenly changed.

A cultivator from Cangxuan Continent hurriedly flew over, his face full of horror: "Report! The Bone Erosion King is leading many demon cultivators and is attacking our border formation!"

"What?!" Everyone was shocked.

"We have never had any grudges with the Bone Erosion City, why are they suddenly attacking us?"

"And the strength of the Bone Erosion City is not the opponent of my Cangxuan Continent at all."

Lan Lianhua said very puzzled!

Chapter 5034

Mo Qingyun's face was gloomy: "It must be Huo Zhao. It seems that the Eighth Palace Master is really unwilling to give up!"

David's eyes flashed coldly: "It seems that he wants to kill someone with a borrowed knife."

Lan Lianhua gritted her teeth and said: "Let's go! We will go to support immediately!"

Everyone stood up and prepared to leave the floating island.

David looked back at this mysterious floating island, feeling a little unwilling, but the situation was critical at the moment, so he could only give up the investigation temporarily.

"Wait until the demons are dealt with, and then come back to find out!" He thought to himself. However

, just as they were about to leave, a faint golden light flickered quietly in the depths of the floating island, as if responding to something...

David and his team rushed to the border of Cangxuan Continent, and at this time, tens of thousands of Cangxuan Continent cultivators had already gathered here!

The king of Dongmeng, the king of Chelie, and Ashnu, all led their people to resist the attack of the Bone Erosion King!

When David and his people arrived, they saw endless dark aura, surging, the void was filled with dark clouds, and the world was full of killing.

“Is this Bone Erosion King crazy? Why is he fighting with us?”

Ashnu was puzzled, holding a battle axe with both hands, waiting for the war to come.

Many cultivators in Cangxuan Continent also opened their eyes wide, held their breath, and held their weapons in their hands.

Although there were tens of thousands of cultivators on the battlefield, there was no sound at all. This atmosphere was very depressing. David was suspended in the air, looking at the darkness in front of him, and he even smelled a rotten smell.

The war was about to break out...

Cangxuan Continent had experienced the attack of Feihu City, the attack of the Eight Palaces, and now there was an attack of Bone Erosion City...

Every time, it was a heavy blow to Cangxuan Continent. The Cangxuan Continent, which originally had hundreds of thousands of cultivators, could only barely gather tens of thousands of people now.

The monks in Cangxuan Continent, feeling the breath of death around them, looked solemn, and some even began to tremble unconsciously.

Aisha was also in the crowd. Although she was a princess of a country, at the moment of the survival of the entire continent, even Xuannv had come forward, so what was she, a princess?

Rumble...

In the darkness, there was finally movement, the earth began to tremble, the terrifying breath in the distance was constantly rising, and the black fog was pouring in like a flood.

“Get ready...”

Lan Lianhua roared, and all the monks in Cangxuan Continent were ready!

David offered the Dragon Slaying Sword and looked at the black fog in front of him, which kept approaching, as if a huge black wave was about to swallow up the entire Cangxuan Continent.

Mo Qingyun and Hu Mazi were also ready. This battle was about the survival of Cangxuan Continent.

The black fog surged like a living thing, tearing the sky into a thick ink color.

David's dragon-slaying sword was burning in his palm, and the ancient runes engraved on the sword's spine were shining, as if warning of the impending disaster.

The mysterious golden light of the floating island had long been forgotten. At this moment, the fate of the entire Cangxuan Continent was hanging on this border that was about to be swallowed by the black fog.

"Your Majesty, the spiritual fluctuations of the northwest defense line have weakened!"

The voice of the Dongmeng State Master was trembling. The spirit-measuring plate in his hand was spinning wildly, and the pointer was almost poking a crack in the dial.

Che Wuji, the king of Chelie, clenched the gilded soft sword at his waist, and his knuckles turned white due to the force: "Pass the order, let the shield armor camp retreat three miles and form a tortoise shell formation!"

Before the voice fell, the ground suddenly cracked with spider web-like patterns, and a foul black liquid oozed out of the cracks, corroding the monks' robes and forming charred holes the moment it touched them.

Princess Aisha's silver armor glowed with a light blue defensive light, but her hand holding the spear trembled slightly.

Chapter 5035

The maid beside her wanted to wipe the cold sweat from her forehead, but as soon as she stretched out her hand, she was blown away by an invisible force and turned into a blood mist in the air.

"Hold on!"

The clear shout of Lan Lianhua was particularly harsh on the solemn battlefield. She turned her jade hands, and thirty-six blue lotus phantoms bloomed behind her, each of which was flowing with the glow of purifying demonic energy.

But even so, she couldn't hide the solemnity in her eyes – those blue lotus phantoms were fading at a speed visible to the naked eye under the erosion of the black fog.

“Roar—“

A creepy sound of bones rubbing against each other suddenly came from the black fog, and countless skeleton soldiers poured out like a tide.

These skeleton soldiers had green ghost fire jumping in their eye sockets, and strange black runes were wrapped around their bones. After being chopped into pieces, they could be quickly reassembled, and they were simply impossible to kill!

“Damn it! Why can’t these skeleton soldiers be killed?”

Hu Mazi smashed the skulls of three skeleton soldiers with one punch, but saw that the broken bones reassembled in the black fog and stood up again in the blink of an eye.

David frowned, and the Dragon Slaying Sword swept across, and dozens of skeleton soldiers shattered.

But in just a moment, the broken bones reassembled strangely.

“These skeleton soldiers are under the spell of immortality!” He suddenly remembered that the ultimate fire was the most suitable to deal with these skeleton soldiers, “You must use the ultimate fire to completely eliminate them!”

“Little Fire Kirin!”

As David shouted, a dazzling red light suddenly burst out from his shoulder.

A little Kirin with a red body and scales burning like flames jumped out of the storage ring and let out a deafening roar towards the sky.

“Roar——”

The little fire unicorn grew in the wind, and in the blink of an eye it turned into a ten-foot-tall flaming beast.

Wherever its four hooves stepped, the ground was ablaze with fire. As soon as the skeleton soldiers came into contact with the flames, they immediately let out a shrill scream. The black runes on their bones were burned and sizzled, and finally turned into ashes.

“Good job!”

Seeing this, Mo Qingyun immediately commanded the monks to form a battle formation and lead the skeleton soldiers to the range of the fire unicorn’s flames.

However, just when the situation improved slightly, a heart-pounding wave suddenly came from the depths of the black fog.

Twelve bone puppets a hundred feet high, slowly emerged from the fog, each of which was made up of the bones of thousands of monks, and green ghost fires were beating in their empty eye sockets.

The land under the feet of the bone puppets rotted inch by inch, and dense blood-red mushrooms grew wherever they passed. The mucus dripping from the umbrella cap corroded the ground into bottomless pits.

“The Yin soldiers of the Bone Erosion King!” The crowd burst into terrified screams.

Ashnu shouted, and the golden wind from the battle axe hit the arm of the bone puppet, but only left a white mark on the bone.

More bone puppets raised the bone knives in their hands, and the dark purple magic poison condensed on the blades. Before the blades arrived, the skin of the monks in the front row had begun to fester.

The defense line of Cangxuan Continent suddenly fell into chaos. The monks fought on their own, and the originally neat formation was broken into pieces.

The sword in Mo Qingyun’s hand formed layers of frost, freezing the lower bodies of the three bone puppets, but in a blink of an eye, the bone puppets broke the ice layer, and bone spurs grew again on the broken legs.

“This won’t work!”

David looked at the defense line that was constantly being compressed, and a chill rose in his heart.

He suddenly noticed that although the bone puppets moved slowly, they were always moving around a certain pattern. After observing carefully for a moment, his pupils shrank suddenly-these bone puppets were actually forming some kind of ancient magic formation!

At the center of the formation, the black fog condensed into a huge human face, which was the face of the Bone Erosion King covered with rotten pustules: “Cangxuan ants, today is your doom! Demonic Bone Devouring Heaven Formation, activate!”

In an instant, the twelve bone puppets roared at the same time, and the bone knives intertwined in the air to form a knife net that covered the sky.

All the blood mushrooms on the ground exploded, releasing a suffocating, poisonous fog.
