Chapter 5036

The monks of Cangxuan Continent struggled painfully in the poisonous fog, their defensive magic weapons exploded one after another, and screams came one after another.

The soft sword of the King of Chelie was cut off by the bone knife, and a deep wound was cut on his chest;

Aisha's spear was corroded and riddled with holes. She staggered and fell to the ground, and was almost trampled into meat by the bone puppet.

Lan Lianhua's Qinglian formation completely collapsed. She spat out a mouthful of blood, and at the moment she was swept away by the black fog, she threw a jade talisman towards David with all her strength.

The moment David caught the jade talisman, countless information flooded into his mind.

This is the ancient sword technique inherited by Lan Lianhua's master. It is necessary to use the essence and blood of the life force as a guide, and compress the whole body's spiritual power into a three-inch sword light to cut off all the demons in the world. But the price of using this sword is that it will drain the cultivator's vitality. Even if it succeeds, it will become a cripple.

"Let's fight!"

David bit his tongue and sprayed a mouthful of blood on the Dragon Slaying Sword. The sword body made a clear sound like a dragon's roar. The three-foot-long sword began to stretch continuously until it turned into a thousand-foot-long light blade. Wherever the sword energy passed, the space was cut into black gaps.

At the moment when the Demon Bone Devouring Heaven Formation was about to be completed, David leaped up, and the light blade slashed towards the center of the formation with the momentum of destroying the world.

The laughter of the Bone Erosion King stopped abruptly. He hurriedly condensed the magic energy to resist, but the moment he touched the sword light, his whole body began to crack inch by inch.

The twelve bone puppets exploded into a cloud of bone powder at the same time, but the Bone Erosion King at the center of the formation was a demon in the half-step Mahayana period after all. Even though he was seriously injured, he still had the strength to fight back.

His remaining arm suddenly swelled up and turned into a black giant claw, going straight for David's heart.

At the critical moment, David's Dragon Slashing Sword suddenly burst into colorful rays of light.

David roared majestically: "Little demon, how dare you be so presumptuous!"

A golden dragon shadow flew out of the sword and collided with the black giant claw.

The violent energy fluctuations flattened the area within a radius of 100 miles, and a huge sinkhole appeared on the ground.

When the smoke and dust dissipated, the figure of the Bone Erosion King had disappeared, leaving only a black token engraved with strange runes.

"Victory!"

The surviving monks cheered, but the cheers were soon interrupted by a new crisis.

The real army of the Bone Erosion City finally appeared, and the dense demon soldiers were like a black tide, drowning the entire sky.

What's more terrifying is that the skeleton soldiers who were burned to ashes by the Fire Kirin actually re-condensed in the black fog, and their number is several times more than before!

"How could this happen?"

Mo Qingyun's face was pale, and her spiritual power was almost gone.

David barely stood up with the Dragon Slaying Sword. His meridians were broken by the use of the ancient sword tactics, and even standing was a problem at this moment.

The flames on the little Fire Kirin also became dim due to excessive consumption.

The continuous consumption made David and the others a little bit unable to bear it.

At this moment of despair, the sky suddenly darkened.

A darkness deeper than the black fog enveloped the entire battlefield, and even the howling demon wind stopped.

“That is...” Hu Mazi widened his eyes and pointed at the sky.

A dark shadow slowly emerged above the clouds.

“Heaven Devouring Beast!” David was overjoyed!

He didn’t know when this little Heaven Devouring Beast, who only knew how to sleep all day, came out.

With the addition of this Heaven Devouring Beast, David was relieved, after all, this guy could devour everything.

“Swallow them for me, swallow all these demons.” David commanded the little Heaven Devouring Beast.

But who knew that the little Heaven Devouring Beast just looked at David and didn’t make any move at all.

“Boy, this Heaven Devouring Beast is my mount, not yours. Can it listen to you when you command it?”

“And you have to respect it. It’s not your dog that you can order around.”

The voice of the Red Cloud Demon Lord sounded in David’s mind, expressing his dissatisfaction with David.

Chapter 5037

David was stunned, and quickly changed his face, and said to the little Sky-Swallowing Beast with a smile: “Brother Sky-Swallowing Beast, please help me and swallow all these demons!”

Unexpectedly, after David’s words, the little Sky-Swallowing Beast really opened its huge mouth that was big enough to swallow mountains, and sucked the skeleton soldiers in the sky!

“Hu——”

The terrifying suction force formed a black whirlwind, and tens of thousands of skeleton soldiers were involved.

Without even a chance to struggle, they were swallowed into the bottomless pit-like giant mouth.

What was even more shocking was that the immortal curse on those skeleton soldiers was completely melted in the belly of the Sky-Swallowing Beast, and could never be reassembled again.

With the addition of the Fire Kirin and the Sky-Swallowing Beast, the battle situation was reversed in an instant.

The little Fire Kirin was greatly inspired, and the flames on his body became vigorous again, forming a tacit cooperation with the Sky-Swallowing Beast. The Fire Kirin is responsible for burning the demon soldiers on the ground, while the Sky Devouring Beast specializes in devouring the skeleton army in the air.

“It’s time to fight back!” David endured the severe pain and raised the Dragon Slaying Sword, “Follow me to kill!”

“Kill!”

With David’s roar, the monks of Cangxuan Continent rekindled their fighting spirit.

They formed a new battle formation and fought a desperate battle with the demon soldiers.

In the sky, sword energy and demon energy intertwined, and the light of the magic weapon danced with the blood rain.

David shuttled through the crowd, and each sword could take the lives of several demon soldiers.

His clothes were already soaked in blood, but his eyes became more and more fierce, as if he was a god of war returning from hell.

This tragic battle lasted for three full days and three nights.

When the last demon soldier fell, the morning sun finally pierced through the dark clouds, casting golden light on the devastated land.

Cangxuan Continent was saved once again!

Lan Lianhua was very grateful to David. If it weren't for David, Cangxuan Continent would have been finished long ago!

was finished when the Eight Palaces attacked.

"Fellow Daoist Chen, thank you so much, it's a pity that we don't have any resources to show for our Cangxuan Continent."

Lan Lianhua said embarrassedly when she saw David's weak appearance.

"It's just a little effort. My body only needs a few days of recuperation and it will be fine!"

David smiled slightly.

With the Demon Suppression Tower, David only needs to enter the tower to practice, even for a few hours, and he can recover quickly.

After settling everything, David took Hu Mazi into the Demon Suppression Tower.

This time, Hu Mazi also consumed a lot.

The two stayed in the Demon Suppression Tower for a day, and they became full of energy and recovered as before!

When Lan Lianhua saw David, she was also shocked!

However, Mo Qingyun was not surprised. She had stayed in David's Demon Suppression Tower and knew how powerful the Demon Suppression Tower was.

"Fellow Daoist Chen, you...you recovered as before in just one day, it's amazing."

Lan Lianhua's eyes were full of disbelief.

David just smiled slightly, and then asked: "Xuan Nu, can I ask, how did the floating island of Cang Xuan Continent float from above?"

Lan Lianhua shook her head: "I don't know either. When I took over Cang Xuan Continent, the floating island existed. It seems to have existed for many, many years. No one can remember how many years it has been."

"Do you like the environment of the floating island, fellow Daoist Chen? You can live on the floating island forever. You are the benefactor of our Cang Xuan Continent. Even if you live on the island forever, no one will be dissatisfied."

"No, no, no, I'm just curious, not wanting to live on it?" David waved his hands repeatedly.

David just wanted to explore the floating island. If this floating island is really a relic of civilization, then he would make a fortune!

However, it seems that Cang Xuan Continent did not know that this floating island is a relic. Now David is just guessing. Chiyun Demon Lord said it was a relic, and it must be explored.

At this time, a cultivator hurried over and said to Lan Lianhua: "Xuan Nu, that Huo Jingjing refused to eat. She wants to go on a hunger strike..."

Chapter 5038

"She is a cultivator, and fasting won't kill her, so don't worry about her!" Lan Lianhua said!

Cultivators don't need to eat, so they won't die from fasting.

But David said, "I have sealed her meridians. She is just an ordinary person now. If she doesn't eat, she will starve to death in no time."

"I'll go and see what she wants to do..." Chen

Ping decided to go and see what Huo Jingjing wanted to do.

"David, why don't I go and feed her soy milk..." Hu Mazi laughed!

David rolled his eyes at Hu Mazi and turned away.

Huo Jingjing is Huo Zhao's daughter, and David still has to use Huo Jingjing to threaten Huo Zhao not to mess around.

When David has enough ability to destroy the Eight Palaces with a wave of his hand, Huo Jingjing will be useless.

Arriving at a dungeon, after passing through layers of formations, David finally saw Huo Jingjing.

Huo Jingjing was still wearing the tights, but her hair was messy and she looked much more haggard.

Seeing David coming, Huo Jingjing's eyes were full of anger.

If David hadn't caught her and sealed his meridians, she wouldn't have been so embarrassed.

"You either let me go or kill me, but I still advise you to kill me, because once I leave, I will kill you at all costs."

Huo Jingjing glared at David and said!

"Even if I let you go, you are not my opponent. Your father was defeated by me, so what can you use to kill me?"

David smiled faintly.

Huo Jingjing was silent, because she knew that what David said was the truth.

"Since I can't kill you, then I will starve myself to death. As a member of the God Clan, I can die, but I will never tolerate being imprisoned by you."

Huo Jingjing's face was full of determination.

"You gods just like to deceive yourselves. You are just humans, but you feel that you are very noble and insist on saying that you are some kind of gods."

"Don't you think this is ridiculous?"

David's eyes were full of disdain for the Gods.

"You dare to blaspheme our Gods, you deserve to die..." Huo Jingjing was furious:
"How can you compare the lowly human race with our Gods?"

"We are a thousand times, ten thousand times nobler than the human race..."

"Bah, the Gods are ten thousand times nobler than the human race, how can you be so shameless? If the human race has a child with your Gods women, is the child noble?"
David said with a spit!

"Humph, how can the women of our Gods have children with the lowly men of the human race? Dream on!" Huo Jingjing snorted coldly.

"Okay, then today I will let you taste the power of lowly men!" After David finished speaking, he pounced on him!

"What are you going to do? Let me go, you hooligan, beast..." Huo Jingjing was scared and struggled desperately!

But how could she stop David's madness.

In this way, Huo Jingjing was tossed around for a day and a night, and the whole person was about to fall apart.

David stood up, looked at the motionless Huo Jingjing, and smiled coldly: "Are you still arrogant? You are still screaming the same way. What's the difference between you?"

Huo Jingjing said nothing, and the whole person was sluggish.

Coming out of the dungeon, David met Hu Mazi who was waiting for him!

"Master Hu, what are you doing here?" David asked curiously!

"David, you are too mean. I have been standing here for a day and a night, listening to that woman screaming for a day and a night."

"You kid, such a good thing, you didn't call me, I'm angry..."

Hu Mazi pretended to be angry and said!

"Master Hu, don't you have two women? At your age, you don't have to bite off more than you can chew."

David patted Hu Mazi on the shoulder.

"You guy, relying on your youth, you can't fight hard. But your kung fu is good enough, can you teach me a few tricks?"

Hu Mazi smiled.

"I'll have time. I have other things to do!"

David said, turned around and left.

"Tsk, if you don't want to teach me, then don't teach me. I'm going to play with those two beauties..."

Hu Mazi rolled his eyes, then turned around and left!

David knew that he had found Mo Qingyun. He hoped that Mo Qingyun could talk to Lan Lianhua and then go to the floating island again.

“Fellow Daoist Chen, don’t follow her. If you want to go to the floating island, I’ll take you there.”

“I can be half the master of this Cangxuan Continent...”

Mo Qingyun said with a smile!

She has lived here for many years, so she is very familiar with the floating island.

“Okay then!” David nodded!

Mo Qingyun took David and jumped up directly and went straight to the floating island.

It only took a dozen minutes for the two of them to arrive on the floating island.

The island is still as beautiful as ever, but no one can go to the island without the permission of Lan Lianhua.

“Daoyou Chen, if you like, you can live here forever. The fairy air here is much richer than other places.”

Mo Qingyun said!

“Miss Mo, have you lived on this floating island for many years?” David asked!

“Yes, I have lived here for many years. I like the environment here.” Mo Qingyun nodded!

“Then do you feel that this floating island is a little different, or strange?”

David asked!

Mo Qingyun thought for a while, then shook his head: “No, isn’t this just a floating island? Is there anything special?”

“Such a large island can be suspended in the air, which proves that it is not normal.”

“This island is likely to be lifted into the air by a huge formation, not formed naturally.”

David said his guess.

“Impossible, such a large island, how big a formation is needed?”

“And such a huge formation, the consumption of the formation is huge, and this floating island has existed for tens of thousands of years, how could it be held up by the formation.”

Mo Qingyun didn't believe it at all.

She didn't believe that someone could set up such a huge formation, nor did she believe that the formation could run smoothly for so many years.

Seeing that Mo Qingyun didn't believe it, David didn't say anything else, but began to look for evidence of the existence of the formation on this floating island!

David didn't explain any more, but began to explore the floating island carefully.

He gathered spiritual power on his fingertips, gently stroked the ground, and felt the breath flow of every inch of land.

Mo Qingyun stood aside with his arms folded, with some doubt in his eyes: "Fellow Daoist Chen, you don't really think this island is held up by the formation, right?"

David didn't answer, but suddenly stopped in front of an inconspicuous rock.

He squatted down, pressed his palm on the stone surface, and closed his eyes to sense it.

"Strange..." He frowned slightly, "The spiritual power fluctuations here seem to be deliberately guided by some kind of power."

Seeing his serious expression, Mo Qingyun couldn't help but move closer: "What did you find?"

David scratched with his fingertips, and the moss on the surface of the rock was peeled off, revealing an ancient rune underneath.

The rune was dim, but it faintly revealed a vicissitudes of life.

"Is this... an ancient array pattern?" Mo Qingyun's pupils shrank, and he finally believed it.

"Not just this one." David stood up and looked around, "The spiritual power of the entire island's veins is guided by these runes, forming a huge supporting array."

Mo Qingyun was shocked: "But this array has been running for so many years, where does the energy come from?"

David did not answer, but walked all the way to the center of the island in the direction indicated by the rune.

Seeing this, Mo Qingyun hurried to catch up.

The two came to a clear lake in the center of the island. The lake water was clear and the bottom was visible, but it was bottomless.

“The center of the array should be at the bottom of the lake.” David said in a deep voice.

“You want to go down?” Mo Qingyun hesitated. “This lake looks peaceful, but who knows what’s underneath?”

Chapter 5040

David smiled: “Miss Mo, if you don’t dare, you can wait here.”

“Who, who doesn’t dare!” Mo Qingyun gritted his teeth, “I’ll go with you!”

The two jumped into the lake. The lake water was icy cold, but it was no problem for cultivators of their level.

After diving for dozens of feet, a huge stone platform gradually emerged from the bottom of the lake. The stone platform was engraved with dense array patterns, and in the center was a fist-sized blue crystal, emitting a faint light.

“Is this... ‘Heavenly Crystal’?” Mo Qingyun exclaimed, “The legendary divine object that can support the power of heaven and earth!”

David’s eyes were solemn: “So that’s it. This large array is based on the Heavenly Crystal as the core, and supplemented by the spiritual power of the earth veins, so that it can last for ten thousand years.”

He swam closer to the stone platform and carefully observed the array patterns. Suddenly, he found that several of the runes seemed to have been artificially modified.

“No...” He whispered, “This formation has been tampered with, and it seems... there is another restriction hidden!”

Mo Qingyun was stunned: “What do you mean?”

Before David could explain, the formation pattern on the stone platform suddenly lit up with a dazzling light, and the Sky Crystal trembled violently!

“Not good!” David grabbed Mo Qingyun, “Quickly retreat!”

However, it was too late. A terrifying suction suddenly erupted from the bottom of the lake, and the two of them were instantly pulled towards the stone platform!

“David! What’s going on?” Mo Qingyun shouted in panic.

“The formation has been triggered!” David gritted his teeth and tried to break free, but the suction was too strong. In the blink of an eye, the two of them were swallowed into a sudden space crack!

The world was spinning in front of them, and when they came to their senses, they were already in a strange ruin.

There were broken stone pillars and collapsed palaces all around, and the air was filled with an ancient and decayed atmosphere.

Not far away, a stone pillar that was ten thousand feet high broke through the sky, and there were many runes carved on the stone pillar.

Behind the stone pillar was a mountain, which seemed to be split in half and carved into two statues of evil spirits.

“Who could be so generous as to carve the entire mountain?”

Seeing the scene in front of him, Mo Qingyun was shocked.

David did not speak, but stared at the two evil ghost statues with his eyes. His heart suddenly sank, as if something suddenly pinched him and suffocated him.

David was shocked and retreated repeatedly, and shouted: “Back off, back off quickly...”

“Chen Daoyou, what’s wrong with you?” Mo Qingyun looked at a loss!

She didn’t understand why David suddenly became like this.

David was stunned when he saw that Mo Qingyun was fine, and at this moment, the suffocation he had just felt disappeared.

“Is it because I am too nervous?”

David took a long breath and looked at the two evil ghost statues again.

He knew that the ancients could not be so bored and carved the mountains casually. These two evil ghost statues must have some intention.

But after looking at it twice, David's heart tightened again, and the suffocation seemed to come again.

"Break it for me..."

This time, David did not retreat again, but held the Dragon Slaying Sword and slashed forward.

He wanted to get rid of this feeling that made him terrified!

But no matter how David released the aura in his body, the feeling of suffocation and fear could not be eliminated.

David closed his eyes slightly and began to chant the Calming Mantra. He had to calm himself down first.

This feeling of fear would lead to many of his wrong judgments.

David didn't understand why Mo Qingyun was fine, but he had this feeling?

As the Calming Mantra was chanted continuously, the fear in David's heart gradually disappeared, and he finally calmed down!

David opened his eyes and looked around, not daring to look directly at the two evil ghost statues.

The sky here was gray, and the sun and moon were not visible, as if isolated by some kind of power.

Mo Qingyun looked at David nervously and asked, "Fellow Daoist Chen, where... are we?"
