Chapter 5041

David took a deep breath and said in a deep voice: “We should have been sucked into the ancient ruins... Here, I’m afraid, is the real secret of the floating island.”

Mo Qingyun swallowed his saliva: “Then... can we still get out?”

Mo Qingyun was scared. If he couldn’t get out, wouldn’t it be troublesome? Looking at the eerie and scary place,

David didn’t answer, but looked into the depths of the ruins, where a low roar was faintly heard, as if something was waking up...

At this time, a white light suddenly appeared, and David and Mo Qingyun were startled.

As the white light dissipated, a man in green slowly appeared. This man was three feet tall, with a big knife on his back, and the aura on his body was very strong.

After the man appeared, he was stunned when he saw David and Mo Qingyun for the first time.

He looked at David and the two of them with a look of disbelief on his face.

“How did you get here? Such a low realm?”

The man in green asked in confusion!

David also took a look at the man in green and found that he was actually a fifth-grade cultivator in the realm of scattered immortals, which puzzled David.

According to the saying, a fifth-grade cultivator in the realm of scattered immortals would not stay in the first heaven, and there are very few such masters in the first heaven.

But the man in green in front of him is actually a fifth-grade cultivator in the realm of scattered immortals.

No wonder the man said that David and his friends were at a low realm.

David was only a first-grade cultivator in the realm of scattered immortals, and Mo Qingyun was only a third-grade cultivator in the realm of scattered immortals.

“My fellow Taoist, can’t you come here if your realm is low?”

David asked!

“That’s not the case. I’m just curious. How did you, a first-grade cultivator in the realm of scattered immortals, reach the second heaven?”

The man in green asked curiously!

“Second Heaven?” David was confused: “I didn’t go to the Second Heaven, I was in the First Heaven...”

“Impossible, the entrance to this relic is in the Tianxuan Cave Mansion of the Second Heaven, how can you come here from the First Heaven?”

The man in green didn’t believe what David said at all.

David couldn’t figure out what was going on. Just as he was about to explain, he saw the void in front of him tremble!

A man in white broke through the air.

The man in white held a folding fan in his hand, and exuded a strong aura, causing the surrounding void to tremble.

David saw that the man in white was not weaker than the man in gray.

As soon as the man in white appeared, the man in gray frowned and cursed, “Damn it, you’re never done...”

After that, the big knife behind the man in gray was pulled out and chopped directly at the man in white.

This knife instantly cut out a thousand-foot blade light, and terrible shock waves continued to hit the surrounding void.

Seeing this, David pulled Mo Qingyun’s hand and kept backing away to avoid being affected by the shock wave.

Although David didn’t understand why the two men fought as soon as they met.

But David had nothing to do with them, so he didn’t want to be affected by them.

Mo Qingyun's hand, white, tender, and soft as if boneless, was held in David's hand.

David did not react, but Mo Qingyun looked at David and her face turned red.

It was the first time for her to be held by a man's hand.

And it was a man she liked in her heart.

David did not pay attention to Mo Qingyun's reaction at all. He held the Dragon Slaying Sword and released sword intent to block the waves of shock waves.

Mo Qingyun stood behind David and watched David trying to help him block those shock waves!

At this moment, David's figure became taller in Mo Qingyun's eyes.

Mo Qingyun unconsciously leaned his head on David's shoulder.

David felt something was wrong, but he just took a look and did not say anything. After all, the two men in front of him were fighting fiercely, and the surrounding void seemed to be collapsing.

David had to try his best to block the shock waves from the two men, otherwise the two men would be fine fighting, but he and Mo Qingyun would suffer.

Chapter 5042

David protected Mo Qingyun and watched the two men fighting in front of him!

The strength of the man in white and the man in green was evenly matched, and neither of them could gain an advantage.

After a hundred moves, the two men swung out a palm at the same time, and their figures suddenly separated by a hundred feet. A terrible force continued to hit David and the others.

However, David found that when the shock wave swung towards the evil ghost statue on the other side, it disappeared instantly in mid-air.

With such a terrifying force, if it were an ordinary stone mountain, it would have turned into powder at this moment.

And the pillar that reached the sky also stood steadily, and was not affected by the two men at all. Boom

The two men who had just separated collided with each other again. It seemed that the two men had a mortal feud and would never give up until one of them was defeated.

Beside the two men, time and space became distorted.

“Both of you, please give me some face and stop fighting...”

David really couldn't bear it any longer, and swung the Dragon Slaying Sword in his hand.

A terrifying sword light slashed towards the two people.

The two people were shocked and hurriedly separated to avoid the sword light.

Both of them looked at David in shock, with incredible eyes.

If they were fighting like this, if it were other Sanxian Realm 1st Grade, they would have been affected long ago and would have bled to death.

But now, David was not only fine, but also separated the two of them with a sword.

Seeing the two people separated, David took Mo Qingyun and walked towards the two people!

“Don't fight anymore? I said, give me some face, after all, you come here to seek wealth, why bother to fight and kill.”

David persuaded the two people.

“Who are you?” The man in green asked David!

“Didn't I say, a person seeking wealth...”

David smiled faintly.

“You are a first-grade scattered fairyland, but you have such strength. Are you the reclusive pride of Tianyuan Pavilion?”

The man in white frowned and asked David!

David didn't know what Tianyuan Pavilion was at all, so he shook his head and said, "I said, I'm here to seek wealth, not from Tianyuan Pavilion."

"You two, I'm the eldest lady of the Mo family, Mo Qingyun..."

Mo Qingyun took the initiative to mention her identity with the two of them.

"So you are from the Mo family?" The man in green was obviously stunned!

The man in white bowed and said, "So you are the eldest lady of the Mo family, I'm sorry..."

"Okay, it's fate that we can come to this relic at the same time. Let's see if there is any danger in this relic."

"If there is danger, we still have to work together. If there is any grudge, let's leave here first."

David persuaded the two!

Neither of them spoke, and it was also David's sword just now that stunned the two people.

If David hadn't shown his skills, it would be a joke for him, a person of the first level of the Sanxian realm, to try to persuade two fifth-level monks of the Sanxian realm.

If not, the two would have taught him a lesson long ago.

If you want to mediate and make people listen to you, you must have real skills and knowledge.

Seeing that the two did not speak, David stopped caring and slowly walked towards the two evil ghost statues.

The closer he got, the stronger the feeling of depression and fear in David's heart became.

However, looking at Mo Qingyun beside him, it seemed that he had no reaction. David didn't know if he was the only one who felt this way.

Suppressing the fear in his heart, David took Mo Qingyun to the foot of the two evil ghost statues.

Compared with the two evil ghosts, David and Mo Qingyun were as small as an ant.

David saw that under a statue of an evil ghost, there was a stone door with mysterious runes carved on it.

The two men also followed David to the statue at this moment, and the two stood behind David!

Chapter 5043

“What a strange rune...”

David stepped forward and gently stroked the stone door, but the stone door did not change at all.

Suddenly, the man in white took a folding fan in his hand, jumped high, and waved the folding fan in his hand.

Boom!

A huge force went towards the stone door, which was to force the stone door open. After all, none of them understood the formation, let alone the runes on the stone door.

In this case, only violent breaking is the kingly way.

But at the moment when the terrifying force touched the stone door, the man in white's face changed, and the next moment he was knocked out by the huge recoil force! The earth began to tremble, and blood slowly seeped from the corners of the man in white's mouth.

“It's what you deserve...” The man in green laughed in a low voice.

David looked at the stone door in front of him in disbelief. He did not expect that the magic array on the stone door would be so powerful. He could block the attack of a fifth-grade cultivator in the Sanxian Realm, and even injured the opponent.

The man in white walked to the stone door again with a serious face, and did not act rashly this time.

“Can you break the array on the stone door?”

Mo Qingyun asked David!

In Mo Qingyun's eyes, David should be an omnipotent existence.

"Of course, there is no array in the world that I can't break."

David smiled lightly.

"Pretending..." The man in white glanced at David.

It can be seen that the man in white is also an arrogant person. He was repelled by the stone door and injured when he attacked just now, so David's words directly hit his self-esteem.

David smiled coldly, and just as he was about to break the array on the stone door, he suddenly felt a terrifying breath coming towards him.

Then a huge firebird slowly cut through the void!

With the appearance of the firebird, everyone was slightly surprised!

On the firebird stood a man in gorgeous clothes. His makeup was very seductive, and he looked neither male nor female.

Next to the man, there was a woman in underwear, crawling at the man's feet.

David looked at the firebird in surprise. It was so big, and I don't know how many times bigger it was than his fire unicorn.

"Tianci, the hidden pride of Tianyuan Pavilion?" The man in green saw this and breathed a little fast.

Mo Qingyun frowned, his expression became a little strange, and he quietly stood behind David!

The firebird slowly landed, and the hot flames burned and distorted the surrounding air.

Tianci gently stroked the long hair of the woman next to him, and his eyes swept through the crowd, and finally stopped at Mo Qingyun hiding behind David, with a flash of surprise in his eyes.

"Sister Qingyun, why are you here too?" Tianci's voice was a little feminine, "I heard that you went to the First Heaven, and I was planning to go there to find you?"

Seeing this, the man in green bowed and saluted: "Mr. Tianci, I have heard of your name for a long time!"

Tianci didn't even look at him, but just waved his hand casually, motioning him to leave.

The man in white stood there coldly, without saluting, and even had a hint of disdain in his eyes.

Tianci's eyes slowly moved to him, and his eyebrows raised slightly: "Why, you don't know me?"

The man in white said lightly: "So what if I know you?"

"Heh..."

Tianci chuckled, and suddenly raised his hand, and a cold light flashed at his fingertips!

"Puff!"

The man in white's eyebrows were instantly pierced, and blood gushed out. He didn't even have time to react, and fell straight down.

The fifth-grade scattered fairyland was killed instantly by the third-grade scattered fairyland!

David's pupils shrank suddenly, and he was extremely shocked: "This guy's strength... is far beyond the realm!"

The man in green was sweating profusely, fortunately he had just greeted him.

Tianci retracted his hand, as if he had just crushed an ant to death: "Pretending in front of me is courting death."

After saying that, he turned his gaze to David again: "What about you? You don't recognize me either?"

Chapter 5044

David immediately clasped his fists and showed a respectful look: "Young Master Tianci is famous, how could I not know him? It's just that I just arrived and I didn't react for a while."

As the saying goes, a good man will not suffer a loss in front of him. Now the strength shown by Tianci is obviously beyond common sense, and he can also fight against opponents of higher levels, so David needs to be more cautious.

When he doesn't know the opponent's strength, David feels that it is better to develop slowly.

Tianci nodded with satisfaction, then looked at Mo Qingyun, and said with a creepy smile: "Sister Qingyun, you came back from the first heaven without telling me, how did you get here?"

Mo Qingyun was also shocked by Tianci's behavior just now. This guy kills people when he is unhappy. It's too rampant. Mo

Qingyun bit her lip and whispered, "I... I came here from the First Heaven."

"First Heaven?" Tianci sneered, "Sister Qingyun really likes to joke. How could there be an entrance to this ruins in the First Heaven?"

"We..." Mo Qingyun wanted to emphasize that he came from the First Heaven, but was stopped by David.

"Master Tianci, we are just curious and came here to take a look and see if we can find some treasures."

David didn't want people to know that there was an entrance in the First Heaven.

If that were the case, Cangxuan Continent would be in danger. At that time, many cultivators from the Second Heaven would definitely run to the Cangxuan Continent in the First Heaven.

"Who are you? Why are you with Sister Qingyun?"

Tianci's face turned cold and he questioned David!

"I....."

David didn't know how to answer about his relationship with Mo Qingyun.

"Brother Tianci, who is the woman next to you?" Mo Qingyun hurriedly spoke up and changed the subject.

She was afraid that Tianci would be bad for David.

"Oh, this is just a maid who serves me. Sister Qingyun doesn't like her, so let her go."

Tianci smiled slightly and slapped the woman next to him.

This palm directly killed the woman, her head exploded.

Mo Qingyun was so scared that his body trembled slightly, and his face turned pale.

David was also stunned, with a solemn and fearful look in his eyes.

It is not terrible to deal with a master, but it is the most headache to deal with such a madman.

The man in green was almost scared to pee at this moment.

“Who are you to sister Qingyun?”

After killing the woman, Tianci did not give up questioning David!

“Brother Tianci, he is one of my servants. I saw that he was of humble origin and low realm, so I thought of letting him be a servant to help me get things.”

Mo Qingyun hurriedly followed Tianci and said.

Tianci looked at David and said with a chuckle: “A first-grade cultivator in the scattered immortal realm can actually come to the second heaven. It seems that you have some skills.”

“Do you have any identity?”

David hurriedly shook his head and said: “I was born in poverty and lived in the first heaven. I don’t know why a black hole suddenly sucked me away and then appeared in the second heaven.”

“Compared with Master Tianci, I am only worthy of being a servant...”

Listening to David’s words, Tianci was very pleased and smiled faintly: “The time and space of this and the second heavens are indeed often distorted, and some black holes appear. It seems that you are unlucky enough. If it weren’t for my sister Qingyun’s kindness, you would have died long ago.”

“A first-grade cultivator in the scattered immortal realm also wants to live in the second heaven. That’s simply a foolish dream...”

The man in green clothes on the side said nothing. Although he didn’t know David’s identity, he knew that David was not as incompetent as he said.

Just now, he saw with his own eyes how powerful David’s sword was.

Moreover, David is only at the level of a scattered immortal. If David is promoted to the third level of the scattered immortal, I am afraid that his explosive power will be only slightly stronger than this heavenly gift.

Chapter 5045

“Mr. Tianci is so right. I am just lucky to be saved by Miss Mo.”

David said with a flattering smile!

“Brother Tianci, can you open this stone door?”

Mo Qingyun asked Tianci.

“Of course, a small stone door can’t block my way!”

Tianci smiled coldly, and then walked to the stone door. No one said any nonsense, and a short black blade suddenly appeared in his hand.

Ding!

A cold light instantly sank into the stone door, but the stone door did not change at all.

Then, a terrifying force attacked, and Tianci was unable to dodge and was forced to retreat a hundred feet away.

Seeing this scene, everyone was shocked!

Even Tianci couldn’t shake the stone door at all!

David looked carefully at the runes on the stone door. These runes were very special. Just now, when the power rebounded, the runes on it seemed to be alive, with different changes, which exuded a terrifying power.

David’s expression became solemn. It seems that this relic is not so easy to explore.

Tianci was shocked and felt embarrassed. He walked over with a gloomy face.

Looking at the stone door in front of him, he gently stroked it with his hand, but the stone door did not react.

“It seems that the formation on this stone door is very powerful. We need to let Elder Tong of Tianyuan Pavilion take a look. He has studied the formation.”

Tianci said lightly!

David did not speak. In fact, if he was given time, he could also break the stone door. Although the formation on it was special, it was not difficult for David to find the eye of the formation and then break it.

It's just that he is only in the first level of the scattered fairyland now, so it is impossible to expose too much strength in front of others.

I am a first-level scattered fairyland, and I also know the art of formation. Tianci will inevitably target me.

Now David has to disguise himself as a small waste to paralyze the nerves of Tianci.

If there are any treasures in the ruins, David can take them away unexpectedly.

But if Tianci was on guard against David, it would not be easy.

Tianci took out a token and crushed it with force!

While crushing the token, a drop of blood was forced out by Tianci, and this drop of blood continued to spread in the air, and finally became a blood mist.

Soon, the void in the blood mist began to tremble.

Then an old man with white hair slowly showed his figure and walked out of the blood mist.

This old man was Elder Tong of Tianyuan Pavilion.

"Tianci, what do you want to talk to me about? I'm playing chess with the Pavilion Master."

Elder Tong said.

"Elder Tong, I came to the ruins to stroll around, but there is a formation on this stone door, and I can't break it."

"I know Elder Tong is good at the art of formation, so I want to ask Elder Tong for help to open this stone door."

Tianci said to Elder Tong!

Tianci was much more polite to Elder Tong, and he didn't look arrogant at all.

Elder Tong nodded slightly, then walked to the stone gate, and then carefully studied the runes on the stone gate.

Elder Tong waved his hand, and a light curtain appeared, and then the runes on the stone gate were all reflected on the light curtain.

As Elder Tong's fingers kept moving, the runes on the light curtain began to jump, and then kept changing their positions!

David knew at a glance that Elder Tong was looking for the center of the formation.

If you want to break this ancient formation by force, you must have enough strength. If you break the formation and find the center of the formation, it will be much easier.

David watched quietly, and this method of finding the center of the formation made David feel a little curious.

"This formation is really tricky!"

Elder Tong frowned slightly, and the light curtain slowly disappeared.

Then above the stone gate, a mysterious circular light and shadow kept rotating, and a mysterious force seemed to be gathering.
